CHAPTER I.

ELECTION, QUALIFICATIONS AND DUTIES OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

§ 7544. [6513.] Election of.

The qualified electors of each election precinct in this state shall, at the next general election, and biennially thereafter, elect one or more justices of the peace as hereinafter provided. [L. '54, p. 222, § 1; Cd. '81, § 1689; L. '88, p. 120, § 1; 1 H. C., § 299.]

See supra, § 4028, tenure of office.

See supra, § 1864, schedule of fees.

See infra, § 7571, salaries in incorporated cities and towns.

§ 7545. [6514.] Number of.

Each election precinct shall be entitled to elect one justice of the peace, but the county commissioners of any county may, at the time of organizing a precinct, or at any time thereafter, authorize the election of one additional justice of the peace in any precinct. [L. '54, p. 222, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1690; L. '88, p. 120, § 2; 1 H. C., § 300.]

§ 7546. [6515.] Qualifications, etc.—Disqualification.

The qualifications, terms of office, duties, powers, and jurisdiction of justices of the peace shall be as now provided by law, except that no justice of the peace shall hereafter have jurisdiction of any action brought to enforce or collect any claim or demand which said justice had, in any manner, attempted to collect as agent or otherwise. [L. '88, p. 120, § 4; 1 H. C., § 302.]

See supra, § 44, jurisdiction, etc., of justices.

See infra, § 7564, in first class cities.

See infra, § 11463, disqualification in township cases.

§ 7547. [6516.] Who Eligible.

No person shall be eligible to the office of justice of the peace who is not a qualified voter, and who has not been a resident of the county in which he is elected six months next preceding his election; nor shall any sheriff, coroner, or clerk of the superior court be eligible to or hold such office. [L. '54, p. 223, § 3; Cd '81, § 1691; 1 H. C., § 303.]

§ 7548. [6517.] Conduct of Election—Certificate of.

The election of justice of the peace shall be conducted, and return of such election made, in the same manner as other elections; and every person duly elected shall be entitled to a certificate of election, and shall take an oath of office; which oath shall be indorsed on the back of the certificate of election, and together with the certificate, filed in the office of the county auditor. [L. '54, p. 223, § 4; Cd. '81, § 1692; 1 H. C., § 304.]

§ 7549. [6518.] Bond—Form.

Every person elected a justice of the peace shall, at the time of filing his oath of office in the office of the county auditor, enter into a bond with the board of commissioners of the proper county, with two or more sureties, residents of the county, to be approved by the said auditor, in the sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully pay over, according to law, all moneys which shall come into his hands by virtue of his office as justice of the peace. Said bond may be in the following form:—

Know all men by these presents, that we, J P, A B, and C D, are held and firmly bound unto the board of county commissioners of the county of —, in the state of Washington, in the sum of five hundred dollars, for the payment of which we jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators.

Sealed with our seals; dated this — day of —, A. D. 18—.

Whereas, the said J P has been duly elected a justice of the peace in and for the precinct of —, in the county of —, —, A. D. 18—. Now the condition of the above obligation is such, that if the said J P shall faithfully pay over, according to law, all moneys which shall come into his hands by virtue of his office as justice of the peace, then this obligation shall be void, otherwise in full force.

J P [L. S.]

A B [L. S.]

C D [L. S.]

§ 7550. [6519.] Bond to be Filed—Action and Judgment upon.

Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk, and every person aggrieved by a breach of the condition thereof may, by an action upon the bond, have judgment against the justice and his sureties for such sum as he may show himself entitled to, with costs, and interest at the rate of twenty-five per cent per annum; and upon any such judgment, stay of execution shall not be allowed. [L. '54, p. 223, § 6; Cd. '81, § 1694; 1 H. C., § 306.]

"Clerk" substituted for "auditor," the act of February 13, 1890, § 5, requiring the bonds of all county and township officers to be filed in the office of the county clerk of their respective counties.

§ 7551. [6520.] Term of Office.

Every justice of the peace shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. [L. '54, p. 224, § 7; Cd. '81, § 1695; 1 H. C., § 307.]

See supra, § 4028.

See infra, § 7570, in cities.

§ 7552. [6521.] Division of Precinct.

When a precinct shall be divided, and any justice of the peace of the original precinct shall fall into the new one, he shall continue to discharge the duties of justice of the peace until his term of office expires, and his successor is elected and qualified. [L. '54, p. 224, § 10; Cd. '81, § 1703; 1 H. C., § 315.]

§ 7553. [6522.] Vacancy—Deliver Books to Successor.

If any justice of the peace shall die, resign, or remove out of the precinct for which he may be elected, or his term of office be in any other manner terminated, the docket books, records, and papers appertaining to his office, or relating to any suit, matter, or controversy committed to him in his official capacity, shall be delivered to the nearest justice in the precinct, who may thereupon proceed to hear, try and determine such matter, suit, or controversy, or issue execution thereon, in the same manner as it would have been lawful for the justice before whom such suit or matter was commenced to have done: Provided, that if there be no other justice of the peace in said precinct, such docket, books, records, and papers shall be delivered to the county auditor, who, on demand, shall deliver the same to a justice of said precinct, when there shall be one qualified therein, who shall exercise the same powers as though they had been originally delivered to him. [L. '54, p. 224, § 11; Cd. '81, § 1704; 1 H. C., § 316.]

This section does not recognize the right of a justice to resign without an acceptance of the resignation: State ex rel. Royse v. Superior Court, 46 Wash. 616, 91 Pac. 4.

§ 7554. [6523.] Failure to Deliver Books, etc.

Every person whose duty it is to deliver over the dockets, books, records, and papers, as prescribed in the last section, shall forfeit and pay, for the use of the county, fifteen dollars for every three months' neglect to perform such duty, which sum may be recovered at the suit of any person. § 7556. [6525.] Vacancies—How filled.

All vacancies existing in the offices of constable, whether happening by death, resignation, failure to elect, or otherwise, may be filled by appointment by the board of commissioners of the proper county; and every person so appointed shall hold his office until the next election. [L. '54, p. 225, § 14; Cd. '81, § 2797; 1 H. C., § 320.]

See Const., Art. XI, § 6, vacancies, how filled.

§ 7557. [6526.] Election, How to be Conducted—Certificate of.

The election of constables shall be conducted, and the return of such election made, and certificates of election issued, in the same manner as in elections of justice of the peace. [L. '54, p. 225, § 15; Cd. '81, § 2798; 1 H. C., § 321.]

See supra, § 7548, conduct of elections for justice of the peace.

§ 7558. [6527.] Oath of.

Every person elected or appointed a constable shall, within twenty days after receiving his certificate of election, take an oath, before any person authorized to administer oaths, that he will support the Constitution of the United States and the laws of this state, and faithfully discharge and perform the duties of his office as constable, according to the best of his ability. Such oath shall be indorsed on the back of the certificate of election or appointment, and filed, together with the certificate, in the office of the auditor of the proper county. [L. '54, p. 225, § 16; Cd. '81, § 2799; 1 H. C., § 321a.]

§ 7559. [6528.] Bond of.

Every person elected or appointed to the office of constable shall, within the time prescribed for filing his oath of office, enter into a bond to the proper county, with two or more sureties, residents of the county, in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that he will execute all process to him directed and delivered, and pay over all moneys received by him by virtue of his office, and in every respect discharge all the duties of constable according to law. The auditor shall indorse thereon his approval of the sureties therein named. [L. '54, p. 225, § 17; Cd. '81, § 2800; 1 H. C., § 322.]

See infra, § 9930 et seq., approval and filing of bonds.

§ 7561. [6530.] Constable's Fees.

For serving any arrest warrant in a criminal action, or making an arrest in cases where an arrest may be lawfully made without a warrant, besides mileage, two dollars. For other services he shall receive the same fees and mileage as is paid to a sheriff for like services. [L. '07, p. 88, § 1. See, p. 92.]

See supra, § 497, sheriff's fees.

CHAPTER III.JUSTICES AND CONSTABLES IN CITIES AND TOWNS.*§ 7562. [6531.] Election in Incorporated Cities—Number.

Each incorporated city in this state, together with any adjoining precincts, if any there are, lying partly within and partly without said city, shall, for the purposes of this act, and for fixing and limiting the number of justices of the peace to be elected in such city, be deemed and considered one precinct, and the qualified electors within the limits thereof shall, at each general election at the several polling places therein, vote for and elect two justices of the peace, and no more. [L. '88, p. 120, § 3; 1 H. C., § 301.]

Superseded as to cities of over five thousand inhabitants by the next section § 7564. [6533.] Number in City of First Class—Justice must be Attorney.

Each incorporated city of the first class in this state, together with any adjoining precincts, if any there are, lying partly within and partly without said city, shall for the purposes of this act, and for fixing and limiting the number of justices of the peace to be elected in such city, be deemed and considered one precinct, and the qualified electors within the limits thereof shall, at each general election vote for and elect two justices of the peace, who shall be attorneys at law, duly admitted to practice in the supreme court of the state, and one constable. [L. '99, p. 135, § 1.]

§ 7565. [6533-1.] Number in Cities of Over Fifty Thousand Population.

After the taking effect of this act, there shall be in cities of fifty thousand population two justices of the peace and two constables, and one additional justice and one additional constable in such cities for each additional fifty thousand population or a major fraction thereof, to be elected at the general election to be held in November, 1914, and quadrennially thereafter, whose term of office shall be for the term of four years from the second Monday of January following the election: Provided, there shall not be more than five justices in any city unless the same has a population of five hundred thousand or more: And provided further, that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect justices of the peace or constables or the offices of justices of the peace or constables in cities having a population of less than fifty thousand inhabitants. [L. '15, p. 316, § 1. Cf. L. '13, p. 103, § 1.]

Cited in 92 Wash. 349—351, 353, 354.

But one constable for each justice was intended, and the limitation of justices limits the number of constables provided for by this section: State ex rel. Fair v. Hamilton, 92 Wash. 347, 159 Pac. 379.

§ 7566. [6533-2.] Commissioners to Appoint.

Whenever it shall appear to the board of county commissioners of any county containing a city of fifty thousand or more that such city is entitled to an additional justice and constable as provided in this act, the board of county commissioners are hereby authorized and directed immediately after this act goes into effect to appoint such additional justice and constable in such city, who shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified at the next general election. [L. '13, p. 103, § 2.]

§ 7567. [6533-3.] Salaries in Cities Over One Hundred Thousand.

The salaries of such justices of the peace in all cities having a population in excess of one hundred thousand according to the census of the federal government last taken shall be eighteen hundred (1800) dollars per annum. [L. '13, p. 103, § 3.]

§ 7568. [6533-4.] Future Salaries.

The salaries of justices of the peace and constables hereafter elected or appointed shall be and remain the same as are now provided by law. [L. '13, p. 104, § 4.]

§ 7569. [6533-5.] Increase in Cities of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Population.

That the boards of county commissioners of the counties in which are located cities having a population of two hundred and twenty-five thousand or more are hereby authorized to pay to the justices of the peace in such cities, such compensation in addition to that now provided by law as such boards of county commissioners may deem fit and proper, such additional compensation not to exceed three hundred and fifty dollars ($350) per annum. [L. '15, p. 317, § 2.]

Cited in 92 Wash. 350.

If this section is unconstitutional in that it authorizes the county commissioners to increase the salaries of certain justices of the peace, the same does not affect the other portion of the statute fixing the number and term of office of justices and constables in certain cities: State ex rel. Fair v. Hamilton, 92 Wash. 347, 159 Pac. 379.

§ 7570. [6534.] Number in Cities of Over Thirty-five Thousand Inhabitants.

There shall be elected at the general election to be held in November, 1906, and biennially thereafter, in each city having a population of more than thirty-five thousand (35,000) inhabitants and less than eighty thousand (80,000) inhabitants, two justices of the peace and two constables, and in cities having a population of more than eighty thousand (80,000) inhabitants three justices of the peace and three constables, and no more, whose term of office shall be for the period of two years from the second Monday of January following their election. [L. '05, p. 209, § 1.]

§ 7571. [6535.] Salaries in Cities of Over Five Thousand Inhabitants.

The salaries of justices of the peace and constables elected at the general election to be held in November, 1898, and biennially thereafter in cities of more than five thousand inhabitants shall be as follows:—

1. Salaries of justices of the peace, twelve hundred dollars per annum, payable as now provided by law;

2. Salaries of constables, seven hundred and twenty dollars per annum, payable as now provided by law. [L. '97, p. 111, § 2. Cf. L. '91, p. 8, § 1.]

§ 7572. [6536.] Salaries in Cities of Over Thirty-five Thousand Inhabitants.

The salaries of justices of the peace and constables hereafter elected or appointed in cities having a population of more than thirty-five thousand (35,000) inhabitants shall be as follows: (1) Salaries of justices of the peace in cities having a population of more than thirty-five thousand (35,000) inhabitants, fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) per annum, payable as now provided by law. (2) Salaries of constables in cities having a population of more than thirty-five thousand (35,000) inhabitants, nine hundred and sixty dollars ($960) per annum, payable as now provided by law. [L. '05, p. 209, § 3.]

§ 7573. [6537.] Justices and Constables in City of Eighty Thousand Inhabitants in 1900.

There shall be elected at the general election to be held in November, 1910, and biennially thereafter, in each city having a population of eighty thousand or more inhabitants as shown by the government census of 1900, four justices of the peace and four constables, and no more, whose term of office shall be for the period of two years from the second Monday of January following their election. [L. '09, p. 567, § 1.]

§ 7574. [6538.] Commissioners to Appoint Immediately.

The board of county commissioners of each county in which there is a city having a population of eighty thousand or more inhabitants as shown in the government census of 1900, are hereby authorized and directed, immediately after this act goes into effect, to appoint one additional justice of the peace and one additional constable in such city, so that there shall be four justices of the peace and four constables in such city. [L. '09, p. 567, § 2.]

"Act" refers to §§ 7573—7576.

§ 7575. [6539.] Salaries.

The salaries of justices of the peace hereafter elected or appointed in cities having a population of eighty thousand or more inhabitants, as shown by the government census of 1900, shall be as follows: First—Salaries of justices of the peace in such cities, eighteen hundred dollars per annum, payable as now provided by law. Second—Salaries of constables in such cities, twelve hundred dollars per annum, payable as now provided by law. [L. '09, p. 567, § 3.]

§ 7576. [6540.] Power of Clerks.

The clerks of any justice courts provided by this act shall have power to take testimony and administer oaths and affirmations in any action, suit or proceeding in the court for which they are appointed. [L. '09, p. 567, § 4.]

See infra, § 7583, clerk, when allowed.

DISPOSITION OF FEES AND FINES.

§ 7577. [6541.] To Pay Over Moneys, etc.

It shall be the duty of every justice, on the first Mondays in January and July in every year, and on going out of office to pay over to the treasurer of his county all money he may have received on account of fines, and all fees which may have remained unclaimed in his hands for twelve months; and he shall, at the same time, deliver to such treasurer a statement in writing, showing by items the sources from which such money was derived, and shall append thereto an affidavit that he has received no other money for fines, not before paid over to such treasurer, and has no other fees unclaimed for twelve months in his hands; and the treasurer's receipt therefor he shall file with the auditor, who shall give him a quietus. [L. '63, p. 379, § 181; Cd. '81, § 1901; 1 H. C., § 318.]

§ 7578. [6542.] Fees for Justices and Constables.

The justices of the peace and constables shall charge and collect for the use of their respective counties, and pay into the county treasury on the first Monday in each month, and on going out of office, all the fees now or hereafter allowed by law paid or chargeable in all cases, except such fees as are a charge against the county or state, and also on the first Monday in each month, and on going out of office, the said justices of the peace shall pay into the county treasury all moneys they shall have received on account of fines collected for violations of any state law. [L. '91, p. 8, § 3; 1 H. C., § 3035.]

Schedule of fees, see supra, § 1864.

§ 7579. [6543.] Fee-book must be Kept, and How.

Each of the said justices of the peace and constables shall keep a fee-book, open to public inspection during office hours, in which must be entered at once and in detail all fines and fees or compensations of whatever nature, kind, or description collected or chargeable. On the first Monday of each and every month the said justices of the peace and constables must add up each column in their fee-books to the first of each month and set down the totals, and on the expiration of the term of said officer they must deliver to the county auditor all fee-books kept by them. [L. '91, p. 8, § 4; 1 H. C., § 3036.]

§ 7580. [6544.] Moneys Collected, How Paid in, and to Whom—Affidavits.

All fees and compensation collected from any source, and all fines collected for violations of any state law; shall be paid to the county treasurer on the first Monday of the following month, and the said justices and constables at the same time shall deliver to such treasurer a statement and copy of the fee-book for the month last past, showing by items the sources from which such fees and fines were derived, and shall append thereto an affidavit that they have received no other money for fees or fines, not before paid over to such treasurer. The treasurer shall file and preserve in his office said statements and affidavits, and shall issue to said justices and constables one original and one duplicate receipt therefor, and the said justices and constables shall preserve one in their offices and file the duplicate with the county auditor, whereupon the auditor shall charge the treasurer with the amount shown by the receipt. [L. '91, p. 9, § 5; 1 H. C., § 3037.]

§ 7581. [6545.] Fees to Go into Salary Fund of County Treasury.

All fees by this chapter directed to be paid into the county treasury, when received shall be put into the salary fund of the county treasury. [L. '91, p. 9, § 6; 1 H. C., § 3038.]

See infra, § 11234, county current expense fund created.

§ 7582. [6546.] Salaries, When to be Paid, and How.

The salaries of the justices of the peace and constables, provided for in this chapter, shall be paid monthly out of the county treasury, and from the same funds out of which other salaried county officers are paid, and it shall be the duty of the county auditor, on the first Monday of each month and every month, to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of each of said justices and constables for the amount of salary due him, under the provisions of this chapter, for the preceding month: Provided, that the auditor shall not draw his warrant for the salary of any such officer for any month until the latter first shall have filed his duplicate receipt with the auditor, properly signed by the treasurer, showing that he has made the statement and settlement for that month as required by this chapter. [L. '91, p. 9, § 7; 1 H. C., § 3039.]

Cited in 18 Wash. 161, 225.

The fact that a claimant for salary as a justice of the peace has failed to comply with the provisions of this section would not excuse the auditor from drawing his warrant in favor of the claimant when his right thereto has been adjudicated by the superior court: State ex rel. Porter v. Headlee, 18 Wash. 220, 51 Pac. 369.

§ 7583. [6547.*] Justice's Clerk, When Allowed—Commissioners to Furnish Books, etc.

In cities of the first class of one hundred thousand population, or more, where there are two or more justices of the peace, such justices acting as a board shall have the power to appoint one chief clerk at a salary to be fixed by the board of county commissioners and such assistant clerks as may be found necessary by said justices, not exceeding the number of justices unless authority to appoint additional clerks be obtained from the board of county commissioners, the salaries of said clerks to be designated by the county commissioners, and paid in the same manner and at the same time as said justices. The board of county commissioners may allow justices of the peace in cities of the second class and cities of the first class of less than one hundred thousand population one clerk, and the board of county commissioners shall furnish for the use of each of the justices provided for in this chapter a suitable office room; and also, they shall furnish to each of the said justices and constables all necessary books, blanks and stationery for conducting the public business of his office; said office room, books, blanks, and stationery to be paid for on the warrant of the auditor out of the general fund of the county. [L. '17, p. 345, § 1; L. '91, p. 10, § 8; 1 H. C., § 3040.]

See supra, § 7576, powers of clerk in certain cities.

Cited in 58 Wash. 28.

§ 7584. [6548.] Traveling Expenses of Constables to be Paid.

In addition to the salary provided to be paid to the constables named in this chapter, the county commissioners shall pay the actual traveling expenses of said constables while on official duties, to be audited by the board of county commissioners. [L. '91, p. 10, § 9; 1 H. C., § 3041.]

§ 7585. [6549.] Services not to be Performed Until Fees are Paid.

Said justices and constables shall not in any case, except for the state or county and other cases provided by law, perform any official services unless the fees prescribed for such services are paid in advance, and on such payment the said justices and constables must perform the services required, and shall give receipts for all fees collected, whenever requested. For every failure or refusal to perform official duty when the fees are tendered, said justices and constables shall be liable on their official bonds. [L. '91, p. 10, § 10; 1 H. C., § 3042.]

CHAPTER I.

BUREAU OF LABOR.

§ 7586. [6552.*] Female Assistant Labor Commissioner—Duties and Compensation.

The commissioner of labor shall appoint one female as assistant commissioner of labor, and such female assistant shall have charge, under the direction of the commissioner of labor, of the enforcement of all laws relating to the health, sanitary conditions, surroundings, hours of labor and all other laws affecting the employment of female wage-earners. She shall receive a salary of eighteen hundred dollars per annum and shall be allowed her actual and necessary expenses in the performance of her duties as such assistant. Such salary and expenses to be paid in the same manner as other expenses of the office of commissioner of labor. [L. '19, p. 127, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 815, § 1.]

See infra, § 10838, duties of bureau of labor devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, bureau and commissioner of labor abolished.

§ 7587. [6553.] Duties of Commissioner and Bureau of Labor.

It shall be the duty of such officer and employees of the said bureau to cause to be enforced all laws regulating the employment of children, minors and women, all laws established for the protection of the health, lives and limbs of operators in work-shops, factories, mills and mines, on railroads and other places, and all laws enacted for the protection of the working classes, and declaim it a misdemeanor on the part of the employers to require as a condition of employment the surrender of any rights of citizenship, laws regulating and prescribing the qualifications of persons in trades and handicrafts, and similar laws now in force or hereafter to be enacted. It shall also be the duty of officers and employees of the bureau to collect, assort, arrange and present in biennial reports to the legislature, on or before the first Monday in January, statistical details relating to all departments of labor in the state; to the subjects of corporations, strikes or other labor difficulties; to trade unions and other labor organizations and their effect upon labor and capital; and to such other matters relating to the commercial, industrial, social, educational, moral and sanitary conditions of the laboring classes, and the permanent prosperity of the respective industries of the state as the bureau may be able to gather. In its biennial report the bureau shall also give account of all proceedings of its officers and employees which have been taken in accordance with the provisions of this act or of any other acts herein referred to, including a statement of all violations of law which have been observed, and the proceedings under the same, and shall join with such accounts and such remarks, suggestions and recommendations as the commissioner may deem necessary. [L. '01, p. 132, § 2.]

See notes to § 7586.

See supra, § 6290, inspection of bakeries.

See infra, §§ 9843—9870, inspection of boats and vessels.

Cited in 111 Wash. 242, 246.

§ 7588. [6554.] Reports by Owners of Factories, etc., to Bureau.

It shall be the duty of every owner, operator or manager of every factory, workshop, mill, mine or other establishment where labor is employed, to make to the bureau, upon blanks furnished by said bureau, such reports and returns as the said bureau may require, for the purpose of compiling such labor statistics as are authorized by this act, and the owner or business manager shall make such reports and returns within the time prescribed therefor by the commissioner of labor, and shall certify to the correctness of the same. In the reports of said bureau no use shall be made of the names of individuals, firms or corporations supplying the information called for by this section, such information being deemed confidential, and not for the purpose of disclosing personal affairs, and any officer, agent or employee of said bureau violating this provision shall be fined in the sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned for not more than one year. [L. '01, p. 133, § 3.]

See notes to § 7586.

§ 7589. [6555.] Commissioner may Compel Attendance of Witnesses and Take Testimony.

The commissioner of [or] the bureau of labor shall have the power to issue subpoenas, administer oaths and take testimony in all matters relating to the duties herein required by such bureau, such testimony to be taken in some suitable place in the [vicinity] to which testimony is applicable. Witnesses subpoenaed and testifying before any officer of the said bureau shall be paid the same fees as witnesses before a superior court, such payment to be made from the contingent fund of the bureau. Any person duly subpoenaed under the provisions of this section [who] shall willfully neglect or refuse to attend or testify at the time and place named in the subpoena, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, before any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by a fine not less than twenty-five dollars or more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days. [L. '01, p. 134, § 4.]

See notes to § 7586.

§ 7590. [6556.] Bureau to Make Inspection and Gather Statistics.

The commissioner of labor, the coal mine inspector or any employee of the bureau of labor, shall have power to enter any factory, mill, mine, office, workshop or public or private works at any time for the purpose of gathering facts and statistics such as are contemplated by this chapter, and to examine into the methods of protection from danger to employees, and the sanitary conditions in and around such buildings and places and make a record thereof, and any owner or occupant of said factory, mill, mine, office or workshop, or public or private works, or his agent or agents, who shall refuse to allow an inspector or employee of the said bureau to enter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, before any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed ninety days, for each and every offense. [L. '01, p. 134, § 5.]

See notes to § 7586.

§ 7591. [6557.] Keeping of Reports as Records.

No report or return made to the said bureau in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and no schedule, record or document gathered or returned by the commissioner or inspector, thereof, such reports, schedules and documents being declared public documents. At the expiration of the period of two years above referred to in this section, all records, schedules and papers accumulating in the said bureau that may be considered of no value by the commissioner may be destroyed: Provided, the authority of the governor be first obtained for such destruction. [L. '01, p. 135, § 6.]

See notes to § 7586.

The enrolled bill shows an evident omission.

§ 7592. [6558.] Biennial Reports—Printing and Distribution of.

The biennial reports of the bureau of labor, provided for by section 7587, shall be printed in the same manner and under the same regulations as the reports of the executive officers of the state: Provided, that not less than five hundred copies of the report shall be distributed, as the judgment of the commissioner may deem best. The blanks and other stationery required by the bureau of labor in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be furnished by the secretary of the state, and shall be paid for from the printing fund of the state. [L. '01, p. 135, § 7.]

§ 7593. [6559.] Duties Devolved on Commissioner.

All the powers and duties heretofore exercised by the assistant commissioner of labor and the factory, mill and railway inspector, are hereby devolved on the commissioner of labor. [L. '01, p. 135, § 9.]

See notes to § 7586.

CHAPTER II.

WAGES AND EMPLOYMENT.

§ 7594. [6560.] Payment for Labor to be Made in Lawful Money.

It shall not be lawful for any corporation, person or firm engaged in manufacturing of any kind in this state, mining, railroading, constructing railroads, or any business or enterprise of whatsoever kind in this state, to issue, pay out or circulate for payment of wages of any labor, any order, check, memorandum, token or evidence of indebtedness, payable in whole or in part otherwise than in lawful money of the United States, unless the same is negotiable and redeemable at its face value, without discount, in cash or on demand, at the store or other place of business of such firm, person, or corporation when the same is issued, and the person who, or company which may issue any such order, check, memorandum, token or other evidence of indebtedness shall upon presentation and demand redeem the same in lawful money of the United States. And when any laborer performing work or labor as above shall cease to work whether by discharge or by voluntary withdrawal the wages due shall be forthwith paid either in cash or by order redeemable in cash at its face value on presentment at bank, store, commissary, or other place in the county where the labor was performed: Provided, such order may be given payable in another county when the place of employment is more convenient of access to the employee. [L. '88, p. 234, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2531; L. '05, p. 219, § 1.]

Cited in 7 Wash. 473; 45 Wash. 292, 293, 295; 47 Wash. 380; 98 Wash. 467; 106 Wash. 109, 111.

This section is not unconstitutional as a deprivation of liberty or property without due process of law, and renders the wages at once due, notwithstanding a written contract postponing the date of payment upon the employee's voluntarily leaving the service: Shortall v. Puget Sound Bridge & Dredging Co., 45 Wash. 290, 88 Pac. 212, 122 Am. St. Rep. 899.

Laws of 1897, page 91, relating to the payment of obligations and providing that they may be satisfied with any kind of lawful money or currency of the United States, is void as an attempt to legislate upon a matter falling exclusively within federal jurisdiction: Dennis v. Moses, 18 Wash. 537, 52 Pac. 333, 40 L. R. A. 302.

An order issued in payment of wages, directing a third party to pay the wage-earner $180, is by its terms payable in lawful money of the United States, and does not violate the provisions of this section, forbidding the issuance in payment of wages of any order, check, etc., payable in whole or in part otherwise than in lawful money of the United States: Agee v. Smith, 7 Wash. 471, 35 Pac. 370.

This section is not violated by the issuance of a due bill dated March 16, 1907, reciting "Due G. G. Pickett or order on 4-15-1907 (meaning April 15, 1907), eight dollars for wages," and by refusal to pay the same on demand, where it does not appear that the laborer had ceased to work; since the first part of the statute is complied with by issuance of the order payable in cash, and the last part requires payment on demand only when the laborer has ceased to work: State v. Chehalis Furniture Mfg. Co., 47 Wash. 378, 92 Pac. 277.

Whether a laborer "ceases" to work, under this section, where he was employed in a logging camp on "straight time" under a general custom in such case to pay for time during the shut-downs, and upon a shut-down was not paid off with the other men or his hiring discontinued: Cormier v. Martin Lumber Co., 98 Wash. 463, 167 Pac. 1105.

A contract for services made and performed in the state of Idaho, agreeing to pay for wages for labor otherwise than in money, does not contravene this and the next section prohibiting payment for wages for labor in this state otherwise than in lawful money; and the contract being valid in Idaho, is enforceable by action in the courts of this state: Hatcher v. Idaho Gold & Ruby Mining Co., 106 Wash. 108, 179 Pac. 106.

Any officer or agent of any corporation, or any person, firm, or company engaged in the business of manufacturing of any kind in this state, mining, railroading, constructing railroads, or any other business or enterprise of whatsoever kind in this state, who by themselves or agents shall issue or circulate, in payment for wages of labor, any order, check, memorandum, token, or evidence of indebtedness, payable in whole or in part otherwise than in lawful money of the United States, without being payable as required by the last preceding section of this chapter, or who shall fail to redeem this [the] same when presented for payment or demand on said company or its agent, at his or their office or place of business, in lawful money of the United States, where the said order, check, memorandum, token, or evidence of indebtedness was issued, or who shall compel or attempt to coerce any employee of any such corporation, person, firm, or company to purchase goods, wares, merchandise or supplies from any particular person, firm, or corporation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars, or upon failure to pay such fine, to be imprisoned in the jail of the county where the misdemeanor is committed, until the said fine is exhausted by imprisonment, as provided by the laws of this state, for each and every offense. § 7596. [6562.] Attorney's Fee and Damages Allowed in Actions on Checks, etc.

Whenever any person or persons, company or corporation, is compelled to sue for the recovery of the face value of check, memorandum, token, or evidence of indebtedness, issued or circulated for the payment of wages for labor, by reason of the failure of any person, firm, company, or person [corporation] issuing the same, failing or refusing to pay the same on demand, as provided by section 7594, then in such case, if judgment should be granted the plaintiff, the court shall tax the attorney's fee of not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars to said judgment, and the further sum of twenty-five dollars as damages to the plaintiff, suffered by the plaintiff by reason of being compelled to sue the said claim: Provided, that no plaintiff shall recover more than the face value of his said claim where the payment is refused by reason of a dispute as to the ownership of the said claim, or where it appears satisfactorily to the court or jury that the defendant had a sufficient excuse for the refusal of the payment of the said claim, the burden to prove the said sufficient excuse being on the defendant; and should the court or jury find such sufficient excuse, the same is to be specified in the judgment or verdict of said court or jury. § 7597. [6563.] Assignment of Wages—What Necessary to Validity.

No assignment of, or order for, wages to be earned in the future to secure a loan of less than three hundred dollars, shall be valid against an employer of the person making said assignment or order unless said assignment or order is accepted in writing by the employer, and said assignment or order, and the acceptance of the same, have been filed and recorded with the county auditor of the county where the party making said assignment or order resides, if a resident of the state, or in which he is employed, if not a resident of the state. § 7598. [6564.] Married Man—Consent of Wife Necessary.

No assignment of, or order for, wages to be earned in the future shall be valid, when made by a married man, unless the written consent of his wife to the making of such assignment or order is attached thereto. [L. '09, p. 52, § 2.]

§ 7599. [6565.] "Blacklisting" Prohibited—Penalty.

Every person in this state who shall willfully and maliciously, send or deliver, or make, or cause to be made, for the purpose of being delivered or sent, or part with the possession of any paper, letter or writing, with or without name signed thereto, or signed with a fictitious name, or with any letter, mark or other designation, or publish or cause to be published any statement for the purpose of preventing any other person from obtaining employment in this state or elsewhere, and every person who shall willfully and maliciously "blacklist" or cause to be "black-listed" any person or persons, by writing, printing or publishing, or causing the same to be done, the name, or mark, or designation representing the name of any person in any paper, pamphlet, circular or book, together with any statement concerning persons so named, or publish or cause to be published that any person is a member of any secret organization, for the purpose of preventing such person from securing employment, or who shall willfully and maliciously make or issue any statement or paper that will tend to influence or prejudice the mind of any employer against the person of such person seeking employment, or any person who shall do any of the things mentioned in this section for the purpose of causing the discharge of any person employed by any railroad or other company, corporation, individual or individuals, shall, on conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ninety days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. § 7600. [6565-1.] Prohibiting Fees for Procuring Employment—Preamble.

The welfare of the state of Washington depends on the welfare of its workers and demands that they be protected from conditions that result in their being liable to imposition and extortion.

The state of Washington therefore exercising herein its police and sovereign power declares that the system of collecting fees from the workers for furnishing them with employment, or with information leading thereto, results frequently in their becoming the victims of imposition and extortion and is therefore detrimental to the welfare of the state. [L. '15, p. 1, § 1.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 672, 689, 690; 93 Wash. 531, 532.

This section has no reasonable relation to any subject other than the protection of those classed as workers or laborers, and was not intended to apply to school teachers who, for a small fee, were put in communication with employers: Huntworth v. Tanner, 87 Wash. 670, 152 Pac. 523, Ann. Cas. 1917D, 676.

This act being penal, a doubt as to whether it applies to the employment of "any person" or merely to "workers" must be resolved in favor of the innocence of the party charged with its violation: Huntworth v. Tanner, 87 Wash. 670, 152 Pac. 523, Ann. Cas. 1917D, 676.

A stenographer and bookkeeper is a "worker" within the meaning of this section: State v. Rossman, 93 Wash. 530, 161 Pac. 349, L. R. A. 1917B, 1276.

The word "worker" is not so indefinite as to render the act void or so wanting in certainty that it could not support a criminal charge for its violation: State v. Rossman, 93 Wash. 530, 161 Pac. 349, L. R. A. 1917B, 1276.

The right to peacefully pursue an avocation being more than a personal right, a court of equity will enjoin the threatened enforcement of this statute against a business that did not fall within its provisions: Huntworth v. Tan- ner, 87 Wash. 670, 152 Pac. 523, Ann. Cas. 1917D, 676.

§ 7601. [6565-2.] Unlawful to Collect Fees.

It shall be unlawful for any employment agent, his representative, or any other person to demand or receive either directly or indirectly from any person seeking employment, or from any person on his or her behalf, any remuneration or fee whatsoever for furnishing him or her with employment or with information leading thereto. [L. '15, p. 1, § 2.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 672, 689; 93 Wash. 537.

§ 7602. [6565-3.] Penalty.

For each and every violation of any of the provisions of this act the penalty shall be a fine or [of] not more than one hundred dollars and imprisonment for not more than thirty days. [L. '15, p. 2, § 3.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 672.

§ 7603. Seasonal Labor, Defined.

For the purpose of this act the term "seasonal labor" shall include all work performed by any person employed for a period of time greater than one month and where the wages for such work are not to be paid at any fixed interval of time, but at the determination of such employment, and where such person is hired within the state for work to be performed outside the state and the wages earned during said employment are to be paid in this state at the termination of such employment: Provided, that this act shall not apply to wages earned by seamen or other persons where the payment of their wages is regulated by federal statutes. [L. '19, p. 609, § 1.]

§ 7604. Seasonal Labor Contracts to be in Writing.

Every contract for seasonal labor shall be in writing and signed by the employer and the employee, and may provide for advances of moneys to be earned under such contract or for the furnishing of supplies to the employee before the wages are earned, and for the payment of money or the furnishing of supplies during the season. [L. '19, p. 610, § 2.]

§ 7605. Fraud in Securing Advances of Money.

Every employee who with intent to defraud shall have secured advances of money or supplies under a contract for seasonal labor and who with intent to defraud shall willfully fail to perform sufficient labor to compensate for such advances and supplies made under such contract shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [L. '19, p. 610, § 3.]

§ 7606. Disputes Determined by Labor Commissioner.

Upon the written petition of either the employer or the employee setting forth in ordinary and concise language the facts and questions in dispute, the commissioner of labor shall, in person or by his duly authorized deputy, and is hereby authorized to hear and determine all disputes concerning wages earned at seasonal labor, and allow or reject deductions made from such wages for moneys advanced or supplies furnished before the wages are earned for money paid or supplies furnished during the season or for money paid to third persons upon the written order of the employee. [L. '19, p. 610, § 4.]

See infra, § 10838, duties devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, commissioner of labor abolished.

§ 7607. Hearings.

Upon the filing of any such petition, the commissioner of labor shall notify the other party to the dispute of the time and place when and where such petition will be heard, and may set said petition for a hearing before a regularly appointed deputy at such place in the state as he shall determine is most convenient for the parties, and the commissioner or his deputy shall have power and authority to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and records at such hearing, and to administer oaths. Obedience to such subpoenas will be enforced by the courts of the county where such hearing is held. [L. '19, p. 610, § 5.]

See notes to § 7606.

§ 7608. Findings and Awards.

The commissioner of labor, or his deputy holding the hearing shall, after such hearing, determine the amount due from the employer to the employee, and shall make findings of fact and an award in accordance therewith, which findings and award shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of labor and a copy thereof served upon the employer and upon the employee by registered mail directed to their last known postoffice address. [L. '19, p. 611, § 6.]

See notes to § 7606.

§ 7609. Court Appeal—Notice—Trial De Novo.

Any person feeling himself aggrieved by the finding or award of the commissioner of labor may, as in the preceding section provided, have the right of appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county in which the hearing by the commissioner of labor or his deputy was held, by filing a notice of appeal therefrom in the office of the commissioner of labor within thirty days from the date of the findings and award and, upon the filing of any such notice of appeal, the commissioner of labor shall transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which the appeal is taken the original petition and all exhibits and written evidence filed at the hearing and the original findings and award of the commissioner, and such appeal be set down for hearing and shall be heard de novo by the court as appeals from justices of the peace are heard, and the clerk of the court shall notify the parties to the dispute, by mail addressed to their last known place of residence, of the time and place of such trial upon appeal. [L. '19, p. 611, § 7.]

See notes to § 7606.

§ 7610. Findings and Award as Evidence.

In case no appeal is taken from the award of the commissioner and suit shall be brought upon the contract for seasonal labor in any court of competent jurisdiction, the findings and award of the commissioner made in any proceeding under this act at a hearing at which both parties to such suit shall have appeared may be introduced in evidence in such suit, for the information of the court in which the suit is pending, and may, in the discretion of the court, be submitted to the jury as a part of the evidence in the case; but such findings and award shall not be conclusive or binding upon the court or the jury in any such case. [L. '19, p. 611, § 8.]

See notes to § 7606.

§ 7611. Labor Unions Legalized.

It shall be lawful for working men and women to organize themselves into, or carry on labor unions for the purpose of lessening the hours of labor or increasing the wages or bettering the conditions of the members of such organizations; or carry out their legitimate purposes by any lawful means. [L. '19, p. 568, § 1.]

§ 7612. Injunctive Relief, Restrictions on.

No restraining order or injunction shall be granted by any court of this state, or any judge or judges thereof in any case between an employer and employee or between employer and employees or between employees or between persons employed and persons seeking employment involving or growing out of a dispute concerning terms or conditions of employment, unless necessary to prevent irreparable damage to property or to a personal right or to a property right of the party making the application, for which injury there is no adequate remedy at law, and such petition must be in writing describing such damage or injury feared by the applicant, and sworn to by the applicant or his agent or attorney. No such restraining order or injunction shall prohibit any such person or persons, whether singly or in concert, from terminating any relation of employment or from ceasing to perform any work or labor; or from paying or giving to, or withholding from any person engaged in such dispute, any strike benefits or other moneys or things of value; or from doing any act or thing which might lawfully be done in the absence of such dispute by any party thereto; nor shall any of the acts specified in this section be considered or held to be illegal or unlawful in any court of the state. [L. '19, p. 568, § 2.]

§ 7613. Employment Contracts—Personal Rights—Remedy for Violation.

The labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce, and the right to enter into the relation of employer and employee or to change that relation except in violation of contract is a legal right. In all cases involving the violation of the contract of employment, either by the employee or employer where no irreparable damage is about to be done to the property, personal rights or property rights of either, no injunction shall be granted, but the parties shall be left to their remedy at law. [L. '19, p. 569, § 3.]

§ 7614. Prosecutions Prohibited.

No person shall be indicted, prosecuted, or tried in any court of this state for entering into or carrying on any lawful arrangement, agreement, or combination between themselves made with a view of lessening the number of hours of labor or increasing wages or bettering the conditions of working men and women, or for any lawful act done in pursuance thereof. [L. '19, p. 569, § 4.]

CHAPTER III.FEMALE AND CHILD LABOR.*§ 7615. [6566.] Health of Female Employees to be Protected.

It shall be the duty of every agent, proprietor, superintendent, or employer of female help in stores, offices, or schools, within the state of Washington, to provide for each and every such employee a chair, stool, or seat, upon which such female worker or workers shall be allowed to rest when their duties will permit, or when such rest shall or does not interfere with a faithful discharge of their incumbent duties. A violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by any court of competent jurisdiction shall subject the person offending to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars. [L. '90, p. 104, §§ 1, 2; 2 H. P. C., § 219.]

§ 7616. [6567.] Seats to be Provided.

Every employer in establishments where females are employed shall provide suitable seats for them and shall permit the use of such seats by them when they are not engaged in the active duties for which they are employed. [L. '01, p. 119, § 2.]

§ 7617. [6567a.] Seats to be Provided.

Every employer in establishments where females are employed shall provide suitable seats for them and shall permit the use of such seats by them when they are not engaged in the active duties for which they are employed, and every such employer shall keep posted in an open and conspicuous place in each room where such females are at work a copy of this act printed in such form and style as may be prescribed by the commissioner of labor. [L. '11, p. 132, § 2.]

Any employer, overseer, superintendent, or other agent of any such employer who shall violate any of the provisions of sections 7616 or 7650, shall, upon conviction thereof be fined for each offense in a sum not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars. [L. '01, p. 119, § 3.]

§ 7619. [6568a.] Penalty.

Any employer, overseer, superintendent or other agent of any such employer who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, shall, upon conviction thereof be fined for each offense in a sum not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars. [L. '11, p. 132, § 3.]

§ 7620. [6569.] Women may Follow any Employment—Exception.

Hereafter in this state every avenue of employment shall be open to women; and any business, vocation, profession, and calling followed and pursued by men may be followed and pursued by women, and no person shall be disqualified from engaging in or pursuing any business, vocation, profession, calling, or employment on account of sex: Provided, that this section shall not be construed so as to permit women to hold public office. § 7621. [6570.] Child Labor Prohibited—Permit by Superior Judge.

No person under the age of nineteen years shall be employed as a public messenger by any person, telegraph company, telephone company, or messenger company in any city of the first class in this state, nor shall any child of either sex under the age of fourteen years be hired out to labor in any factory, mill, workshop or store at any time: Provided, that any superior court judge may issue a permit for the employment of any child between the ages of twelve and fourteen years at any occupation, not in his judgment dangerous or injurious to the health or morals of such child, upon evidence satisfactory to him, that the labor of such child is necessary for its support or for the assistance of any parent: And, provided, further, that the judge of the juvenile court may issue permits for the employment of any male child over fourteen years of age, as messenger by telegraph, telephone and messenger companies subject to such limitations and conditions as may be imposed by said court. All permits herein provided for shall be issued for a definite time and shall be revocable at the discretion of the judge by whom issued. [L. '07, p. 238, § 1. Cf. L. '03, p. 136, § 1, repealed by L. '07, p. 239, § 3.]

Any employer, or any overseer, superintendent, or agent of such person, telegraph company, telephone company or messenger company who shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined for each offense not less than ten dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '07, p. 238, § 2.]

As to repeal of this section, see § 2304. See note to last section.

§ 7623. [6571-1.] Conditions Injurious to Women.

The welfare of the state of Washington demands that women and minors be protected from conditions of labor which have a pernicious effect on their health or morals. The state of Washington, therefore, exercising herein its police and sovereign power declares that inadequate wages and unsanitary conditions of labor exert such pernicious effect. [L. § 7625. [6571-6.] Industrial Welfare Commission to Examine Conditions.

It shall be the duty of the commission to ascertain the wages and conditions of labor of women and minors in the various occupations, trades and industries in which said women and minors are employed in the state of Washington. To this end, said commission shall have full power and authority to call for statements and to examine, either through its members or other authorized representatives, all books, pay-rolls or other records of all persons, firms and corporations employing females or minors as to any matters that would have a bearing upon the question of wages of labor or conditions of labor of said employees. § 7629. [6571-10.] Arbitration Conference—Report.

If, after investigation, the commission shall find that in any occupation, trade or industry, the wages paid to female employees are inadequate to supply them necessary cost of living and to maintain the workers in health, or that the conditions of labor are prejudicial to the health or morals of the workers, the commission is empowered to call a conference composed of an equal number of representatives of employers and employees in the occupation or industry in question, together with one or more disinterested persons representing the public; but the representatives of the public shall not exceed the number of representatives of either of the other parties; and a member of the commission shall be a member of such conference and chairman thereof. The commission shall make rules and regulations governing the selection of representatives and the mode of procedure of said conference, and shall exercise exclusive jurisdiction over all questions arising as to the validity of the procedure and of the recommendations of said conference. On request of the commission, it shall be the duty of the conference to recommend to the commission an estimate of the minimum wage adequate in the occupation or industry in question to supply the necessary cost of living, and maintain the workers in health, and to recommend standards of conditions of labor demanded for the health and morals of the employees. The findings and recommendations of the conference shall be made a matter of record for the use of the commission. [L. '13, p. 604, § 10.]

§ 7630. [6571-11.] Commission to Fix Wages—Minimum.

Upon the receipt of such recommendations from a conference, the commission shall review the same and may approve any or all of such recommendations, or it may disapprove any or all of them and recommit the subject or the recommendations disapproved of, to the same or a new conference. After such approval of the recommendations of a conference the commission shall issue an obligatory order to be effective in sixty (60) days from the date of said order, or if the commission shall find that unusual conditions necessitate a longer period, then it shall fix a later date, specifying the minimum wage for women in the occupation affected, and the standard conditions of labor for said women; and after such order is effective, it shall be unlawful for any employer in said occupation to employ women over eighteen (18) years of age for less than the rate of wages, or under conditions of labor prohibited for women in the said occupation. The commission shall send by mail so far as practicable to each employer in the occupation in question a copy of the order, and each employer shall be required to post a copy of said order in each room in which women affected by the order are employed. When such commission shall specify a minimum wage hereunder the same shall not be changed for one year from the date when such minimum wage is so fixed. [L. '13, p. 605, § 11.]

§ 7631. [6571-12.] Rehearing.

Whenever wages or standard conditions of labor have been made mandatory in any occupation, upon petition of either employers or employees, the commission may at its discretion reopen the question and reconvene the former conference or call a new one, and any recommendations made by such conference shall be dealt with in the same manner as the original recommendations of a conference. [L. '13, p. 605, § 12.]

See notes to § 7624½.

§ 7632. [6571-13.] Exceptions to Minimum Scale.

For any occupation in which a minimum rate has been established, the commission through its secretary may issue to a woman physically defective or crippled by age or otherwise, or to an apprentice in such class of employment or occupation as usually requires to be learned by apprentices, a special license authorizing the employment of such licensee for a wage less than the legal minimum wage; and the commission shall fix the minimum wage for said person, such special license to be issued only in such cases as the commission may decide the same is applied for in good faith and that such license for apprentices shall be in force for such length of time as the said commission shall decide and determine is proper. [L. '13, p. 606, § 13.]

See notes to § 7624½.

§ 7633. [6571-14.] Investigate Employment of Minors—Minimum Wage.

The commission may at any time inquire into wages, and conditions of labor of minors, employed in any occupation in the state and may determine wages and conditions of labor suitable for such minors. When the commission has made such determination in the cases of minors it may proceed to issue an obligatory order in the manner provided for in section 7630 and after such order is effective it shall be unlawful for any employer in said occupation to employ a minor for less wages than is specified for minors in said occupation, or under conditions of labor prohibited by the commission for said minors in its order. § 7634. [6571-15.] Statistics.

Upon the request of the commission the commissioner of labor of the state of Washington shall furnish to the commission such statistics as the commission may require. [L. '13, p. 606, § 15.]

See notes to § 7624½.

§ 7635. [6571-16.] Witnesses Protected.

Any employer who discharges, or in any other manner discriminates against any employee because such employee has testified or is about to testify, or because such employer believes that said employee may testify in any investigation or proceedings relative to the enforcement of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of from twenty-five dollars ($25) to one hundred dollars ($100) for each such misdemeanor. [L. '13, p. 606, § 16.]

§ 7636. [6571-17.] Penalty.

Any person employing a woman or minor for whom a minimum wage or standard conditions of labor have been specified, at less than said minimum wage, or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order of the commission; or violating any other of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100). [L. '13, p. 607, § 17.]

§ 7638. [6571-18.] Civil Actions by Employee.

If any employee shall receive less than the legal minimum wage, except as hereinbefore provided in section 7632, said employee shall be entitled to recover in a civil action the full amount of the legal minimum wage as herein provided for, together with costs and attorney's fees to be fixed by the court, notwithstanding any agreement to work for such lesser wage. In such action, however, the employer shall be credited with any wages which have been paid upon account. [L. '13, p. 607, § 18.]

§ 7639. [6571-19.] No Appeal from Commission on Facts.

All questions of fact arising under this act shall be determined by the commission and there shall be no appeal from its decision upon said question of fact. Either employer or employee shall have the right of appeal to the superior court on questions of law. [L. '13, p. 607, § 19.]

§ 7641. [6571-21.*] Employment of Women and Minors in Telephone Industry.

The industrial welfare commission is hereby authorized, in such manner as it shall deem advisable and upon notice and hearing to parties directly affected thereby, to ascertain and establish such standard of wages, hours of work, and conditions of labor of women and minors, employed in telephone and telegraph industries in rural communities and in cities of less than three thousand (3,000) population, as shall be found reasonable and not detrimental to the health and morals of such women and minors and which shall be sufficient for the decent maintenance of such women and minors, and notwithstanding any statute heretofore passed or regulation of such commission heretofore made relative thereto: Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to amend or repeal any law or any regulation relating to wages, hours of labor or condition of labor of women or minors excepting as in this act, authorized. [L. '17, p. 98, § 1. Cf. L. '15, p. 243, § 1.]

See notes to § 7624½.

CHAPTER IV. HOURS OF LABOR.

§ 7642. [6572.] Eight-hour Day on Public Works.

Hereafter eight hours in any calendar day shall constitute a day's work on any work done for the state or any county or municipality within the state, subject to conditions hereinafter provided. [L. '99, p. 163, § 1.]

Cited in 68 Wash. 578; 74 Wash. 613; 77 Wash. 207, 225.

Sections 7642 to 7644 are not impliedly repealed by sections 7645 to 7647, on the same subject, since the two acts may stand together: State v. Davis, 43 Wash. 116, 86 Pac. 201.

An employee of a city fire department is not within this section, providing for an eight-hour day on all work done by contract on public works for municipalities, or subsequent state laws applying only to "work by contract or day labor done": Stetson v. Seattle, 74 Wash. 606, 134 Pac. 494.

§ 7643. [6573.] Application—Pay for Overtime in Emergencies.

All work done by contract or subcontract on any building or improvements or works on roads, bridges, streets, alleys or buildings for the state or any county or municipality within the state, shall be done under the provisions of this act: Provided, that in cases of extraordinary emergency such as danger to life or property, the hours for work may be extended, but in such case the rate of pay for time employed in excess of eight hours of each calendar day, shall be one and one-half times the rate of pay allowed for the same amount of time during eight hours' service. And for this purpose this act is made a part of all contracts, subcontracts or agreements for work done for the state or any county or municipality within the state. [L. '99, p. 163, § 2.]

§ 7644. [6574.] Violation, a Misdemeanor—Penalty.

Any contractor, subcontractor, or agent of contractor or subcontractor, foreman or employer who shall violate the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or with imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than ten days nor more than ninety days, or both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. § 7645. [6575.] State Policy—Eight-hour Day—Emergencies.

It is a part of the public policy of the state of Washington that all work "by contract or day labor done" for it, or any political subdivision created by its laws, shall be performed in work days of not more than eight hours each, except in cases of extraordinary emergency. No case of extraordinary emergency shall be construed to exist in any case where other labor can be found to take the place of labor which has already been employed for eight hours in any calendar day. Members of a city fire department, paid monthly salaries, are not "laborers upon public works" within this section: Neely v. Tacoma, 78 Wash. 92, 138 Pac. 557.

This section is violated by requiring city teamsters to harness and hitch their teams, collect their tools, and be at the place of work before the legal day begins, so as to put in eight hours "on the job," and thereafter return to the barn and unhitch and unharness their teams, putting in about an hour in excess of the lawful eight-hour day: Davies v. Seattle, 67 Wash. 532, 121 Pac. 987.

§ 7646. [6576.] Cancellation of Contract for Violation of Policy.

All contracts for work for the state of Washington, or any political subdivision created by its laws shall provide that they may be canceled by the officers or agents authorized to contract for or supervise the execution of such work, in case such work is not performed in accordance with the policy of the state relating to such work. § 7647. [6577.] Stipulation in Contract—Duty of Contracting Officer.

It is made the duty of all officers or agents authorized to contract for work to be done in behalf of the state of Washington, or any political subdivision created under its laws, to stipulate in all contracts as provided for in this act, and all such officers and agents, and all officers and agents intrusted with the supervision of work performed under such contracts, are authorized, and it is made their duty, to declare any contract canceled, the execution of which is not in accordance with the public policy of this state as herein declared. § 7649. [6579.] Penalty.

Any person, agent, officer, manager, superintendent or receiver of any corporation, or owner of street-car or cars, violating any of the provisions of the last section shall upon conviction thereof shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each day in which such gripman, motorman, driver or conductor in the employ of such person, agent, officer, manager, superintendent or receiver of such corporation or owner is required to work more than ten hours during each twenty-four hours, as provided in the last section, and it is hereby made the duty of the prosecuting attorney of each county of this state to institute the necessary proceedings to enforce the provisions of this and the last section. [L. '95, p. 193, § 2.]

§ 7650. [6580.] Ten Hour Day for Females.

No female shall be employed in any mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel or restaurant in this state more than ten hours during any day. The hours of work may be so arranged as to permit the employment of females at any time so that they shall not work more than ten hours during the twenty-four. [L. '01, p. 118, § 1.]

See next section, a later enactment.

For penalty for violation of this section, see supra, § 7618.

See supra, § 6293, hours for employment of children in bakeries.

§ 7651. [6580a.] Eight Hour Day for Females.

No female shall be employed in any mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel or restaurant in this state more than eight hours during any day. The hours of work may be so arranged as to permit the employment of females at any time so that they shall not work more than eight hours during the twenty-four: Provided, however, that the provisions of this section in relation to the hours of employment shall not apply to, nor affect, females employed in harvesting, packing, curing, canning or drying any variety of perishable fruit or vegetable, nor to females employed in canning fish or shell-fish. If it shall be adjudicated that the foregoing proviso and exception shall be unconstitutional and invalid for any reason, an adjudication of invalidity of said proviso or of any part of this act shall not affect the validity of the act as a whole or any other part thereof. § 7652. [6581.] Railroad Trainmen, Limit of Hours of Service.

It shall be unlawful for any common carrier by railroad or any of its officers or agents, to require or permit any employee engaged in or connected with the movement of any train to remain on duty more than sixteen consecutive hours, except when by casualty occurring after such employee has started on his trip; or, except by accident or unavoidable delay of trains scheduled to make connection with the train on which such employee is serving, he is prevented from reaching his terminal; or, to require or permit any such employee who has been on duty sixteen consecutive hours to go on duty without having had at least ten hours off duty; or, to require or permit any such employee who has been on duty sixteen hours in the aggregate in any twenty-four hour period to continue on duty without having had at least eight hours off duty within the twenty-four hour period. [L. '07, p. 25, § 1.]

Act of Congress, March 4, 1907, making it unlawful for any common carrier to require employees to remain on duty for a longer period than sixteen consecutive hours, and providing that the act shall "take effect and be in force one year after its passage," did not take effect as a law until the end of such period; and it did not supersede this section, during such year, upon any principle of comity, or upon the theory that Congress had occupied the field of statutory regulation and fixed a reasonable time to allow carriers to comply with the regulations: State ex rel. Atkinson v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 53 Wash. 673, 102 Pac. 876, 17 Ann. Cas. 1013.

§ 7653. [6582.] Penalty—Action by Attorney General and Railroad Commission.

Any such common carrier, or any of its officers or agents violating any of the provisions of the preceding section is hereby declared to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred or more than one thousand dollars for each and every such violation to be recovered in a suit or suits to be brought by the attorney general; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to bring such suits upon duly verified information being lodged with him of such violation having occurred, in any superior court; and it shall also be the duty of the railroad commission to fully investigate all cases of the violation of said section, and to lodge with the attorney general information of any such violation as may come to its knowledge. [L. '07, p. 26, § 2.]

§ 7654. [6583.] Eight Hour Day for Coal Miners—Penalty for Employer.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation operating any coal mine, within the state of Washington, to cause any employee to remain at his place of work, where the same is situated underground, for more than eight (8) hours, exclusive of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour for lunch, in any one calendar day of twenty-four (24) hours. Any person, firm or corporation, or the agent of any person, firm or corporation, violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars (\$10) or more than one hundred dollars (\$100) for each offense. [L. '09, p. 749, § 1.]

§ 7655. [6584.] Penalty for Laborer.

It shall be unlawful for any person in the employ of any person, firm, or corporation operating any coal mine within the state of Washington: to willfully remain at, or in his working place, where the same shall be underground, to exceed eight (8) hours, exclusive of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour for lunch, in any one calendar day of twenty-four (24) hours. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five dollars (\$5) or more than twenty dollars (\$20) for each offense. [L. '09, p. 749, § 2.]

§ 7656. [6585.] Ten Hours for Coal Mine Employees Transporting Men.

The provisions of this act shall not apply to, or prohibit engineers, rope-riders, motormen, cagers, or others necessarily employed in transporting men in and out of the mine: Provided, however, that all persons so employed shall not work more than ten (10) hours in any one calendar day: And provided further, that this act shall not be construed to prohibit extra hours of employment underground, necessitated by a weekly change of shift, or where rendered necessary by reason of any accident, or for the purpose of making unavoidable repairs, or for the protection of property or human life. [L. '09, p. 750, § 3.]

§ 7657. [6586.] Enforcement of Act.

It shall be the duty of the state inspector of coal mines to enforce the provisions of this act. [L. '09, p. 750, § 4.]

"Act" refers to §§ 7654—7657.

CHAPTER V.

HEALTH AND SAFETY OF EMPLOYEES IN FACTORIES, ETC.

§ 7658. [6587.] Unguarded or Defective Machinery—Use of, Prohibited.

Any person, firm, corporation or association operating a factory, mill or workshop where machinery is used shall provide and maintain in use, belt-shifters or other mechanical contrivances for the purpose of throwing on or off belts on pulleys while running, where the same are practicable with due regard to the nature and purpose of said belts and the dangers to employees therefrom; also reasonable safeguards for all vats, pans, trimmers, cut-off, gang edger, and other saws, planers, cogs, gearings, belting, shafting, coupling, set-screws, live rollers, conveyors, mangles in laundries and machinery of other or similar description, which it is practicable to guard, and which can be effectively guarded with due regard to the ordinary use of such machinery and appliances, and the dangers to employees therefrom, and with which the employees of any such factory, mill or workshop are liable to come in contact while in the performance of their duties; and if any machine or any part thereof, is in a defective condition, and its operation would be extrahazardous because of such defect, or if any machine is not safeguarded as provided in this act, the use thereof is prohibited, and a notice to that effect shall be attached thereto by the employer or inspector immediately on receiving notice of such defect or lack of safeguard, and such notice shall not be removed until said defect has been remedied or the machine safeguarded as herein provided. § 7661. [6590.] Examination of Factories—Certificates of Approval.

It shall be the duty of the commissioner of labor, by himself or his duly appointed deputy, to examine as soon as may be after the passage of this act, and thereafter annually and from time to time, all factories, mills, workshops, storehouses, warerooms, stores and buildings and the machinery and appliances therein contained to which the provisions of this chapter are applicable for the purpose of determining whether they do conform to such provisions, and of granting or refusing certificates of approval, whether requested to do so or not. [L. '05, p. 165, § 4; L. '07, p. 449, § 2.]

See infra, § 10838, duties devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, commissioner of labor abolished.

§ 7662. [6591.] Requests for Inspection—Effect of.

Any person, firm, corporation or association carrying on business to which the provisions of this act are applicable, shall have the right to make written request to said commissioner of labor to inspect any factory, mill or workshop, and the machinery therein used, and any storehouse, wareroom or store, which said applicant is operating, occupying or using, and to issue his certificate of approval thereof; and said commissioner of labor by himself, or his deputy, shall forthwith make said inspection. Upon receiving such application, the commissioner of labor shall issue to the person making the same, an acknowledgment that such certificate has been applied for, and thirty days after such acknowledgment, by said commissioner of labor, and pending the granting of such certificate, such acknowledgment shall have the same effect as such certificate, till the granting of such certificate by said commissioner of labor: Provided, said applicant has not been notified by an inspector what alterations or repairs are necessary; provided, the commissioner of labor by himself or deputy shall make such examination annually whether requested to do so or not. [L. '05, p. 165, § 5; L. '07, p. 449, § 3.]

"Act" refers to this chapter.

See notes to § 7661.

§ 7663. [6592.] Notification of Defects, by Employees.

Any employee of any person, firm, corporation or association shall notify his employer of any defect in, or failure to guard the machinery, appliances, ways, works and plants, with which or in about which he is working, when any such defect or failure to guard shall come to the knowledge of any said employee, and if said employer shall fail to remedy such defects then said employee may complain in writing to the commissioner of labor of any such alleged defects in or failure to guard the machinery, appliances, ways, works and plants, or any alleged violation by such person, firm, corporation or association, of any of the provisions of this chapter, in the machinery and appliances and premises used by such person, firm, corporation or association, and with or about which such employee is working, and upon receiving such complaint, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of labor, by himself or his deputy, to forthwith make an inspection of the machinery and appliances complained of. [L. '05, p. 166, § 6.]

See notes to § 7661.

§ 7664. [6593.] Certificate of Inspection—Posting—Prima Facie Evidence—Appeal to Arbitrators—Fees—Fund for Special Inspectors.

Whenever upon examination or re-examination of any factory, mill or workshop, store or building, or the machinery or appliances therein to which the provisions of this chapter are applicable, the property so examined and the machinery and appliances therein conform in the judgment of said commissioner of labor to the requirements of this chapter, he shall thereupon issue to the owner, lessee or operator of such factory, mill or workshop or to the owner, lessee or occupant of any such storehouse, wareroom or store, a certificate to that effect, and such certificate shall be prima facie evidence as long as it continues in force of compliance on the part of the person, firm, corporation or association to whom it is issued, with the provisions of this act. Such certificate may be revoked by said commissioner of labor at any time upon written notice to the person, firm, corporation or association holding the same, whenever in his opinion after re-examination, conditions and circumstances have so changed as to justify the revocation thereof. A copy of said certificate shall be kept posted in a conspicuous place on every floor of all factories, mills, workshops, storehouses, warerooms or store to which the provisions of this act are applicable. If, in the judgment of said commissioner of labor, such factory, mill or workshop, or the machinery and appliances therein contained, or such storehouse, wareroom or store does not conform to the requirements of this act, he shall forthwith, personally or by mail, serve on the person, firm, corporation or association operating or using such machinery or appliances, or occupying such premises, a written statement of the requirements of said commissioner of labor, before he will issue a certificate as hereinbefore provided for; said requirements shall be complied with, within a period of thirty days after said requirements have been served as aforesaid and thereupon the said commissioner of labor shall forthwith issue such certificate; but if the person, firm or corporation operating or using said machinery and appliances or occupying such premises shall consider the requirements of said commissioner of labor unreasonable and impracticable or unnecessarily expensive, he may within ten days after the requirements of said commissioner of labor have been served upon him appeal therefrom or from any part thereof, to three arbitrators to whom shall be submitted the matter and things in dispute, and their findings shall be binding upon said applicant and upon the commissioner of labor. Such appeal shall be in writing, addressed to the commissioner of labor and shall set forth the objections to his requirements, or any part thereof, and shall mention the name of one person who will serve as the representative of said applicant calling for arbitration. Immediately upon the receipt of such notice of appeal, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of labor to appoint a competent person as arbitrator resident in the county from which such appeal comes, and to notify such person so selected, and also the party appealing stating the cause of the arbitration, and the place, date and time of meeting. These two arbitrators shall select the third, and as soon thereafter as practicable, give a hearing on the matters of said appeal, and the findings of these arbitrators by a majority vote, shall be reported to the commissioner of labor, and to the applicant, and shall be binding upon each. The expense of such arbitration shall be borne by the party calling for the arbitration; and if said arbitrators sustain the requirements of said commissioner of labor or any part thereof, said applicant shall within thirty days, comply with the findings of said arbitrators, and thereupon said commissioner of labor shall issue his certificate as hereinbefore provided (in section 7661), but if said arbitrators shall sustain such appeal or any part thereof, the same shall be binding upon said commissioner of labor; and any such person, firm, corporation or association shall within thirty days, after the finding of the board of arbitrators, comply with the requirements of the commissioner of labor, as amended by said arbitrators, if so amended as herein provided for, and thereupon said commissioner of labor shall forthwith issue to any such person, firm, corporation or association, his certificate as provided for in section 7661: Provided, however, that before any certificate shall be issued by said commissioner of labor as provided for in this act, the person, firm, corporation or association which has complied with the provisions of this act, shall pay to the commissioner of labor of the state of Washington, an annual fee of ten dollars (provided that any person, firm, corporation or association, employing not to exceed five persons in said factory, mill or workshop shall pay a fee of five dollars), and take his receipt therefor: It is further provided, that the withholding of such certificate shall not excuse such person, firm, corporation or association from obtaining the same and paying the required inspection fee, and the person, firm, corporation or association inspected shall likewise be civilly liable for such inspection fee.

Upon presentation of said receipt to said commissioner of labor, or his deputy, he shall forthwith issue said certificate as in this chapter provided. Said fee shall entitle the person, firm, corporation or association paying the same, to any and every inspection of any factory, mill, workshop, storehouse, wareroom or store, and the machinery and appliances contained therein, owned and operated by the party paying said fee, that may be necessary, for a period of one year subsequent to its payment; and all moneys collected for licenses and fines, under the provisions of this act, shall be paid into the state treasury and be converted into a special factory inspection fund, from which special fund shall be paid the deputy factory inspectors required to enforce the provisions of this chapter. Said deputy factory inspectors shall be paid from the special factory inspection fund, upon the presentation of vouchers properly signed by the labor commissioner in the same manner in which other employees of the state are paid. [L. '05, p. 166, § 7; L. '07, p. 450, § 4.] guard, and the question is usually for the jury unless reasonable minds could not differ: Jensen v. Shaw Show Case Co., 76 Wash. 419, 136 Pac. 698.

§ 7665. [6597.] Violation, a Misdemeanor.

Any person, firm, corporation or association who violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter or to pay for and obtain the certificate of inspection shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars. CHAPTER VI.

ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES.

Arbitration and award: See supra, § 420.

§ 7667. [6599.] Advice by Commissioner—Selection of Board of Arbitration.

It shall be the duty of the state labor commissioner upon application of any employer or employee having differences, as soon as practicable, to visit the location of such differences and to make a careful inquiry into the cause thereof and to advise the respective parties, what, if anything, ought to be done or submitted to by both to adjust said dispute and should said parties then still fail to agree to a settlement through said commissioner, then said commissioner shall endeavor to have said parties consent in writing to submit their differences to a board of arbitration to be chosen from citizens of the state as follows, to wit: Said employer shall appoint one and said employees acting through a majority, one, and these two shall select a third, these three to constitute the board of arbitration and the findings of said board of arbitration to be final. [L. '03, p. 71, § 1.]

See infra, § 10838, duties devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, commissioner of labor abolished.

Cited in 111 Wash. 247.

§ 7668. [6600.] Proceedings of Board—Duties of Commissioner as Chairman.

The proceedings of said board of arbitration shall be held before the commissioner of labor who shall act as moderator or chairman, without the privilege of voting, and who shall keep a record of the proceedings, issue subpoenas and administer oaths to the members of said board, and any witness said board may deem necessary to summon. [L. '03, p. 71, § 2.]

§ 7669. [6601.] Service—By Whom Made.

Any notice or process issued by the board herein created, shall be served by any sheriff, coroner or constable to whom the same may be directed, or in whose hands the same may be placed for service. [L. '03, p. 71, § 3.]

§ 7670. [6602.] Compensation and Expenses of Arbitrators.

Such arbitrators shall receive five dollars per day for each day actually engaged in such arbitration and the necessary traveling expenses to be paid upon certificates of the labor commissioner out of the fund appropriated for the purpose or at the disposal of the bureau of labor applicable to such expenditure. [L. '03, p. 71, § 4.]

§ 7671. [6603.] Failure to Secure Arbitration—Sworn Statement as to Facts, etc., by Parties, for Public Use.

Upon the failure of the labor commissioner, in any case, to secure the creation of a board of arbitration, it shall become his duty to request a sworn statement from each party to the dispute of the facts upon which their dispute and their reasons for not submitting the same to arbitration are based. Any sworn statement made to the labor commissioner under this provision shall be for public use and shall be given publicly in such newspapers as desire to use it. [L. '03, p. 72, § 5.]

§ 7672. [6604.] Exhaustion of Funds—Either Party may Advance Expenses of Arbitration.

In case the funds herein provided are exhausted and either party to a proposed arbitration shall tender the necessary expenses for conducting said arbitration, then it shall be the duty of the state labor commissioner to request the opposite party to arbitrate such differences in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [L. '03, p. 72, § 6.]

The appropriation contained in this section is omitted.

CHAPTER VII.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT.

§ 7673. [6604-1.] Declaration of Police Power.

The common-law system governing the remedy of workmen against employers for injuries received in hazardous work is inconsistent with modern industrial conditions. In practice it proves to be economically unwise and unfair. Its administration has produced the result that little of the cost of the employer has reached the workman and that little only at large expense to the public. The remedy of the workman has been uncertain, slow and inadequate. Injuries in such works, formerly occasional, have become frequent and inevitable. The welfare of the state depends upon its industries, and even more upon the welfare of its wage worker. The state of Washington, therefore, exercising herein its police and sovereign power, declares that all phases of the premises are withdrawn from private controversy, and sure and certain relief for workmen, injured in extrahazardous work, and their families and dependents is hereby provided regardless of questions of fault and to the exclusion of every other remedy, proceeding or compensation, except as otherwise provided in this act; and to that end all civil actions and civil causes of action for such personal injuries and all jurisdiction of the courts of the state over such causes are hereby abolished, except as in this act provided. [L. '11, p. 345, § 1.]

There is a hazard in all employment, but certain employments have come to be, and to be recognized as being, inherently constantly dangerous. This act is intended to apply to all such inherently hazardous works and occupations, and it is the purpose to embrace all of them, which are within the legislative jurisdiction of the state, in the following enumeration, and they are intended to be embraced within the term "extrahazardous" wherever used in this act, to wit: factories, mills and workshops where machinery is used; printing, electrotyping, photo-engraving and stereotyping plants where machinery is used; foundries, blast furnaces, mines, wells, gasworks, waterworks, reduction works, breweries, elevators, wharves, docks, dredges, smelters, powder works; laundries operated by power, quarries, engineering works, logging, lumbering, and shipbuilding operations; logging, street and interurban railroads; buildings being constructed, repaired, moved or demolished; telegraph, telephone, electric light or power plants or lines, steam heating or power plants, steamboats, tugs, ferries and railroads; general warehouse and storage; transfer, drayage and hauling; warehousing and transfer; fruit warehouse and packing-houses. If there be or arise any extrahazardous occupation or work other than those hereinabove enumerated, it shall come under this act, and its rate of contribution to the accident fund hereinafter established, shall be, until fixed by legislation, determined by the department hereinafter created, upon the basis of the relation which the risk involved bears to the risks classified in section 7676.

The director of labor and industries through and by means of the division of industrial insurance shall have power, after hearing had upon its own motion, or upon the application of any party interested, to declare any occupation or work to be extrahazardous and to be under this act. The director of labor and industries shall fix the time and place of such hearing, and shall cause notice thereof to be published once at least ten days before the hearing in at least one daily newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in each city of the first class in this state. No defect or inaccuracy in such notice or in the publication thereof shall invalidate any order issued by the director of labor and industries after hearing had. Any person affected shall have the right to appear and be heard at any such hearing. Any order, finding or decision of the director of labor and industries made and entered under the foregoing provisions of this act shall be subject to review by the courts within the time and in the manner specified in section 7697 and not otherwise. [L. '21, p. 719, § 1; L. '19, p. 340, § 1; L. '11, p. 346, § 2.]

Extrahazardous Employments: The operation of a passenger or freight elevator is not an extrahazardous employment: Guerieri v. Industrial Ins. Com., 84 Wash. 266, 146 Pac. 608.

A person whose usual or regular employment, that of a truck driver and storekeeper's helper, was not extrahazardous, but whose duty it was when called upon, to assist and work under the direction of an electrician in the installation of electric motors, classed as an extrahazardous employment is subject to the act: Replogle v. Seattle School Dist., 84 Wash. 581, 147 Pac. 196.

The legislature having classed the work of construction of telegraph and telephone plants as extrahazardous, the same is conclusive of the fact, especially since judicial notice cannot be taken to the contrary: State v. Postal Telegraph-Cable Co., 101 Wash. 630, 172 Pac. 902.

A carpenter engaged in a department store who was killed while trying to turn on electric power in the workshop was engaged in extrahazardous employment: Wendt v. Industrial Ins. Com., 80 Wash. 111, 141 Pac. 311.

A carpenter on the construction of a shipbuilding plant who, on his way to the toilet, passed near a galvanizing tank in the vicinity of his work when the tank exploded, is engaged in an "extrahazardous" employment within the industrial insurance act, and was injured at the employer's plant in the course of his employment: Welden v. Skinner & Eddy Corp., 103 Wash. 243, 174 Pac. 452.

The operation of a power-driven machine to make zinc plates or stencils for printing gas bills, by a woman clerk employed in the general office at clerical work for the larger part of the time, is "extrahazardous," within this act, and it is immaterial that, when the machine was in perfect order, injury was practically impossible: Gowey v. Seattle Lighting Co., 108 Wash. 479, 184 Pac. 339.

Under this section, providing that the Workmen's Compensation Act is intended to apply to all extrahazardous occupations, and that "if there be or arise" any extrahazardous occupation or work other than those enumerated, it shall come under the act and its rate of contribution be determined by the industrial insurance commission, no power is delegated to the commission to decide as a legislative determination that an occupation other than those enumerated is extrahazardous, in the absence of any express delegation of such power: State v. Powles & Co., 94 Wash. 416, 162 Pac. 569.

§ 7675. [6604-3.*] Definitions.

In the sense of this act words employed mean as here stated, to wit: Factories mean undertaking in which the business of working at commodities is carried on with power-driven machinery, either in manufacture, repair or change, and shall include the premises, yard and plant of the concern. Workshop means any plant, yard, premises, room or place wherein power-driven machinery is employed and manual labor is exercised by way of trade for gain or otherwise in or incidental to the process of making, altering, repairing, printing, or ornamenting, finishing or adapting for sale or otherwise any article or part of article, machine or thing, over which premises, room or place the employer of the person working therein has the right of access or control. Mill means any plant, premises, room or place wherein machinery is used, any process of machinery, changing, altering or repairing any article or commodity for sale or otherwise, together with the yards and premises which are a part of the plant, including elevators, warehouses and bunkers. Mine means any mine where coal, clay, ore, mineral, gypsum or rock is dug or mined underground. Quarry means an open cut from which coal is mined, or clay, ore, mineral, gypsum, sand, gravel or rock is cut or taken for manufacturing, building or construction purposes. Engineering work means any work of construction, improvement or alteration or repair of buildings, structures, streets, highways, sewers, street railways, railroads, logging roads, interurban railroads, harbors, docks, canals, electric, steam or water-power plants, telegraph and telephone plants and lines, electric light or power lines, and includes any other works for the construction, alteration or repair of which machinery driven by mechanical power is used, except when otherwise expressly stated. Employer means any person, body of persons, corporate or otherwise, and the legal personal representatives of a deceased employer, all while engaged in this state in any extrahazardous work or who contracts with another to engage in extrahazardous work. Workman means every person in this state, who is engaged in the employment of an employer coming under this act whether by way of manual labor or otherwise, and whether upon the premises or at the plant or, he being in the course of his employment, away from the plant of his employer: Provided, however, that if the injury to a workman occurring away from the plant of his employer is due to the negligence or wrong of another not in the same employ, the injured workman, or if death result from the injury, his widow, children or dependents, as the case may be, shall elect whether to take under this act or seek a remedy against such other, such election to be in advance of any suit under this section; and if he take under this act, the cause of action against such other shall be assigned to the state for the benefit of the accident fund; if the other choice is made, the accident fund shall contribute only the deficiency, if any, between the amount of recovery against such third person actually collected, and the compensation provided or estimated by this act for such case. Any such cause of action assigned to the state may be prosecuted, or compromised by the department, in its discretion. Any compromise by the workman of any such suit, which would leave a deficiency to be made good out of the accident fund, may be made only with the written approval of the department.

Any individual employer or any member or officer of any corporate employer who shall be carried upon the pay-roll at a salary or wage not less than the average salary or wage named in such pay-roll and who shall be injured, shall be entitled to the benefit of this act as and under the same circumstances as and subject to the same obligations as a workman: Provided, that no such employer or the beneficiaries or dependents of such employer shall be entitled to benefits under this act unless the director of labor and industries prior to the date of the injury has received notice in writing of the fact that such employer is being carried upon the pay-roll prior to the date of the injury as the result of which claims for compensation are made. Dependent means any of the following named relatives of a workman whose death results from any injury and who leaves surviving no widow, widower, or child under the age of sixteen years, viz.: invalid child over the age of eighteen years, daughter between sixteen and eighteen years of age, father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, stepfather, stepmother, grandson, grand-daughter, brother, sister, half-sister, half-brothers, niece, nephew, who at the time of the accident are dependent in whole or in part for their support upon the earnings of the workman. Except where otherwise provided by treaty, aliens other than father or mother, not residing within the United States at the time of the accident, are not included. Beneficiary means a husband, wife, child or dependent of a workman in whom shall vest a right to receive payment under this act. Invalid means one who is physically or mentally incapacitated from earning. The word "child" as used in this act, includes a posthumous child, a stepchild, a child legally adopted prior to the injury, and an illegitimate child legitimated prior to the injury. The words "injury" or "injured" as used in this act refer only to an injury resulting from some fortuitous event as distinguished from the contraction of disease. The term "educational standard" shall mean such standards as the supervisor of safety shall make for the purpose of educating and training both employer and workman in the appreciation and avoidance of danger, and in the maintenance and proper use of safe place and safety device standards. [L. '21, p. 720, § 2; L. '19, p. 342, § 2; L. '17, p. 474, § 1; L. '11, p. 346, § 3.]

It does not follow from the fact that a telegraph company is an agent of the United States through its acceptance of the provisions of the act of Congress, July 24, 1866 (U. S. Rev. Stats., §§ 5263—5269), and the building of post roads, that the industrial insurance provisions for the compensation of employees in the construction of the system within this state is either a tax upon or an attempt to regulate the business of the company, since it could not have been intended that such companies owed no obedience to state laws, and since the imposition is part of the cost of construction and not a tax upon the industry nor in the nature of a license tax: State v. Postal Telegraph-Cable Co., 101 Wash. 630, 172 Pac. 902.

"Plant or Premises."—From findings that defendant was doing a general public warehouse, dock and wharf business, it will be inferred that the dock, wharf and warehouse was a single plant or structure, and when coupled with a finding that the work in the warehouse was extrahazardous, it will be assumed that the warehouse was the superstructure of a "dock" or "wharf," and that the work was not exempted as work in a "private warehouse": O'Brien v. Industrial Ins. Dept., 100 Wash. 674, 171 Pac. 1018.

Giving a liberal construction to the act, the "plant" of a street railway company does not include its street-car tracks in a city street; hence its employee, run down by an automobile while engaged in oiling the tracks, is entitled to make the election: Carlson v. Mock, 102 Wash. 557, 173 Pac. 637.

A city bridge over wires and tracks of an electric railway company, over which the city, for the purpose of repairs, has exclusive control, is a part of the "plant or premises" of the city within the meaning of this section; so that the act applies to a bridge carpenter injured by contact with the electric wires of the company while engaged in repairing the bridge: Zenor v. Spokane & Inland Empire R. Co., 109 Wash. 471, 186 Pac. 849.

Factory or Workshop.—A gas company's general office for clerical work in which a clerk operated a power-driven machine to make zinc plates or stencils for printing gas bills is a "factory" or workshop, within the meaning of this section, precluding actions for personal injuries by employees: Gowey v. Seattle Lighting Co., 108 Wash. 479, 184 Pac. 339.

Workmen Within the Act.—The relation of master and servant does not exist between father and son, within the meaning of this section, where it appears that a son, thirteen years of age, who desired to go to work in his father's shingle-mill as a packer, was allowed to go to work driving shingle-bolts on a creek on the promise that later he could have the packer's job, there being nothing said about compensation; since, in the case of father and minor child, there must be clear proof of a contractual relation: Hillestad v. Industrial Ins. Com., 80 Wash. 426, 141 Pac. 913, Ann. Cas. 1916B, 789, 6 N. C. C. A. 763.

An action cannot be maintained by an employee for injuries sustained in another state while working in an extrahazardous employment (mining) in the absence of allegation or proof as to the laws of such state, which presumptively are the same as our own, withdrawing relief for such injuries from private controversy: Freyman v. Day, 108 Wash. 71, 182 Pac. 940.

A girl under sixteen years of age employed in a factory without any permit in violation of section 2447, supra, is nevertheless a "workman" within the provisions of the industrial insurance act, withdrawing all civil remedies for personal injuries to workmen in extrahazardous employment; especially in view of § 7681, infra, recognizing that a child less than the maximum age is a workman within the meaning of the act: Rasi v. Howard Mfg. Co., 109 Wash. 524, 187 Pac. 327.

An injured workman, compensated by the act, cannot maintain an action for malpractice aggravating his injuries, against his master and the physician; but the act does not bar an action upon an accident policy: Ross v. Erickson Constr. Co., 89 Wash. 634, 155 Pac. 153, L. R. A. 1916F, 319.

Dependents.—One who lived with deceased as his wife, believing herself to be lawfully married, is not a "dependent" of the deceased, as defined by this section specifying "widows" and certain relatives as within the definition: Meton v. Industrial Ins. Dept., 104 Wash. 652, 177 Pac. 696.

Fortuitous Event.—A rule of the industrial insurance commission that "hernia coming on while a man was following his usual work is not an accident" does not prevent recovery of compensation by an employee who was following his usual work, and hernia resulted from a fortuitous event or accident to which the result might be directly traceable: Zappala v. Industrial Ins. Com., 82 Wash. 314, 144 Pac. 54, L. R. A. 1916A, 295.

A rupture, sustained while engaged in moving a heavily loaded truck, which ran harder than usual, whereupon the employee exerted all his strength and gave a jerk, is a "fortuitous event" within the meaning of this section: Zappala v. Industrial Ins. Com., 82 Wash. 314, 144 Pac. 54, L. R. A. 1916A, 295.

The employment of the word "accident" is a substitute for "fortuitous event" and cannot be construed as limiting the right of compensation: Stertz v. Industrial Ins. Com., 91 Wash. 588, 158 Pac. 256, Ann. Cas. 1918B, 354.

Who is "workman" within meaning of Workmen's Compensation Act. Ann. Cas. 1913C, 28; Ann. Cas. 1916B, 793; Ann. Cas. 1918B, 704.

§ 7676. [6604-4.*] Schedule of Contribution.

Insomuch as industry should bear the greater portion of the burden of the cost of its accidents, each employer shall, prior to January 15th of each year, pay into the state treasury, in accordance with the following schedule, a sum equal to a percentage of his total pay-roll for that year, to wit: (the same being deemed the most accurate method of equitable distribution of burden in proportion to relative hazard):

The application of this act as between employers and workmen shall date from and include the first day of October, 1911. The payment for 1911 shall be made prior to the day last named, and shall be preliminarily collected upon the pay-roll of the last preceding three months of operation. At the end of each year an adjustment of accounts shall be made upon the basis of the actual pay-roll. Any shortage shall be made good on or before February 1st, following. Every employer who shall enter into business at any intermediate day, or who shall resume operations in any work or plant after the final adjustment of his pay-roll in connection therewith, shall, before so commencing or resuming operations, as the case may be, notify the commission of such fact, accompanying such notification with an estimate of his pay-roll for the initial year or portion thereof, and shall make payment of the premium on such estimated pay-roll for the first three months of operations. Every such employer shall be liable for a premium of at least three dollars irrespective of the amount of his pay-roll. An adjustment upon such pay-roll shall be made as in other cases.

Every employer within the provisions of this act shall on or before the fifteenth day of January, the fifteenth day of May and the fifteenth day of September of each year furnish the department with a true and accurate pay-roll showing the aggregate number of work days, that is men-days, during which workmen were employed by him during the four preceding calendar months, the total amount paid to such workmen during said four months, and a segregation of employment in the different classes provided in this act. The sufficiency of such statement shall be subject to the approval of the industrial insurance commission.

Every employer shall keep at his place of business a record of his employment from which the above information may be obtained and such record shall at all times be open to the inspection of the commissioners or the traveling auditors, agents or assistants of the department, as provided in section 7690.

In all cases where partners or other persons are excluded on the pay-roll such statement shall state both the names and occupations of the parties excluded and no such persons shall be entitled to compensation unless notice in writing that such excluded person has been included is received by the department prior to the date of injury to such person. Such employer shall at the time of reporting his pay-roll also state the names and addresses of any contractor or subcontractor operating for or under him.

Every person, firm or corporation who shall fail to keep such record or fail to make such report in the manner and at the time herein provided shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) for each such offense, to be collected by civil action in the name of the state and paid into the accident fund.

Every employer who shall fail to furnish an estimated pay-roll and make payment as above provided shall be liable to a penalty in three times the amount of the premium on such pay-roll, to be collected in a civil action in the name of the state, and paid into the accident fund. The commission may waive the whole or any part of such penalty.

For the purpose of such payments accounts shall be kept with each industry in accordance with the classification herein provided and no class shall be liable for the depletion of the accident fund from accidents happening in any other class. Each class shall meet and be liable for the accidents occurring in such class. There shall be collected from each class as an initial payment into the accident fund as above specified on or before the first day of October, 1911, one-fourth of the premium of the next succeeding year, and one-twelfth thereof at the close of each month after December, 1911: Provided, any class having sufficient funds credited to its account at the end of the first three months or any month thereafter, to meet the requirements of the accident fund, that class shall not be called upon for such month. In case of accidents occurring in such class after lapsed payment or payments said class shall pay the said lapsed or deferred payments commencing at the first lapsed payment, as may be necessary to meet such requirements of the accident fund. The fund thereby created shall be termed the "accident fund" which shall be devoted exclusively to the purpose specified for it in this act.

In that the intent is that the fund created under this section shall ultimately become neither more nor less than self-supporting, exclusive of the expense of administration, the rates named in this section are subject to future adjustment by the industrial insurance department, in accordance with any relative increase or decrease in hazard shown by experience, and if in the adjustment of the industrial insurance department the moneys paid into the fund of any class or classes shall insufficient to properly and safely distribute the burden of accidents occurring therein, the department may divide, rearrange or consolidate such class or classes, making such adjustment or transfer of funds as it may deem proper.

It shall be unlawful for the employer to deduct or obtain any part of the premium required by this section to be by him paid from the wages or earnings of his workmen or any of them, and the making or attempting to make any such deduction shall be a gross misdemeanor. The industrial insurance commission shall on or before the first day of January, 1920, and annually thereafter make corrections of classifications as between classes of industries if and as experience shall show error or inaccuracy therein. From the original classification or premium rating or any change made therein any employer claiming to be aggrieved may upon application have a hearing before the industrial insurance commission upon notice to the interested parties and in the manner provided in section 7697 a review by the courts. If, at the end of any year, it shall be seen that the contribution to the accident fund by any class of industry shall be less than the drain upon the fund on account of that class, the deficiency shall be made good to the fund on the first day of February of the following year by the employers of that class in proportion to their respective payments for the past year.

For the purpose of such payment and making good of deficit the particular classes of industry shall be as follows:

CONSTRUCTION WORK.

Class 1. Tunnels; sewer, shaft sinking; drilling wells.

Class 2. Bridges; millwrighting; trestles, steeples, towers or grain elevators not metal framed; tanks; water-towers; windmills not metal framed.

Class 3. Subaqueous works; canal other than irrigation or docks with or without blasting; pile-driving; jetties; breakwaters; marine railways.

Class 4. House-moving; house-wrecking; safe-moving.

Class 5. Iron or steel frame structures or parts of structures; fire-escapes; erecting fireproof doors or shutters; blast furnaces; concrete chimneys; freight or passenger elevators; fireproofing of buildings; galvanized iron or tin work; marble, stone or brick work; roof work; slate work; plumbing work; metal smokestacks or chimneys; advertising signs; ornamental metal work on buildings; carpenter work not otherwise specified; marble, stone or tile setting; mantel setting; metal ceiling work; painting of buildings or structures; concrete laying in floors or foundations; glass-setting; building hothouses; lathing; paper-hanging; plastering; wooden stair building.

Class 6. Electric light and power plants or systems, telegraph or telephone systems; cable or electric railways with or without rock work or blasting; waterworks or systems; steam-heating plants; gasworks or systems; installation of steam boilers or engines; placing wires in conduits; installing dynamos; putting up belts for machinery; installation of automatic sprinklers; covering steam pipes or boilers; installation of machinery not otherwise specified; installing electrical apparatus or fire-alarm systems in buildings; house-heating or ventilating systems.

Class 7. Steam railroads; logging railroads.

Class 8. Road-making; street or other grading; concrete laying in street paving; asphalt laying.

Class 9. Ship or boat building with scaffold; shipwrighting; ship or boat rigging; floating docks.

OPERATIONS (INCLUDING REPAIR WORK) OF

Class 10. Logging; sawmills; shingle-mills; lath-mills; mast and spars with or without machinery.

Class 12. Dredges; dry or floating docks.

Class 13. Electric light or power plants or systems; steam heat or power plants or systems; electric systems not otherwise specified.

Class 14. Street railways.

Class 15. Telegraph systems; telephone systems.

Class 16. Coal mines.

Class 17. Quarries; stone crushing; mines other than coal.

Class 18. Blast furnaces; smelters; rolling-mills.

Class 20. Steamboats; tugs; ferries.

Class 21. Grain elevators.

Class 23. Waterworks.

Class 24. Paper or pulp mills.

Class 25. Garbage works; fertilizer.

FACTORIES (USING POWER-DRIVEN MACHINERY).

Class 26. Stamping tin or metal.

Class 27. Bridge work; making steam shovels or dredges; tanks; water-towers.

Class 28. Railroad car or locomotive making or repairing.

Class 29. Cooperage; staves; veneer; box; packing cases; sash, door or blinds; barrel; keg; pail; basket; tub; woodware or wood fibre ware; kindling wood; excelsior; working in wood not otherwise specified.

Class 30. Asphalt.

Class 31. Cement; stone with or without machinery; building material not otherwise specified.

Class 32. Canneries of fruits or vegetables.

Class 33. Canneries of fish or meat products.

Class 34. Iron, steel, copper, zinc, brass or lead articles in wares; hardware; boiler-works; foundries; machine-shops not otherwise specified.

Class 35. Tile; brick; terra cotta; fire-clay; pottery; earthen ware; porcelain ware.

Class 36. Peat fuel; briquettes.

Class 37. Breweries; bottling works.

Class 38. Cordage; working in wool, cloth, leather, paper, brush, rubber or textile not otherwise specified.

Class 39. Working in foodstuffs, including oils, fruits, vegetables.

Class 43. Stockyards; packing-houses; making soap, tallow, lard, grease; tanneries.

Class 44. Artificial ice, refrigerating or cold storage plants.

Class 45. Theater stage employees.

Class 46. Fireworks manufacturing; powder works.

Class 47. Creosoting works; pile treating works.

If a single establishment or work comprises several occupations listed in this section in different risk classes, the premium shall be computed according to the pay-roll of each occupation if clearly separable; otherwise an average rate of premium shall be charged for the entire establishment, taking into consideration the number of employees and the relative hazards. In computing the pay-roll the entire compensation received by every workman employed in extrahazardous employment shall be included, whether it be in the form of salary, wage, piecework, overtime, or any allowance in the way of profit-sharing, premium or otherwise, and whether payable in money, board, or otherwise. [L. '19, p. 345, § 3; L. '17, p. 477, § 2; L. '15, p. 674, § 1. Cf. L. '11, p. 349, § 4.]

ELEVATORS.—The use of the words "passenger and freight elevators" in this section, under the classification of "construction work," shows that the statute means those engaged in the manufacture or construction of freight and passenger elevators; especially in view of the fact that the schedule of rates to be paid does not specifically cover passenger or freight elevators, but does include the operation of grain elevators: Guerrieri v. Industrial Ins. Com., 84 Wash. 266, 146 Pac. 608, 8 N. C. C. A. 440.

§ 7677. Temporary Employer.

Every employer who after June 30, 1921, shall for the first time since June 30, 1918, engage in any extrahazardous work shall be known as a temporary employer, and shall remain so for the period of one year following the commencement of such work. Each temporary employer shall contribute to the accident fund on the basis of the class rate for the class or class subdivision to which he shall belong increased thirty-three and one-third per cent. At the end of the first year of his operations he shall cease to be a temporary employer if he has paid his aforesaid contribution into the accident fund. In each case where the accident cost to the fund for the first year's operations of any temporary employer, who shall so cease to be a temporary employer, shall not exceed his contribution, the said thirty-three and one-third per cent increase shall be refunded or credited to him out of the accident fund. [L. '21, p. 724, § 3.]

§ 7678. County Assessor to Make Annual List of Employers.

It shall be the duty of the county assessor of each of the counties of the state each year to make a list upon blanks to be furnished by the industrial insurance department of all employers within his county who are engaged in extrahazardous industries as defined by this act, and to forward such list of extrahazardous employments and industries to the industrial insurance department on or before the first day of May of each and every year. [L. '21, p. 724, § 4.]

See infra, §§ 7703, 10836, duties of industrial insurance department devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, industrial insurance department abolished.

§ 7679. [6604-5.*] Schedule of Awards.

Each workman who shall be injured whether upon the premises or at the plant, or he being in the course of his employment, away from the plant of his employer, or his family or dependents in case of death of the workman, shall receive out of the accident fund compensation in accordance with the following schedule, and, except as in this act otherwise provided, such payment shall be in lieu of any and all rights of action whatsoever against any person whomsoever.

COMPENSATION SCHEDULE.

(a) Where death results from the injury the expenses of burial not to exceed seventy-five dollars ($75) in any case where the deceased was an unmarried man, or one hundred dollars in any case where the deceased left a widow or an orphan child or children and

(1) If the workman leaves a widow or invalid widower, a monthly payment of thirty dollars ($30) shall be made throughout the life of the surviving spouse, to cease at the end of the month in which remarriage shall occur, and the surviving spouse shall also receive five dollars ($5) per month for each child of the deceased under the age of sixteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury until such minor child shall reach the age of sixteen years. An invalid child over sixteen years of age shall be here and in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (a), and in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b), and in subdivision (c) and in paragraphs (1) and (3) but not in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) considered to be a child under sixteen years of age until such invalid child shall arrive at the age of eighteen years, but the total monthly payment under this paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50): Provided, that in addition to the monthly payments above provided for, a surviving widow of any such deceased workman shall be forthwith paid the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) in any case where the commission shall be satisfied and shall make a record in their office a finding that the burial expenses have not exceeded and shall not exceed the amount above specified for burial expenses; and further, that no part of said additional payment can be diverted to the payment of burial expenses.

Upon remarriage of a widow she shall receive once and for all, a lump sum of two hundred forty dollars ($240), but the monthly payment for the child or children shall continue as before.

(2) If the workman leave no wife or husband, but a child or children under the age of sixteen years, a monthly payment of ten dollars ($10) shall be made to each such child until such child shall reach the age of sixteen years, but the total monthly payment shall not exceed forty dollars ($40), and any deficit shall be deducted proportionately among the beneficiaries.

(3) If the workman leaves no widow, widower, or child under the age of sixteen years, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifty per cent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the workman during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20) per month. If any dependent is under the age of sixteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent shall reach the age of sixteen years. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

If the workman is under the age of twenty-one years and unmarried at the time of his death, the parents or parent of the workman shall receive twenty dollars ($20) per month for each month after his death until the time at which he would have arrived at the age of twenty-one years.

(4) In the event of a surviving spouse receiving monthly payment shall die, leaving a child or children under the age of sixteen years, the sum he or she shall be receiving on account of such child or children shall be thereafter, until such child shall arrive at the age of sixteen years, paid to the child increased one hundred per cent, but the total to all children shall not exceed the sum of forty dollars ($40) per month.

(b) Permanent total disability means the loss of both legs, or arms, of one leg and one arm, total loss of eyesight, paralysis or other condition permanently incapacitating the workman from performing any work at any gainful occupation.

When permanent total disability results from the injury, the workman shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

(1) If unmarried at the time of the injury, the sum of thirty dollars ($30).

(2) If the workman have a wife or invalid husband, but no child under the age of sixteen years, the sum of thirty dollars ($30). If the husband is not an invalid, the monthly payment of thirty dollars ($30) shall be reduced to fifteen dollars ($15).

(3) If the workman have a wife or husband and a child or children under the age of sixteen years, or, being a widow or widower, having any such child or children, the monthly payment provided in the preceding paragraph shall be increased by five dollars ($5) for each such child until such child shall arrive at the age of sixteen years, but the total monthly payment shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).

(4) In case of total permanent disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the workman so physically helpless as to require the services of a constant attendant, the monthly payment to such workman shall be increased twenty dollars ($20) per month so long as such requirement shall continue, but such increase shall not obtain or be operative while the workman is receiving care under or pursuant to any of the provisions of section 7712 to 7725, inclusive.

(c) If the injured workman die, during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a widow, invalid widower, or child under the age of sixteen years, the surviving widow or invalid widower shall receive thirty dollars ($30) per month until death or remarriage, to be increased five dollars ($5) per month for each child under the age of sixteen years until such child shall arrive at the age of sixteen years; but if such child is or shall be without father or mother, such child shall receive ten dollars ($10) per month until arriving at the age of sixteen years. The total combined monthly payments under this paragraph shall in no case exceed fifty dollars ($50). Upon remarriage the payments on account of the child or children shall continue as before to such child or children.

An invalid child while being supported and cared for in a state institution shall not receive compensation under this act.

(d) (1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payment contained in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of the foregoing subdivision (b) shall apply, so long as the total disability shall continue, (2) but if the injured workman has a wife or husband and have no child or have a wife or husband with, or being a widow or widower with one or more children under the age of sixteen years, the compensation for the case during the first six months or such lesser period of time as the total temporary disability shall continue, shall be per month as follows, to wit: Injured workman whose husband is not an invalid, twenty-two and fifty one-hundredth dollars ($22.50); injured workman having one child, whose husband is not an invalid, thirty dollars ($30); injured workman having two children, whose husband is not an invalid, thirty-seven and fifty one-hundredth dollars ($37.50); injured workman having three children, whose husband is not an invalid, forty-five dollars, ($45); injured workman having four or more children, whose husband is not an invalid, fifty-two and fifty one-hundredth dollars ($52.50); injured workman with wife or invalid husband and no child, thirty-seven and fifty one-hundredth dollars ($37.50); injured workman with a wife or invalid husband and one child, or being a widow or widower and having one child, forty-five dollars ($45); injured workman with a wife or invalid husband and two or more children, or being a widow or widower and having two or more children, fifty-two and fifty one-hundredth dollars ($52.50). (3) If such temporary total disability shall endure longer than said six months' period, the schedule of compensation contained in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of the foregoing subdivision (b) shall at the end of said six months' period again obtain. (4) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the workman, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable out of the accident fund unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five per cent.

(e) There is hereby created in the office of the state treasurer a fund to be known and designated as the reserve fund out of which shall be made the payments specified in this section for all cases of death or permanent total disability including future payments to be made for the cases of that character which have heretofore arisen. Into the reserve fund

there shall be forthwith placed all unexpended funds, in cash or invested, heretofore set aside for cases requiring a reserve. For every case resulting in death or permanent total disability hereafter arising it shall be the duty of the department to make transfer on their books from the accident fund of the proper class to the reserve fund of that class a sum of money for that case equal to the estimated present cash value of the monthly payments provided for it, to be calculated upon the basis of an annuity covering the payments in this section provided to be made for the case. Such annuities shall be based upon tables to be prepared for that purpose by the state insurance commissioner and by him furnished to the state treasurer, calculated upon standard mortality tables with an interest assumption of four (4) per cent per annum.

The department shall notify the state treasurer from time to time of such transfers as a whole and the state treasurer shall invest the reserve in either state capitol building bonds issued to take up capitol building warrants now outstanding, or in the class of securities provided by law for the investment of the permanent school fund, and the interest or other earnings of the reserve fund shall become a part of the reserve fund itself. The department shall, on October 1st of each year, apportion the interest or other earnings of the reserve fund as certified to it by the state treasurer, to the various class reserve funds according to the average class balance for the preceding year. As soon as possible after October 1st, of each year beginning in the year 1918, the state insurance commissioner shall expert the reserve fund of each class to ascertain its standing as of October 1st, of that year, and the relation of its outstanding annuities at their then value to the cash on hand or at interest belonging to that fund. He shall promptly report the result of his examination to the department and to the state treasurer in writing not later than December 31st. If the report show that there was on said October 1st, in the reserve fund of any class in cash or at interest a greater sum than the then annuity value of the outstanding pension obligations of that class, the surplus shall be forthwith turned over to the accident fund of that class, but if the report show the contrary condition of any class reserve, the deficiency shall be forthwith made good out of the accident fund of that class. The state treasurer shall keep accurate account of the reserve fund and the investment and earnings thereof, to the end that the total reserve fund shall at all times, as near as may be, be properly and fully invested, and to meet current demands for pension or lump sum payments may, if necessary, make temporary loans to the reserve fund out of the accident funds for that class, repaying same from the earnings of that reserve fund or from collections of its investments, or, if necessary, sales of the same.

(f) Permanent partial disability means the loss of either one foot, one leg, one hand, one arm, one eye, one or more fingers, one or more toes, any dislocation where ligaments were severed where repair is not complete, or any other injury known in surgery to be permanent partial disability. For the permanent partial disabilities here specifically described, the injured workman shall receive compensation as follows:

Loss of one leg amputated so near the hip that an artificial limb cannot be worn $2,000

Loss of one leg at or above the knee so that an artificial limb can be worn	$1,900
Loss of one leg below the knee	$1,300
Loss of the major arm at or above the elbow	$1,900
Loss of the major hand at wrist	$1,600
Loss of one eye by enucleation	$1,200
Loss of sight of one eye.....	$ 900
Complete loss of hearing in both ears	$1 900
Complete loss of hearing in one ear	$ 500

Compensation for any other permanent partial disability shall be in the proportion which the extent of such other disability shall bear to that permanent partial disability above specified which most closely resembles and approximates in degree of disability such other disability, but not in any case to exceed the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000). If the injured workman be under the age of twenty-one years and unmarried, the parents or parent shall also receive a lump sum payment equal to ten per cent of the amount awarded the minor workman.

(g) Should a further accident occur to a workman who has been previously the recipient of a lump sum payment under this act, his future compensation shall be adjudged according to the other provisions of this section and with regard to the combined effect of his injuries, and his past receipt of money under this act.

Should such further accident result in the permanent total disability of such injured workman, he shall receive the pension to which he would be entitled notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum for his prior injury.

(h) If aggravation, diminution, or termination of disability takes place or be discovered after the rate of compensation shall have been established or compensation terminated, in any case the department may, upon the application of the beneficiary or upon its own motion, readjust for further application the rate of compensation in accordance with the rules in this section provided for the same, or in a proper case terminate the payment.

(i) A husband or wife of an injured workman, living in a state of abandonment for more than one year at the time of the injury or subsequently, shall not be a beneficiary under this act.

(j) If a beneficiary shall reside or remove out of the state the department may, in its discretion, convert any monthly payments provided for such case into a lump sum payment (not in any case to exceed the value of the annuity then remaining, to be fixed and certified by the state insurance commissioner, but in no case to exceed the sum of $4,000) or, with the consent of the beneficiary, for a smaller sum.

(k) Any court review under this section shall be initiated in the county where the workman resides or resided at the time of the injury, or in which the injury occurred.

(l) No workman injured after June 30, 1917, shall receive or be entitled to receive compensation out of the accident fund for or during the day on which his injury was received or the seven days following the same, but if at the end of thirty days following the day of the receipt of his injury his incapacity shall still exist, there shall be included in the next payment to him out of the accident fund compensation for said omitted period. [L. '19, p. 355, § 4; L. '11, p. 356, § 5; L. '13, p. 467, § 1; L. '17, p. 76, § 1.]

Compensation and Awards.—Under this section, providing for a monthly payment to a dependent of a deceased workman, not exceeding $20 a month, and that, if the workman is under age and unmarried, the parents shall receive $20 per month for each month until the time of his majority, a parent who is also a dependent is entitled to the monthly payment during the continuance of dependency, and not merely to the time of majority; the latter provision being intended for nondependent parents: Boyd v. Pratt, 72 Wash. 306, 130 Pac. 371.

This section providing a schedule of awards that injured workmen shall recover in lieu of "any and all rights of action, whatsoever against any person whomsoever" must be liberally construed as a remedial statute to further the legislative intention to make the industry bear the burden of injuries; and is not confined to the abolishment of rights of action by injured workmen against the employer, but extends to actions against third persons whose negligence caused injuries to workmen while engaged in their employment: Pect v. Mills, 76 Wash. 437, 136 Pac. 685, Ann. Cas. 1915D, 154, L. R. A. 1916A, 358.

Permanent Partial Disability.—Amount of recovery, and payment in lump sum, under this section: See Sinnes v. Daggett, 80 Wash. 673, 142 Pac. 5.

Discretion in awarding recovery for: See Chalmers v. Industrial Ins. Com., 94 Wash. 490, 162 Pac. 576.

Where it is conceded that a beneficiary seeking recovery for "permanent partial disability" under this section, subdivision (f), is suffering from neurosis or hysterical paralysis to such an extent as to be partially disabled, although he may recover, he is entitled to the benefits of subdivision (d), providing for cessation of benefits upon recovery and the continuance of proportionate payments so long as the present earning power is only partially restored: Parker v. Industrial Ins. Dept., 102 Wash. 54, 172 Pac. 830.

Under this section, providing that compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act shall be made in a lump sum for "permanent partial disability," which is defined as the loss of certain members "or any other injury known in surgery to be permanent partial disability," the Industrial Insurance Commission cannot, after a judgment of the superior court has determined that an injury to an employee suffering from hernia has resulted in "permanent partial disability," refuse to make compensation in a lump sum because of its promulgated rules regarding hernia, which required the injured employee to submit to an operation and take pay for loss of time only: Kline v. Industrial Ins. Com., 101 Wash. 365, 172 Pac. 343.

A finding of total partial disability in the loss of one eye as the result of an injury is sustained by evidence that the claimant's eyesight was good before the accident and began to fail shortly after, coupled with the opinion of reputable oculists that the condition may have resulted from the accident: Nelson v. Industrial Ins. Dept., 104 Wash. 204, 176 Pac. 15.

Under this section, subdivisions (b), (f), and (g), a workman suffering at different times two permanent partial disabilities, not classified as a permanent total disability, cannot recover compensation in excess of the $1,500 maximum for partial disability; and his second award must be made in view of his past receipt of money under the act: Biglan v. Industrial Ins. Com., 108 Wash. 8, 182 Pac. 934.

In view of this section, subdivision (d), providing that, in case of recovery and partial restoration of earning power by an injured workman, payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old, a remittitur on appeal and judgment therein, under a decision quoting the statute and directing the insurance department to make such an order for compensation as will reasonably cover the difference in the wage-earning power, means no more than that the award shall be in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old: Parker v. Industrial Ins. Dept., 108 Wash. 235, 183 Pac. 82.

If injury or death results to a workman from the deliberate intention of the workman himself to produce such injury or death, neither the workman nor the widow, widower, child or dependent of the workman shall receive any payment whatsoever out of the accident fund. If injury or death result to a workman from the deliberate intention of his employer to produce such injury, or death, the workman, the widow, widower, child or dependent of the workman shall have the privilege to take under this act, and also have cause of action against the employer, as if this act had not been enacted, for any excess of damages over the amount received or receivable under this act.

A minor working at an age legally permitted under the laws of this state shall be deemed sui juris for the purpose of this act, and no other person shall have any cause of action or right to compensation for an injury to such minor workman except as expressly provided in this act, but in the event of a lump sum payment becoming due under this act to such minor workman, the management of the sum shall be within the probate jurisdiction of the courts the same as other property of minors: Provided, that in the event it is necessary to procure the appointment of a guardian to receive the money to which any minor workman is entitled under the provisions of this act, the commission may allow from the accident fund toward the expenses of such guardianship, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) in any one: Provided, further, that in case any such minor shall be awarded a lump sum payment of the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) or less, the industrial insurance commission shall have power, in its discretion, to make payment direct to such minor without the necessity of the appointment of a guardian. [L. '19, p. 364, § 5; L. '11, p. 361, § 6.]

§ 7681. [6604-7.*] Conversion into Lump Sum Payment.

In case of death or permanent total disability the monthly payment provided may be converted, in whole or in part, into a lump sum payment (not in any case to exceed $4,000) equal or proportionate as the case may be to the value of the annuity then remaining, to be fixed and certified by the state insurance commissioner, in which event the monthly payment shall cease in whole or in part accordingly or proportionately. Such conversions may only be made after the happening of the injury and upon the written application of the beneficiary (in case of minor children, the application may be by either parent) to the department, and shall rest in the discretion of the department. Within the rule aforesaid the amount and value of the lump sum payment may be agreed upon between the department and the beneficiary. [L. '17, p. 97, § 22; L. '11, p. 362, § 7.]

§ 7682. [6604-8.*] Delinquent Employers—Priority of Accident Fund Claims.

If any employer shall default in any payment to the accident fund or the medical aid fund, the sum due shall be collected by action at law in the name of the state as plaintiff, and such right of action shall be in addition to any other right of action or remedy. If such default be after demand, there shall also be collected a penalty equal to twenty-five per centum of the amount of the defaulted payment or payments, and the commission may require from the defaulting employer a bond to the state for the benefit of the accident and medical aid funds, with surety to their satisfaction, in the penalty of double the amount of the estimated payments which will be required from such employer into the said funds for and during the ensuing one year, conditioned for the prompt and punctual making of all payments into said funds required during said year period, together with any penalty or penalties incurred. In case of refusal or failure after written demand personally served to furnish such bond, the state in an action brought by the attorney general in its name shall be entitled to an injunction restraining such delinquent from prosecuting an extrahazardous occupation or work until such bond shall be furnished, and any sale, transfer or lease attempted to be made by such delinquent during the period of such default, of his works, plant or lease thereto shall be invalid until all past delinquencies are made good and such bond furnished. All actions for the recovery of such payments shall be brought in the superior court and in all cases of insolvency, assignment for the benefit of creditors, or bankruptcy, the claim of the state for payments due herein shall be a claim prior to all other claims, except taxes, and it shall be the duty of all receivers or assignees for the benefit of creditors to notify the industrial insurance department of such receivership or assignment within thirty (30) days from the date of their appointment and qualification. In any action or proceeding brought for the recovery of payments due upon the pay-roll of an employer, the certificate of the industrial insurance department that an audit has been made of the pay-roll of such employer pursuant to the direction of the department and of the amount of such pay-roll for the period stated in the certificate shall be prima facie evidence of such fact. [L. '17, p. 487, § 5; L. '17, p. 83, § 2; L. '15, p. 687, § 3. Cf. L. '11, p. 362, § 8.]

DEFAULTS.—In an action by a servant against a master for personal injuries, an objection that the industrial insurance law withdraws this class of actions from the courts cannot be made where it was not raised in the pleadings or suggested below, it being defendant's duty to plead and prove a compliance with the act, in view of this section, providing that an employer shall not be entitled to the benefits of the act during the period of any default in the payment of premiums under section 7676, but shall be liable to suit by the injured workman: Acres v. Frederick & Nelson, 79 Wash. 402, 140 Pac. 370, 5 N. C. C. A. 557.

Under this section as originally enacted, actions at law could be commenced where the employer is in default: Reynolds v. Day, 79 Wash. 499, 140 Pac. 681.

Laws of 1917, page 487, amending this section, relating to employers who are in default in contributing to the accident fund, does not preserve to the injured workman a right of action against such an employer: Freyman v. Day, 108 Wash. 71, 182 Pac. 940; Gowey v. Seattle Lighting Co., 108 Wash. 479, 184 Pac. 339.

If any workman shall be injured because of the absence of any safeguard or protection required to be provided or maintained by, or pursuant to, any statute or ordinance, or any departmental regulation under any statute, or be, at the time of the injury, of less than the maximum age prescribed by law for the employment of a minor in the occupation in which he shall be engaged when injured, the employer shall, within ten days after the demand therefor by the department, pay into the accident fund, in addition to the same required by section 7676 to be paid:

(a) In case the consequent payment to the workman out of the accident fund be a lump sum, a sum equal to fifty per cent of that amount.

(b) In case the consequent payment to the workman be payable in monthly payments, a sum equal to fifty per cent of the lump value of such monthly payment, estimated in accordance with the rule stated in section 7681.

The foregoing provisions of this act shall not apply to the employer if the absence of such guard or protection be due to the removal thereof by the injured workman himself or with his knowledge by any of his fellow-workmen, unless such removal be by order or direction of the employer or superintendent or foreman of the employer, or anyone placed by the employer in control or direction of such workman. If the removal of such guard or protection be by the workman himself or with his consent by any of his fellow-workmen, unless done by order or direction of the employer or the superintendent or foreman of the employer, or anyone placed by the employer in control, or direction of such workman, the schedule of compensation provided in section 7679 shall be reduced ten per cent for the individual case of such workman. [L. '11, p. 363, § 9.]

No money paid or payable under this act out of the accident fund shall, prior to issuance and delivery of the warrant therefor, be capable of being assigned, charged nor ever be taken in execution or attached or garnisheed, nor shall the same pass to any other person by operation of law. Any such assignments or charge will be void: Provided, that if any workman shall suffer permanent partial injury, and shall die from some other cause than the accident which produced such injury before he shall have received payment of his award for such permanent partial injury, or if any workman shall suffer any other injury and shall die from some other cause than the accident which produced such injury before he shall have received payment of any monthly installment covering any period of time prior to his death, the amount of such permanent partial award, or of such monthly payment or both, shall be paid to his widow, if he leave a widow, or to his child or children if he leave a child or children and shall not leave a widow: Provided, if the injured workman shall have resided in the United States as long as three years such payment will not be made to any widow or child who is at the time a nonresident of the United States. Except as otherwise provided by treaty, whenever under the provisions of this act, compensation is payable to a beneficiary or dependent who is an alien not residing in the United States, the commission shall pay fifty per centum of the compensation herein otherwise provided to such beneficiary or dependent. But if a nonresident alien, beneficiary or dependent is a citizen of a government having a compensation law which excludes citizens of the United States either resident or nonresident, from partaking of the benefit of such law in as favorable a degree as herein extended to nonresident aliens, he shall receive no compensation. Proof of dependency by any beneficiary or dependent residing without the United States shall be made before the nearest (United States) consul or consular agent under the seal of such consul or consular agent and the department may cause any warrant or warrants to which such beneficiary or dependent is entitled to be transmitted to the beneficiary or dependent through the nearest (United States) consul or consular agent. [L. '21, p. 726, § 6. Cf. L. '19, p. 365, § 6; L. '11, p. 364, § 10.]

The right to compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act, does not survive to the personal representative, in view of this section, providing that a claim shall not be assigned or subject to execution and that it shall not pass to any other person by operation of law:

Ray v. Industrial Ins. Com., 99 Wash. 176, 168 Pac. 1121.

Survival of right to compensation under workmen's compensation acts upon the death of the person entitled to the award. 15 A. L. R. 821.

§ 7685. [6604-11.] Nonwaiver of Act by Contract.

No employer or workman shall exempt himself from the burden or waive the benefits of this act by any contract, agreement, rule or regulation, and any such contract, agreement, rule or regulation shall be pro tanto void. [L. '11, p. 364, § 11.]

§ 7686. [6604-12.*] Application for Compensation.

(a) Where a workman is entitled to compensation under this act he shall file with the department his application for such, together with the certificate of the physician who attended him, and it shall be the duty of the physician to inform the injured workman of his rights under this act and to lend all necessary assistance in making this application for compensation and such proof of other matters as required by the rules of the department without charge to the workman.

(b) Where death results from injury the parties entitled to compensation under this act, or someone in their behalf, shall make application for the same to the department, which application must be accompanied with proof of death and proof of relationship showing the parties to be entitled to compensation under this act, certificates of attending physician, if any, and such other proof as required by the rules of the department.

(c) If change of circumstances warrant an increase or rearrangement of compensation, like application shall be made therefor. No increase or rearrangement shall be operative for any period prior to application therefor.

(d) No application shall be valid or claim thereunder enforceable unless filed within one year after the day upon which the injury occurred or the right thereto accrued.

(e) Any physician who fails, neglects or refuses to file a report with the industrial insurance department as required by this act within ten days of the date of treatment, showing the condition of the injured workman at the time of treatment, a description of the treatment given, and an estimate of the probable duration of the injury, or who fails or refuses to render all necessary assistance to the injured workman as required in this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '21, p. 727, § 7; L. '11, p. 364, § 12.]

See notes to § 7678.

§ 7687. [6604-12a.] Testimony of Physicians.

In all hearings, actions or proceedings before the commission, or before any court on appeal from the commission, any physician having theretofore examined or treated the claimant may be required to testify fully regarding such examination or treatment, and shall not be exempt from so testifying by reason of the relation of physician to patient. [L. '15, p. 688, § 4.]

§ 7688. [6604-13.*] Medical Examination—Refusal to Submit—Traveling Expenses.

Any workman entitled to receive compensation under this act is required, if requested by the department, to submit himself for medical examination at a time and from time to time at a place reasonably convenient for the workman and as may be provided by the rules of the department. If the workman refuses to submit to any such examination, or obstructs the same, his rights to monthly payments shall be suspended until such examination has taken place, and no compensation shall be payable during or for account of such period; or, if any injured workman shall persist in unsanitary or injurious practices, which tend to imperil or retard his recovery, or shall refuse to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as is reasonably essential to his recovery, the commission may reduce or suspend the compensation of such workman. If the workman necessarily incurs traveling expenses in attending for examination pursuant to the request of the department, such traveling expenses shall be repaid to him out of the accident fund upon proper voucher and audit. § 7689. [6604-14.] Notice of Accident.

Whenever any accident occurs to any workman it shall be the duty of such workman or someone in his behalf to forthwith report such accident to his employer, superintendent or foreman in charge of the work, and of the employer to at once report such accident and the injury resulting therefrom to the department, and also to any local representative of the department. [L. '15, p. 690, § 9. Cf. L. '11, p. 365, § 14.]

§ 7690. [6604-15.] Inspection of Employer's Books.

The books, records and pay-rolls of the employer, pertinent to the administration of this act shall always be open to inspection by the department or its traveling auditor, agent or assistant, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of the pay-roll, the men employed, and such other information as may be necessary for the department and its management under this act. Refusal on the part of the employer to submit said books, records and pay-rolls for such inspection to any member of the commission, or any assistant presenting written authority from the commission, shall subject the offending employer to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each offense, to be collected by civil action in the name of the state and paid into the accident fund, and the individual who shall personally give such refusal shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '11, p. 365, § 15.]

See notes to § 7678.

§ 7691. [6604-16.] Penalty for Misrepresentation as to Pay-roll.

Any employer who shall misrepresent to the department the amount of pay-roll upon which the premium under this act is based shall be liable to the state in ten times the amount of the difference in premium paid and the amount the employer should have paid. The liability to the state under this section shall be enforced in a civil action in the name of the state. All sums collected under this section shall be paid into the accident fund. [L. '11, p. 366, § 16.]

See notes to § 7678.

Whenever the state, county, any municipal corporation or other taxing district shall engage in any extrahazardous work, or let a contract therefor, in which workmen are employed for wages, this act shall be applicable thereto. The employer's payments into the accident fund shall be made from the treasury of the state, county, municipality or other taxing district. If said work is being done by contract, the pay-roll of the contractor and the subcontractor shall be the basis of computation and in the case of contract work consuming less than one year in performance the required payment into the accident fund shall be based upon the total pay-roll. The contractor and any subcontractor shall be subject to the provisions of the act, and the state for its general fund, the county, municipal corporation or other taxing district shall be entitled to collect from the contractor the full amount payable to the accident fund, and the contractor, in turn, shall be entitled to collect from the subcontractor his proportionate amount of the payment. Whenever and so long as, by state law, city charter or municipal ordinance, provision is made for municipal employees injured in the course of employment, such employees shall not be entitled to the benefits of this act and shall not be included in the pay-roll of the municipality under this act. The provisions of this act shall apply to all extrahazardous work done by contract; the employer who lets a contract for such extrahazardous work shall be responsible primarily and directly to the accident fund for the proper percentage of the total pay-roll of the work. The contractor and any subcontractor shall be subject to the provisions of this act, and the employer shall be entitled to collect from the contractor the full amount payable to the accident fund, and the contractor in turn shall be entitled to collect from the subcontractor his proportionate amount of the payment. [L. '21, p. 728, § 8. Cf. L. '15, p. 689, § 6; L. '11, p. 366, § 17.]

Premiums and Collections.—Contractors liable to a city for premiums due under the Workmen's Compensation Act are not prejudiced by the fact that the city failed to collect in advance the initial payment to the accident fund, due October 1, 1911, as estimated on their pay-rolls for the three preceding months, and subject to final adjustment at the end of the year, but waited until the amount was fixed and made certain by the actual pay-rolls during the period for which the contractors were liable; since the amount of the premiums was the same under either method of computation after final adjustment: State ex rel. Pratt v. Seattle, 73 Wash. 396, 132 Pac. 45.

A city is entitled to collect from its contractors, engaged in extrahazardous work, the amount which it is obligated to pay to the accident fund, under the Workmen's Compensation Act, where the act provides that it is applicable to extrahazardous work engaged in by the city, that payment shall be made from the treasury of the city, that the pay-roll of the contractor shall be the basis of the computation, and that the municipality shall be entitled to collect from the contractor the full amount paid to the accident fund: State ex rel. Pratt v. Seattle, 73 Wash. 396, 132 Pac. 45.

The act not providing in what manner the collections may be enforced, the city can collect by withholding the amount due the contractor; since the obligations were in equal degree, authorizing a balancing of accounts: State ex rel. Pratt v. Seattle, 73 Wash. 396, 132 Pac. 45.

Computation of premiums: See State v. Chicago, Mil. & Puget S. R. Co., 80 Wash. 435, 141 Pac. 897.

This section was not intended to allow city employees to prosecute civil actions for damages, but rather to relegate them to the provisions made for them by the city, leaving in force the provisions of the act abolishing common-law remedies: State ex rel. Fletcher v. Carroll, 94 Wash. 531, 162 Pac. 593.

§ 7693. [6604-18.*] Intrastate and Interstate Railway Employees.

Inasmuch as it has proved impossible in the case of employees engaged in maintenance and operation of railways doing interstate, foreign and intrastate commerce, and in maintenance and construction of their equipment, to separate and distinguish the connection of such employees with interstate or foreign commerce from their connection with intrastate commerce, and such employees have, in fact, received no compensation under this act, the provisions of this act shall not apply to work performed in the maintenance and operation of such railroads or performed in the maintenance or construction of their equipment, or to the employees engaged therein, but nothing herein shall be construed as excluding from the operation of this act railroad construction work, or the employees engaged thereon: Provided, however, that common carriers by railroad engaged in such interstate or foreign commerce and in intrastate commerce shall, in all cases where liability does not exist under the laws of the United States, be liable in damages to any person suffering injury while employed by such carrier, or in case of the death of such employee to his surviving wife and child, or children, and if no surviving wife and child or children, then to the parents, sisters, or minor brothers, residents of the United States at the time of such death, and who were dependent upon such deceased for support, to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as the liability now existing, or hereafter created, by the laws of the United States governing recoveries by railroad employees injured while engaged in interstate commerce: Provided further, however, that if any interstate common carrier by railroad shall also be engaged in one or more intrastate enterprises or industries (including street railways and power plants) other than its railroad, the foregoing provisions of this section shall not exclude from the operation of the other sections of this act or bring under the foregoing proviso of this section any extrahazardous work of such other enterprise or industry, the pay-roll of which may be clearly separable and distinguishable from the pay-roll of the maintenance or operation of such railroad, or the maintenance or construction of its equipment. Work in Interstate Commerce.—The work of repairing a bridge used in interstate commerce is not within this act: State v. Bates & Rogers Construction Co., 91 Wash. 181, 157 Pac. 482.

The Industrial Insurance Act for the compensation of workmen injured in extrahazardous employments does not apply to employees engaged in operating the system and handling interstate messages of a telegraph company, where a large per cent of the business of the company is interstate business and it is impossible to segregate or separate the time of employees engaged in interstate from those engaged in intrastate business, in view of this section: State v. Postal Telegraph-Cable Co., 101 Wash. 630, 172 Pac. 902.

Under the amendment (Laws 1917, p. 96), of this section, providing that the Workmen's Compensation Act shall not apply to employees of railways doing interstate, foreign, and intrastate commerce, and substituting therefor the liability imposed by the federal Employers' Liability Act, it is immaterial whether an injured employee was engaged in intrastate or interstate commerce, if any portion of the railroad's business is interstate; it being the intention to classify employers and render them liable under the federal act regardless of the nature of the work: Spokane & Inland Empire R. Co. v. Wilson, 104 Wash. 171, 176 Pac. 34.

This act does not apply to workmen employed exclusively upon a dredge at work in the navigable waters of the state subject to admiralty jurisdiction; but it applies to employees of the dredger who are engaged solely on the land; and as to employees engaged partly on the land and partly on the dredge, the industrial insurance commission is entitled to collect premiums in proportion to the time spent in either employment, so far as the same can be segregated and determined: Puget Sound Bridge & Dredging Co. v. Industrial Ins. Com., 105 Wash. 272, 177 Pac. 788.

The amendment to the Federal Judiciary Act of October 17, 1917 (U. S. Comp. Stats., §§ 991, 1233) saving to claimants in all civil causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction in the federal courts the rights and remedies under the workmen's compensation law of any state, did not have the effect of establishing the jurisdiction of the state Workmen's Compensation Act over personal injuries to workmen occurring on board ships, since the state act does not afford a remedy to such workmen or entitle the commission to collect premiums from employers therefor: Lund v. Griffiths & Sprague Stevedoring Co., 108 Wash. 220, 183 Pac. 123.

The act does not govern employees engaged in unloading a ship at a dock in the navigable waters of Puget Sound, as it cannot be applied to those in maritime services: Shaughnessy v. Northland Steamship Co., 94 Wash. 325, 162 Pac. 546, Ann. Cas. 1918B, 655.

Section 19 of Laws of 1917, p. 96, excluding employees of carriers engaged in interstate and intrastate commerce from the operation of Industrial Insurance Act, is germane to and sufficiently included in the title, "Relating to the compensation of injured workmen," since the title need not be an index to the body of the act or express all details of the subject dealt with: Archibald v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 108 Wash. 97, 183 Pac. 95.

This section does not deny the equal protection of the laws: Archibald v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 108 Wash. 97, 183 Pac. 95.

Under this section, a painter employed by an independent contractor painting bridges on a railroad engaged in interstate commerce is not within the protection of this act, and no award can be made to his widow upon his death subsequent to the amendment of 1917: Luby v. Industrial Ins. Com., 112 Wash. 153, 191 Pac. 855.

The provisions of this act shall apply to employers and workmen engaged in maritime works or occupations only in cases where and to the extent that the pay-roll of such workmen may and shall be clearly separable and distinguishable from the pay-roll of workmen employed under circumstances in which a liability now exists or may hereafter exist in the courts of admiralty of the United States: Provided, that as to workmen whose pay-roll is not so clearly separable and distinguishable, the employer shall in all cases be liable in damages for injuries to the same extent and under the same circumstances as is specified in the case of railroads in the first proviso of section 7693. § 7695. Intrastate and Interstate Commerce.

The provisions of this act shall apply to employers and workmen (other than railways and their workmen) engaged in intrastate and also in interstate or foreign commerce, for whom a rule of liability or method of compensation now exists under or may hereafter be established by the congress of the United States, only to the extent that the pay-roll of such workmen may and shall be clearly separable and distinguishable from the pay-roll of workmen engaged in interstate or foreign commerce: Provided, that as to workmen whose pay-roll is not so clearly separable and distinguishable, the employer shall in all cases be liable in damages for injuries to the same extent and under the same circumstances as is specified in the case of railroads in the first proviso of section 7693. § 7696. [6604-19.] Elective Adoption of Act.

Any employer and his employees engaged in works not extrahazardous may, by their joint election, filed with the department, accept the provisions of this act, and such acceptances, when approved by the department, shall subject them irrevocably to the provisions of this act to all intents and purposes as if they had been originally included in its terms. Ninety per cent of the minimum rate specified in section 7676 shall be applicable to such case until otherwise provided by law. [L. '11, p. 367, § 19.]

§ 7697. [6604-20.] Court Review.

Any employer, workman, beneficiary, or person feeling aggrieved at any decision of the department affecting his interests under this act may have the same reviewed by a proceeding for that purpose, in the nature of an appeal, initiated in the superior court of the county of his residence (except as otherwise provided in subdivision (1) of section numbered 7679) in so far as such decision rests upon questions of fact, or of the proper application of the provisions of this act, it being the intent that matters resting in the discretion of the department shall not be subject to review. The proceedings in every such appeal shall be informal and summary, but full opportunity to be heard shall be had before judgment is pronounced. No such appeal shall be entertained unless notice of appeal shall have been served by mail or personally upon some member of the commission within twenty days following the rendition of the decision appealed from and communication thereof to the person affected thereby. No bond shall be required, except that on appeal by the employer from a decision of the department under section 7683 shall be ineffectual unless, within five days following the service of notice thereof, a bond, with surety satisfactory to the court, shall be filed, conditioned to perform the judgment of the court. Except in the case last named an appeal shall not be a stay. The calling of a jury shall rest in the discretion of the court except that in cases arising under sections 7683, 7690 and 7691 either party shall be entitled to a jury trial upon demand. It shall be unlawful for any attorney engaged in any such appeal to charge or receive any fee therein in excess of a reasonable fee, to be fixed by the court in the case, and, if the decision of the department shall be reversed or modified, such fee and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable out of the administration fund, if the accident fund is affected by the litigation. In other respects the practice in civil cases shall apply. Appeal shall lie from the judgment of the superior court as in other civil cases. The attorney general shall be the legal adviser of the department and shall represent it in all proceedings, whenever so requested by any of the commissioners. In all court proceedings under or pursuant to this act the decision of the department shall be prima facie correct, and the burden of proof shall be upon the party attacking the same. [L. '11, p. 368, § 20.]

Review or Control by Courts.—Under subdivision (f), of section 7679, defining permanent partial disability of an employee engaged in a hazardous occupation, and prescribing that the award be paid in a lump sum, but never to exceed $1,500. to be decided by the department, and this section, the amount of the award is within the discretion of the department, and will not be reviewed, in the absence of capricious or arbitrary action in fixing the same, especially where the amount allowed the employee was $1,200: Sinnes v. Daggett, 80 Wash. 673, 142 Pac. 5.

This section has no application where the facts were undisputed, leaving only a question of law in interpreting the statutes: Zappala v. Industrial Ins. Com., 82 Wash. 314, 144 Pac. 54, L. R. A. 1916A, 295.

While the court will not control the rulings of the industrial insurance commission upon administrative features and matters peculiarly within its control, its decisions interpreting the laws are reviewable by the court, acting on its own interpretation of what the law means: Zappala v. Industrial Ins. Com., 82 Wash. 314, 144 Pac. 54, L. R. A. 1916A, 295.

The legislature has the power to classify an occupation as extrahazardous unless the courts may take judicial notice that it is not hazardous: State v. Postal Telegraph-Cable Co., 101 Wash. 630, 172 Pac. 902.

Under this section, the power to allow attorney's fees is limited to the superior court: Boyd v. Pratt, 72 Wash. 306, 130 Pac. 371.

Under this section, findings of the commission against a claim for compensation will be sustained unless the facts clearly preponderate against them: Marney v. Industrial Ins. Dept., 98 Wash. 483, 167 Pac. 1085.

Where the industrial insurance commission made an award of $225 for partial disability on account of an injury to an arm, the amount of an award for permanent disability by loss of an arm being limited to $1,500, an appeal seeking the maximum amount for total disability, involves only a question of the commission's discretion touching the amount of the award, under this section; hence the decision will not be reviewed on appeal except for abuse of discretion: Chalmers v. Industrial Ins. Com., 94 Wash. 490, 162 Pac. 576.

Questions going to the classification of an injured workman, and his right to participate in the insurance fund, are subject to review on appeal from the insurance department as "questions of fact," within the meaning of this section; "questions of fact" meaning all facts necessary to be determined before a workman is classed as a beneficiary, and matters of "discretion," as to which there is no appeal, referring to matters pertaining to the administration of the fund after a workman is classified: Parker v. Industrial Ins. Dept., 102 Wash. 54, 172 Pac. 830.

Costs and witness fees being purely statutory, the court has no discretion to allow extraordinary fees to expert witnesses under this section, which authorizes the court to allow a reasonable attorney's fee and the "fees of medical and other witnesses," out of the administration fund: Nelson v. Industrial Ins. Dept., 104 Wash. 204, 176 Pac. 15.

Under this section, allowing an appeal from an award of damages by the industrial insurance commission upon questions of fact, the action of the commission is not capricious or arbitrary in that an award for $150 for the loss of part of a finger was determined by a system of "degree" classifications made by the commission under section 7679, subdivision f: Foster v. Industrial Ins. Com., 107 Wash. 400, 181 Pac. 912.

An award of $150 for the loss of part of a finger, according to the schedule fixed, is not capricious or arbitrary in that it was made by only one of the commissioners, where the schedule was adopted by the commission as a whole, by its "degree" classifications under § 7679, subdivision f, which contemplates that individual awards be made in the exact sum provided by a definite and uniform schedule: Foster v. Industrial Ins. Com., 107 Wash. 400, 181 Pac. 912.

Under this section a voluntary nonsuit granted without prejudice on an appeal from the department operates as a dismissal of the appeal: Maddox v. Industrial Ins. Com., 113 Wash. 137, 193 Pac. 231.

§ 7698. [6604-21.] Creation of Department.

The administration of this act is imposed upon a department, to be known as the Industrial Insurance Department, to consist of three commissioners to be appointed by the governor. One of them shall hold office for the first two years, another for the first four years, and another for the first six years following the passage and approval of this act. Thereafter, the term shall be six years. Each commissioner shall hold until his successor shall be appointed and shall have qualified. A decision of any question arising under this act concurred in by two of the commissioners shall be the decision of the department. The governor may at any time remove any commissioner from office in his discretion, but within ten days following any such removal the governor shall file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of his reasons therefor. The commission shall select one of their members as chairman. The main office of the commission shall be at the state capitol, but branch offices may be established at other places in the state. Each member of the commission shall have power to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and documents. [L. '11, p. 369, § 21.]

See infra, §§ 7703, 10836, duties devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, industrial insurance department abolished.

§ 7699. [6604-21a.] Attendance of Witnesses and Production of Papers.

The superior court shall have power to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, papers and records before the industrial insurance department. [L. '15, p. 690, § 7.]

§ 7700. [6604-22.*] Salary and Expenses of Commissioners.

The salary of each of the commissioners shall be forty-two hundred dollars ($4,200) per annum, and he shall be allowed his actual and necessary traveling and incidental expenses; and any assistant to the commissioners shall be paid for each full day's service rendered by him, his actual and necessary traveling expenses and such compensation as the commission may deem proper. Each commissioner shall give a surety company bond in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) payable to the state of Washington, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and the person designated by the said commission as claim agent shall give a surety company bond in the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) payable to the state of Washington, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. [L. '19, p. 366, § 7. Cf. L. '11, p. 369, § 22; L. '17, p. 486, § 3.]

See notes to § 7698.

§ 7701. [6604-23.*] Assistants and Physicians—Records.

The commissioners may appoint a sufficient number of auditors and assistants to aid them in the administration of this act and fix the compensation of such auditors and assistants at a total expense of not to exceed one hundred twenty thousand dollars ($120,000) per year. They may employ one or more physicians in each county for the purpose of official medical examinations, whose compensation shall be limited to five dollars ($5) for each examination and report therein. They may procure such record books as they may deem necessary for the record of the financial transactions and statistical data of the department, and the necessary documents, forms and blanks. They may establish and require all employers to install and maintain a uniform form of pay-roll. [L. '19, p. 367, § 8. Cf. L. '11, p. 370, § 23; L. '17, p. 486, § 4.]

See notes to § 7678.

§ 7702. Application of Amendatory Act.

For all cases of injuries to workmen which occurred before this act shall go into effect sections 7675, 7679, 7680 and 7684 shall continue in force as they were prior to and they shall be unaffected by the passage of this amendatory act. The amendatory provisions of sections 7674, 7676, 7679 and 7680 shall apply only to injuries occurring after they shall go into effect. [L. '19, p. 367, § 9.]

§ 7703. [6604-24.*] Management and Supervision of Department.

The director of labor and industries shall, in accordance with the provisions of this act:

(1) Establish and promulgate rules governing the administration of this act.

(2) Ascertain and establish the amounts to be paid into and out of the accident fund.

(3) Regulate the proof of accident and extent thereof, the proof of death and the proof of relationship and the extent of dependency.

(4) Supervise the medical, surgical and hospital treatment to the intent that same may be in all cases efficient and up to the recognized standard of modern surgery.

(5) Issue proper receipts for moneys received, and certificates for benefits accrued and accruing.

(6) Investigate the cause of all serious injuries and report to the governor from time to time any violations or laxity in performance of protective statutes or regulations coming under the observation of the department.

(7) Create a division of statistics within which shall be compiled such statistics as will afford reliable information upon which to base operations of all divisions under said department.

(8) Make annual report to the governor (one of them not more than sixty nor less than thirty days prior to each regular session of the legislature) of the workings of the department, and showing the financial status and the outstanding obligations of the accident fund, and the statistics aforesaid. [L. '21, p. 730, § 9. Cf. L. '11, p. 370, § 24.]

§ 7704. [6604-24a.] Violation of Rules—Penalty.

Every person, firm or corporation who shall violate or fail to obey, observe or comply with any rule of the department promulgated under authority of this act, shall be subject to a penalty of not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars ($250). Such penalty may be recovered in a civil action in the name of the state, and shall be paid into the accident fund. [L. '15, p. 690, § 8.]

§ 7705. [6604-26.] Disbursements of Funds.

Disbursement out of the funds shall be made only upon warrants drawn by the state auditor upon vouchers therefor transmitted to him by the department and audited by him. The state treasurer shall pay every warrant out of the fund upon which it is drawn. If, at any time, there shall not be sufficient money in the fund on which any such warrant shall have been drawn wherewith to pay the same, the employer on account of whose workman it was that the warrant was drawn shall pay the same, and he shall be credited upon his next following contribution to such fund the amount so paid with interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of such payment to the date such next following contribution became payable, and if the amount of the credit shall exceed the amount of the contribution, he shall have a warrant upon the same fund for the excess, and if any such warrant shall not be so paid, it shall remain, nevertheless, payable out of the fund. The state treasurer shall to such extent as shall appear to him to be advisable keep the moneys of the unsegregated portion of the accident fund invested at interest in the class of securities provided by law for the investment of the permanent school fund. The state treasurer shall be liable on his official bond for the safe custody of the moneys and securities of the accident fund, but all the provisions of an act approved February 21, 1907, entitled "An act to provide for state depositories and to regulate the deposits of state moneys therein," shall be applied to said moneys and the handling thereof by the state treasurer: [L. '11, p. 371, § 26.]

§ 7706. [6604-27.] Test of Invalidity of Act.

If any employer shall be adjudicated to be outside the lawful scope of this act, the act shall not apply to him or his workman, or if any workman shall be adjudicated to be outside the lawful scope of this act because of remoteness of his work from the hazard of his employer's work, any such adjudication shall not impair the validity of this act in other respects, and in every such case an accounting in accordance with the justice of the case shall be had of moneys received. If the provisions of section 7676 for the creation of the accident fund, or the provisions of this act making the compensation to the workman provided in it exclusive of any other remedy on the part of the workman shall be held invalid the entire act shall be thereby invalidated except the provisions of section 7710, and an accounting according to the justice of the case shall be had of moneys received. In other respects an adjudication of invalidity of any part of this act shall not affect the validity of the act as a whole or any other part thereof. [L. '11, p. 372, § 27.]

Cited in 94 Wash. 333.

Under this section, providing that, if any employer shall be adjudicated to be outside of the lawful scope of the act, the act shall not apply to his workmen, an employee injured while engaged on a ship in maritime service is not relegated to his remedies in admiralty, and all his rights and remedies remain unimpaired as if the act had never become a law of the state: Shaughnessy v. Northland Steamship Co., 94 Wash. 325, 162 Pac. 546, Ann. Cas. 1918B, 655.

§ 7707. [6604-28.] Statute of Limitations Saved.

If the provisions of this act relative to compensation for injuries to or death of workmen become invalid because of any adjudication, or be repealed, the period intervening between the occurrence of an injury or death, not previously compensated for under this act by lump payment or completed monthly payments, and such repeal or the rendition of the final adjudication of invalidity shall not be computed as a part of the time limited by law for the commencement of any action relating to such injury or death: Provided, that such action be commenced within one year after such repeal or adjudication; but in any such action any sum paid out of the accident fund to the workman on account of injury, to whom the action is prosecuted, shall be taken into account or disposed of as follows: If the defendant employer shall have paid without delinquency into the accident fund the payment provided by section 7676, such sums shall be credited upon the recovery as payment thereon, otherwise the sum shall not be so credited but shall be deducted from the sum collected and be paid into the said fund from which they had been previously disbursed. [L. '11, p. 372, § 28.]

§ 7708. [6604-29.] Appropriations.

There is hereby appropriated out of the state treasury the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be known as the administration fund, out of which the salaries, traveling and office expenses of the department shall be paid, and also all other expenses of the administration of the accident fund; and there is hereby appropriated out of the accident fund for the purpose to which said fund is applicable the sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as shall be necessary for the purposes of this act. [L. '11, p. 373, § 29.]

§ 7709. [6604-30.] Safeguard Regulations Preserved.

Nothing in this act contained shall repeal any existing law providing for the installation or maintenance of any device, means or method for the prevention of accidents in extrahazardous work or for a penalty or punishment for failure to install or maintain any such protective device, means or method. [L. '11, p. 373, § 30.]

§ 7710. [6604-31.] Distribution of Funds in Case of Repeal.

If this act should be hereafter repealed, all moneys which are in the accident fund at the time of the repeal shall be subject to such disposition as may be provided by the legislature, and in default of such legislative provision distribution thereof shall be in accordance with the justice of the matter, due regard being had to obligations of compensation incurred and existing. [L. '11, p. 374, § 31.]

§ 7711. [6604-32.] Saving Clause.

This act shall not affect any action pending or cause of action existing on the 30th day of September, 1911. [L. '11, p. 374, § 32.]

§ 7712. Classification of Industries for Medical Aid. [6604-33]

It is the intent to require the industries of the state to furnish medical, surgical and hospital care to their injured workmen and to place the expense thereof upon each industry and upon each establishment in such industry as near as may be in the proportion in which it produces injury and creates expense. To this end the division of industrial insurance shall divide the industries of the state into five classes representing five degrees in the causation of injury and consequent expense for the medical, surgical and hospital care thereof, and said classes to be designated respectively, class A, class B, class C, class D, class E. The industries shall be distributed into these classes as follows: In class C, those industries which produce nearest the average degree of causation and expense; in class A, those which produce nearest one-half of such average; in class B, those which produce nearest three-fourths of such average; in class D, those which produce one and one-fourth times such average; in class E, those which produce nearest one and one-half times such average. The director of labor and industries through and by means of the division of industrial insurance shall annually, before January 1st of each year, fix for the ensuing year, the rate which each firm shall pay into the medical aid fund, which rate may be increased or decreased, based upon the cost experience of such firm for the preceding year, within the limits of payment now existing as follows: When the accident cost to the medical aid fund of an employer be not less than seventy-six per cent or more than ninety per cent of his contribution his medical aid rate shall remain the same. When the accident cost to the medical aid fund of an employer be not less than fifty-one per cent nor more than seventy-six per cent of his contribution his medical aid rate shall be reduced to the next lower rate. When the accident cost to the medical aid fund of an employer be not less than twenty-six per cent nor more than fifty-one per cent of his contribution his medical aid rate shall be reduced to the second next lower rate. When the accident cost to the medical aid fund of an employer be not less than ninety per cent nor more than one hundred and twenty-five per cent of his contribution his medical aid rate shall be increased to the next higher rate. When the accident cost to the medical aid fund of an employer be more than one hundred and twenty-five per cent of his contribution his medical aid rate may be advanced to the second next higher class.

That for the purpose of carrying out the intent of this section in merit rating and penalizing of those industries and employers in classes D and E, there be created two additional classes designated respectively as class F and class G. In class F shall be distributed those industries which produce nearest one and three-fourth times the average degree of causation and expense; in class G, those which produce nearest two times such average. Those industries and employers in classes D and E who shall be penalized as provided in this section shall be placed in class F or class G respectively for the ensuing year, as herein otherwise provided for the re-rating of classes A, B, C, D and E.

In no case shall the reduction in one year be greater than two classes and in no case shall the advance in one year be greater than two classes: Provided, that the annual re-rating directed herein shall not apply to establishments under contract with physicians, surgeons or owners of hospitals operating the same while such contract is in effect. From the original classification or any change made therein any employer or workman claiming to be aggrieved may upon application, have a hearing before the division of the industrial insurance upon notice to the interested parties and in the manner provided in section 7697, a review by the courts. The body of interested workmen may designate in writing in duplicate one of them to be the recipient of service upon all of them, one copy to be posted for local convenience, and the other to be filed with the secretary of the supervisor of industrial insurance. In default of any such designation, service upon any one workman other than the one instituting a complaint shall be service upon all. [L. '21, p. 730, § 10. Cf. L. '17, p. 83, § 3.]

§ 7713. Medical Aid Fund—Payments into Fund.

A fund is hereby created in the state treasury to be known as the medical aid fund. Into it shall be paid by each employer on or before the fifteenth day of June, 1917, and on or before the fifteenth day of each month thereafter for each day's work or fraction thereof done for him in extrahazardous employment in or during the preceding calendar month the following amount, to wit: In class A one cent, in class B one and one-half cents, in class C two cents, in class D two and one-half cents and in class E three cents. Any such monthly payment in any class may be omitted for and during any month or months if the state medical aid board shall certify that the accumulated fund is sufficient to permit such omission. Any monthly payment may be increased by the state medical aid board if they find, and to the extent to which they find the fund on hand, together with the current payments, will be insufficient to meet the anticipated demands thereon for the ensuing month. Notice of any such increase shall be mailed to each employer at least twenty days prior to the due date of payment, and shall be communicated by the employer to his employees. The employer shall deduct from the pay of each of his workmen engaged in extrahazardous work one-half of the amount the employer is required by the foregoing provision of this section to pay into said fund for or on account of the employment of such workman. The collection of the payments in this section provided for, and the keeping of accounts of collection, shall be in the hands and within the powers and duties of the state industrial insurance commission, and the expense of such bookkeeping, collection, necessary auditing and investigation of pay-rolls, shall be paid out of the administration fund of said commission. The files and records of the industrial insurance department and those of the state medical aid board shall be subject to the reasonable use thereof by the other body, and the industrial insurance department shall furnish the state medical aid board all data available to the department required by the state board. [L. '19, p. 300, § 1; L. '17, p. 85, § 4.]

§ 7714. Medical and Surgical Aid, Hospital Care and Transportation.

Upon the occurrence, after June 30, 1917, of any injury to a workman entitled to compensation under the provisions of said section 7673, he shall receive in addition to such compensation, and out of the medical aid fund, proper and necessary medical and surgical services, at the hands of a physician of his own choice if conveniently located, and proper and necessary hospital care and services during the period of his disability from such injury, but the same shall be limited in point of duration as follows:

In case of permanent partial disability not to extend beyond the date when compensation shall be awarded him out of the accident fund, in case of temporary disability not to extend beyond the time when the monthly allowances to him out of the accident fund shall cease, in case of a permanent total disability not to extend beyond the date on which a lump sum settlement is made with him or he is placed upon the permanent pension roll. But after any injured workman shall have returned to his work his medical and surgical treatment may be continued at the expense of the medical aid fund, if and as long as, such continuation is deemed by the supervisor of industrial insurance to be necessary to his more complete recovery. In order to authorize such continued treatment in any case the written order of the supervisor of industrial insurance issued in advance of the continuation shall be necessary. Every employer, who employs less than fifty workmen, shall keep at his plant a first aid kit equipped as required by the state board with materials for first aid to his injured workmen. Every employer, who employs within a radius of one-half mile of any plant or establishment fifty or more workmen, shall keep there one first aid station equipped as required by the state board with materials for first aid to his injured workmen. The maintenance of such first aid kits and stations shall be deemed to be a part of any educational standards established under the provisions of sections 7734 and 7736. When the injury to any workman is so serious as to require his being taken from the place of injury to a place of treatment, his employer shall, at his own expense and without charge against the medical aid fund, furnish transportation to the nearest place of proper treatment. Every workman whose injury shall result in the loss of limb or eye shall be once provided by the supervisor of industrial insurance at the expense, not to exceed the sum of one hundred sixty-five dollars ($165) in any case, of the accident fund, out of which his compensation shall come, an artificial substitute. Every workman, who shall suffer a penetrating wound of the cornea producing an error of refraction shall be once provided at the expense of the accident fund, out of which his compensation shall come, proper and properly equipped lenses to correct such error of refraction and his disability rating shall be based upon the corrected result. A workman, whose injury is of such short duration as to bring him within the provisions of subdivision L of section 7679, shall nevertheless receive during the omitted period, medical, surgical and hospital care and service and transportation under the provisions of this section. [L. '21, p. 733, § 11; L. '19, p. 301, § 2; L. '17, p. 86, § 5.]

§ 7715. State Medical Aid Board Created—Power to Make Rules—Appeals.

A board is hereby created to be known as the state medical aid board, hereinafter designated as the state board, which shall have power and whose duty it shall be to from time to time establish and promulgate printed forms, rules, regulations and practices for the furnishing of such care, treatment and services to workmen. Such rules, regulations and practices may vary between the different localities and industries, but shall be in accordance with the rule established in section 7712. and with the principle that the injured workman shall have the most prompt and efficient care and treatment at the least cost consistent with promptness and efficiency, without discrimination or favoritism, and with as great uniformity as the various and diverse [divers] surrounding circumstances and locations of industries will permit. The state board shall make and from time to time change as may be, and shall promulgate a fee bill of the maximum charges to be made by any physician, surgeon, hospital, druggist or other agency or person rendering services to injured workmen. No service covered by such fee bill shall be charged for or paid out of the medical aid fund at a rate or rates exceeding those specified in such fee bill, and no contract providing for greater fees shall be valid as to the excess. Any interested employer or workman may complain to the state board against any such rule or regulation. A hearing shall be had on such complaint upon notice to the employer, and upon the employees in the manner provided in section 7712, and from the decision an appeal will lie to the courts in the manner provided in section 7697. [L. '17, p. 87, § 6.]

See infra, § 10836, duties of medical aid boards devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, medical aid boards abolished.

§ 7716. Duties of Board.

It shall be the duty of the state board to supervise and control the administration of the rules, regulations and practices promulgated by it and the details thereof, and it shall have supervisory power over the acts and practices of the local aid boards. [L. '19, p. 303, § 3; L. '17, p. 88, § 7.]

See notes to § 7715.

§ 7717. Secretary—Clerical Assistance.

. . . . The state board may employ, and at will discharge, a secretary at a monthly salary to be fixed by them not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars ($250), to be paid from the medical aid fund on voucher and audit. It shall be his duty to attend their meetings, keep a record of the proceedings thereat, keep on separate file all reports made to the board, and perform such other services as may be required by the rules or regulations or by directions given him. . . . The state board shall have power to incur such expense, payable out of the medical aid fund, for clerical assistance as they shall deem necessary, not to exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) a year. [L. '19, p. 303, § 4; L. '17, p. 88, § 8.]

See notes to § 7715.

This section is largely obsolete, the state board being abolished, and part is omitted.

§ 7718. Local Aid Boards.

Subject always to the rules and regulations established and promulgated by the state board, the administration of, caring for, treatment and services to injured workmen shall be in the hands of local boards to be designated by the name "Local Aid Boards" and by numbers corresponding to the numbers of their respective districts. [L. '19, p. 322, § 40; L. '17, p. 90, § 9.]

See notes to § 7715.

§ 7719. Duty and Powers of Local Aid Boards.

It shall be the duty of each local aid board to provide care and treatment for each workman injured after June 30, 1917, in extrahazardous employment, to forthwith report to the state board, and through the state board to the industrial insurance commission, the commencement of every disability and the termination of the same, and each such report shall be a part of the record of the case in the office of the industrial insurance commission and shall be taken into consideration in the adjustment or settlement of the amount of the award in the case. Each local aid board shall also report to the state board the cause of each injury, with recommendations for the improvement of the service, and of the administration, and also, subject to the provisions of section 7716, to certify to the state board all bills rendered for care or treatment of injured workmen, with power to reject any bill or item thereof incurred in violation of the principle laid down in section 7715.

It shall also be the duty of each local aid board to promptly inspect and analyze all serious accidents to workmen (other than coal miners) occurring within its district and to report to the state safety board the cause of the accident and to suggest a remedy to prevent repetition of the same, not only in the establishment in which the accident occurred, but also in all other like establishments; and, subject to the supervision in the first instance of the state labor commissioner and secondarily of the state safety board, to have charge of the educational features of safety work (other than for coal mining), within its own district. At the end of each calendar year each local aid board shall issue to the state safety board a certificate of the compliance or non-compliance during that year of each establishment or employer in its district within its jurisdiction of the educational standards established for the same. The state safety board shall have the power of revision of such certificates and shall forthwith issue to the industrial insurance commission a final certificate of such compliance or noncompliance for each case for that year. [L. '19, p. 322, § 41; L. '17, p. 91, § 10.]

See notes to § 7715.

§ 7720. Appeal from Local to State Board—Appeal to Courts.

The injured workman, or anyone connected with his treatment, or any interested employer, may appeal from any contract made by, and decision rendered by or any practice or act of the local aid board to the state board. Any such appeal may be effected by written or telegraphic notice to the secretary of the state board. Except in cases of medical or surgical emergency, the hearing of such appeal shall be upon notice given by the secretary or any member of the state board to the workman under treatment, if there be one, or to some member of his family, to the employer or employers and employees interested. The notice to the employees may be given in the manner provided in section 7712. From a decision of the state board an appeal will lie to the courts as provided in section 7697, except that if the appellant prevails, the fees and costs allowed him in his favor shall be payable out of the medical aid fund. The question for decision by the state board or the courts shall be whether or not the matter complained of is violative of the principle laid down in section 7715. [L. '17, p. 92, § 11.]

See notes to § 7715.

§ 7721. Liability of Employer for Misrepresentation and Failure to Report.

Any employer who shall knowingly misrepresent the amount of contribution due from him to, or collected by him for the medical aid fund shall be liable to the state in civil action for the benefit of said fund in ten times the amount attempted to be concealed or withheld by such misrepresentation, and shall be also guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any person, firm or corporation who not having previously reported to the secretary of the state board, shall establish any new plant, or works, or enter upon the performance of any new building contract or construction contract and who shall fail to send written notice thereof to said secretary within five days after such establishing or entering shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 92, § 12.]

§ 7722. State Medical Aid—Collection Against Public Authorities.

Where the state, county or municipality is employer or contractor for work, and in all cases of work done by private contract or subcontract, the amounts due the medical aid fund shall so far as practicable, be collectible by the method provided in section 7692. [L. '17, p. 93, § 13.]

§ 7723. Liability of State Treasurer.

The state treasurer shall be liable on his official bond for the safe custody of the moneys of the medical aid fund. All the provisions of the act referred to in section 7705 shall be applied to said moneys and the handling thereof by the state treasurer. [L. '17, p. 93, § 14.]

§ 7724. Lieu Contracts for Medical Aid—Approval—Requisites—Complaints—Terminations—Notice—Appeal—Emergency Treatment.

Any contract made in violation of this act shall be invalid, except that any employer engaged in extrahazardous work may, with the consent of a majority of his workmen, enter into written contracts with physicians, surgeons and owners of hospitals operating the same, or with hospital associations, for medical, surgical and hospital care to workmen injured in such employment by and under the control and administration of and at the direct expense of the employer and his workmen. Such a contract shall not be assignable or transferable by operation of law or otherwise except with the consent of the supervisor of industrial insurance indorsed thereon. Before any such contract shall go into effect it shall be submitted to the supervisor of industrial insurance, and may be disapproved by the supervisor of industrial insurance when found not to provide for such care of injured workmen as is contemplated by the provisions of section 7715, and if a contract so submitted be with the owners of a hospital operating the same, or with a hospital association, the supervisor of industrial insurance shall have power to disapprove the same if in his judgment the ownership or management of such hospital or hospital association will not be such as to produce satisfactory service. Any such contract with physician, surgeon, or owner and operator of a hospital, or with a hospital association, so disapproved shall not be valid. Otherwise it shall be approved and take and continue in effect for any period of time specified therein, not exceeding three years from the date of such approval: Provided, however, that the director of labor and industries through the division of industrial insurance may before approving any such contract require the giving by any physician, surgeon, hospital or hospital association of a bond in such sum and in such form, as the director may determine conditioned against any abandonment of such contract. Every such contract to be valid must provide that the expenses incident to it shall be borne one-half by the employer and one-half by such employees, and that it shall be administered by the two interests jointly and equally. So long as such contract shall be in effect the subject matter of the contract shall (except as in this section otherwise specified) be outside of and not affected by the provisions of sections 7712 to 7723 inclusive, and section 7725, other than the provisions of section 7714 relating to artificial substitutes and lenses and the basis of compensation when lenses supplied, and to transportation of injured workmen, and to educational standards of safety, and other than the provisions of section 7719 relating to the analyses and reports of accidents, and the employer shall pay monthly into the medical aid fund ten per centum of the amount he would have been required to pay in that month if such contract had not been made, and of that ten per centum he shall collect one-half from his said workmen by proper deduction from the daily wage of each. During the operation of any such contract the supervisor of industrial insurance or any interested person may file a complaint with the supervisor of industrial insurance alleging that the service and care actually rendered thereunder are not up to the standard provided in section 7715, and if upon a hearing had upon notice to the employer and workmen interested thereunder, the supervisor of industrial insurance may make an order that the contracts shall terminate unless the defect or deficiency complained of shall be remedied to his satisfaction within a period to be fixed in such order, or he may at such hearing sustain the complaint and make an order that the contract shall terminate forthwith. Notice to the workman may be effected in the manner provided in section 7712. The employer or any interested workman may appeal from such decision to the courts in the manner provided in section 7697. During the appeal the contract shall remain in force and operation, but the costs of the appeal shall be paid out of the medical aid fund only in case the decision of the supervisor of industrial insurance is reversed by the court. If during the operation of any such contract, any injured workman shall not receive medical or surgical treatment with reasonable promptness upon the occurrence of his injury, or at any time during his treatment the supervisor of industrial insurance may provide such treatment during the emergency at the expense of his employer, who may charge such expense against such contract, and such emergency treatment shall continue until supplanted by like treatment under such contract, notwithstanding the pendency of an appeal from such action. The cost of such emergency treatment shall not exceed the rates specified in the fee bill provided by section 7715. The acceptance of employment by any workman shall be and be held to be an acceptance of any existing contract made under this section to which his employer is a party.

No contract for medical, surgical, or hospital care of injured workmen entered into prior to the time this act shall go into effect shall be invalidated by anything in this act contained. [L. '21, p. 735, § 12; L. '17, p. 93, § 15; L. '19, p. 305, § 5.]

§ 7725. Collection and Disbursement of Medical Aid Funds.

The provisions of section 7673 to 7711, inclusive, shall be applicable to the collection of the medical aid fund, to the powers and duties of the state and local boards, and to the medical, surgical and hospital care of injured workmen only so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 7712 to 7796, inclusive. Disbursements for the salaries of the secretary and office employees, and for the office and printing expenses of the state board, and in the payment of bills incurred for the medical, surgical, or hospital care of injured workmen shall be made by warrants drawn against the medical aid fund by the state auditor upon certificate thereof or requisition therefor signed by the members of the state board or a majority thereof. [L. '19, p. 308, § 7; L. '17, p. 95, § 16.]

§ 7726. Liability for Illegal Collections for Medical Aid.

It shall be unlawful for any employer to directly or indirectly demand or collect from any of his workmen any sum of money whatsoever for or on account of medical, surgical, hospital, or other treatment or transportation of injured workmen other than as specified in sections 7713 and 7724, and any employer who shall directly or indirectly violate the foregoing provisions of this section shall be liable to the state in civil action for the benefit of the medical aid fund in ten times the amount so demanded or collected, and such employer and every officer, agent or servant of such employer knowingly participating therein shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 95, § 17.]

§ 7727. Application of Act.

Sections 7727 to 7796, inclusive, shall apply to all and only those establishments, those employers, and those workmen who are or shall be under the jurisdiction of the industrial insurance department. [L. '19, p. 309, § 1.]

Cited in 111 Wash. 241, 243—245, 254—257.

§ 7728. "Place of Work" Defined.

The phrase "place of work" shall mean and include every place, whether indoors or out, or underground or elsewhere, and the premises appurtenant thereto, where either temporarily or permanently any industry, trade or business is carried on, or where any process or operation directly or indirectly relating to any industry, trade, work or business is carried on, including all construction work. [L. '19, p. 309, § 2.]

§ 7729. Safety Terms Defined.

The terms "safe" and "safety," as applied to an employment or place of work; "safeguard" or "safety device" shall mean such freedom from danger to the life or safety of workmen as the nature of the case will reasonably permit; and the two latter terms shall be given a broad interpretation so as to include any reasonably practical method of mitigating or preventing danger. [L. '19, p. 310, § 3.]

§ 7730. Safeguarding Workmen.

For the purposes of this act, it shall be the duty of every employer to furnish a place of work which shall be as safe for workmen therein as may be reasonable and practicable under the circumstances, surroundings and conditions, and to furnish and use such safety devices and safeguards and to adopt and use such practices, means, methods, operations and processes as under the circumstances, surroundings and conditions are reasonable and practical in order to render the work and place of work safe, and to comply with such standards of safety of place of work and such safety devices and safeguards and such standards and systems of education for safety as shall be from time to time prescribed for such employer by the state safety board, or by statute, or by the state mining board. [L. '19, p. 310, § 4.]

§ 7731. Safety Devices—Penalty for Removal or Destruction.

For the purposes of this act, it shall be the duty of every workman to co-operate with his employer in all efforts for safety in respect of a safe place to work, safety devices, and safeguards, and for educational safety work, and to on his part comply with all standards of safety established for his work by the state safety board, or by statute, or by the state mining board, and not to remove, displace, damage or destroy any safety device or safeguard so established, nor interfere in any way with the use thereof by any other workman, nor interfere with the use of any method or process adopted or prescribed for the protection of workmen in any place of employment. Any employer or workman who shall knowingly remove, displace, damage or destroy, or cause to be removed, displaced, damaged or destroyed, any such safety device or safeguard, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '19, p. 311, § 5.]

§ 7732. State Safety Board.

For the purpose of enforcing in all industries (other than coal mining) the performance of the duties prescribed in sections 7730 and 7731, there is hereby created a state safety board, consisting of two members, to wit: The two members of the state medical aid board other than the chairman thereof. [L. '19, p. 311, § 6.]

See infra, § 10838, duties devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, state safety board abolished.

§ 7733. Advisory Members.

The commissioner of labor and the state mine inspector shall act as advisory members of the state safety board, but in such advisory capacity only, and shall not be entitled to vote on any question coming before the state safety board. They shall not be included in the designation "State Safety Board" wherever used. [L. '19, p. 312, § 7.]

See note to § 7732.

Cited in 111 Wash. 244, 245, 256.

§ 7734. Safety Standards to be Promulgated.

For all other work than coal mining, the state safety board, in accordance with the principles laid down in sections 7729, 7730 and 7731, shall make, and may from time to time modify, and shall promulgate standards of safety, to wit:

(1) To make safe the place of work of workmen, same to be termed "safe place standards";

(2) Of safety devices and safeguards to make safe machines, tools, apparatus and appliances, same to be termed "safety device standards";

(3) Of educational systems for the education and training of employer and workman in the appreciation and avoidance of danger and in the maintenance and use of safe place and safety device standards.

The state safety board shall make, and may from time to time modify, and shall promulgate rules and regulations for the enforcement of the use of such standards of safety. [L. '19, p. 312, § 8.]

See note to § 7732.

Cited in 111 Wash. 244, 256.

§ 7735. Coal Mine Safety Standards.

The safe place standards and safety device standards for the coal mines of the state, employer and workman, shall be those prescribed by chapter III of Title LIX (sections 8636 to 8856, infra), as it may be amended from time to time. Such chapter and its amendments are hereinafter referred to as the "Coal Mining Code." [L. '19, p. 313, § 9.]

Cited in 111 Wash. 256, 257.

§ 7736. Coal Mine Educational Standards.

The educational standards for coal mines and coal mining shall be prescribed by a board hereby created to be known as the "State Mining Board," consisting of two members, to be appointed by the state safety board. [L. '19, p. 313, § 10.]

See infra, § 10834, duty to appoint, devolves upon director of labor and industries.
See infra, § 10893, state safety board abolished.

Cited in 111 Wash. 256.

§ 7737. State Mining Board.

One member of the state mining board must be a mine manager or superintendent or mine safety engineer or mine safety inspector or stockholder of a mining corporation, and one member must be a workman in a coal mine in the state. [L. '19, p. 313, § 11.]

§ 7738. Nominations to State Board by Employers.

Any association of coal mine employers of the state whose organization purposes include or shall be made to include the making of such nominations and whose membership is open to all coal mine employers in the state, or if there be more than one such organization, a combination of them, may nominate to the state safety board two nominees for appointment to the state mining board, and the state safety board shall appoint one of them. [L. '19, p. 313, § 12.]

See notes to § 7736.

§ 7739. Nominations by Workmen.

Any association of coal mine workmen of the state whose organization purposes include or shall be made to include the making of such nominations and whose membership is open to all coal mine workmen in the state, or if there be more than one such organization, a combination of them, may nominate to the state safety board two nominees for appointment to the state mining board, and the state safety board shall appoint one of them. [L. '19, p. 314, § 13.]

See notes to § 7736.

§ 7740. Time for Making Nominations.

The first nominations under sections 7738 and 7739 shall be made within thirty days after this section shall go into effect, and nominations to fill a vacancy shall be made within thirty days following the creation of the vacancy, and nominations for succession shall be made within a period of sixty days, thirty days preceding and thirty days following the expiration of the term of office of the member to be succeeded. [L. '19, p. 314, § 14.]

§ 7741. Failure to Nominate.

If either nominating body shall fail to make nominations as and within the time provided in sections 7738, 7739, 7740, the state safety board shall make the appointment without the precedent nomination. [L. '19, p. 314, § 15.]

See notes to § 7736.

§ 7742. Term of Office.

The term of office of each member of the state mining board shall be six (6) years and until his successor shall have been appointed. [L. '19, p. 315, § 16.]

§ 7743. Compensation and Expense Allowance.

Each member of the state mining board shall receive his actual traveling expenses incurred in the performance of his duties and compensation for each day's attendance at a meeting of his board at the rate of ten dollars per day. [L. '19, p. 315, § 17.]

§ 7744. Recommendations for Educational Standards.

Any coal mine employer, or workman, or association of either, or any joint committee of such employers and workmen, or the state mine inspector appointed under the provisions of the coal mining code, or any of his deputies, shall be authorized to make recommendations to the state mining board of educational standards, or amendments of the same, or modifications thereof. The making of the original educational standards shall be withheld for a period of thirty (30) days following the organization of the state mining board, to await the receipt of such recommendations. [L. '19, p. 315, § 18.]

Cited in 111 Wash. 256.

§ 7745. Changes Authorized.

The state mining board shall have power to make changes in its educational standards from time to time. [L. '19, p. 316, § 19.]

§ 7746. Uniformity and Differentiation in Standards.

The standards of safety established by the state safety board shall be, as near as possible and practicable, uniform for each class or for each class subdivision of a class, which has been or may be divided into subdivisions by statute or by the industrial insurance commission, but such standards of safety and the educational standards established by the state mining board may vary between different localities, different classes or class subdivisions of industry and different establishments in any class or class subdivision where in the opinion of the board establishing same the working conditions warrant such differentiation, and where in the opinion of such board there are such differences as to render impracticable, inoperative or unjust a uniform standard or standards. [L. '19, p. 316, § 20.]

See notes to § 7732.

§ 7747. Recommendations for Safety Standards.

Any employer, or workman in any industry (other than coal mining), or association of either, or any joint committee of such employers and workmen, or the state labor commissioner, shall be authorized to make recommendations to the state safety board of safety standards, or amendments therein, or modifications thereof. The making of the original standards of safety by the state safety board shall be withheld for a period of thirty days following the organization of that board to await the receipt of such recommendations. [L. '19, p. 316, § 21.]

§ 7748. General and Special Standards.

Standards of safety having uniform application throughout a class or class subdivision shall be known as "general standards." Standards of safety which shall not be of uniform application to any class or class subdivision shall be known as "special standards." [L. '19, p. 317, § 22.]

§ 7749. New Standards, Hearings on.

At any time after the expiration of thirty days after the organization of the state mining board or the state safety board respectively and from time to time thereafter as new standards or changes or modifications of existing standards are proposed, the state safety board or the state mining board, as the case may be, shall call a public hearing or hearings for the purpose of the consideration and establishment of standards of safety within its jurisdiction. At every such hearing the employers and workmen interested shall be privileged to attend and be heard in person or by their committee or committees or representatives. [L. '19, p. 317, § 23.]

See notes to § 7732.

§ 7750. Notice of Hearings to be Published.

In advance of every such hearing, the board which is conducting the hearing shall cause a notice of the time and place of such hearing to be published at least once in a daily newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in the community in, or as near as may be to the place where the establishment or establishments to be affected are located. If the subject of the hearing affects industries throughout the state, such publications shall be in a daily newspaper published in each city of the first class in the state, and such other cities as the board giving the notice shall select. [L. '19, p. 318, § 24.]

See notes to § 7732.

§ 7751. Written Notice—Posting.

Written notice of every such hearing shall also be mailed under the direction of the board which is to conduct such hearing to each employer whose class, class subdivision or establishment is affected. It shall be the duty of each employer receiving such a notice to forthwith post the same at his establishment for the information of his workmen. [L. '19, p. 318, § 25.]

§ 7752. Defective Notice.

No defect, inaccuracy or informality in any such notice or in the publication thereof, nor the omission of notice by mail to any employer, shall invalidate any order or standard of safety established pursuant to such hearing, but no special standard of safety shall be valid unless written notice of the hearing shall have been mailed to the employer or employers of the establishment or establishments affected thereby. For hearings affecting a special standard only, publication of notice may be omitted. [L. '19, p. 318, § 26.]

§ 7753. Approval of Alteration of Safety Standards.

No standard of safety which conflicts or is inconsistent with any safety device, safeguard or safety standard, or rule heretofore established by statute, shall be established by the state safety board without the written consent of both members of the state safety board and the written approval of the same by the industrial insurance commission, the commissioner of labor and the state mine inspector. [L. '19, p. 319, § 27.]

Duties devolve upon director of labor and industries, see notes to §§ 10836—10838.

§ 7754. Enforcement of Coal Mine Standards.

The state mine inspector shall have sole charge of the enforcement of the standards of safety for coal mining and of the inspection incident thereto. [L. '19, p. 319, § 28.]

See infra, § 10838, duties devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, state mine inspector and deputies abolished.

Cited in 111 Wash. 256.

§ 7755. Deputy Mine Inspectors.

For the purpose of the enforcement of standards of safety for mining, the state mine inspector shall have such number of deputy mine inspectors as he shall deem necessary, not to exceed three in all, including the one provided for by the coal mining code. [L. '19, p. 319, § 29.]

See notes to § 7754.

§ 7756. Duties of Deputies.

The duties of the deputy mine inspectors shall be to inspect the coal mines of the state, to ascertain and report compliance or noncompliance with safety standards, and to recommend improvements of safety standards. [L. '19, p. 320, § 30.]

See notes to § 7754.

§ 7757. Appointment of Deputies.

The new deputy mine inspectors provided by section 7755 shall be appointed in the manner and shall be subject to the tests as to qualifications provided by the coal mining code for deputy mine inspectors. [L. '19, p. 320, § 31.]

See notes to § 7754.

§ 7758. Increasing Salary of State Mine Inspector.

The state mine inspector shall receive a monthly salary of one hundred dollars ($100) per month for the performance of his duties in enforcing the use of safety standards and inspecting and certifying the same. This monthly salary shall be in addition to the salary which is provided for him by the coal mining code. [L. '19, p. 320, § 32.]

See notes to § 7754.

Cited in 111 Wash. 257.

§ 7759. Salary of Deputies.

Deputy mine inspectors other than the one provided by the coal mining code shall receive a monthly salary of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250). [L. '19, p. 320, § 33.]

See notes to § 7754.

§ 7760. Duty of Labor Commissioner.

The state labor commissioner shall have, under the supervision and control of the state safety board, sole charge of the enforcement of safe place and safety device standards (other than for the mining of coal) and of inspection and certification thereof. [L. '19, p. 321, § 34.]

See infra, § 10838, duties devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, commissioner of labor and local aid boards and state safety boards abolished.

§ 7761. Deputy Labor Inspectors.

For the purpose of enforcement of safe place and safety device standards, other than for coal mining, the state labor commissioner shall appoint such number of deputy inspectors as may from time to time be authorized by the state safety board, and may from time to time remove any such deputy. [L. '19, p. 321, § 35.]

§ 7762. Compensation of Deputies.

Deputies of the state labor commissioner appointed under the provisions of section 7761 shall receive such compensation as may be determined from time to time by the state safety board. [L. '19, p. 321, § 36.]

§ 7763. Inspection Fees Abolished.

After the expiration of four fractional or full calendar months after this section shall take effect payment of any inspection fee by any employer for inspection of his establishment as to safe place or safety device standards shall not be required. [L. '19, p. 321, § 37.]

§ 7764. Increasing Salaries of State Safety Board.

Each executive member of the state safety board shall receive for the performance of his duties as a member of that board a monthly salary sufficient in amount, when added to his compensation under section 7717, to make a total monthly salary of four hundred dollars ($400). [L. '19, p. 322, § 38.]

§ 7765. Increasing Salary of Labor Commissioner.

For the performance of his duties under section 7760 the state labor commissioner shall receive a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars per month in addition to his salary as state labor commissioner. [L. '19, p. 322, § 39.]

§ 7766. Local Aid Districts Classified.

The state is hereby divided into three local aid districts, numbered and described as follows:

Local Aid District No. 1. That portion of the state lying east of the summit of the Cascade Mountains. Of this district, the head office shall be at the city of Spokane.

Local Aid District No. 2. King, Kitsap, Snohomish, Skagit, Whatcom, Island, San Juan, and Clallam counties, and that portion of Jefferson county lying east of the west line of Mason County extended northward. Of this district, the head office shall be at the city of Seattle.

Local Aid District No. 3. The remaining portion of the state of Washington. Of this district, the head office shall be at the city of Tacoma. [L. '19, p. 324, § 42.]

§ 7767. Appointment of Board Members.

In each local aid district there shall be a local aid board, consisting of two members to be appointed by the state safety board. One member of each local aid board shall be a resident workman (other than a coal miner. The other member of each local aid board shall be a resident representative of the employers in that district (other than coal mine employers). Any association of the workmen resident in any local aid district whose organization purpose shall include, or be made to include the making of such nominations, and whose membership is open to all classes of workmen may nominate to the state safety board two of its members, and the state safety board shall appoint one of them. Any association of the employers whose establishments are located in any local aid district and whose organization purposes shall include or be made to include the making of such nominations and whose membership is open to all classes of such employers, may nominate to the state safety board two men, and the state safety board shall appoint one of them. The term of office of each member of a local aid board shall be six years and until his successor is appointed. After the expiration of terms and to fill vacancies the same method of nomination and appointment shall obtain. If and so far as the original or substitute nominations are not made within thirty or forty days, as the case may be, following the date of organization of the state safety board, and if and so far as original or substitute nominations to fill vacancies or for succession shall not be made within thirty or forty days, as the case may be, following the creation of the vacancy or end of the term to be succeeded, the state safety board shall make the appointment or appointments without precedent nominations. [L. '19, p. 324, § 43.]

See notes to § 7760.

§ 7768. Examination of Local Aid Board Candidates.

It shall be the duty of the state safety board to examine into the qualifications of all nominees or applicants for appointment to the positions of members of the local aid boards and their assistants (other than clerical assistants) by conducting a thorough examination as to the knowledge of the nominee or application of (a) sections 7673 to 7796 and the amendments thereof; (b) the principles and practice of medical and surgical first aid to injured workmen; and (c) safety standards prescribed by the state safety board or by statute relating to extrahazardous work (other than coal mining). The examination of nominees and applicants shall be in writing, and the manuscripts thereof shall, after completion, be filed with the industrial insurance commission as public documents. No nominee or applicant shall be appointed whose average of accuracy in the examination shall be less than seventy-five per cent. If both nominees for appointment as member of local aid board for any district made by any organization shall fail to qualify as above provided upon examination, notice shall be given to the nominating body, and that body shall be privileged to make substitute nominations within ten days. If both such substitute nominees fail to qualify upon the examination, then in such event the state safety board shall make an appointment for the case without precedent nomination. Examinations for appointment of assistants to the local aid boards shall be made at such times, upon such notice, and in such manner as the state safety board shall by resolution prescribe. [L. '19, p. 325, § 44.]

See notes to § 7760.

§ 7769. Appointment of Board Assistants.

Each local aid board shall have the power to appoint such number of assistants as may be authorized for its district by resolution of the state safety board, but no assistant to a local aid board (other than clerical assistants) shall be qualified for appointment as such assistant unless he shall have received from the state safety board a certificate of competency after examination as provided in section 7768. Each local aid board shall have power to remove any assistant in its discretion. [L. '19, p. 326, § 45.]

See notes to § 7760.

§ 7770. Branch Offices of Local Aid Boards.

Each local aid board shall have power to establish such branch offices in its district and incur such office expenses as may have been previously authorized by resolution of the state safety board. [L. '19, p. 327, § 46.]

See notes to § 7760.

§ 7771. Salary of Members.

Each member of a local aid board shall receive a salary of three hundred dollars ($300) per month. [L. '19, p. 327, § 47.]

See notes to § 7760.

§ 7772. Salary of Assistants.

Salaries of assistants of local aid boards shall be as fixed by resolution of the state safety board. [L. '19, p. 327, § 48.]

§ 7773. Coal Mine Inspections.

It shall be the duty of the state mine inspector, either in person, or by deputy, to inspect every coal mine in the state not less than once every four months, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the safety standards applicable thereto are being complied with, and at the end of each calendar year it shall be the duty of the state mine inspector to certify to the state industrial insurance commission the compliance or noncompliance with the safety standards on the part of each coal mine employer in the state during said year. A duplicate of each certificate shall be delivered by him to the state safety board. [L. '19, p. 327, § 49.]

See notes to § 7753.

Cited in 111 Wash. 257.

§ 7774. Inspection of Industrial Establishments.

It shall be the duty of the state labor commissioner, either in person or by deputy, to inspect the establishment or work of every employer engaged in extraordinary work in the state (other than coal mines) as often as directed by the state safety board, but not less than once every four months, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the safe place and safety device standards applicable thereto are being complied with, and at the end of each calendar year it shall be the duty of the state labor commissioner to certify to the state industrial insurance commission the compliance or noncompliance with such standards as to each such employer during the said year. A duplicate of each certificate shall be delivered by him to the state safety board. [L. '19, p. 328, § 50.]

See notes to § 7753.

§ 7775. Failure to Comply With Standards—Penalty.

Any employer who in any establishment carried on by him has refused or failed to comply with the existing "safe place" and/or "safety device" standards applicable to any such establishment for a period of three months after having had written notice from the supervisor of safety shall have added to the premium of the establishment affected a penalty equal in amount to ten per cent of the contribution to the accident fund of such establishment for the period of noncompliance, and this penalty may be increased by an additional ten per cent of such contribution for each succeeding three months period of refusal or failure of compliance. [L. '21, p. 737, § 13.]

§ 7776. "Cost Rate" Defined.

By the term "cost rate" is meant the rate of premium which the employers of any class, or, as the case may be, of any class subdivision, actually pay into the accident fund for any year period as distinguished from the basic rate for such class or class subdivision specified by statute or by the industrial insurance commission. [L. '19, p. 329, § 52.]

§ 7777. Refund for Maintenance of Educational Standards.

Each employer who shall be certified to the industrial insurance commission to have for any calendar year maintained at his establishment and among his workmen the educational standards established for the same, shall at the end of such year be entitled to receive and shall receive out of the accident fund of his class or class subdivision a refund of ten per cent of the cost rate for such calendar year of the class or class subdivision in which such standards have been so certified to have been maintained. [L. '19, p. 331, § 56.]

§ 7778. Failure to Maintain Educational Standard—Penalty.

Each employer who shall be certified to the industrial insurance commission to have failed to put into effect at his establishment and among his workmen the educational standards established for his class, class subdivision or establishment, as the case may be, within a reasonable time to be fixed and after notification thereof given as in section 6604-98 of Remington & Ballinger's Code, [L. '19, p. 329, § 53]; provided, or who having put such educational standards into effect shall be certified to have failed to maintain the same during any calendar year period, shall pay into the accident fund upon demand of the industrial insurance commission, in addition to the amount he would otherwise have paid for such calendar year into the accident fund on account of the plant, works, or system, in respect to which such default shall occur, a sum equal to ten per cent of that amount. [L. '19, p. 331, § 57.]

"Section 6604-98" is repealed. See L. '21, p. 740, § 17.

§ 7779. Statistical Department of State Safety Board.

The state safety board shall organize a statistical department by which shall be compiled for each calendar year, beginning with the year 1915 for the accident fund, and with the year 1917 for the medical aid fund, statistics showing the amount contributed by each employer in each class or class subdivision to the accident fund, and by each employer and his workmen to the medical aid fund, and the disbursements in comparison to each contribution respectively from each of said funds on account of injuries to and medical treatment of his workmen and showing by percentage the relation of the same for each year to the cost rate of each class or class subdivision to which the employer is a contributor. [L. '19, p. 332, § 58.]

See notes to § 7753.

§ 7780. Organization of Statistical Department.

To accomplish the work provided by section 7779, the state safety board shall have access in the office of the industrial insurance commission to the records of the industrial insurance department and shall employ such number of statisticians and clerks at such salaries, and shall procure such books of records and office appliances, as to the state safety board shall seem proper for that purpose. [L. '19, p. 332, § 59.]

See notes to § 7753.

§ 7781. Refund for Compliance With Safety Standards—Fifty to Seventy-six Per Cent.

§ 7782. Refund for Compliance With Safety Standards—Fifty Per Cent or Less.

Each employer who shall be certified to the industrial insurance commission to have complied during any calendar year with all of the safety standards applicable to his establishment or case and who shall be certified by the state safety board to the industrial insurance commission to be shown by the experience tables provided in section 7779 to have cost the accident fund of his class or class subdivision for that calendar year and for the four preceding years fifty per cent, or less, of the average cost rate for said aggregate five-year period of each class or class subdivision to which he is contributing shall, at the end of that calendar year, be entitled to receive and shall receive a refund of ten per cent of the cost rate for his class or class subdivision for that year. [L. '19, p. 333, § 61.]

See notes to § 7753.

§ 7783. Additional Assessments for Accident Fund—One Hundred to One Hundred and Twenty-five Per Cent of Cost Rate.

tional standard applicable to his establishment or case and who shall be certified by the supervisor of safety to the supervisor of industrial insurance to be shown by the experience tables provided by section 7779 to have cost for that year and the four preceding years the accident fund of any class or class subdivision to which he is a contributor more than one hundred per cent but not more than one hundred and twenty-five per cent of the average cost rate for said aggregate five-year period of such class or class subdivision shall pay into the accident fund upon demand of the supervisor of industrial insurance in addition to the amount which he would otherwise have paid for such calendar year into the accident fund on account of the plant, works or system in respect to which such excess cost shall have occurred a sum equal to five per cent of the cost rate for that year of such class or class subdivision. [L. '21, p. 738, § 14; L. '19, p. 334, § 62.]

§ 7784. Additional Assessments for Accident Fund—One Hundred and Twenty-five Per Cent of Cost Rate.

Each employer who shall be certified to the supervisor of industrial insurance for any calendar year to have failed to comply with any educational standard applicable to his establishment or case and who shall be certified by the supervisor of safety to the supervisor of industrial insurance to be shown by the experience table provided by section 7779 to have cost for that year and for the four preceding years the accident fund of any class or class subdivision to which he is a contributor more than one hundred and twenty-five per cent of the average cost rate for said aggregate five-year period of such class or class subdivision shall pay into the accident fund upon demand of the supervisor of industrial insurance in addition to the amount which he would otherwise have paid for such calendar year into the accident fund on account of the plant, works or system in respect to which such excess cost shall have occurred a sum equal to ten per cent of the cost rate for that year of such class or class subdivision. [L. '21, p. 739, § 15; L. '19, p. 34, § 63.]

§ 7785. Proportional Credits and Penalties.

For the portion of any fraction of calendar year remaining after the expiration of four fractional or full calendar months after this section shall go into effect or after the establishment and notification of any standard of safety by the supervisor of safety or if for any reason any employer shall cease or suspend operation for any portion of any period of calendar year, the credits, and penalties in sections, 7777, 7778, 7781, 7782, 7783 and 7784 provided shall be calculated and applied in the proportion of time which the period of operation shall bear to the calendar year. [L. '21, p. 739, § 16; L. '19, p. 335, § 64.]

§ 7786. Crediting Refunds.

Any refund provided for in sections 7777, 7781 or 7782 may, except in cases of permanent cessation of work, be made by giving a credit to the accident fund account of the employer entitled thereto instead of making the payment of such refund in cash. [L. '19, p. 336, § 65.]

This section also included reference to Remington & Ballinger's Code, § 6604-99, which is repealed. See L. '21, p. 740, § 17.

§ 7787. Appeals to State Safety Board.

Any employer or workman dissatisfied with any certificate or order of the state labor commissioner or any certificate of any local aid board relating to educational safety standards may appeal therefrom to the state safety board. Proceedings for such an appeal shall be informal except that the state labor commissioner or the local aid board, as the case may be, shall be entitled to notice of the appeal and the appellant shall be entitled to notice of the time and place of the hearing of his appeal. The state safety board shall have power to affirm, reverse, or modify any certificate or order so appealed from. [L. '19, p. 336, § 66.]

Duties devolve upon director of labor and industries, see infra, §§ 10836—10838.

§ 7788. Review by Courts.

Any employer or workman feeling aggrieved by any order of the state mining board establishing an educational standard or by any order, certificate, or ruling of the state safety board, including its orders or rulings establishing, changing or modifying safety standards, or by any certificate issued by or any order made by the state mine inspector or the state labor commissioner, or by any order, ruling, or act of the industrial insurance commission allowing or refusing to allow a credit, or imposing or failing to impose a penalty, may have the same reviewed by the courts in accordance with the procedure, so far as applicable, established by section 7697. In any such court review, the findings or determinations of the officer or tribunal from which the appeal is taken on any question of fact shall be conclusive and binding upon the court. [L. '19, p. 336, § 67.]

§ 7789. State Board to Devote Full Time.

It shall be the duty of the members of the state safety board to devote all of their time during the office hours of each day to the performance of their duties as members of that board and of the state board. [L. '19, p. 337, § 68.]

See note to § 7787.

§ 7790. Local Boards and Deputy Inspectors to Devote Full Time.

It shall be the duty of all members of local aid boards, all deputy mine inspectors who are provided by section 7755, all deputies of the state labor commissioner who are provided by section 7761, and all assistants of local aid boards, to devote all their time during the office hours of each day to the performance of the duties of their respective offices. All of them must be citizens of the United States. [L. '19, p. 337, § 69.]

See note to § 7787.

§ 7791. Traveling Expenses of Deputies and Local Boards.

In addition to their salaries, the deputy mine inspectors provided by section 7755, the state safety board, the members of the local aid boards and their assistants, the state labor commissioner and his deputies provided by section 7761, shall be paid their actual traveling expenses incurred in the performance of their respective duties. [L. '19, p. 338, § 70.]

§ 7792. Warrants for Expenses.

All bills for traveling expenses incurred under section 7791 and under section 7743 shall be paid by warrants issued by the state auditor upon presentation of proper vouchers approved by the state safety board. [L. '19, p. 338, § 71.]

§ 7793. Funds Subject to Office Expenses of Boards.

The expenses authorized by sections 7743, 7750, 7758, 7759, 7762, 7764, 7765, 7770, 7771, 7772, 7780, 7788 and 7791, and the cost of necessary record books, stationery, and office appliances for the state mining board, and the state safety board shall be paid one-half out of the general fund of the state and one-half out of the medical aid fund, and all bills for same not covered by section 7792 shall be paid by warrants drawn by the state auditor upon vouchers approved by the state safety board. [L. '19, p. 338, § 72.]

§ 7794. Municipal Ordinances, Superseded.

No safety regulation or practice prescribed by any municipal ordinance affecting the safety of workmen is hereby repealed, but in so far as any such regulation or practice shall be inconsistent with any safety standard established by the state safety board it shall be superseded thereby forthwith upon the delivery by the state safety board to the clerk of the municipality which shall have enacted such ordinance of a copy of a notice in writing of the establishment of such inconsistent safety standard. [L. '19, p. 339, § 73.]

§ 7795. Partial Invalidity.

Adjudication of invalidity of any of sections 7727 to 7796, inclusive, or any part of any section shall not impair or otherwise affect the validity of any other of said sections. [L. '19, p. 339, § 74.]

§ 7796. Repealing Clause.

All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of sections 7727 to 7796, inclusive, are hereby repealed, but nothing herein contained shall operate to repeal any part of the coal mining code or any of the following sections of this code, or any part thereof: 7642 to 7660, inclusive, 9843 to 9870, inclusive, and 10334. § 7798. [6606.] Present Board Successor of Old.

The state board of land commissioner shall, from the date of the assumption of its official duties, possess and exercise over all the lands and areas of the state all the authority, power and functions and perform the duties which the present board of state land commissioners now possess, and is hereby constituted its successor, and all the provisions of law applicable to said board, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby made applicable to the board created by this act. [Cf. L. '95, p. 565, § 89; L. '97, p. 258, § 56.]

For former laws on the subject of tide and shore lands, see L. '90, pp. 431—437; L. '03, pp. 386—402; L. '95, pp. 527—571.

"This act" refers to chapter 89 of the Laws of 1897, §§ 1—70, and the acts amendatory thereof, found in this title.

See infra, § 8010, successors of board to exercise same powers.

§ 7799. [6607.] Records of Board, etc.

Said board and commission shall keep a full and complete record of their proceedings in separate records, one relating to appraisement, sale, lease and selection of lands; one relating to harbor lines, harbor areas, tide and shore lands. A clerk in the office of the commissioner of public lands shall act as the secretary of said board and commissions, and their office shall be in the office of the commissioner of public lands, and all records relating to said board and commissions of public lands of the state shall be kept in the office of the commissioner of public lands, and shall be subject to public inspection. [L. '97, p. 230, § 2.]

§ 7800. [6608.] Rules and Regulations.

Said board of state land commissioners shall make all rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of this act, not inconsistent with law, and the commissioner of public lands shall act as chairman of said board and commissions. [L. '97, p. 230, § 3.]

"This act": See note to § 7798.

§ 7801. [6609.] Report to Legislature on Management of Lands.

It shall be the duty of the board of state land commissioners to fully investigate the management of the public lands of the state of Washington, and the laws relating thereto, and to report to each session of the legislature any changes in the methods of handling the public lands and any changes in the laws relating thereto that may seem to said board wise and proper. [L. '07, p. 212, § 1.]

§ 7802. [6610.] Board may Accept Lands by Gift, etc., on Behalf of State.

The said board of state land commissioners is hereby empowered to accept, in the name of the state of Washington, by deed of sale or gift, or by operation of law, any and all lands of whatsoever nature, and said lands shall be inspected, appraised, managed, leased or sold in the same manner as is prescribed herein for granted lands, and the proceeds of the lease or sale of all such lands shall be converted into the general school fund in the manner prescribed by law, or shall be applied to such specific purpose as may be prescribed by any grantor or testator. This section shall apply especially to all lands that are or may be escheated to the state. [L. '95, p. 567, § 92; L. '97, p. 258, § 58.]

§ 7803. [6611.] Board Empowered to Issue Subpoenas, etc., and Compel Attendance.

[In] all hearings pertaining to the public lands of the state of Washington, or any part thereof, as provided by this act, the board of state land commissioners shall, in their discretion, have power to issue subpoenas and compel thereby the attendance of witnesses at such time and place as may be fixed by the board, to be stated in the subpoenas, and to conduct the examination thereof. Such subpoenas may be served by the sheriff of any county, or by any other officer authorized by law to serve process, or by any person over the age of twenty-one years, competent to be a witness, but who is not a party to the matter in which such subpoena is issued. Each witness subpoenaed by the board as witness on behalf of the state shall be allowed the same fees and mileage as provided by law to be paid witnesses in courts of record in this state, said fees and mileage to be paid by warrants on the general fund. And any person duly served with a subpoena, as herein provided, and who shall fail to obey the same, without legal excuse, such failure to obey shall be considered a contempt, and the board shall certify the facts thereof to the superior court of the county in which such witness may reside, and upon legal proof thereof such witness shall suffer the same penalties as are now provided in like cases in the courts of this state, as prescribed in section 1220: And it is further provided, that the certificate of the board shall be considered by the court as prima facie evidence of the guilt of the party charged with contempt. [L. '95, p. 567, § 93; L. '97, p. 259, § 59.]

§ 7804. [6612.] Board's Power of Review—Correction of Errors.

The board of state land commissioners or the commissioner of public lands may review and reconsider any of their official acts relating to the public lands of the state until such time as a lease, contract or deed shall have been made, executed and finally issued by the commissioner of public lands: Provided, that the board of state land commissioners or the commissioner of public lands, may recall any lease, contract or deed for the purpose of correcting mistakes or errors or supplying omissions. [L. '09, p. 768, § 8. Cf. L. '95, p. 570, § 102; L. '97, p. 261, § 67.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 425; 38 Wash. 615; 44 Wash. 247; 54 Wash. 482; 108 Wash. 295.

Under this section, the board of state land commissioners has power to reconsider and rescind an order for the sale of state lands, at any time before sale, without notice or further hearing, and being discretionary, such an order, regular on its face, and within the power of the board, is not subject to review by the courts, which will not inquire into the motives that prompted it: Polson v. Callvert, 38 Wash. 614, 80 Pac. 815.

Under this section and § 7808, providing for an appeal to the supreme court, the commissioner of public lands acts within his powers and discretion in letting grazing leases of less than one section to the highest bidders who are apparently qualified, and cannot be mandamusd at the suit of other bidders who made no demand for a hearing or offer to prove that the highest bidders were disqualified: State ex rel. McKee v. Savidge, 108 Wash. 292, 183 Pac. 111.

§ 7805. [6613.] Vested Rights Confirmed, When.

This act shall not be construed to affect any vested right in any of the public lands as herein defined of any person, firm or corporation acquired under existing laws, or any preference right of purchase or finding by the board of state land commissioners under existing laws, or cases now pending before said board or in the courts, but the same are hereby confirmed, subject only to such rules and regulations for the government of said rights as may be hereafter defined by the board of state land commissioners. [Cf. L. '95, p. 570, § 103; L. '97, p. 262, § 68.]

§ 7806. [6614.] Trespasses—Land Litigation—Duty of Board as to.

Said board of land commissioners be and it is hereby directed and empowered to investigate all trespasses on and damage to state lands, and prosecute the same under the law; that said board shall also appear before the United States land offices in all cases involving the validity of the selections of any of the state's granted or school lands, and shall be authorized and empowered to summon witnesses and pay necessary witness fees and clerical hire in such contested cases. [L. '95, p. 569, § 99; L. '97, p. 261, § 64.]

§ 7807. [6615.] Duties of Attorney General.

It shall be the duty of the attorney general, and he is hereby authorized to institute or defend any action or proceeding to which the state or any officer thereof is or may be a party or in which the interests of the state are involved in any court of this or any other state, or of the United States, or in any department of the United States, or before any board or tribunal, when so directed to do by the commissioner of public lands or the board of state land commissioners, or upon his own initiative. The commissioner of public lands is also authorized to appear for and represent the state in any action or proceeding, relating to the public lands of the state. [L. '09, p. 767, § 7. Cf. L. '95, p. 570, § 100; L. '97, p. 261, § 65.]

CHAPTER II.

APPEALS FROM BOARD OF STATE LAND COMMISSIONERS.

§ 7808. [6616.] Appeals to Superior Court.

Any person who is an applicant to purchase or lease any of the state's granted, tide, shore, arid or oyster lands or harbor areas, or to purchase any timber, stone, fallen timber, hay, gravel or other valuable materials situate on any of the public lands of the state, and any person whose property rights or interests will be affected by such sale or lease, who may deem himself aggrieved by any order or decision of the board of state land commissioners concerning the same, shall have the right to appeal from such order or decision to the superior court of the state of Washington for the county in which such lands, harbor areas or materials are situate. Said board of state land commissioners shall forthwith give notice in writing to all parties who have appeared in such proceedings of its order or decision. [L. '01, p. 98, § 1. Cf. L. '95, p. 561, § 82; L. '97, p. 254, § 52.]

§ 7809. [6617.] Notice of Appeal.

Such appeal shall be taken by the person desiring to appeal serving upon the adverse party, if any there be, and also upon all other parties who have appeared in the proceeding before said board, or upon their attorneys, a notice in writing that he appeals from such order or decision to the said superior court, which said notice of appeal must be served as aforesaid, and, together with the proof or admission of service indorsed thereon or attached thereto, must be filed with the said board within thirty days from and after the day such order or decision is made. [L. '01, p. 98, § 2.]

See notes to § 7808, supra.

§ 7810. [6618.] Appeal Bond.

At the time of filing such notice of appeal or within five days thereafter, the appellant shall also file with said board a bond to the state of Washington in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, executed by said appellant and one or more sureties, who, unless a surety company bond be given, shall justify according to law; which bond shall be conditioned that the appellant shall pay all costs that may be awarded against him on the appeal or on the dismissal thereof, and shall be approved by one of the members or by the secretary of said board. [L. '01, p. 98, § 3.]

See infra, § 7967, bond on appeal from appraisement of tide lands.

Within thirty days after said notice of appeal has been filed, said board shall require its secretary to make a transcript of all the entries in the records of said board relating to the case, and, under the seal of said board, to certify the same together with all the processes, original pleadings and other papers relating to the case and filed with said board, except the evidence used in such proceeding before said board; and shall require his secretary to file said certified transcript and papers, at the expense of the appellant, with the clerk of the superior court of the county to which said appeal has been taken. [L. '01, p. 99, § 4.]

§ 7812. [6620.] Trial De Novo.

The hearing and trial of said appeal in said superior court shall take place de novo before the court without a jury, upon the pleadings and papers so certified. The court or judge may order the pleadings to be amended, or new and further pleadings to be filed. Costs on said appeal shall be awarded to the prevailing party as is now provided by law in cases of actions commenced in the superior court, but no costs shall be awarded against said board or the state. Should judgment be rendered against the appellant, the costs on appeal shall be taxed against him and the sureties on the appeal bond, except when the state is the only adverse party, and shall be included in said judgment, and execution may issue from said superior court for the collection thereof. [L. '01, p. 99, § 5.]

See notes to § 7808, supra.

Under this section it is proper to allow an application, based upon the ownership of lots below high-water mark, to be amended so as to show that the applicant had acquired the record title thereto through a bona fide purchaser from the owner of the upland: Shorett v. Signor, 58 Wash. 89, 107 Pac. 1033.

§ 7813. [6621.] Appeal to Supreme Court.

Any party feeling himself aggrieved by the judgment of said court may appeal therefrom to the supreme court of the state of Washington in the same manner and within the time provided by law for appealing from judgments on actions at law to such supreme court. [L. '01, p. 99, § 6.]

§ 7814. [6622.] Record Certified to Board.

Unless appeal be taken from the judgment of said superior court, the clerk of said court shall, on demand, certify, under his hand and seal of such court, a true copy of such judgment to the board of state land commissioners, which judgment shall thereupon have the same force and effect as if rendered by said board. [L. '01, p. 99, § 7.]

CHAPTER III.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC LANDS.

§ 7815. [6628.] Assistant Commissioner—Bond.

The commissioner of public lands may appoint an assistant who shall act as chief clerk in his office, and such assistant shall have power to perform any act or duty relating to the office of commissioner of public lands that the commissioner has, and, in case of vacancy by death or resignation of the commissioner of public lands, said assistant shall perform the duties of said office until the vacancy is filled. Such assistant shall subscribe, take and file the oath of office provided by law for other state officers before entering upon the performance of his duties. The principal shall be responsible under his official bond for all of the official acts of the assistant, and may revoke such appointment at his pleasure, and may require his assistant to give him a bond in such sum as the principal may determine, which bond shall be made, executed, approved and filed as other state official bonds. [L. '03, p. 37, § 1.]

§ 7816. [6629.] Bond of Commissioner.

The commissioner of public lands shall enter into a good and sufficient surety company bond, to be approved by, and deposited with the secretary of state, in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, for the faithful discharge of the duties of said offices. The premium on said bond shall be paid by the state from the incidental fund provided for the commissioner of public lands. [L. '07, p. 218, § 1. Cf. L. '90, p. 252, § 6.]

See Const., Art. III, §§ 109, 110, commissioner of public lands and term of office; and § 114, duties and salary.

§ 7817. [6630.] Bond of Auditor and Cashier.

The auditor and cashier of the office of the commissioner of public lands shall enter into a good and sufficient surety company bond, to be approved by, and deposited with the secretary of state, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, for the faithful discharge of the duties of said offices [s]. The premium on said bond shall also be paid by the state from the incidental fund provided for the commissioner of public lands. [L. '07, p. 218, § 2.]

§ 7818. [6630-1.] Bonds of Cashier and Assistant Auditor.

The assistant auditor and cashier of the office of the commissioner of public lands shall enter into a good and sufficient surety company bond, to be approved by and deposited with the secretary of state, in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), for the faithful discharge of the duties of said office. The premium on said bond shall be paid by the state from the incidental fund provided for the commissioner of public lands. [L. '15, p. 419, § 17.]

§ 7819. [6631.] Commissioner Custodian of All Maps and Records.

All maps, plats and field-notes of surveys required to be made by this act shall, after approval by the state board of commissioners of public lands, be deposited and filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands, and all maps, plats and field-notes now filed with the board of state land commissioners shall be by them deposited with the commissioner of public lands, who shall keep a careful and complete record and index of all maps and plats in his possession in well-bound books, which shall at all times be accessible to the public. [Cf. L. '95, p. 568, § 94; L. '97, p. 260, § 60.]

§ 7820. [6632.] Seal.

All notices, orders, contracts, certificates, rules and regulations, or other documents or papers made and issued by or on behalf of the board of appraisers or commissions provided for in this act, or the commissioner of public lands, shall be authenticated by a seal whereon shall be the vignette of Washington, with the words "Seal of the commissioner of public lands, state of Washington." [L. '95, p. 569, § 96; L. '97, p. 260, § 61.]

§ 7821. [6633.] Fees of Commissioner.

The commissioner of public lands for services performed by him as such may charge and collect the following fees: (1) For a copy of any record, document or paper on file in his office, fifteen cents per folio; (2) for affixing a certificate and seal, one dollar; (3) for each original contract of sale, lease, or bill of sale, two dollars; (4) for each deed, five dollars; (5) issuance of harbor area lease and approval of bond, five dollars; (6) approval of each assignment of contract, lease or bill of sale, one dollar; (7) for each copy of the plat of a township or any portion thereof, not less than two dollars; (8) for subdivision and issuance of new contracts, after the original has been entered on the records, two dollars for each new contract; (9) for each railroad right of way certificate issued, two dollars. [L. '15, p. 405, § 1. Cf. L. '07, p. 757, § 9. Cf. L. '95, p. 569, § 97; L. '97, p. 260, § 62; L. '03, p. 117, § 9.]

See infra, § 7941, fees, reclamation of arid lands.

§ 7822. [6634.] Fee-book—Disposition of Fees.

The commissioner of public lands shall keep a fee-book, in which must be entered all fees received by him, with the date paid and the name of the person paying the same, and the nature of the services rendered for which the fee is charged, which book must be verified monthly by his affidavit entered therein; and all fees so collected by him shall be paid into the state treasury monthly, and the receipt of such treasurer taken, to be retained in the office of said commissioner of public lands as a voucher. [L. '95, p. 569, § 98; L. '97, p. 261, § 63.]

See supra, § 5501, moneys collected how to be paid into state treasury.

See infra, § 7941, disposition of arid land fees.

§ 7823. [6635.] Abstract or Tract Books, How Kept.

The commissioner of public lands shall cause full and correct abstracts to be made and kept in the office of the commissioner of public lands of all the lands owned or that shall be owned by the state, which abstract shall be in suitable and well-bound books. Such abstracts shall show in proper columns and pages the section or part of section, lot or block, township and range in which each tract is situated, whether timber or prairie, improved or unimproved, the appraised value per acre, the value of improvements and the value of damages, and the total value, the several values of stone, minerals and timber thereon, the date of sale, date of lease, name of purchaser, name of lessee, price per acre, amount of lease per acre, amount of cash paid, amount unpaid and when due, amount of annual interest, and such other columns as may be necessary to show a full and complete abstract of the conditions and circumstances of each tract or parcel of land from the time title was acquired by the state until final payment by the purchasers, and the issuance of a deed by the state to the land. [L. '95, p. 546, § 42; L. '97, p. 245, § 32.]

CHAPTER IV.

SELECTION OF LIEU LANDS.

§ 7824. [6635-1.] Land Commissioner to Make Agreement for Lieu Lands.

For the purpose of obtaining from the United States indemnity or lieu lands for such lands granted to the state for common schools, educational, penal, reformatory, charitable, capitol building or other purposes, as have been or may be lost to the state, or the title to or use or possession of which is claimed by the United States or by others claiming by, through or under the United States, by reason of any of the causes entitling the state to select other lands in lieu thereof, the inclusion of the same in any reservation by or under authority of the United States, or any other appropriation or disposition of the same by the United States, whether such lands are now surveyed or unsurveyed, the commissioner of public lands, with the advice and approval of the board of state land commissioners and the attorney general, is authorized and empowered to enter into an agreement or agreements, on behalf of the state, with the proper officer or officers of the United States for the relinquishment of any such lands and the selection in lieu thereof, under the provisions of this act, of lands of the United States of equal area and value. [L. '13, p. 300, § 1.]

Cited in 105 Wash. 147; 110 Wash. 489, 490.

Indemnity and Lieu Lands: See Remington's Digest, Pub. Lands, § 37: State v. Johanson, 26 Wash. 668, 67 Pac. 401; State v. Whitney, 66 Wash. 473, 120 Pac. 116; Bird Timber Co. v. Snohomish County, 81 Wash. 416, 143 Pac. 433.

This act, and Revised Statutes of the United States, §§ 2275, 2276, authorized the relinquishment by the state of school sections 16 and 36 in national forest reservations and the selection of other lands in lieu thereof, pursuant to the agreement therefor entered into between the commissioner of public lands and the secretary of the interior: Thompson v. Savidge, 110 Wash. 486, 188 Pac. 397.

The state's relinquishment of its right to unsurveyed school sections 16 and 36 which did not vest and had not since vested in the state because of national forest reservations or settlers' claims initiated before survey, is not a disposition of granted lands, in violation of the restrictions of Const., Art. XVI, §§ 1 and 2: Thompson v. Savidge, 110 Wash. 486, 188 Pac. 397.

§ 7825. [6635-2.] Examination and Appraisal.

Upon the making of any such agreement, the board of state land commissioners shall be empowered and it shall be their duty to cause such examination and appraisal to be made as will determine the area and value, as nearly as may be, of the lands lost to the state, or the title to, use or possession of which is claimed by the United States by reason of the causes mentioned in section 7824, and proposed to be relinquished to the United States, and shall cause an examination and appraisal to be made of any lands which may be designated by the officers of the United States as subject to selection by the state in lieu of the lands aforesaid, to the end that the state shall obtain lands in lieu thereof of equal area and value. [L. '13, p. 300, § 2.]

Cited in 110 Wash. 490.

§ 7826. [6635-3.] Transfer of Title to United States.

Whenever the title to any lands selected under the provisions of this act shall become vested in the state of Washington by the acceptance and approval of the lists of land so selected, or other proper action of the United States, the governor, on behalf of the state of Washington, shall execute and deliver to the United States a deed of conveyance of the lands of the state relinquished under the provisions of this act, which deed shall convey to and vest in the United States all the right, title and interest of the state of Washington therein. [L. '13, p. 301, § 3.]

Cited in 105 Wash. 147; 110 Wash. 490.

Under this section, title to the school lands remains in the state until the conditions are fulfilled, and are not subject to taxation; notwithstanding a patentee from the government in possession may thereupon become the owner by compliance with the state or federal conditions therefor: Ortman v. Kittitas County, 105 Wash. 144, 177 Pac. 721.

A patentee from the government prior to survey, of land in section 36, the title to which had been quieted in the state, but who was left in possession pending negotiations of lieu land selections which would probably result in his becoming the owner of the land, may maintain an action to cancel taxes improperly assessed against the land while the title was in the state: Ortman v. Kittitas County, 105 Wash. 144, 177 Pac. 721.

§ 7827. [6635-4.] Agent to Rent Escheated Lands.

The commissioner of public lands is authorized to employ an agent or agents to rent any improved escheated urban property for such rental and time and in such manner as the commissioner may direct: Provided, that no lease thereof for a term longer than one year shall be made except to the highest bidder at public auction in the manner provided by law for the leasing of public lands, and, except in such case, no lessee shall be entitled to compensation for any improvements which he may make thereon. Such agent or agents shall cause such repairs to be made to such property as the commissioner may direct, and shall deduct the cost thereof, together with such compensation and commission as the commissioner may authorize, from the rentals for such property, and the remainder which shall have been collected shall be transmitted monthly to the commissioner of public lands. [L. '13, p. 247, § 1.]

CHAPTER V.CONFIRMATION OF OLD TITLES TO SCHOOL AND UNIVERSITY LANDS.*§ 7828. [6636.] Titles, How Acquired.

All persons who have purchased school and university lands from the commissioners of any county, county school superintendent, or other agent of the county, or the university commissioners of the territory of Washington, acting under the authority of any law passed by the territory of Washington, where the full purchase price for such land has been paid in good faith to such county or university commissioners, or other authorized agent, may secure title thereto as hereinafter provided. [L. '90, p. 448, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2182.]

A proceeding against the state under this section for the relief of bona fide purchasers of state school lands is of an equitable nature: Smith v. State, 5 Wash. 273, 31 Pac. 865.

§ 7829. [6637.] Purchaser, etc., may Sue State, When—Proceedings.

Any person, or his executors, administrators, heirs, assignee, or successor in interest, being the legal and bona fide holder and owner, assignee, or legal representative of the person to whom has been made a conveyance of such school or university land, which conveyance has been executed by the county commissioners or county school superintendent of any county, or the university commissioners of the said territory of Washington, or an authorized commissioner or regent of the university of said territory, or by any other officer, commissioner, or agent acting under authority conferred by any law of the said territory of Washington, where the grantee named in such conveyance has paid the full purchase price for said land, and for any reason such grantee has not been vested with a title thereto, such purchaser, his assignee or legal representative, shall have a right of action against the state of Washington in the superior court of the county in which the land is situated to secure a confirmation of title to the land described in said deed, or to a specific performance of the conditions of the deed or instrument, and the court in its decree may order a deed to be executed by the commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington, confirming to the grantee, or assignee, or legal representative the tract described in such conveyance, or intended to have been granted thereby. [L. '90, p. 449, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2183.]

pose of university lands: State v. Hewitt Land Co., 74 Wash. 573, 134 Pac. 474.

§ 7830. [6638.] Interested Persons to be Made Parties to Suit.

Any person having or claiming any right or interest in any land which shall be the subject of said action shall be made a party to said suit, and such right or interest of said claimant, whether legal or equitable, shall be tried and determined by said court, and the decree of the court shall have full power to adjudge and settle the respective rights of the claiming parties. [L. '90, p. 449, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2184.]

The jurisdiction conferred upon the courts under the provisions of this chapter is of an equitable nature: Smith v. State, 5 Wash. 273, 31 Pac. 865.

The costs in an action against the state to confirm the sale of school lands made under the laws of the territory should be assessed against the plaintiff, although judgment may be in his favor; but the state is liable for costs from an unsuccessful appeal from such judgment: Romine v. State, 7 Wash. 215, 34 Pac. 924.

§ 7831. [6639.] Purchaser to have Payments Refunded, When.

In all cases where the land or tracts of land described in such deed or conveyance shall have been granted to any other person or persons under any law of the United States, or not granted to the state of Washington, by reason whereof said state of Washington is unable to confirm to the bona fide purchaser of such tract who has duly paid the consideration in such deed recited, or his legal representative or successor in interest, the said state of Washington shall refund to such purchaser or his successor in interest the full consideration by him paid, together with lawful interest from the date of such purchase. [L. '90, p. 449, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2185.]

§ 7832. [6640.] Practice and Procedure—Appeal.

In such suits and actions instituted under the provisions of this chapter, the practice and procedure shall conform to the practice in superior courts regulating civil actions, and an appeal or writ of error shall lie to the supreme court of the state of Washington, as in other civil actions. [L. '90, p. 450, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2186.]

CHAPTER VI.

CLASSIFICATION AND SELECTION.

§ 7833. [6641.] Classification of State Lands.

That for the purpose of this act all lands belonging to and under the control of the state shall be divided into the following classes:

(1) Granted Lands. (a) Common school lands and lieu and indemnity lands therefor. (b) University lands and lieu and indemnity therefor. (c) Other educational land grants. (d) Lands granted to the state of Washington for other than educational purposes, and lieu and indemnity lands therefor. (e) All other lands, including lands acquired or to be hereafter acquired by grant, deed of sale, or gift, or operation of law, including arid lands.

(2) Tide Lands. All lands over which the tide ebbs and flows from the line of ordinary high tide to the line of extreme low tide, except in front of cities where harbor lines have been established or may hereafter be established, where such tide lands shall be those lying between the line of ordinary high tide and the inner harbor line and excepting oyster reserves.

(3) Shore Lands. Lands bordering on the shores of navigable lakes and rivers below the line of ordinary high water and not subject to tidal flow.

(4) Harbor Lines and Areas. Such lines and areas as are described in Article XV of the Constitution of the state of Washington and which have been established according to law. All of which outer harbor lines so established as aforesaid are hereby ratified and confirmed, also all such harbor lines and areas as may and shall be hereafter established. [L. '11, p. 129, § 1. Cf. L. '95, p. 527, § 1; L. '97, p. 230, § 4.]

“This act”: See note to § 7798.

'90, pp. 438—448, sale and lease of school lands. Also L. '77, pp. 258, 259, relating to improvement of tide lands by dikes or ditches.

There is no conflict between this section and section 7961, dividing all tide lands into two classes, with reference to the location of the boundaries of cities and towns: Pearl Oyster Co. v. Heuston, 57 Wash. 533, 107 Pac. 349, 832, 135 Am. St. Rep. 1007.

Classification: See Remington's Digest, Pub. Lands, § 90; State ex rel. McKenzie v. Forrest, 11 Wash. 227, 39 Pac. 684; State ex rel. Lehman v. Bridges, 24 Wash. 363, 64 Pac. 518.

There is no conflict between this section and section 7837 dividing all tide lands into two classes, with reference to the location of the boundaries of cities and towns: Pearl Oyster Co. v. Heuston, 57 Wash. 533, 107 Pac. 349, 832, 135 Am. St. Rep. 1007.

Definition of shore lands irrespective of statute: State v. Sturtevant, 76 Wash. 158, 135 Pac. 1035, 138 Pac. 650.

No statutes of this state indicate any intention to pass to the owner of abutting lands the title to islands, even if joined to the mainland by a strip of "shore land," defined by this section, as lands bordering on the shores of navigable lakes and rivers, below the line of ordinary high water: Hauge v. Walton, 72 Wash. 554, 131 Pac. 248.

Under this section the legislature limited the outer boundaries of tide lands, using "mean low tide" advisedly, and did not attempt to limit the water boundary to shore lands: State v. Sturtevant, 76 Wash. 158, 135 Pac. 1035, 138 Pac. 650.

Under this section, a state deed of tide lands conveys title only to the line of mean low tide; as the deed is limited by the express terms of the statute: State v. Scott, 89 Wash. 63, 154 Pac. 165.

"Excepting oyster reserves" was intended to except oyster lands from the definition of tide lands: Hurley v. Olympia Oyster Co., 105 Wash. 244, 177 Pac. 732.

Under this section, tide lands are "lands belonging to the state," within the meaning of section 7892, infra: State ex rel. Stetson v. Savidge, 110 Wash. 618, 188 Pac. 923.

§ 7834. [6641-1.] Preference Rights.

The prior and preference right to purchase all tide-lands of the second class lying between the line of mean low tide and the line of extreme low tide in front of all tide lands of the second class heretofore sold or conveyed by the state of Washington is hereby granted for the period of ninety days from the date this act goes into effect to the purchasers, their grantees or successors in interest of any tide lands of the second class heretofore sold or conveyed by the state of Washington. Such additional tide-lands may be so purchased at the rate of one dollar per lineal chain measurement to be based on the United States government meander lines bordering the said tide lands heretofore sold. Upon application and payment for such additional tide-lands within said ninety days to the land commissioner of the state of Washington, deed shall be issued to the respective purchaser or purchasers therefor. If such application and payment is not made within said ninety days by the parties to whom the preference rights under this section are given then such additional tide-lands shall be sold as other tide lands are sold under the laws of the state of Washington. [L. '11, p. 130, § 2.]

§ 7835. [6642.] Terms Defined—Inspection, etc., of Lands.

All lands described in the last section are "public lands" and the terms "public lands" and "state lands" shall be defined and deemed to be synonymous whenever either is used in this chapter. The selection, inspection and appraisal of land as hereinafter provided for in this chapter may be made by one of the members of the said board or commission; but when it is deemed advisable and for the best interest of the state, the commissioner of public lands, with the consent and approval of the board of state land commissioners may employ one or more citizens of the state, familiar with such work to personally inspect, appraise or select lands, harbor areas. [L. '07, p. 748, § 1. Cf. L. '95, p. 526, § 2, and p. 529, § 7; L. '97, p. 231, § 5.]

"This chapter" refers to chapter 89 of the Laws of 1897, §§ 1—71, and the acts amendatory thereof.

§ 7836. [6643.] Compensation of Inspectors.

The compensation of such inspectors so appointed by the commissioner of public lands with the consent and approval of the board of state land commissioners shall not exceed seven dollars per diem for the time actually employed, and necessary expenses, which shall be submitted to the commissioner of public lands in an itemized and verified account, to be approved by the commissioner of public lands. [L. '97, p. 231, § 6; L. '07, p. 748, § 2.]

§ 7837. [6644.] Duties of Inspectors—Surveys, etc.

Said state land inspectors shall, immediately upon their appointment, under the direction of the commissioner of public lands, inspect such unsurveyed lands or townships as the board may designate, with a view of determining whether it is desirable to have them reserved for the selection of lands to complete the grant of public lands to the state. They shall report the result of their inspection without delay, showing approximately the number of acres arable, the amount, quality, character and value of timber, the nearest practicable route for removing the same, the number of settlers in the township and the value of the improvements. Upon the recommendation of the board the governor shall, if he concurs, cause an application to be filed with the surveyor-general for the survey of such township or townships, and shall cause due notice thereof to be published in accordance with the act of congress providing for the reservation and survey of such townships and under such rules and regulations as may be made by the secretary of the interior. Whenever the United States surveyor-general shall have made an estimate of the cost of survey, and it shall appear, under the decision and rulings of the department of the interior, that there is no federal government appropriation for the survey of any township applied for by the state, the governor is authorized and empowered to execute a voucher to the state auditor for the amount of such estimate, and the state auditor is authorized and directed, upon the filing of such voucher, to issue a warrant on the general fund for the amount of the same, and the state treasurer shall pay said warrant out of the moneys appropriated for said purpose. Upon the receipt of such warrant the governor shall deposit the same to the credit of the United States, in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the department of the interior. [L. '95, p. 532, §§ 13, 14; L. '97, p. 231, § 7.]

§ 7838. [6645.] Inspectors' Bond—Oath.

The said state land inspectors, before entering upon their duties, shall each enter into a bond unto the state of Washington, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned to well and faithfully perform their duties as such, to be approved by the commissioner of public lands, and shall take and subscribe an oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths, according to the laws of the state, in substance as follows:—

I, A B, do solemnly swear that I will well and truly perform the duties of land inspector for the state of Washington, in the selection, inspection and appraisement of the lands granted thereto, to the best of my knowledge and ability; and further that I will not communicate to any person not a member of the board, or commission, or the commissioner of public lands, any information in relation to location, character and value of the public lands examined by me, or disclose to anyone anything in relation to such public lands except to such board or commissioner of public lands; that I will, when directed, personally and carefully examine each parcel or tract of land to be listed by me, and make an appraisement and value of the same and the timber thereon; that I am not nor will I become interested directly or indirectly in the sale or purchase of said lands, and that I will report every material fact connected with said lands directly to the board of state land commissioners, to enable it to determine the situation, value and character of the timber thereon and the lands selected by me; in investigating, appraising, or in the prosecution of any trespass, I do solemnly swear that I will act according to the best of my knowledge and ability, and will protect the interests of the state of Washington.

Upon filing such bond and affidavit the inspector may be authorized and commissioned by said commissioner of public lands to view, select and appraise lands as hereinafter provided for. [Cf. L. '95, p. 530, § 9; L. '97, p. 232, § 8.]

§ 7839. [6646.] Inspectors' Duties and Reports.

The said commissioner of public lands may instruct the said state land inspector to view and examine the said lands subject to selection by the smallest legal subdivisions of forty acres each, and shall classify such lands into grazing, farming and timbered lands, and estimate the value of each tract so viewed; said state land inspector shall also in timbered lands estimate the amount and value of the standing timber thereon and the value thereof after the timber is removed; he shall make a report thereof to the commissioner of public lands as amply and expeditiously as possible on blank lists to be furnished by said commissioner of public lands for that purpose; that said report shall be made under oath, to the effect that the inspector has personally examined the tracts mentioned in each forty acres thereof, that said report and appraisement is made from such personal examination and is to the best of affiant's knowledge and belief true and correct, and that the lands are not occupied by any bona fide settler. They shall also separately appraise all valuable material thereon, improvements, etc. [Cf. L. '95, p. 530, § 10; L. '97, p. 233, § 9.]

§ 7840. [6647.] Classification Lists.

Upon receipt of such report or reports the board of state land commissioners shall arrange and classify the lands so selected into several lists for filing in the general United States district land offices of the United States in this state, and shall classify the lands and apportion them to the several specific grants under said act of congress referred to, so that there may be lands of nearly as equal value as possible apportioned to the several grants. Said list shall be made in triplicate, one for filing in said local land offices, one for transmission by it to the secretary of the interior, and one to be filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands. Said lists shall state the grant for which the same is made. The commissioner of public lands shall file said lists so arranged, classified and duly certified under the rules and regulations of the secretary of the interior, in the several United States district land offices throughout the state having jurisdiction thereof: Provided, that if it be found, upon the filing of said lists, that any of the lands described therein have been filed upon or applied for, then the commissioner of public lands is authorized to eliminate therefrom such lands: And provided further, said commissioner of public lands or board of state land commissioners may decline to list any lands reported by the inspectors which may not by them be deemed desirable. [L. '95, p. 531, § 11; L. '97, p. 234, § 10.]

§ 7841. [6648.] Penalty for Disclosing Information.

If any state land inspector knowingly or willfully shall make a false oath concerning the appraisement on said lands, or knowingly, or willfully divulge anything, or give any information in regard to such land other than to the board of state land commissioners, or commissioner of public lands, he shall forthwith be removed from office and be deemed guilty of perjury and subject to the penalties thereof, and it shall be and is hereby made the duty of the board of state land commissioners, or the commissioner of public lands, to prosecute him therefor. [L. '95, p. 531, § 12; L. '97, p. 234, § 10½.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 101; 8 Wash. 114.

§ 7842. [6649.] Nonmineral Certificates.

The commissioner of public lands be and hereby is authorized and directed to cause publication of notices of application to the interior department for certification that state school land or other granted land is nonmineral in character, in accordance with the rules of the general land office. [L. '97, p. 246, § 33.]

§ 7843. [6650.] May Relinquish Certain Lands to the United States.

The board of state land commissioners shall have authority and power to relinquish to the United States all lands heretofore selected by the territory of Washington or any officer, board or agent thereof, or by the state of Washington or any officer, board or agent thereof, or which may be hereafter selected by the state of Washington, or any officer, board or agent thereof, in pursuance of any grant of public lands made by the United States or the congress thereof to the territory or state for any purpose or upon any trust whatever, the selection of which has failed or been rejected or shall fail or shall be rejected for any reason. [L. '99, p. 105, § 1.]

§ 7844. [6651.] Selection of University Lands.

The commissioner of public lands is hereby authorized and directed to ascertain how much land granted to the state for university purposes, by section 14 of the enabling act, approved February 22, 1889, remains unsold, and to select from the lands granted to the state of Washington by section 17 of said enabling act, for state, charitable, educational, penal and reformatory institutions, one hundred thousand (100,000) acres thereof, assigned for the support of the University of Washington by section 9 of the act of the legislature of the state of Washington, entitled "An act providing for the location, construction and maintenance of the University of Washington, and making an appropriation therefor, and declaring an emergency," approved March 4, 1893. [L. '03, p. 137, § 1.]

Cited in 34 Wash. 59.

This section is not unconstitutional as special legislation: State ex rel. Moore v. Callvert, 34 Wash. 59, 74 Pac. 1018.

§ 7845. [6652.] Selection—How Made.

The lands to be selected from the lands granted by section 17 of the enabling act, shall be selected from such lands now remaining unsold and undisposed of, and so that the lands so selected shall, as nearly as practicable, in the judgment of the commissioner, equal in value, the remainder of said original grant; the estimate of values to be made on the basis of the condition of the land as originally selected by the state under said grant. [L. '03, p. 138, § 2.]

§ 7846. [6653.] List Filed With Board of Regents—Disposal.

When said commissioner shall have ascertained and selected such lands as above required, he shall make a correct list by proper legal description according to the United States government surveys, of all said lands, which said list and selection shall be approved by the state board of land commission, and when so approved by the certificate of said board, the same shall be entered and recorded by said state land commissioner, in a book kept in his office for that purpose, and the copy of said list, duly certified by said land commissioner, shall be filed with the board of regents of the University of Washington, and thereafter such lands shall be known as the university lands, and shall never be sold, encumbered, or otherwise disposed of, except by and with the consent of the board of regents of the University of Washington. [L. '03, p. 138, § 3.]

§ 7847. [6654.] Endowment for Support of State University.

One hundred thousand acres of the lands granted by section 17 of the enabling act, approved February 22, 1889, for state, charitable, educational, penal and reformatory institutions are hereby assigned for the support of the University of Washington. [L. '93, p. 299, § 9.]

§ 7848. Forest Demonstration and Experiment Station.

For the purpose of securing an area suitable for a demonstration forest and forest experiment station for the University of Washington authority is hereby granted the board of regents of the University of Washington and the commissioner of public lands with the advice and approval of the state board of land commissioners, all acting with the advice and approval of the attorney general, to exchange all or any portion of the granted lands of the University of Washington assigned for the support of said university by section 7847, for all or any portion of such lands as may be acquired by the state under and by virtue of chapter IV of this Title, by exchange with the United States in the Pilchuck-Sultan-Wallace watersheds included within the present boundaries of the Snoqualmie national forest. Said board of regents and commissioner of public lands with the advice and approval aforesaid are hereby authorized to execute such agreements, writings or relinquishments as are necessary or proper for the purpose of carrying said exchange into effect and such agreements or other writings to be executed in duplicate, one to be filed with the commissioner of public lands and one to be delivered to the said board of regents. Said exchange shall be made upon the basis of equal values to be determined by careful valuation of the areas to be exchanged. [L. '17, p. 227, § 1.]

§ 7849. [6655.] State College Lands—Annual Report to Board of Regents.

It shall be the duty of the state land commissioner to make a report to the board of regents of the agricultural college and school of science on or before the first Monday in April, 1899, and on or before the first Monday in April of each succeeding year, which said report shall contain a complete detailed statement:

(1) Of all lands which have been selected under an act of congress approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act donating public lands to the several states and territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts," and all acts supplementary thereto, and under the act of congress of February 22, 1889, entitled "An act to provide for the division of Dakota into two states and to enable the people of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana and Washington to form constitutions and state governments and to be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original states, and to make donations of public lands to institutions," which said selections have been approved by the secretary of the interior, for the use and support of agricultural colleges and for a scientific school, which statement shall set forth the lands set apart for the agricultural college and for the school of science in distinct and separate lists: Provided, that the land commissioner shall not be required to include in such annual report a statement of approved selections and locations made in any previous annual report: And provided further, that when the entire amount of the one hundred and ninety thousand acres of land set apart for the use and support of the agricultural college and school of science shall have been selected, located, and approved by the secretary of the interior, and included in any annual report or reports to the said board of regents, that thereafter the land commissioner shall not be required to make such annual report.

(2) Of all lands belonging to the agricultural college and likewise to the school of science sold prior to said first Monday in April, 1899, and on or before the first Monday in April of each succeeding year, which statement shall accurately describe the lands sold, the price received for the same and all moneys received from the sale of [or] lease of said lands or from the sale of timber, stone or hay from said lands: Provided, that the land commissioner shall not be required to include in such annual report a statement of lands sold or moneys received which shall have been included in any previous annual report.

(3) Of the investment of all moneys received from the sale or lease of agricultural college land, or from the sale of timber, stone or hay from said lands, which report shall describe fully the stocks, bonds or other securities in which said moneys shall have been invested, specifying the issuer or issuers, the rate of interest, the time to run, and the face or par value of said stocks, bonds or other securities, and a like report of the disposition of all moneys received from the sale or lease of lands set apart for the scientific school and from the sale of timber, stone or hay from said lands: Provided, that the land commissioner shall not be required to include in any annual report a statement of the disposition of any moneys included in any previous annual report. [L. '99, p. 12, § 1.]

See supra, § 5524, disposition of certain state college lands.

§ 7850. [6659.] Annual Report of State Treasurer to Regents.

It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to make a report to the board of regents of the agricultural college and school of science on or before the first Monday of April, 1899, and on or before the first Monday of April of each succeeding year, which said report shall contain a complete detailed statement:

(1) Of all stocks, bonds or other securities belonging to the agricultural college and school of science which may have been deposited with said treasurer by the land commissioner during the year next preceding said report, together with all other securities belonging to said college which may be in his custody, setting forth in separate statements those which have been derived from the sale or lease of agricultural college lands and those which have been derived from the sale or lease of the scientific school lands.

(2) Of all interest received during the year next preceding said report, on all stocks, bonds or other securities belonging to the agricultural college and school of science which may be or may have been in the custody of said treasurer, and of all premiums which may have been received on securities sold or redeemed during the aforesaid period.

(3) Of all stocks, bonds or other securities belonging to the agricultural college and school of science which may have been paid, redeemed or sold during the year next preceding such report, together with the principal sum or sums remaining in the hands of said treasurer uninvested. [L. '99, p. 14, § 2.]

§ 7851. [6660.] Duties of Board of Regents—Inspection—Report to Legislature.

To the end that the endowment of the agricultural college and school of science may be conserved and increased it shall be the duty of the board of regents of the said college and school of science at as early a date as practicable to inspect or cause to be inspected the lands set apart for the use and support of the agricultural college and school of science, and to gather or cause to be gathered such information relative to the character, condition and true value of said lands as may be conducive to a wise and advantageous disposition of the same, and to collect and distribute such information as shall facilitate the sale or lease of such lands, as provided by law, and to furnish such information to the land commissioner when called for: Provided, that the expense of collecting and distributing such information shall be paid from the maintenance fund of the college, which said expenses shall not exceed one thousand dollars in any one fiscal year and shall not exceed three thousand dollars in the aggregate: Provided, further, that a complete report of the doings of the board of regents in the collecting and distributing of information and facilitating the sale or lease of said lands, together with the expenses incurred therein shall be included in the annual report of the board of regents to the governor and legislature. [L. '99, p. 15, § 3.]

CHAPTER VII.

APPRAISAL AND SALE OF GRANTED LANDS.

Sale of material on state lands for highway construction, see infra, § 8003.

§ 7852. [6661.] Appraisement and Sale—Plats.

Any person or company may make written application to the commissioner of public lands for the appraisement and sale of any lands belonging to the state, except capitol building lands; and the commissioner of public lands shall cause to be prepared blank applications containing such instructions as will inform and aid intending purchasers in making application for the appraisement and sale of any lands. Each application must be accompanied with either cash, certificate of deposit or certified check upon any bank of this state, or postal order made payable to the commissioner of public lands equal in amount to ten cents per acre for the land described in such application, but in no case for a sum less than ten dollars. In case the lands described in such application are sold at the time they are offered for sale, in accordance with such application, the amount of such deposit shall be returned to such applicant, but if such land be not sold, through the failure of the applicant to offer at least the appraised valuation, such deposit shall, upon order of the board of state land commissioners, be forfeited to the state and credited to the general fund. When, in the opinion of the commissioner of public lands, or the board of state land commissioners, a sufficient number of applications have been received for the appraisement and sale of lands in any county or locality, the commissioner of public lands shall cause such lands so applied for to be inspected and classified by one or more state land inspectors, or by one or more members of the board of state land commissioners, as to its character, topography, agricultural and grazing qualities, timber, coal, mineral, stone or rock quarries of commercial value, its distance from any city or town, railroad, river, irrigation canal, ditch or other waterway, and full report thereof to be made to the commissioner of public lands, together with the inspector's judgment as to its present and prospective value, which said report, together with all other information affecting the same, shall thereupon be considered by the board of state land commissioners and a price per acre fixed for each lot, block, subdivision or tract proposed to be sold in one parcel, which shall not be less than ten dollars per acre for lands granted for educational purposes: Provided, that no more than one hundred and sixty acres of any school or granted lands of the state shall be offered for sale in one parcel; and all lands within the limits of any incorporated city or town, or within two miles of the boundaries of such incorporated city or town, where the valuation of such lands shall be found by appraisement to exceed one hundred dollars per acre, or such other lands as the board of state land commissioners may determine, shall, before the same be sold, be platted into lots and blocks or tracts, and not more than one block or tract shall be offered for sale in one parcel. And the board of state land commissioners is hereby authorized to vacate and annul any street, alley or public place in any plat of any public lands of the state situated outside of the limits of any incorporated city or town when deemed for the best interests of the state and to correct any defect or omission in any plat, or any defect or omission in the procedure with reference to the making or filing thereof in any plat heretofore or which may hereafter be made or filed. The board of state land commissioners may designate or describe any such plat by name or numeral or as an addition to any such city or town and, upon the filing of such plats, it shall be sufficient to describe the lands, or any portion thereof, embraced in such plat according to the designation prescribed by the board of state land commissioners. Such plats shall be made in duplicate and, when properly authenticated in accordance with the directions of the board of state land commissioners, one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands and one copy in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the lands are situated; and said auditor is hereby directed to receive and file such plats without compensation or fees and to make record thereof in the same manner as required by law for the filing of other plats in his office: Provided further, that whenever application is made to purchase less than a section, the said commissioner of public lands may order the inspection of the entire section or sections; and in no case shall any state or public lands, or timber or other materials thereon be sold unless within ninety days prior to the date fixed for the sale the same shall have been appraised by the board of state land commissioners. The board of state land commissioners or the commissioner of public lands may cause any of the public lands of the state to be surveyed for the purpose of ascertaining and determining the area subject to sale or lease. § 7853. Authority to Reserve Lands.

The commissioner of public lands is hereby authorized to reserve from sale, for parks for general public use, not to exceed five (5) acres of land from any tract of land belonging to the state, including tide and shore lands, adjoining or lying near any public highway within the state. [L. '19, p. 87, § 1.]

§ 7854. [6662.] Vacation of Plats—Replat—Sale.

When in the judgment of the state board of land commissioners the best interest of the state will be thereby promoted, the said board is hereby authorized and empowered to vacate any plat or plats covering school and granted lands and vacate any streets, alleys and other public places therein situated. Any such lands within the limits of any incorporated city or town or within two miles of the boundary of any incorporated city where the valuation of such land shall be found by appraisement to exceed one hundred dollars per acre shall be replatted by said board into lots and blocks of not more than five acres in a block and disposed of in the manner provided in section 7852: Provided, that the vacation of any such plat shall not affect the vested rights of any person or persons heretofore acquired therein. [L. '03, p. 238, § 1.]

In view of this section the county commissioners have no jurisdiction to vacate plats of tide lands: State ex rel. Oregon & Wash. R. Co. v. Abraham, 48 Wash. 215, 93 Pac. 325.

§ 7855. [6663.] Order of Vacation to be Recorded.

Said board in the exercise of the power and authority herein conferred shall cause the order made by the board to vacate any plat or plats to be entered in the minutes of said board, and at once forward a certified copy thereof to the county auditor of the county wherein said platted lands are located, and said auditor upon the receipt thereof shall cause the same to be recorded in the miscellaneous deed records of his said county. [L. '03, p. 239, § 2.]

Whenever all the owners and other persons who have a vested interest in the lands abutting on any street, alley or other public place, or any portion thereof, in any of the state granted, tide or shore lands lying outside of any incorporated city or town, which have been platted, or which hereafter shall be platted, shall petition the board of state land commissioners, by filing a petition therefor with the commissioner of public lands, the board of state land commissioners is authorized and empowered to vacate any such street, alley or public place, or part thereof, and all such streets, alleys and other public places and portions thereof which shall be so vacated shall be platted and appraised in the manner provided for the platting and appraising of similar lands: Provided, that where the area of such streets, alleys or other public places so vacated may be determined from the plat already filed as provided by law it shall not be necessary to survey said street, alley or other public place so vacated, but the area thereof may be determined from such plat already filed. [L. '03, p. 239, § 3.]

§ 7857. [6665.] Plats in Duplicate—Filing and Recording.

All plats provided for in this act shall be in duplicate, and within thirty days after the adoption of any such plat by the board of state land commissioners, one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands, and one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the auditor of the county in which such land shall be situated and the same shall be entered of record, notwithstanding the said maps or plats may not strictly conform to the city ordinances pertaining to the platting of lands adjoining said incorporated city or town. [L. '03, p. 239, § 4.]

§ 7858. [6666.] Disposal—Preference Rights.

From and after the filing of such plats, as hereinbefore provided, the lots, blocks, and other parcels into which such streets, alleys, or other public places, or parts thereof so vacated shall be so platted may be disposed of as provided by law in the case of similar lands: Provided, that the owner or owners and other persons who have a vested interest in the lands abutting on any of said lots, blocks or other parcels shall have a preference right for the period of sixty days from the final date of the filing of such plats and of the appraising of such lots, blocks or other parcels to purchase such lot, block or other parcel from the state of Washington at the appraised value thereof. [L. '03, p. 239, § 5.]

When application is made for the purchase of timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials situated upon public lands of the state, except capitol building lands, the same inspection shall be had as upon an application for the appraisement and sale of lands. No timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials shall be sold for less than the appraised value thereof; and such timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials may be sold separate from the land when, in the judgment of the board, it is for the best interests of the state to sell the same, except when the estimated amount of timber shall exceed one million feet to the quarter section, in which case the timber shall be sold separate from the land: Provided, that whenever any public lands except capitol building lands shall lie within the limits of any watershed from or through which is derived the water supply of any city or town in this state and said city or town shall desire to purchase or condemn the same it may do so, and in case of purchase it shall have the right to buy said land with the timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials with the land and without a separate appraisement thereof. When such timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials are sold separate from the land, the full purchase price thereof shall be paid in cash: Provided, that in all cases where timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials are sold separate from the land the same shall revert to the state if not removed from the land within five years from the date of purchase thereof, except that in all cases when the purchaser is acting in good faith and endeavoring to remove such timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials, the commissioner of public lands may extend the time for removal thereof for any further period not exceeding five years upon payment to the state of a sum to be fixed by the commissioner of public lands not less than one dollar nor more than two dollars per acre per annum. And the commissioner of public lands shall certify and pay to the state treasurer all sums received for such extensions and the same shall be credited to the fund to which was credited the original purchase price of the materials so sold. In every appraisement under this act, the board of state land commissioners shall separately appraise all improvements placed upon any land of the state and found on such land at the time of appraisement of the land, and shall also appraise all damages and waste committed or suffered upon said land by the cutting or removal of timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials by the person or persons owning such improvements or their assignors and the damages so found shall be deducted from the appraised value of the improvements and the balance, after deducting such damages and waste, shall be the value of the improvements upon the land, and every such appraisement shall be recorded in the proceedings of the board of state land commissioners: Provided, that this section shall not be considered as affecting the right of the state to receive the full value of the land. If the purchaser of such land be not the owner of the improvements, he shall deposit with the officer making the sale, at the time of the sale, the appraised value of such improvements; and if it be found by the board that the owner of such improvements was not holding adversely to the state at the time of making the improvements, or that said improvements were placed upon the land in good faith by a lessee whose lease had not been canceled or subject to cancellation for any cause, or that such improvements were placed upon the land by mistake, then the board of state land commissioners shall direct the commissioner of public lands to pay and he shall pay to the owner of said improvements the sum so deposited. But if it be found by the board that such improvements were made by persons holding or claiming adversely to the state, or by persons without license or lease from the state, or by a lessee who had not complied with the terms of his lease, then said board shall direct the commissioners of public lands to pay said sum so deposited to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the fund into which the proceeds derived from the sale of the land should be paid. If it be found that such improvements were made by a lessee or other person with intent to defraud the state or the intending purchaser of the land from the state, the sum so deposited shall be forfeited to the state and credited as last above provided. For the purpose of determining the value and character of land, timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials or improvements, the commissioner of public lands or the board of state land commissioners may compel the attendance of witnesses by subpoena, at such place as the commissioner or the board may designate, and examine such witnesses under oath as to the value and character of such lands, materials or improvements and waste or damage thereto. When timber or other valuable materials have been sold separate from the land and have actually been removed therefrom, then such lands may be sold for a sum which, added to the price received for the timber or other valuable materials, will not be less than ten dollars per acre. All sales of timber upon state land shall be made subject to the right, power and authority of the board of state land commissioners to prescribe rules and regulations governing the manner of removal of the timber with a view to the protection of the nonmerchantable timber against destruction or injury by fire or from other causes; and any such rules or regulations shall be binding upon the purchaser of the timber and his successors in interest and shall be enforced by the commissioner of public lands. When the merchantable timber has been sold and actually removed from any land, the board of state land commissioners may classify the land and such portions thereof as may be found most suitable for reforestation may, by order of the board, be reserved from any future sale and when once so reserved shall not thereafter be subject to sale or other disposition. The commissioner of public lands shall certify to the state fire-warden and forester all such reserves so made and thereupon it shall be the duty of the state fire-warden and forester to protect such land and the remaining timber from fire and to reforest the same: Provided, further, that the board of state land commissioners may order the sale of the timber which has been damaged by fire on any lands of the state, except capitol building lands, without an application having been filed or deposit made as herein provided. Sale of Timber: See Remington's Heuston v. Callvert, 37 Wash. 124, 79 Digest, Pub. Lands, § 78; State ex rel. Pac. 791 § 7860. Sale of Damaged Timber in Clallam and Jefferson Counties.

Wherever the timber on any tract of state land situated in Clallam or Jefferson counties shall have been damaged by the storm which occurred on January 29, 1921, the commissioner of public lands is hereby authorized to sell the timber on said tract when such sale shall, in his judgment, be to the best interests of the state. [L. '21, p. 215, § 1.]

§ 7861. Purchase Price.

When application is made for the purchase of any of the timber so affected, the commissioner may order such inspection as will enable him to determine the minimum price per thousand feet, board measure, to be charged for such timber and shall thereafter fix such minimum price per thousand feet at which the said timber shall be offered and determine the date of sale of same: Provided, that payment for said timber shall be made according to the scale of the logs cut and removed, under such terms and conditions as the commissioner shall prescribe; and provided further, that a bond to guarantee the performance of any contract or agreement entered into with the state of Washington by the purchaser of said timber may be required at the option of the commissioner of public lands. [L. '21, p. 216, § 2.]

§ 7862. Notice of Sale.

When the commissioner of public lands shall have decided to sell any timber, as provided for in this act, he shall forthwith fix the date of sale and give notice thereof by advertisement published once a week for four weeks next before the time he shall name in said notice, in at least one newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the timber is situated, which notice shall specify the place, time and terms of sale. The commissioner of public lands is hereby authorized to expend such sum as, in his opinion, may be deemed advisable and necessary for additional advertising of said sale. [L. '21, p. 216, § 3.]

§ 7863. Sale—Public Auction.

The sale of said timber shall be by public auction to the highest bidder and shall be in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in said notice of sale. The county auditor of the county in which the timber is situated shall conduct said sale, under the direction of the commissioner of public lands and shall certify the returns of such sale to the commissioner upon forms prepared for that purpose. [L. '21, p. 216, § 4.]

§ 7864. Confirmation of Sale.

When ten (10) days shall have elapsed after the receipt of such report of sale, if it shall appear to the commissioner of public lands that the sale was fairly conducted, that all the proceedings were regular, and that the best interests of the state shall be subserved thereby, the commissioner shall confirm said sale and shall issue to the purchaser a contract for said timber upon such terms and conditions, conformable with the notice of sale, as he shall prescribe. [L. 21, p. 217, § 5.]

§ 7865. Rules.

The commissioner of public lands shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to the carrying out of the provisions of this act. [L. '21, p. 217, § 6.]

§ 7866. [6668.] Appraisal of Improvements.

It shall be the duty of the board of state land commissioners when appraising the value of improvements on state lands, to appraise such improvements at such sum as the improvements add to the value of the lands, for the purpose of selling the land in the manner provided by law. [L. '07, p. 212, § 1.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 119.

§ 7867. [6670-1.] Time for Removal of Timber.

In all cases where timber on state school and granted land has heretofore been sold separate from the land, the purchaser shall be allowed five years from the date of sale within which to remove said timber: Provided, that the board of state land commissioners may extend the time for the removal thereof for any period not exceeding ten years from the date of first renewal of said contract, upon application being made for such extension, and upon the payment of the sum or rent of one dollar and fifty cents per acre, per annum; the said rental so received to be paid into the various funds as now provided by law: Provided, however, this act shall not operate to grant any extension of time for a longer period than ten years from the first day of June, 1905, and shall only apply to sales made prior to 1905. [L. '11, p. 643, § 1.]

§ 7868. [6670-3.*] Five-year Extension—Conditions.

The owner or owners of any standing or fallen timber heretofore sold by the state of Washington, may, with the approval of the board of state land commissioners have the time in which to remove the same extended for a further period of time not to exceed five years from and after the date upon which it may now be removed upon paying annually in advance six cents ($.06) per thousand feet of timber as shown by the state cruise, but in no event to exceed the sum of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per acre: Provided, that such payment is made before the expiration of the term in which the same was to be removed or before the expiration of any extension heretofore or hereinafter granted: And provided further, that before any such extension is granted the applicant shall furnish to the board satisfactory proof that all state, county and other taxes due or payable upon the said timber have been fully paid. [L. '17, p. 328, § 1; L. '15, p. 426, § 1.]

§ 7869. [6671.] Certificate of Appraisement, Notice of.

Immediately upon the appraisement and inspection provided for in this act being made of any land in any county in the state, [and] the commissioner of the public lands shall prepare a certificate of such appraisement showing in detail the facts reported in such appraisement, and he shall file one copy of the same in his office and shall certify one copy and forward it to the auditor of the county in which said land is situated, and the said county auditor shall post it in a conspicuous place in his office, and the said commissioner of public lands shall notify the applicant of the appraisement and of the notice to the auditor, and that said board will allow the applicant twenty days in which to show wherein said appraisement is defective, excessive or unjust, which protest, if any be made and filed, shall be considered by said board, and notice of their action shall be sent to the applicant. [L. '95, p. 536, § 22; L. '97, p. 238, § 13; L. '03, p. 113, § 1.]

§ 7870. [6672.] Public Sale—Procedure.

When the board of state land commissioners shall have decided to sell any lot, block, tract or tracts of granted lands, or timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel or other valuable materials thereon, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to forthwith fix the date of sale and give notice thereof by advertisement published once a week for five weeks next before the time he shall name in said notice, in at least one newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the lands are situated, which notice shall specify the place, time and terms of sale, describing with particularity each parcel of land to be sold and stating the appraised value thereof, and by causing to be posted in a conspicuous place in the office of the auditor of the county wherein such lands are situated a copy of said notice. And the commissioner of public lands shall cause all such lands or materials thereon to be sold and arrange such date of sale so that it will fall on the first Tuesday of the month, except where such Tuesday would fall on a legal holiday, in which case no sales shall be made until the following month. The commissioner of public lands shall cause to be printed in pamphlet form a list of all school, granted or other public lands or materials thereon, or tide or shore lands of the first or second class, or detached tide lands, or harbor area leases or mineral lands required by law to be sold at public auction and the appraised value, where the law provides for appraisement, that are to be sold in the several counties of the state, said lists to be issued each month, at least four weeks prior to the date of sale of such lands or materials enumerated thereon, such lands and materials to be listed under the name of the county wherein located, in alphabetical order, giving the appraised values, character of same and such other information as may be of interest to prospective buyers. Said commissioner of public lands shall cause to be distributed to the auditor of each county in the state a sufficient number of such lists to supply the demands made upon them respectively, as reported by such auditors, not exceeding one hundred copies in any one county. And said county auditors shall keep the lists so furnished in a conspicuous place or receptacle on the counter of the public office of their respective departments, and when requested so to do shall mail copies of such lists to residents of their counties. The commissioner of public lands shall retain for free distribution in his office five hundred copies of said lists, as above set forth, such lists to be kept in a conspicuous place or receptacle on the counter of the general office of the commissioner of public lands; and when requested so to do, the commissioner shall mail copies of said lists each month as issued to any applicant therefor. Proof of publication shall be made by affidavit of the publisher or person in charge of the newspaper publishing the notice of sale and by certificate of the auditor showing the posting of the notice of sale as aforesaid and the receipt of the lists as aforesaid, which shall forthwith be sent to and filed with the commissioner of public lands. The board of state land commissioners is hereby authorized to expend any sum of money, not exceeding fifteen dollars in additional advertising of such sale as the said board shall determine to be for the best interests of the state. Such sale shall take place on the day advertised, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, in front of the courthouse, or of the building in which the superior court is held, in the counties in which there is no courthouse, and shall be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, on the terms prescribed by law and as specified in the notice hereinbefore provided; and no land shall be sold for less than its appraised value. Such sale shall be conducted under the direction of the board, or the commissioner of public lands; by the county auditor of the county in which the lands are situate; and such auditor shall at once deliver to the purchaser under his hand and seal, a memorandum of his purchase, containing a description of the land purchased, the price bid and the terms of sale, upon the delivery to such auditor, by the purchaser, either in cash or by certified check, or draft drawn upon some bank doing business in this state, or by postal order, of an amount equal to one-tenth of the price of the land by him purchased, payable to the order of the commissioner of public lands; and such auditor shall at once send to the commissioner of public lands such cash or certified check, draft or postal order and a copy of the memorandum delivered to the purchaser, together with such additional report of his doings and proceedings with reference to such sale as may be required by the commissioner of public lands or the board of state land commissioners. If any land so offered for sale be not sold, the same may again be advertised for sale, as provided in this act, whenever in the opinion of the board it shall be expedient so to do; and such land shall again be advertised for sale as provided in this act, whenever any person shall apply to said board in writing to have such land sold and shall agree to pay, at least the appraised price thereof and shall deposit with the commissioner of public lands at the time of making such application, a sufficient sum of money to pay the cost of advertising for such sale, as provided in making original application. [L. '13, p. 93, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 763, § 4. Cf. L. '95, p. 538, § 24, and p. 539, § 28; L. '97, p. 238, § 14; L. '07, p. 313, § 1.]

§ 7871. [6673.] Leases—Same—Procedure.

All leases of state tide lands, and the sale of all tide and shore lands of whatever class, except when sold to persons having the preference right of purchase, and timber and materials of state, school, and granted lands, and harbor areas or mineral lands where, under existing laws, the same can be sold, shall be made in the same manner, under the same notice, and at the same time and place, as provided in the preceding section. [L. '07, p. 315, § 2.]

Lease of state land as subject to collateral attack. Ann. Cas. 1912B, 91.

§ 7872. [6674.] Confirmation of Sale.

The members of the said board of appraisers, or the county auditor conducting the sale, shall, upon making sale of any school, or stone, mineral or timber thereon, report such sale to the said board of appraisers, as provided in this act, together with other information touching the same, as the said board shall have prescribed, and within ten days from the date of the reception of such report by the commissioner of public lands, if no affidavit showing that the interests of the state in such sale were injuriously affected by fraud or collusion shall have been filed with said board, and it shall appear from such report that the sale was fairly conducted, and that the purchaser was the highest bidder at such sale, and that his bid was not less than the appraised value of the property sold, and if the said board of state land commissioners shall be satisfied that the land sold would not, upon being readvertised and sold, sell for at least ten per cent more than the price at which it shall have been sold, and that the payment required by law to be made at the time of making the sale has been made, and the best interests of the state may be thereby subserved, the secretary of the board of state land commissioners, by order of said board shall enter upon his records a confirmation of said sale and thereupon the commissioner of public lands shall issue to the purchaser a contract of sale, as in this act provided. [L. '07, p. 755, § 7. Cf. L. '95, p. 541, § 29; L. '97, p. 240, § 15; L. '03, p. 114, § 2.]

§ 7873. [6675.*] Terms of Sale—Interest—Improvements—Patents—Minerals Excepted—Damages to Owner—Payment.

All state lands shall be sold on the following terms: One-tenth to be paid on the date of sale and one-tenth to be paid one year from the date of issuance of the contract of sale and one-tenth annually thereafter until the full purchase price has been paid: Provided, that any purchaser may make full payment at any time. All deferred payments shall draw interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum. The first installment of interest shall become due and payable one year after the date of the contract of sale and thereafter all interest shall become due and payable annually on said date. All remittances for payment of either principal or interest must be forwarded to the commissioner of public lands: Provided, further, that the board of state land commissioners may, when they deem it for the best interests of the state, sell any of the granted lands of the state in tracts of not more than eighty acres upon the following terms and conditions: One-twentieth of the purchase price to be paid on the date of sale and one-twentieth on the eleventh year thereafter, and one-tenth annually thereafter until the full purchase price has been paid: Provided, further, that before any such lands are offered for sale the board of state land commissioners shall prescribe the extent and character of the improvements that shall be placed upon said lands annually during the first ten years of said contract and said contract shall be subject to forfeiture if the holder thereof shall fail each year to make such improvements as shall be prescribed by said board of state land commissioners before said lands are offered for sale, and the making of such improvements by such contract holder shall, in addition to the payments provided for in said contract, be considered as a part consideration therefor. Every such purchaser shall render to said board between the tenth day of December and the thirty-first day of December of said years a full and complete statement of the character and cost of the improvement placed upon said land during such year. Any such purchaser shall have the right to improve said lands during any one year to any greater extent than that prescribed by the board of state land commissioners, if he so desires, and he may pay the full purchase price upon said lands at any time prior to the dates of payment as above provided for, if the board of state land commissioners are satisfied that the improvements which he has placed upon said lands are such as to insure the bona fide cultivation and use thereof for agricultural, horticultural and dairying purposes. All deferred payments upon said contract shall draw interest at the rate of four per cent (4%) per annum for the first ten years after the date of sale and thereafter at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum until the full purchase price has been paid. The object and purpose of this proviso is to encourage the cultivation and improvement of state lands and the use of such lands for agricultural, horticultural or dairying purposes and it shall be construed to be additional to and concurrent with existing laws so far as necessary to the carrying out of such object and purpose. When the entire purchase price of any land shall have been fully paid, such fact shall be certified by the commissioner of public lands to the governor, whereupon he shall cause a patent to be issued to the purchaser. Patents shall be signed by the governor and attested by the secretary of state, with the seal of the state attached thereto, and shall be recorded in the office of the commissioner of public lands, and no fee shall be required for any deed or patent of land issued by the governor, other than the fee provided for in this chapter: Provided, further, that each and every contract for the sale of any state lands, or deeds or patents to such state lands except deeds or patents issued pursuant to contracts heretofore made shall contain the following saving clause: "The party of the first part hereby expressly saves, excepts and reserves out of the grant hereby made, unto itself, its successors, and assigns forever, all oils, gases, coal, ores, minerals and fossils of every name, kind or description, and which may be in or upon said lands above described, or any part thereof, and the right to explore the same for such oil, gases, coal, ores, minerals, and fossils; and it also hereby expressly saves and reserves out of the grant hereby made, unto itself, its successors and assigns forever, the right to enter by itself, its agents, attorneys and servants upon said lands or any part or parts thereof, at any and all times, for the purpose of opening, developing and working mines thereon, and taking out and removing therefrom all such oils, gases, coal, ores, minerals and fossils, and to that end it further expressly reserves out of the grant hereby made, unto itself, its successors and assigns forever, the right by its or their agents, servants and attorneys at any and all times to erect, construct, maintain and use all such buildings, machinery, roads and railroads, sink such shafts, remove such soil, and to remain on said lands or any part thereof for the business of mining and to occupy as much of said lands as may be necessary or convenient for the successful prosecution of such mining business hereby expressly reserving to itself, its successors and assigns, as aforesaid, generally, all rights and powers in, to, and over said land, whether herein expressed or not, reasonably necessary or convenient to render beneficial and efficient the complete enjoyment of the property and rights hereby expressly reserved": Provided, further, that no right shall be exercised under this reservation by the state, its successors or assigns, until provision has been made by the state, its successors or assigns to pay to the owner of the land upon which the rights herein reserved to the state, its successors or assigns are sought to be exercised, full payment for all damages sustained by said owner, by reason of entering upon said land: And provided further, that if said owner from any cause whatsoever refuses or neglects to settle said damages, then the state, its successors or assigns, or any applicant for a lease from said state, shall have the right to institute such legal proceedings in the superior court of the county wherein the land is situate, as shall be necessary to determine the damages which said owner of said land may suffer, and upon payment or tender of the amount so ascertained to the owner by said applicant, he shall be entitled to a lease pursuant to the laws of this state and shall have a preferred right to said lease as of the date of the filing of his application with the commissioner of public lands for said lease. An applicant of an oil lease of state lands must show that provision has been made to pay to a contracting purchaser from the state the damages that he will sustain by reason of the entry, as such person is the "owner" within the meaning of the act: State ex rel. Hall v. Savidge, 93 Wash. 676, 161 Pac. 471.

Property held under a contract of purchase belonging to the state, county or municipality, etc., is subject to taxes, although the purchaser of state lands holds the same under an executory contract until certain conditions are complied with, as all equitable rights are taxable: Washington Iron Works v. King County, 20 Wash. 150, 54 Pac. 1004.

An action to cancel a deed of state lands cannot be maintained by a taxpayer or by a person who has no interest in the property, as the state is a necessary party plaintiff where the land reverts to the state: Powers v. Webster, 47 Wash. 99, 91 Pac. 569.

The purchaser of land under the provisions of this act, except in cases where this act prescribes cash payment, shall enter into and sign a contract with the state, to be signed by the commissioner of public lands on behalf of the state, and in a form to be prescribed by the attorney general, in which he shall covenant that he will make the payment of principal and interest when due: Provided, all interests shall be computed from date contract is issued, and that he will pay all taxes and assessments that may be levied or assessed on such land, and that on a failure to make the payments prescribed in this act when due, and for six months thereafter, that he will, on demand of said board or other authorized officer of the state, surrender the said premises, and upon such failure for six months all rights of the purchaser under the said contract may, at the election of said board of state land commissioners, acting for the state, and without notice to said purchaser, be declared to be forfeited, and when so declared forfeited the state shall be released from all obligation to convey the land. When the payments provided for in this chapter for land, stone, minerals or timber shall have been made in full, the commissioner of public lands shall procure the proper deed of conveyance to be made to the purchaser, but in no case shall final deed of conveyance be issued until after all the purchaser's price and accrued interest has been paid. The contract provided for by this section shall be executed in duplicate, and one copy shall be retained by the purchaser and the other shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands. All contracts provided for in this section shall be signed by the purchaser and also by the commissioner of public lands on the part of the state, with the seal of the state attached thereto. The commissioner of public lands may, as he deems advisable, extend the time for payment of principal and interest on the contract heretofore issued and contracts to be issued under this act. [Cf. L. '95, p. 542, § 30; L. '97, p. 241, § 17.]

The equitable rights under a contract of purchase are taxable: Washington Iron Works Co. v. King County, 20 Wash. 150, 54 Pac. 1004. Distinguished in State v. Frost, 25 Wash. 134, 64 Pac. 902.

Improvements on tide lands held under contract cannot be assessed as personal property: Grays Harbor Co. v. Chehalis County, 23 Wash. 369, 63 Pac. 233.

The state may commence an action to cancel a contract for the sale of tide lands without first tendering repayment of an installment paid by the purchaser on the contract: State v. Washington Dredging etc. Co., 43 Wash. 508, 86 Pac. 936.

It is not necessary that the record show a formal declaration by the board of state land commissioners that a contract for the purchase of oyster lands is canceled for default in payment, where, notice having been given, the contract is stamped "canceled" after default for a year and nine months, and thereafter, upon contest with a subsequent applicant, the board awards a contract and deed to such subsequent applicant, since the action of the board upon the contest is a sufficient declaration of cancellation: Frazier v. Wilson, 35 Wash. 625, 77 Pac. 1064.

§ 7875. [6677.] Notice of Delinquency and Extension of Time.

The commissioner of public lands shall notify the purchaser of the land in each instance when payment on his contract is overdue, and that he is liable to forfeiture if payment is not made within six months from the time the same became due, unless the time be extended by the commissioner on a satisfactory showing as above provided. § 7876. [6678.] Contracts Subject to Forfeiture, When.

All contracts issued by the state of Washington to purchasers of school or other lands which are found to be delinquent in payment of interest two years from time of first payment, and which have not been extended by law, shall be declared forfeited by the commissioner of public lands unless such delinquent interest shall be paid to the state in accordance with notice hereinafter provided; that the commissioner of public lands shall notify the holder of such contract in each instance where payment of interest is overdue, and that unless payment is made within six months from the date of said notice, his contract will be canceled and the land shall revert to the state. § 7877. [6678-1.] Sale of Grain on State Lands.

Whenever the state of Washington becomes the owner of any growing crop, or grain grown on any lands of the state, by reason of the forfeiture, cancellation or termination of any contract or lease of said lands, or from any other cause, the commissioner of public lands is authorized to arrange for the harvesting, sale or other disposition of the grain or crop in such manner as he deems for the best interests of the state: Provided, that the sale or disposition of any such grain or crop shall first be authorized by the board of state land commissioners. [L. '15, p. 267, § 1.]

§ 7878. [6678-2.] Disposition of Proceeds.

The proceeds from the sale of any grain or crop grown on state lands, shall be paid by the commissioner of public lands into the state treasury and credited to the same fund as the rental of said lands would be credited. [L. '15, p. 268, § 2.]

§ 7879. [6680.] Subdivisions of Tracts, Procedure to Obtain—Mistake or Fraud in Sale, Effect of.

Whenever the holder of any contract of purchase or [of] any state or school land shall surrender the same to the commissioner of public lands with the request to have the same divided into two or more tracts, it shall be lawful for the commissioner to issue the same provided the proposed subdivision shall not be less than the regular government or public subdivisions, and provided that no new contract or lease shall issue while there is due and unpaid any interest, rental or taxes on the land held under said contract or lease, nor in any case where the commissioner shall be of the opinion that the state security would be impaired or endangered by the proposed division; and for all new contracts or leases a fee of two dollars for each new contract or lease so issued shall be paid by the applicant, and said fee shall be paid into the state treasury with the other fees of the office. Any sale or lease of state lands made by mistake, or not in accordance with law, or obtained by fraud or misrepresentation shall be void, and the contract of purchase or lease issued thereon shall be of no effect, but the holder of such contract or lease shall be required to surrender the same to the commissioner of public lands, who shall, except in the case of fraud on the part of the purchaser, cause the money to be refunded to the holder thereof, provided that the same has not been [paid] into the state treasury. CHAPTER VIII.LEASING OF SCHOOL AND GRANTED LANDS.*§ 7880. [6681.] Term of Lease—Deposit.

All school and granted lands of the state of Washington may be leased for a term of five years or less to the highest bidder at public auCTION in the following manner: Any person or persons desiring to lease any of such lands shall make application in writing to the commissioner of public lands of this state; each application shall be accompanied with a deposit of ten dollars, such deposit to be in the form of a draft on some bank, a postoffice or express money order, or may be paid in cash. In case the lands so applied for shall be leased at the time they are offered for lease, then such deposit shall be returned to such applicant by the commissioner of public lands; but if the land shall not be leased when so publicly offered for lease, then such deposit shall be declared forfeited to the state, and the commissioner of public lands shall pay the said deposit over to the state treasurer, who shall place the same to the credit of the general fund of the state. [L. '15, p. 411, § 4. Cf. L. '03, p. 115, § 4; L. '95, p. 544, § 32; L. '97, p. 242, § 19.]

The commissioner of public lands acts upon applications to lease lands at his own discretion, and is under no obligation to offer lands for lease: State ex rel. Pelton v. Ross, 39 Wash. 399, 81 Pac. 865.

Mandamus will lie to compel the commissioner of public lands to reinstate a lease and accept rent; since the right of appeal is given only from decisions of the state board of land commissioners and not from orders of the commissioner: State ex rel. Smith v. Ross, 42 Wash. 439, 85 Pac. 29.

Subject to the congressional restriction that no more than one section of grazing land be leased to one person, the commissioner of public lands may lease granted lands to the highest bidder, under this section, or exercise his discretion in rejecting all bids under section 7889, infra: State ex rel. McKee v. Savidge, 108 Wash. 292, 183 Pac. 111.

§ 7881. [6682.] Lists to County Auditors.

When, in the judgment of the commissioner of public lands, a sufficient number of applications have been received from any one county, the said commissioner shall then certify a list of such lands so applied for, and any other lands he may deem advisable to offer for lease at the same time, to the auditor of the county in which such lands are situated, fixing the date when such lands shall be offered for lease and the character of the land, whether agricultural, pastoral or scab: Provided, the agricultural lands shall not be leased for less than ten cents per acre. [L. '97, p. 242, § 20.]

§ 7882. [6683.] Posting Lists.

Upon receipt of such list so certified, the county auditor shall proceed to post said list for a period of thirty days prior to the date of leasing, in some conspicuous place in his office and elsewhere in the county, as the commissioner may direct. [Cf. L. '95, p. 545, § 37; L. '97, p. 243, § 21.]

§ 7883. [6684.] Yearly Rental in Advance.

The person or persons leasing any of such lands, shall pay over to the county auditor the first year's rent, in accordance with his bid, which payment shall be in the form of a certified check or certificate of deposit on some bank in this state, or may be paid in cash; all rent thereafter shall be paid annually in advance to the commissioner of public lands. [L. '97, p. 243, § 22.]

§ 7884. [6684-1.] Limit on Value of Improvements on Leased Lands.

The commissioner of public lands, at the time of fixing the rental value of any lands of the state, which are to be offered for lease, shall fix the limit of the value of improvements that may be placed upon said lands by any lessee of the state, and upon the expiration of any such lease the board of state land commissioners shall not appraise said improvements in an amount exceeding the limit so fixed by the commissioner of public lands: Provided, that at any time during the life of said lease the commissioner may extend the limit of the value of improvements which may be placed on the lands covered by said lease, if he deems it advisable for the best interests of the state. Such extension shall be made by written order, which shall be filed with the lease in the office of the commissioner, and unless so made and filed shall not be effective. [L. '15, p. 420, § 18.]

§ 7885. [6684-2.] Holding Over After Expiration of Lease—Removal of Improvements.

No lessee of state lands, after the expiration of his said lease, shall without the written consent of the commissioner of public lands and then only upon such terms and conditions as such written consent shall prescribe, remain in possession of said lands or the improvements thereon after the termination or expiration of said lease. All improvements placed upon state lands under lease, during the term of said lease, which remain upon said lands sixty days from the termination or expiration of said lease, shall become the property of the state of Washington and be considered, except as herein provided, a part of the land upon which they are located: Provided, however, that if said lands are sold within a period of three years from the termination or expiration of said lease, then the purchaser at such sale shall pay to the owner of said improvements the appraised value thereof as determined by the board of state land commissioners: Provided, further, that at any time within sixty (60) days after the termination or expiration of any such lease the owner of said improvements shall be entitled to remove such of said improvements as can be removed without injury to said lands: Provided, further, that any improvements placed upon any state school or granted lands without written authority or after the expiration of a written lease shall become the property of the state of Washington and be considered a part of the land. [L. '15, p. 420, § 19.]

§ 7886. [6685.] Returns of County Auditors.

When any of such lands shall have been so leased by the county auditor, the said auditor shall at once proceed to certify a list of such lands to the commissioner of public lands, giving the name of the lessee, the postoffice address, term of lease, lease price per annum, amount paid on lease, and any other information required by the commissioner of public lands; the auditor shall also forward to the commissioner one certified check, draft or postal order, payable to the order of the commissioner of public lands, for all moneys so paid to him on leases at the time of their sale. The commissioner shall issue two receipts, one to the auditor for the total amount of money so received, and a receipt to each lessee, which shall be in duplicate, the original receipt to be sent to the lessee and the duplicate thereof kept in the office of the commissioner. The commissioner shall pay the money over to the state treasurer and take his receipt therefor: Provided, that lands held under lease shall not be offered for sale, or sold, during the life of the lease, except upon application of the lessee. § 7887. [6686.] Leases Executed in Duplicate.

Upon receipt of such certified list and moneys paid from the county auditor, the commissioner of public lands shall proceed to issue a lease to the lessee, upon a form to be prescribed by the attorney general. All leases shall be in duplicate, both to be signed by the lessee and by the commissioner of public lands on behalf of the state, with the seal of the commissioner of public lands attached thereto; the original lease to be forwarded to the lessee and the duplicate to be kept in the office of the commissioner of public lands. [L. '97, p. 243, § 24.]

§ 7888. [6687.] Notice of Delinquency and Forfeiture.

The commissioner of public lands shall keep a full and complete record of all leases so issued and payments made thereon, and not more than forty nor less than thirty days before the time such rental becomes due the commissioner of public lands shall cause to be mailed to each lessee whose rental will become due and payable during said period of forty days a notice stating the date upon which the rental falls due and the amount thereof; and if such rental be not paid on or before the date the same becomes due, according to the terms of the lease, the commissioner of public lands shall declare a forfeiture, cancel the lease and eject the lessee from the land: Provided, that the commissioner of public lands may extend the time for payment of annual rental not to exceed one year when, in his judgment, the interests of the state will not be prejudiced thereby. § 7889. [6688.] Bids, Rejection of.

The commissioner of public lands or the auditor may reject any and all bids when the interests of the state shall justify it: Provided, that if the commissioner of public lands or the auditor shall reject any such bid he shall forthwith return to the lessee any moneys paid, upon the return of any and all receipts issued to the lessee. [L. '97, p. 244, § 26.]

§ 7890. [6689.] Improver's Preference Right to Lease.

The owner of improvements placed on lands held under contracts from the state, where such contracts are forfeited to the state, shall have a preference right to lease any of such lands for a period of ninety days from the cancellation of such contracts by the state in the following manner: The owner of such improvements shall make application in writing, certifying under oath as to the character and value of such improvements, for the lease of such lands, setting forth the amount bid for the lease of same, which bid shall be considered by said commissioner, and if deemed sufficient and to the best interest of the state to accept said bid, the said commissioner shall proceed to issue a lease to such bidder as provided in section 7886, upon receipt of the first year's rent in accordance with such bid: Provided, that if such lands are not leased as above provided in this section the same may be leased or sold as provided for the lease or sale of other school and granted lands. [L. '97, p. 245, § 29.]

§ 7891. [6690.] Lessee's Right to Re-lease—Deposit—Appraisal.

If, at the expiration of any lease, or any renewal thereof, the lessee desires to re-lease the lands covered thereby, he may make application to the commissioner of public lands for a re-lease. Such application shall be made within thirty days after the expiration of the lease and shall be in writing and under oath, setting forth the character and value of all improvements existing on the land, the name and postoffice address of the owner thereof, the purpose for which he desires to re-lease the land, the amount considered by such lessee as the reasonable annual rental value thereof and such other information as the commissioner of public lands may require, and shall be accompanied with a deposit of ten dollars, which deposit, if the land be not leased, through the failure or refusal of the applicant to accept a lease at the rate fixed by the commissioner of public lands, shall be forfeited to the state and by the commissioner paid to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund of the state. The commissioner of public lands may, upon the filing of such application, cause the lands to be inspected by a state land inspector; and if he deems it for the best interests of the state to re-lease said lands, he shall fix the rental value thereof and, upon receipt of the first year's rental, together with the fees required by law, the commissioner of public lands shall issue to the applicant a renewal lease for any period not exceeding five years. The commissioner of public lands shall notify the applicant by mail, of the rental value fixed, and if, within thirty days after the date of such notice, the applicant fails or refuses to pay to the commissioner of public lands the first year's rental together with the statutory fee for issuing a lease, the commissioner of public lands may cause the improvements existing upon the land to be appraised, in the same manner as in the case of the sale of land, offer the land for lease at public auction to the highest bidder, as provided for original leases, and if the successful bidder be not the owner of the improvements, he shall deposit with the officer making the sale the appraised value of the improvements. The amount so deposited as the appraised value of the improvements, together with the first year's rental and the fees required by law, shall be transmitted to the commissioner of public lands and, upon confirmation of the lease by the commissioner of public lands, the amount so deposited in payment for the improvements shall be disposed of by the commissioner of public lands in the same manner as in the case of the sale of the land: Provided, that no bid shall be received for less than the minimum price fixed by the commissioner of public lands. [L. '15, p. 413, § 7. Cf. L. '97, p. 245, § 30; L. '99, p. 77, § 1; L. '09, p. 766, § 6.]

§ 7892. [6691.] Water Rights—Removal of Improvements.

At any time during the existence of a lease the lessee may, with the consent of the board of state land commissioners, first obtained, by written application, showing the cost and benefits to be derived thereby, purchase or acquire a water right in order to irrigate the land leased by him, and if such water right shall become a valuable and permanent improvement, then, in case of the sale or lease of such lands to other parties, the old lessee shall be entitled to receive the value thereof as in case of other improvements which he may place upon said land. Improvements made upon school, granted and other lands by lessees from the state in cases in which the lessee yields his lease to the state prior to any application to purchase the land so leased, such as are capable of removal without damage to the land, may be removed by the original lessee, or at his option may remain subject to purchase, by any purchaser who shall apply to purchase the land within a period of three years from the expiration of said lease. This section applies to lands which § 7893. [6692.] Rights of Assignee.

Each assignee of a bona fide purchaser or lessee of any of the state school and granted lands is subject to and governed by the provisions of the law applicable to the purchaser or the lessee of whom he is the assignee, and he shall have the same rights in all respects as the original purchaser or lessee of the same class of lands: Provided, the assignment is approved and entered of record by the commissioner of public lands. No lessee or assignee of any lease of state lands leased as scab or pasture lands shall be permitted to use the same for any other purpose than that expressed in the lease: Provided, said lessee or his assigns may be permitted to clear, plow and cultivate all or any part thereof upon surrendering the said lease and requesting the commissioner of public lands to issue an agricultural lease in lieu thereof; upon the payment of the fixed rental under the appraisalment of said land the commissioner shall issue a new lease for the unexpired term thereof. [L. '03, p. 116, § 8.]

§ 7894. [6693.] Old Appraisements Void.

All appraisements of school and granted lands heretofore made under existing laws, where sales have not yet been made, are hereby annulled, and all such lands shall be appraised and sold or leased as herein provided. [L. '95, p. 548, § 47; L. '97, p. 247, § 36.]

§ 7895. [6694.] Funds, How Kept.

All funds arising from the sale of lands granted to the state of Washington, for any purpose, shall be held intact for the purpose for which they were granted. Lands, when selected and assigned to said grant, shall not be transferred to any other grant, nor shall the moneys derived from said lands be applied to any other purpose than for that of the grant to which they have been assigned. [L. '95, p. 548, § 48; L. '97, p. 247, § 37.]

CHAPTER IX.CAPITOL LAND GRANT.*§ 7896. [6695.] Public Building Fund.

All funds arising from the sale of lands granted to the state of Washington for the purpose of erecting public buildings at the state capital shall be held intact for the purpose for which they were granted. Lands when selected and assigned to said grant shall not be transferred to any other grant, nor shall the moneys derived from said lands be applied to any other purpose than for the erection of buildings at the state capital. [L. '93, p. 186, § 1.]

§ 7897. [6696.] Sales—Records—Filing.

. . . . Provided, that all records of sales made by the commission shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands, and all other records of said commission shall be filed with the state auditor. [L. '09, p. 124, § 1.]

"Commission" refers to state capitol commission, abolished, by § 10893.

See infra, § 10766, duties devolve upon State Capitol Committee.

Former laws cited in 8 Wash. 415; 13 Wash. 314; 24 Wash. 418, 419.

§ 7898. [6697.] Capitol Building Lands.

All lands granted to the state by the federal government for the purpose of erecting public buildings at the state capitol shall be known and designated as "Capitol building lands." None of such lands, nor the timber or other materials thereon, shall hereafter be sold without the consent of the state capitol commission and only in the manner as herein provided. [L. '09, p. 125, § 2.]

§ 7899. [6698.] Appraisement and Sale—Procedure.

The state capitol commission shall cause said lands to be appraised and prepare an abstract or record of all the capitol building lands with such maps and other data as may be deemed necessary to properly show in detail and by legal subdivision the location thereof, and of the timber and other materials thereon, and the character and value thereof, and such record shall be open to inspection to anyone desirous of bidding on any such lands or the materials thereon. The commission shall seek proposals by advertising in the public press or otherwise, within or without the state, for the sale of such lands in tracts not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres in extent, and readvertise and reseek other new proposals or bids as often as said commission shall deem necessary, and may sell any such lands at public auction, with a view to obtaining the full market value of said lands, announcing the times, terms and particulars of sale as is now provided for sale of other state lands: Provided, however, the commission may fix times at which offers shall be received on any or all capitol lands, or materials thereon, and the commission may reject or accept any or all such bids but no bids shall be accepted from any bidder for any tract of land or materials on any tract which is not the highest bid offered, except where any bidder has bid on more than one tract his total bids may be taken into consideration in determining the best bid: Provided further, that the commission may sell the timber or other materials separate from the land, and said commission shall fix the time in which such timber, or other materials shall be removed from the lands, and may provide that the purchaser of timber or other materials separate from the land shall not be limited as to the time of removal thereof upon payment to the state for the use of such lands upon which such timber or other materials are situated of an annual rental to be fixed by the commission at or before the time of sale: Provided further, that the commission may lease any of the capitol building lands for agricultural purposes for a period of not exceeding five years and under such terms and conditions as the commission may deem advisable, but all improvements made on any such lands by a lessee thereof shall revert to the state at the expiration of the lease. [L. '11, p. 325, § 9. Cf. L. '09, p. 125, § 3.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7900. [6699.] Regulation of Sales—Payments.

The commission shall make necessary rules under which proposals or bids for the purchase of land, timber or other materials shall be received, and shall fix the terms of the sale thereof: Provided, that at least one-fifth of the purchase price of each tract of land sold shall be paid at the time of sale, and the balance shall be distributed in such number of equal annual payments, not exceeding ten, as the purchaser may elect, with six per cent interest, payable annually, on the deferred payments; but the purchaser may at any time pay the entire amount then remaining unpaid, with interest to the date of such payment: And provided further, that the purchase price of all timber or other materials when sold separate from the land shall be paid in cash at the time of sale: And provided further, that in case of the sale, on deferred payments, of any tract of land, where the timber thereon constitutes its principal source of value, all unpaid installments of the purchase price shall be paid before any timber is removed therefrom. [L. '09, p. 126, § 4.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7901. [6700.] Sale at State Capital—Proceeds—Plans for Capitol Building.

All sales shall take place at the state capitol and the proceeds of such sale of lands, or the timber or other materials shall be paid into the capitol building fund to be used as in this act provided. All contracts for the construction of capitol buildings shall be let after notice for proposals or bids have been advertised for at least four (4) consecutive weeks in at least three newspapers of general circulation throughout the state. [L. '11, p. 326, § 10. Cf. L. '09, p. 126, § 5.]

§ 7902. [6701.] Conveyances, Manner of.

Upon performance by the purchaser of all such conditions as shall have been fixed by the commission for the sale of any such lands or the timber or other material thereon, conveyances shall be made therefor by deed executed by the governor[,] attested by the secretary of state, to the extent of the interest so sold to such purchaser. [L. '11, p. 326, § 11. Cf. L. '09, p. 127, § 6.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7903. [6702.] Commission—Assistants—Expenses.

The commission may employ such cruisers, draftsmen, engineers, architects or other assistants as may be necessary for the best interests of the state in carrying out the provisions of this act, and all expenses incurred by the commission, and all claims against the capitol building fund shall be audited by the commission and presented in vouchers to the state auditor, who shall draw a warrant therefor against the capitol building fund as herein provided or out of any appropriation made for such purpose. [L. '11, p. 326, § 12. Cf. L. '09, p. 127, § 7.]

See notes to § 7897.

"Act" refers to §§ 7897—7904.

§ 7904. [6703.] Proceeds, to Capitol Building Fund.

All sums of money received from sales made by the commission shall be paid into the capitol building fund in the state treasury, and are hereby appropriated for the purposes of this act. [L. '09, p. 127, § 8.]

See notes to § 7897.

"Act" refers to §§ 7897—7904.

§ 7905. [6704.] Acquisition of Land for Capitol Site.

The state capitol commission shall have power in the name of the state to acquire by gift, donation, purchase, or condemnation for capitol building purposes any or all that property situate and lying north and west of the "old capitol site," west of Water Street and extending to the Northern Pacific right of way on the north and the bay or tide water on the west, the same being blocks one (1), two (2), three (3) and four (4) of Capitol addition to Olympia. All costs in so acquiring such property shall be paid out of the capitol building fund and said commission is authorized to pay the same as a part of the expenses connected with the construction of the capitol building, as provided in this chapter. [L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 58, § 1.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7906. [6704-1.] Construction of Capitol Buildings.

It is hereby declared to be the purpose and intention of this act:

(A) To provide for the paying off, canceling or refunding, by the issue of bonds therefor, the present outstanding warrant indebtedness against the capitol building fund and the interest due and unpaid thereon at the time of the payment, cancellation or refundment thereof;

(B) To acquire and in the manner authorized, the property described in section 1 of chapter 20, Laws 1909, special session, approved August 23, 1909, and to use such lands in conjunction with the lands belonging to the state and known as the "Sylvester Site" or "Old Capitol Site" for the erection and building thereon of a group or system of buildings for capitol purposes, and for the beautifying, parking and laying out grounds about such capitol buildings, all of which grounds or land shall hereafter be known as "Capitol Place";

(C) To build on such "Capitol Place" a series or group of buildings for state official purposes. The main or principal building to be built on the foundation heretofore erected as the foundation for a capitol building, and such main building, when built, to contain the principal executive offices of the state and the rooms and halls for the use of the legislature, which building shall be known, when completed, as the "Capitol," the other buildings to be grouped around and adjacent to said "Capitol" and to be built from time to time as needed;

(D) For the purpose of providing adequate quarters for the supreme court and its officers, and offices for the attorney general, and the state law library, thereby relieving the present congested condition of office quarters in the present building now used for capitol purposes, as soon as plans can be provided therefor there shall be erected as one of the capitol buildings on said "Capitol Place" a building to be known as the "Temple of Justice," for the purpose of housing the departments aforesaid, the approximate cost of said building to be three hundred thousand dollars;

(E) That the capitol commission shall without delay cause complete topographic and profile maps to be made of the lands composing "Capitol Place," and shall furnish the same at a price to be fixed by the commission to architects seeking to offer plans for "Capitol Place," and said commission shall fix a time not later than the first day of August, 1911, for receiving ground plans for a series or group of buildings on said "Capitol Place," showing the main building or "Capitol," a court building or "Temple of Justice" and at least two other buildings for general offices, and accompanying said plans shall be submitted complete plans and specifications for the construction of said "Temple of Justice" building, and with such further details as to the grounds or buildings, or both, as the capitol commission may call for. The commission may reject any and all plans and may call for new plans from time to time, or may select or adopt all or part of any plan or plans submitted and may enter into the usual contract or agreement with any architect or architects for compensation for plans adopted, or may enter into any contract or agreement for recommendation to the legislature for compensation for any plan or plans adopted in whole or in part, and do any and all things whatsoever to carry out the provisions, purposes, and intent of this act to the end that, as speedily as consistent with economy, suitable, adequate, and commodious buildings and grounds may be provided for official purposes, and that to this purpose, from time to time, new buildings, or additions to buildings theretofore constructed, except additions to the main building, may be constructed, all in accordance with a general plan, and so as not to interfere with the symmetry, grandeur, or architectural beauty of the whole system or group;

(F) That all buildings to be built as herein provided shall be of absolute fireproof construction;

(G) That the appropriation or appropriations hereinafter made, or provided for in any subsequent legislation, shall not prohibit the capitol commission from proceeding, should sufficient funds be received from the sales of capitol building lands or materials thereon (but shall be deemed an authorization), to construct the other buildings or to acquire or improve the grounds used for capitol purposes as herein provided, or to further carry out the purposes of this act. [L. '11, p. 319, § 1.]

Cited in 91 Wash. 13.

§ 7907. [6704-2.] Bonds to be Negotiated.

As defined to be the purpose in section 7906 the said capitol commission may proceed at once to issue negotiable annual interest bearing bonds in an amount not exceeding four million dollars against the capitol building fund and to sell the same or exchange the same for the paying off, refunding and canceling of the present outstanding warrants against the said capitol building fund, including the interest due and unpaid thereon at the time of such payment, cancellation or refunding thereof and for repaying to the general fund of the state the advancements made therefrom to the capitol building fund under this or any other act. Such bonds shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed five per cent per annum, and shall be issued in accordance with the provisions hereinafter defined. The proceeds of the bonds herein authorized to be issued shall be used: 1st, in the payment of all outstanding warrants and interests thereon against the capitol building fund; 2d, in repaying to the general fund the advancements made therefrom to the capitol building fund; 3d, for the carrying out of the other purposes mentioned in section 7906. The capitol commission may issue and sell all or any part of said bonds at any one time or from time to time as in their discretion seems best, or may exchange any of said bonds in payment in all or in part for any work done under the provisions of this act. The capitol commission may in its discretion allow a brokerage commission of not to exceed one-eighth of one per cent on the bonds issued, said commission to be paid from the proceeds of the sale of such bonds. The state of Washington hereby guarantees the payment of the principal and the interest on all bonds issued under the provisions of this act. [L. '11, p. 321, § 2; L. '13, p. 139, § 1.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7908. [6704-3.] Construction of Temple of Justice.

The state capitol commission, as soon as it shall have adopted general plans for the construction of buildings on said "Capitol Place" and shall have adopted plans and specifications for the said "Temple of Justice," shall proceed under such terms and conditions as the commission may provide, to call for bids and make contracts for the construction and completion of said "Temple of Justice." For the purpose of the construction of said "Temple of Justice" and for acquiring the lands authorized to be acquired by chapter 20, laws 1909, special session, or so much of said lands as the commission may deem expedient at the time to so acquire, the commission is hereby authorized to issue bonds as in this act provided to the extent of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($350,000), and until such time as said bonds are issued and sold, and for the purpose of providing, without delay, available funds to construct such building and acquire such lands there is hereby appropriated out of the general fund of the state the said sum of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars which amount so appropriated from the general fund shall be deemed a temporary loan only from said general fund and to the amount only as may be needed for the purposes named and until repaid to the general fund from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds as herein authorized: Provided, the commission may sell all or part of said bonds at any one time or may exchange any of said bonds in payment in all or in part for the building of said "Temple of Justice," as may be provided in the contract for the construction thereof or by any subsequent agreement. [L.'11, p. 321, § 3.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7909. [6704-4.] Bonds—Interest-bearing Coupons.

Whenever the commission shall have been authorized to do so, as in this act or any further act, to issue bonds it shall issue negotiable annual interest-bearing coupon bonds, in denominations of one thousand dollars, payable in five years, or any multiple of five years up to twenty years, but if issued for a longer period than five years, the state to have the right, through the capitol commission, or its successor or successors in such functions, to pay or refund the same at any five-year period during the life of such bonds. Bonds authorized under this act shall bear interest not to exceed five per centum per annum, such bonds and all interest coupons thereof payable at the office of the state treasurer, and no coupon shall draw interest after the date named in such coupons unless there be no money in the treasury to pay the same and the treasurer shall stamp thereon "Not paid for want of funds," giving the date of such indorsement, in which event such coupon so stamped shall from such date draw the same rate of interest as it represented on the bonds until it is finally called for payment by the state treasurer. Notice of the time of payment of any bond or coupon shall be made by registered mail to the last known address of the holder thereof as shown on the record of the state treasurer kept for such purpose: Provided, no notice shall be required of any payment to be made of any coupon or bond on date named in such coupon or bond. Interest coupons shall be detached by the state treasurer at his office at the time of payment. No bonds shall be sold or exchanged for less than the face value thereof, and the commission may, in the call for the sale of any bonds provide that such bonds shall be issued only as deemed necessary by the commission, and the commission may issue a new call at any time, or may offer any such bonds for sale from time to time without any formal notice or call for bids thereon. The commission may issue new bonds to take up any issue of bonds theretofore issued, or to take up any issue of warrants, that may have been issued for any purpose authorized in this act or any future act, and the reissue of any bonds or warrants or the issue of any bonds or warrants to take up any outstanding bonds or warrants or the paying out of any funds raised by the sale of any bonds or warrants shall not be deemed an increase in the amount authorized to be expended or indebtedness created under the provisions of this act. [L. '11, p. 322, § 4; L. '13, p. 140, § 2.]

§ 7910. [6704-5.] Purchase of Bonds.

Whenever the capitol commission shall offer any bonds for sale, and there shall be in the permanent school fund, or other permanent or investment fund, sufficient uninvested funds to cover the purchase of such issue of bonds or any part thereof, the board, officer or officers, authorized to invest any such fund may invest the same in any of said bonds: Provided, however, whenever any of said bonds are purchased by said school fund or other permanent or investment fund the capitol commission, or the board, commission or officer authorized to succeed it in such functions, may pay any or all of such bonds, so held by the permanent school fund or such other fund at any time there is sufficient money in the capitol building fund for that purpose: And provided further, that any and all bonds purchased by any of the permanent funds as in this section provided, shall, for the purposes of such investment, be deemed in all respects state general bonds and shall be guaranteed both principal and interest by the general fund of the state. [L. '11, p. 323, § 5.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7911. [6704-6.] Vouchers Signed for Claims.

All claims authorized to be paid under this act except as otherwise provided or intended, shall be by vouchers signed by the governor as chairman of the capitol commission and attested by the secretary or acting secretary thereof, and warrants drawn thereon by the state auditor against the capitol building fund, or other fund or appropriation authorized to be used for such purpose. [L. '11, p. 324, § 6.]

§ 7912. [6704-7.] Interest Paid from General Fund.

All interest that may become due on bonds or warrants issued by the capitol commission shall be guaranteed by the state, and such interest shall be paid out of the general fund of the state: Provided, however, that any and all expenditures made out of the general fund shall be deemed a loan from said general fund and a debt against the capitol building fund and shall be repaid to the general fund from the proceeds of the capitol land grant after all other claims against the capitol building fund shall have been paid. Interest payments made out of the general fund as herein authorized may be made when due by the state treasurer and the state auditor shall draw his warrant therefor in favor of the treasurer for the amount so paid. [L. '11, p. 324, § 7.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7913. [6704-8.] Refunding.

Any paying off, or refunding of the present outstanding warrant indebtedness against the capitol building fund shall not be deemed an indebtedness incurred by the state capitol commission and the said capitol commission in addition to the expenditures hereinbefore authorized may at any time expend, for the purposes as outlined in section 7906, any moneys received from the proceeds of the sale or rental of capitol building lands, and all sums of moneys so received are hereby appropriated therefor. [L. '11, p. 324, § 8.]

§ 7914. [6704-9.] Limit of Expenditures.

Any of the amounts herein authorized to be expended or obligations incurred, whether such amounts are specifically named or otherwise are hereby appropriated: Provided, that at no time shall the total expenditures for capitol buildings and grounds, whether authorized under this act or any subsequent enactment, exceed the estimated value of the capitol land grant. [L. '11, p. 327, § 13.]

§ 7915. Amendment of Building Plans.

That the state capitol commission shall have power to amend or modify any of the plans and specifications heretofore authorized or adopted, or to adopt new plans and specifications for the location, construction and completion of buildings on the state capitol site, and may advertise for competitive plans. [L. '17, p. 777, § 5.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7916. Tax Levy for Capitol Building Construction Fund—Purchase of Additional Lands.

The state board of equalization is hereby authorized and required at its annual meeting to make a levy of one-half mill for capitol building purposes and the moneys derived therefrom shall be paid into a fund hereby created to be known as "Capitol Building Construction Fund," the moneys from such fund to be used for the purpose of acquiring lands heretofore authorized by law to be acquired for capitol building purposes, together with the lands bounded [by] Twelfth street on the south, Main street on the east, Eleventh street on the north and Water street on the west; if in the judgment of the capitol commissioners, the purchase of such land shall be advisable, erecting buildings at the state capitol, and the completion of buildings now in the course of construction, and the changing and altering of buildings acquired, and the payment of interest on warrants or bonds outstanding against the capitol building fund or issued against the capitol building construction fund. [L. '17, p. 777, § 6.]

See infra, § 10763, duties devolve upon state equalization committee.

§ 7917. Repayment of Tax Levies to State Treasury.

All moneys derived from the tax levy herein provided for shall be deemed to be loans from the state, and shall be charged against the land grant for capitol purposes to the state from the general government, and as moneys are derived from the sale, lease or other disposition of said land grant, the advancements hereby provided for shall be repaid to the general fund of the state: Provided, that no moneys received from such sale, lease or disposition shall be returned to the state treasury until all warrants, bonds or other outstanding obligations against the capitol building fund shall have been paid. [L. '17, p. 778, § 8.]

§ 7918. [6704-14.] Stone for Capitol Buildings.

The state capitol commission may, before selecting the stone to be used in surfacing any building in the state capitol group plan, enter into an agreement or agreements with the owner or proprietor of any quarry, that such owner or proprietor will furnish like stone for the buildings to be erected in the future on the state capitol site, at the price and upon the terms stated in such agreement. [L. '15, p. 701, § 5.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7919. [6704-15.] Bonds as Security for Deposits of Public Funds.

Bonds authorized by this act shall be acceptable by state, counties, cities, towns, school districts and other municipal corporations of this state as security for the deposit of any of their funds in any banking institution in this state. [L. '15, p. 701, § 6.]

§ 7920. Public Buildings—Authority to Construct.

The state capitol commission is hereby authorized to provide for the erection and completion of public buildings at the capitol for legislative, executive and judicial purposes, and to make contracts therefor, the total cost of any new buildings not to exceed the sum of three million five hundred thousand dollars ($3,500,000), and to provide for the erection of a suitable memorial upon the capitol grounds in honor of the soldiers, sailors and marines from this state who lost their lives in the service by disease or on the battlefield at home or abroad in the present war with the Teutonic powers, at a cost not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). [L. '19, p. 62, § 1.]

See notes to § 7897.

§ 7921. Appropriation.

There is hereby appropriated from the capitol building construction fund the sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) to be expended during the biennial period ending March 31, 1921, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act. [L. '19, p. 62, § 2.]

CHAPTER X.

RECLAMATION OF ARID LANDS UNDER THE CAREY ACT.

See, also, next chapter.

§ 7922. [6705.] Acceptance of Grant.

The state of Washington does hereby accept the terms of the act of congress approved August 18, 1894, donating to each of the public land states one million acres of arid land. [L. '95, p. 452, § 1.]

The act of 1897, p. 262, § 70, repealed the act of 1895, except this section; but the title of the act of 1897 was held defective in Howlett v. Cheetham, 17 Wash. 626. Laws 1903, p. 309, § 24, repealed § 2 of the act of 1895, held to be in force in the case cited. But this chapter supersedes the earlier laws, and Bal. Code, §§ 2086—2108 (Laws 1895 and 1897), are accordingly omitted.

Cited in 17 Wash. 629, 635; 19 Wash. 331.

§ 7923. [6706.] Acceptance of Condition.

The state of Washington hereby accepts the condition of section four (4) of an act of congress, entitled: "An act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, and for other purposes," approved August 18, A. D. 1894, and all acts subsequent and relating thereto together with all the grants of land to the state under the provisions of the aforesaid acts. [L. '03, p. 299, § 1. Cf. L. '95, p. 452, § 1; Bal. Code, § 2085.]

§ 7924. [6707.] Commissioner of Public Lands to Select and Dispose of.

The selection, management and disposal of said lands shall be vested in the commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington. He shall receive and file all proposals for the construction of irrigation works to reclaim lands selected under the provisions of this chapter, prepare and keep for public inspection, maps or plats, on a scale of two inches to the mile, of all lands selected, receive entries of settlers on these lands, and hear or receive the final proof of their reclamation; and do any and all work required to be done in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. [L. '03, p. 299, § 2.]

Any person, company or association of persons, or incorporated company, constructing, having constructed or desiring to construct ditches, canals, or other navigation works, to reclaim land under the provisions of said chapter, shall file with the commissioner of public lands a request for the selection on behalf of the state by the commissioner of public lands of the land to be reclaimed, designating said land by legal subdivision. This request shall be accompanied by a proposal to construct the ditch, canal or other irrigation works necessary for the complete reclamation of the lands to be selected. The proposal shall be prepared in accordance with the rules of the commissioner of public lands and with the regulations of the department of the interior. It shall state the source of water supply, the location and dimensions of the proposed works, the price and terms per acre at which perpetual water rights will be sold to settlers on the land to be reclaimed. In the case of incorporated companies it shall state the name of the company, the purpose of its incorporation, the names and places of residence of its trustees and officers, the amount of its authorized and of its paid-up capital. If the applicant is not an incorporated company the proposal shall set forth the name or names of the party or parties, and such other facts as will enable the commissioner of public lands to determine his or their financial ability to carry out the proposed undertaking. [L. '03, p. 299, § 3.]

§ 7926. [6709.] Certified Check to Accompany.

A certified check for a sum not less than two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) nor more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) as may be determined by the rules of the commissioner of public lands shall accompany each such request and proposal, the same to be held as a guarantee of the execution of the contract with the state, in accordance with its terms, by the party submitting such proposal, in case of the approval of the same and the selection of the land by the commissioner of public lands, and to be forfeited to the state in case of the failure of said party to enter into a contract with the state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [L. '03, p. 300, § 4.]

§ 7927. [6710.] Examination and Approval of Request and Proposal.

Immediately upon the receipt of any request and proposal as designated in section 7925, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to examine the same and ascertain if it complies in form with the rules of his office and the regulations of the department of the interior. If it does not it is to be returned for correction, and, if not corrected within sixty days, it may be rejected by the commissioner. The commissioner of public lands shall determine whether or not the proposed works are feasible and the water appropriated and provided for is adequate and whether the maps filed in his office comply with the requirements of his office and the regulations of the department of the interior; also whether the lands proposed to be irrigated are desert in character, and such as may be properly set apart under the provisions of the aforesaid acts of congress and the rules and regulations of the department of the interior thereunder. When a request or proposal as to substance is not approved by the commissioner he shall notify the party making such request or proposal of his disapproval thereof and the reason therefor, and the party so notified shall have sixty days in which to make a satisfactory proposal but the commissioner may, at his discretion, extend the time to six months. [L. '03, p. 300, § 5.]

§ 7928. [6711.] Triplicate Lists Filed.

On receipt of the request and proposal, and the approval of the same by the commissioner of public lands, he shall file in the local United States land office a list in triplicate, describing the land embraced in said proposal with a request for the withdrawal of the land described in said list. [L. '03, p. 301, § 6.]

§ 7929. [6712.] Withdrawal of Lands—Approval of Contract.

Upon the withdrawal of the land by the department of the interior, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to enter into a contract with the party submitting the proposal, which contract shall contain complete specifications of the location, dimensions and character of the proposed ditch, canal and other irrigation works; the price and terms per acre at which perpetual water rights shall be sold to the settler; the amount of water to be supplied; the price of an annual maintenance fee per acre, and the price and terms upon which the state is to dispose of the lands to settlers: Provided, that such price and terms for irrigation works, water rights, maintenance fee and for lands to be disposed of by the state to settlers, shall in all cases be reasonable and just. This contract shall not be entered into on the part of the state until withdrawal of these lands by the department of the interior and the filing of a satisfactory bond on the part of the proposed contractor for irrigation works, which bond shall be in penal sum equal to five per cent of the estimated cost of the works, and to be conditioned for the faithful performance of the provisions of the contract with the state: Provided, that no contract under the provisions of this chapter shall be entered into by the commissioner of public lands until the same shall have been approved by the attorney general and the governor. [L. '03, p. 301, § 7.]

§ 7930. [6713.] Limit of Contract Time—Construction.

No contract shall be made by the commissioner of public lands which requires a greater time than ten (10) years for the construction of the works and such additional time as may be granted by the interior department as provided by the aforesaid acts of congress and amendments thereto, and all contracts shall state that the work shall begin within six months from the date of the contract; at least one-tenth of the construction work shall be completed within two years from the date of said contract; and the construction of said works shall be prosecuted with reasonable diligence to completion. [L. '03, p. 302, § 8.]

§ 7931. [6714.] Failure to Begin Construction—Forfeiture.

Upon the failure of any party having a contract with the state for the construction of irrigation works, to begin the same within the time specified by the contract, or to complete the same within the time or in accordance with the specifications of the contract with the state, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to give such party written notice of such failure and if, after a period of sixty days from the giving of such notice such party shall have failed to proceed with the work or to conform to the specifications of his contract with the state the bond and contract of such party and all work constructed under such contract shall be at once and thereby forfeited to the state, and it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands at once so to declare and to give notice once each week for a period of four weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the work is situated, and in one newspaper at the state capitol in like manner and for like period, that upon a day fixed, proposals will be received at the office of the commissioner of public lands at Olympia, Washington, for the purchase of the incompleated works and for the completion of said contract, the time for receiving said bids to be at least sixty days subsequent to the issuing of the last notice of forfeiture. The money received from the sale of partially completed works, under the provisions of this section shall first be applied to the expenses incurred by the state in their forfeiture and disposal, to satisfy the bond, and the surplus, if any exists, shall be paid to the original contractor with the state. Whenever after the completion of said irrigation works any contractor or his successors or assigns shall fail to furnish an adequate amount of water to irrigate the lands of water-right owners or there shall exist other cause as provided by law for the appointment of a receiver, the attorney general may apply for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the irrigation works and canal and other property of such party, and manage, operate, sell or dispose of the same. Such application shall be made to the superior court of the county in which the whole or some portion of the irrigation works or canal of such party is situated; and the court or its receiver by order of the court shall have and may exercise such powers as to the possession, management, operation, sale or disposition of the property and works of such party as is provided by law relating to receivers: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed as limiting the right of any party to have a receiver appointed as is in other cases provided by law. [L. '03, p. 302, § 9.]

§ 7932. [6715.] State not Liable for Default of Contractor.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as authorizing the commissioner of public lands to obligate the state to pay for any work constructed under any contract or to hold the state in any way responsible to settlers for the failure of contractors to complete the work according to the terms of their contracts with the state. [L. '03, p. 303, § 10.]

§ 7933. [6716.] Notice that Land is Open for Settlement.

Immediately upon the withdrawal of any land for the state by the department of the interior and the inauguration of work by the contractor, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands, by publication once a week in one newspaper of the county or counties in which said land is situated, and such further notice as he may deem necessary, for a period of four weeks, that said land is open for settlement; the price for which said land will be sold to settlers by the state, the contract price at which settlers can purchase a perpetual water right, and the cost of an annual maintenance fee. [L. '03, p. 303, § 11.]

§ 7934. [6717.] Application for Entry.

Any citizen of the United States, or any person having declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States (excepting married women not the heads of families) over the age of twenty-one years, may make application under oath, to the commissioner of public lands, to enter any of said lands in any amount not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres for any one person; such application shall set forth that the person desiring to make such entry does so for the purpose of actual reclamation, cultivation and settlement in accordance with the act of congress and the laws of this state relating thereto, and the applicant has never received the benefit of the provisions of this act, to an amount greater than one hundred and sixty acres, including the number of acres specified in the application under consideration. Such application must be accompanied by a certified copy of a contract for a perpetual water right, made and entered into by the party making application with the person, company or association of persons, or incorporated company who have been authorized by the commissioner of public lands to furnish water for the reclamation of said land; and if said applicant has at any previous time entered land under the provisions of this chapter, he shall so state in his application, together with the description, date of entry and location of said lands. The commissioner of public lands shall thereupon file in his office the application and the papers relating thereto, and, if allowed, issue a certificate of location to the applicant. All applications for entry shall be accompanied by a payment of one dollar per acre, which shall be paid as a partial payment on the land if the application is allowed, and all certificates when issued shall be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose. If the application is not allowed, or the contractor fails to complete the work according to contract the one dollar per acre accompanying the application shall be returned to the applicant. The commissioner of public lands shall dispose of all lands accepted by the state under the provisions of this act at a uniform price of not less than ten dollars per acre, one-tenth to be paid at the time of entry and the remainder in nine equal annual installments, with interest at six per cent per annum payable annually, provided a settler may make payment in full at any time upon or after making final proof. [L. '03, p. 303, § 12.]

§ 7935. [6718.] Disposition of Funds Received.

All moneys received by the commissioner of public lands from the sale of lands selected under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited with the state treasurer and shall constitute a trust fund in the hands of said treasurer to be used in the reclamation of other arid lands. [L. '03, p. 304, § 13.]

See supra, § 5509, all moneys received from the sale of lands to be deposited in general fund, a later enactment.

§ 7936. [6719.] Settler's Contracts and Undertaking—Payments—Final Proof.

Within one year after any person, company or association of persons or incorporated company authorized to construct irrigation works under the provisions of this chapter, shall have notified the settlers under such works that they are prepared to furnish water under the terms of their contract with the state, each settler shall enter into a contract with the state for the purchase of the land described in his certificate of location, complete the first annual payment thereon, and shall cultivate and reclaim not less than one-sixteenth part of the land filed upon by him, and within two years after the said notice, the settler shall have actually irrigated and cultivated not less than one-eighth of the land filed upon, and within ten years from the date of said notice the settler shall appear before the commissioner of public lands or the clerk of the superior court, within the county wherein said land is situated and make final proof of reclamation, settlement and occupation, which proof shall embrace evidence that he has a perpetual water right for his entire tract of land sufficient in volume for the complete irrigation and reclamation thereof; that he is an actual settler thereon and has cultivated and irrigated not less than one-eighth of said tract, and such further proof, if any, as may be required by the regulations of the department of the interior, and the commissioner of public lands. The officer taking this proof shall be entitled to receive a fee of two dollars ($2), which fee shall be paid by the settler and shall be in addition to the price paid for the land. All proofs so received shall be submitted to the commissioner of public lands and shall be accompanied by the last and final payment for said land, and approved by the commissioner of public lands, and such proceedings had that a patent of said land shall be issued: Provided, that when the commissioner of public lands shall take such final proof all fees received by him shall be turned in to the state treasurer. [L. '03, p. 305, § 14.]

§ 7937. [6720.] Patents, Issuance of—Recording.

After the issuance of a patent to any land by the United States to the state, notice thereof shall be forwarded to the party, if any entitled to said land, and, upon full payment having been made, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to certify such fact to the governor, whereupon he shall cause a patent to be issued to the purchaser, the patent to be signed by the governor and attested by the secretary of state with the seal of the state thereto attached, and shall be recorded in the office of the commissioner of public lands, and no fee shall be required other than the fee provided for in this chapter. [L. '03, p. 305, § 15.]

The water right to all land acquired under the provisions of this chapter shall attach to and become appurtenant to the land as soon as title passes from the United States to the state. Any person, company or association of persons, or incorporated company furnishing water for any tract of land shall have a prior lien on said water right and land upon which said water is used for all deferred payments for said water right and for any maintenance fee due, said lien to be in all respects prior to any other lien or liens created or attempted to be created by the owner or possessor of said land; said lien to remain in full force and effect until the last deferred payment for the water right is fully paid and satisfied according to the terms of the contract under which said water right was acquired and until all delinquent maintenance fees are fully paid. The contract for the water right upon which the aforesaid lien is founded shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county where the land is situated. Upon default of any of the deferred payments secured by any lien under the provisions of this act and any maintenance fee, the person, company, or association of persons, or incorporated company holding or owning said lien, may foreclose the same according to the conditions and terms of the contract granting and selling to the settler the water right and providing for a maintenance fee. All sales shall be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation, published in the county where said land and water right is situated, once a week, for four consecutive weeks, and shall be sold to the highest bidder at the front door of the courthouse of the county, or such place as may be agreed upon by the terms of the contract. And the sheriff of said county shall in all such cases give notice of sale and shall sell such land and water right and shall make and deliver a certificate of sale to the purchaser, and at such sale no person, company, or association or [of] persons or incorporated company, owning or holding any lien shall bid in or purchase any land or water right at a greater price than the amount due on deferred payment or payments for said water right and land and maintenance fee due and the costs incurred in making the sale of the land and water right. At any time within nine months after the foreclosure sale by the sheriff of the land and water right as aforesaid, the original owner against whom the lien has been foreclosed, or any other party entitled to redeem land sold under execution may redeem land and water right so sold in the same manner and order and under the same procedure as is or may be provided by law for the redemption of land sold under execution. The party reclaiming said land and water right shall pay to the sheriff the amount for which said land and water right was sold and costs and increased costs, together with interest thereon at the legal rate, and all taxes and payments maturing subsequent to such foreclosure as well as all maintenance fees due at the time of redemption with interest at like rate. If there be more than one redemption each successive redemption shall be made within six (6) weeks after the last preceding redemption. And where the lienholder becomes the purchaser at such foreclosure sale, and in no other case, if such land and water right be not redeemed by the original owner or other person entitled to redeem as above provided within nine (9) months then at any time within three (3) months after the expiration of such nine (9) months any person desiring to settle upon and use such land and water right may redeem the said land and water right in the manner hereinbefore provided for redemption by the owner or other redemptioners. Where such land and water right are not purchased by the lienholder at such foreclosure sale the sheriff shall pay out the proceeds of such sale as follows:

First. He shall retain all charges, costs and fees for his services and account for the same as in civil cases.

Second. To the lienholder or his assigns the amount of the lien together with all interest, costs and fixed charges thereon.

Third. The balance of any remaining, to the person against whom such lien was foreclosed or his assigns. When the period of redemption shall have expired the sheriff or his successor in office shall execute a proper conveyance of the land and water right sold, to the party entitled thereto. The foreclosure herein provided for may be transferred to the superior court of the proper county in the same manner and with like effect as foreclosure of chattel mortgages on notice may be transferred. [L. '03, p. 306, § 16.]

Cited in 93 Wash. 342.

§ 7939. [6722.] Maps of Land Selected—What to Show.

The maps in the office of the commissioner of public lands, of the lands selected under the provisions of this chapter, shall show the location of the canals or other irrigation works approved in the contract with the commissioner of public lands, and all land filed upon shall be subject to the right of way of such canals, distribution system and irrigation works. Such right of way to embrace the entire width of the canal, distribution and irrigation works and such additional width as may be required for their proper operation and maintenance. [L. '03, p. 308, § 17.]

§ 7940. [6723.] Rules for Filing — Annual Report by Irrigation Companies.

The commissioner of public lands shall provide suitable rules for the filing of proposals for constructing irrigation works, and for the forfeiture of entry by settlers, upon failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter. There shall be kept in the office of the commissioner of public lands for public inspection, copies of all maps, plats, contracts for the construction of irrigation works, and of the entries of the land by settlers. He shall require from each person, company or association of persons, or incorporated company engaged in the construction of irrigation works under the provisions of this chapter, an annual report, to be submitted to him on or before November 1st of each year. This report shall show the number of water rights sold, the number of users of water under said irrigation works, the legal subdivisions of land for which water is to be furnished, the names of the officers of the company, the acreage of land which the said irrigation works are prepared to supply with water, and such other data as the commissioner of public lands may see fit to require. The rules required by this section may be waived in the case of irrigation works being constructed by any person, colony or association of persons to furnish water for land settled upon and being reclaimed by themselves. [L. '03, p. 308, § 18.]

§ 7941. [6724.] Fees of Commissioner of Public Lands.

The commissioner of public lands shall collect the following fees: For filing each application one (1) dollar; for filing each final proof one (1) dollar; for issuing each patent two (2) dollars; for making certified copies of papers or records, the same fee as is provided for to be charged by the secretary of state for like services. All moneys collected and fees received under this chapter shall be paid by the commissioner of public lands to the state treasurer and credited by him to the trust fund created by said act of congress. [L. '03, p. 308, § 19.]

See supra, § 7821, fees of commissioner, a later enactment.

§ 7942. [6725.] Commissioner's Annual Report.

The commissioner of public lands shall issue on or before November 30th of each year a report setting forth in detail the names, location and character of the irrigation works in process of construction, the acreage and legal subdivision of land intended to be reclaimed, and the terms of payment for both water rights and land. Not less than one thousand copies of such report shall be printed for gratuitous distribution. [L. '03, p. 309, § 20.]

§ 7943. [6726.] State, School and Granted Lands — Water Rights Extended to, in Contracts for Reclamation.

Any contract for the reclamation of arid land under this chapter shall provide that a water right be extended to all state, school and granted lands owned by the state of Washington, under the canal and irrigation works to be constructed under such contract at the same rates and upon the same terms and conditions as apply to the lands granted under said act of congress. [L. '03, p. 309, § 21.]

• § 7944. [6727.] Reimbursement of State.

The state of Washington shall, out of the money arising from its disposal of any lands selected under this chapter, first reimburse itself for any and all costs and expenditures incurred, and heretofore incurred, by it in selecting, irrigating and reclaiming said land. [L. '03, p. 309, § 22.]

§ 7945. [6728.] Actions by Commissioner in Name of State.

All suits or actions brought by the commissioner of public lands, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be instituted by him in the name of the state of Washington. [L. '03, p. 309, § 23.]

CHAPTER XI.RECLAMATION OF GRANTED LANDS, IN GENERAL.

Under the Carey Act: See last preceding chapter.

§ 7946. [6729.] Proposals and Contracts for Irrigation.

The commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington be and is hereby authorized and empowered to receive and file proposals, and to enter into contract as herein provided, for the construction of irrigation works to reclaim any and all of the lands granted to the state of Washington for any and all purposes and uses. [L. '05, p. 113, § 1.]

§ 7947. [6730.] Proposals Filed With Commissioner—Contents.

Any person, company or association of persons or incorporated company doing business in the state of Washington desiring to construct ditches, canals or other irrigation works for the reclamation of said lands, shall file with the commissioner of public lands, proposal to construct the ditches, canals or other irrigation works necessary to the complete reclamation of said lands. The proposal shall be prepared in accordance with the rules adopted by the commissioner of public lands. It shall state the source of water supply, the location and dimension of the proposed works, the location and character of the land proposed to be irrigated, the price per acre at which perpetual water right will be sold to settlers on the land to be irrigated, and shall be accompanied by maps, plans and specifications of the proposed works and land to be irrigated, which shall be considered a part of the proposal. In the case of incorporated companies it shall state the name of the company, the purpose of its incorporation, the names and places of residence of its trustees and officers, the amount of its authorized and of its paid-up capital. If the applicant is not an incorporated company, the proposal shall set forth the name or names of the party or parties and such other facts as will enable the commissioner of public lands to determine his or their financial ability to carry out the proposed undertaking. [L. '05, p. 113, § 2.]

§ 7948. [6731.] Certified Check to Accompany Proposal.

A certified check for a sum not less than two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) nor more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), as may be determined by the commissioner of public lands, shall accompany each such proposal, the same to be held as guarantee of the execution of the contract with the state, in accordance with its terms by the party submitting such proposal. In case of the approval of the same and the acceptance of the proposal by the commissioner of public lands, and to be forfeited to the state in case of the failure of said party to enter into a contract with the state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [L. '05, p. 114, § 3.]

Immediately upon the receipt of any proposal as designated in section 7947, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to examine the same and ascertain if it complies in form with the rules adopted by him as provided in section 7947. If it does not it is to be returned for correction; and if not corrected within sixty days, it may be rejected by the commissioner of public lands. The commissioner of public lands shall determine whether or not the proposed works are feasible and the water provided is adequate, and whether the proposed irrigation works described in the maps, plans and specifications, are adequate for the irrigation of the lands intended to be irrigated. When a request or proposal is not approved by the commissioner of public lands, he shall notify the party making such request or proposal of his disapproval thereof, and the party so notified shall have sixty days in which to make a satisfactory proposal, but the commissioner of public lands may, at his discretion, extend the time six months. [L. '05, p. 114, § 4.]

§ 7950. [6733.] Approval of Plans—Contract.

If the plans and specifications for the proposed irrigation works and the furnishing of a perpetual water supply for the irrigation of said lands is approved by the commissioner of public lands, the said commissioner of public lands is authorized and empowered to enter into a contract with the party submitting the proposal, which contract shall contain complete specifications of the location, dimensions and character of the proposed ditch, canal or other irrigation work; the price per acre at which perpetual water rights shall be sold to the settler or owner, which price may be paid in a lump sum or in ten annual payments, as the settler or owner may elect; the amount of water to be supplied and the price of the annual maintenance fee per acre: Provided, that no contract under the provisions of this chapter shall be entered into by the commissioner of public lands until the same shall have been approved by the attorney general and the governor. [L. '05, p. 114, § 5.]

§ 7951. [6734.] Construction—Time of Completion—Bond of Contractor.

No contract shall be made by the commissioner of public lands which requires greater time than three years for the construction of the works and such additional time as may be granted by the commissioner of public lands not to exceed two years, and all contracts shall state that the work shall begin within six months from the date of the contract; at least one-tenth of the construction work shall be completed within twelve months from the date of said contract, and the construction of said works shall be prosecuted with reasonable diligence to completion. The commissioner of public lands shall, before letting any contract for the construction of any works herein provided for, require the contractor to enter into a bond to the state of Washington in the penal sum of not less than twenty per cent of the estimated cost of the works, conditioned for the faithful performance of the terms and conditions of said contract. [L. '05, p. 115, § 6.]

§ 7952. [6735.] Contractor in Default—Forfeiture—Completion—Sale—Receiver.

Upon the failure of any party having a contract with the state for the construction of irrigation works, to begin the same within the time specified by the contract, or to complete the same within the time or in accordance with the specifications of the contract with the state, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to give such party written notice of such failure and if, after a period of sixty days from the giving of such notice, such party shall have failed to proceed with the work or to conform with the specifications of his contract with the state the bond and contract of such party and all work constructed under such contract shall be at once and thereby forfeited to the state, and it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands at once so to declare and to give notice once each week for a period of four weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the work is situated, and in one newspaper at the state capital in like manner and for a like period, that upon a day fixed, proposals will be received at the office of the commissioner of public lands for the purchase of the incompleted works and for the completion of said contract, the time for receiving said bids to be at least sixty days subsequent to the issuing of the last notice of forfeiture. The money received from the sale of partially completed works, under the provisions of this section, shall first be applied to the expenses incurred by the state in their forfeiture and disposal and to satisfy the bond, and the surplus, if any exists, shall be paid to the original contractor with the state. Whenever after the completion of said irrigation works any contractor or his successors or assigns shall fail to furnish an adequate amount of water to irrigate the lands of water right owners or there shall exist other cause as provided by law for the appointment of a receiver, the attorney general may apply for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the irrigation works and canal and other property of such party and manage, operate, sell or dispose of same. Such application shall be made to the superior court of the county in which the whole or some portion of the irrigation works or canal of such party is situated; and the court or its receiver by order of the court shall have and may exercise such powers as to the possession, management, operation, sale or disposition of the property and works of such party as is provided by the law relating to receivers: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed as limiting the right of any party to have a receiver appointed as is in other cases provided by law. [L. '05, p. 115, § 7.]

§ 7953. [6736.] State not Liable for Default of Contractor.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as authorizing the commissioner of public lands to obligate the state to pay for any work constructed under any contract or to hold the state in any way responsible to settlers for the failure of contractors to complete the work according to the terms of their contracts with the state. [L. '05, p. 116, § 8.]

§ 7954. [6737.] Sworn Statement of Applicant—Perpetual Water Rights upon Sale.

Whenever application has been made to the commissioner of public lands for the purchase of any of the irrigable lands described in this chapter as provided by law, the said application shall be accompanied by the sworn statement of the applicant that he is ready and willing to enter into contract with the person, company, or association of persons, or incorporated company, who have been authorized by the commissioner of public lands to furnish water for the reclamation of said lands, which statement shall be filed with said application, and the commissioner of public lands may thereupon proceed to the appraisal, advertisement and sale of said lands as provided by law. In case of the sale of any lands to any party pursuant to the appraisal and advertisement thereof, the commissioner of public lands shall not issue a contract therefor until there shall have been filed in his office a certified copy of a contract for a perpetual water right for said lands made and entered into by the party purchasing the same with the person, company or association of persons, or incorporated company, who have been authorized by the commissioner of public lands to furnish water for the reclamation of said lands. [L. '05, p. 116, § 9.]

§ 7955. [6738.] Water Right, an Appurtenance—Lien of—Foreclosure of Lien.

The water right to all land acquired under the provisions of this chapter shall attach to and become appurtenant to the land. Any person, company or association of persons, or incorporated company furnishing water for any tract of land shall have a prior lien on said water right and land upon which said water is used for all deferred payments for said water right and for any maintenance fee due, said lien to be in all respects prior to any other lien or liens created or attempted to be created by the owner or possessor of said land; said lien to remain in full force and effect until the last deferred payment for the water right is fully paid and satisfied according to the terms of the contract under which said water right was acquired and until all delinquent maintenance fees are fully paid. The contract for the water right upon which the aforesaid lien is founded shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county where the land is situated. Upon default of any of the deferred payments secured by any lien under the provisions of this chapter or maintenance fee, the person, company or association of persons, or incorporated company holding or owning said lien, may foreclose the same according to the conditions and terms of the contract granting and selling to the settler or owner the water right and providing for a maintenance fee. All sales shall be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation, published in the county where said land and water right are situated, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and shall be sold to the highest bidder at the front door of the courthouse of the county, or such place as may be agreed upon by the terms of the contract. And the sheriff of said county shall in all such cases give notice of sale and shall sell such land and water right and shall make and deliver a certificate of sale to the purchaser, and at such sale no person, company or association of persons or incorporated company, owning or holding any lien shall bid in or purchase any land or water right at a greater price than the amount due on deferred payment or payments for said water right and maintenance fee due and the costs incurred in making the sale of the land and water right. At any time within nine months after the foreclosure sale by the sheriff of the land and water right as aforesaid, the original owner, against whom the lien has been foreclosed, or any party entitled to redeem the land sold under execution may redeem the land and water right so sold in the same manner and order and under the same procedure as is or may be provided by law for the redemption of land sold under execution. The party redeeming said land and water right shall pay to the sheriff the amount for which said land and water right was sold and costs and increased costs, together with interest thereon at the legal rate, and all taxes and payments made subsequent to such foreclosure as well as all maintenance fees at the time of redemption with interest at like rate. If there be more than one redemption each successive redemption shall be made within six (6) weeks after the last preceding redemption. And where the lienholder becomes the purchaser at such foreclosure sale, and in no other case, if such land and water right be not redeemed by the original owner or other person entitled to redeem as above provided within nine (9) months then at any time within three (3) months after the expiration of such nine (9) months any person desiring to settle upon and use such land and water right may redeem the said land and water right in the manner hereinafter provided for redemption by the owner or other redemptioners. Where such land and water right are not purchased by the lienholder at such foreclosure sale the sheriff shall pay out the proceeds of such sale as follows:

First: He shall retain all charges, costs and fees for his services and account for the same as in civil cases. Second: To lienholder or his assigns the amount of the lien together with all interest, costs and fixed charges thereon. Third: The balance, if any remaining, to the person against whom such lien was foreclosed or his assigns.

When the period of redemption shall have expired the sheriff or his successors in office shall execute a proper conveyance of the land and water right sold, to the party entitled thereto. The foreclosure herein provided for may be transferred to the superior court of the proper county in the same manner and with like effect as foreclosures of chattel mortgages on notice may be transferred. [L. '05, p. 117, § 10.]

§ 7956. [6739.] Maps, What to Show—Right of Way Over State Lands.

The maps in the office of the commissioner of public lands of the lands proposed to be irrigated under the provisions of this chapter, shall show the location of the canals or other irrigation works approved in the contract with the commissioner of public lands, and all lands described therein belonging to the state of Washington shall be subject to the right of way of such canals, distribution system and irrigation works, such right of way to embrace the entire width of the canal, distribution and irrigation works and such additional width as may be required for their proper operation and maintenance. [L. '05, p. 119, § 11.]

See, also, infra, § 8099, right of way.

§ 7957. [6740.] Duties of Commissioner—Annual Report by Irrigation Companies.

The commissioner of public lands shall provide suitable rules for the filing of proposals for the construction of irrigation works. There shall be kept in the office of the commissioner of public lands, for public inspection, copies of all maps, plats, contracts for the construction of irrigation works, and of the purchase of the land by settlers. He shall require from each person, company or association of persons, or incorporated company engaged in the construction of irrigation works under the provisions of this chapter, an annual report, to be submitted to him on or before November 1st, of each year. This report shall show the number of water rights sold, the number of users of water under said irrigation works, the legal subdivisions of land for which water is to be furnished, the names of the officers of the company, the acreage of land which the said irrigation works are prepared to supply with water, and such other data as the commissioner of public lands may see fit to require. [L. '05, p. 119, § 12.]

§ 7958. [6741.] Biennial Report of Land Commissioner.

The commissioner of public lands shall include in his biennial report to the governor a report setting forth in detail the names, location and character of the irrigation works in process of construction, the acreage and legal subdivisions of land intended to be reclaimed and the terms of payment for water right sold. [L. '05, p. 119, § 13.]

§ 7959. [6742.] Actions by Commissioner in Name of State.

All suits or actions brought by the commissioner of public lands under the provisions of this chapter, shall be instituted by him in the name of the state of Washington. [L. '05, p. 119, § 14.]

§ 7960. [6743.] Not to Affect Preceding Chapter.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as a repeal, amendment or modification in any respect of chapter X of this title. [L. '05, p. 119, § 15.]

CHAPTER XII.

TIDE AND SHORE LANDS.

See infra, §§ 9593—9600, waterways across tide lands.

See infra, §§ 9603—9612, filling in and excavating tide lands.

§ 7961. [6744.] Classification of Tide Lands.

The tide and shore lands of the state of Washington, which are not reserved for sale by the Constitution and laws of the state, shall be divided into two classes:—

1. Tide and shore lands of the first class, which shall comprise all tide and shore lands within or in front of the limits of any incorporated city or town, or within two miles thereof on either side, including submerged lands lying between the line of mean low tide and the inner harbor line, wherever harbor lines have been established or shall be established;

2. All tide and shore lands in the state not included in the above class shall be known as second class tide and shore lands, and shall be leased and sold as in the manner provided in this chapter. [Cf. L. '95, p. 549, § 52; L. '97, p. 248, § 39.]

Title and Right to Tide and Shore
Lands in General: See Remington's
Digest, Pub. Lands, § 84 and cases cited.

§ 7962. [6744-1.] Location of Line Dividing Tide and Shore Lands.

The board of state land commissioners is hereby authorized to locate in all navigable rivers in this state, which are subject to tidal flow, the line dividing the tidelands in such river from the shore lands in such river, and such classification or the location of such dividing line shall be final and not subject to review. [L. '15, p. 419, § 16.]

§ 7963. [6745.] Survey, etc., of Tide Lands of First Class.

It shall be the duty of the harbor line commission provided for in this act to survey, plat, examine and appraise any tide or shore lands of the first class not heretofore platted and appraised and said commission may establish harbor lines in front of incorporated cities and towns where such harbor lines have not been heretofore established under the provisions of Article XV of the Constitution of this state; and whenever all of the owners and other persons having a vested interest in the lands embraced within any such plat or within any portion of such plat embracing all the land in such plat, bounded by waterways heretofore established and the upland and deep water, shall petition the state land commission by filing a petition therefor with the commissioner of public lands, the state land commission is authorized and empowered to replat the lands described in said petition and all unsold land within such replat shall be reappraised in the manner provided for original appraisements of tide lands. All streets, alleys, waterways and other public places embraced within any such plat or portion of plat vacated by the replat hereby authorized shall vest in the owner or owners abutting thereon. If in the preparation of such replat by the state land commission it becomes desirable to appropriate any tide land which has heretofore been sold for use as streets, alleys, waterways or other public places, all persons interested in the title shall join in the dedication of such replat before the same shall be effected. No waterways laid out prior to January 1, 1900, shall be vacated. All plats and replats provided for in this section shall be in triplicate. Within thirty days after the adoption of such replat by the commission one copy shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands; one copy in the office of the auditor of the county wherein such land is situated and one copy in the office of the city engineer of the city or town wherein such land is situated. Any replat of lands heretofore platted shall be in full force and effect and shall constitute the vacation of streets, alleys and waterways and public places heretofore dedicated and shall constitute a dedication of new streets, alleys or public places and waterways appearing upon such replat when a majority of the city council of the city or town wherein such replatted land is situated shall by resolution approve the same; and if such land is not in any incorporated city or town when a majority of the county commissioners of the county wherein such replatted land is situated shall approve the same. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to supersede existing laws relating to the vacation of streets, alleys and public places. This section is intended to afford an additional method of procedure: Provided, if any streets heretofore platted are vacated by the replat and any new street or waterway is so laid out as to leave unsold tide land between such new street or waterway and land heretofore sold, the owner of said tide land heretofore sold shall have the preference right, for sixty days after final approval of such replat, to buy the unsold tide land so intervening at the appraised value. [L. '01, p. 326, § 1. Cf. L. '95, p. 550, § 53; L. '97, p. 248, § 40.]

See supra, § 7797, the state board of land commissioners constitutes the "harbor line commission."

§ 7964. [6746.] How Surveyed and Platted—Streets—Appraisements.

In surveying tide or shore lands of the first class the said harbor line commission shall have power to act, and it shall be their duty to lay out streets and alleys which shall thereby be dedicated to the public use, subject to the control of cities, with due regard to the convenience of commerce and navigation: Provided, that all alleys, streets, avenues, boulevards and other public thoroughfares heretofore located and platted on the tide or shore lands of the first class by boards of tide lands appraisers or the board of state land commissioners are hereby validated as public highways and dedicated to the use of the public for the purposes for which they were intended, and no improver, upland owner or other person shall have the right to buy the whole or any part of any such alley, street, avenue, boulevard or other thoroughfare. And in appraising said lands said commission shall appraise each lot, tract or piece of land separately, and shall enter in a well-bound book a description of the lot, tract or piece of land, its full appraised value, the area and the rate per acre at which it is appraised; and if said lot is covered in whole or in part by improvements in actual use for commerce, trade or business, on or prior to March 26, 1890, the said commission shall designate the owner of said improvements, of what they consist, the area of land covered by them, the portion of each lot, tract or piece of land and the appraised value of the land covered thereby with and exclusive of the improvements. [L. '95, p. 550, § 54; L. '97, p. 248, § 41.]

See infra, §§ 8966, 9034, first and second class cities may extend streets over.

See infra, §§ 9292, 9295, streets over are public highways.

§ 7965. [6747.] Plats of Shore and Tide Lands.

Said commission shall prepare plats showing all shore and tide lands surveyed and appraised by them in the respective counties, on which shall be marked the location of all such lands, extending the lines of United States survey over the same, and shall prepare and keep in a well-bound book a record of their proceedings, including a list of said shore and tide lands and their appraisal of the same, which plat and book shall be in duplicate. [L. '95, p. 551, § 55; L. '97, p. 249, § 42.]

§ 7966. [6748.] Plats, When Filed.

When the said commission shall have discharged their duties as aforesaid they shall deposit one copy of the plat and record as aforesaid with the county auditor in the respective counties, who shall file and safely keep the same in his office, and they shall deliver one copy of the plat and record to the commissioner of public lands. [L. '95, p. 551, § 56; L. '97, p. 249, § 43.]

§ 7967. [6749.] Notice of Filing—Appeal from Appraisement.

The harbor line commission shall, before delivering said plat and record to the commissioner of public lands, cause a notice to be inserted for a period of four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county wherein the lands are situate that said plat and record describing it is complete and subject to inspection at the office of the commission and will be filed on a certain day to be named in said notice. Any person claiming a preference right of purchase of any of said lands, and who feels aggrieved at the appraisement fixed by the commission upon said lands or any part thereof, may within sixty days after the filing of such plats and records by said commission (which shall be done on the day fixed in said notice) appeal from said appraisement to the superior court of the county in which said tide lands are situated. Said appeal shall be taken in the manner prescribed in section 1910, providing for appeals from justice courts. The prosecuting attorney of any county or city attorney wherein such lands are situated shall, at the request of the governor or of ten freeholders of the county wherein such lands are situated, appeal on behalf of the state from any appraisement as hereinbefore provided, which appeal shall be taken in the manner provided above. Notice of such appeal shall be served on the harbor line commission, whose duty it shall be to immediately notify all interested. The party other than the state or city appealing shall execute a bond to the opposite party with sufficient surety, to be approved by the state land commissioner in the sum of two hundred dollars conditioned for the payment of the costs of appeal. [L. '95, p. 551, § 57; L. '97, p. 249, § 44.]

§ 7968. [6750.] Rights of Abutting Owners, First Class Tide Lands.

The owner or owners of lands abutting or fronting upon the tide or shore lands of the first class shall have the right for sixty days following the filing of the final appraisal of the tide and shore lands with the commissioner of public lands to apply for the purchase of all or any part of the tide or shore lands in front of the land so owned: Provided, that if valuable improvements, and in actual use prior to March 26, 1890, for commerce, trade, residence or business have been made upon said tide or shore lands by any person, association, or corporation, the owner or owners of such improvements shall have the exclusive right to apply for the purchase of the land so improved for the period aforesaid. If at the expiration of sixty days from and after the filing of final appraisal with the commissioner of public lands there being no conflicting applications filed the applicant shall be deemed to have the right to purchase. If at the expiration of said sixty days two or more applications shall have been filed for any tract, conflicting with each other, the board of state land commissioners shall forthwith require each applicant, within a time stated, to submit under oath a full statement of the facts whereby he claims a preference right of purchase. In case any applicant shall fail within the time limited to file such statement he shall, unless good excuse be shown therefor, be deemed to have waived his claim to a right of purchase of the tract under his application. After such statements have been filed, if it be deemed advisable or necessary by the board of state land commissioners, in order to determine the rights of the parties applying for said tract, said board may order a hearing for such purpose. The board shall determine who has the first right of purchase to the whole or any portion of the lot or tract involved, and shall, unless an appeal be taken from the appraisal or finding to the superior court, proceed to sell or dispose of such lands in accordance with such finding. [L. '15, p. 414, § 8. Cf. L. '95, p. 552, § 58, and p. 553, § 61; L. '97, p. 250, § 45.]

§ 7974. [6756.] Preference Right of Abutting Owners, to Second Class Shore Lands.

The owner or owners of any upland bordering upon shore lands of the second class, shall have a preference right for the period of time hereinafter named, to purchase from the state of Washington such shore lands at the appraised value when the same shall have been appraised as hereinafter provided, together with the costs of sale and costs of application by whomsoever made: Provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to any shore lands set apart by legislative enactment, for a public road or boulevard, or for any public improvement or use. [L. '01, p. 366, § 1.]

“Act” in this section refers to §§ 7974—7978.

See notes to § 7968.

§ 7975. [6757.] Limitation of Right.

In cases where application to purchase any such land has already been made and is still pending undisposed of, such upland owner's preference right shall be exercised within sixty days from the taking effect of this act; and in all cases wherein application may be hereafter made such upland owner shall have thirty days from the time of making such application, if made by himself, or thirty days from the time of service upon him of notice of such application if made by another. [L. '01, p. 366, § 2.]

“Act” in this section refers to §§ 7974—7978.

§ 7976. [6758.] Sale on Market—Notice to Upland Owners.

The land commission whenever they shall deem it for the best interests of the state, may place any of said shore lands on the market for sale, without application therefor being first made, and in such case such upland owners or owner shall have notice and preference right for a period of thirty days, as above set forth. [L. '01, p. 366, § 3.]

§ 7977. [6759.] Reappraisement—Platting—Sale.

The land commission may have any part or all of the shore lands of the state reappraised, in the event that they shall deem the land to have been heretofore appraised of [at] more or less than its true value. They may also cause any of said shore lands to be platted, as is provided for the platting of shore lands of the first class, and when so platted such lands shall be disposed of as is provided by law for the sale and disposition of shore lands of the first class, except that the notice and preference right of purchase by the upland owner shall remain in force as provided in this act. [L. '01, p. 366, § 4.]

§ 7978. [6760.] Service of Notice on Upland Owner.

Service upon the upland owner, as hereinbefore provided, shall be made by the commissioner of public lands or by some citizen of the state by him appointed, by leaving with said upland owner the required notice, or if the upland owner be a nonresident of said state, by mailing to his last known postoffice address a copy of the required notice. If he be a nonresident and his address unknown to the land commissioner, notice to him shall not be necessary or required. [L. '01, p. 367, § 5.]

§ 7979. [6761.] Second Class, Price of.

All tide and shore lands other than first class shall be offered for sale and sold in the same manner as school and granted lands, and shall be sold at not less than five dollars per lineal chain, measured on the United States meander line bounding the inner shore limit of such tide or shore lands, and each applicant shall furnish a copy of the United States field-notes, certified to by the surveyor-general of the state of Washington, of said meander line, with his application, and shall pay one-tenth of the purchase price on the date of sale. [L. '97, p. 252, § 48; L. '99, p. 138, § 1.]

See §§ 7974—7978, supra, sale of second class lands, a later enactment, giving abutters preference.

§ 7980. [6762.] Separated from Uplands, Price and Survey—Applications.

Tide or shore lands of the second class which are separated from the upland by navigable waters, shall be sold at not less than five dollars per acre; the applicant, at his own expense, shall survey and cause to be filed with his application a plat of the surveys of the land applied for. Such surveys shall be connected with, and the plat shall show, two or more connections with the United States survey of the upland. The applicant shall also file the field-notes of the survey of said land with his application. The commissioner of public lands shall examine and attest the said plat and field-notes of survey, and if found incorrect or indefinite, he shall cause the same to be corrected or may reject the same and cause a new survey to be made. [L. '07, p. 750, § 4. Cf. L. '95, p. 556, §§ 65, 66, 67, 68; L. '97, p. 253, § 49.]

See supra, § 7968, and notes.

§ 7981. [6763.] Sold as Other Granted Lands—Appeals.

All tide and shore lands except as herein expressly provided shall be sold upon the terms provided for the sale of school and granted lands, and within twenty days after the expiration of the sixty days limited in which to file applications for the purchase of tide and shore lands the applicant shall pay to the commissioner of public lands one-tenth of the purchase price thereof, and thereupon the purchaser shall enter into a contract with the state as provided for the sale of school, granted and other lands of this act: Provided, that any accretions that may be added to any tract or tracts of tide or shore lands heretofore sold or that may hereafter be sold by the state shall belong to the state, and shall not be sold or offered for sale until the said accretions shall have been first surveyed and platted under the direction of the commissioner of public lands, and the adjacent owner shall have the preference right to purchase said lands for thirty days after the same shall be offered for sale: Provided, further, that where an appeal is taken the purchaser shall in all cases have twenty days from the day on which the final judgment of the superior court is certified to and filed with the commissioner of public lands in which to make said payment and enter into said contract: And provided further, that in case different persons make application to purchase a lot, tract or piece of tide or shore land within sixty days and no appeal is taken from the determination of the commission as to which person has the first right to purchase, then the findings of the commission shall be final and the successful applicant shall have thirty days from the time when served with notice of such finding, which notice shall be served by mailing a registered letter addressed to the party at his address, which shall be stated in the application to purchase. [L. '99, p. 132, § 1. Cf. L. '95, p. 561, § 81; L. '97, p. 253, § 51.]

The state has power to dispose of and invest private persons with the ownership of tide lands, subject only to the paramount rights of navigation and the uses of commerce: Sequim Bay Canning Co. v. Bugge, 49 Wash. 127, 94 Pac. 922, 16 Ann. Cas. 196.

§ 7982. [6764.] Leased as Other Granted Lands—Conditions.

Tide and shore lands which have not been sold, and for which applications to purchase have not been theretofore filed and are pending, may be leased in the same manner as provided for the lease of school and granted lands: Provided, that when application is made for the lease of tide or shore lands of the second class, adjacent to upland, the same shall be leased per lineal chain frontage, and the United States field-notes of the meander line shall accompany each application as required for the sale of such lands: And provided further, when such lands are separated from the upland by navigable waters each application shall be accompanied by the plant and field-notes of survey of such land applied for as required when making application for the purchase of such lands: And provided further, that tide lands may be leased for a period not to exceed thirty years. [L. '97, p. 253, § 50; L. '99, p. 139, § 2.]

Leasing of school and granted lands: See chapter VII of this title, § 7880 et seq.

§ 7983. [6765.] Validation of Former Leases.

Any and all leases heretofore issued to any owner or owners under deed or contract of tide or shore land abutting on harbor area of the state of Washington are hereby validated, ratified and affirmed, provided this act shall not affect vested or existing rights. [L. '01, p. 294, § 1.]

Adapted, and relates only to leases of the right to build and maintain wharves, docks and other structures. The first part of this section gave a preference right which has expired by limitation.

§ 7984. [6766.] Appraisal of Improvements.

Should any present or future lessee of tidelands of the state of Washington, or any owner or holder of such leases, fail to exercise the preference right of purchase from the state, of the tidelands covered by any lease within the time prescribed by any existing law, or any law which may hereafter be enacted, then and in that event, the board of state land commissioners shall appraise and determine the value of all improvements then existing upon such property, including the cost of filling and raising said property above high tide, whether filled in or raised above high tide, by such lessee or owner of such lease, or by virtue of any contract made with the state of Washington, and also including the then value to the land of all existing local improvements, paid for by such lessee or owner of such lease. [L. '05, p. 353, § 1.]

See notes to § 7968, rights of improvers.

Cited in 75 Wash. 120.

§ 7985. [6767.] Payment for Improvements by Subsequent Purchaser or Lessee.

Should such tide lands be relet or sold to any person, persons or corporation other than such lessee or owner of such lease, the bid of such subsequent lessee or purchaser shall not be accepted until the payment by such subsequent lessee or purchaser to the owner of such former lease, the appraised and fixed value of such improvements aforesaid, as determined by said board of state land commissioners, or as may be determined upon appeal, and said board is authorized to compel by subpoena the attendance, swear and examine witnesses to such values. [L. '05, p. 354, § 2.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 120.

§ 7986. [6768.] Appeal from Appraisement.

Should the owner and holder of such lease be dissatisfied with the appraised value of such improvements as fixed or determined by said board of state land commissioners, he or it may appeal to the superior court of the county wherein said property is located, within the time and according to the mode prescribed by law relating to appeals, from the board of state land commissioners to the superior court. [L. '05, p. 354, § 3.]

§ 7987. [6768-1.] Relief of Purchasers of Tide Lands on Columbia River.

All persons, firms or corporations to whom the state of Washington has sold, contracted to sell or deeded tide lands along the Columbia River, which said tide lands are located within the state of Oregon and for which contracts or deeds have been issued therefor without right or authority and which convey no right, title or interest in and to said tide lands, because such tide lands were situated within the state of Oregon, and all persons, firms or corporations claiming an interest in said tide lands under and by virtue of any such sale, contract or deed of the state of Washington shall, upon the terms and conditions and in the manner hereinafter provided, be entitled to such relief as is provided for in the following section of this act. [L. '15, p. 401, § 1.]

§ 7988. [6768-2.] Application for Repayment.

Any such person, firm or corporation holding a contract of sale or deed from the state of Washington for any tide lands located within the state of Oregon, or the assigns or the successors in interest of any such person, firm or corporation claiming or asserting any right by, through or under any such contract or deed, may file with the commissioner of public lands an application for the repayment to such person, firm or corporation of all the moneys paid to the state of Washington pursuant to the provisions of any such sale, contract or deed. Such application shall set forth the name of the person, firm or corporation demanding the relief herein provided for, an itemized statement of the moneys paid to the state of Washington under and by virtue of any such sale, contract or deed, a description of the tide lands sold or described in any such contract or deed, the date thereof and such other and further information as the commissioner of public lands may require. The applicant shall attach to such application a complete abstract of title of such tide lands, together with a copy of the contract or deed issued by the state of Washington and under and by virtue of which the relief is applied for, together with a waiver of any and all claims of any nature whatsoever against the state of Washington that such applicant may have by reason of any such sale, contract or deed. Such waiver shall be in such form as the commissioner of public lands shall prescribe. [L. '15, p. 401, § 2.]

§ 7989. [6768-3.] Examination by Land Commissioner—Filing Certificate.

Upon the filing of any such application and papers thereto attached, as above provided, the commissioner of public lands shall examine the same. He shall also examine and compare the records and files of his office, and if after such examination of the application and the papers thereto attached, together with the records of his office relating thereto, he shall be fully satisfied that the lands sold or conveyed do not lie within the state of Washington, but are situated within the state of Oregon, and if he shall be satisfied that the person, firm or corporation presenting such application is the holder of any such contract or deed, or has succeeded to the rights of those to whom such contract or deed was issued, and are entitled to the relief demanded, he shall prepare a certificate setting forth such facts together with a description of the tide lands, the number of the contract or deed, the date thereof, the amount of moneys received by the state under and by virtue of such contract or deed and file the same with the state auditor: Provided, that the commissioner's refusal to issue a certificate as herein provided shall be final and conclusive and not subject to review. [L. '15, p. 402, § 3.]

§ 7990. [6768-4.] Issuance of Warrants.

The state auditor shall, when such a certificate is filed in his office by the commissioner of public lands, as provided for in the preceding section, draw a warrant in favor of the applicant, as shown by the certificate of the commissioner of public lands and in the amount as set forth in such certificate payable to such applicant, and deliver the same to the commissioner of public lands, who shall in turn deliver the same to the applicant, taking his receipt therefor. Such receipt and the waiver heretofore provided for shall be attached together and filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands. [L. '15, p. 402, § 4.]

§ 7991. Treasurer's Statement of Promissory Notes.

The state treasurer is hereby directed to prepare and transmit to the commissioner of public lands a statement and certificate showing any and all promissory notes now in his possession and unpaid, which were received by him in payment of the purchase price of state tide lands under the act of the legislature approved March 26, 1890; said statement and certificate shall show the amounts and dates of any payments on such notes. [L. '21, p. 172, § 1.]

§ 7992. Cancellation of Certificates of Purchase.

If, upon receipt of such statement and certificate from the state treasurer, it shall appear that any tide land certificate of purchase, issued under the provisions of said act of March 26, 1890, or any promissory note given in payment of said certificate, has not been paid, such certificate is hereby canceled and the commissioner of public lands is hereby authorized and directed to cancel such certificates on his records, and thereafter any tide lands embraced in such certificate shall be and become subject to sale or lease as other tide lands of the state. [L. '21, p. 172, § 2.]

§ 7993. Cancellation of Notes.

Upon cancellation of any certificate for the purchase of tide-lands, as herein provided, for which any promissory notes have been given and which notes are in possession of the state treasurer, the commissioner of public lands shall notify the state treasurer of such cancellation and the date thereof, and the state treasurer shall thereupon indorse upon any note given in payment of such certificate the fact of such cancellation and the date thereof under the provisions of this act. [L. '21, p. 173, § 3.]

CHAPTER XIII.HARBOR LINES AND AREAS, SALES AND LEASES THEREOF.

Waterways, across tide lands: See infra, §§ 9593—9612.

River and harbor improvement: See infra, §§ 9669—9686.

§ 7994. [6769.] Establishment of Harbor Lines and Areas.

It shall be the duty of the harbor line commission to establish harbor lines and harbor areas in front of incorporated cities and towns where no harbor lines and harbor areas shall have theretofore been established, and the said commission shall have power, whenever in the opinion of said commission it shall be necessary, to lengthen or to extend any such areas now existing or which may hereafter be existing in front of any city or town, all as is provided for in Article XV of the Constitution of the state. [L. '07, p. 738, § 1.]

See supra, § 7797, state board of land commissioners constitutes the "harbor line commission."

Cited in 93 Wash. 137.

§ 7995. [6770.] Platting and Appraisement of Unsold Tide Lands.

Whenever any harbor lines or harbor areas shall have been established as is provided for in the preceding section it shall be the duty of said commission to plat and appraise any unsold and unplatted tide or shore lands lying between said harbor area and the adjacent upland. [L. '07, p. 738, § 2.]

§ 7996. [6771.] Filing of Plats by Commission.

Said commission shall have authority to file any plat of any harbor area or any plat and the appraisements thereto belonging of any tide or shore lands in sections or as rapidly as the work of platting and appraising may progress whenever said commission shall deem it expedient so to do. [L. '07, p. 738, § 3.]

§ 7997. [6772.] Preference Right, of Abutting Owners, to Purchase.

The owner of any land abutting and fronting upon such tide or shore land shall have the right for sixty days following the filing of the final appraisal of the tide and shore lands with the commissioner of public lands to apply for the purchase of the lands fronting and abutting the land so owned, in the manner provided by the general law of the state governing the contract and sale of tide or shore lands of the first class. [L. '07, p. 739, § 4.]

§ 7998. [6773.] Preference Right, of Abutting Owners, to Lease.

The owner of any land shall have a preference right to lease the harbor area lying in front of his, her or its land, according to the then existing laws of the state: Provided, that such owner shall, within one year after said commission shall have acted as hereinabove provided, apply in writing to said commission, for the right to lease said harbor area: Provided further, that said commission may extend the time in which said applications may be made: And provided further, that if within said year any other person than the said owner shall apply for said harbor area, the commissioner of public lands shall notify said owner of the pendency of said application, and said owner shall be allowed sixty days from the date of the service of the said notice, within which to exercise the preference right herein granted. If said owner be an actual resident of this state, notice shall be served upon him personally; and if he be not a resident of this state, said notice shall be sent to him by mail to his last known address; and if the address of said nonresident be not known to the said commissioner, no notice shall be required. [L. '07, p. 739, § 5.]

§ 7999. [6774.] Harbor Line Areas, How Utilized.

The board of state land commissioners shall have power to lease the right to build and maintain wharves, docks, and other structures upon the harbor areas laid out or which shall hereafter be laid out in pursuance of the provisions of Article XV of the Constitution of the state of Washington for such rental and under such general rules as said board shall prescribe, except in so far as the same are or may be prescribed by law; but no such lease shall be made for any term longer than thirty years. The rental fixed and reserved to the state of Washington in each such lease shall be such sum as said board shall fix. Said board shall require of each such lessee a bond with sufficient surety, to be approved by the commissioner of public lands, in such penalty, and not exceeding twice the amount of the annual rental, but in no case less than five hundred dollars, as may be prescribed by the board, conditioned for the payment by the lessee of the rental reserved in his lease at or prior to the time of payment therein specified, during the term of such lease or during such part thereof as the board in its discretion shall require to be covered by such bond; and in case only a part of the term of such lease shall be covered thereby, said board shall require of such lessee another like bond, to be executed and delivered within three months and not less than one month prior to the expiration of the period covered by the previous bond, covering the remainder of the term of the lease, or such part thereof as the board in its discretion shall require to be covered thereby. The board shall have power at any time to summon sureties upon any bond and to examine into the sufficiency thereof, and if it shall find that the same be insufficient it shall require the lessee to file a new and sufficient bond within thirty days after receiving notice so to do, under penalty of cancellation of the lease; and the board shall have the power to cancel any lease for a substantial breach by the lessee of any of the conditions thereof, or for lack of a bond therewith as herein required. The application for or the making or acceptance of any lease herein authorized shall not work any estoppel against either party thereto or against those in priority with either party as to any right or claim which might otherwise be made or contested. Any holder of any lease made prior to and in full force on the first day of March, 1899, who has theretofore fully complied with all the requirements of law relative to such leases, but no other person, shall be entitled upon making application therefor to said board to have the rental reserved by his lease adjusted in conformity with the provisions of this section; but such adjustment shall not apply to any rental previously paid or accrued. If the person, association or corporation having the preference right to lease any part of such harbor area has not exercised or shall not exercise such right within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by said board, in its rules and regulations, then said board whenever it shall deem it advisable that such part should be leased shall give thirty days' notice by publication that a lease of such part of such harbor area for such rental and under such general rules within the limitations of this section as said board shall have prescribed will be sold, at a time and place to be specified in said notices, to the person, association or corporation offering at such public sale to pay to the state the highest sum as a cash bonus for such lease; and upon the giving of such notices such lease shall be sold and made and delivered, accordingly, the payment of the sum offered by the successful bidder being required at the time of such sale. All the rentals derived from the leases herein authorized shall be paid into the state treasury under such regulations as said board may prescribe, and shall constitute a harbor fund to be used as the legislature may direct. Notwithstanding any such lease now or hereafter existing, the state shall ever retain and does hereby reserve the right to regulate the rates of wharfage, dockage or other tolls to be imposed by the lessee or his assigns upon commerce for any of the purposes for which the leased area may be used, and the right to prevent extortion and discrimination in such use thereof. [L. '07, p. 755, § 8. Cf. L. '95, p. 563, § 84; L. '97, p. 255, § 53; L. '99, p. 225, § 1.]

§ 8000. [6774-1.*] Application by Lessee for Re-lease — Deposit Fee — Surety Bond.

Upon the expiration of any lease of harbor area heretofore or hereafter executed, if the lessee desires to re-lease the harbor area covered by such lease, he may make application therefor to the board of state land commissioners for a re-lease of such harbor area. Such application shall be made within thirty days after the expiration of such lease and shall be in writing and under oath, setting forth the character and value of all improvements existing on the harbor area, the name and postoffice address of the owner thereof, the purpose for which he desires to re-lease the harbor area, the amount considered by such lessee as the reasonable annual rental value thereof, and such other and further information as the board of state land commissioners may require. Said application shall be accompanied by a deposit of ten dollars ($10), which deposit, if the said harbor area be not leased through the failure or refusal of the applicant to accept a lease at the rate fixed by the board of state land commissioners, shall be forfeited to the state and paid to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund of the state. The board of state land commissioners may, upon the filing of such an application, cause the harbor area applied for to be inspected and a careful investigation of such application made; and if said board shall deem it for the best interests of the state, it may issue to said applicant a re-lease of said harbor area upon such terms and conditions conforming to the provisions of the Constitution of the state of Washington as shall be determined upon by said board: Provided, that every such lessee shall be required to furnish a surety bond as is now provided for in cases of leases of harbor area authorized and executed by said board: And provided further, that this act shall not be construed as affecting or relating to the power and authority of port commissions to lease harbor areas belonging to the state of Washington within the territorial limits of port districts. [L. '17, p. 606, § 11. Cf. L. '15, p. 399, § 1.]

§ 8001. [6775.] Abutting Holder's Preference Right to Lease.

In leasing harbor line areas the owner or lessee of the tide or shore lands abutting the portion of the harbor line area sought to be leased shall have a preference right to lease said areas under the conditions prescribed in section 7999. [L. '95, p. 565, § 85; L. '97, p. 257, § 54.]

This section expired, by limitation, under L. '01, p. 294, § 1; and, also, it is stated, by rule of the board made pursuant to section 7999 in so far as existing harbor areas are concerned. As to harbor areas hereafter laid out or extended, it seems to be superseded or covered by § 7998, supra.

Cited in 54 Wash. 537.

§ 8002. [6776.*] Leasing of Harbor Areas for Booming Purposes.

That the board of state land commissioners be and hereby is authorized to lease any harbor area, tide lands or other lands of the state of Washington, whether the same be now reserved from lease or sale by any existing act or not, except tidelands or harbor area in front of any incorporated city or town or within two miles thereof on either side, and excepting any oyster reserve containing oysters in merchantable quantities, to any person, firm or corporation, for booming purposes. Such leases shall not be granted for a longer term than ten years from the date thereof; and the board of state land commissioners shall prior to the issuance of any such lease fix an annual rental for the lands leased, and prescribe the terms and conditions of the lease. The board may declare a forfeiture of any lease for a violation of any of the terms or conditions thereof. Any person, firm or corporation leasing any lands under the provisions of this act shall receive, hold and assort the logs and other timber products of all persons requesting such service, and upon the same terms and without discrimination, and may charge and collect tolls on all logs or other timber products so handled, said tolls not to exceed seventy-five cents per thousand on all logs, spars or other large timber, and reasonable rates on all other timber products, and shall be subject to the same duties and liabilities, so far as the same are applicable, as are imposed upon boom companies organized under the laws of this state. Failure to use any lands leased under the provisions of this act for boom purposes for a period of more than one year shall work a forfeiture of the lease, and such lands shall revert to the state without any notice or declaration of forfeiture. At the expiration of any lease issued under the provisions of this act, the original lessee shall have the preference right to re-lease the lands covered by his original lease for a further term, not to exceed ten years, at such rental and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the board of state land commissioners. [L. '17, p. 607, § 12; L. '11, p. 388, § 1. Cf. L. '07, p. 575, § 1.]

§ 8003. Sale of Material on State Lands for Highway Construction.

Any county, city or town desiring to purchase any stone, rock, gravel or sand upon any of the public lands of the state, including tide and shore lands, to be used in the construction, maintenance or repair of any public street, road or highway within such county, city or town, may file with the board of state land commissioners an application for the purchase thereof, as hereinafter provided. Such application shall set forth the quantity and kind of material which the said county, city or town desires to purchase, the location thereof and the street, road or highway upon which the same is to be used. The board of state land commissioners upon the receipt of such an application is authorized to sell said material in such manner and upon such terms as they deem advisable and for the best interests of the state: Provided, however, that such material shall in no case be sold for less than the fair market value thereof. [L. '17, p. 608, § 13.]

§ 8004. Leasing of First Class Tide and Shore Lands for Booming Purposes.

The commissioner of public lands is hereby authorized to lease to the abutting upland owner any unplatted tide or shore lands within or in front of the limits of any incorporated city or town, or within two miles thereof on either side: Provided, that any such unplatted tide or shore lands, for which no application to lease has been filed by the upland owner, may be leased to any person, firm or corporation for booming purposes: Provided, further, that no upland tide or shore lands situated in front of improved upland occupied for residential purposes shall be leased for booming purposes. [L. '21, p. 377, § 1.]

§ 8005. Term and Termination of Lease.

Any lease under this act shall not be granted for a longer term than ten (10) years from the date thereof and shall be subject to termination upon a ninety (90) day notice in the event that the commissioner of public lands shall decide that said tide or shore lands are to be surveyed and platted. The commissioner of public lands shall, prior to the issuance of any such lease, fix an annual rental for the lands so leased and prescribe the terms and conditions of said lease. Failure to use any such lands leased for booming purposes under the provisions of this act, for booming purposes, for a period of more than one (1) year shall work a forfeiture of such lease and such land shall revert to the state without any notice or declaration of forfeiture. [L. '21, p. 378, § 2.]

§ 8006. [6777.] Power to Relocate Inner Harbor Lines.

Whenever it appears that the inner line of any harbor areas heretofore located has been so established as to overlap or fall inside of the government meander line, or for any other good cause, said commission is empowered to relocate and re-establish said inner line so erroneously established and outside of said meander line, and said inner line so re-established and relocated may be sold as other tide lands of like class in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. And any owner of upland having improvements situated on the tide lands in front of and abutting on said upland, not being tide lands of the first class, shall have a preference right to purchase said tide lands at five dollars per lineal chain measure along the United States meander line until July 1, 1897, whether applications have been filed or contests exist therefor or not: Provided, that this act shall not apply to tide lands sold or conveyed by contracts or patents already issued. [Cf. L. '95, p. 565, § 87; L. '97, p. 257, § 55.]

See infra, §§ 9593—9600, public ways to harbors.

See infra, §§ 9613—9616, erection of wharves, and notes.

§ 8007. [6778.] Harbor Area Improvements Exempt from Taxation, When.

When improvements have been made on tide lands or lands under water in front of towns or cities, prior to the location of harbor lines in such towns or cities, by the state board of harbor line commissioners, and the reserved harbor area as located includes such improvements, no distraint or sale of such improvements for taxes shall be had until six months after said lands shall have been leased or offered for lease from or by such board, as shall be authorized by law to execute leases of tracts embraced within the reserved harbor area of the state: Provided, that this act shall not apply to any tract or tracts that said board shall decide not to lease or otherwise dispose of, and shall not affect or impair the lien for taxes on said improvements. [L. '97, p. 260, § 61.]

§ 8008. [6779.] Power to Expend Improvement Fund.

Said harbor line commission shall have full power and authority to expend the moneys appropriated under an act entitled "An act relating to the improvement of harbors and waterways of the state of Washington," approved March 10, 1891; and all powers vested by the act last mentioned in the harbor line commission therein mentioned are hereby transferred in and devolved upon said harbor line commission provided for in this chapter, hereby created, and said commission is hereby authorized to draw warrants upon the state treasurer against the harbor improvement fund of the proper city for the amounts of all expenditures made by them in the improvement of harbors in pursuance of said act last mentioned, or of any law in force for the time being, and are hereby vested with all powers and authority necessary to carry into effect the full intent and purpose of said act, and of all provisions of law relative to the improvement or leasing of harbor areas; and the necessary and actual expenses of the said commission or any of its members in discharge of such duties, whether for traveling expenses or for materials, or for clerical, expert or other assistance, shall be audited by the state auditor on properly authenticated vouchers, and paid by the state treasurer on the warrant of the said auditor out of said harbor improvement fund. [L. '95, p. 566, § 90; L. '97, p. 258, § 57.]

See note to § 7994, harbor line commission.

The act creating the improvement fund mentioned is superseded by § 5509, supra. This section is, accordingly, obsolete, except perhaps as to the general authority conferred respecting the leasing of harbor areas, and to expenses connected therewith.

§ 8009. [6780.] Sales and Deeds of Street Extensions to be Canceled.

Whereas, the board of state land commissioners has heretofore received and considered applications for, and has issued contracts or deeds purporting to convey to private persons or corporations certain lots platted on the tideland areas within the harbors of cities of the first class, which said lots are in reality legally established projections or extensions of public streets within the corporate limits and along or across the harbor areas of such cities, which said projections and extensions were duly made by said cities in pursuance of the act of March 24, 1890, relating to the charters of cities of twenty thousand inhabitants and upwards, therefore, the board of state land commissioners is hereby instructed to cancel all deeds or contracts, and to reject all applications covering any such street extensions or projections which are not duly vacated, refunding all moneys paid thereon, and no sale or grant of any land included within the limits of any such street shall hereafter be made unless and until the same shall be duly vacated or disestablished by the authorities of such city. The state auditor is hereby authorized to draw such warrants upon the tidelands fund as are necessary to carry out the provisions hereof. [L. '97, p. 30, § 1.]

This section has no application to a contract made subsequently to the legal vacation of such streets: Henry v. Seattle, 42 Wash 420, 85 Pac. 24.

§ 8010. [6781.] Successor of State Board shall Act.

The powers hereby conferred and duties imposed upon the board of state land commissioners shall be possessed and exercised by any other board or officer who may hereafter succeed to the jurisdiction and powers, in respect to tide lands, now possessed by the state board of land commissioners. [L. '97, p. 31, § 2.]

§ 8011. [6781-1.] Lease by Port Commission.

The port commission of each port district heretofore created or hereafter to be created under the laws of the state of Washington, shall have full power and authority to lease the harbor areas and tide lands belonging to the state of Washington situate within the territorial limits of such port district to such persons and upon such terms and conditions conforming to the provisions of the Constitution of the state of Washington as shall be determined by resolution of such port commission. Every such lease shall provide that the rentals thereunder shall be payable to the state treasurer. [L. '13, p. 585, § 1.]

§ 8012. [6781-2.] Preference Rights to Abutting Owners.

The owner of any tide or shore lands abutting any such harbor area shall have the preference right, to be exercised by written application filed within ninety (90) days following the filing of the plat of any tide or shore lands hereafter to be filed, covering tide or shore lands or harbor area within the limits of any port district, or in case of plats heretofore filed, then within ninety (90) days following the taking effect of this act, to obtain a lease of the harbor area abutting his tide land or shore land for a thirty (30) year period, and every lease obtained by virtue of the exercise of such preference right shall conform to the provisions of the state Constitution and shall provide that the harbor area described therein, or such a reasonable portion thereof as shall be designated by the port commission of such port district, having in view the requirements of the business proposed to be carried on thereon, shall be improved upon plans approved by such port commission, the construction of such improvement to be commenced within such time as may be fixed in each case by such port commission, such time to be in no case less than two (2) years from the date of such lease and be completed within such reasonable time thereafter as such port commission shall fix in each case, any of which times so fixed may be thereafter extended by such commission, the character of which improvements may, with the approval of the port commission, be changed either before or after completion, but in all cases where the abutting owner or one claiming under him had prior to February 22, 1913, built upon such area, his improvements shall, so far as otherwise conforming to the provisions of the state Constitution, be recognized and accepted as a sufficient compliance with the requirements of this act so far as concerns the area covered thereby, and as to uncovered area such improvements shall be given the same consideration as in other cases, and every lease obtained by virtue of such preference shall further provide that the annual rental to be paid shall be a sum equal to two per cent of the assessed valuation for the year preceding the date of such lease of an equal area of adjoining or abutting shore or tide lands, exclusive of improvements thereon, and where the adjoining or abutting strip of shore or tide lands is of less width than the harbor area, a value proportional to said width: Provided further, however, that the foregoing provision fixing the rate of rental shall not extend beyond December 31, 1928, but all rentals after that date shall be subject to be controlled and fixed in the manner and by the public authority or authorities then provided by law for the same: Provided, further, that it shall not be necessary for any public corporation proposing to make use of any such harbor area to acquire by condemnation or otherwise the preference right hereby granted relating thereto, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any party to any such condemnation proceeding of any damages to which he would have been entitled if this act had not been passed. [L. '13, p. 585, § 2.]

§ 8013. [6781-3.] Bond of Lessee—Rates.

The port commission shall require of every lessee under this act a bond with sufficient surety, to be approved by the port commission, in such penalty, and not exceeding twice the amount of the annual rental, but in no case less than five hundred dollars, as may be prescribed by the port commission, conditioned for the payment by the lessee of the rental reserved in his lease at or prior to the time of payment therein specified, during the term of such lease or during such part thereof as the port commission in its discretion shall require to be covered by such bond; and in case only a part of the term of such lease shall be covered thereby, said port commission shall require of such lessee another like bond, to be executed and delivered within three months and not less than one month prior to the expiration of the period covered by the previous bond, covering the remainder of the term of the lease, or such part thereof as the port commission in its discretion shall require to be covered thereby. The port commission shall have power at any time to summon sureties upon any bond and to examine into the sufficiency thereof, and if it shall find the same to be insufficient it shall require the lessee to file a new and sufficient bond within thirty days after receiving notice so to do, under penalty of cancellation of the lease; and the port commission shall have power upon sixty days' notice to cancel any lease for a substantial breach by the lessee of any of the conditions thereof, or for lack of a bond therewith as herein required. Notwithstanding any such lease now or hereafter existing the state shall ever retain and does hereby reserve the right to regulate the rates of wharfage, dockage or other tolls to be imposed by the lessee or his assigns upon commerce for any of the purposes for which the leased area may be used, and the right to prevent extortion and discrimination in such use thereof. [L. '13, p. 587, § 3.]

§ 8014. [6781-4.] Preference Right to Re-lease.

The lessee under any lease now existing of harbor area situate in a port district, which shall be canceled or annulled for any reason, shall, upon each cancellation or annulment, have, ninety (90) days thereafter, a preference right to a new lease, for the remainder of the term of the lease canceled or annulled, upon the terms and conditions provided in sections 8012 and 8013, but in all cases where any canceled or annulled lease contained provisions relating to the right of the state to annul or cancel the same, like provisions shall be incorporated in any new lease covering in whole or in part the same area. [L. '13, p. 588, § 4.]

§ 8015. [6781-5.] Preference Rights Annulled.

All preferences of lease of harbor areas or tidelands situate in a port district heretofore created by the laws of the state of Washington, which have not been already exercised are hereby annulled. [L. '13, p. 588, § 5.]

§ 8016. [6781-6.] Rentals from Harbor Areas and Tide Lands.

That the rents hereinafter to be paid under existing or future leases of harbor areas and also of tidelands belonging to the state of Washington, shall be hereafter disposed of as follows:

In cases where the leased harbor area or tide land is situated within the territorial limits of a port district already created or to be hereafter created under the laws of the state of Washington, seventy-five (75) per cent of the rents received for such cases shall be paid by the state treasurer to the county treasurer of the county wherein such port district is situated for the use of such port district and go into a special fund to be expended only for harbor or waterfront improvement purposes and the remaining twenty-five (25) per cent, shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury; except that in cases where the port district itself shall have constructed or shall own structures or improvements situate upon leased harbor areas, or tide lands, the entire rentals of such improved area or tide land shall go to such port district. In all other cases seventy-five (75) per cent of the rents shall be paid by the state treasurer into the county treasury of the county in which the leased harbor areas or tidelands are situate, the same to go into a special fund known as the "harbor improvement fund," and to be disbursed only for harbor or harbor improvement purposes; and the remaining twenty-five (25) per cent shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury. The state treasurer being hereby authorized and directed to make such payments to the respective county treasurers for the use of such port districts or counties, as the case may be, on the first days of July and January of each year, of all moneys in his hands on such dates payable under the terms of this act to such port districts and counties respectively. [L. '13, p. 588, § 1.]

§ 8017. [6781-7.] Use of Harbor Area—Structures Built by Permission of Land Commissioners—Terms and Conditions.

Whenever, in any waterways created under the laws of the state of Washington, the government of the United States shall have established pierhead lines in said waterway at any distance from the boundaries thereof established by the state, no structure shall be allowed in the strip of waterway between the boundary and the nearest pierhead line except by the consent of the state land commissioner and upon plans approved and terms and conditions fixed by him, and then only for such period of use as shall be designated by him, but any permit shall not extend for a longer period than thirty (30) years: Provided, however, that the owner of land abutting upon either side of any such waterway shall have the right, if application be made therefor within a period of ninety (90) days following the date when this act shall go into effect, to obtain such a permit for a thirty (30) year term and every permit obtained by virtue of the exercise of such right shall provide that the area described therein or such reasonable portion thereof as shall be designated by the state land commissioner, having in view the requirements of the business proposed to be carried on thereon, shall be improved upon plans approved by the state land commissioner, the construction of such improvements to be commenced within such time as may be fixed in each case by the state land commissioner, such time to be in no case less than two (2) years from the date of such permit, to be completed within such reasonable time thereafter as the state land commissioner shall fix in each case, any of which times so fixed may be thereafter extended by him, the character of which improvements may be changed either before or after completion with the consent of the state land commissioner, but in all cases where the abutting owner or one claiming under him had prior to February 22, 1913, built upon such area, his improvements shall be recognized and accepted as a sufficient compliance with the requirements of this act so far as concerns the area covered thereby, and as to uncovered area such improvements shall be given the same consideration as in other cases, and every permit obtained by virtue of the exercise of such right shall further provide that the annual rental to be paid shall be a sum equal to two per cent of the assessed valuation for the year preceding the date of such permit of an equal area of adjoining or abutting shore or tidelands, exclusive of improvements thereon, and where the adjoining or abutting strip of shore or tidelands is of less width than the harbor area, a value proportional to said width: Provided further, however, that the foregoing provision fixing the rate of rental shall not extend beyond December 31, 1928, but all rentals after that date shall be subject to be controlled and fixed in the manner and by the public authority or authorities then provided by law for the same: Provided further, that it shall not be necessary for any public corporation proposing to make use of any such strip of waterway to acquire by condemnation or otherwise the right hereby granted relating thereto, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any party to any such condemnation proceeding of any damages to which he would have been entitled if this act had not been passed. The state land commissioner shall require of the holder of every permit under this act a bond with sufficient surety, to be approved by said commissioner, in such penalty, and not exceeding twice the amount of the annual rental, but in no case less than five hundred dollars, as may be prescribed by said commissioner, conditioned for the payment of the rental reserved in the permit at or prior to the time of payment therein specified, during the term of such permit or during such part thereof as said commissioner in his discretion shall require to be covered by such bond; and in case only a part of the term of such permit shall be covered thereby, said commissioner shall require another like bond, to be executed and delivered within three months and not less than one month prior to the expiration of the period covered by the previous bond, covering the remainder of the term of the permit, or such part thereof as said commissioner in his discretion shall require to be covered thereby. The said commissioner shall have power at any time to summon sureties upon any bond and to examine into the sufficiency thereof, and if he shall find the same to be insufficient he shall require the holder of the permit to file a new and sufficient bond within thirty days after receiving notice so to do, under penalty of cancellation of the permit; and the said commissioner shall have power upon sixty days' notice to cancel any permit for a substantial breach by the holder thereof of any of the conditions thereof, or for lack of a bond therewith as herein required. In any case where such waterway shall be within the territorial limits of a port district organized under the laws of the state of Washington, the duties herein assigned to the state land commissioner shall be exercised by the port commission of such port district, and in every case the rentals received shall be disposed of as follows: Seventy-five (75) per cent shall be paid by the state treasurer to the county treasurer of the county wherein such port district is situated, for the use of said port district and twenty-five (25) per cent, into the state treasury, except that in cases where the port district itself shall have constructed or shall own structures or improvements situate upon such strip of waterway the entire rentals for such improved strip of waterway shall be paid directly to such county treasurer for the use of such port district. Nothing herein contained shall confer upon, create or recognize in any abutting owner any right or privilege in or to any strip of waterway abutting any street and between prolongations of the lines of such street, but the control of and the right to use such strip is hereby reserved to the state of Washington, except that in cases situate in a port district such control and use shall vest in such port district. [L. '13, p. 582, § 1.]

CHAPTER XIV.

LEASING MINERAL LANDS.

§ 8018. [6782.*] Empowering Commissioner to Lease.

The commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington is hereby authorized to execute leases and contracts for the mining of gold, silver, copper, lead, cinnabar or other valuable minerals, except coal, from any land now belonging to the state or from any lands to which the state may hereafter acquire title, subject to the conditions hereinafter provided. [L. '17, p. 599, § 1; L. '15, p. 440, § 1. Cf. L. '97, p. 293, § 1.]

See supra, § 7880 et seq., leasing of school and granted lands.

Cited in 104 Wash. 81; 108 Wash. 672.

§ 8019. [6782-1.] Validation of Existing Leases.

That leases and contracts heretofore entered into and executed by the commissioner of public lands for the mining of gold, silver, copper, lead, cinnabar or other valuable minerals except coal, from tide or shore lands be and the same are hereby validated. [L. '15, p. 441, § 2.]

§ 8020. [6783.*] Prospecting Leases.

Any citizen of the United States finding precious minerals upon any lands now or hereafter belonging to the state of Washington, may apply to the commissioner of public lands for a lease of any amount not exceeding eighty acres, for prospecting purposes, such application to be made by legal subdivisions according to the public land surveys. [L. '17, p. 599, § 2. L. '97, p. 293, § 2; L. '01, p. 313, § 1.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 243; 104 Wash. 81, 83.

This section leaves no discretion in the commissioner of public lands where the law has been complied with: State ex rel. Pindall v. Ross, 55 Wash. 242, 104 Pac. 216.

The commissioner of public lands is not limited in the execution of leases of state mineral lands, for prospecting purposes, to the government legal subdivisions of a section: State ex rel. Pindall v. Ross, 55 Wash. 242, 104 Pac. 216.

The amendment of 1917 impliedly repeals other provisions of the law requiring as a condition precedent to a lease that the applicant set corner posts and post location notices as required for the location of mineral claims on the public domain: State ex rel. Sims v. Savidge, 104 Wash. 79, 175 Pac. 568.

The commissioner has no discretion to reserve to the state the timber and other materials except those granted by the lease: State ex rel. Morris v. Savidge, 108 Wash. 671, 185 Pac. 597.

§ 8021. [6784.] Manner of Locating.

The manner of locating a mineral claim upon state land shall be similar to the state law regulating locating mineral claims on government land: Provided, that any citizens that have found minerals on state lands previous to the passage of this act and have posted up notice setting forth the dimensions according to the mining law of the United States and the state of Washington, shall have prior right to lease the same, and shall have ninety days after the passage of this act to make application to the commissioner of public lands for a lease. [L. '97, p. 293, § 3.]

Cited in 104 Wash. 82.

§ 8022. [6785.] Necessary Timber Privileges..

The lessee may cut and use the timber found upon said premises for fuel and construction of buildings, required in the operation of any mine or mines on the premises; also the timber necessary for drains, tramways and supports for such mine or mines, and for no other purpose. [L. '97, p. 293, § 4.]

Right of cutting timber on mineral

§ 8023. [6786.] License Fee—Development.

Before any lease shall be granted, the applicant shall pay to the state treasurer the sum of five dollars for each forty acres or fraction thereof. The holder of a mineral lease, secured as above stated, shall have two years to develop said mine or mines: Provided, that no more than five tons of ore shall be removed therefrom for assaying or testing purposes until a contract, as hereinafter provided, shall have been executed. [L. '97, p. 293, § 5; L. '01, p. 313, § 2.]

Cited in 104 Wash. 82.

§ 8024. [6787.*] Lessee's Right to Contract—Form.

At any time prior to the expiration of any prospecting lease the leaseholder or assignee thereof may apply to the commissioner of public lands for a contract to mine the lands covered by said lease and extract and dispose of the minerals therefrom. The commissioner of public lands shall upon receipt of such an application make a full investigation of the properties and if the land included in said lease shall be found to contain any of the valuable mineral deposits included in section 8018 the said commissioner shall thereupon accept said application and the applicant for said contract shall thereupon within thirty (30) days after notice from the commissioner of public lands that said application has been accepted and approved, enter into a contract for the working and mining of said property which contract shall be substantially in the following form:

"This indenture, made this — day of —, A. D., one thousand nine hundred and —, by and between the state of Washington, party of the first part, and —, whose postoffice address is —, state of —, party of the second part.

Witnesseth, that the party of the first part in consideration of the sum of — dollars to it in hand paid by the party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the same being the first annual payment to be made hereunder, and in further consideration of the covenants and conditions herein contained, to be kept and performed by the party of the second part, does hereby contract, lease and demise to the party of the second part, for the term of — years (here shall be inserted the number of years asked for by the applicant—not exceeding thirty years in all) from and after the — day of —, one thousand nine hundred and —, the following described land situate in the county of —, state of Washington, viz.: —, which premises are leased to the party of the second part for the purpose of exploring for and mining and taking out and removing therefrom the ore therein contained, containing copper, silver, lead, gold and other valuable minerals (except coal), which is or which hereafter may be found in, on or under said land, together with the right to construct all buildings, make all excavations, openings, ditches, drains, railroads, wagon roads, concentrators, power plants, smelters and other improvements upon said premises which are or may become necessary or suitable for the mining or removal of ore containing copper, lead, silver, gold or other valuable minerals from said premises with the right, during the existence of this contract and lease to cut and use the timber found upon said premises for fuel and so far also as may be necessary, for the construction of buildings required in the operation of any mines [mine] or mines on the premises hereby leased and also the timber necessary for drains, tramways and supports for such mine or mines: Provided, that the party of the second part shall have the right at any time to terminate this agreement in so far as it requires the party of the second part to mine ore on said land or to pay a royalty, therefor, by giving written notice to the party of the first part which shall be served by leaving the same with the commissioner of public lands, who shall officially, in writing, acknowledge the receipt of said notice and the foregoing contract shall terminate sixty (60) days thereafter and all arrears and sums which may be due under the same up to the time of its termination as set forth in said notice shall be paid upon settlement and adjustment thereof. The party of the first part further agrees that the party of the second part shall have the right under this agreement to contract with others to work such mine or mines or any part thereof or to subcontract the same and the use of the said land or any part thereof for the purpose of mining for ore with the same rights and privileges as are herein granted to the said party of the second part. The party of the second part agrees that he will in each year during the life of this lease perform work or make improvements upon the premises hereinbefore described to an amount of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) for each twenty (20) acres included therein and will file with the commissioner of public lands an affidavit of the performance of said work, which affidavit shall give the nature and extent thereof. And it is further expressly agreed that if the party of the second part shall fail to perform said labor as hereinbefore provided that said lease shall then, at the option of the commissioner of public lands, be forfeitable and the commissioner of public lands shall thereupon, if he shall elect to forfeit this lease and contract, serve upon the party of the second part, or his assignee, if notice of such assignment has been given to the commissioner of public lands, a notice that unless he performs such work within ninety (90) days after the giving of said notice, that this contract and lease shall thereupon become forfeited, terminated and at an end, such ninety (90) day period to commence from the date said notice is mailed by the commissioner of public lands, all such notices to be given by registered mail and if the address of the holder of this contract is unknown then such notice shall be given by posting a copy thereof on said land at the point of any mining operations thereon, which notice shall thereupon be deemed sufficient." [L. '17, p. 599, § 3. Cf. L. '97, p. 294, § 6; L. '99, p. 337, § 1.]

§ 8025. [6788.*] Terms of Leasing—Royalty to State.

The terms and conditions on which the land covered by said contract and lease may be mined and the royalties ascertained and paid shall be agreed upon by the commissioner of public lands and the contract-holder: Provided, that such contract and lease shall provide for the payment to the state of a royalty of not less than one per cent (1%) nor more than four per cent (4%) of all moneys received from the sale of minerals from said lands covered by said contract and lease after deducting therefrom the cost of transportation and treatment: And provided further, that in addition to the royalty herein provided for, the contract holder and lessee shall pay an annual rental of ten dollars ($10) for each forty (40) acres, or fraction thereof included in said contract and lease. Cited in 31 Wash. 494.

§ 8026. [6790.] Lessee's Prior Right to New Lease.

Within sixty days prior to the expiration of the lease, the lessee may apply to the commissioner of public lands for a new lease. Therefore the commissioner of public lands shall give said applicant a prior right, and shall, upon the expiration of the old lease issue a new lease to the former lessee on terms as may be provided by law. [L. '01, p. 314, § 4.]

This section may not be within the title of the act, which was limited to the amendments made by §§ 8020, 8023 and 8025.

§ 8027. Mining Contracts on Lands Leased or Sold by State.

The commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington is hereby authorized to execute leases and contracts for the mining of gold, silver, copper, lead, cinnabar or other valuable minerals from any lands sold or leased by the state, the minerals of which have been reserved by the state. Any citizen of the United States finding[s] minerals upon any lands which the state of Washington may have sold or leased and reserved the mineral rights thereon, may apply to the commissioner of public lands for a lease of any amount not exceeding eighty (80) acres, for prospecting purposes, such application to be made by legal subdivision, according to the public land surveys. Upon the filing of any such application, the commissioner of public lands shall set the same down for hearing at a date not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days from the date of filing the application, and shall notify the applicant and the owner or lessee of the lands, the mineral rights in which have been reserved by the state, of the time and place of said hearing. Before the date of the hearing, the commissioner of public lands shall make a full investigation of the lands and the feasibility of extracting minerals found upon said lands, and of the probable amount of damages which will accrue to said lands by reason of extracting mineral therefrom. If at said hearing it shall appear that said lands do not contain valuable mineral in sufficient quantities to warrant the extraction thereof, the commissioner shall reject such application. From any decision of the commissioner rejecting an application, the applicant may appeal to the superior court of Thurston county by filing a notice of appeal with the clerk of the court and serving a copy thereof upon the commissioner and upon the owner or lessee of the lands, the mineral rights in which have been reserved by the state; and all such appeals shall be heard de novo and speedily determined. If, at such hearing before the commissioner, it shall appear that the lands contain valuable mineral in such quantities as to warrant the extraction thereof, the commissioner shall determine the amount of damages which will accrue to the owner or lessee of the lands by reason of entry thereon and the extraction of minerals therefrom and shall determine the terms and conditions upon which said right to enter upon said lands and extracting minerals shall be leased, the time and duration of such lease, the royalties to be paid to the state under such lease and shall impose such other regulations as may be deemed proper to safeguard the interest of the state and of the owner or lessee of the land and shall execute and deliver to the applicant a contract of lease embodying the conditions and regulations so determined and imposed. [L. '17, p. 602, § 5.]

CHAPTER XV.

LEASING PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS LANDS.

§ 8028. [6791.] Commissioner Empowered to Lease.

The commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington is hereby authorized to execute leases and contracts for the mining and extraction of petroleum and natural gas from any land belonging to the state or from any lands in which the state may hereafter acquire title, subject to the conditions hereinafter provided. [L. '01, p. 218, § 1.]

Cited in 93 Wash. 679; 110 Wash. 619.

This section applies to lands which have been sold by the state under section 7873, reserving to the state all oils, gases and minerals, and leaves no discretion in the commissioner where a qualified person has duly applied. State ex rel. Hall v. Savidge, 93 Wash. 676, 161 Pac. 471.

§ 8029. [6792.] Who may Apply.

Any citizen of the United States finding petroleum or natural gas upon any lands belonging to the state of Washington may apply to the commissioner of public lands for a lease of any amount of such land not to exceed one section. [L. '01, p. 218, § 2.]

Cited in 110 Wash. 619, 621.

Under section 7833, classifying tide lands as public lands and providing that "public lands" and "state lands" are synonymous, tide lands are "lands belonging to the state" within the meaning of this section authorizing oil and mining leases: State ex rel. Stetson v. Savidge, 110 Wash. 618, 188 Pac. 923.

Under this section the courts will not require the commissioner of public lands to execute an oil lease of unsurveyed tide lands described as "all tide lands belonging to the state" abutting on certain sections "containing 640 acres," where the area could not be ascertained without an actual survey, for which the state had made no provision: State ex rel. Stetson v. Savidge, 110 Wash. 618, 188 Pac. 923.

The commissioner of public lands has no authority to execute a mining and oil lease of tide lands on the Pacific Ocean beach which by Laws of 1901, page 217, are declared to be a public highway and forever withdrawn from sale, lease, or other disposition: State ex rel. Ernst v. Savidge, 110 Wash. 81, 187 Pac. 1089.

§ 8030. [6793.] Manner of Application.

Application shall be made in like manner as the application is made for the leasing of agricultural lands. [L. '01, p. 218, § 3.]

§ 8031. [6794.*] Terms of Lease—Royalty—Limitation of Time.

No lease or re-lease shall be made by the state for any sum less than fifteen cents per acre for the first year, thirty cents per acre for the second year, forty cents per acre for the third year, fifty cents per acre for the fourth year, and sixty cents per acre for the fifth year, and each year thereafter during said term of the lease, and in addition thereto the said lease shall provide that the state shall be entitled to receive a sum not less than ten per cent of the gross value of all petroleum and natural gas extracted from the land described in the lease during the term of said lease, payable semi-annually during said term: Provided, that all rentals accruing during the period of actual production shall at each semi-annual royalty payment date be deducted from royalties to be paid to the state. The term "gross value" shall be interpreted to mean the value of the oil or gas at the well when produced, without deduction for expense of production. The term of any such lease shall not exceed twenty years. [L. '21, p. 569, § 1; L. '19, p. 434, § 1; L. '15, p. 415, § 9. Cf. L. '01, p. 218, § 4.]

§ 8032. [6795.] Reports and Accounting of Lessee.

Persons leasing lands under the provisions of this chapter shall mine, take out, keep, maintain, ship and sell all petroleum and natural gas mined upon or taken from the lands so leased, separate and distinct from all like products taken from other lands, and shall submit to the commissioner of public lands, at stated periods to be fixed by said commissioner, a statement showing the total product taken from said leased lands, the total shipments of such products, and an account showing the sales of all such products. The commissioner shall make all necessary rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and to protect the interests of the state. The books and accounts of every person leasing lands under the provisions of this chapter shall be open to inspection by the state land commissioner, or such persons as he may designate at all times, and the property leased, together with all buildings, machinery, storage tanks and appliances of every kind and nature whatsoever, shall be subject to inspection and examination by the land commissioner. The reports required under this chapter shall be made under oath, upon forms prescribed by the commissioner. Failure on the part of any lessee hereunder to comply with the terms and conditions of this chapter, or of his lease, shall forthwith work a forfeiture of the lease. No such forfeiture may be waived. The commissioner of public lands shall incorporate in every such lease such other provisions and conditions not inconsistent with the provisions and conditions contained in this chapter as may in his judgment be advantageous to the state. [L. '01, p. 219, § 5.]

Any person now holding leases for agricultural purposes shall have a first right to lease the lands held by them as lessees of the state of Washington, and upon notice to them by the commissioner of public lands they shall within thirty days thereafter exercise their right to lease said lands under the provisions of this chapter, and upon their failure so to do their right to lease such land for mining for petroleum and natural gas shall be at an end, and the said land shall be deemed to be open and unoccupied public lands for the purposes of this chapter only, and the same shall be subject to lease for mining for petroleum and natural gas as if the same were fully owned and in the possession of the state. Any person so holding the lands of the state for agricultural purposes who shall within sixty days from the adoption of this chapter fail to apply to the state land commissioner for such lands shall forfeit all preference to them granted under the terms of this chapter. [L. '01, p. 219, § 6.]

§ 8034. [6797.*] Work under Lease Necessary to its Validity.

All leases under the terms of this chapter shall be deemed to be void and of no effect unless the lessee or his assigns shall commence the work of drilling or boring for petroleum oil and gas within such period as may be designated by the commissioner of public lands, not exceeding five years from and after the date of execution of such lease: Provided, that such work of development shall proceed continuously and at no time cease for a greater period than ninety (90) days: And provided further, that whenever oil or natural gas be discovered by such work in paying quantities then no further work need be done under the terms of such lease than to mine, secure and store the same, but failure to operate after discovery of oil or natural gas in paying quantities for any period of ninety (90) consecutive days shall work a forfeiture of the lease: Provided, however, that if in the event of any failure to operate as continuously as herein provided, such failure to operate should be due to no fault or negligence of the lessee, or if for any sufficient reason such as market conditions, lack or failure of transportation or from other good and sufficient cause, the best interests of the state of Washington and the lessee should make desirable and expedient a temporary suspension of operation and production, then and in any such event the commissioner may from time to time grant permit or permits for such suspension of operation and production without in any way affecting the validity of the lease. [L. '21, p. 569, § 2; L. '19, p. 435, § 2; L. '01, p. 220, § 7.]

See note to § 8039.

§ 8035. [6798.] Damages to Agricultural Lessee.

If land is leased by the state upon which an existing lease for agricultural purposes is held by some person other than the lessee under the terms of this chapter, that the lessee hereunder shall pay to such person so holding said land under lease for agricultural purposes reasonable compensation for any and all damages sustained by him to growing crops or for the use of said premises during the development of the said petroleum and natural gas lands by mining and boring and holding possession thereof. [L. '01, p. 220, § 8.]

§ 8036. Re-lease Conditions—Improvements—Removal.

If, at the expiration of any such lease for the mining and extraction of petroleum or natural gas, or any renewal thereof, the lessee desires to re-lease the lands covered thereby, he may make application to the commissioner of public lands for a re-lease. Such application shall be made within thirty days after the expiration of the lease, and shall be in writing and under oath, setting forth the character and value of all improvements existing on the land, the name and postoffice address of the owner thereof, the purpose for which he desires to re-lease the land, and such other information as the commissioner of public lands may require, and shall be accompanied with a deposit of ten dollars ($10), which deposit, if the land be not leased, through the failure or refusal of the applicant to accept a lease at the rate fixed by the commissioner of public lands, shall be forfeited to the state and by the commissioner paid to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund of the state. The commissioner of public lands may, upon the filing of such application, cause the lands to be inspected by a state land inspector; and if he deems it for the best interests of the state to re-lease said lands, he shall fix the rental value thereof, which rental value shall in no case be less than the original rental provided in this act, and, upon receipt of the first year's rental, together with the fees required by law, the commissioner of public lands shall issue to the applicant a renewal lease for any period not exceeding twenty years. The commissioner of public lands shall notify the applicant by mail, of the rental value fixed, and if, within thirty days after the date of such notice, the applicant fails or refuses to pay to the commissioner of public lands the first year's rental, together with the statutory fee for issuing a lease, the application shall be rejected and the applicant thereunder permitted to remove such improvements from the land as may be removed without injury thereto, within ninety days from such rejection; the commissioner of public lands may cause such of the improvements remaining as in his judgment will add value to the land for leasing purposes to be appraised, in the same manner as in the case of the sale of land, offer the land for lease at public auction to the highest bidder, as provided for original leases, and if the successful bidder be not the owner of the improvements, he shall deposit with the officer making the sale the appraised value of the improvements. The amount so deposited as the appraised value of the improvements, together with the first year's rental and the fees required by law, shall be transmitted to the commissioner of public lands, and upon confirmation of the lease by the commissioner of public lands, the amount so deposited in payment for the improvements shall be disposed of by the commissioner of public lands in the same manner as in the case of the sale of the land: Provided, that no bid shall be received for less than the minimum price fixed by the commissioner of public lands. [L. '21, p. 570, § 3; L. '19, p. 435, § 3.]

See note to § 8039.

§ 8037. Application of Act.

The provisions of this act shall be and are hereby made applicable to all leases heretofore executed by the state of Washington and which are not in default. [L. '19, p. 437, § 4.]

"This act" refers to §§ 8031, 8034 and 8036, supra.

§ 8038. Surrender of Existing Lease and Lieu Lease Issued.

The owner and holder of any lease for the mining and extraction of petroleum and natural gas issued under any law heretofore existing shall have the right within ninety days after this act takes effect to surrender such lease to the commissioner of public lands and have issued to him in lieu thereof a lease under the provisions of this act upon complying with the terms hereof, in which event all unearned rental paid on the surrendered lease shall apply in full toward rental on the lease issued in lieu thereof. [L. '21, p. 572, § 4.]

This act shall not take effect unless and until the congress of the United States shall have passed an act consenting to and permitting the leasing of lands the title to which had passed to and vested in the state of Washington, because not known to contain deposits of minerals, oil, oil shale, or gas, at the date of the admission of the state into the Union, or

When such title is held to have otherwise attached, pursuant to the enabling act approved February 22, 1889, and acts amendatory thereof, for the development and mining of such deposits of mineral, oil, oil shale or gas, for such terms as the legislature of the state of Washington may prescribe not exceeding twenty years, and said act shall have been approved or shall become a law. [L. '21, p. 572, § 5.]

"This act" refers to §§ 8031, 8034, 8036 and 8038; until the conditions are fulfilled, the act of 1919 stands.

CHAPTER XVI.

ACQUISITION OF OYSTER LANDS.

Regulation of oyster culture: See supra, § 5775.

§ 8040. [6799.] Acquisition of Lands for Planting—Survey, etc.

It shall be lawful for any person who is entitled to purchase tide-lands pursuant to the act of March 26, 1890, as being an occupant of land planted with oysters, to survey or cause to be surveyed at his own expense, the land that pursuant to said act he is entitled to purchase, not exceeding one hundred acres in area: Provided, that the party making application to purchase under the provisions of this chapter shall accompany such application with the certificate under oath to the effect that lands purchased under the provisions of this chapter shall be used for oyster planting purposes only. Survey and description in duplicate of such tract shall be subject to the direction, oversight and approval of the board of state land commissioners, and one description of said tract as surveyed shall be filed with and be recorded by the county auditor of the county in which said tide-lands are situated, in a book kept by him for such especial purpose, and a duplicate description in the office of the commissioner of public lands. [L. '95, p. 36, §§ 1, 2.]

See supra, § 8002, oyster lands not to be leased for booming purposes.

§ 8041. [6800.] Lines of Survey—Price per Acre.

The survey of such lands, as provided in the foregoing section of this chapter, may not be required to follow the lines of United States government survey, but may follow the direction of the oyster-beds actually occupied by the party proposing to purchase the same; the persons entitled to purchase such oyster-beds under the provisions of this chapter may purchase the same at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, one-fourth of which price shall be paid at the time of making such purchase, and the remaining three-fourths in three equal annual payments, each of which sums shall draw interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, the unpaid portion remaining as a lien upon said land until all payments shall be made in full, and the purchaser shall thereupon be entitled to a deed to the same; said deed shall be executed by the governor, attested by the secretary of state with the seal of the state thereunto attached, which deed shall contain the conditions of defeasance in this chapter provided. [L. '95, p. 36, § 3.]

§ 8042. [6801.] Prior Right—Application to Purchase.

Any person having the right to purchase such tide lands as provided by this chapter, and being an actual occupant of the same, shall have the prior right to purchase for a period of six months from and after the passage of this act and its being signed and approved by the governor. Upon the filing of a description of the survey of such land, as provided for by the foregoing sections of this chapter, the person or persons having occupied or desiring to occupy such lands as described in section 8040, may file with the commissioner of public lands an application to purchase said lands, together with a description of the lands applied for, by metes and bounds, and upon the receipt of the same the commissioner of public lands shall, at the expense of the applicant, publish, or cause to be published, for three successive weeks in any newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county where such lands are situated, a notice of such application to purchase, giving therein a description of lands applied for. During the next thirty days following the last publication of said notice, any person claiming a prior right to purchase such tide lands may file with the commissioner of public lands a contest for the purpose of establishing a prior right to purchase, or, upon petition of ten citizens who shall be residents of the county wherein such lands are situated, a contest may be filed as hereinbefore provided, and such contest shall be upon the right of applicant to purchase, as provided in the foregoing sections of this chapter. If the party making contest shall fail to establish a prior right to purchase, said party shall be liable for the costs resulting direct from such contest, except private attorney fees, and the sum of such costs shall be paid by such contestant into the state treasury department, and, upon such payment being made, shall be entitled to a receipt for the same. [L. '95, p. 37, §§ 4, 5.]

§ 8043. [6802.] Construction.

This chapter shall in no manner apply to the provisions of the act of March 26, 1890, providing for the appraisal and disposition of tide and shore lands in the state of Washington except as far as it relates to lands actually used or to be used for the purpose of oyster planting. [L. '95, p. 38, § 6.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 480; 83 Wash. 74, 76.

§ 8044. [6803.] Right to Purchase.

Any person desiring to purchase tide lands for the purposes of oyster planting may purchase tide lands of the third class not included in any natural oyster-beds or any reserve pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, in subordination to any pre-emption right confirmed by said act of March 26, 1890. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed so as to effect [affect] the preference rights of shore or upland owners, or improvers, as conferred by the provisions of said act or other provisions of law. [L. '95, p. 38, § 7.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 480; 83 Wash. 74, 76; 95 Wash. 335.

§ 8045. [6804.] Persons Authorized to Purchase—Abandonment.

No person shall be entitled, directly or indirectly, to the privileges of this chapter who is not an actual resident and citizen of the United States and state of Washington, and no person not a citizen of the state of Washington shall be competent to acquire deeds to any lands sold by the state under the provisions of this chapter: Provided, that any citizen of the United States and not a citizen of the state of Washington, or any corporation organized under the laws of any other state other than the state of Washington that has planted and cultivated and planted in oysters any tract or tracts or parcels of such lands for the period of five years next preceding January 1, 1895, shall have the exclusive right to purchase such tract or tracts or parcels of land so planted and cultivated as aforesaid, but not exceeding one hundred acres in the aggregate, such prior right to be within six months after the approval of this act. And failure to make application to purchase said lands within said six months by such person or corporation shall forfeit the right hereby granted to such person or corporations to purchase any such lands. If from any cause any tract or tracts, parcel or parcels of land purchased under the provisions of this chapter shall become unfit and valueless for the purposes of oyster planting, the party having so purchased and being in the possession of the same may upon certifying such fact under oath to the commissioner of public lands and to the auditor of the county wherein such lands are situated and also upon filing under oath a certificate of abandonment of such tract or tracts, parcel or parcels of land, in the office of each of said officials, such party shall then be entitled to again make purchase as hereinbefore provided; or if said land be used by the purchasers or any successors in interest of such purchaser in whole or in part for other than the purposes specified in this chapter, then upon application by any citizen to the state land commissioner such sale may be canceled, and the said land shall revert to the state and shall be subject to sale as herein provided, but not to such defaulting purchaser or such defaulting successor in interest. [L. '95, p. 38, §§ 8, 9.]

See notes to § 8040, supra.

Cited in 62 Wash. 85; 79 Wash. 480; 83 Wash. 74, 76; 95 Wash. 335.

Under this section the commissioner has no authority to cancel a deed upon a showing that the purchaser has failed to use the lands for the cultivation of oysters; since the power is special and its exercise limited to one cause: State ex rel. Horan v. Savidge, 79 Wash. 479, 140 Pac. 559.

It is not discretionary with the board of state land commissioners as to when it will entertain applications for the purchase of tide lands for oyster culture, or as to when it will dispose of such lands for that purpose, but any qualified person complying with the act has the right to purchase such lands for oyster culture, under this act, in view of this and other sections: Anderson, In re, 95 Wash. 330, 163 Pac. 767.

§ 8046. [6805.] Construction.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to such lands as have already been surveyed, appraised and platted. [L. '95, p. 39, § 10.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 480; 83 Wash. 74, 76.

§ 8047. Sale of Isolated Tracts.

That any person, firm, or corporation, now entitled to and in possession of any oyster land within the state reserves of the state of Washington, may at his, their, or its option, purchase such tract or parcel of tide land as may lay between said oyster land and the meander line of the adjoining shore, or any small or isolated tract of ground which may lay between adjoining oyster land owners by reason of the failure of the lines of said land to connect up, by complying with the provisions of this act. [L. '19, p. 486, § 1.]

§ 8048. Application to Purchase—Deed.

Any such person, firm, or corporation, may file with the commissioner of public lands an application to purchase said land from the state of Washington. Such application to be accompanied by an abstractor's certificate of title or other evidence of title demanded by the state land commissioner, to his oyster land. The commissioner shall examine such showing of title and if he finds such title to be in the applicant he shall certify such fact, together with a copy of the application, to the state oyster commission, which shall thereupon have the land applied for surveyed and platted, at the expense of the applicant, and if, after such hearing and investigation as they deem proper, they shall find the said land applied for to be of little value to the state in the future development of the state's oyster reserves, due to its size and isolation, they shall thereupon appraise the value of said land, and certify such appraisements to the commissioner of public lands. Upon the payment of the amount to the commissioners a deed shall be issued from the state of Washington to the applicant in the same manner as deeds of state, school, or granted lands, are issued; such deed to contain a covenant or condition of defeasance to the effect that if said lands be used for any purpose other than the cultivation of oysters or edible shell-fish, then such deed shall be canceled, and the said lands shall revert to the state. [L. '19, p. 486, § 2.]

§ 8049. Notice to Adjoining Owners—Division of Land.

That where the tract of land so applied for and which is not of greater area than three acres and is located between two or more oyster land owners, then upon the application of either of the adjoining owners the others shall be notified of such application and given sixty (60) days' time within which to apply for the purchase of said land; and if the said land shall be applied for and offered for sale as in this act provided, and if others of said adjoining owners have made application to purchase, the state oyster commission shall determine an equitable division of said lands between said applicants, and each shall be given the privilege of purchasing the part allotted to him, but if he fail for a period of sixty (60) days to purchase said land at the price fixed, then the other adjoining owner shall have the privilege of purchasing the whole thereof. [L. '19, p. 487, § 3.]

§ 8050. Installment Contracts.

In lieu of a deed as provided for in section 8048 hereof, a contract may be issued to the applicant by the terms of which one-fifth (1/5) of the purchase price may be paid to the commissioner, and the remainder in four (4) equal annual payments, with interest on the deferred payments at the rate of six per cent per annum, and if such applicant shall comply with the terms of said contract and make the payments herein provided for, a deed as herein provided for shall issue to him from the state: Provided that said contract shall contain a covenant of defeasance as is provided in the case of deeds issued under the provisions of this act; provided further, that such contract shall be subject to a cancellation by the commissioner of public lands for failure to comply with its provisions, and provided further, that whenever an installment shall mature, the applicant may, if he, they, or it, so elect, pay more than one installment. [L. '19, p. 487, § 4.]

§ 8051. Disposition of Moneys.

All moneys received for the disposal of oyster lands, under the provisions of this act, shall be paid into the state oyster reserve fund. [L. '19, p. 488, § 5.]

CHAPTER XVII.

SALE OF ARTIFICIAL OYSTER-BEDS TO OCCUPIERS.

§ 8052. [6806.] Right to Purchase.

All persons having the qualifications provided by law to enable them to purchase tide lands within the state of Washington, and who, prior to March 26, 1890, in good faith entered upon tide lands not in front of any incorporated city or town, nor within two miles thereof on either side, and planted and cultivated thereon artificial oyster-beds, and who continued to occupy and work the same continuously and in good faith to March 26, 1890, and ever since said date, and who are now in possession of and working said oyster-beds in good faith, shall be permitted to purchase the same for the purpose of cultivating oysters thereon, and for no other purpose, whether said tracts were originally covered by alleged natural oyster-beds or not; and where, notwithstanding such prior occupancy and cultivation, any such tract or tracts so occupied prior to March 26, 1890, shall since such date have been reserved from sale or lease as natural oyster-beds, the person or persons or their assigns who planted, occupied and cultivated such artificial beds may, by complying with the provisions of the law touching the sale of artificial oyster-beds and paying the value thereof fixed by the state of Washington, be and they are hereby entitled to receive a deed, subject to all the provisions of this chapter, to such tract or tracts not exceeding in area of forty acres to any one person, as they so in good faith improved as such artificial oyster-beds prior to March 26, 1890. [L. '95, p. 39, § 1.]

Cited in 63 Wash. 365; 89 Wash. 66; 105 Wash. 245, 247.

Where, under this and the next section, state oyster lands are deeded for the purposes of oyster culture, with reversion to the state in case the lands are not used for that purpose, the state reserving the right to repurchase on paying for improvements, the state cannot convey the fee and reversion to a third person: Scott v. Olympia Oyster Co., 63 Wash. 364, 115 Pac. 737.

Grantees of state tide lands for oyster-ing purposes, in deeds issued under the provisions of this act, do not take fee-simple title and are not owners of tide lands "theretofore sold or conveyed," within the meaning of section 7834, supra; a fee-simple title being essential to such preference right: State v. Scott, 89 Wash. 63, 154 Pac. 165.

This act authorizes the sale of natural or artificial oyster-beds to cultivators, whether planted on tide lands or lands below tide lands: Hurley v. Olympia Oyster Co., 105 Wash. 244, 177 Pac. 732.

§ 8053. [6807.] Conditional Reversion to State.

It shall be expressly provided in the deed of conveyance of any such oyster-bed and the tide-land covered thereby, that said land, at the time of conveyance, is not in front of any incorporated city or town, nor within two miles thereof on either side, and that the said land is not now used for purposes of trade or commerce; that if at any time after the granting of said deed the land described therein shall cease to be used for the purposes of an artificial oyster-bed, it shall thereupon revert to, and become the property of, the state of Washington, and that the same is conveyed to the grantee only for the purposes of cultivating oysters thereon, and the state of Washington hereby reserves the right to enter upon and take possession of said tract or tracts if at any time the same is used for any other purpose than the cultivation of oysters; and the state of Washington reserves the further right to enter upon and take possession of any tidelands sold under the provisions of this and the last section, at any time when it desires, upon paying to the then owner or occupant the original purchase price of the lands together with the value of the improvements erected thereon, the then value of his artificial oyster-beds and improvements erected thereon in connection with the carrying on of the raising and propagation of oysters by artificial cultivation. [L. '95, p. 40, § 2.]

Cited in 63 Wash. 365; 89 Wash. 66; 105 Wash. 245, 247.

§ 8054. [6807-1.] Right to Purchase State's Reversionary Right.

Any person, firm or corporation now entitled to and in possession of any lands which were acquired under and by virtue of sections 8052 and 8053, may at his, their or its option, purchase additional rights in said lands by complying with the provisions of this act. [L. '15, p. 24, § 1.]

§ 8055. [6807-2.] Sale—Deed—Defeasance.

Any such person, firm or corporation, may file with the commissioner of public lands an application to purchase the reversionary right of the state of Washington in said lands, such application to be accompanied with an abstract of title to said lands. The commissioner shall examine such abstract of title, and if he finds such title to be in the applicant, he shall certify such fact, together with a copy of the application, to the state oyster commission, which shall thereupon appraise the value of the reversionary right now held by the state, and certify such appraisement to the commissioner of public lands. Upon the payment to the commissioner of the amount of such appraisement a deed shall be issued from the state of Washington to the applicant in the same manner as deeds of state school and granted lands are issued; such deed to contain a covenant or condition of defeasance to the effect that if said lands be used for any purpose other than the cultivation of oysters then such deed shall be canceled, and the said lands shall revert to the state. [L. '15, p. 24, § 2.]

§ 8056. [6807-3.] Contracts of Sale on Installment Plan.

In lieu of a deed as provided for in section 8055, a contract may issue to the applicant, by the terms of which one-fifth of the purchase price may be paid to the commissioner, and the remainder in four equal annual installments, with interest on the deferred payments at the rate of six per cent per annum, and if such applicant shall comply with the terms of said contract and make the payments herein provided for, a deed as herein provided for shall issue to him from the state: Provided, that said contract shall contain the covenant or condition of defeasance as is provided in the case of deeds issued under the provisions of this act: Provided further, that such contract shall be subject to cancellation by the commissioner of public lands for failure to comply with its provisions: And provided further, that whenever an installment shall mature, the applicant may, if he, they or it so elect, pay more than one installment. [L. '15, p. 24, § 3.]

§ 8057. [6807-4.] State Oyster Reserve Fund.

There is hereby created a fund to be known as the "state oyster reserve fund," and all moneys received from the disposal of oysters on the reserves, or any of the products thereof, or for licenses to operate thereon, or for the sale of the rights of the state in the lands herein referred to, shall be paid into said fund, and all expenses incurred on account of said reserves shall be paid from said fund by warrants drawn thereon after appropriation by the legislature of the state. [L. '15, p. 25, § 4.]

CHAPTER XVIII.

LEASING OF LANDS FOR DEEP-WATER OYSTER CULTURE.

§ 8058. [6808.] What Lands Subject to Lease.

All lands in the waters of the state of Washington lying below extreme low tide, not covered by natural oyster-beds, and not in front of any incorporated city or town nor within two miles on either side thereof shall be subject to lease, for the purpose of planting and cultivating thereon artificial oyster-beds, under the provisions of this chapter. [L. '99, p. 272, § 1.]

See supra, § 8040, oyster land reserves.

Cited in 89 Wash. 72.

Construction of this act: See State v. Scott, 89 Wash. 63, 154 Pac. 165.

§ 8059. [6809.] Prior Right of Ones in Possession.

All persons who, prior to the passage of this chapter, in good faith entered upon lands not in front of any incorporated city or town, nor within two miles thereof on either side, and planted and cultivated thereon artificial oyster-beds, and who continue to occupy and work the same, and who are now in possession of and working said oyster-beds in good faith, shall have the prior right to lease for a period of six months from and after the passage of this chapter. [L. '99, p. 273, § 2.]

§ 8060. [6810.] Application—Inspection of Lands Selected by Fish Commissioner.

Applications for the lease of land for the cultivation of deep-sea oysters under the provisions of this chapter shall be made to the commissioner of public lands and shall be accompanied by a map or plat of the lands so to be leased. The commissioner of public lands shall upon receipt of such application direct the fish commissioner to immediately inspect the lands applied for and report to the commissioner of public lands his findings as to the following facts:

First. Whether the land or any portion thereof is a natural oyster-bed.

Second. Whether it be necessary in order to secure adequate protection to any natural oyster-bed to retain to the public domain the land the application for the lease of which has been made or any part thereof.

Third. Whether the land or any portion thereof having been a natural oyster-bed within ten years past may reasonably be expected to again become such within ten years in the future. [L. '99, p. 273, § 3.]

§ 8061. [6811.] Term—Rental—Hearing, When Report Adverse.

In case all of the above three questions be answered negatively, the commissioner of public lands shall immediately issue to the applicant therefor a lease for the term of twenty (20) years of the lands so applied for at an annual rental of twenty-five cents per acre. Should the fish commissioner answer one or more of the above three questions affirmatively, the commissioner of public lands shall investigate the matter at a public hearing in the county where the lands in question are situated. Due notice of such hearing shall be given by the said land commissioner by publishing a notice to that effect in some paper of general circulation in the county, at the expense of the applicant, not less than one week and not more than four weeks before the date of hearing. Unless at such hearing it be conclusively shown to the commissioner of public lands that in the matters at issue the fish commissioner was in error, he shall refuse to lease such lands or such portion thereof as may be determined by the foregoing restrictions. Application for the lease of lands thus withheld may not be made again within six years; except that the person last making application may repeat the application during the three months next preceding the expiration of the six years. [L. '99, p. 273, § 4.]

§ 8062. [6812.] Description in Application.

All applications for the lease of oyster lands under this chapter shall, in addition to the surveyor's description by metes and bounds, make description in such local geography as shall suffice to convey a knowledge of its location with reasonable accuracy to persons acquainted with the vicinity. [L. '99, p. 274, § 5.]

§ 8063. [6813.] Maximum Area—Affidavit as to Use.

All applications for lease of oyster lands under the provisions of this chapter shall be for an area not to exceed forty acres to any one person, and such application shall be accompanied by an affidavit under oath, that the party making such application leases said lands for the purpose of oyster culture only. [L. '99, p. 274, § 6.]

§ 8064. [6814.] Reversion, When Used for Foreign Purpose.

It shall be expressly provided in the lease of any such oyster land that if at any time after the granting of said lease the lands described therein shall cease to be used for the purposes of an artificial oyster-bed, it shall thereupon revert to, and become the property of the state of Washington, and that the same is leased to the lessee only for the purposes of cultivating oysters thereon, and the state of Washington hereby reserves the right to enter upon and take possession of said tract or tracts, if at any time the same is used for any other purpose than the cultivation of oysters. [L. '99, p. 274, § 7.]

§ 8065. [6815.] Application of Act.

This chapter shall in no manner apply to the provisions of any chapter heretofore enacted by the legislature of the state of Washington providing for the sale of tide and shore lands for the purpose of oyster planting and the manner of taking oysters from said tide land beds. [L. '99, p. 275, § 8.]

§ 8066. [6816.] Survey and Description in Duplicate.

Survey and description of all tracts applied for shall be in duplicate, one of which shall be filed with and be recorded by the county auditor of the county in which said lands are situated in a book kept by him for such special purpose, and a duplicate description in the office of the commissioner of public lands. [L. '99, p. 275, § 9.]

§ 8067. [6817.] Abandonment of Lease.

If from any cause any tract or tracts, parcel or parcels of land leased under the provisions of this chapter, shall become unfit and valueless for the purpose of oyster culture, the party having leased or being in possession of the same, may, upon certifying such fact under oath to the commissioner of public lands and to the auditor of the county wherein such lands are situated, also upon filing under oath a certificate of abandonment of such tract or tracts, parcel or parcels of land, in the office of each of said officials, such party shall then be entitled to lease other lands as hereinbefore provided. [L. '99, p. 275, § 10.]

§ 8068. [6818.] Dredging for Purpose of Discovery.

The fish commissioner of the state of Washington may and he is hereby authorized to dredge or permit others to dredge in all the waters of the state of Washington for the purpose of discovering whether any particular waters, not already reserved, leased or appropriated under existing laws, or the provisions of this chapter, contain oysters in a natural state, and regulate the taking thereof, under such rules as the fish commissioner may prescribe. [L. '99, p. 275, § 11.]

CHAPTER XIX.

SALE OF JEFFERSON COUNTY OYSTER LAND RESERVES.

§ 8069. [6819.] Resurvey and Appraisement—Classification.

The state oyster commission is hereby authorized and directed to cause a resurvey and appraisement of the state oyster land reserves of Jefferson county, and to file plats thereof in the manner now provided by law, and to indicate thereupon all such portions thereof as are natural oyster-beds, which shall be classified as first class. [L. '07, p. 455, § 1.]

See supra, § 8040, oyster land reserves.

§ 8070. [6820.] Application to Purchase Other than First Class—Sale at Auction.

After the survey, appraisement and filing of the plat as hereinbefore provided for, and upon application of any person or persons, for purchase of any portion of the said lands, other than first class, the said state oyster commission shall cause notice thereof to be given in the manner now provided by law, for the sale of other tide lands, and at the time and place designated in said notice, shall proceed to sell the same at public auction, to the highest bidder, the same not to be sold at less than the appraised value: Provided, that not more than fifty acres shall be sold to any one individual or corporation: And provided, further, that payment may be made for said land in cash, or upon the following terms, to wit: One-tenth cash to be paid at the time of sale, and the balance of the purchase price in deferred payments of nine equal annual payments, with interest on all deferred payments, at the rate of six per cent per annum. [L. '07, p. 455, § 2.]

§ 8071. [6821.] Act Concurrent.

Nothing in this chapter contained shall change, modify or repeal any existing provisions of the general law relating to the sale and use of tide lands for the culture of oysters or other shell-fish, but shall be additional thereto and concurrent therewith, and all sales of tide lands made hereunder for the purpose of the culture of oysters or other shell-fish shall be subject to like conditions and reversions prescribed by existing laws for similar lands sold for like purposes. [L. '07, p. 456, § 3.]

§ 8072. [6822.] Appropriation—Reimbursement of General Fund.

For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the sum of two thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the state: Provided, however, that from the proceeds of the sale of any such lands, the amount appropriated or so much thereof as may be used, for the purposes hereinbefore provided, shall be reimbursed to the state general fund, and thereafter fifty per cent of the amount received from the sales of any such lands shall be paid into the state general fund and fifty per cent shall be paid into a fund to be used for the improvement, protection and supervision of the state oyster reserves. [L. '07, p. 456, § 4.]

CHAPTER XX.

TRESPASS ON PUBLIC LANDS.

§ 8073. [6823.] Removing Valuable Material, Penalty.

Any person, firm, corporation or association cutting or removing, or causing to be cut or removed, any timber growing or being upon the state, school or granted lands, or manufacturing the same into logs, bolts, shingles, lumber or other articles for domestic use or commerce, shall be liable to the state of Washington in treble the value of the timber or other articles so cut or removed, to be recovered in a civil action; and moreover, shall forfeit all interest in and to the article into which said timber is manufactured. [L. '95, p. 570, § 101; L. '97, p. 261, § 66.]

Compare, § 8074, infra.

See supra, § 7806, prosecution of trespassers.

§ 8074. [6824.] Penalty for Injuries to Public Lands.

If any person shall cut down, destroy, injure, or cause to be cut down, destroyed or injured, any timber standing, growing or felled upon any of the lands of the state of Washington before deed shall have been issued by the state therefor as provided by law, or shall take or remove or cause to be taken or removed from any such lands, any timber, wood, clay, sand or other material or substance thereon, or shall dig, quarry, take or remove any mineral (except by contract with the state), earth or stone from such lands, or shall cause to be dug, quarried, taken or removed any mineral (except by contract with the state), earth or stone from such lands, or shall otherwise injure, deface or damage, or shall cause to be injured, defaced or damaged any such lands, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '99, p. 47, § 1. Cf. L. '95, p. 549, § 51; L. '97, p. 247, § 38.]

Compare § 8073, supra.

See supra, § 2659, subd. 1, injury to trees on state land.

See supra, § 7806, duty to prosecute.

§ 8075. [6825.] Timber for Domestic Use—Clearing.

Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent any person who shall lease said lands or hold the same under contract with the state for the purchase thereof, and occupy the same for the purpose of a home, from cutting such timber as may be necessary for domestic use or to clear land for actual cultivation: Provided, that such lessee or contractor may sell such timber so cut in good faith for the purpose of clearing such land for cultivation: Provided further, however, that before any timber may be sold by any such lessee or contractor he must first obtain the written consent of the commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington to such sale; otherwise such lessee or contractor shall not have the benefit of the provisions of this section. [L. '99, p. 48, § 2.]

"Act" refers to §§ 8074—8076.

§ 8076. [6826.] Penalties for Violations.

Any person or persons violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail of the county in which such conviction was had, for a time not less than one month and not more than one year, or by both fine and imprisonment. [L. '99, p. 48, § 3.]

"Act" refers to §§ 8074—8076.

§ 8077. [6827.] Injury to Capitol Grant Lands—Penalty.

If any person shall cut down, destroy or injure any tree standing or growing upon any of the lands granted to the state of Washington, for erecting public buildings at the capital of said state before patent shall have been issued by the state therefor as herein provided, or shall take or remove from any such lands any timber or wood, or shall dig, quarry, take or remove any mineral, earth or stone from such lands, such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one month nor more than one year; or by fine not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, or both: Provided, that nothing in this section shall be so construed so as to prevent any purchaser who shall purchase said land for purposes of a home from cutting such timber as may be necessary for domestic use, or to clear land for actual cultivation. [L. '93, p. 188, § 10.]

"This section" substituted for "this act," the balance of which is now obsolete.

See notes, to § 8074.

CHAPTER XXI.

RIGHT TO OVERFLOW STATE LANDS FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES.

§ 8078. [6828.] For What Purposes Privilege Granted.

The board of state land commissioners is authorized to grant any person or corporation the right, privilege, power and authority to perpetually back and hold water upon and over any land belonging to the state of Washington, and to overflow any such land and inundate the same, if said board deems it necessary for the purpose of erecting, constructing, maintaining or operating any water-power plant, reservoir or works for impounding water for power purposes, irrigation, mining or other public use. [L. '15, p. 416, § 10. Cf. L. '07, p. 233, § 1.]

See supra, § 4255, diking district, right to overflow state lands.

Cited in 75 Wash. 118; 99 Wash. 498, 499; 102 Wash. 292.

The state has power to confer by this section, upon the board of state land commissioners, the power to grant to a private individual the right to overflow state lands for the purpose of power plants for irrigation, mining, or other public use: State ex rel. Mason County Power Co. v. Superior Court, 99 Wash. 496, 169 Pac. 994.

The commissioners have the power and it is their duty to appraise the damages not only to the fee, but also to the improvements of a lessee from the state although the statute does not expressly provide for appraisal of improvements: State ex rel. Washington Water Power Co. v. Savidge, 75 Wash. 116, 134 Pac. 680.

This section is not repealed by § 7354, supra, of the Water Code, giving the right to condemn for the beneficial use of water as a public use: State ex rel. Mason County P. Co. v. Superior Court, 102 Wash. 291, 173 Pac. 19.

§ 8079. [6829.] Application for Privilege.

The right, privilege, power and authority herein given and granted by said board of state land commissioners shall not be exercised or enjoyed until the amount of damages appraised and fixed by said board shall have been paid by the person or corporation to whom such right is granted: Provided, that if the construction or erection of any such water-power plant, reservoir or works for impounding water for the purposes as heretofore specified shall not be commenced and be diligently prosecuted and completed within such time as the board may prescribe at the time of such right, privilege, power and authority is granted, the same may be forfeited by the board of state land commissioners by serving written notice of such forfeiture upon the person or corporation to whom the same is granted. Such forfeiture shall become effective upon the service of said notice: Provided, further, that said board may extend the time within which such work shall be completed if the said board deems it necessary. [L. '15, p. 416, § 11. Cf. L. '07, p. 233, § 2.]

§ 8080. [6830.] Damages.

When and as soon as said damages are so fixed and assessed by the board of state land commissioners, the same shall be paid to said officer. [L. '07, p. 233, § 3.]

CHAPTER XXII.

RIGHT OF WAY OVER PUBLIC LANDS.

For waterways, see infra, §§ 9608, 9731.

For Lake Washington Canal, see infra, § 8121.

§ 8081. [6831.*] Logging Right of Way.

Any person, corporation or association engaged in the business of logging and lumbering shall have a right of way over public lands when necessary, for the purpose of hauling or removing timber or ties from other lands. Before, however, any such right of way grant shall become effective, a written application for and a plat showing the location of such right of way, with reference to the adjoining lands, shall be filed with the board of state land commissioners, and all timber on said right of way, together with the damages to said land, shall be appraised by said board and paid for in cash by the person, corporation or association applying for such right of way. The board of state land commissioners shall then cause to be issued in duplicate to such person, corporation or association a right of way certificate setting forth the conditions and terms upon which such right of way is granted. Whenever said right of way shall cease to be used, for a period of two years, for the purpose for which it was granted, it shall be deemed forfeited, and said right of way certificate shall contain such a provision: Provided, that any rights of way for logging purposes heretofore issued which have never been used, or have ceased to be used, for a period of two years, for the purpose of which they were granted, shall be deemed forfeited and shall be canceled upon the records in the office of the commissioner of public lands. One copy of each certificate shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands and one copy delivered to the applicant. The forfeiture of said right of way, as herein provided, shall be rendered effective by the mailing of a notice of such forfeiture to the grantee thereof to his last known postoffice address and by stamping the copy of said certificate in the office of the commissioner of public lands canceled and the date of such cancellation. For the issuance of such certificate the same fee shall be charged as provided in the case of certificates for railroad rights of way. [L. '21, p. 169, § 1; L. '15, p. 417, § 12. Cf. L. '95, p. 547, § 45; L. '97, p. 246, § 34.]

§ 8082. [6831-1.] Reservation of Logging Rights of Way—Condemnation.

All state lands hereafter granted, sold or leased containing timber, stone, mineral or other products or when other state lands contiguous or in proximity thereto contain valuable timber, stone, mineral or other products, shall be subject to the right of the state, or any grantee or lessee thereof hereafter acquiring such other lands, or acquiring the timber, stone, mineral or other products thereon, to acquire the right of way over such lands so granted, for private railroads, skid roads, flumes, canals, watercourses or other easements for the purpose of and to be used in the transportation and moving of such timber, stone, mineral or other products from such other lands, over and across the lands so granted or leased, upon the state or its grantee paying to the owner of the lands so granted, sold or leased reasonable compensation therefor. In case the parties interested cannot agree upon the damages incurred, the same shall be ascertained and assessed in the same manner as damages are ascertained and assessed against a railroad seeking to condemn private property. [L. '11, p. 506, § 1.]

§ 8083. [6831-2.] Subject to Right of State—Railroad Commission to Control.

Every grant, deed, conveyance, lease or contract hereafter made to any person, firm or corporation over and across any state lands for the purpose of right of way for any private railroad, skid road, flume, canal, watercourse or other easement to be used in the hauling of timber, stone, mineral or other products of the land, shall be subject to the right of the state or any grantee thereof or other person owning or hereafter acquiring any lands containing valuable timber, stone, mineral or other products contiguous to or in proximity thereto, or hereafter acquiring the timber, stone, mineral or other product situate upon state lands so contiguous or in close proximity to the said lands, over which said right of way or easement is acquired having such timber, stone, mineral or other product transported or moved over such railroad, skid road, flume, canal, watercourse or other easement after the same is or has been put in operation upon paying therefor just and reasonable rates for transportation or for the use of such railroad, skid road, flume, canal, watercourse or other easement and upon complying with just, reasonable and proper rules affecting such transportation, which rates, rules and regulations shall be under the supervision and control of the railroad commission of Washington. [L. '11, p. 507, § 2.]

See infra, § 10783, duties of railroad commission devolve upon director of public works.

See infra, § 10893, public service commission abolished.

§ 8084. [6831-3.] Right to Transport—Charges.

Any person, firm or corporation hereafter acquiring the right of way or other easement over state lands or over any tide or shore land belonging to the state or over or across any navigable water or stream for the purpose of transporting or moving timber, stone, mineral or other products, and engaged in such business thereon, shall accord to the state or any grantee thereof hereafter acquiring lands containing valuable timber, stone, mineral or other products contiguous and in proximity thereto, or any person, firm or corporation hereafter acquiring the timber, stone, mineral or other products situate upon the state lands so contiguous and in proximity to the lands over which said right of way or easement is operated, proper and reasonable facilities and service for the transportation and moving of such timber, stone, mineral and other products under reasonable rules and regulations and upon payment of just and reasonable charges therefor, or, if such right of way or other easement is not then in use to have the right to use such right of way or easement for transporting and moving such products under such reasonable rules and regulations and upon payment of just and reasonable charges therefor. [L. '11, p. 507, § 3.]

§ 8085. [6831-4.] Appeal to Commission—Order.

Should the owner or operator of any private line of railroad, skid road, flume, canal, watercourse or other easement operating over lands hereafter acquired from the state, as in this act set out, fail to agree with the state or with any subsequent grantee thereof as to the reasonable and proper rules, regulations and charges concerning the transportation of timber, stone, mineral or other products, from lands contiguous or in proximity of the lands over which the right of way or easement is granted, for carrying and transporting such products or for the use of the railroad, skid road, flume, canal, watercourse or other easement in transporting such product, the state or such person, firm or corporation owning and desiring to ship such products may apply to the railroad commission and have the reasonableness of the rules, regulations and charges inquired into and it shall be the duty of the railroad commission to inquire into the same in the same manner and it is hereby given the same power and authority to investigate the same as it is now authorized to investigate and inquire into the rules and regulations and charges made by railroads and is authorized and empowered to make such order as it would make in an inquiry against a railroad, and in case such railroad, skid road, flume, canal, watercourse or other easement is not then in use may make such reasonable, proper and just rules and regulations concerning the use thereof for the purposes aforesaid as may be just and proper and such order shall have the same force and effect and be binding upon the parties to such hearing as though such hearing and order was made affecting a railroad. [L. '11, p. 508, § 4.]

See infra, § 10783, duties of railroad commission devolve upon director of public works.

See infra, § 10893, public service commission abolished.

§ 8086. [6831-5.] Penalty—Rights Revert to State.

In case any person, firm or corporation owning and operating any private railroad, skid road, flume, canal, watercourse or other easement over and across lands hereafter acquired from the state obtained subject to the provisions of this act shall fail to comply with any rule, regulation or order made by the railroad commission after an inquiry as provided for in the preceding section, such person, firm or corporation shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars for each and every violation thereof, and in addition thereto such right of way, railroad, skid road, flume, canal, watercourse or other easement and all improvements and structures on such right of way and connected therewith, shall revert to the state of Washington and may be recovered by it in an action instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction. [L. '11, p. 509, § 5.]

§ 8087. [6832.] Public Road Right of Way.

Rights of way may be granted by the board of state land commissioners over public lands to any county or city desiring to construct a public road across the same: Provided, that a duly attested and sworn copy of the official plat, made by the official county or city surveyor or engineer, shall first be filed with the board, together with a petition from the county or city officials setting forth the reason for the same, and the aforesaid plat, when approved by said board of appraisers, shall be and form the official plat of said road, and the said plat shall show the amount of land taken up by the proposed road, and shall show the remainder of land in each portion of each legal subdivision bisected by said proposed road, and said plat shall be retained in the office of the commissioner of public lands: Provided further, that all timber on said right of way shall be appraised and paid for in cash by the said county or city. [L. '95, p. 547, § 46; L. '97, p. 246, § 35.]

§ 8088. [6833.] Railroad Right of Way.

A right of way through, over and across the public lands of the state of Washington, except tide lands, harbor areas and shore lands, is hereby granted to any railroad company duly organized under the laws of any state or by the congress of the United States to any extent not exceeding fifty feet on each side of the center line of said railroad now constructed or hereafter to be constructed unless a greater width is required for excavations, embankments, depot, station grounds, passing tracks or barrow pits, which extra width shall not in any case exceed two hundred feet on either side of said center way: Provided this act shall not apply to any lands acquired or used by any of the public institutions of this state. In order to obtain the benefits of this grant as to any railroad hereafter to be constructed, the company constructing or proposing to construct such road shall file with the board of state land commissioners a copy of its articles of incorporation, due proofs of organization thereunder, a map or maps accompanied by the field-notes of the survey and location of the line of said railroad, and shall pay to the state as hereinafter provided the amount of the appraised value of said lands affected by, used for or included within said right of way and extra widths if any are required. In order to obtain the benefits of this grant as to any railroad now constructed, the company owning such road shall file with the board of state land commissioners a list of the lands affected by, used or included within such right of way, and shall pay to the state as hereinafter provided the amount of the appraised value of said lands affected by, used for or included within said right of way and extra widths. [L. '01, p. 353, § 1; L. '07, p. 201, § 1.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8088—8094.

See infra, §§ 10538, 10539, right of eminent domain by railroads.

§ 8089. [6834.] Classification and Appraisal.

All lands of this state over which a right of way of any railroad company may now or hereafter be located shall be classified and appraised as hereinafter provided, and the state board of land commissioners shall constitute and serve as the board of appraisers mentioned in section 2 of Article XVI of the Constitution of this state. [L. '01, p. 353, § 2.]

See, also, § 7797.

§ 8090. [6835.] Same—Price Fixed.

Upon the filing of said list or maps by said company as herein provided, said board of state land commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to ascertain and classify the lands affected by, to be used for and included within the aforesaid right of way, and shall thereupon fix the price per acre for each lot, or block, quarter section and subdivision thereof, less the improvements, if any, so affected by, used for and included within said right of way, which price shall be the full market value thereof but not to be less than ten dollars per acre. [L. '01, p. 354, § 3.]

§ 8091. [6836.] Improvements, Separate Appraisal of.

Should any improvements made as of right and with license from the state of Washington be upon any of such lands at the time of said appraisalment, the board of state land commissioners shall separately appraise the same together with the damage and waste done to said lands, by the use and occupancy of the same or to adjacent lands and after deducting from the amount of appraisalment for improvements the amount of such damage and waste the balance shall be determined and regarded as the value of said improvements, and the railroad company if not the owner of such improvements shall deposit with the commissioner of public lands the value of the same as shown by said appraisalment within thirty days next following the date thereof. The commissioner of public lands shall hold such moneys for the period of three months, and unless a demand and proof of the ownership of such improvements shall be made to the commissioner of public lands within said period of three months the same shall be deemed forfeited to the state and deposited with the state treasurer and paid into the general fund of the state. If two or more persons shall, within said period of three months, file claims of the ownership of the said improvements with the commissioner of public lands, the commissioner shall hold such moneys until a certified copy of a judgment decreeing the ownership of said improvements shall be filed with him. When a certified copy of a judgment has been so filed with the commissioner of public lands, he shall pay to the owner thereof, as decreed by said judgment, the appraised value of said improvements. Where said right of way affects the improvements of any person other than the person owning improvements on said right of way or entitled thereto under existing law the applicant for said right of way shall file with the commissioner of public lands a valid release of damages duly executed by such owner or owners, or a certified copy of a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction showing that the damages resulting to such owner or owners, ascertained in accordance with existing law, has been made or paid into the registry of such court. [L. '15, p. 418, § 13. Cf. L. '01, p. 354, § 4.]

§ 8092. [6837.] Record of Appraisement—Certificate—Notice.

When said appraisement is made it shall be recorded in the proceedings of said board of state land commissioners and the evidence or report upon which the same is based shall be preserved of record in the office of the board of state land commissioners and the commissioner of public lands shall prepare a certificate of said appraisement in duplicate, one of which he shall file in his office and the other transmit to the auditor of the county in which the lands affected by said rights of way are located; and shall send a notice to the railroad company availing itself of the provisions of this act that such appraisement has been made. The board of county commissioners of any county where the said right of way is situate shall be forthwith served with notice of appraisement. A copy of said appraisement shall be forthwith filed with the board of county commissioners of any county in which the land is situated. [L. '01, p. 355, § 5.]

§ 8093. [6838.] Appeal from Appraisement.

Within thirty days after the appraisement of said lands, as aforesaid, the board of county commissioners of any county in which the right of way is situate, or any person, company or corporation may appeal from the same to the superior court of the county in which the right of way affected by the appeal is situate; but if the applicant is the party appealing, he or it must deposit the amount of the appraisement in the registry of the court to which the appeal is taken. All appeals shall be heard and determined by the court de novo. The taking of an appeal shall not prevent the use of the land affected thereby for right of way purposes during the prosecution of the appeal. All costs on appeal shall be paid by the applicant. [L. '01, p. 355, § 6.]

See supra, §§ 7808—7814, appeals from board of state land commissioners.

§ 8094. [6839.] Easement Appurtenant to Land.

Upon full payment of the value of such easement ascertained as aforesaid, any future grant or lease by the state of the lands affected by said right of way shall be subject to the easements obtained under the provisions of this act: Provided, however, that before any such easement shall become effective a right of way certificate shall be issued to said railway company by the commissioner of public lands, in which the terms and conditions of such easement shall be set forth and the lands covered thereby described. Such certificate shall be in such form as the commissioner of public lands may prescribe. [L. '15, p. 419, § 14; L. '01, p. 355, § 7.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8088—8094.

§ 8095. [6840.] University Lands—Right of Way to Railroads and Street Railways.

Any railroad company now having in operation a line of railroads, or branches, sidings, or spurs thereof, upon any property in this state in use by the University of Washington for university purposes, or as a part of the grounds set aside or devoted to university purposes, may have such right of way confirmed to it, its successors and assigns, upon the following terms and conditions: Such railroad company shall file with the board of regents of said university a plat showing the right of way desired, and shall file a duplicate thereof with the commissioner of public lands; and any railroad company or street-car company desiring hereafter to construct a railroad or street-car line, or extensions thereof, with branches, sidings, or spurs, upon any property in this state in use by the University of Washington for university purposes, or as a part of the ground set aside or devoted to university purposes, may have such right of way confirmed to it, its successors and assigns, upon the following terms and conditions: Such railroad company or street-car company shall file with the board of regents of said university a plat showing the right of way desired, and shall file a duplicate thereof with the commissioner of public lands. [L. '09, p. 888, § 1.]

§ 8096. [6841.] Conditions of Grant—Agreement With Board of Regents.

The board of regents of said University of Washington are authorized, upon the filing of such plat with it, to agree in writing with any such railroad company or street-car company, upon the boundaries and the extent of such right of way, the manner in which the same shall be maintained and fenced and occupied, and prescribe the number, character, and maintenance of crossings, cross-overs, and subways, and as to what sum said railroad company or street-car company shall pay for the right of way granted. [L. '09, p. 889, § 2.]

§ 8097. [6842.] Deed of Right of Way.

If such agreement is entered into, said board of regents shall transmit a certified copy thereof to the commissioner of public lands, who shall, after the full amount of money provided in such agreement shall be paid by said railroad company or street-car company to the state treasurer, issue to such railroad company or street-car company, in the name of the state of Washington, a deed for the right of way described in such agreement, which said deed shall recite and be subject to all the terms and conditions of such agreement, and certified copies of said deed shall be filed, one in the office of the commissioner of public lands, and the other with the secretary of said board of regents. [L. '09, p. 889, § 3.]

§ 8098. [6843.] Deed Conveys Easement, Only.

The conveyance herein provided for shall not be deemed to convey the fee to the land described, but an easement only thereover and for railroad or street-car purposes only, and when the right of way granted as aforesaid shall not be used for the purposes for which it was granted, then and thereupon the easement right shall immediately become void. [L. '09, p. 889, § 4.]

§ 8099. [6844.*] Irrigation Ditches—Rights of Way Granted.

A right of way through, over and across the public lands of the state of Washington is hereby granted to any irrigation district, or irrigation company duly organized under the laws of this state, and to any association or individual, constructing or proposing to construct an irrigation ditch or pipe-line for irrigation, or to any diking and drainage district or any diking and drainage improvement district constructing or proposing to construct a dike or drainage ditch. [L. '17, p. 604, § 6. Cf. L. '07, p. 353, § 1.]

See supra, § 4253, for diking districts.

See supra, § 7956, for irrigating canals.

This section has no application to a ditch already constructed for waters appropriated before the passage of the act: Colburn v. Winchell, 93 Wash. 388, 160 Pac. 1052.

§ 8100. [6845.*] Benefits of Grant—Procedure to Obtain.

In order to obtain the benefits of this grant, the irrigation district, irrigation company, association or individual constructing or proposing to construct such irrigation ditch or pipe-line for irrigation, or the diking and drainage district or diking and drainage improvement district constructing or proposing to construct any dike or drainage ditch, shall file with the board of state land commissioners a map accompanied by the field-notes of the survey and location of the proposed irrigation ditch or dike or drainage ditch and shall pay to the state as hereinafter provided, the amount of the appraised value of the said lands used for or included within said right of way. The land within said right of way shall be limited to an amount necessary for the construction of a ditch or dike sufficient for the purposes required, together with sufficient land on either side thereof for egress and ingress to maintain and repair the same. [L. '17, p. 604, § 7; L. '07, p. 353, § 2.]

§ 8101. [6846.] Appraisal.

Upon the filing of the plat and field-notes as herein provided, said board of state land commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to ascertain the value of the land to be used for or included within said right of way, which price shall be the full market value thereof, but not to be less than ten dollars per acre. [L. '07, p. 353, § 3.]

§ 8102. [6847.] Easement Appurtenant.

Upon full payment of the value of such easement ascertained as aforesaid, any future grant or lease by the state of the lands affected by such right of way shall be subject to the easement obtained under the provisions of this act. [L. '07, p. 353, § 4.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8099—8102.

§ 8103. [6848.*] Municipal Corporations, Electric Light, Power, etc., Companies.

A right of way through, over and across the public lands of the state of Washington is hereby granted to any municipal or private corporation, company, association or individual, constructing or proposing to construct, or which has heretofore constructed, any telephone line, ditch, flume or pipe-line for the domestic water supply of any municipality, or transmission line for the purpose of generating or transmitting electricity for light, heat or power. § 8104. [6849.*] Procedure to Obtain Right of Way—Width.

In order to obtain the benefits of this grant, such municipal or private corporation, company, association or individuals constructing or proposing to construct, or which has heretofore constructed, such telephone line, ditch, flume, pipe-line or transmission line, shall file with the board of state land commissioners a map, accompanied by the field-notes of the survey and location of such telephone line, ditch, flume, pipe-line, or transmission line, and shall pay to the state as hereinafter provided the amount of the appraised value of said lands and improvements, if any, used for or included within said right of way. The land within said right of way shall be limited to an amount necessary for the construction of said telephone line, ditch, flume, pipe-line, or transmission line sufficient for the purpose required, together with sufficient land on either side thereof for ingress and egress to maintain and repair the same, and shall include the right to cut all standing timber within a radius of two hundred feet on either side of said telephone line, ditch, flume, pipe-line, or transmission line, which shall be dangerous to the operation and maintenance of the same. [L. '21, p. 557, § 2; L. '19, p. 232, § 2; L. '09, p. 655, § 2.]

Upon the filing of the plat and field-notes as herein provided, said board of state land commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to ascertain the value of the land and improvements, if any, to be used for or included in said right of way and the value of all merchantable timber so cut, or to be cut, all of which shall be the full value thereof. [L. '09, p. 655, § 3.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 119.

§ 8106. [6851.] Future Grants Subject to Easement—Reversion.

Upon full payment of the value of such easement ascertained as aforesaid, any future grant or lease by the state of the lands affected by such right of way shall be subject to the easement obtained under the provisions of this act: Provided, however, that should the company, association or individual securing said easement ever abandon same for the purposes contemplated in this act the said right of way shall revert to the state. [L. '09, p. 655, § 4.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8103—8107.

§ 8107. [6852.*] Act Cumulative.

Nothing contained in the four preceding sections shall be deemed to in any way conflict with any existing laws of this state relating to the methods of acquiring rights of way for ditches, flumes, pipe-lines, transmission lines or telephone lines for the purposes therein specified. [L. '19, p. 233, § 3; L. '09, p. 656, § 5.]

§ 8110. [6854½.] Jurisdiction Over Rainier National Park.

Exclusive jurisdiction shall be, and the same is hereby ceded to the United States over and within all the territory that is now or may hereafter be included in that tract of land in the state of Washington, set aside for the purposes of a national park, and known as the Rainier National Park; saving, however, to the said state, the right to serve civil and criminal process within the limits of the aforesaid park, in suits or prosecutions for or on account of rights acquired, obligations incurred or crimes committed in said state, but outside of said park; and saving further to the said state the right to tax persons and corporations, their franchises and property on the lands included in said park: Provided, however, this jurisdiction shall not vest until the United States through the proper officer, notifies the governor of this state that they assume police or military jurisdiction over said park. [L. '01, p. 192, § 1.]

§ 8111. [6855.] Right of United States Surveyors to Enter upon Premises.

Any person employed in the execution of any survey authorized by the congress of the United States may enter upon any land within this state for the purpose of exploring, triangulating, leveling, surveying, and of doing any work which may be necessary to carry out the object of existing laws, and may establish permanent station marks, and erect the necessary signals and temporary observations, doing no unnecessary injury thereby. [Cf. L. '58, p. 24, § 1; L. '69, p. 413, § 1; L. '88, p. 214, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2950.]

§ 8112. [6856.] Proceedings Where Such Surveyors Cause Damage.

If the parties interested cannot agree upon the amount to be paid as damages caused thereby, either of them may petition the superior court of the county in which the land so entered upon is situated, which court shall appoint a time for a hearing as soon as may be, and order at least fourteen days' notice to be given to all parties interested, and with or without a view of the premises, as the court may determine, hear the parties and their witnesses, and assess the damages, if any there be. [Cf. L. '58, p. 24, § 2; L. '69, p. 413, § 2; L. '88, p. 214, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2951.]

§ 8113. [6857.] Damages and Costs, Recovery of.

The person or persons so entering upon land may tender to the injured party damages therefor, and in case of appeal or application to said superior court the damages finally assessed do not exceed the amount so tendered, the person so entering shall recover costs, otherwise the prevailing party shall recover costs. [L. '58, p. 24, § 4. Cf. L. '69, p. 414, § 4; L. '88, p. 214, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2952.]

The "appeal" referred to has no application to present organization of courts.

§ 8114. [6858.] Costs to be the Same as Now Allowed by Law.

The costs to be allowed in such cases shall be the same as and governed by the fees and costs in said court as now allowed by law. [Cf. L. '69, p. 414, § 5; L. '88, p. 214, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2953.]

§ 8115. [6859.] Damages for Injuring Property of Geodetic Survey.

If any person or persons shall willfully deface, injure, or remove any signal monument, building, or other property of the United States coast and geodetic survey, constructed or used under and by virtue of any of the acts of the congress of the United States, he or they shall forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty dollars for each offense, and shall be liable for [any] and all damages sustained by the United States in consequence of such defacing, injury, or removal, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. [L. '88, p. 214, § 5. Cf. L. '58, p. 25, § 6; L. '69, p. 415, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2954.]

See, also, supra, §§ 2706, 2707.

§ 8116. [6860.] Use of Tide Lands Granted to United States—Limitations.

The use of any tide and shore lands belonging to the state of Washington, and adjoining and bordering on any tract, piece or parcel of land, which may have been reserved or acquired, or which may hereafter be reserved or acquired, by the government of the United States, for the purpose of erecting and maintaining thereon forts, magazines, arsenals, dock-yards, navy-yards, prisons, penitentiaries, lighthouses, fog-signal stations, or other aids to navigation, be and the same is hereby granted to the United States, so long as the upland adjoining such tide or shore lands shall continue to be held by the government of the United States for any of the public purposes above mentioned: Provided, that this grant shall not extend to or include any lands covered by more than four fathoms of water at ordinary low tide; and shall not be construed to prevent the citizens of the state of Washington from using said lands for the taking of food fishes so long as such fishing does not interfere with the public use of them by the United States: And provided further, that whenever the government of the United States shall cease to hold for public purposes any such tract, piece or parcel of land, the use of the tide and shore lands bordering thereon shall revert to the state of Washington. [L. '90, p. 428, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2181; L. '09, p. 390, § 1.]

Former laws cited in 11 Wash. 231; 33 Wash. 386.

§ 8117. [6861.] Application by United States to Land Commissioners—Deed by Governor.

Whenever application is made to the board of state land commissioners by any department of the United States government for the use of any tide or shore lands belonging to the state of Washington and adjoining and bordering on any upland held by the United States for any of the purposes mentioned in section 8116 upon proof being made to said board that such uplands are so held by the United States for such purposes, it shall cause said fact to be entered in the minutes of its meetings, and the commissioner of public lands shall certify such fact to the governor and he shall issue a deed, which shall be attested by the secretary of state, conveying the use of such lands, for said purposes, to the United States, so long as it shall continue to hold for said public purposes the uplands adjoining said tide and shore lands. [L. '09, p. 390, § 2.]

§ 8118. [6862.] Use of Tide and Shore Lands by United States—Grant of Easement.

Whenever application is made to the board of state land commissioners, by any department of the United States government, for the use of any tide or shore lands belonging to the state of Washington for any public purpose, and said board shall be satisfied that the United States requires or may require the use of such tide or shore lands for such public purpose, said board may reserve such tide or shore lands from public sale and grant the use of them to the United States, so long as it may require the use of them for such public purpose; and the commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington shall certify such fact to the governor, who shall thereupon execute an easement to the United States, which shall be attested by the secretary of state, granting the use of such tide or shore lands to the United States, so long as it shall require the use of them for said public purpose. [L. '09, p. 391, § 3.]

§ 8119. [6863.] Reversion.

Whenever the United States shall cease to hold and use any uplands for the use and purposes mentioned in this act, the said easement shall be terminated thereby and said tide and shore lands shall revert to the state without resort to any court or tribunal whatsoever. [L. '09, p. 391, § 4.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8116—8119.

In aid of the construction, maintenance and operation of a ship canal, by the United States of America, to connect the waters of Lake Union and Washington, in King county, with Puget Sound, together with all necessary and convenient locks, landways, spillways, buildings, power plant and other proper appurtenances, there be and hereby is granted by this state to said United States the right to place, construct, maintain, and operate, such ship canal, landways, spillways, buildings, power plant and other proper appurtenances, upon, along, through and over any and all lands belonging to and waters of this state in said King county, within such limits as shall be defined by the plans and specifications for such improvement as the same shall be approved by the United States secretary of war, and the right to raise the waters of Salmon Bay and the right to lower the waters of Lake Washington, in prosecution of such improvement, and this state hereby releases the United States from all liability to damages to this state, its successors or assigns, that shall or might arise from such lowering or raising of waters, or otherwise from such improvement. But nothing in this section contained shall operate as an assumption of nor create any liability on the part of the state, for any damages which may result to any person, company or corporation. [L. '01, p. 7, § 1.]

This section was not intended to convey the fee of leased lands, in view of Laws of 1897, page 243, prohibiting their sale: State ex rel. Bussell v. Callvert, 33 Wash. 380, 74 Pac. 573.

Even if the fee in tide lands was granted by the state to the United States by this section, it would be subject to a prior state lease, and the commissioner of public lands could not exonerate himself from accepting rent by his arbitrary and illegal act of canceling the lease: State ex rel. Bussell v. Callvert, 33 Wash. 380, 74 Pac. 573.

This section was not intended to annul existing leases of state tide lands made by the state to private parties, since such an attempt would be unconstitutional: State ex rel. Bussell v. Callvert, 33 Wash. 380, 74 Pac. 573.

The fact that an act authorizes the exercise of the state's eminent domain for the purpose of constructing a ship canal which shall be under the control of the general government, but for the use and benefit of the public generally, will not render the act unconstitutional, when there is no express constitutional provision prohibiting it: Lancey v. King County, 15 Wash. 9, 45 Pac. 645, 34 L. R. A. 817.

State deeds of shore lands on Lake Washington subsequent to the enactment of this section will be presumed to be made in the light of that act and with intent to include all lands up to the line of navigability after the lake had been lowered: State v. Sturtevant, 76 Wash. 158, 135 Pac. 1035, 138 Pac. 650.

§ 8121. [6865.] Same—Right of Way.

A right of way of not exceeding five hundred (500) feet in width is hereby granted to the United States of America through any lands or shore lands belonging to the state of Washington, or to the University of Washington, and lying in King county between Lakes Union and Washington, or in or adjoining either of them, the southern boundary of such right of way on the upland to be coincident with the southern boundary of the lands now occupied by the University of Washington adjacent to the present right of way of said canal; the width and definite location of such right of way before the same is taken possession of by said United States shall be plainly and completely platted and a plat thereof approved by the secretary of war of the United States filed in the office of the state land commissioner: Provided, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to repeal or impair any right, interest, privilege or grant expressed or intended in the preceding section. § 8122. State Grants to United States for War Emergencies.

Whereas, on account of the recent emergencies of war it was necessary that the United States be permitted to go upon the lands of the state of Washington and build railroads thereon and remove timber therefrom; and whereas there was no authority in law for the state of Washington to grant such rights to the United States; all action heretofore taken by the board of state land commissioners and the commissioner of public lands in permitting such acts by the United States is hereby ratified and confirmed, and the commissioner of public lands is hereby authorized to grant to the United States such rights of way over and across the lands of the state, including tide and shore lands, as may be made necessary by the military necessities of the present war; and the consent of the state of Washington is hereby given to the United States, upon the termination of the present war, to transfer such easements to such persons, firms, or corporations as it may desire. [L. '19, p. 105, § 1.]

§ 8123. Extent of Grant.

The said rights of way shall be of such width or widths as shall appear to the commissioner of public lands to be necessary, together with such additional lands as are required for excavations, embankments, depot and station grounds, passing tracks, or borrow pits. [L. '19, p. 106, § 2.]

§ 8124. Maps and Field-notes to be Filed—Payment for Land and Timber.

In order to obtain the benefits of this grant the United States shall file with the commissioner of public lands a map or maps of the rights of way desired, together with the field-notes of the survey thereof, and shall pay to the state the amount of the appraised value of the lands affected by, used for, or included within the said rights of way and extra widths, together with the appraised value of the timber thereon. [L. '19, p. 106, § 3.]

CHAPTER XXIV.

LOCAL ASSESSMENTS AGAINST STATE LANDS.

§ 8125. State Lands Benefited by Local Improvements—Leased and Contracted Lands.

That all lands, including school lands, granted lands, escheated lands, tide lands, shore lands, or other lands, (including harbor areas lying between tide or shore lands and outer harbor line) held or owned by the state of Washington in fee simple (in trust or otherwise), situated within the limits of any incorporated city, town, diking, drainage, or port district in this state, may be assessed and charged for the cost of local improvements specially benefiting such lands which may be ordered by the proper authorities of any such city, town, diking, drainage, or port district: Provided, that the leasehold, contractual or possessory interest of any person, firm, association, private or municipal corporation in any such lands shall be charged and assessed in the proportional amount such leasehold, contractual or possessory interest is benefited: Provided, further, that the interest of the state in such property shall not be sold to satisfy the lien of such assessment, but only such interest or contract or other right therein as may be in private ownership shall be subject to such sale. [L. '19, p. 479, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 598, § 4; L. '05, p. 267, § 2.]

§ 8126. Charging State for Local Improvements.

In all local improvement assessment districts in any incorporated city, town, diking, drainage or port district in this state, property in such district, held or owned by the state shall be assessed and charged for its proportion of the cost of such local improvements in the same manner as other property in such district, it being the intention of this act that the state shall bear its just and equitable proportion of the cost of local improvements specially benefiting state lands: Provided, that none of the provisions of this act shall have the effect, or be construed to have the effect, to alter or modify in any particular any existing lease of any lands or property owned by the state, or release or discharge any lessee of any such lands or property from any of the obligations, covenants or conditions of the contract under which any such lands or property are leased or held by any such lessee. rued interest: Reassessment Second School Addition, In re, 110 Wash. 104, 187 Pac. 1092.

§ 8127. Apportioning Cost on Leaseholds.

Where state lands are under lease, the proportionate amounts to be assessed against the leasehold interest, and the fee simple interest of the state, shall be fixed with reference to the life of the improvement and the period for which said lease has yet to run. [L. '19, p. 480, § 3.]

§ 8128. Notice to State of Intention to Improve—Consent.

Notice of the intention to make such improvement, together with the estimate of the amount to be charged to each lot, tract or parcel of land, or other property owned by the state to be assessed for said improvement, shall be forwarded by registered mail to the commissioner of public lands, or to the state board of control (if such lands are occupied by, or used in connection with, any state institution), at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date fixed for hearing on the resolution or petition initiating said improvement, as provided by sections 9360 and 9361. Such city, town, diking, drainage or port district, shall not have jurisdiction to order such improvements as to the interest of the state in harbor areas and state tide lands until the written consent of the commissioner of public lands to the making of such improvement shall have been obtained, unless other means be provided for paying that portion of the cost which would otherwise be levied on the interest of the state of Washington in and to said tide lands, and nothing herein shall prevent the city from assessing the proportionate cost of said improvement against any leasehold, contractual or possessory interest in and to any tide land or harbor area owned by the state: Provided, however, that in the case of tide lands and harbor areas within the boundaries of any port district, notice of intention to make such improvement shall also be forwarded to the commissioners of said port district. [L. '19, p. 480, § 4.]

§ 8129. Certifying Roll to State Officials—Legislative Appropriation—Penalty and Interest.

Upon the approval and confirmation of the assessment-roll for any local improvement ordered by the proper authorities of any incorporated city, town, diking, drainage or port district, the treasurer of such city, town, diking, drainage or port district shall certify and forward to the commissioner of public lands, or to the state board of control (if such lands are occupied by, or used in connection with, any state institution), a statement of all the lots or parcels of land held or owned by the state and charged on such assessment-roll for the cost of such improvement, separately describing each such lot or parcel of the state's land, with the amount of the local assessment charged against it, or the proportionate amount assessed against the fee simple interest of the state, in case said land has been leased; the commissioner of public land shall charge against each such lot or parcel of land owned or held by the state, the amount of the local assessment so certified by such treasurer, and shall then certify said statement to the state auditor; and the state board of control shall cause a proper record to be made in its office of the cost of such improvement upon lands occupied by state institutions or used in connection therewith, and shall certify said statement to the state auditor, and the state auditor, at the next session of the legislature, shall certify to the legislature the amount of all local improvement assessments charged against such lands of the state, and the legislature shall provide for the payment of the same, with interest, by appropriation out of the general fund of the state: Provided, that if said improvement is essential to harbor and waterfront development and improvement, such appropriation may be deducted from the proceeds of rents received from leases of harbor areas and tide lands within port districts wherein the improvement is to be made; and provided further that no penalty shall be provided or enforced against the state, and no interest on the assessment levied to pay for said improvement greater than six per cent (6%) per annum shall be taxed to, or allowed by, the state for or on account of making such improvement. § 8130. Liens Against Contractual Interests.

When any city, town, diking, drainage or port district has made or caused to be made an assessment against such leasehold, contractual or possessory interest for any such local improvement, the treasurer of said city, town, diking, drainage or port district shall immediately give notice to the commissioner of public lands or to the state board of control (if such lands are occupied by or used in connection with any state institution); said assessment shall become a lien against the leasehold, contractual or possessory interest in the same manner as the assessments on other property, and its collection may be enforced against such interests as provided by law for the enforcement of other local improvement assessments: Provided, that said assessment shall not be made payable in installments unless the owner of such leasehold, contractual or possessory interest shall first file with such treasurer a satisfactory bond guaranteeing the payment of such installments as they become due. [L. '19, p. 482, § 6; L. '09, p. 596, § 1. Cf. L. '05, p. 267, § 1; L. '07, p. 123, § 1.]

Cited in 52 Wash. 381—384; 95 Wash. 245.

§ 8131. Foreclosure of Liens—Cancellation of Leases and Contracts—Delinquent Leaseholds in Port Districts.

Whenever any city, town, diking, drainage or port district shall have foreclosed the lien of any such delinquent assessments, as provided by law, and shall have obtained title to such leasehold, contractual or possessory interest, the commissioner of public lands, or the state board of control, as the case may be, shall be notified by registered mail of such action and furnished a statement of all assessments against such leasehold, contractual or possessory interest, and such commissioner shall cause the amount of such assessments to be certified to the legislature for payment, and upon the receipt of an assignment from such city, town, diking, drainage, or port district, shall cancel such lease or contract: Provided, however, that unless the municipal corporation making said local improvement and levying said special assessment shall have used due diligence in the foreclosure thereof, the commissioner of public lands or the state board of control shall not be required to make such certification for a sum in excess of what they deem to be the special benefits accruing to the state's reversionary interest in said property; and provided further that if such delinquent assessment or installment shall be against a leasehold interest in tide lands or harbor areas in a port district, the said commissioner of public lands shall notify the commissioners of said port district of the receipt of such assignment, and said commissioners shall forthwith cancel such lease. [L. '19, p. 483, § 7.]

§ 8132. Payment by State After Reversion.

If by reason of default in the payment of rentals or installments, or other causes, the state shall cancel any lease or contract against which assessments have been levied as herein provided, the commissioner of public lands and the state auditor shall cause such assessments or installments as shall fall due subsequent to the cancellation of said contract or leasehold interest to be properly certified to the legislature for payment, the same as if the assessments or installments thereof had been levied on the state's interest in said lands. [L. '19, p. 483, § 8.]

§ 8133. Assessments Added to Sale Price of State Lands.

When any land, other than lands occupied and used in connection with state institutions, owned or held by the state within incorporated cities, towns, diking, drainage or port districts in this state, against which local improvement assessments have been paid, as herein provided for, is offered for sale, there shall be added to the appraised value of such land, as provided by law, such portion of the local improvement assessment paid by the state as shall be deemed to represent the value added to such lands by such improvement for the purpose of sale, which amount so added shall be paid by the purchaser in cash at the time of the sale of said land, in addition to the amounts otherwise due to the state for said land, and no deed shall ever be executed until such local improvement assessments have been paid, and nothing herein shall be construed as canceling any unpaid assessments on the land so sold by the state, but such land shall be sold subject to all assessments unpaid at the time of sale. [L. '19, p. 484, § 9; L. '09, p. 600, § 7. Cf. L. '05, p. 268, § 5.]

§ 8134. Assignment of Contractual Interest.

Whenever any such tide, state, school, granted or other lands situated within the limits of any city, town, diking, drainage or port district, has been included within any local improvement district by such city, town, diking, drainage or port district, and the contract, leasehold or other interest of any individual has been sold to satisfy the lien of such assessment for local improvement, the purchaser of such interest at such sale shall be entitled to receive from the state of Washington, on demand, an assignment of the contract, leasehold or other interest purchased by him, and shall assume, subject to the terms and conditions of the contract or lease, the payment to the state of the amount of the balance which his predecessor in interest was obligated to pay. [L. '19, p. 484, § 10; L. '07, p. 123, § 2; L. '09, p. 601, § 10.]

§ 8135. Application of Act.

The provisions of this act shall apply to all municipal corporations, diking, drainage and port districts, any charter or ordinance provisions to the contrary notwithstanding. [L. '19, p. 485, § 11; L. '09, p. 600, § 8. Cf. L. '05, p. 269, § 6.]

§ 8136. Eminent Domain Assessments.

The provisions of this act shall apply to all local improvements initiated after the taking effect of this act, including assessments to pay the cost and expense of taking and damaging property by the power of eminent domain, as provided by law: Provided, that in case of eminent domain assessments, it shall not be necessary to forward to the commissioner of public lands or to the state board of control, as the case may be, notice of the intention to make such improvement, but the eminent domain commissioners, authorized to make such assessment, shall, at the time of filing the assessment-roll with the court in the manner provided by law, forward by registered mail to the commissioner of public lands or to the state board of control (if such lands are occupied by or used in connection with any state institution) a notice of such assessment, and of the day fixed by the court for the hearing thereof: Provided, that no assessment against the state's interest in tide-lands or harbor areas shall be binding against the state if the commissioner of public lands shall file a disapproval of the same in court before judgment confirming the roll. § 8146. [6890.] Formation of New Precincts Does not Affect Apportionment.

Precincts which have recently been formed, or which hereafter may be formed, or which for any reason are not mentioned herein by name, shall be part of the same senatorial and representative districts as the precincts from which they were formed. [September 11, 1890, § 9; 1 H. C., § 45; L. '01, p. 93, § 7.]

CHAPTER II.

EXPENSES.

§ 8147. [6891.] Supplies—How Purchased.

All stationery, desk supplies and furnishings required by the state legislature and the state officers located at the capital shall hereafter be purchased and provided and accounted for in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as govern the purchase and provision and accounting of the supplies for public printing. [L. '97, p. 205, § 1.]

At the time this section was enacted, this duty devolved upon the secretary of state: See L. '90, p. 412, § 1; Bal. Code, § 190. Supplies for public printing are now furnished by the public printer: See § 10333, infra. All supplies for state institutions in charge of the state board of control were purchased by said board: See § 10906, infra. And this included the state capitol: See infra, § 10899. The duties now devolve upon director of business control: See infra, § 10794.

§ 8148. [6892.] Warrants for Pay of Employees.

The state auditor shall draw warrants on the state treasurer for sums covering amounts due officers and employees of the legislature on presentation of certificates signed by the speaker or president, and countersigned by the chief clerk or secretary, of the body in which the service of the officer or employee is rendered, and showing amounts due to dates specified. Each of said warrants shall be drawn in favor and be made payable to the order of the officer or employee named in each certificate. [L. '90, p. 1, § 1; 1 H. C., § 46.]

Under Constitution, Article II, § 25, any public officer, agent, servant or contractor after the services shall have been rendered or the contract entered into," an allowance of extra compensation to employees of the legislature subsequent to the rendition of the services they were employed to perform is void: State ex rel. Eshelman v. Cheetham, 21 Wash. 437, 58 Pac. 771.

The constitutional restriction against the legislature's granting extra compensation to officers or servants after the rendition of the services or the entering into the contract, and against increase of compensation of a public officer during his term of office does not prohibit the legislature, or either branch, from granting an employee compensation for services performed in addition to the regular duties for which he was employed: State ex rel. Eshelman v. Cheetham, 21 Wash. 437, 58 Pac. 771.

§ 8149. [6893.] Payment of.

Upon presentation to the state treasurer of a warrant drawn as provided for in the last preceding section, that officer shall pay the same from any money in the state treasury appropriated for the expenses of the legislature of the state of Washington: Provided, that should there be no money in the treasury of the state covered by such appropriation, the state treasurer shall indorse such fact on the warrant presented, and said warrants shall draw interest from date of such indorsement, and shall be payable thereafter as is provided by law and customs. [L. '90, p. 1, § 2; 1 H. C., § 47.]

§ 8150. [6894.] Warrants for Pay of Members.

The state auditor is hereby directed to draw warrants on the state treasurer for the mileage and daily pay of members of the legislature, on presentation of certificates showing amounts due for miles traveled and services rendered to dates specified. The certificates shall be signed by the speaker or president, and countersigned by the chief clerk or secretary, respectively, of the body to which the members belong. The warrants shall be in favor of and payable to the order of the persons named in said certificates. [L. '90, p. 6, § 1; 1 H. C., § 48.]

§ 8151. [6895.] Payment of.

Upon presentation of a warrant, drawn as provided for in the last preceding section, to the state treasurer, that officer shall pay the same out of any money in the treasury of the state appropriated for the expenses of the legislature of the state of Washington: Provided, that should there be no money in the state treasury covered by such appropriation, the state treasurer shall indorse such fact on the warrant presented, and said warrant shall draw interest from the date of such presentation and indorsement, and shall be payable thereafter in the manner provided by existing law and custom. [L. '90, p. 6, § 2; 1 H. C., § 49.]

§ 8152. [6896.] Warrants for Incidental Expenses.

The state auditor is hereby directed to draw warrants on the state treasurer for the incidental expenses of the legislature, on presentation of certificates showing amounts due for material furnished and services rendered to dates specified. The certificates shall be signed by the speaker or president, and countersigned by the sergeant-at-arms, respectively, of the body ordering the expenditures. The warrants shall be in favor of and payable to the order of the persons named in said certificates. [L. '90, p. 10, § 1; 1 H. C., § 50.]

§ 8153. [6897.] Payment of.

CHAPTER III.VACANCIES.*§ 8154. [6898.] Vacancy—How Filled—Writ of Election.

Whenever a vacancy occurs in the legislature of the state of Washington during or prior to any session of the legislature which occurs before any general election of the state of Washington, it shall be the duty of the governor of the state to forthwith issue a writ of election providing for the filling of such vacancy by an election; said writ shall, in substance, be as follows:—

The state of Washington to the electors of — (senatorial or representative) district, county or counties, of the state of Washington, greeting:—

You are hereby commanded to hold an election to fill the vacancy in the — (here state whether in the house or senate) caused by the — (here state cause of vacancy), which said election shall be held upon the — day of —, A. D. 189—.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed thereto.

— —, Governor.

Attest:

— —, Secretary of State.

Which said writ shall be at once transmitted to the auditor or auditors of the county or counties wherein said district is situated. [L. '91, p. 2, § 1; 1 H. C., § 52.]

See Const., Art. II, § 15, vacancies, how filled.

See note to § 5366, supra, contest of elections for legislature.

§ 8155. [6899.] Election, How Held.

Such election shall be held in every way as provided by law for general elections in the state of Washington, except as herein otherwise provided. [L. '91, p. 3, § 2; 1 H. C., § 53.]

§ 8156. [6900.] Notice, by Whom and How Given.

It shall be the duty of the auditor or auditors of the county or counties wherein the district is situated, wherein said election is to be held, to give notice of such election by posting notices of the same in at least four public places within said district, or if said district be composed of more than one county, then in four public places in either county, and by posting one notice at the front door of the courthouse of the county or counties wherein said district is situated, in substance following:—

To the electors of — (senatorial or representative district, as the case may be), in the county of —, in the state of Washington:—

Notice is hereby given that, by virtue of a writ of election issued by his excellency the governor of the state of Washington, an election will be held for the purpose of electing a — (representative or senator, as the case may be) from the — district, in the county or counties of —, in the state of Washington, to fill the vacancy caused by the — (state cause of vacancy), upon the — day of —, 189—, at the various voting places within said district, where the last general election was held, within the usual hours provided by law for holding general elections.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this — day of —, 189—. —, County Auditor of — County.

Which said notice shall also be published once in some newspaper published within the county or counties in which said district is situated, if there be a newspaper in said county or counties, and if not, then in some newspaper of general circulation within said district. [L. '91, p. 3, § 3; 1 H. C., § 54.]

§ 8157. [6901.] Further Requirements as to Notice.

Said notice shall be posted at least ten days prior to the day when said election is to be held; and be published in said newspaper at least five days before the day of holding said election. It shall also be the duty of the county auditor or auditors, in addition to posting and giving said notice, as hereinbefore provided for, to give a copy of said notice to the chairman or any member of the county central committee of all the political organizations existing within the county or counties in which said district is situated, at least ten days before the day when said election shall be held. [L. '91, p. 4, § 4; 1 H. C., § 55.]

§ 8158. [6902.] Registration of Voters—Who Entitled to Vote.

The registration of voters for the general election, or, where the district is within an incorporated city, for the municipal election next preceding the holding of a special election, shall be deemed to be a registration of voters for the purposes of such special election, and shall be used at such election as the registration of such special election: Provided, that any voter not registered, who has become entitled to vote since the last registration, shall be entitled to vote upon proving to the satisfaction of the judges and inspector of the said election that such voter is entitled to vote, and that such voter has become entitled to vote since the last registration was closed. [L. '91, p. 4, § 5; 1 H. C., § 56.]

See supra, § 5115 et seq., registration of voters.

§ 8159. [6903.] Nominations of Candidates, Filing of.

All nominations of candidates for the office to be filled by the writ of election hereinbefore provided for shall be filed with the auditor of the county or counties wherein said district is situated, at least five days before the day appointed for said election. [L. '91, p. 4, § 6; 1 H. C., § 57.]

§ 8160. [6904.] Candidates may be Nominated, How.

In addition to the manner in which candidates may be nominated by law for such special election, the candidates for the office named in such writ of election may be nominated by the chief committee of any political organization within the county or counties wherein said district is situated. [L. '91, p. 4, § 7; 1 H. C., § 58.]

§ 8161. [6905.] Officers of Election, Who Deemed to be.

At such special election the judges and inspectors of election appointed by the county commissioners of the county or counties wherein said district is situated for the last general election preceding such special election shall be deemed to be the officers of such special election, and the county auditor shall, immediately upon receiving the writ of election from the governor, proceed to notify said officers of the holding of said election. [L. '91, p. 4, § 8; 1 H. C., § 59.]

See supra, § 5158 et seq., appointment and qualifications of election officers.

CHAPTER IV.

EVIDENCE FOR CONTEST OF ELECTION OF LEGISLATOR.

§ 8162. [6906.] Who may Contest Election of Members of the Legislature.

The right of any person declared duly elected to a seat in the council or house of representatives, may be contested by any qualified voter of the county or district to be represented by such councilman or representative. [Code 1881, § 3125.]

The present force of this act is doubtful.

§ 8163. [6907.] Contestant to File Statement With Clerk of Court.

The person contesting such election shall, within thirty days after election, file with the clerk of the district court of the district in which the alleged cause or causes of the contest originated, a concise statement of the grounds on which he intends to rely, verified by affidavits. [Code 1881, § 3126.]

Superior court, under the state government.

§ 8164. [6908.] Clerk to Issue Commission to Take Depositions.

Immediately on the filing of such statement in the clerk's office, the said clerk shall issue a commission directed to two justices of the peace in the contestant's district, to meet at such time and place as shall be specified in such commission, not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the time of issuing the same, for the purpose of taking depositions of such witnesses as the parties to such contest may wish to examine. [Code 1881, § 3127.]

§ 8165. [6909.] Requisites of Notice—How Served.

Written notice of such contest, specifying the time and place of taking depositions, and before whom to be taken, and a copy of the statement certified by the clerk of said court, shall be delivered to the person whose election is contested, or, if he cannot be found, it shall be left at the house where he last resided by the sheriff of the county in which such person claims his residence, within ten days after such statement shall have been filed in the clerk's office. [Code 1881, § 3128.]

§ 8166. [6910.] Sheriff to Return Notice to Clerk.

The sheriff into whose hands such notice and certified copy may come shall make due service thereof, and shall return to the proper clerk a certified copy of such notice, with the manner and time of service indorsed thereon, for which he shall be entitled to receive from the party contesting such election the same fees for service and mileage as are allowed in the district [superior] court for the service of original writs. [Code 1881, § 3129.]

§ 8167. [6911.] Witnesses must Attend.

Either of said justices of the peace shall have power, at any time, to issue subpoenas for witnesses, at the request of either party, to be served by the sheriff as other subpoenas, and such justices, when met at the time and place appointed to take such depositions, shall have the same power to issue attachments and assess fines against witnesses as is given to justices of the peace in the trial of suits instituted before them. [Code 1881, § 3130.]

§ 8168. [6912.] Depositions of Witnesses.

Said justices of the peace shall meet at the time and place appointed to take the depositions of witnesses produced by the parties, which shall be reduced to writing by said justices, and sworn to and subscribed by said witnesses, respectively, and duly certified by said justices as depositions are in other cases, noting in the caption of each deposition by which party the witness was called. [Code 1881, § 3131.]

§ 8169. [6913.] Examination to Continue from Day to Day.

Said justices may continue said examination from day to day, if the business shall require it, and when the same is closed they shall deliver the depositions taken before them, together with their said commissions, to the clerk of the district [superior] court by whom the same was issued. [Code 1881, § 3132.]

§ 8170. [6914.] Clerk to Appoint Justice in Case of Failure to Serve.

If, at any time, either of the said justices shall become unable to proceed in such examination, said clerk may supply the vacancy by designating any other justice of the peace of the district in the place of such justice. [Code 1881, § 3133.]

§ 8171. [6915.] Fees to be Allowed Sheriff and Justices.

The sheriff, for the service of such subpoenas, and the justice for issuing the same and taking the deposition, shall receive from the party at whose instance such services are performed, the same fees as are allowed them for similar service in other cases. [Code 1881, § 3134.]

§ 8172. [6916.] Clerk to Transmit Proceedings to Secretary.

It shall be the duty of said clerk to seal up such depositions, together with the original statement of the grounds of such contest, and the copy of notice served upon the party whose right is contested, and the commission issued to the justices of the peace, and transmit the same by mail to the secretary of state, indorsing thereon the names of the contesting parties, and the branch of the legislature before which such contest is to be tried. [Code 1881, § 3135.]

§ 8173. [6917.] Duty of Secretary of State.

It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to deliver the same unopened to the presiding officer of the house in which such contest is to be tried, on or before the second day of the session of the legislature next after taking such depositions, and such presiding officer shall immediately give notice to said house that said papers are in his possession. [Code 1881, § 3136.]

§ 8174. [6918.] Respective Houses to Try Contested Election.

Each house of the legislature is the judge of the qualifications and election of its members, and shall try all contested elections of its members in such manner as it may direct. [Code 1881, § 3137.]

See Const., Art. II, § 8.

§ 8175. [6919.] Depositions may be Taken After Notice of Contest, etc.

At any time after notice of any contest shall be given and before the trial of such contested election before the proper branch of the legislature, it may be lawful for either party to such contest to take depositions to be read on the trial thereof, in like manner and under the same rules as are allowed and required in the cases of depositions to be read on any trial pending in the district [superior] court, and such deposition when thus taken shall be sealed up by the officer taking the same and directed to the secretary of state, who shall keep the same unopened and deliver them to the presiding officer of the house in which such contest is to be tried, to be disposed of by such officer as the depositions specified in section 8172. [Code 1881, § 3138.]

§ 8176. [6920.] Legislature may Authorize Taking of Depositions.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be so construed as to abridge the right of either branch of the legislature trying any contested election, from granting commissions to take testimony, or from sending for and examining before such branch any witnesses it may desire to hear on such trial. [Code 1881, § 3139.]

CHAPTER V.

SESSIONS.

§ 8177. [6921.] Biennial Sessions of the Legislature Commence When.

The third legislature of the state of Washington shall meet on the second Monday of January, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and ninety-three, and sessions of the legislature shall be held biennially thereafter, commencing on the second Monday of January. [L. '91, p. 38; 1 H. C., § 60.]

See Const., Art. II, § 12, biennial and special sessions.

See supra, § 2237, disturbing meeting.

See supra, § 2338, intimidation of member.

CHAPTER VI.

TESTIMONY AND CLAIMS BEFORE.

§ 8178. [6922.] Attendance of Witnesses Compulsory.

Every chairman or presiding member of any committee of either the senate or house of representatives, or any joint committee of the senate or house of representatives, which, by the terms of its appointment, shall be authorized to send for persons and papers, shall have power, under the direction of such committee, to issue compulsory process for the attendance of any witness within the state whom the committee may wish to examine. [L. '95, p. 9, § 1.]

Compare L. '81, p. 36, §§ 1—3, procuring testimony before legislative committee.

§ 8179. [6923.] Chairman to Administer Oaths.

The chairman or presiding member of any committee of either the senate, house of representatives, or any joint committee thereof, shall be authorized to administer oaths to all witnesses coming before such committee for examination; and all witnesses who shall testify in any proceeding provided for in this chapter, shall be under oath or affirmation. [L. '95, p. 10, § 2.]

§ 8180. [6924.] Commission to Examine Absent Witnesses.

Every such chairman or presiding member shall also have power, under the direction of the committee, to issue a commission for the examination of any witness who shall be without the jurisdiction of the state, or if within the state, shall be unable to attend, or who shall, for any reason, be excused by the committee from attendance. [L. '95, p. 10, § 3.]

§ 8181. [6925.] Commission Executed During Recess.

Whenever such committee shall obtain authority for that purpose, from the senate or house, or legislature, by which it may be appointed, it may issue such commission to be executed during the recess of the legislature. [L. '95, p. 10, § 4.]

§ 8182. [6926.] To Whom Directed.

Every such commission shall be directed to such magistrate or other person, as the committee may designate, and interrogatories framed by the committee shall be annexed thereto. [L. '95, p. 10, § 5.]

§ 8183. [6927.] Commissioner to Subscribe to Oath.

The person to whom such commission shall be directed, if he resides within the state and accept the trust, shall, before entering upon the execution of his duties, take the oath of office prescribed in the Constitution. Such commissioner shall have power to issue process to compel the attendance of witnesses, whom he shall be required to examine, and shall have power to administer oaths to such witnesses. [L. '95, p. 10, § 6.]

§ 8184. [6928.] Private Examinations.

Unless otherwise directed by the committee, it shall in all cases be the duty of the commissioner to examine, in private, every witness attending before him, and not to make public the particulars of such examination, when so made in private, until the same shall be made public by order of the house or legislature appointing the committee. [L. '95, p. 10, § 7.]

§ 8185. [6929.] Witnesses Sworn.

Every witness so attending shall be examined on oath or affirmation, and his testimony shall be reduced to writing by the commissioner, or by some disinterested person in his presence and under the direction of said commissioner, and signed by the witness. [L. '95, p. 11, § 8.]

§ 8186. [6930.] Depositions Annexed.

When a commission shall have been duly executed, the commissioner shall annex thereto the depositions of the witnesses, duly certified by him, and shall, without delay, transmit the same by mail, inclosed and under seal, or deliver the same, to the chairman of the committee by which the commission shall have been issued, or to such person as by the committee directed. [L. '95, p. 11, § 9.]

§ 8187. [6931.] Fees.

A person executing any such commission shall be paid, out of the state treasury, the same fees that are allowed by law for the taking of depositions on commissions issued out of the superior courts of this state; and any witness attending before either house of the legislature, or any committee or joint committee thereof, or before any such commissioner, shall be so paid two (2) dollars per day for each day in attendance, and five (5) cents a mile for the distance necessarily traveled in attending as such witness. [L. '95, p. 11, § 10.]

§ 8188. [6932.] Punishment for Refusal to Attend.

A person who, being duly summoned to attend as a witness before either house of the legislature, or any committee or joint committee thereof, or commissioner authorized to summon witnesses, refuses or neglects, without lawful excuse to attend pursuant to such summons, shall be punished as for contempt, as hereinafter provided. [L. '95, p. 11, § 11.]

See infra, § 8194, failure to attend, a misdemeanor.

§ 8189. [6933.] Persons Refusing to Respond, in Contempt.

A person who, being present before either house of the legislature, or any committee or joint committee thereof, or commissioner authorized to summon witnesses, willfully refuses to be sworn or affirmed, or to answer any material and proper questions, or to produce, upon reasonable notice, any material and proper books, papers or documents in his possession or under his control, shall be punished as for contempt as hereinafter provided. [L. '95, p. 11, § 12.]

See supra, § 2338, penalty for refusing to testify.

See infra, § 8194, failure to testify a misdemeanor.

§ 8190. [6934.] Punishment of Persons in Contempt.

Any person being in contempt, as hereinbefore provided, shall be punished by a fine in any sum not less than fifty (50) dollars and not exceeding one thousand (1,000) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail in the county where such examination is being had, for any period of time not extending beyond the legislative session then being held, or by both such fine and imprisonment, as the legislative body which authorized such examination may order. And in case the contempt arises in a joint proceeding of both houses, or before a joint committee thereof, the senate shall prescribe the penalty. [L. '95, p. 11, § 13.]

§ 8191. [6935.] Conditional Punishment for Contempt.

If any fine is imposed against any person for contempt, as hereinbefore provided, he shall stand committed to the county jail of the county in which the offense was committed until such fine is paid. The presiding officer of the house, fixing the fine, shall issue a warrant to the sheriff of the county where the offense was committed, commanding him to imprison such person in the county jail until such fine is paid, or until he has been imprisoned in such jail one (1) day for every three (3) dollars of such fine. [L. '95, p. 12, § 14.]

§ 8192. [6936.] Process, How Served.

All process provided for in this chapter may be served in the same manner as is provided by law for the service of process in the superior court; and it shall be the duty of any officer to whom any process may be delivered or issued, to serve the same as directed: Provided, that in the service of process a copy thereof shall be delivered to the witness. [L. '95, p. 12, § 15.]

§ 8193. [6937.] Record of Proceedings.

Every such committee shall keep a record of its proceedings under the provisions of this chapter, which record shall be signed by the chairman or presiding officer of the committee, and the same returned to the legislative body by which the committee was appointed, as a part of the report of such committee. [L. '95, p. 12, § 16.]

§ 8194. [6938.] Punishment of Recalcitrant Witnesses.

Any person who shall fail to attend as a witness upon any committee appointed by either the house or senate of the state of Washington, or both, after having been duly subpoenaed as provided in chapter VI of this title, or who, being in attendance as a witness before such committee, shall refuse to answer any question or produce any paper or document or book which he is required to answer or to produce by such committee, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not longer than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '97, p. 46, § 1.]

See supra, §§ 8188, 8189, contempts.

§ 8195. [6939.] Evidence of Legislative Claims Against State.

All claims hereafter made to the legislature against the state of Washington for money or property, shall be accompanied by a statement of the facts on which such claim is based and such evidence as the claimant intends to offer in support thereof. Legislative committees to whom such claims are referred shall make a transcript or statement of the substance of the evidence given in support of such claim; such statement, together with the transcript of the evidence taken by the committee, shall be filed with the state auditor who shall retain the same as a record of his office. [L. '03, p. 53, § 1.]

CHAPTER VII.

SESSION LAWS.

§ 8196. [6940.] Enrolled Bill to be Filed With Secretary of State.

Whenever any bill shall have passed both houses, the house transmitting the enrolled bill to the governor shall also file with the secretary of state the engrossed bill, together with the history of such bill up to the time of transmission to the governor. [L. '07, p. 262, § 1.]

§ 8197. [6941.] Chapter Numbers—Citation.

Whenever any bill shall become a law the secretary of state shall number such bill in the order in which it became a law, commencing with each session of the legislature. Such number shall be in Arabic numerals, and shall be the chapter number of the act when published. A citation to the chapter number and year of the session laws heretofore or hereafter published shall be a sufficient reference to the act so designated. [L. '07, p. 262, § 2.]

§ 8198. [6942.] Temporary Publication.

The secretary of state shall cause to be printed for temporary use one thousand copies of each act filed in his office within ten days after the filing thereof, and in the order of its chapter number. The style and size of type, line and number of lines to the page shall be the same as shall be used in the permanent volume of the session laws of such session. [L. '07, p. 263, § 3.]

See infra, § 10325, public printer to print and bind.

§ 8199. [6943.] Distribution of Copies.

The secretary of state shall furnish one copy of each act as published to each member of the legislature at which such law was enacted, to each state officer, and to each state institution; five copies to each of the state educational institutions; and to each county auditor for the use of his county; twenty-five copies to the state law library, and such further distribution as may be necessary. [L. '07, p. 263, § 4.]

See infra, § 8223, distribution of session laws.

§ 8200. [6944.] Headings and Index—Distribution and Sale.

When all of the acts of any session and initiative measures enacted by the people since the next preceding session have been published in temporary form, the attorney general shall make the proper headings, side annotations and index of such acts or laws and shall after such work has been completed, have published and bound in good buckram at least twenty-five hundred copies of such acts and laws with such headings, annotations and indexes and such other matter as may be deemed essential, including a title page showing the session at which such acts were passed, the date of convening and adjournment of the session, and any other matter deemed proper including a certificate of such referendum measures as may have been enacted by the people since the next preceding session. When published as above provided the secretary of state shall deliver the same to the person authorized by law to have the custody and distribution thereof, who shall distribute the same as provided by law, the surplus copies to be sold at ten per cent above the cost thereof; and in determining such cost no account shall be made of the material and press work of the advance sheets or temporary publication of the session laws and acts. [L. '15, p. 60, § 1. Cf. L. '07, p. 263, § 5; L. '90, p. 631, § 4; 1 H. C., § 70; Bal. Code, § 118.]

§ 8201. [6945.] Unlawful to Publish, When.

It shall be unlawful for any person to print and publish for sale the session laws of any session in book form within one year after the adjournment of such session, other than those ordered printed by the secretary of state, or to deliver to any one other than such officer or upon his order any of the session laws so ordered printed by him: Provided, this section shall not apply to any general compilation of the laws of this state or to a compilation of any special laws or laws on any special subject. [L. '07, p. 264, § 6.]

§ 8202. [6946.] Expenses—How Paid.

The expenses incurred by the secretary of state in carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter, or in pursuance of any law or resolution of the legislature, shall be allowed and paid out of the state treasury upon presentation of the bills therefor to the satisfaction of the state auditor, who shall draw warrants in favor of the secretary upon the state treasurer, who shall pay the same out of the funds herein appropriated, or hereafter out of funds appropriated from time to time by the legislature for that purpose. [L. '90, p. 632, § 7; 1 H. C., § 73.]

"Chapter" has reference to act of 1890 relating to publishing the session laws.

§ 8203. [6947.] Duties in Arranging Laws.

In arranging the laws, memorials, and resolutions for publication, the secretary is hereby authorized to make such corrections in the orthography, clerical errors, and punctuation of the same as in his judgment shall be deemed essential: Provided, that when any words or clauses shall be inserted the same shall be inclosed in brackets; and no correction shall be made which changes the intent or meaning of any sentence, section, or act of the legislature. [L. '90, p. 632, § 8; 1 H. C., § 74.]

CHAPTER VIII.STATE BOARD TO PROMOTE UNIFORMITY OF LEGISLATION.*§ 8204. [6948.] Governor to Appoint, and Fill Vacancies.

Within thirty days after this act takes effect the governor shall appoint three suitable persons and they and their successors are hereby constituted "A board of commissioners for the promotion of uniformity of legislation in the United States." Any vacancy in said board shall be filled by appointment by the governor. [L. '05, p. 111, § 1.]

§ 8205. [6949.] Duty of Board.

It shall be the duty of said board to examine the subject of marriage and divorce, insolvency, the descent and distribution of property, the execution and probate of wills and other subjects upon which uniformity of legislation in the various states and territories of the Union is desirable, but which are outside of the jurisdiction of the congress of the United States; to confer upon these matters with the commissioners appointed by other states and territories for the same purpose; to consider and draft uniform laws to be submitted for approval and adoption by the several states; and generally to devise and recommend such other and further course of action as shall accomplish the purposes of this act. [L. '05, p. 111, § 2.]

§ 8206. [6950.] Record of Board.

The said board of commissioners shall keep a record of all its transactions, and shall, at each biennial session of the legislature, and may at any other time, make a report of its doings and of its recommendations to the legislature. [L. '05, p. 111, § 3.]

§ 8207. [6951.] Remuneration of Members.

No member of said board shall receive any compensation for his services, but each member shall be repaid from the state treasury the amount of his actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of his official duty, after the account thereof has been audited by said board and by the state auditor, and said board shall keep a full account of its expenditures and shall report it in each annual report: Provided, that there shall be allowed such expenses for only one annual meeting of the commissioners within this state, and for only one commissioner (to be designated by a majority of said board or in case they cannot agree, by the governor) in attendance not oftener than once in each year at any conference of the commissioners from other states for the purposes stated, in section 8205, outside of this state. [L. '05, p. 111, § 4.]

CHAPTER I.

STATE LIBRARIES.

For former laws on this subject compare L. '54, pp. 415, 416; L. '63, p. 506; L. '67, pp. 124—129; L. '79, pp. 152, 153; L. '77, pp. 329, 330; Cd. '81, §§ 2588—2613; L. '90, pp. 254—259; 1 H. C., §§ 1298—1320; L. '93, pp. 136—140; 1 Bal. Code, §§ 2600—2617; L. '01, pp. 52, 53; L. '01, p. 57; L. '03, p. 351, § 1.

§ 8208. [6953.] Powers and Duties of Commission—Librarian and His Assistants.

The state library commission shall have full charge and control of the state library and of all its departments. It shall appoint a state librarian, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission. The state librarian shall take an oath to be filed in the office of the secretary of state that he will support the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of the state of Washington, and will faithfully discharge his duties, and shall give bond in the sum of two thousand dollars payable to the state, with two or more sureties to be approved by the state library commission, that he will perform his duties as required by law. The state librarian shall appoint two assistant librarians, by and with the advice and consent of the state library commission, who shall qualify in like manner as the librarian, and under his direction and control discharge any and all duties required by him to be discharged. The state library commission shall adopt such rules for the convenient and economical management of the state library in all its departments as they deem fit. [L. '03, p. 352, § 2.]

See next section.

See infra, § 10770, law library committee.

See infra, § 10771, duties of state library commission devolve upon state library committee.

See infra, § 10893, state library commission abolished.

§ 8209. [6954.] State Law Librarian.

The assistant state librarian who has charge of the law department of the state library shall hereafter be entitled and known as the state law librarian. He shall hold his office by appointment of and at the pleasure of the supreme court. [L. '07, p. 43, § 1.]

Provision for salary omitted as superseded by the next section.

§ 8210. [6955.] Salary.

The salary of the state law librarian shall be two thousand four hundred (2,400) dollars per annum. [L. '09, p. 183, § 1.]

§ 8211. [6956.] Superintendent of State Traveling Library.

The state traveling library, together with all books, property, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, shall be under the control and management of a superintendent, to be appointed by, and hold office at the pleasure of, the state library commission, which shall have supervision over said superintendent and the books, property, and affairs of said traveling library. [L. '07, p. 375, § 1.]

See notes to § 8208.

See supra, §§ 4926—4931, county circulating libraries.

§ 8212. [6957.] Duties—Salary.

The superintendent shall be charged with all the duties now resting upon the state librarian with reference to said traveling library. The superintendent shall be allowed a salary of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) per annum, and necessary traveling expenses. [L. '07, p. 375, § 2.]

§ 8213. [6958.] Salary of Librarian.

The state librarian shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars, to be paid monthly, and the state auditor shall draw warrants on the state treasurer therefor. [L. '13, p. 246, § 1. Cf. L. '03, p. 352, § 3.]

§ 8214. [6959.] Duties of Librarian.

The state librarian, under the direction and control of the state library commission, shall: (1) Assume charge of the state library and all its branches, provide rooms therefor and adjust and arrange it in such rooms, and also provide such fixtures and fittings as shall be necessary. (2) Purchase all books, reports and maps deemed necessary or proper for the use of the library. (3) Receive and take charge of all books, reports, maps or other documents which may be donated to said library. (4) Provide for the care and repair of the rooms, furniture, fixtures, books, reports and documents of the library. (5) Receive and distribute all public documents which he is required by law to receive and distribute. (6) Act as secretary of the state library commission and advisory board, and under the direction thereof assist in the organization or improvement of the state library or any department thereof. (7) Biennially, not more than thirty days before the meeting of the legislature, make a report to the state library commission, showing the work which has been done in all the departments of the state library and such other matters as are of interest in connection with the library work. He shall be authorized to make requisitions upon the state printing board for printing said report, and also for such other printing as may be necessary or proper in the discharge of his duties. (8) Discharge such other duties as he shall by law or the direction of the state library commission be required to discharge. All expenses incurred by him in the discharge of these duties shall be audited and allowed by the state library commission, and when ordered paid by them the state auditor shall draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount thereof. [L. '03, p. 352, § 4.]

§ 8215. [6960.] Duties and Powers of Commission and Advisory Board.

The state library commission shall have the absolute direction and control of the law department of the state library, the arrangement thereof, and the purchases to be made in connection therewith. The state library commission with the advice and assistance of the advisory board hereinbefore created, shall also have control of the miscellaneous department of the state library, the system of traveling libraries and the state historical department (all of which are declared to be a part of the system of the state library) and shall direct such purchases, receive such donations as may be made, and direct its policy in all particulars. The advisory board shall give particular attention to the building up of a state historical department and a system of traveling libraries, and shall give advice and counsel to all free libraries in the state, and to all communities which may propose to establish them, as to the best means of establishing and administering such libraries, the selection of good books, cataloguing, and other details of library management. [L. '03, p. 353, § 5.]

See notes to § 8208.

See infra, § 10771, duties of library advisory board devolve upon state library committee.

See infra, § 10893, library advisory board abolished.

§ 8216. [6961.] Commission and Board—Office of—Duty of Librarian as Secretary to.

The state library commission and the advisory board shall have their office at the office of the state librarian. The state librarian shall act as secretary to the commission and to the advisory board, and as such secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the commission and advisory board, accounts of the financial transactions of the commission, and under its direction, and with the advice and assistance of the advisory board, act in organizing or improving free public libraries and in the management of the state library or any department thereof. His expenses as such secretary shall be paid as are other expenses incurred by him. [L. '03, p. 354, § 6.]

See notes to §§ 8208, 8215.

§ 8217. [6962.] Custody of Public Documents, etc.

It shall be the duty of the printing board, or whoever shall have charge of the printing of the public documents of the state of Washington, to deliver such documents, when printed, immediately to the state librarian, who is declared to be the custodian thereof, except that the state printing board shall reserve one hundred copies of the reports of each state officer, which reports said printing board shall arrange in sets and suitably bind such sets in volumes and label the same "Washington Executive Documents," and shall further designate on the backs of such volumes the date of the series, the volume number, the reports contained in each volume, followed by the dates showing the period covered by such report; and shall then deliver such bound sets to the state librarian. The state librarian shall be charged with all deliveries made to him, and he shall receipt therefor and immediately distribute the same as hereinafter provided, surplus copies to be classified and stored by him in some room assigned for that purpose. Surplus copies of public documents in the custody of any state officer at the time when this act shall take effect shall be delivered by him to the state librarian, who shall receipt therefor. [L. '03, p. 354, § 7.]

§ 8218. [6963.] "Public Documents" Defined.

The term "Public Documents," as used in this chapter, shall include the supreme court reports, the session laws, the legislative journals, the reports of the state officers or of any commission or commissions, board or boards of the state, or of any person or persons authorized by law to make such reports. [L. '03, p. 354, § 8.]

§ 8219. [6964.] Record of Public Documents—Biennial Report.

The state librarian shall keep a record of all public documents received by him, showing number of each received, the number distributed and to whom, and the number yet on hand, which record shall at all times be open to inspection. On or before the first day of January of each year he shall make a report to the state printing board showing the matters disclosed by such record since the time of making his last report, and shall biennially, in his report as state librarian, report to the governor in detail the number of volumes and pamphlets received, the number distributed and the number yet on hand, and shall call attention to any shortage or wasteful surplus, and shall make recommendations with relation thereto. The Washington state library commission, created by the act approved March 2, 1901, shall surrender to the librarian all books or documents in its possession when this act shall take effect, and the librarian shall receipt therefor and account for the same in the manner hereinbefore provided. He shall be liable on his official bond for all books and documents so received by him. [L. '03, p. 355, § 9.]

See notes to § 8208.

§ 8220. [6965.] Distribution of Public Laws and Reports.

Upon receipt of the public documents the state librarian shall deposit six copies of each publication in the state library, and shall place forty copies in reserve for the future needs of the library and to replace loss by fire or otherwise sustained by any office or institution named in this section, and shall then distribute as follows: [Laws '03, p. 355, § 10.]

See infra, § 8253, publications supplied to county law libraries.

§ 8221. [6966.] Reports of State Officers.

Of the unbound volumes of reports of the state officers he shall deliver to the officer making the report as many volumes thereof as said officer may require upon the officer making a written requisition therefor showing the names and addresses of persons for whom such reports are intended. [L. '03, p. 355, § 10, subd. 1.]

§ 8222. [6967.] Executive Documents.

Of the bound volumes of the executive documents referred to in section 8217, he shall deliver to the governor's office and to the governor one copy each; to the congressional library, to the University of Washington and to the Agricultural College and School of Science two copies each; to the normal schools of the state, and to the state, territorial, or district library of each state, territory or district one copy each; and one copy each to any foreign state or territory to which the state library commission shall require one to be sent. [L. '03, p. 355, § 10, subd. 2.]

§ 8223. [6968.] Session Laws.

Of the session laws he shall deliver to each executive state officer, and to each department presided over by such officer, to each department of the United States government, to each of the senators and representatives in congress of this state, to each judge of the supreme court and to the office of each judge, to each superior judge of the state, to each United States district judge and each United States circuit judge within this circuit, to each United States district attorney and to each United States marshal, and to each registrar and receiver of the United States land offices within this state, to each prosecuting attorney, to each assistant attorney general, to each normal school of the state, to the Agricultural College and School of Science, to the University of Washington, to the law department of each state, territorial or district library in the United States, to each of the district courts of Alaska, to each province of the Dominion of Canada, to the clerk of the supreme court, to the supreme court reporter, to each member of the legislature during the session at which such laws were adopted, one copy. To the clerk of each United States district court within the state, for the use of such court, five copies. To the clerk of each of the other United States district courts, and of each circuit court, within this circuit, for the use of their respective courts, three copies. To the clerk of the supreme court of the United States, for the use of such court, ten copies. To the congressional library, and to the law department of the University of Washington, six copies each. To each bar association or public library within the state, three copies. To each county auditor, a sufficient number to supply each county officer and justice of the peace within his respective county with one copy for the official use of such officers, and not otherwise. Such further distribution may be made as the state library commission shall order. The surplus copies thereof shall be sold at the actual cost price with ten per cent added and the proceeds of such sales shall be paid into the state treasury for the use of the state library fund. [L. '03, p. 356, § 10, subd. 3.]

See supra, § 8199, distribution of session laws by secretary of state, a later enactment.

See supra, § 4523, publication and distribution of school laws.

§ 8224. [6969.] House and Senate Journals.

Of the senate and house journals he shall deliver one set to each member of the legislature during the session of which it is a journal, and to each executive state officer, to each free public library in the state, to each newspaper and magazine furnished free to the state library, to each state, territorial or district library in the United States, and to each province of the Dominion of Canada, one set; three sets shall be delivered to each of the normal schools, to the Agricultural College and School of Science, to the University of Washington, and to the law department of the University of Washington; any sets remaining undisposed of shall be disposed of in the same manner as the surplus copies of the session laws. [L. '03, p. 357, § 10, subd. 4.]

§ 8225. [6970.] Supreme Court Reports.

Of the supreme court reports, of each volume issued one volume shall be delivered to the law department of each state, territorial or district library, and to the supreme court of each state, territory or district of the United States, to each province of the Dominion of Canada

To the supreme court reporter two volumes shall be delivered; to the congressional library and to the supreme court of the United States, three volumes each; to the law department of the University of Washington, six volumes; to each bar association or public library within this state, two volumes; to the clerk of the supreme court of the state and to each judge thereof (the same to remain the property of said court) one volume. The state library commission may order such further distribution as it shall deem advisable. The state library commission shall order such distribution of bulletins and documents issued by the United States or any department thereof and forwarded to the state library as it shall deem advisable. [L. '03, p. 357, § 10, subd. 5.]

See infra, §§ 11064—11072, publication.

CHAPTER II.

PUBLIC LIBRARIES AND MUSEUMS.

§ 8226. [6971.] Establishment—Petition and Vote.

By a majority vote at any election, any city, village, town, school district, or other body authorized to levy and collect taxes, or by vote of its common council, any city or incorporated town may establish and maintain a free public library, with or without branches, either by itself or in connection with any other body authorized to maintain such library. Whenever twenty-five taxpayers shall petition, the question of providing library facilities shall be voted on at the next election or meeting at which taxes may be voted: Provided, that due public notice shall have been given of the proposed action. [L. '15, p. 27, § 1. Cf. L. '01, p. 336, § 1; L. '09, p. 396, § 1; L. '13, p. 383, § 1.]

See infra, § 8246, this chapter to apply to museums.

See infra, § 8966, in cities of first class.

§ 8227. [6972.] Public Aid to Circulating Libraries.

By similar vote money may be granted toward the support of libraries not owned by the public but maintained for its welfare and free use: Provided, that such libraries shall be subject to the inspection of the state library commission and registered by it as maintaining a proper standard; that the commission shall certify what number of books circulated are of such a character as to merit a grant of public money; and that the amount granted yearly to libraries on the basis of circulation shall not exceed ten cents for each volume of the circulation thus certified by the commission. [L. '01, p. 337, § 2; L. '09, p. 396, § 2.]

See supra, §§ 4926—4931, county circulating libraries.

§ 8228. [6973.] Annual Appropriations—Act Applies to All Free Libraries.

Taxes, in addition to those otherwise authorized, may be voted by any authority named in section 8226, and for any purposes specified in sections 8226 and 8227 and shall, unless otherwise directed by such vote, be considered as annual appropriations therefor until changed by further vote, and shall be levied and collected yearly, or as directed, as are other general taxes; and all money received from taxes or other sources for such library shall be kept as a separate library fund and expended only under direction of the library trustees on properly authenticated vouchers. Every free library now established and every free library hereafter established shall be maintained and managed as provided in this chapter. [L. '01, p. 337, § 3; L. '09, p. 396, § 3.]

§ 8229. [6974.] Management—Board of Trustees—Qualifications, etc.

The management and control of every library shall be vested in a board of five trustees (unless a larger number be decided upon by a vote at the time of establishment or at some subsequent annual election) who shall be elected by the legal voters; except that in cities and incorporated towns they shall be appointed by the mayor, with the consent of the city or town council, from citizens of recognized fitness for such position. No person shall be ineligible as a trustee by reason of sex, and no trustee as such shall ever receive any compensation. The first trustees shall determine by lot whose term of office shall expire each year, and a new trustee shall be elected or appointed annually to serve for five years, except when the board consists of more than five members, each trustee shall serve for a term of years corresponding to the number of regular members on the board in order that one term shall expire each year; all vacancies shall be as soon as possible filled in like manner as the members of the board are regularly chosen, and in an unexpired term for the residue of the term only. [L. '15, p. 28, § 2. Cf. L. '01, p. 337, § 4; L. '09, p. 397, § 4.]

§ 8230. [6975.] Officers of Board—Powers and Duties—Librarian.

The trustees shall immediately after taking office meet and organize by the election of one of their number president and by the election of such other officers as they may deem necessary. They shall make and adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for their own guidance and for the government of the library as may be expedient, not inconsistent with the law or this chapter. They shall have the supervision, care and custody of the rooms or buildings constructed, leased or set apart for the library and the exclusive control of the expenditures of all moneys collected for the library fund; and such money shall be paid out from the treasury by the proper officers upon the properly authenticated vouchers of the board of trustees without further audit. They may accept and receive gifts of money, real estate, books, or other property for library purposes. They may lease and occupy, purchase, or erect on purchased or donated grounds, an appropriate building or buildings for library purposes. They shall have power to appoint a chief librarian, who shall possess such qualifications with respect to experience, ability, citizenship, electoral capacity, and residence as the board may require and who shall be subject to removal by the board. They shall adopt a system of competition or examination under which all appointments except that of chief librarian shall be made and under such system the chief librarian shall have power, by and with the consent of the board, to appoint all subordinate employees of the library, prescribe rules for their conduct, and remove them from office. So far as possible, all appointments shall be made for ascertained fitness for the work, and removals shall be made for demonstrated unfitness and neither appointments nor removals shall be made because of the candidate's race, color, political influence, or religious belief. The trustees shall have the power to do all other acts and things necessary to the management, custody, and control of the library. [L. '01, p. 338, § 5; L. '09, p. 397, § 5.]

§ 8231. [6976.] Annual Report of Trustees.

The trustees shall make an annual report at the close of each year to the city council or the proper body authorized to levy and collect taxes, stating the condition of their trust, the various sums of money received from the library fund and all other sources, how much money has been expended, the number of books and periodicals on hand, the number added during the year, the number missing or retired, the number loaned out and the general character of such loans, and such other statistics, information and suggestions as they may deem of general interest, together with their estimate of the income necessary for the proper maintenance of the library fund for the ensuing year: Provided, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed as empowering the board of trustees to incur any indebtedness except as there is sufficient money in the library fund applicable to the payment thereof. [L. '01, p. 339, § 6; L. '09, p. 398, § 6.]

§ 8232. [6977.] Registration by State Library Commission Necessary.

In order to avail the library of any provision of this chapter for state aid, the board of trustees shall apply to the state library commission to have the institution registered by the commission as a library under its visitation and supervision. [L. '01, p. 339, § 7; L. '09, p. 398, § 7.]

See notes to § 8208.

§ 8233. [6978.] Annual Report to State Commission.

Every library which receives state aid shall make to the commission an annual report verified by the oath of its presiding officer, and giving such information in such form as shall be prescribed by the commission. These reports shall be summarized and transmitted to the governor by the commission, together with the reports of its proceedings as required by law. [L. '01, p. 339, § 8; L. '09, p. 399, § 8.]

§ 8234. [6979.] Libraries to be Free.

Every library established or maintained under this chapter shall be forever free for the use of the inhabitants of the city, town, village, or district where located, subject to such reasonable rules and regulations as the trustees may find necessary in order that the library shall be of the greatest benefit to the greatest number; and they may exclude from the use of the library any person who willfully violates such rules. [L. '01, p. 339, § 9; L. '09, p. 399, § 9.]

§ 8235. [6980.] Use by Nonresidents, County, and Other Towns.

The board of trustees of any free library in this state may, under such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary and upon such conditions as may be agreed upon, allow nonresidents of the city, town, village, or district in which the library is situated to use the books therein and may make exchanges of books with any other public library, either permanently or temporarily; and any such board may contract with the board of commissioners of the county in which the library is situated, or with the board of commissioners, village trustees, town or city council, of any neighboring county, village, town or city, to loan the books of said library to the residents of such county, village, town or city, upon the terms agreed upon in such contract; and every such board of trustees, board of county commissioners or village trustees, town or city council, is hereby empowered to make contracts for such purpose and to pay the consideration agreed upon therein to the board of trustees of such library out of the county, town, village, or city treasury upon the rendering of proper accounts therefor. [L. '01, p. 340, § 10; L. '09, p. 399, § 10.]

§ 8236. [6981.] Mutilation, etc.—Penalty.

Whoever intentionally injures, defaces, or destroys any property belonging to or deposited in any public library, reading-room, museum, or other educational institution, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than three years, or in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '01, p. 340, § 11; L. '09, p. 400, § 11.]

See, also, supra, § 2656.

§ 8237. [6982.] Keeping Books Overtime—Penalty.

Whoever willfully detains any book, newspaper, magazine, pamphlet, manuscript, or other property belonging in or to any public or incorporated library, reading-room, museum, or other educational institution, for thirty days after notice in writing to return the same, given after the expiration of the time which by the rules of such institution such article or other property may be kept, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one or more than twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment in the jail not exceeding six months; and the said notice shall bear on its face a copy of this section. [L. '01, p. 340, § 12; L. '09, p. 400, § 12.]

§ 8238. [6983.] Transformation to Public Library.

Any corporation, association, school district or combination of districts may, by legal vote, duly approved by the state library commission, transfer the ownership and control of its library, with all its appurtenances, to any public library under the supervision of the commission, and thereafter said public library shall be entitled to receive any money, books, or other property from the state or other sources, to which said corporation, association, or district would have been entitled but for such transfer; and the trustees or body making the transfer shall thereafter be relieved of all responsibility pertaining to property thus transferred. [L. '01, p. 341, § 13; L. '09, p. 400, § 13.]

§ 8239. [6984.] State Supervision—Failure by Local Authorities.

If the local authorities of any library, supported wholly or in part by state money, fail to provide for the safety and public usefulness of its books, the state library commission shall, in writing, notify the trustees of said library of what is necessary to meet the state's requirements, and on such notice all its right to further grants of money or books from the state shall be suspended until the commission certifies that the requirements have been met; and if said trustees shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requirements for sixty days after the service of such notice, the commission may remove them from office and thereafter all books and other library property wholly or in part paid for from state money shall be under the full and direct control of the commission which, as shall seem best for the public interest, may appoint new trustees to carry on the library, or may store it, or may distribute to other libraries the books paid for with state money. [L. '01, p. 341, § 14; L. '09, p. 400, § 14.]

§ 8240. [6985.] State to Loan Books—Official Publications.

Under such rules as it may prescribe, the state library commission may lend from any books it may have for the purpose of selections of books for a limited time to any public library in this state under its visitation or supervision, or to any community not yet having established such library but having conformed to the conditions required for such loans. All the official publications of the state shall be furnished, through the state library commission, to every free public library in the state, free of charge. [L. '01, p. 341, § 15; L. '09, p. 401, § 15.]

§ 8241. [6986.] Advice from State Commission.

The trustees or librarian of, or any citizen interested in, any public library in the state shall be entitled to ask from the state library commission any needed advice or instruction as to a library building, furniture and equipment, government and service, rules for readers, selecting, buying, cataloguing, shelving, or lending books, or any other matter pertaining to the establishment, reorganization, or administration of a public library. The commission may provide for giving such advice and instruction either personally or through printed matter and correspondence. The commission may, on request, select or buy books or furnish books instead of money apportioned, or may make exchanges and loans from any collection of books it may have in its possession. Such assistance shall be free to residents of this state as far as practicable, but the commission may in its discretion charge a proper fee to nonresidents, or for assistance of a personal nature or for anything which is not properly an expense to the state but which may be authorized for the accommodation of users of such library. [L. '01, p. 342, § 16; L. '09, p. 401, § 16.]

See notes to § 8208.

§ 8242. [6987.] Disposition of Funds.

The state library commission may use receipts from fees, fines, gifts from all sources, or sale of its bulletins or similar printed matter, for buying books or for any other proper expenses of carrying on its work. [L. '01, p. 342, § 17; L. '09, p. 402, § 17.]

See notes to § 8208.

See infra, § 9901, subd. 2, notary fees for commission part of library fund.

See infra, § 9911, fees of commissioners part of library fund.

§ 8243. [6988.] State Aid—Apportionments—Conditions—Vouchers.

Such sums as shall have been appropriated by the legislature as a fund for public library aid, shall be paid annually by the state treasurer on the warrant of the state auditor, according to an apportionment to be made for the benefit of deserving free libraries by the commission in accordance with its rules, and duly authenticated by it: Provided, that this money shall not be spent for any books except those approved or selected and furnished by the commission; that no locality shall share in the apportionment unless it shall raise and use for the same purpose not less than an equal amount from taxation or other local sources; that for any part of the apportionment not payable directly to the library trustees, the commission shall file with the state auditor proper vouchers, showing that it has been spent in accordance with law exclusively for books for free libraries or for proper expenses incurred for their benefit; and that books paid for by the state shall be subject to return to the commission whenever the library shall neglect or refuse to conform to the regulations under which it secured them. [L. '01, p. 342, § 18; L. '09, p. 402, § 18.]

§ 8244. [6989.] Abolition by Vote, etc.—Property Returned to State.

Any library established under this chapter may be abolished only by a majority vote of the people at a regular annual election, ratified by a majority vote at the next annual election. If any such library be abolished, its property shall be used first to return to the state library commission, for the benefit of other public libraries in that locality, the equivalent of such sums as it may have received from the state or from other sources as gifts for public use. After such return any remaining property may be used as directed in the vote abolishing the library; but if the entire library property does not exceed in value the amount of such gifts it may be transferred to the commission for public use and the trustees shall thereupon be freed from further responsibility. No abolition of a public library established under this chapter shall be lawful till the commission grants a certificate that its assets have been properly distributed and its abolition completed in accordance with law. [L. '01, p. 343, § 19; L. '09, p. 402, § 19.]

§ 8245. [6990.] Gifts—Title in Board.

All persons desirous of making gifts of money, personal property or real estate for the benefit of a public library shall have the right to vest the title thereto in the board of trustees, to be held and controlled by the board when accepted, according to the terms of the deed of gift, devise or bequest. [L. '01, p. 343, § 20; L. '09, p. 403, § 20.]

§ 8246. [6991.] Museums Included.

All provisions of this chapter shall apply equally to libraries and to combined libraries and museums, and the word library shall be construed to include reference and circulating libraries and reading-rooms. [L. '01, p. 343, § 21; L. '09, p. 403, § 21.]

CHAPTER III.

COUNTY LAW LIBRARIES.

§ 8247. Authorization.

In each county having a population of three hundred thousand or more there shall be a county law library, which shall be governed and maintained as hereinafter provided. [L. '19, p. 196, § 1.]

§ 8248. Board of Trustees—Officers and Meetings.

There shall be in every such county a board of law library trustees consisting of five members to be constituted as follows: The chairman of the board of county commissioners shall be ex officio a trustee, and the judges of the superior court of the county shall choose two of their number and two members of the bar of the county to be trustees. The term of office of a member of the board who is a judge shall be for as long as he continues to be a judge, and the term of a member who is from the bar shall be four years. Vacancies shall be filled as they occur and in the manner above directed. The office of trustee shall be without salary or other compensation. The board shall elect one of their number president and the librarian shall act as secretary. Meetings shall be held at least quarterly and as much oftener and at such times as may be prescribed by rule. [L. '19, p. 196, § 2.]

§ 8249. Powers of Board.

The board of law library trustees shall have power:

(1) To make and enforce rules for their own procedure and for the government, care and use of the library, and for the guidance of employees.

(2) To remove any trustee, except an ex officio trustee, for neglect to attend the meetings of the board.

(3) To employ a librarian and assistants and to prescribe their duties, fix their compensation and remove them at will.

(4) To purchase books, periodicals and other property suitable for the library and to accept gifts and bequests of money and property for the library, and to sell property which is unsuitable or not needed for the library.

(5) To examine and approve for payment claims and demands payable out of the county law library fund. [L. '19, p. 196, § 3.]

§ 8250. Reports by Trustees.

The board of law library trustees shall, on or before the first Monday in September of each year, make a report to the board of county commissioners of their county giving the condition of their trust, with a full statement of all property received and how used, the number of books and other publications on hand, the number added by purchase, gift or otherwise during the preceding year, the number lost or missing, and such other information as may be of public interest, together with a financial report showing all receipts and disbursements of money. [L. '19, p. 197, § 4.]

§ 8251. County to Provide Library Room.

The board of county commissioners of each county to which this act is applicable shall, upon demand by the board of law library trustees, provide a room suitable for the law library, adequately heated and lighted. [L. '19, p. 197, § 5.]

§ 8252. Persons Entitled to Use Library.

The use of the county law library shall be free to the judges of the state and to state and county officials and to the inhabitants of the county. The board of law library trustees may prescribe uniform rules for the use of the library. [L. '19, p. 197, § 6.]

§ 8253. Publications to be Supplied by State Officials.

State officials charged with the distribution of books, reports and publications are authorized to supply to each county law library established under this act the same books, reports and publications, and in the same quantities, as they are authorized to supply to the law library of the University of Washington; and the librarian of the state law library is hereby authorized and directed to distribute among the county law libraries established under this act, such duplicates of books and publications as may be in the supreme court library not needed for its purposes. [L. '19, p. 198, § 7.]

See supra, §§ 8220—8225, publications supplied.

§ 8254. Library Fund, Fees Credited to.

In every civil action hereafter commenced in the superior courts of counties to which this act is applicable, there shall be paid to the clerk of the court, in addition to other fees required by law, by the plaintiff or person instituting the action, when the case is entered in the court or when the first paper on his part is filed therein, a fee of one dollar ($1), and by the defendant or other adverse party and by an intervener, or by groups of two or more defendants or other adverse parties or interveners appearing separately from the others, when his or their appearance is entered in the case, or when his or their first paper is filed therein, a fee of one dollar ($1). Such fees shall be costs in the case and taxable as such. The clerk shall pay the same into the county treasury, where they shall go into the law library fund and be expended only for the county law library. [L. '19, p. 198, § 8.]

CHAPTER IV. UNIVERSITY MUSEUM.

§ 8255. [6992.] State Museum at University.

The museum of the University of Washington is hereby constituted and the state museum as a depository for the preservation and exhibition of documents and objects possessing an historical value, of materials illustrating the fauna, flora, anthropology, mineral wealth, and natural resources of the state, and for all documents and objects whose preservation will be of value to the student of history and the natural sciences. [L. '99, p. 40, § 1.]

§ 8256. [6993.] Duty of Certain Officers to Send Scientific and Historical Material.

It shall be the duty of all boards, commissioners and officers acting under the authority of this state who, in the performance of their duties, may come into possession of any documents or material having an historical or scientific value to send for preservation and exhibition all such documents or materials, unless otherwise by law provided for, to the state museum constituted by the last preceding section. [L. '99, p. 40, § 2.]

§ 8257. [6994.] May Receive Gifts, etc.

This museum may receive all such above-named documents or material for preservation and exhibition from any private person under such rules and regulations as the board of regents of the University of Washington may deem proper to make for the care of the aforesaid museum. [L. '99, p. 40, § 3.]

§ 8258. [6995.] Board of Regents to have Control.

The board of regents of the University of Washington ex officio shall have full charge and management of the state museum hereby created. [L. '99, p. 41, § 4.]

CHAPTER V. STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

§ 8259. [6996.] Duties of Historical Society as Trustee of the State.

The Washington state historical society, a corporation existing under the laws of the state of Washington, be and the same is hereby created the trustee of the state for the intent and purposes hereinafter mentioned, viz.: (1) It shall be the duty of the said society to collect books, maps, charts, papers and materials illustrative of the history of this state, and of its progress and development. (2) To procure from pioneers authentic narrative of their experiences and of incidents relating to the early settlement of this state. (3) To gather data and information concerning the origin, history, language and customs of our Indian tribes. (4) To procure and purchase books, papers and pamphlets for the several departments of its collections; climatic, health and mortuary statistics, and such other books, maps, charts, papers and materials as will facilitate the investigation of the historical, scientific and literary subjects. (5) To bind, shelf, store and safely keep the unbound books, documents, manuscripts, pamphlets and newspaper files now or hereafter to come into its possession. (6) To catalogue the collections of said society for the convenient reference of persons having occasion to consult same. (7) To prepare biennially for publication a report of its collections and such other matters relating to the work of the society as may be useful to the state and the people thereof. (8) To keep its rooms open at all reasonable hours of business days for the reception of citizens and visitors without charge. [L. '03, p. 377, § 1.]

§ 8260. [6997.] Books, Relics, etc., Held in Trust for State.

The books, maps, charts, relics, memorials, collections and all other property of the society now owned or hereafter acquired, shall be held by the said society perpetually in trust for the use and benefit of the people of the state of Washington. [L. '03, p. 378, § 2.]

§ 8261. [6998.] Board of Curators.

The governor, secretary of state and state treasurer shall be ex-officio members of the board of curators of the said Washington state historical society, authorized and empowered to vote upon all questions coming before the said board for its action. [L. '03, p. 378, § 3.]

§ 8262. [6999.] No Compensation.

No part of the moneys hereinafter appropriated shall be paid to any officer of the said historical society or to any employee thereof, as salary or compensation for services. [L. '03, p. 378, § 4.]

§ 8263. [7000.] State Historical Building—Appropriation—Site.

For the purpose of constructing a state historical building in the city of Tacoma, for the use of the Washington state historical society, there is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the state of Washington the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars: Provided, that a suitable site for such state historical building be furnished without cost to the state of Washington therefor, and that such site shall be deeded to the state of Washington. [L. '09, p. 866, § 1.]

This act is largely temporary in its nature and the last six sections are omitted for that reason.

§ 8264. [7001.] Commission to Complete Building.

For the purpose of erecting and completing the state historical building provided for by this act, the governor, the secretary of state, the state treasurer, the president of the Washington state historical society, the vice-president of the Washington state historical society and the secretary of the Washington state historical society shall constitute a board or commission to be known as the state historical building commission, of which board the governor shall be chairman and the secretary of the Washington state historical society shall be secretary; the members of the said board shall act as such until the completion of the state historical building hereby provided for, and no member of said board shall be allowed or shall receive any compensation for his services as a member of such board, but all such members shall be allowed and be paid all their actual expenses while attending meetings of the board. [L. '09, p. 866, § 2.]

See note to last section.

§ 8265. [7001-1.] Newspapers for State Historical Society.

The boards of county commissioners of the several counties may, in their discretion, acquire without expense, files of not more than three newspapers published in their respective counties and have the same suitably bound and delivered to the Washington state historical society for preservation. Said society shall provide for such volumes a place in which they will be readily accessible to the public for examination and for the copying of extracts therefrom. [L. '15, p. 237, § 1.]

CHAPTER. I.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS.

§ 8266. [7003.] Board of Accountancy—Powers and Duties—Issuance of Certificates, etc.

The state board of accountancy shall have its office at such place in the state of Washington as shall be designated by the board, and its powers and duties shall be as follows:

First. To formulate rules for the government of the board and for the examination of, and granting of certificates of qualification to, persons applying therefor.

Second. To hold written examination of applicants for such certificates, at least semi-annually, at such places as circumstances and applications may warrant.

Third. To grant certificates of qualification to such applicants as may, upon examination, be found qualified in "theory of accounts," "practical accounting," "auditing" and "commercial law," to practice as certified public accountants.

Fourth. To charge and collect from all applicants such fee, not exceeding twenty-five dollars, as may be necessary to meet the expenses of examination, issuance of certificates and conducting its office: Provided, that all such expenses, including not exceeding five dollars per day for each member while attending the session of the board or conducting the examinations, must be paid from the current receipts; and no portion thereof shall ever be paid from the state treasury.

Fifth. To revoke for cause such certificates, after written notice to the holder, and a hearing being had thereon: Provided, that such revocation must receive the affirmative vote of at least four members of the board.

Sixth. To report annually to the governor, on or before the first day of January in each year, all such certificates issued during the preceding year, together with a detailed statement of receipts and disbursements: Provided, that any balance remaining in excess of the expenses incurred shall be transferred to the common school fund of the state.

Seventh. The board may, in its discretion, under regulations provided by its rules, waive the examination of applicants possessing the qualifications mentioned in subsection 3 of this section, who shall have been for more than one year prior to the passage of this act residents of the state of Washington, and who shall, in writing, apply for such certificate within one year thereafter.

Eighth. Every certified public accountant, during the time he continues the practice of his profession shall, annually, on such date as the board of accountancy may determine, pay to the secretary of said board of accountancy a fee of one dollar, in return for which payment he shall receive a renewal certificate for one year. [L. '03, p. 99, § 2.]

See infra, § 10854, duties devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, board of accountancy abolished.

§ 8268. [7004.] Eligibility for Examination—Designation.

Any citizen of the United States, or any person who has duly declared his intention of becoming such citizen, residing and doing business in the state of Washington, being over the age of nineteen years and of good moral character, may apply to the state board of accountancy for examination under its rules, and for the issuance to him of a certificate of qualification to practice as a certified public accountant; and upon the issuance and receipt of such certificate, and during the period of its existence, he shall be styled and known as a certified public accountant, and no other person shall be permitted to assume and use such title, or to use any words, letters or figures, to indicate that the person using the same is a certified public accountant. [L. '03, p. 100, § 3.]

§ 8269. [7005.] Penalty for Violation.

Any person violating the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by a fine in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars. [L. '03, p. 101, § 4.]

CHAPTER II.ARCHITECTS.*§ 8270. Certification of Building Architects.

Any person residing in or having a place of business in the state, who, before this act takes effect, shall not have been engaged in the practice of architecture in the state of Washington, under the title of architect, shall before assuming the title of architect, secure a certificate of his qualifications to practice under the title of architect, as provided by this act. Any person who shall have been engaged in the practice of architecture under the title of architect before this act takes effect, may secure such certificate in the manner provided by this act. Any person having a certificate pursuant to this act may assume the title architect. No other person shall assume such a title or use any abbreviation thereof, excepting only landscape architects and naval architects, and not excepting these two classes if they combine with their landscape and naval work respectively the planning of buildings and supervision of their erection. [L. '19, p. 719, § 1.]

§ 8271. Applicants—Examinations—Graduates—Registrants.

Any citizen of the United States, or any person who has duly declared his or her intentions of becoming such citizen, being at least twenty-one years of age, may apply for examination or certificate of registration under this act. The examination shall have special reference to the construction and design of buildings, and a test of knowledge of the candidate of the strength of materials and of his or her ability to make practical application of such knowledge in the ordinary professional work of an architect, and in the duties of a supervisor of mechanical work on buildings, and should also seek to determine his or her knowledge of the laws of sanitation as applied to buildings. The applicant who shall satisfactorily pass such architectural examination as shall be established by the board of examiners, shall be granted a certificate. The board of examiners in lieu of all examinations may accept:

(a) A diploma of graduation or satisfactory certificate from a recognized architectural school or college.

(b) Registration or certification as an architect in another state or country where the standard or qualifications for the same are not lower than those required by the board of examiners under this act shall be accepted by said board of examiners, and such architect may receive certification without examination. [L. '19, p. 720, § 3.]

See infra, § 10854, duties of examining board devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, architects' examining board abolished.

§ 8272. Certification Without Examination—Licenses.

Any person who shall, by affidavit, show to the satisfaction of the state board of examiners of architects that he or she was engaged in the practice of the profession of architecture on the date of the passage of this act shall be entitled to a certificate of registration without an examination: Provided, such application shall be made within six months after the passage of this act. Such license, when granted, shall set forth the fact that the person to whom the same was issued was practicing architecture in this state at the time of the passage of this act, and is therefore entitled to a license to practice architecture without an examination by the board of examiners, and the secretary of the board, shall, upon payment to the board of the fee of twenty dollars ($20), issue to the person named in said affidavit, a license to practice architecture in this state, in accordance with the provisions of this act. In the case of a copartnership of architects, each member whose name appears must be licensed to practice architecture. No stock company or corporation shall be licensed to practice architecture, but the same may employ licensed architects. [L. '19, p. 721, § 4.]

See notes to § 8271.

§ 8273. Fees.

Every person applying for examination or certificate of registration under this act shall pay a fee of twenty dollars ($20) to the board of examiners, and by it turned into the state treasury. All moneys received by said board shall be turned into the state treasury. [L. '19, p. 722, § 5.]

§ 8274. Record and Registration—Filing—Revocation of Certificate for Fraud.

The result of every examination or other evidence of qualifications, as provided by this act, shall be reported to the secretary of state by the board of examiners, and a record of the same shall be kept by the secretary of state, who shall issue a certificate of registration to every person certified by the board of examiners as having passed such examination or as being otherwise qualified to be entitled to receive the same. Every person securing such certificates shall file the same with the county clerk of the county of which he resides or maintains a place of business. The governor may revoke any certificate, if such action be recommended by the board of examiners, after thirty days' written notice to the holder thereof and after a hearing before the board of examiners, upon proof that such certificate has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation, or upon proof that the holder of such certificate has been guilty of felony in connection with the practice of architecture. [L. '19, p. 722, § 6.]

See notes to § 8271.

§ 8275. Annual Renewal of Certificates.

Every registered architect shall secure annually from the examining board a certificate of renewal of his registration and shall pay to the board of examiners for such renewal the sum of five dollars ($5) annually. All renewals shall be registered and recorded in each county where he maintains his place of business within sixty days after the expiration of the previous certificate of registration, and failure to do so shall be punishable with a fine of five dollars ($5) in addition to renewal fee; failure to renew certificate within one year from date of expiration of same, shall constitute forfeiture of certificate, and which may be renewed at the discretion of the board of examiners, after satisfactory oral or written examination. [L. '19, p. 723, § 7.]

See notes to § 8271.

§ 8276. Penalties.

Any violation of this act shall be a misdemeanor punishable for the first offense by a fine not less than fifty dollars ($50) and not more than one hundred dollars ($100), and for a subsequent offense by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. [L. '19, p. 723, § 8.]

CHAPTER III.

BARBERS.

§ 8277. [7006.] Unlawful to Practice Without Certificate.

It shall be unlawful for any person to follow the occupation of barber in any incorporated city or town in this state, unless he shall have first obtained a certificate of registration as provided in this chapter: Provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall apply to or affect any person who is now engaged in such occupation except as hereinafter provided. This act regulating the trade of barbering, operates equally upon all barbers within the respective classifications, and is not void as discriminating against one class of citizens: State v. Sharpless, 31 Wash. 191, 71 Pac. 737, 96 Am. St. Rep. 893.

§ 8278. [7007.] Barbering, What Constitutes.

Shaving the face, or cutting the hair or the beard of any person either for hire or reward, shall be construed as practicing the occupation of barbering within the meaning of this chapter. [L. '01, p. 349, § 2.]

§ 8279. [7011.] Barbers' Examining Board—Compensation and Expenses.

All money received or collected by said board or any member or officer thereof during any month shall be turned over before the tenth day of the succeeding month to the state treasurer together with a verified statement showing the sources from which such money was derived. [L. '13, p. 259, § 2. Cf. L. '01, p. 350, § 6.]

§ 8280. [7012.] Biennial Report to Governor.

Said board shall report to the governor of this state biennially a full statement of the receipts and disbursements of the board during the preceding two years, a full statement of its doings and proceedings, and such recommendations as may seem proper. [L. '01, p. 350, § 7.]

See notes to § 8279.

Cited in 48 Wash. 12.

§ 8281. [7013.] Public Examinations—Notice Thereof.

Said board shall hold public examinations at least four times a year in different cities of this state, at such times and places as it may determine, notice of such meetings to be sent to the various applicants by mail, at least ten days before the meetings are to be held. [L. '01, p. 350, § 8.]

See notes to § 8279.

Cited in 48 Wash. 12.

§ 8282. [7014.] Certificate to Persons Now Engaged in Barbering.

Every person now engaged in the occupation of barber in cities of the first, second or third class in this state shall within ninety days after the approval of this chapter file with the secretary of said board an affidavit setting forth his name, residence and length of time during which and the places where he has practiced such occupation, and shall pay to the secretary of said board one dollar, and a certificate entitling him to practice said occupation for one year shall thereupon be issued to him. [L. '01, p. 350, § 9.]

See notes to § 8279.

§ 8283. [7015.] Examination—Requirements—Fee—Renewals.

To obtain a certificate of registration under this chapter, any person excepting those mentioned in section 8282 shall make application to said board, and shall pay to the secretary an examination fee of five dollars, and shall present himself at the meeting of the board for examination of applicants. The board shall examine such person, and being satisfied that he is above the age of eighteen years, of good moral character, free from contagious or infectious disease [has studied the trade for two years as an apprentice under or as a qualified and practicing barber in this state, or other states], and is possessed of the requisite skill to properly perform all the duties, including his ability in the preparation of the tools used, shaving, cutting of the hair and beard and all the various services incident thereto, and has sufficient knowledge concerning the common diseases of the face and skin to avoid the aggravation and spreading thereof in the practice of his trade, his name shall be entered by the board in a register hereinafter provided for and a certificate of registration shall be issued to him authorizing him to practice said trade in this state, for one year. All certificates shall be renewed each year, for which renewal, a fee of fifty cents shall be paid. All persons making application for examination under the provisions of this chapter, shall be allowed to practice the occupation of barber until the next meeting as designated by said board. [L. '01, p. 350, § 10.]

See notes to § 8279.

The bracketed words held unreasonable. See note, infra.

Cited in 36 Wash. 353; 48 Wash. 13.

An unreasonable provision restricting the granting of a license, for the practice of the trade of barbering, to apprentices of two years standing, does not render unconstitutional the whole act, Laws of 1901, § 1, page 349, regulating such trade and requiring a license therefor: State v. Walker, 48 Wash. 8, 92 Pac. 775, 15 Ann. Cas. 257.

§ 8284. [7016.] Apprentices—Registration, and Limit.

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any person from serving as an apprentice in said trade under a barber authorized to practice under this chapter: Provided, that in no barber-shop shall there be more than one apprentice to each registered barber and all apprentices shall be registered with the secretary of said board for which registration no fee shall be paid. [L. '01, p. 351, § 11.]

See notes to § 8279.

§ 8285. [7017.] Certificate—Issuance and Display of.

Said board shall furnish to each person who has successfully passed examination, a certificate of registration, bearing the seal of the board and the signature of its president and secretary certifying that the holder thereof is entitled to practice the occupation of barber in this state, and it shall be the duty of the holder of such certificate to post the same in a conspicuous place in the shop. [L. '01, p. 351, § 12.]

See notes to § 8279.

Cited in 36 Wash. 352.

§ 8286. [7018.] Registration of Certificates.

Said board shall keep a register in which shall be entered names of all persons to whom certificates are issued under this chapter, and said register shall be at all times open to public inspection. [L. '01, p. 351, § 13.]

See notes to § 8279.

Cited in 36 Wash. 352.

§ 8287. [7019.] Revocation of Certificate—Grounds.

Said board shall have power to revoke any certificate of registration granted by it under this chapter, for (a) conviction of crime, (b) drunk-eness, (c) having or imparting any contagious or infectious disease or (d) for doing work in an unsanitary or filthy manner: Provided, that before any certificate shall be revoked the holder thereof shall have notice in writing of the change [charge] or charges against him, and shall at a day specified in said notice, at least five days after the service thereof be given a public hearing and full opportunity, to produce testimony in his behalf, and to confront the witnesses against him. Any person whose certificate has been so revoked may after expiration of ninety days upon application have the same reissued to him upon satisfactory showing that disqualification has ceased. [L. '01, p. 351, § 14.]

See notes to § 8279.

Cited in 36 Wash. 354; 48 Wash. 13.

This act gives the proper authorities power to revoke a certificate of registration, for any of the causes specified therein, irrespective of whether the certificate was one issued prior or subsequently to the passage of said laws: State v. Chaney, 36 Wash. 350, 78 Pac. 915.

§ 8288. [7020.] Penalty for Violations.

Any person practicing the occupation of barber in any city of the first, second or third class in this state, without first having obtained a certificate of registration as provided in this chapter, or falsely pretending to be practicing such occupation under this chapter, or who uses, or allows towels to be used on more than one person before such towels have been laundered; or uses razors, lather, or hair brushes on more than one person before same shall have been sterilized or in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, and every proprietor of a barber-shop who shall willfully employ a barber who has not such a certificate shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten days nor more than ninety days, or both. CHAPTER IV.

BILLIARDS, POOL AND BOWLING.

§ 8289. [7021.] County Commissioners may Regulate and License—Fee.

The board of county commissioners of each county in the state of Washington shall have sole and exclusive authority and power to regulate, restrain, license, or prohibit the maintenance or running of pool-halls, billiard-halls, and bowling-alleys outside of the incorporated limits of each incorporated city, town, or village in their respective counties: Provided, that the annual license fee for maintenance or running such pool-halls, billiard-halls, and bowling-alleys shall in no instance be less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars; which said license fee shall be paid annually in advance to the county treasurer: And provided further, that nothing herein or elsewhere shall be so construed as to prevent the boards of county commissioners of the respective counties from revoking any license at any time prior to the expiration thereof for any cause by such board of county commissioners deemed proper. And if said county commissioners revoke said license they shall refund the unearned portion of such license. [L. '09, p. 393, § 1.]

This section supersedes L. '73, p. 438, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2817, authorizing county licenses of billiard-tables.

§ 8290. [7022.] Penalty for Keeping Billiard-table, etc., Without License.

Any person who shall keep a billiard-table or tables, or bowling-alley or alleys, for hire, in any county in this state, without first taking out a license therefor, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars nor less than five dollars, and shall be committed to the county jail of the county where such offense may be committed, and be placed at hard labor until such fine and costs shall be paid, or they may otherwise be discharged by due course of law. [L. '73, p. 439, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2818.]

The provision for wholesale liquor licenses is omitted as superseded.

§ 8291. [7023.] Billiard-table, etc.—When Deemed to be Kept for Hire.

Any person who shall keep a billiard table or tables, pigeon-hole, Jenny Lind, and all other gaming-tables, or bowling-alley or bowling-alleys, in a drinking saloon or house, or in a room or building adjoining or attached thereto, and shall allow the same to be used by two or more persons to determine by play thereon which of the persons so playing shall pay for drinks, cigars, or other articles for sale in such saloon or drinking-house, shall, within the meaning of this chapter, be deemed to keep the same for hire. [L. '73, p. 440, § 10; 1 H. C., § 2822.]

CHAPTER V.

DOGS.

§ 8304. License Tax on Dogs—Disposition of Tax in Cities.

It shall be the duty of the county assessor of each county, at the time of listing personal property for assessment of taxes, to list all dogs owned or kept within the county, giving the name and place of residence of the owner or keeper, and the breed, size, color and sex of each dog, and to assess a license tax of one dollar ($1) upon each male dog and spayed female, and two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) upon each female dog, and to make return of such lists and assessments to the county treasurer to be collected as other taxes are collected. Provided, that in cities of the first, second and third class the license tax collected on dogs shall be credited to the funds as provided by ordinance of such city, and no other tax shall be levied or collected on dogs in such cities: Provided, that said cities may authorize their humane societies to expend such license tax in defraying the expenses of any carrying out the purposes of such societies. All fees and fines collected as aforesaid over and above the amount of expenses required to be met by such society shall be turned over by it to the city from whence such fines or fees were obtained. [L. '19, p. 27, § 1.]

§ 8305. Domestic Animal Protection Fund.

There shall be in the county treasury of each county a special fund to be known as the "Domestic Animal Protection Fund" into which shall be paid all taxes assessed and collected under the provisions of this act, and the county treasurer, upon the payments of any such tax, shall issue to the person paying the same a receipt therefor describing the dog upon which such tax is paid, as the same is described and listed by the county assessor and shall also issue a metal tag bearing the number of the year in which, and showing the sex of the dog upon which, said tax is paid: Provided, that if at the end of any fiscal year the amount to the credit of the domestic animal protection fund shall exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, the board of county commissioners may transfer the amount in excess of the two hundred dollars to a wild animal bounty account to be used for the payment of bounties on wild animals killed within the county in the manner provided by sections 3702 to 3707, both inclusive, of this code. [L. '19, p. 28, § 2.]

§ 8306. Payment of Tax—Penalty.

All taxes assessed under the provisions of this act shall be due and payable on or before the first day of June in the year in which they are assessed; and it shall be the duty of the county treasurer, between the first and tenth days of June of each year, to furnish the sheriff of the county a list of all dogs on which the taxes have not been paid; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff to kill, or cause to be killed, all such dogs found in the county without a tag showing the payment of the tax for the current year, and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to and paid out of the domestic animal protection fund of the county. [L. '19, p. 28, § 3.]

CHAPTER VI.ELECTRICIANS.*§ 8307. License for Electric Installations.

It shall be unlawful for any persons, firm or corporation to engage in, conduct or carry on the business of installing wires to convey electric current, in any first, second or third class city, or electric apparatus to be operated by such current, without first having obtained in the manner hereinafter provided and having in force a license so to do. [L. '19, p. 716, § 1.]

State or municipal regulation of electricians. Ann. Cas. 1916E, 694; 36 L. R. A. (N. S.) 78.

§ 8308. Application for License Fee—Bond.

Every person, firm or corporation desiring to engage in or engaged in and desiring to continue the business of installing wires to convey electric current, or electric apparatus to be operated by such current, shall on or before the first day of July of each year file with the secretary of state, an application in writing for a license so to do, which application shall state the name and address of the applicant, in the case of firms the names of the individuals composing the firm, and in the case of corporations the names of the managing officers of such corporations, and shall state the location of the place of business of the applicant and the name under which the business is to be conducted. Before the license shall issue, the applicant shall pay to the secretary of state for the use of the state, an annual license fee of fifteen dollars ($15), and shall execute and file with the secretary of state a bond running to the state of Washington in the penal sum of five hundred dollars ($500) with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the secretary of state, conditioned to pay all damages sustained by any person on account of failure of the principal on such bond to comply with all laws of the state of Washington and ordinances and building codes of the city or town in which such electrical installations are performed, or for the failure of such principal to protect any person with whom such contract is made against liens for labor performed or material furnished in connection with such contract, the surety's total liability under the bond herein provided for shall in no event exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500), and the right of action against the surety for recovery on the bond shall not exceed a period of ninety days from completion of any contract. All licenses shall bear the date of issue and shall expire on the first day of July next following the date of issue: Provided, that all licenses issued prior to the first day of July, 1919, shall expire on the first day of July, 1920. [L. '19, p. 716, § 2.]

See infra, § 10862, duties of secretary of state devolve upon director of licenses.

§ 8309. Renewal of Licenses—Cancellation of Bond—Effect.

Every person, firm or corporation licensed under the provisions of this act shall be entitled, upon the expiration of his license or any renewal thereof, by the payment of a fee of fifteen dollars ($15) on or before the date of the expiration of his license or any renewal thereof, to have his license renewed for the ensuing year ending July 1st, so long as the bond originally given in compliance with the provisions of this act shall remain in force. The cancellation or revocation of, or the withdrawal of the surety from, any bond filed in accordance with the provisions of this act shall ipso facto work a suspension of the principal on such bond, until such time as such principal shall furnish a new bond to be approved by the secretary of state. [L. '19, p. 717, § 3.]

§ 8310. Recovery of Damages Against Licensee.

Every person, firm or corporation damaged by the failure of any person, firm or corporation licensed under the provisions of this act to perform any contract for the installation of wires to convey electric current or of electric apparatus, in strict compliance with the laws of the state of Washington and all ordinances and building codes of any city or town in which such work is performed or damaged by the failure of such license contractor to protect such person, firm or corporation from liens for labor performed or material furnished in connection with any such contract may recover any damages sustained from such licensed contractor and the surety on the bond hereinabove provided for in any court of competent jurisdiction. [L. '19, p. 718, § 4.]

§ 8311. Application of Act.

This act shall not apply to individuals, firms or corporations or to municipalities authorized to engage in the business of making or selling electricity in connection with the construction or maintenance of lines or wires for the transmission of electricity from the source of supply to the service switch, fuses or circuit breakers on the premises or property to be supplied; nor to the work of said individuals, firms, corporations or municipalities in installing, maintaining or repairing on the premises of customers service connections and meters and other apparatus or appliances used in the measurement or the consumption of electricity by customers; nor to work in connection with the lighting of streets, alleys, ways, or public parks, areas or squares; nor to the work in connection with the work of persons, firms or corporations engaged in the business of transmission of intelligence by electricity, in installing and maintaining wires, apparatus and appliances used in such business, on its own premises or otherwise; nor to individuals, firms or corporations installing, maintaining or repairing apparatus or wires for making or distributing electricity upon the premises or property owned by them; nor to persons engaged in the business of installing and repairing ignition or lighting systems for motors and motor vehicles. [L. '19, p. 718, § 5.]

§ 8312. Penalty.

Every person, firm or corporation violating or failing to comply with any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '19, p. 719, § 6.]

CHAPTER VII.EMBALMERS.*§ 8313. [7036.] Embalmers—Registration.

It shall be unlawful for any person to follow the occupation of embalming in this state unless he shall have first obtained a certificate of registration as provided in this chapter: Provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall apply to or affect any person who now holds a license as an embalmer from the state board of health of the state of Washington, except as hereinafter provided. [L. '09, p. 739, § 1.]

Statutory regulation of embalmers. 18 Ann. Cas. 477; Ann. Cas. 1913A, 1252.

§ 8314. [7037.] Embalming Defined.

Preparation of the body of any deceased person for the purpose of preserving the same for more than thirty hours after death, or preparing the remains of any deceased person for shipment by railway or other public conveyance between points within the state of Washington or between any points in the state of Washington and any points without said state, shall be construed as practicing the occupation of embalming within the meaning of this chapter. [L. '09, p. 739, § 2.]

§ 8315. [7041.] Embalmers' Examining Board—Disposition of Receipts.

All money received or collected by said board or any member or officer thereof, during any month shall be turned over before the tenth day of the succeeding month to the state treasurer, together with a verified statement showing the sources from which such money was derived. [L. '13, p. 252, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 740, § 6.]

See infra, § 10854, duties devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, embalmers' examining board abolished.

§ 8316. [7042.] Biennial Reports.

Said board shall report to the governor of the state biennially, a full statement of the receipts and disbursements of the board during the preceding two years and a full statement of its doings and proceedings, and such recommendations as may seem proper. [L. '09, p. 740, § 7.]

§ 8317. [7043.] Public Examination—Notice.

Said board shall hold a public examination at least once in each year, at such time and place as it may determine. Notice of such meetings to be sent to the various applicants by mail at least ten days before the meetings. [L. '09, p. 740, § 8.]

See notes to § 8315.

§ 8318. [7044.] Power to Make Rules for Burial and Transportation.

Said board shall have authority to prescribe rules and regulations for the preparation of the bodies of deceased persons for burial or for transportation. Such rules and regulations shall be printed and a copy furnished to each licensed embalmer in the state. [L. '09, p. 740, § 9.]

See notes to § 8315.

See supra, §§ 6020, 6021, permits for burial and removal.

See supra, § 6027, burial without permit prohibited.

§ 8319. [7045.] State Licenses Continued—Certificate.

Every person now holding a state license by the Washington state board of health and engaged in the occupation of embalming shall within ninety days after the approval of this act file with the secretary of the board an affidavit setting forth his name, residence and length of time during which, and the place where he has practiced such occupation, and shall pay to the secretary of said board one dollar, and a certificate entitling him to practice such occupation until December 31st of that year shall thereupon be issued to him. [L. '09, p. 740, § 10.]

See notes to § 8315.

§ 8320. [7046.] Examination for Certificate—Fees—Subjects.

To obtain a certificate of registration under this chapter, any persons except those mentioned in the preceding section shall make applications to the board and shall pay to the secretary an examination fee of five dollars, and shall present himself at the next meeting of the board for examination of applicants. The board shall examine such persons in the following subjects: Anatomy, sanitary science, the care, disinfection, preservation, transportation and burial or other final disposition of the remains of deceased persons, and the rules and regulations of the state board of health relating to quarantine and communicable diseases. He shall also demonstrate his proficiency as an embalmer by operations on cadaver. The examination papers and oral answers shall, when concluded, be graded upon the scale of 100. The average rating required to pass shall be fixed by the board prior to the examination, and the board having been satisfied that he has the requisite qualifications to practice the occupation of embalmer, his name shall be entered by the board in a register provided for that purpose and a certificate of registration shall be issued to him authorizing him to practice said occupation until December 31st of that year. Upon the issuance of said certificate each applicant shall pay a further fee of five dollars ($5). Applications for renewal of licenses must be filed with the secretary of the said board on or before December 31st of each year, and shall be accompanied by a renewal fee of one dollar ($1.) All certificates shall be renewed each year upon the filing of applications accompanied by renewal fee. [L. '09, p. 741, § 11.]

See notes to § 8315.

§ 8321. [7047.] Qualification of Applicant for License.

Each applicant for a license to practice embalming shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and shall have had not less than two years' experience under a licensed embalmer in this state, or in lieu thereof shall have had a practical experience of not less than one year under a licensed embalmer and shall have completed a regular course of instruction in a school of embalming recognized as being in good standing by the state embalmers' examining board of Washington. Such applications shall be filed with the secretary of the board not less than ten days prior to the day of the next examination, together with a sworn statement of the age of the applicant and his other qualifications as required by this chapter, and a certificate of good moral character signed by three responsible citizens, one of whom must be a licensed embalmer personally acquainted with the applicant for at least one year. [L. '09, p. 741, § 12.]

See notes to § 8315.

§ 8322. [7048.] Certificate to be Posted.

Said board shall furnish to each person mentioned in section 8319 and to each person who successfully passes an examination a certificate of registration bearing the seal of the board and the signature of its president and secretary, certifying that the holder is entitled to practice the occupation of embalmer in this state, and it shall be the duty of the holder of such certificate to post the same conspicuously in his place of business. [L. '09, p. 742, § 13.]

See notes to § 8315.

§ 8323. [7049.] Revocation of License—Notice of Charges.

Said board shall have power to revoke any certificate of registration or license granted by it under this chapter, if the holder thereof has been guilty of drunkenness or has been convicted of crime or who has obtained said license by any false or fraudulent representation, or who has been guilty of immoral or unprofessional or dishonorable conduct, or of willful or repeated violation of the rules or regulations of the state embalmers' examining board or of doing work in an unsanitary or filthy manner:

Provided, that before any certificate or license shall be revoked the holder thereof shall have notice in writing of the charge or charges against him and shall at a time specified in said notice, not less than ten days after the service thereof, be given a public hearing and full opportunity to produce testimony in his behalf and to confront the witnesses against him. Any person whose certificate has been so revoked may, after the expiration of ninety days, upon application have the same reissued upon satisfactory showing that disqualification has ceased. [L. '09, p. 742, § 14.]

See notes to § 8315.

§ 8324. [7050.] Complainant to Deposit Costs of Hearing.

Any licensed embalmer who shall prefer charges against any other licensed embalmer shall at the time such charges are preferred deposit with the board a sum sufficient to cover the probable expense to the board in hearing such charges, and in the case the charge be substantiated in whole or in part, such deposit shall be returned to the complainant; but if such charge be not substantiated in whole or in part, the board shall retain a sum sufficient to reimburse it for the expense incurred, and return the balance of such deposit, if any there be, to the person making such deposit. [L. '09, p. 743, § 15.]

§ 8325. [7051.] Licenses on Foreign Certificates—Fee.

The said board shall recognize licenses issued to embalmers under the authority of the laws of any other state board having similar requirements to those existing in this state: Provided, that if such state or states recognize licenses issued under the authority of the laws of the state of Washington, then such licenses issued by authority of such other states may be deemed sufficient evidence of qualifications of the holder thereof without further examination for license in this state, and the holder of such license shall be entitled to have a license issued to him upon the payment of the sum of ten dollars ($10). The owner of any license or renewal provided for in this chapter shall cause the same to be registered in the office of the local board of health of each city, town or county wherein he intends to practice the occupation of embalmer. [L. '09, p. 743, § 16.]

See notes to § 8315.

§ 8326. [7052.] Violations of Act—Penalty.

Any person practicing the occupation of embalmer in this state without having first obtained a certificate of registration or license, as provided in this chapter, or falsely pretending to be practicing such occupation under this act, or who violates any of the provisions of this act, or any of the rules or regulations prescribed by said board by authority of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ten days nor more than ninety days, or both. [L. '09, p. 743, § 17.]

CHAPTER VIII.

OILS.

§ 8327. Definitions.

(a) The term "internal combustion engine" whenever used in this act shall be held and construed to mean and include any vehicle, engine or machine movable or immovable which is operated or propelled by the combustion of volatile and inflammable liquid fuels.

(b) The terms "liquid fuel," "liquid fuels," "fuel" and "fuels" whenever used in this act shall be held and construed to mean and include gasoline and all volatile and inflammable liquid fuels, produced or compounded for the purpose of operating or propelling internal combustion engines: Provided, that kerosene shall not be considered to be a liquid fuel in the meaning of this act.

(c) The term "distributor" whenever used in this act shall be held and construed to mean and include any person, firm, or corporation which produces, refines, manufactures or compounds and thereafter sells such liquid fuel in the state of Washington for use and sale in this state, or who imports and sells such liquid fuel into this state except as hereinafter provided. [L. '21, p. 669, § 1.]

Rem. Code, section 6051 et seq., levying a remunerative inspection tax on all oils and gasoline "before being sold or offered for sale," does not conflict with Constitution, Article VII, section 2, providing for uniformity and equality of taxation, and section 5 relating to the method of levying taxes; since these provisions refer to taxes upon property and not to taxes upon trades or to privilege or excise taxes: Standard Oil Co. v. Graves, 94 Wash. 291, 162 Pac. 558.

The exaction of a remunerative inspection fee for the inspection of all oils and gasoline "before being sold or offered for sale" is not a tax on property, since it is to be paid only upon the contingency that the oil is sold or offered for sale: Standard Oil Co. v. Graves, 94 Wash. 291, 162 Pac. 558.

The act of 1917 levying a grossly excessive inspection tax upon illuminating oils, is unconstitutional as to oils in interstate commerce, but is enforceable as an occupation tax upon oils that have lost their interstate character by having been removed from the original packages or put in indefinite storage in this state: Shell Co. v. State, 113 Wash. 632, 194 Pac. 835.

§ 8328. Excise Tax of One Per Cent.

That in addition to the taxes now provided for by law each and every distributor, as defined in this act, who is now engaged or who may hereafter engage, in his own name, or in the name of others, or in the name of his representatives or agents of this state, in the sale of liquid fuel as herein defined, shall not later than the fifteenth of each calendar month render a sworn statement to the director of licenses of the state of Washington of all such liquid fuel sold by him or them in the state of Washington during the preceding calendar month, and pay an excise tax of one cent per gallon on all liquid fuel so sold as shown by such statement in the manner and within the time hereinafter provided. [L. '21, p. 670, § 2.]

§ 8329. Distributors to File Certificate.

All distributors of such liquid fuel in the state of Washington shall file a duly acknowledged certificate with the director of licenses on forms prescribed, prepared and furnished by him, which shall contain the name under which such distributor is transacting business within the state of

Washington; such certificate shall state the place or places of business and location of distributing stations of the distributor in the state of Washington, the name and address of the managing agent, the names and addresses of the several persons constituting the firm or partnership, and if a corporation, the corporate name under which it is authorized to transact business, and the names and addresses of its principal officers, resident general agent and attorney in fact. If such distributor is an association of persons, firm, partnership or corporation organized under the laws of another state, territory or nation, if it has not already done so, it must first comply with the laws of Washington relating to the transaction of its appropriate business therein. No distributor, as herein defined, shall, after this law goes into effect, sell any liquid fuel until such certificate is furnished as required by this act. [L. '21, p. 670, § 3.]

§ 8330. Monthly Statement by Distributor.

Every distributor of such liquid fuel shall render to the director of licenses of the state of Washington, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, on forms prescribed, prepared and furnished by said director, a sworn statement of the number of gallons of liquid fuel sold by it, him or them during the preceding calendar month, which statement shall be sworn to by one of the principal officers in case of a domestic corporation, or by the resident general agent or attorney in fact in case of a foreign corporation, or by the managing agent or owner in case of a firm or association, and shall contain a statement of the quantities of liquid fuel sold. Bills shall be rendered to dealers in liquid fuel as herein defined. Said bills shall contain a statement printed thereon in a conspicuous place that the distributor of such liquid fuel has assumed the liability to the state for the license tax herein imposed and that he, it, or they will pay said license tax on or before the fifteenth day of the following month. [L. '21, p. 671, § 4.]

§ 8331. Monthly Payment of Tax.

Said excise tax shall be paid on or before the fifteenth day of each month to the state treasurer of the state of Washington, who shall receipt the distributor therefor, and place the same to the credit of the motor vehicle fund. [L. '21, p. 671, § 5.]

§ 8332. Records.

Every distributor of such liquid fuel shall keep a record in such form as may be prescribed by the director of licenses of all purchases, receipts, sales and distributions of such fuel, and such record shall at all times during the business hours of the day be subject to inspection and examination by the director of licenses, or his deputies, or such other officers as may be provided by law. [L. '21, p. 671, § 6.]

§ 8333. Sticker Tags.

All liquid fuel sold in containers shall bear a sticker tag showing the date of invoice upon which the same was delivered, the name of the distributor of such fuel, and shall contain a statement that the liability for the license tax thereon has been assumed by such distributor. [L. '21, p. 672, § 7.]

§ 8334. Violations.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation dealing in liquid fuel to receive or accept any delivery or shipment of liquid fuel from any distributor or to pay for the same, or to sell or offer the same for sale, unless the statement provided for in section 8333 appears upon the container and upon all invoices for such liquid fuel. If any shipment of liquid fuel is received by any person, firm or corporation from any distributor, or is sold or offered for sale by him or them, upon which the requirements of sections 8330 and 8333 are not complied with, such person, firm or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the receipt or sale of liquid fuels which are exempt from state taxation under the Constitution and laws of the United States. [L. '21, p. 672, § 8.]

§ 8335. Rules and Regulations.

The director of licenses shall have the power and it shall be his duty from time to time, to adopt, publish and enforce rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act. [L. '21, p. 672, § 9.]

§ 8336. Exportation.

Said excise tax shall not be imposed on liquid fuel when sold for exportation from the state of Washington to any other state, territory or nation: Provided, however, the distributor or exporting agent shall make a statement each month to the director of licenses showing the amount of liquid fuel exported. [L. '21, p. 672, § 10.]

§ 8337. Tax Precluded by United States Laws.

If any person shall receive such liquid fuels in such form and under such circumstances as shall preclude the collection of this tax from the distributor by reason of the provisions of the constitution and laws of the United States, and shall thereafter sell such liquid fuel in such manner and under such circumstances as may subject such sale to the taxing power of the state, such person shall be considered a distributor and shall make the same reports, pay the same taxes and be subject to all the other provisions of this act relating to distributors of liquid fuel. [L. '21, p. 673, § 11.]

§ 8338. Violations.

Any distributor, association of persons, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act or any of the rules and regulations prescribed by the director of licenses for the purpose of carrying its provisions into effect, shall be deemed guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [L. '21, p. 673, § 12.]

§ 8339. Scope of Act.

Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to require the payment of the excise tax herein provided for, or the doing of any acts which would constitute an unlawful burden upon the sale or distribution of liquid fuels as herein defined, in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States. [L. '21, p. 673, § 13.]

§ 8340. Partial Invalidity.

CHAPTER IX.

PEDDLERS.

§ 8341. [7053.] Hawkers of Goods must Procure License.

If any person shall hereafter sell any goods, wares, or merchandise, at auction or public outcry, or shall sell or barter such goods, wares, or merchandise from traveling boats, wagons, carts, or vehicles of any kind, or from any pack-basket, or other package carried on foot, without first having obtained a license therefor from the board of county commissioners of the county in which such goods are sold or bartered, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five or more than fifty dollars, and shall stand committed to the county jail of the county in which said conviction may be had until such fines and cost of prosecution shall be paid, or they may be discharged by due course of law: Provided, that this act shall not be so construed as to apply to any sea-going craft, or to administrators or executors selling property of deceased persons, or to private individuals selling their household property, or furniture, or farming tools, implements, or livestock, or any produce grown or raised by such person, either at public auction or private sale. [L. '73, p. 437, § 1; L. '79, p. 130, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2824.]

See supra, § 5848 et seq., auctioneers.

This section is not in force in incorporated cities and it appears to supersede §§ 2603—2605 of 1 Hill's Code. Compare L. '67, pp. 70, 71; L. '69, p. 170.

It is expressly provided that this section is not affected by § 8344, infra; but except as to sales by auction or public outcry, it may be superseded by § 8353 et seq.

A clause in an ordinance excepting merchants from taking out a peddler's license, with the proviso that they shall not act as peddlers without first obtaining a license, is wholly ineffective as an exemption, leaving merchants in the same position as they would have been in without such clause: Garfinkle, In re, 37 Wash. 650, 80 Pac. 188.

A license as auctioneer, and also for a show or attraction, does not dispense with the necessity of procuring a license to vend drugs by public outcry on the streets required of traveling venders by city ordinance at Walla Walla: Walla Walla v. Ferdon, 21 Wash. 308, 57 Pac. 796.

Evidence that a license tax of $100 for peddlers with two-horse wagons in the city of Seattle, where there were eighty people engaged in the business, was burdensome and prohibitive of the transaction of the business does not sustain a finding that the same is excessive, since the question must be determined irrespective of the element of competition, individual ability, and other facts, not related to the business under the most favorable conditions; the city having the right in any event to impose a license upon peddlers for the purposes of revenue: Garfinkle, In re, 37 Wash. 650, 80 Pac. 188.

Validity of license fee on peddlers as regards reasonableness and uniformity. Ann. Cas. 1914D, 938; Ann. Cas. 1918E, 109; 35 L. R. A. (N. S.) 1074.

§ 8342. [7054.] Issuance of License.

The county commissioners of the several counties in this state shall have power to grant a license, or by order of their board to direct the county auditor to issue a license to any person to do any business designated in section 8341 for such sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars per annum as they may deem proper and expedient. [L. '73, p. 438, § 3.]

§ 8343. [7055.*] Farm Produce, Vending Authorized Without License.

It shall be lawful for any farmer, gardener or other person, without license, to sell, deliver or peddle, any fruits, vegetables, berries, butter, eggs, fish, milk, poultry, meats, or any farm produce or edibles raised, caught, produced or manufactured by such person in any place in this state, each and every day, except Sundays, and no city or town shall pass or enforce any ordinance prohibiting the sale by or requiring license from the producers and manufacturers of farm produce and edibles as herein defined, and all city or town ordinances in violation hereof are hereby declared void: Provided, that this section shall not prohibit the sale or delivery of dairy products on Sunday. [L. '17, p. 199, § 1. Cf. L. '97, p. 97, § 1.]

§ 8344. [7056.] License for Certain Articles Carried in Certain Ways.

It shall be unlawful for any person to peddle, sell or offer for sale or barter, any buggies, carriages, hacks, or road vehicles of any kind, stoves, ranges, pianos or any other merchandise except farm produce from any boat, wagon, cart or other vehicle of any kind or as a trailer thereto, or from any pack or other package carried on foot or from any pack animal, without having first obtained a license so to do from the county auditor of the county in which such merchandise is sold, or to be offered for sale or barter: Provided, this act shall not be construed to apply to any person or his agents selling any of said articles from his regularly maintained stock or established places of business when he has maintained said stock or place of business in the said county for a period of six months, nor to any administrators or executors selling any such property at public or private sale. And provided further, that this act shall not be construed to modify or repeal any other act on the subject of licenses or peddlers. [L. '03, p. 38, § 1.]

"This act" refers to §§ 8344—8346.

See, also, § 8341, supra. This section may be superseded: See note to § 8353.

§ 8345. [7057.] Daily License—County Auditor to Issue—Fees.

The county auditors of the respective counties in this state are hereby authorized and required to issue to any applicant therefor a license to sell or peddle any article of merchandise mentioned in the preceding section of this act from any boat, wagon, cart or other vehicle of any kind, or as a trailer thereto or from any pack or other package carried on foot or from any pack animal in any place in said county for the period of time to be specified in such license upon payment by such applicant of a license fee of ten dollars per day for the number of days for which license is issued. [L. '03, p. 38, § 2.]

"This act" refers to §§ 8344—8346.

§ 8346. [7058.] Penalty.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall for each offense be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '03, p. 38, § 3.]

"This act" refers to §§ 8344—8346.

§ 8347. [7059.] Fee for Year or Portion of Year.

Every person, firm or corporation who peddles out [or, after shipment to the state, canvasses and sells by sample to users or consumers], clocks, agricultural implements or machinery, stoves, ranges, windmills, lightning-rods, wagons, buggies, carriages, surreys, and other similar vehicles, washing-machines, sewing-machines, churns, or groceries shall pay in advance a license tax of two hundred dollars ($200) for each calendar year, or portion thereof, to be paid in each county in which said occupation is pursued. [L. '05, p. 372, § 1.]

This section, if valid, may supersede § 8344, supra, as to the articles specified; or it may be construed not to affect the daily license fee provided for in § 8345.

This section has been held void in so far as it discriminates against goods shipped into this state, in Bacon v. Locke, 42 Wash. 215; but omitting the part included in brackets, it may be held valid as to the balance, and is therefore retained.

This act providing that every person who canvasses or sells by sample certain specified articles "after shipment to the state," shall pay in advance a license fee of two hundred dollars per year, violates the state and federal restrictions against discrimination between citizens of this and other states, and is unconstitutional: Bacon v. Locke, 42 Wash. 215, 84 Pac. 721, 7 Ann. Cas. 589.

§ 8348. [7060.] Yearly License Issued by County Auditor.

Such license mentioned in the last preceding section shall be paid to the county auditor of the county in which such business or occupation is to be pursued and conducted. And such county auditor shall thereupon issue to such person a license under his official seal which shall permit such licensee to pursue and conduct such business in such county, for such calendar year or any unexpired portion thereof. [L. '05, p. 372, § 2.]

§ 8349. [7061.] Penalty.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall, for each offense, be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than thirty days or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '05, p. 373, § 3.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8347—8349.

§ 8350. [7062.] License to Peddle Eyeglasses.

It shall be unlawful for any person to peddle, sell or offer for sale or barter any spectacles or eyeglasses, as an article of merchandise, from any boat, wagon, cart or other vehicle of any kind, or from any pack, basket, or other package carried on foot, or from a pocket of his clothing, without having first obtained a license so to do from the county auditor of the county in which said merchandise is sold or to be offered for sale or barter: Provided, this act shall not be construed to apply to any person selling spectacles or eyeglasses in his regular, established place of business, nor to administrators or executors selling property of deceased persons at public or private sale. [L. '01, p. 173, § 1.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8350—8352.

§ 8351. [7063.] County Auditor to Issue License—Fee.

The county auditors of the respective counties in this state are hereby authorized and required to issue to any applicant therefor a license to sell or peddle spectacles or eyeglasses, as an article of merchandise, from any traveling boat, wagon, cart or any kind of vehicle, or from any pack, basket or package carried on foot, or from a pocket of the clothing, in any of the incorporated cities or towns and elsewhere in said county, outside of the regular established place of business of such applicant, within this state, for the period of time to be specified in such license upon payment by such applicant of a license fee of five dollars per day for the number of days for which such license is issued. [L. '01, p. 174, § 2.]

§ 8352. [7064.] Penalty.

Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each offense, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of thirty days or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '01, p. 174, § 3.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8350—8352.

§ 8353. [7065.] Peddler Defined for Purpose of This Act.

The term peddler for the purpose of this act shall be construed to include all persons, both principals and agents, who go from place to place and house to house, carrying for sale, and offering for sale or exposure for sale, goods, wares or merchandise: Provided, that nothing in this act shall apply to peddlers in agricultural or farm products: And provided further, that nothing in this act shall apply to peddlers within the limits of any city or town which by city ordinance regulates the sale of goods, wares or merchandise by peddlers: And provided, further, that nothing in this act shall apply to vendors of books, periodicals or newspapers. [L. '09, p. 736, § 1.]

The legislature having specified no repeal of former laws, they are retained.

§ 8354. [7066.] Penalty for Peddling Without License.

Every peddler who shall sell or offer for sale or expose for sale, at public or private sale any goods, wares or merchandise without a county license issued as hereinafter provided, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than thirty days or more than ninety days or by fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than two hundred dollars or by both. [L. '09, p. 737, § 2.]

See infra, §§ 10755, 10756, union veterans' right to peddle without license.

§ 8355. [7067.] Application—Issuance by County Treasurer—Fees.

Every peddler, whether principal or agent, shall, before commencing business in any county of the state, make application in writing and under oath to the county treasurer for the county in which he proposes to make sales, for a county license. Such application must state the names and residences of the owners or parties in whose interest said business is conducted, and shall state the number of horses and vehicles to be used by him, and at the same time shall file a true statement under oath of the quantity and value of the stock of goods, wares and merchandise that is in the county for sale or to be kept or exposed for sale in said county, and shall at the same time make special deposit of five hundred dollars with the county treasurer aforesaid, and shall pay the said treasurer the county license fee as follows:

- (1) Peddler on foot, one hundred dollars.
- (2) Peddler with one horse and a wagon, one hundred and fifty dollars.
- (3) Peddler with two horses and a wagon, two hundred and fifty dollars.
- (4) Peddler with any other conveyance, three hundred dollars.

The county treasurer shall thereupon issue to said applicant a peddler's license, authorizing him to do business in the county aforesaid for the term of one year from the date thereof: Provided, that the license issued under and by virtue of this act shall expire by limitation on the second Monday of January succeeding the year of which said license was issued. Every county license shall contain a copy of the application therefor and shall not be transferable, and shall not authorize more than one person to sell goods as a peddler, either by agent or clerk, or in any other way than his own proper person. [L. '09, p. 737, § 3.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8353—8358.

Cited in 55 Wash. 296, 297; 79 Wash. 329.

This section does not violate Const., Art. VII, § 5, providing that no tax shall be levied except pursuant to law and distinctly stating its object: State v. Sheppard, 79 Wash. 328, 140 Pac. 332.

Peddlers' license fees paid to the county treasurer, pursuant to this section, providing therefor without specific direction as to its application, become part of the general fund of the county: State v. Sheppard, 79 Wash. 328, 140 Pac. 332.

§ 8356. [7067½.] Record of Application.

The county treasurer of each county shall keep on file all applications for licenses issued thereon. All files and records of said county treasurer shall be in convenient form and open to public inspection. [L. '09, p. 738, § 4.]

§ 8357. [7068.] Cancellation of License—Return of Special Deposit.

Upon the expiration and return of each county license, the county treasurer shall cancel the same, indorse thereon the cancellation thereof and place the same on file. He shall then hold the special deposit of the licensee thereunder for a period of ninety days from the date of said cancellation, and after satisfying any and all claims made upon the same in the section next following shall return said deposit or such portion of the same, if any, as may remain in his hands, to the licensee. [L. '09, p. 738, § 5.]

§ 8358. [7069.] Liability of Special Deposit—Attachment and Fines.

Each deposit made with the county treasurer of any county in this state shall be subject to all taxes legally chargeable to same, to attachment and execution on behalf of the creditors of the licensee whose claims arise in connection with the business done under his county license, and the treasurer may be held to answer as trustee in any civil action in contract or tort brought against any licensee, and shall pay over, under order of the court or upon execution, such amount of money as the licensee may be chargeable with upon the final determination of the case. Such deposit shall also be subject to the payment of any and all fines and penalties incurred by the licensee through violations of the provisions of the preceding sections, and which shall be a lien upon same and shall be collected in the manner provided by law. [L. '09, p. 738, § 6.]

TRADING STAMPS.

§ 8359. [7069-1.] Licenses for Stamps.

Every person, firm or corporation who shall use, and every person, firm or corporation who shall furnish to any other person, firm or corporation to use, in, with, or for the sale of any goods, wares or merchandise, any stamps, coupons, tickets, certificates, cards, or other similar devices which shall entitle the purchaser receiving the same with such sale of goods, wares or merchandise to procure from any person, firm, or corporation any goods, wares, or merchandise, free of charge or for less than the retail market price thereof, upon the production of any number of said stamps, coupons, tickets, certificates, cards, or other similar devices, shall before so furnishing, selling, or using the same obtain a separate license from the auditor of each county wherein such furnishing or selling or using shall take place for each and every store or place of business in that county, owned or conducted by such person, firm or corporation from which such furnishing or selling, or in which such using, shall take place. § 8360. [7069-2.] County License.

In order to obtain such license the person, firm, or corporation applying therefor shall pay to the county treasurer of the county for which such license is sought the sum of six thousand dollars, and upon such payment being made to the county treasurer he shall issue his receipt therefor which shall be presented to the auditor of the same county, who shall upon the presentation thereof issue to the person, firm or corporation making such payment a license to furnish or sell, or a license to use, for one year, the stamps, coupons, tickets, certificates, cards, or other similar devices mentioned in section 8359. Such license shall contain the name of the grantee thereof, the date of its issue, the date of its expiration, the town or city in which and the location at which the same shall be used, and such license shall be used at no place other than that mentioned therein. [L. '13, p. 414, § 2.]

§ 8361. [7069-3.] How Redeemed.

No person, firm, or corporation shall furnish or sell to any other person, firm, or corporation to use, in, with, or for the sale of any goods, wares, or merchandise, any such stamps, coupons, tickets, certificates, cards, or other similar devices for use in any town, city or county in this state other than that in which such furnishing or selling shall take place. [L. '13, p. 414, § 3.]

CHAPTER I.

STATE LOG-SCALER.

§ 8363. [7070.] Lumber Districts, Establishment of.

That there be established within this state two districts for the survey and measurement of logs, and that counties of Whatcom, Skagit, San Juan, Island, Snohomish, King, Pierce, Mason, Lewis, Skamania, Clarke, Cowlitz, Wahkiakum, Pacific, Chehalis, Thurston, Kitsap, Jefferson and Clallam shall constitute district number one, and that Seattle, Washington, shall be the principal place of business of district number one; and that the counties [of] Okanogan, Stevens, Spokane, Lincoln, Douglas, Kittitas, Yakima, Franklin, Adams, Whitman, Garfield, Asotin, Columbia, Walla Walla and Klickitat shall constitute district number two, and that Spokane, Washington, shall be the principal place of business for district number two. [L. '97, p. 98, § 1.]

Compare L. '63, pp. 489, 490; L. '69, pp 391—394, survey and measurement of logs.

For former laws on the subject of this chapter, see L. '79, pp. 107—110; Cd. '81, §§ 2639—2652; L. '83, pp. 106—108, and 1 Hill's Code, §§ 2345—2357, and amendments of L. '93, p. 83, and L. '95, p. 127. This chapter appears to repeal by implication the sections of Hill's Code above referred to; hence they are omitted.

See infra, § 8399 et seq., boom companies.

See infra, § 10893, state log-sealer abolished.

§ 8364. [7071.] Duty of Scaler.

. It shall be the duty of the state log-scaler whose term of office has expired to make the scale bills, and record them in the books of the state log-scaler's office, within thirty days of the day he vacates his office, of all logs scaled by him or deputies prior to the time he surrenders the same to his successor, and for that purpose he shall have access to the books of the office for a period of thirty days; and all bills so made and recorded shall have the same validity as if made and recorded during his term of office. Each of said state log-scalers shall have a seal of office, and shall have engraved thereon the arms of the state of Washington, and the words "State Log Scaler, — District," and in said blank space shall be inserted the number of his district. [L. '97, p. 99, § 2.]

See infra, § 10893, state log-sealers abolished.

§ 8365. [7073.] May Appoint Deputies.

The state log-scaler may appoint any number of deputies necessary to transact the business of his district, with power to remove any of them at his pleasure, and it shall be the duty of such state log-scaler to appoint at least one deputy for a county, who shall thereafter be and reside in such county, upon a petition being presented to him by two or more master loggers showing that active operations are being carried on in the logging business by two or more master loggers in such county. [L. '97, p. 100, § 4.]

See notes to § 8364.

§ 8366. [7074.] Shall Scale Logs, When and How.

The state log-scaler, by himself or his deputy, at the request of the owner of any logs or timber, or any sheriff, coroner or constable who has replevied, attached or levied on any logs or timber, or any person who has a written order from the owner for the delivery of any logs or timber, to forthwith repair to any part of his district and survey such logs or timber, and, upon completing such survey, to make out a true and correct scale bill thereof, stating the person by whom, the time when and place where such logs or timber was scaled, at whose request and to whom scaled, if to anyone, and the scale mark placed thereon; the number of logs, and, when requested by the owner or any other person controlling the same, the number of pieces of logs or timber, together with the mark or marks thereon, and the number of feet therein contained, and shall sign the same; and thereupon he shall record such bill in the books of his office, and, upon being paid his fees for such services, he shall deliver the original bill to the person for whom the logs or timber is scaled, if any; if not, then to the person requesting the survey. No state log-scaler, or deputy scaler, shall in person survey any logs or timber owned wholly or in part by himself, but either may survey any such logs or timber owned wholly or in part by the other: Provided, that where logs which have been cut in any lumber district in this state have been run out of said district, it shall be lawful for the state log-scaler of the district in which said logs were cut, when requested so to do as above provided, to scale said logs by himself or deputy. The said scalers and their deputies shall, in surveying or measuring logs, make such allowance for hollow, rotten and crooked logs as would reduce and make them equal to good, sound and straight merchantable logs, and in surveying shall throw off all rotten, shaky or wany stuff, and make the same equal to good merchantable lumber. And the figures showing such survey shall, at the time of making the same, be entered by the scaler in pass-books kept for the purpose, which books shall be preserved and filed by the state log-scaler in his office for the inspection of all persons interested therein. The scale rule known as Drew's rule is hereby adopted as the only rule for the survey of logs in this state. [L. '97, p. 100, § 5.]

See notes to § 8364.

§ 8367. [7075.] Objection to Scaler's Scale—Rescale.

Any person considering any scale of the state log-scaler or any of his deputies incorrect, whether he be the owner or the purchaser of the logs so scaled, may contest said scale by serving on the state log-scaler of the district in which said logs were scaled a copy of a notice of his intention to contest such a scale and filing the original of such notice with the clerk of the court in the county in which said logs are situated, said notice to contain a statement of by whom and where the logs were cut, the mark thereon, the number thereof, and when and where they were scaled, and the amount of such scale, and where the logs are situated, and when and by whom moved from where they were originally scaled, if moved at all, and the clerk shall enter the same as an action entitled by naming the party giving the notice as plaintiff, and the state log-scaler as defendant, three days after the serving and filing of said notice, upon the application of either party, the judge of the superior court of said county, shall in open court or at the chambers appoint two disinterested scalers to rescale said logs. Each of said persons so appointed shall forthwith scale said logs, and if they do not agree as to the quantity of lumber in said logs, then they shall be deemed to agree upon the sum of the smallest amount found by either of them plus one-half the difference between his and the other's scale, whereupon they shall make out a scale bill, as in this chapter provided, also stating thereon the amount of lumber each found to be contained in said boom, and the amount of fees due each, and sign and file the same with the same clerk of said court, and they shall each be entitled to receive for such services the fees allowed by this act for such services, and in event of there being a difference of more than ten per cent between the original scale of said logs by the state log-scaler and the amount agreed upon by the parties appointed to rescale said logs, then the court shall give judgment against the state log-scaler for all costs of such proceedings, including the cost of rescaling said logs, and order the state log-scaler to correct the books of his office, so that they shall show said logs to contain the amount ascertained by the rescale of said logs. In the event of there not being more than ten per cent difference between the scale of said logs, then judgment shall be entered against the plaintiff for the cost of the proceeding, including the fees of the persons appointed to rescale said logs. In event of the judgment of such proceedings being against the state log-scaler, the person paying for the original scale of said logs shall be entitled to recover from said state log-scaler or his bondsmen the amount he may have paid for such original scale and if he shall not have paid for such scale, then the state log-scaler shall not be entitled to recover the same. [L. '97, p. 101, § 6.]

See notes to § 8364.

§ 8368. [7076.] Duty to Scale When not Requested in Certain Cases.

It shall be the duty of the state log-scaler, or his deputy, to scale all lots or booms of logs containing fifty thousand feet or more, which may be offered for sale, whether requested to do so or not, if the same has not been scaled, and it shall also be the duty of the owner or purchaser of any logs to notify the state log-scaler of any logs in his possession that have not been scaled, and any person or association of persons who shall sell or remove any such logs from the state, that have been cut in the state, before the same shall have been scaled, shall be liable to the state log-scaler for one-half the value of such logs, so sold or removed from the state without having been scaled, which sum shall be recovered by the state log-scaler in a civil action, and when so recovered, one-half thereof, shall be paid by the state log-scaler into the general school fund. [L. '97, p. 102, § 7.]

See notes to § 8364.

§ 8369. [7077.] Scaler's Fees, Lien for.

The fees of the state log-scaler shall be: For surveying, scale marking, making scale bills and recording the same and posting in the ledger, three and a half cents per thousand feet for all logs and timber required to be surveyed; twenty per cent of the aforesaid fees shall be paid by the state log-scaler, at least every three months, into the general fund of the state treasury; for recording any log mark, fifty cents; for making and certifying a copy of any matter which may be on record in his office, or for making duplicate scale bills, ten cents per folio, and fifty cents for each certificate thereon; for recording any instrument in writing authorized to be recorded in his office, other than scale bills, ten cents per folio, payable when such instrument is presented for record and before it is recorded, and no such instrument shall be deemed recorded until it is entered upon the index to the record. And for the purpose of securing to the state log-scaler the payment of his fees, whether the same are for surveying, making scale bills, or recording the same, or for any or all such services, such state log-scaler shall have a lien upon all such logs or timber surveyed and marked by him for the amount due for his services thereon, and may retain such lien by affixing the scale bill of such logs or timber and notify the same on the record of his office, before the delivery thereof, a true statement of the amount due him thereon, and that he claims a lien thereon for such amount and costs of collection; and any person who shall purchase, sell or remove said logs from the state shall be liable to the state log-scaler for the payment of said fees, and at any time that he may deem himself in danger of losing such lien, he may take possession of sufficient quantity of such logs to cover the amount of his lien and the costs of recovery, and if his bill is not paid within thirty days, after notice of [to] the owner or person in possession or in charge of said logs, then the state log-scaler may sell at public auction enough of such logs or timber to pay the amount due him, with the costs of collection, first giving ten days' notice of such sale by posting up five written notices thereof, one in his office, and one in each of the four most public places in the town or city where the sale is to be made, and at such sale the state log-scaler may become the purchaser. The sale may be made by the sheriff or any constable of the county. The only costs of collection allowed shall be ten per cent on the amount payable to the state log-scaler. [L. '97, p. 103, § 8.]

See notes to § 8364.

§ 8370. [7078.] Books in Office of Log-scaler.

The books of record in the state log-scaler's office shall be,—

First: A book in which shall be recorded the scale bills of all logs, timber and lumber surveyed by the state log-scaler;

Second: A book to be kept in ledger form, in which shall be posted and recorded as soon as any logs or timber is surveyed, separately and under their respective marks, all the logs and timber of each particular mark surveyed, together with the date of scale, the number of logs and the number of pieces of timber, for whom scaled, if to anyone, and the number of feet; which book shall be kept posted up so that it will show the matter above stated concerning each mark of logs scaled during each month. And the state log-scaler shall make and deliver to any person demanding the same a certified transcript of said record, as to mark or marks of logs or timber, upon being paid ten cents per folio, and the sum of fifty cents for his certificate of the same, and an index of the names and marks contained in each of said books shall also be kept. Any books of the description before named, which have been kept in the office of the state log-scaler and which belong to said office, are hereby declared to be the records of said office, and to have and be of the same validity, force and effect as if the same had been kept by express authority of law. All the books of record hereinbefore mentioned and authorized to be kept in the office of any state log-scaler are hereby declared to be public records, and of as high degree of evidence as the original instrument therein recorded, and shall, in all courts and places in this state, be taken and held prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated, and such books shall not be removed from the state log-scaler's office, but any paper purporting to be a copy of any matter or thing of record in such office, certified under the hand of the state log-scaler or his deputy to be a correct transcript from the records in such office, shall, in all courts of this state, be received and read as prima facie evidence of the matters and things in such record contained and of the matters therein stated. [L. '97, p. 104, § 9.]

See notes to § 8634.

§ 8371. [7079.] Report to Governor.

The state log-scaler shall make a report of the total number of feet of logs which he has surveyed in his district for the year ending the last day of October, before the last day of November of each year, to the governor of the state. [L. '97, p. 105, § 10.]

CHAPTER II.

LUMBER AND SHINGLE WEIGHERS.

§ 8372. [7081.] Weighers, Removal of.

The governor shall have the power, and it is hereby made his duty, upon receiving a petition in writing from five manufacturers of shingles or lumber, complaining of the wrongful acts of any of said weighers or their deputies, to investigate such charges and in his discretion to remove such weigher and to appoint a successor for such weigher. [L. '95, p. 381, § 2.]

See infra, § 10893, state weighers of lumber and shingles abolished.

§ 8373. [7083.] Railroads to Provide Scales.

It shall be the duty of each of said railroads to construct scales capable of weighing cars loaded with lumber or shingles shipped from that portion of Washington west of the Cascade Mountains at some point on their respective lines and within the limits of this state for the purpose of weighing said lumber and shingles; and that it shall be the duty of each of said railroads doing business east of the Cascade Mountains to maintain scales on the east side of the mountains and within the limits of this state for the purpose of weighing lumber and shingles manufactured on each side of said mountains. [L. '95, p. 381, § 4.]

See, also, next section.

§ 8374. [7084.] Railroads to Provide Scales—Freight Weights.

All railroad companies operating any railroad or any part thereof within the limits of this state are required to provide scales and weigh at some common point or points within this state all cars loaded with lumber, shingles or any other forest products destined for shipment to any and all points within the limits of the state, and also carload shipments of said commodities to any and all points outside of the limits of this state. Also that charges for freight on said commodities be based on the weights determined by the weighing stations within the limits of this state. Also that all bills of lading of railroads operating within the limits of this state specify said provision. [L. '01, p. 300, § 1.]

§ 8375. [7085.] Deputies.

Each weigher shall have the right to appoint one or more deputy weighers. [L. '95, p. 382, § 5.]

§ 8376. [7086.] Weigher, Duty of.

All lumber and shingles to be shipped beyond the limits of this state by railroad shall first be weighed by said weigher or his deputy at the place where said scales are located. [L. '95, p. 382, § 6.]

See note to § 8372.

§ 8377. [7087.] Railroads to Accept Weights—Penalty.

If any lumber or shingles shall be shipped beyond the limits of this state by any railroad company before being weighed by said weigher or his deputy, said railroad shall be compelled to accept the weight named in the affidavit (if there be any affidavit) attached to the bill of lading, and in all cases where there is no such affidavit attached, said cars of shingles or lumber shall be weighed by said weigher in every instance; any failure to comply with the above requirements shall be adjudged a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall, for each offense, be fined in any sum not less than five hundred dollars nor more than two thousand dollars. [L. '95, p. 382, § 7.]

§ 8378. [7088.] Weigher's Bill to Contain, What.

Upon weighing said shingles or lumber, the weigher or his deputy shall make out a bill, stating therein the names of the consignor and the consignee, the destination of said car of shingles or lumber and the place from which said car was billed, the name of the railroad owning such car and the number of said car, together with the number of shingles or amount of lumber said to be contained in such car, and the total weight of shingles or lumber contained therein. He shall enter upon the books of his office, to be provided by him and kept for that purpose, a correct copy of said bill, and shall mail or deliver to the consignee two correct copies of said bill, and to the agent of the railroad over which said car is shipped one correct copy of said bill, with the certificates thereto attached, that it is a true and correct bill, which bill so certified shall be presumptive evidence of the facts therein contained. [L. '95, p. 382, § 8.]

See note to § 8372.

§ 8379. [7089.] Fees.

Each weigher or his deputy shall receive and collect from the railroad by which said lumber or shingles were received, the sum of fifty cents a car for each and every car of lumber or shingles weighed by him. [L. '95, p. 382, § 9.]

See note to § 8372.

§ 8380. [7090.] Basis.

When any cars shall have been weighed, as herein designated, the said weight shall constitute the basis by which the weight of said lumber or shingles shall be determined. [L. '95, p. 382, § 10.]

CHAPTER III.MARKING AND DRIVING.*§ 8381. [7091.] Logs and Timber Put Afloat must be Marked.

Every person or copartnership who shall put any logs or timber into any river, or its branches or tributaries, small lake or its tributaries, bayou, marsh, or ditch in this state, for the purpose of rafting or floating the same to any place for manufacture or sale, shall have some mark or marks, previously selected by him or them, impressed in a conspicuous place upon the end or surface of each log or stick of timber so put into any of said waters. [L. '90, p. 110, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2358.]

See infra, § 8399 et seq., boom companies.

Power of state to prohibit or regulate floating of logs. 9 A. L. B. 1025.

§ 8382. [7092.] Marks to be Recorded—Notice.

Before any such mark or marks shall be used, it shall be the duty of such person or copartnership to cause a diagram and written description of the same, certified and signed by the owner or owners thereof, to be recorded in the office of the auditor of each county through which such logs or timber shall be floated for manufacture or sale, and also to give notice in writing to each log running or booming company doing business on any waters on which the logs or timber are floated, of such mark. The diagram and written description, to be recorded as aforesaid, must be different from any diagram and description already recorded in said office claimed by any other party. For recording and indexing the diagram and certificate aforesaid, the auditor shall be entitled to demand and receive a fee of twenty-five cents. [L. '90, p. 110, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2359.]

§ 8383. [7093.] Auditor to Record Marks, etc.—Fees.

It shall be the duty of any such auditor to record, in a book to be kept for that purpose, all marks and descriptions of marks furnished to him for that purpose, which are different from any other mark or description there recorded, which book shall be, at all reasonable hours, open to the inspection and examination of any person requiring it; and each of said auditors shall be entitled to receive for his fees, for each mark and description recorded, twenty-five cents, to be paid in advance by the party having the same recorded. [L. '90, p. 111, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2360.]

§ 8384. [7094.] Marks—Presumptions Arising from.

Any logs or timber having any such recorded mark or marks impressed thereon shall be presumed to belong to the party or parties in whose name said mark or marks shall have been recorded. [L. '90, p. 111, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2361.]

§ 8385. [7095.] Failure to Record Marks—Effect of.

Every person or copartnership who shall neglect to have his or their mark or marks recorded, as required in section 8382, shall be debarred from all the benefits arising from the due recording of such mark or marks, and the vendee or assignee of any such logs or timber shall be subject to the same regulations and restrictions. [L. '90, p. 111, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2362.]

§ 8386. [7096.] Counterfeit Marks—Penalty for Making.

If any person shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit such mark, and use the same in marking logs or timber, knowing the same to be the mark of another person, and with intent to defraud, shall be guilty of felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor in the state prison not to exceed five years, or by fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two thousand dollars. [L. '90, p. 111, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2363.]

See, also, § 2595, supra.

§ 8387. [7097.] Alteration of Mark or Brand—Penalty for.

If any person, corporation, or partnership shall willfully and knowingly, or by gross carelessness, alter or deface, obliterate or destroy, any of such brands or marks hereinbefore provided for, or shall request or order the same to be altered, defaced, obliterated, or destroyed, and the same is altered, defaced, obliterated, or destroyed in pursuance of said request or order, said person, corporation, or partnership so altering, destroying, obliterating, or defacing such brands or marks, or requesting or ordering the same to be done, and it appearing the same was done in pursuance of said order or request, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars. [L. '90, p. 111, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2364.]

See, also, § 2594, supra.

§ 8388. [7099.] Improvements for Logging may be Made on Streams.

It shall be lawful for any person or company interested in logging to make such improvements on any stream used for logging within the state of Washington as may be necessary to carry on said logging business; that such improvements may consist in clearing out obstructions and straightening the channel by cutting across sand or gravel bars, and that side dams and sheer booms may be used in making such improvements. [L. '91, p. 217, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2368.]

§ 8389. [7100.] Right of Owners to Fence Across Streams.

Owners of land or their agents shall have the right to fence across all unmeandered streams at any time when such streams are not used for a public highway, or by making a fence that will not be an obstruction. [L. '91, p. 217, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2369.]

Section 2 of this act was vetoed by the governor.

§ 8390. [7101.] Unlawful to Take up Branded Logs—Record of Brand.

It shall be unlawful for any corporation except boom companies who are compelled to catch and hold logs, spars, piles, boom sticks, shingle bolts, and other timber of value, or any person, or persons, to take up, and it shall be unlawful for any corporation, person or persons to sell, dispose of, or appropriate to its, his or their own use, any saw-logs, hewn or other timber of value found on the bank or banks of, or adrift on any bay, harbor, river, stream, bayou, marsh, ditch or other waters in this state that shall be marked with any mark, or brand, without permission of the owner thereof or his agent: Provided, the person or persons claiming such mark or brand shall have had a description and diagram thereof recorded in the office of the auditor of any county in this state as provided by law, and knowledge of the ownership of all such timber for the purpose of this act shall be conclusively presumed upon proof that said timber was properly marked, and that the description and diagram of marks had been theretofore duly recorded as aforesaid. [L. '01, p. 262, § 1; L. '60, p. 300, § 1; L. '63, p. 444, § 1; Cd. '81, § 3248.]

For former laws repealed by act of 1901, see Bal. Code, §§ 3135, 3291, 3292, 3293, 3294, 3295, 7126, and 7127.

See L. '83, p. 60, §§ 1, 2, special act applying to Whatcom and Snohomish counties, and L. '86, p. 117, § 1, adding Skagit and Island counties.

Special act in L. '79, p. 38, §§ 1—4, relating to Snake River.

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8390—8394.

§ 8391. [7102.] Unlawful to Buy, When Fraudulently Marked.

It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to purchase from anyone taking up any saw-logs, spars, piles, boom sticks, shingle bolts, hewn or other timber of value found adrift on any bay, harbor, river, stream, bayou, marsh, ditch or other waters in this state, that shall be marked with any mark or brand without permission of the owner thereof or his agent. [L. '01, p. 263, § 2.]

§ 8392. [7103.] Penalty.

Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the two preceding sections shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred ($300) dollars. [L. '01, p. 263, § 3.]

§ 8393. [7104.] Owner may Enter and Take—Penalty for Obstruction.

The owner of any such log, spar, pile, boom stick, shingle bolt or other timber of value who has a mark or brand recorded, as provided by law, or who claims ownership of or the right to possession of such logs, spars, piles, or other timber, by, through, or under a person having such recorded mark or brand may at any time lawfully, by himself or his agent enter in a peaceable manner into or upon any mill or mill boom, or raft of logs, spars, piles or other timber on any of the waters of this state, in search of any such log, spar, pile, boom stick, shingle bolt or other timber, which he may have lost, and retake the same; and any person who shall willfully prevent or obstruct such search when such search is being made in good faith, or prevent the retaking of such log, spar, pile, boom stick, shingle bolt or other timber, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars. [L. '01, p. 263, § 4.]

§ 8394. [7105.] Liability for Wrongfully Taking up Branded Logs.

Any person or persons, or corporation who shall take up or cause to be taken up and manufactured into lumber or shingles, any saw-logs, piling, shingle bolt, or other timber of another, as provided in this act, which saw-log, piling, shingle bolt, or other timber, shall have been previously branded with the mark or marks of the owner or owners thereof, and the diagram and description of which shall have theretofore been duly recorded in the auditor's office of any county in this state as hereinbefore provided, without the permission or request of said owner, shall forfeit to the owner of said timber ten times the value thereof to be recovered in an action at law; and every employee or agent of the person, persons or corporation who shall aid or assist in taking up such timber, or who shall aid or assist in such manufacture, shall be jointly or severally liable with his principal for such penalty. [L. '01, p. 264, § 5.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8390—8394.

CHAPTER IV.

TOLL LOGGING ROADS.

§ 8395. [7106.] Incorporation and Property Rights.

Any two or more persons may incorporate a company, having for its principal object the construction, maintenance, and operation of logging roads, chutes, flumes and artificial watercourses, or waterways and other ways, for the transportation of logs and other timber products. Such corporation shall have power to acquire, hold, use and transfer all such real and personal property as shall be reasonably necessary for carrying on the business of such corporation. [L. '05, p. 161, § 1.]

private purposes: State ex rel. Clark v. Superior Court, 62 Wash. 612, 114 Pac. 444.

This section is not invalid as conferring the power of eminent domain for § 8396. [7107.] Power to Construct and Operate Logging Roads, etc.

Such corporation shall have power to build, construct, maintain and operate logging roads, whether skid roads, railroads or any other kind, also chutes, flumes and artificial watercourses, waterways and other ways, for the transportation of logs or any other timber products, together with all necessary yarding grounds, rollways and landings. [L. '05, p. 161, § 2.]

§ 8397. [7108.] Duty as Carrier—Tolls, Right to Charge, and Lien for.

After any such logging road, way, chute, flume or artificial watercourse or other improvements shall have been constructed, such company shall transport all timber products offered to it for carriage as its means of transportation are adapted to carry, and such company shall have the right to charge reasonable tolls for the use thereof, which tolls shall be uniform, having due regard to the portion or length of any such logging road, way, chute, flume, or artificial watercourse or other improvements used by any person. Such company shall have a lien for the amount of its reasonable tolls and charges upon any and all logs or other timber products transported by it over its logging road, way, chute, flume or artificial watercourse. Notice of such lien shall be filed, and the same shall be enforced, in the same manner as is now or may hereafter be provided for the filing and enforcement of liens on logs by boom companies. [L. '05, p. 162, § 3.]

§ 8398. [7109.] Right of Eminent Domain.

Such companies shall be deemed quasi-public companies and common carriers, and any such company shall have the right of eminent domain and shall have the right to appropriate and condemn lands and property for its use. Such right of condemnation and of eminent domain shall be exercised in the same manner as is now, or may hereafter be, provided by law for the condemnation of property by ordinary railroad corporations exercising the right of eminent domain: Provided, that the right of eminent domain shall not be exercised by any such corporation with respect to any residence. And provided further, that any property acquired by such corporation under the provisions of this chapter by the exercise of the right of eminent domain shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter; and whenever the use of such property as herein contemplated shall cease for the period of one year, the property shall revert to the original owner, his heirs or assigns. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the taking or damaging of any power plant constructed or being constructed for the creation or utilization of water power. CHAPTER V.BOOM COMPANIES.*§ 8399. [7110.] Appropriation of Property by Corporations Organized to Build Booms.

Any corporation heretofore or hereafter organized in the state of Washington for the purpose of catching, booming, sorting, rafting, and holding logs, lumber, or other timber products, shall have power to acquire, hold, use, and transfer all such real and personal property or estate, by lease or purchase, as shall be necessary for carrying on the business of said corporation. If such corporation shall not be able to agree with persons owning land, shore rights, or other property sought to be appropriated, as to the amount of compensation to be paid therefor, the compensation therefor may be assessed and determined and the appropriation made in the manner provided by law for the appropriation of private property by railways: Provided, that any property acquired under the provisions of this chapter by the exercise of the right of eminent domain shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter, and whenever the use of said property as herein contemplated shall cease for a period of one year, the same shall revert to the original owner, his heirs or assigns, upon the repayment of the original cost of same. [L. '90, p. 470, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1590.]

§ 8400. [7111.] To File Plat or Survey of Property Sought to be Appropriated.

Any corporation hereafter organized for the purpose mentioned in the last preceding section, shall within ninety days after its articles of incorporation have been filed, proceed to file in the office of the secretary of state a plat or survey of so much of the shore lines of the waters of the state and lands contiguous thereto as are proposed to be appropriated for said purpose by said corporation. Any corporation heretofore organized in the territory of Washington for any of the purposes expressed in the last preceding section, shall file such plat within ninety days after the passage of this act. Such plat shall be made from the records of the United States in the surveyor general's office of this state, or by competent surveyor, subsequent to actual survey. Such corporation may from time to time whenever it desires to extend its operations to portions of streams not embraced in its original plat, or to other streams tributary to the stream or streams described in such original plat, or any portion of such streams, or in any manner to change, modify or correct its original plat, file additional plats or surveys in the office of the secretary of state, of so much of the shore lines of the waters of the state and lands contiguous thereto as are proposed to be appropriated for said purposes by said corporation, and whenever by reason of floods or otherwise, the channel of any stream shall be so changed as to put such stream beyond the limits of said original plat, or any supplemental or additional plat filed pursuant to the provisions of this section, such corporation may file in the office of the secretary of state additional plats or surveys showing the change in said channel and so much of the shore lines of the waters of the state and lands contiguous thereto as are proposed to be appropriated for said purposes by said corporation which shall vest it with the same rights that it acquired by the filing of said original plat. [L. '90, p. 470, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1591; L. '07, p. 76, § 1.]

The filing of a plat of its proposed location by a boom company desiring to appropriate the waters of a stream does not give the boom company the right to injure the property of riparian proprietors without condemnation and compensation, in view of section 8399, supra: St. Martin v. Skamania Boom Co., 79 Wash. 393, 140 Pac. 355.

This section is a grant, by necessary implication, of the power of selecting the designated location by condemnation or otherwise: Samish River Boom Co. v. Union Boom Co., 32 Wash. 586, 73 Pac. 670.

Where a boom company's plat was made from the government field-notes of the meanders of a river, and shows the contiguous land, it is sufficient to authorize condemnation proceedings to appropriate the use of an unmeandered slough extending into such contiguous lands, within this section: State ex rel. Burrows v. Superior Court, 48 Wash. 277, 93 Pac. 423, 125 Am. St. Rep. 927, 17 L. R. A. (N. S.) 1005.

The fact that a boom company, in order to initiate its appropriation, filed its map and survey in 1891, as required by this section does not prevent the condemnation of a portion of its property by a rival boom company, where for twenty years the first company had made no use of more than one-tenth part of its appropriated shore rights, and there was no evidence that it would require the use of more than it had improved: State ex rel. Washington Boom Co. v. Chehalis Boom Co., 82 Wash. 509, 144 Pac. 719.

§ 8401. [7112.] Boom Structures, Power to Build, etc.

Such corporations shall have power and are hereby authorized, in any of the waters of this state or the dividing waters thereof, to construct, maintain and use all necessary sheer or receiving booms, dolphins, piers, piles or other structure necessary or convenient for carrying on the business of such corporations: Provided, that such boom or booms, sheer booms or receiving booms shall be so constructed as to allow the free passage between any of such booms and the opposite shore for all boats, vessels or steam crafts of any kind whatsoever, or for ordinary purposes of navigation. [L. '90, p. 471, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1592.]

§ 8402. [7113.] Collection of Tolls—Duty of Corporation—Lien.

After such works shall have been constructed, such corporation shall catch, hold and assort the logs and timber products of all persons requesting such service, upon the same terms and without discrimination; and shall have the right, in consideration of the convenience and security afforded to the public in the handling of logs and timber products, to charge and collect tolls on all logs or other timber products caught within their works and upon the order or request of the owner or owners thereof, and there assorted, boomed or rafted; said tolls shall not exceed seventy-five cents per thousand feet on logs, spars or other large timber, and reasonable rates on all other timber products: Provided, that it shall be the duty of any corporation operating a boom at the mouth of any river, to catch and hold, assort, boom and raft all logs and timber products, except such as may be already in charge of its owner or his agents, without request of the owner or owners, and shall have the right to charge and collect tolls not to exceed seventy-five cents per thousand feet for such service. The amount of logs or timber is to be board measure, to be ascertained by the usual legal method of scaling; and such corporation shall have a lien upon the logs and timber products for the driving, floating, booming, sorting and rafting thereof, and the right to enforce such liens in any manner provided or that may be provided by law for the enforcement of liens upon personal property. Such corporation shall, as soon as practicable, deliver logs or other timber products caught within their booms, sorted and rafted ready for towing, to the owner or owners thereof, and if required to hold such property for more than thirty days, shall have the right to charge a reasonable rate for such storage for the period of excess. [L. '90, p. 471, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1593.]

§ 8403. [7114.] Duty as to Assorting Logs, etc.

It shall be the duty of all said boom corporations, in assorting, to separate the logs, lumber, or other timber products, into separate booms ready for towing, so that logs or other timber products shall go to the mill or place intended for use or storage, in one or more booms: Provided, that in case more than one boom is located on or in the same river or its tributaries, the corporation owning the upper boom or works shall pass, free of charge, all saw-logs or other timber products consigned to the lower boom or booms. [L. '90, p. 472, § 5; 1 H. C., § 1594.]

§ 8404. [7115.] Record of Assorted Rafts to be Kept, and to Show What.

It shall be the duty of every corporation organized and transacting business under the provisions of this chapter to keep, in the office of its secretary, open to public inspection, a book or books in which shall be truly recorded the facts, so far as known, regarding each and every raft by it assorted. Such record shall specify—

1. Names of owners;
2. Marks or brands;
3. Number of logs in each boom;
4. Number of feet in boom;
5. Name of steamer receiving possession;
6. Date of departure from boom. [L. '90, p. 472, § 6; 1 H. C., § 1595.]

§ 8405. [7116.] Liability for Loss of Logs, Neglect, etc.

Corporations organized in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be liable to the owner or owners of logs or other timber products for all loss or damage resultant from neglect, carelessness, or unnecessary delay on the part of servants of such corporations: Provided, that loss caused by fire and ice, which cannot be reasonably guarded against, shall not be construed as resultant upon neglect or carelessness on the part of the corporation. § 8406. [7117.] Additional Liability for Neglect to Assort and Deliver Logs.

In addition to such damages as are herein provided for, any corporation willfully neglecting to assort and deliver such logs and timber products according to the provisions of this act, it shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty per centum of the value of such property which it shall have failed to deliver, but no such corporation shall be liable to such damages or penalty if said owner or owners of such logs or timber products shall have failed to furnish the necessary boom sticks and chains to raft the same. § 8407. [7118.] Public Highways and Corporations, What Declared to be.

All meandered rivers, meandered sloughs, and navigable waters in this state shall be deemed as public highways, and said corporations shall be declared public corporations for the purpose of this act; and the improvement of such streams, sloughs, and waters shall be deemed and declared a public use and benefit. § 8408. [7119.] How Organized, and Powers of.

Any corporation having for its object, in whole or in part, the clearing out and improvement of rivers and streams in this state, and for the purpose of driving, sorting, holding and delivering logs and other timber products thereon, may be organized under the laws of this state, and in accordance with the provisions of Chapter I, of Title XXV of this code, and such corporations shall have all powers and be subject to all the liabilities and duties therein mentioned. § 8409. [7120.] Power to Acquire Property—Eminent Domain.

Such corporation shall have power to acquire, hold, use and transfer all such real and personal property or estate, by lease or purchase, as shall be necessary for carrying on the business of said corporation. If such corporation shall not be able to agree with persons owning land, shore rights or other property sought to be appropriated, as to the amount of compensation to be paid therefor, the compensation therefor may be assessed and determined and the appropriation thereof be made in the manner provided by law for the appropriation of private property in Chapter V of Title VI (§ 921 et seq.): Provided, that any property acquired under the provisions of this act for the purposes herein mentioned by the exercise of the right of eminent domain shall be used exclusively for the purposes aforesaid; and whenever the use of said property acquired by the right of eminent domain, as herein contemplated, shall cease for a period of one year, the same shall revert to the original owner, his heirs or assigns. A remonstrance does not affect the company's power to condemn a right to maintain splash-dams some miles up the river above the lands of the remonstrancers, as none of their "lands or sloughs" are sought to be appropriated: State ex rel. Burrows v. Superior Court, 48 Wash. 286, 93 Pac. 426.

§ 8410. [7121.] Plats of Shore Lines, When Filed.

Any corporation organized for the purposes mentioned in section 8408 shall within ninety days after its articles of incorporation shall have been filed, proceed to file in the office of the secretary of state a plat or survey of so much of the shore lines of the waters of the state or of any of the rivers or streams thereof and lands contiguous thereto as are proposed to be appropriated for such purposes by said corporation. Such plat shall be made from the records of the United States in the office of the surveyor-general of this state, or by a competent surveyor, after actual survey, from the notes thereof, and wherever such appropriation is made upon unsurveyed lands, then by an actual survey made by a competent surveyor. Such corporation may from time to time whenever it desires to extend its operations to portions of streams not embraced in its original plat, or to other streams tributary to the stream or streams described in such original plat, or any portion of such streams, file additional plats in the office of the secretary of state, and whenever by reason of floods or otherwise, the channel of any stream shall be so changed as to put such streams beyond the limits of said original plat, or any supplemental or additional plat filed pursuant to the provisions of this section, such corporation may file in the office of the secretary of state supplemental plats showing the change in said channel which shall vest it with the same rights that it acquired by the filing of said original plat. [L. '95, p. 129, § 3; L. '05, p. 232, § 1.]

This section does not prevent a company from condemning the right to damage by artificial freshets lower lands outside of the plat, where the company was not seeking to improve the river or exercise its granted powers at the point where the injury occurs; as the object of the act was that of notice to riparian owners where the improvements were to be made: State ex rel. Gray's Harbor Boom Co. v. Superior Court, 57 Wash. 71, 106 Pac. 481.

"Contiguous lands" in this section is not to be restricted to lands "next to" or "touching" the river: State ex rel. Gray's Harbor Boom Co. v. Superior Court, 57 Wash. 71, 106 Pac. 481.

§ 8411. [7122.] General Powers and Duties—Abutting Owners may Remonstrate.

Such corporation shall have power and is hereby authorized in any of the rivers and streams of this state, or the dividing waters thereof, to remove jams, roots, snags and rocks, improve and straighten the channel, build wing dams and sheer booms, construct dams and gates, or otherwise, for the purpose of storing water with which to produce artificial freshets and for the purpose of holding logs and other timber products and in all ways to improve such streams and rivers for the purposes herein mentioned and contemplated. Provided, that no such wing dam, sheer boom, dam with gate or otherwise, shall be so constructed, maintained or used as to in any manner obstruct or impede the outlet of such stream: And provided further, that if any such wing dam, sheer boom, dam with gate or otherwise shall be so constructed, maintained or used as to interfere with the use for any purpose of the waters of any stream, so dam [dammed] or used, or any of its tributaries, or in any manner to injure or damage any lands adjacent to such stream or its tributaries, compensation for such interference with the use of such water and for any such injury or damage shall be first assessed and determined and the appropriation thereof may be made by the exercise of the power of eminent domain in the manner provided in section 8409: Provided, however, that whenever the owners of more than one-half of the land lying alongside or abutting on any stream affected by the tide, proposed to be improved according to this act, shall file with the board of county commissioners of the county in which said river is situated a remonstrance against any improvements of so much of the stream as is affected by the tide, it shall then be unlawful for any corporation to take the land or any slough within the territory owned by any such remonstrancers: Provided, that such remonstrance shall be filed with said board within fifteen days from the filing of said plat. Nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize the taking or damaging of any power plant constructed or being constructed for the creation or utilization of water power. [L. '95, p. 129, § 4; L. '97, p. 39, § 1; L. '05, p. 108, § 1.]

This section by necessary implication gives the right to obstruct restricted navigation in small streams at times, where such use is necessarily an exclusive one; and such obstruction would not fall within the general statutes defining nuisances, or to be a valid objection to eminent domain proceedings to condemn the right to overflow lands: State ex rel. Pealer v. Superior Court, 58 Wash. 565, 109 Pac. 340.

§ 8412. [7123.] Rights of Owners of Timber—Tolls—Liens.

After such corporation shall have entered upon its duties, which shall be within three months of the filing of its maps of location, such corporation shall come in streams theretofore navigable, upon the request of the owners, and in case of logs and other timber products being commingled, or lying in such a position as to obstruct or impede the drive, without such request: Provided, that when a navigable stream upon which it was not previously practicable to float logs or other timber products is improved by clearing out rocks, straightening the channel, or the construction of wing dams and sheers by the corporation having a charter thereon, and thereby aiding and assisting the floating of logs and other timber products, a corporation shall be entitled to driving charges on all such logs or other timber products placed in said stream without request to drive the same, and in streams not navigable before such improvements were made, without request, sluice, sack and drive all logs and other timber products of suitable length that may be placed in the beds of the stream improved as aforesaid, or that may be delivered into its ponds, and shall handle all such logs and other timber products of all persons upon the same terms, without discrimination as to time of sluicing, sacking and driving such logs, or other timber products, and shall be entitled to charge and collect reasonable and uniform tolls for such services and improvements, on all logs and other timber products so handled, or sheered out of sloughs or off of bars by means of such improvements; such tolls shall not exceed one dollar per thousand feet, board measure, on logs, spars, or other large timber, and reasonable compensation on all other timber products, for the use of such improvements, and for sluicing, sacking and driving the same, such charges to be fixed by the board of trustees of such corporation in proportion to the distance such timber is to be driven and the number of dams through which the same is necessarily sluiced or sheered, and in case any such corporation shall be engaged in the booming and rafting of logs and other timber so sluiced, sacked and driven, an additional sum not to exceed sixty cents per thousand feet for logs, spars and other large timber, and reasonable compensation on all other timber products may be charged for booming and rafting the same; the amount of such logs and other products is to be determined by the usual method of scaling, and such corporation shall have a lien upon all logs and other timber products handled for sluicing, sacking and driving, and for booming and rafting the same, to be enforced in any manner now or hereafter provided by law for the enforcement of liens for labor on logs. § 8413. [7124.] Damages.

Any corporation acting under and in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be liable to the owner or owners of logs or other timber products for all loss or damage resulting from neglect, carelessness or unnecessary delay on the part of such corporation or its agents. A boom and driving company controlling the driving of logs on a stream by splash-dams, owes the duty as a public service corporation to drive the logs with reasonable care and diligence, and is by this section made liable for logs lost through neglect or unnecessary delay; hence the jury is properly instructed that a driving company is liable for logs lost by fire through unreasonable delay in driving them: Murray v. Wishkah Boom Co., 76 Wash. 605, 137 Pac. 130.

§ 8414. [7125.] Rights to Cease, When.

Should any corporation neglect, for the period of eight months after improving any stream or river, to operate its dams, or to otherwise perform its duties as herein provided, then all rights herein conferred to such corporations upon such streams or rivers, or portions thereof, shall cease. § 8415. [7126.] Boom Companies, Rights of.

Duly organized boom companies at present operating upon any of the streams or rivers of this state may file amended articles of incorporation to embrace the provisions of this act, and, for the purpose of time limitations mentioned in this act, the time of filing such amended articles of incorporations shall be deemed to be the time of organization thereof, but failure to comply with the provisions of this act shall work forfeiture of the rights of such corporations only so far as the same are subjoined under the provisions of this paragraph. § 8416. [7127.] Consignee of Personal Property to Keep Record.

Whenever any personal property shall be consigned to or deposited with any forwarding merchant, wharf, warehouse, or tavern keeper, or the keeper of any depot for the reception and storage of trunks, baggage, merchandise, or other personal property, such consignee or bailee shall immediately cause to be entered in a book kept by him a description of such property, with the date of reception thereof. [L. '54, p. 383, § 1; L. '63, p. 437, § 1; Cd. '81, § 3252; 1 H. C., § 2825.]

§ 8417. [7128.] Notice to Owner, How Given.

If such property shall not have been left with such consignee or bailee, for the purpose of being forwarded or disposed of according to directions received of such consignee or bailee, at or before the time of the reception thereof, and if the name and residence of the owner of such property be known to the person having such property in his possession, he shall immediately notify the owner, by letter directed to him and deposited in a postoffice, of the reception of such property. [L. '54, p. 383, § 2; L. '63, p. 438, § 2; Cd. '81, § 3253; 1 H. C., § 2826.]

§ 8418. [7129.] Sale After One Year if not Claimed.

If any such property shall not be claimed and taken away within one year after the time it shall have been so received, the person having possession thereof may at any time thereafter proceed to sell the same, in the manner provided in this chapter. [L. '54, p. 384, § 3; L. '63, p. 438, § 3; Cd. '81, § 3254; 1 H. C., § 2827.]

§ 8419. [7130.] Notice of Intent to Sell, How Given.

Before any such property shall be sold, if the name and residence of the owner thereof be known, at least sixty days' notice of such sale shall be given him, either personally or by mail, or by leaving a notice at his residence or place of doing business; but if the name and residence of the owner be not known, the person having the possession of such property shall cause a notice to be published, containing a description of the property, for the space of six weeks successively, in a newspaper, if there be one published in the same county; if there be no newspaper published in the same county, then said notice shall be published in a newspaper nearest thereto in the state; the last publication of such notice shall be at least eighteen days previous to the time of sale. [L. '54, p. 384, § 4; L. '63, p. 438, § 4; Cd. '81, § 3255; 1 H. C., § 2828.]

§ 8420. [7131.] Procedure—Affidavit to be Filed With Justice of the Peace.

If the owner or person entitled to such property shall not take the same away, and pay the charges thereon, after sixty days' notice shall have been given, it shall be the duty of the person having possession thereof, his agent or attorney, to make and deliver to a justice of the peace of the same county an affidavit, setting forth a description of the property remaining unclaimed, the time of its reception, the publication of the notice, and whether the owner of such property be known or unknown. [L. '54, p. 384, § 5; L. '63, p. 438, § 5; Cd. '81, § 3256; 1 H. C., § 2829.]

§ 8421. [7132.] Justice to Make Inventory and Order Sale.

Upon the delivery to him of such affidavit, the justice shall cause such property to be opened and examined in his presence, and a true inventory thereof to be made, and shall annex to such inventory an order, under his hand, that the property therein described be sold by any constable of the precinct where the same shall be, at public auction. [L. '54, p. 384, § 6; L. '63, p. 438, § 6; Cd. '81, § 3257; 1 H. C., § 2830.]

§ 8422. [7133.] Notice of Sale, How Given.

It shall be the duty of such constable receiving such inventory and order to give ten days' notice of the sale, by posting up written notices thereof in three or more places in such precinct, and to sell such property at public auction to the highest bidder, in the same manner as provided by law for sales under execution from justices' courts. [L. '54, p. 384, § 7; L. '63, p. 439, § 7; Cd. '81, § 3258; 1 H. C., § 2831.]

§ 8423. [7134.] Return of Order and Inventory.

Upon completing the sale, the constable making the same shall indorse upon the order aforesaid a return of his proceedings thereon, and return the same to the justice, together with the inventory and the proceeds of sale, after deducting his fees. [L. '54, p. 384, § 8; L. '63, p. 439, § 8; Cd. '81, § 3259; 1 H. C., § 2832.]

§ 8424. [7135.] Disposition of Proceeds of Sale.

From the proceeds of such sale, the justice shall pay all legal charges that have been incurred in relation to such property, or a ratable proportion of each charge, if the proceeds of said sale shall not be sufficient to pay all the charges; and the balance, if any there be, he shall immediately pay over to the treasurer of the county in which the same shall be sold, and deliver a statement therewith, containing a description of the property sold, the gross amount of such sale, and the amount of costs, charges, and expenses paid to each person. [L. '54, p. 384, § 9; L. '63, p. 439, § 9; Cd. '81, § 3260; 1 H. C., § 2833.]

§ 8425. [7136.] Duties of Treasurer.

The county treasurer shall make an entry of the amount received by him, and the time when received, and shall file in his office such statement, so delivered to him by the justice. [L. '54, p. 385, § 10; L. '63, p. 439, § 10; Cd. '81, § 3261; 1 H. C., § 2834.]

§ 8426. [7137.] Claim by Owner for Proceeds of Sale.

If the owner of the property sold, or his legal representatives, shall, at any time within five years after such money shall have been deposited in the county treasury, furnish satisfactory evidence to the treasurer of the ownership of such property, he or they shall be entitled to receive from such treasurer the amount so deposited with him. [L. '54, p. 385, § 11; L. '63, p. 439, § 11; Cd. '81, § 3262; 1 H. C., § 2835.]

§ 8427. [7138.] After Five Years to be Applied to School Fund.

If the amount so deposited with any county treasurer shall not be claimed by the owner thereof, or his legal representatives, within the said five years, the same shall belong to the county, and shall be applied to the common school fund of said county. [L. '54, p. 385, § 12; L. '63, p. 439, § 12; Cd. '81, § 3263; 1 H. C., § 2836.]

§ 8428. [7139.] Perishable Property, How Sold.

Property of a perishable kind, and subject to decay by keeping, consigned or left in manner before mentioned, if not taken away within thirty days after it shall have been left, may be sold by giving ten days' notice thereof, the sale to be conducted and the proceeds of the same to be applied in the manner before provided in this title: Provided, that any property in a state of decay, or that is manifestly liable immediately to become decayed, may be summarily sold by order of a justice of the peace, after inspection thereof, as provided in section 8421. [L. '54, p. 385, § 13; L. '63, p. 439, § 13; Cd. '81, § 3264; 1 H. C., § 2837.]

§ 8429. [7140.] Officers' Fees.

The fees allowed to any justice of the peace, under the provisions of this title, shall be three dollars for each days' service; and to any constable, the same fees as are allowed by law for sales upon an execution, and ten cents a folio for making an inventory of property. [L. '54, p. 385, § 14; L. '63, p. 440, § 14; Cd. '81, § 3265; 1 H. C., § 2838.]

§ 8430. [7141.] Lost Money and Goods—Finder to Give Notice.

If any person shall find any money or goods of the value of five dollars or more, and if the owner thereof be unknown, such person shall, within five days after finding such money or goods, give notice thereof in writing, to the clerk of the board of county commissioners of the county in which such property was found, and shall also, within said five days, cause a notice thereof to be posted up in two public places in said county. [L. '54, p. 382, § 10; L. '63, p. 440, § 15; Cd. '81, § 3266; 1 H. C., § 2839.]

§ 8431. [7142.] Publication of Notice by Finder.

Every finder of lost goods of the value of ten dollars or more shall, in addition to the requirements of the preceding section, within fifteen days after finding the same, cause notice thereof to be published in a newspaper printed in the county, if there be one published therein, and if there be none, then such notice shall be posted up in three of the most public places in the county; and if no person shall appear to claim the same, who may be entitled thereto, he shall, within two months after finding such goods, and before using the same to their injury, [procure an appraisal thereof by a justice of the peace of his county], which appraisal shall be certified to by such justice, and filed in the office of the clerk of the board of county commissioners of such county. [L. '54, p. 382, § 11; L. '63, p. 440, § 16; Cd. '81, § 3267; 1 H. C., § 2840.]

§ 8432. [7143.] Owner may Recover Within One Year.

If the owner of such lost money or goods appear within one year after notice given to the clerk as aforesaid, and shall make out his right thereto, he shall have restitution of the same, or the value thereof, upon his paying all the costs and charges thereon, including a reasonable compensation to the finder for his trouble. [L. '54, p. 382, § 12; L. '63, p. 440, § 17; Cd. '81, § 3268; 1 H. C., § 2841.]

§ 8433. [7144.] After One Year, Finder to Pay Half to County Treasurer.

If no owner shall appear within one year, then the finder of such lost money or goods shall pay one-half the value thereof, after deducting all legal charges, to the treasurer of the county, for school purposes; and in case such finder shall neglect to pay the same, on demand, after the expiration of the time aforesaid, the same may be sued for and recovered by the said treasurer, in the name of the county, for school purposes. [L. '54, p. 382, § 13; L. '63, p. 440, § 18; Cd. '81, § 3269; 1 H. C., § 2842.]

§ 8434. [7145.] Liability for Failure to Give Notice.

If any finder of lost money or goods, of the value of five dollars or upwards, shall neglect to give notice of the same, and otherwise to comply with the provisions of this title, he shall be liable for the full value of such money or goods, one-half to the use of the county for school purposes, and the other half to the person who shall sue for the same, and shall also be responsible to the owner for such lost money or goods. [L. '54, p. 383, § 14; L. '63, p. 440, § 19; Cd. '81, § 3270; 1 H. C., § 2843.]

§ 8435. [7146.] Disposal of Unclaimed Moneys by Public Officers.

Whenever any money may be or come into the possession of any public officer, as such, to which, as such, said officer has no right, or to which he shall cease as such officer to have any right, and no other person has or appears to have any right or claim thereto, and no provision is made by law for the disposal of such money, otherwise than as provided by this title, such public officer shall pay such money to the state treasurer and take his receipt therefor, and such receipt shall fully protect such officer so paying the same in any suit or action in relation thereto. [L. '91, p. 133, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2880.]

See supra, § 4016 et seq., and notes.

§ 8436. [7147.] How State Treasurer shall Dispose of Such Moneys.

The state treasurer shall add all money received by virtue of the provisions of this title to the permanent school fund, and the same shall be and constitute a part of such fund. [L. '91, p. 133, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2881.]

§ 8438. [7151.] Marriages Prohibited in Certain Cases—Consanguinity, etc.

Marriages in the following cases are prohibited:

1. When either party thereto has a wife or husband living at the time of such marriage;

2. When the parties thereto are nearer of kin to each other than second cousins, whether of the whole or half blood, computing by the rules of the civil law;

3. It shall be unlawful for any man to marry his father's sister, mother's sister, father's widow, wife's mother, daughter, wife's daughter, son's widow, sister, son's daughter, daughter's daughter, son's son's widow, daughter's son's widow, brother's daughter, or sister's daughter; it shall be unlawful for any woman to marry her father's brother, mother's brother, mother's husband, husband's father, son, husband's son, daughter's husband, brother, son's son, daughter's son, son's daughter's husband, daughter's daughter's husband, brother's son, or sister's son; and if any person being within the degrees of consanguinity or affinity in which marriages are prohibited by this section carnally know each other, they shall be deemed guilty of incest, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a term not exceeding ten years and not less than one year. A marriage ceremony performed by an Indian chief who was a Christian of the Presbyterian faith, assuming to have authority to unite people in marriage, is valid: Weatherall v. Weatherall, 56 Wash. 344, 105 Pac. 822.

§ 8442. [7155.] Marriage by Unauthorized Person—Effect of.

A marriage solemnized before any person professing to be a minister or a priest of any religious denomination in this state, or professing to be an authorized officer thereof, is not void, nor shall the validity thereof be in any way affected on account of any want of power or authority in such person, if such marriage be consummated with a belief on the part of the persons so married, or either of them, that they have been lawfully joined in marriage. Illegitimate children become legitimate by the subsequent marriage of their parents with each other. [Cf. L. '54, p. 405, § 6; L. '66, p. 83, § 10, pt. of § 11; Cd. '81, § 2388; 1 H. C., § 1383.]

holding out and cohabitation cannot be indulged where the proofs show that the parties, unable to speak or read English, relied upon applications and affidavits for a marriage license which they paid for and supposed constituted a lawful marriage, no license ever having been issued or ceremony performed: Meton v. Industrial Insurance Department, 104 Wash. 652, 177 Pac. 696.

Residence and cohabitation in a state where common-law marriages are recognized, after a former wife had obtained a divorce, does not legalize the prior void marriage of the husband or rebut the presumption of a continuance of the illicit relation, where neither of the parties knew of the divorce and their residence in such state was not permanent: Blodgett v. Blodgett, 109 Wash. 597, 187 Pac. 340.

§ 8444. [7157.] Marriage Certificate, Contents of.

The person solemnizing a marriage shall give to each of the parties thereto, if required, a certificate thereof, specifying therein the names and residence of the parties, and of at least two witnesses present, the time and place of such marriage, and the date of the license thereof, and by whom issued. [L. '66, p. 82, § 6; Cd. '81, § 2384; 1 H. C., § 1385.]

§ 8445. [7158.] Certificate, Delivery of—Form.

A person solemnizing a marriage shall, within three months thereafter, make and deliver to the judge of the superior court [county clerk] of the county where the marriage took place a certificate containing the particulars specified in the last section, which said certificate may be in the following form:—

State of Washington, } County of ——. }

This is to certify that the undersigned, a —, by authority of a license bearing date — day of —, A. D. 18—, and issued by the county auditor of the county of —, did, on the — day of —, A. D. 18—, at the house of —, in the county and state aforesaid, join in lawful wedlock A B, of the county of —, of the —, and C D, of the county of —, of the —, with their mutual assent, in the presence of F H and E G, witnesses.

Witness my hand. [Cf. L. '54, p. 405, § 7; L. '66, p. 82, § 7; Cd. '81, § 2385; 1 H. C., § 1386.]

§ 8446. [7159.] Record of Marriages.

The judge of the superior court [county clerk] shall file such certificate and record the same in the record of marriages, and the legal fee therefor shall be one dollar, to be paid by the person applying for the license and at the time such license is issued. [Cf. L. '66, p. 82, § 8; L. '67, p. 105, § 2; Cd. '81, § 2386. Cf. L. '86, p. 66, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1387.]

See infra, § 8451, fee for marriage license.

§ 8447. [7160.] Penalty for Violating Last Section.

Any person solemnizing a marriage who shall willfully refuse or neglect to make and deliver to the judge of the superior court [county clerk] for record the certificate mentioned in section 8445, within the time in such section specified, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall pay, for such refusal or neglect, a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than three hundred dollars. [L. '66, p. 83, § 9; Cd. '81, § 2387. Cf. L. '86, p. 66, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1388.]

Section 158 of 2 Hill's Penal Code is omitted as superseded by this section. This provision was originally enacted as § 110 of the Law of 1854, page 95, and continued in Code of 1881, as § 925.

§ 8448. [7161.] Marriage According to Religious Ritual is Valid.

All marriages to which there are no legal impediments, solemnized before or in any religious organization or congregation, according to the established ritual or form commonly practiced therein, are valid; and a certificate, containing the particulars specified in sections 8444 and 8445, shall be made and filed for record by the person or persons presiding or officiating in or recording the proceedings of such religious organization or congregation, in the manner and with like effect as in ordinary cases. [Cd. '81, § 2389; 1 H. C., § 1389.]

See supra, § 8441, who may solemnize.

§ 8449. [7162.] Marriage, When Voidable.

When either party to a marriage shall be incapable of consenting thereto, for want of legal age or a sufficient understanding, or when the consent of either party shall be obtained by force or fraud, such marriage is voidable, but only at the suit of the party laboring under the disability, or upon whom the force or fraud is imposed. § 8451. [7164.] License Fee—Affidavits—Consent of Parents—Perjury.

The county auditor, before a marriage license is issued, upon the payment of a license fee of two dollars, shall require each applicant therefor to make and file in his office upon blanks to be provided by the county for that purpose, an affidavit showing that such applicant is not feeble-minded, an imbecile, epileptic, insane, a common drunkard, or afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis in its advanced stages: Provided, that in addition, the affidavit of the male applicant for such marriage license shall show that such male is not afflicted with any contagious venereal disease. He shall also require an affidavit of some disinterested credible person showing that neither of said persons is an habitual criminal, and that the female is over the age of eighteen years and the male is over the age of twenty-one years: Provided, that if the consent in writing is obtained of the father, mother, or legal guardian of the person for whom the license is required, the license may be granted in cases where the female is under the age of eighteen years or the male is under the age of twenty-one years: Provided, that no consent shall be given, nor license issued, unless such female be over the age of fifteen years. Such affidavit may be subscribed and sworn to before any person authorized to administer oaths. Anyone knowingly swearing falsely to any of the statements contained in the affidavits mentioned in this act shall be deemed guilty of perjury and punished as provided by the laws of the state of Washington. [L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 53, § 3; L. '66, pp. 83, 84, §§ 13, 14; L. '67, p. 104, § 1; Cd. '81, §§ 2391, 2392; 1 H. C., §§ 1392, 1393; L. '09, p. 634, § 3.]

§ 8453. [7166.] License, by Whom Retained.

The person solemnizing the marriage is authorized to retain in his possession the license, but the county auditor who issues the same, before delivering it, shall enter in his marriage record a memorandum of the names of the parties, the consent of the parents or guardian, if any, and the name of the affiant, and the substance of the affidavit upon which said license issued, and the date of such license. [L. '66, p. 84, § 15; Cd. '81, § 2393; 1 H. C., § 1394.]

§ 8454. [7167.] Penalty for Unlawful Joining in Marriage.

Any person who shall undertake to join others in marriage, knowing that he is not lawfully authorized so to do, or any person authorized to solemnize marriage who shall join persons in marriage contrary to the provisions of this chapter, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred nor less than one hundred dollars. [L. '66, p. 84, § 17; Cd. '81, § 2395; 1 H. C., § 1396.]

"This chapter" refers to the foregoing, except §§ 8439, 8440, 8451 and 8452.

CHAPTER I.

THE MILITIA.

§ 8455. [7168.] Military Code.

This act together with subsequent acts amendatory hereof shall be known as the military code of the state of Washington. [L. '09, p. 435, § 1. Cf. L. '55, pp. 20—22; L. '58, pp. 16—19; L. '63, pp. 532—538; L. '87, pp. 147—157; L. '90, pp. 502—516; 1 H. C., §§ 1321—1380; L. '95, p. 201, § 1.]

See Const., Art. II, § 14, when ineligible to office.

See Const., Art. X, §§ 1 and 6, liability to and exemptions from military duty.

See Const., Art. X, § 5, privileged from arrest, when.

See Const., Art. X, § 3, soldiers' home.

§ 8456. [7171.] Commander-in-chief may Order Enrollment.

Whenever the commander-in-chief shall deem it necessary, in event of, or imminent danger of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, resistance of law or process of breach of the peace, he may order an enrollment by counties of all persons subject to military duty, designating the county assessor or some other person for each county to act as county enrolling officer. Each county enrolling officer may appoint such assistant or assistants as may be authorized by the commander-in-chief. In each county the enrollment shall include every sane able-bodied male inhabitant not under sentence for an infamous crime, who is more than eighteen and less than forty-five years of age. The enrollment shall be made in triplicate and shall state the name, residence, age, occupation and previous or existing military or naval service of each person enrolled. When complete the rolls shall be verified under oath by the enrolling officer, who shall immediately thereupon file one copy with the adjutant-general of the state and another with the county auditor, retaining the third copy for himself. [L. '09, p. 435, § 4. Cf. L. '95, p. 202, § 4.]

§ 8457. [7172.] Notice of Enrollment.

Persons making an enrollment under this act shall, at the time of making same, serve a notice of such enrollment upon each person enrolled, by delivering such notice to him personally or by leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion at his place of business or residence, or by mailing such notice to him at his last known place of residence, and shall make a return under oath of such service to accompany the copy of the enrollment filed with the adjutant-general. Such return shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein shown. [L. '09, p. 436, § 5. Cf. L. '95, p. 202, § 5.]

§ 8458. [7173.] Exemptions.

Whenever an enrollment shall have been ordered under this act, the commanding officers of existing organizations of militia, and the chiefs of all police and fire departments shall make and deliver to the enrolling officer of the county in which such organization and departments are stationed, verified lists in triplicate of the members of their respective commands and departments, and the enrolling officer shall mark "exempt" opposite the names of all persons so listed, attaching one copy of each such list to each copy of the enrollment. The enrolling officer shall also mark "exempt" opposite the names of all federal, state and county officers. All other persons claiming exemption must within fifteen days after service upon them of the notice of enrollment make a written verified claim in duplicate of such exemption and file the same in the office of the county auditor, who shall within five days thereafter forward one copy thereof with remarks and recommendations to the adjutant-general. Upon the expiration of the time within which any claim of exemption may be filed and received by the adjutant-general, the latter shall notify the county auditor of his decision in each case where exemption has been claimed, and the county auditor shall write upon the roll opposite the name of each person whose claim of exemption has been allowed by the adjutant-general, the word "exempt." All those on the roll not marked "exempt" shall be subject to military duty. [L. '09, p. 436, § 6.]

See supra, § 6924, hospital employees exempt.

See infra, § 11358, telegraph employees exempt from militia duty.

§ 8459. [7174.] Penalties for Dereliction or False Certificate.

If any officer or person, who becomes charged under this act with any duty relating to an enrollment of persons subject to military duty, refuses or neglects to perform the same within the time and substantially in the manner required by law, or if he shall knowingly make any false certificate, or if, when acting as county or assistant enrolling officer, he shall knowingly or willfully omit from the roll any person required by this act to be enrolled he shall thereby forfeit not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, to be sued for in the name of the state of Washington by the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such offense shall occur, the amount of the penalty to be determined by the court, and when recovered, to be paid into the military fund of the state. [L. '09, p. 437, § 7.]

§ 8460. [7175.] Compensation of Enrolling Officer.

Each county enrolling officer shall be allowed the sum of five cents per name enrolled and served with notice of enrollment by him or his assistants, to be audited and paid as other military bills out of any moneys in the military fund not otherwise appropriated, and from such allowance he must pay his assistant or assistants. [L. '09, p. 437, § 8.]

§ 8461. [7176.] Examination of Assessment-rolls and Poll-lists.

All civil officers in each county, city and town shall allow persons authorized under this act to make enrollments, at all proper times, to examine their records and take copies thereof or information therefrom. It shall be the duty of every person, under the penalties provided in section 8459 of this chapter, upon application of any person legally authorized to make an enrollment, truthfully to state all of the facts within his knowledge concerning any individual of whom the enroller shall make inquiry. In event of a violation of this section the enroller shall report the facts to the prosecuting attorney, who shall at once proceed to enforce the penalty. [L. '09, p. 438, § 9. Cf. L. '95, p. 202, § 6.]

CHAPTER II. MILITARY CODE.

§ 8462. Glasses of Militia.

The militia of the state of Washington shall consist of all able-bodied male citizens of the United States and all other able-bodied males who have or shall have declared their intention of becoming a citizen of the United States, residing within this state, who shall be more than eighteen years of age and, except as hereinafter provided, not more than forty-five years of age, and said militia shall be divided into three classes, the national guard of Washington, the naval militia of Washington, and the unorganized militia. The national guard and naval militia of Washington shall be known collectively as the organized militia of Washington. [L. '17, p. 354, § 1.]

Calling Out and Pay of Militia: See Chapin v. Ferry, 3 Wash. 386, 28 Pac. Remington's Digest, Militia, §§ 1, 2; 754, 15 L. R. A. 116.

§ 8463. Governing Officers—Salary of Adjutant-general.

The militia of the state not in the service of the United States shall be governed and its affairs administered pursuant to law by the governor, as commander-in-chief, through the adjutant-general's department, which shall consist of the adjutant-general as its executive head, and such other officers and such enlisted men and civilian employees as the governor shall from time to time prescribe. The salary of the adjutant-general shall be three thousand dollars per year. [L. '17, p. 354, § 2.]

§ 8464. Composition of Organized Militia—Minimum Strength—Power to Organize or Disband.

The organized militia of Washington shall consist of the commissioned officers, warrant officers, enlisted men, organizations, staffs, corps and departments of the regularly commissioned, warranted and enlisted militia of the state, organized and maintained pursuant to law. Its numerical strength, composition, distribution, organization, arms, uniforms, equipment, training and discipline shall be prescribed by the governor in conformity with the laws and regulations of the United States and the laws of this state. In the absence of any federal law or regulation to the contrary, its minimum enlisted strength shall be fifteen hundred and it shall include at all times the adjutant-general's department, at least one regiment of infantry, at least eight companies of coast artillery, at least two hundred naval militia, and at least one troop of cavalry. The governor may authorize and cause to be organized from time to time within the organized militia of Washington, such additional staffs, corps, departments, branches, arms and organizations as he shall deem necessary, and he shall have power at will to alter, divide, consolidate, disband, muster out or reorganize and staff, corps, department, branch, arm or tactical or administrative subdivision either now existing or hereafter created within the organized militia of Washington, subject to the limitations imposed by the laws and regulations of the United States and the laws of this state. [L. '17, p. 355, § 3.]

§ 8465. Conformity to Federal Regulation.

The duty of maintaining and governing the organized militia not in the service of the United States rests upon the states respectively, subject to the constitutional authority of congress, but the prime object of the force is the national defense. Its efficiency as an agent for national defense necessarily depends upon systematic uniformity in the organization, composition, arms, equipment, training and discipline of its component parts. Its attainment of such uniformity and efficiency requires on the part of each state a rigid adherence to federal laws and regulations relating to the militia. Therefore, the governor shall cause the organized militia of this state always to conform to all such federal laws and regulations as are now or may hereafter from time to time become operative and applicable, notwithstanding anything in the laws of this state to the contrary. The organized militia of Washington or any part thereof shall be subject to call or draft for United States service at such times, in such manner, and in such numbers as may from time to time be prescribed by the United States.

In conformity with the provisions of federal statutes, officers and enlisted men of the organized militia called or drafted into federal service by order or proclamation of the President of the United States, shall upon release from federal service revert to their former status, grade and rank as members of the organized militia of Washington, and shall continue to serve in the organized militia of Washington until separated therefrom in the manner provided by law. [L. '21, p. 213, § 1; L. '17, p. 355, § 4.]

§ 8466. National Guard—Naval Militia.

The national guard of Washington shall consist of the commissioned officers, enlisted men, staffs, corps, departments, and organizations of the organized militia of Washington regularly organized and maintained pursuant to law for land service, and the naval militia of Washington shall consist of the commissioned officers, warrant officers, enlisted men, staffs, corps, departments and organizations of the organized militia of Washington regularly organized and maintained for naval service. [L. '17, p. 356, § 5.]

§ 8467. [7181.*] Personal Staff for Governor.

Whenever the governor shall desire the attendance of a personal staff upon any ceremonial occasion, he shall detail therefor such officers as he may choose from the active list of the organized militia of Washington, resident in or nearest to the place where such ceremonies are to be held, and the officers detailed shall attend in uniform at the time and place designated and shall constitute the personal staff of the governor for that occasion, reverting upon completion of such duty to their regular assignments. [L. '17, p. 356, § 6; L. '09, p. 439, § 14.]

§ 8468. [7182.*] Causes for Ordering Militia into Service by Governor.

In event of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, mob or body of men acting together by force with intent to commit a felony or to offer violence to persons or property, or by force and violence to break and resist the laws of this state, or the United States, or in case of the imminent danger of the occurrence of any of said events, or in event of public disaster the governor shall have power to order the organized militia of Washington or any part thereof into the active service of the state, and to cause them to perform such duty as he shall deem proper. The governor shall also have power to order out the organized militia or any part thereof to preserve order and keep people within bounds at any large public assemblage: Provided, that such action shall be taken only upon written request of the mayor of the city and the sheriff of the county within which said assemblage is to occur. [L. '17, p. 356, § 7; L. '13, p. 225, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 440, § 15.]

§ 8469. [7183.*] Causes for Ordering into Service by Officer of Station.

In event of insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, resistance to law or process or breach of the peace, occurring in the vicinity of the station of any organization or organizations of the organized militia of Washington, whenever the exigencies of the situation are such as to render it impracticable first to communicate with the governor, the senior commanding officer of that station, upon request in writing signed by a superior court judge, sheriff or mayor, stating the facts and the nature of the service desired, may order out the organization or organizations at that station, or such portion thereof as he shall deem necessary, and cause them to perform such duty as the circumstances shall require, and such commanding officer shall immediately report what he has done and all of the circumstances of the case to the governor. [L. '17, p. 357, § 8; L. '09, p. 440, § 16. Cf. L. '95, p. 230, § 111.]

§ 8470. [7184.*] Calling Out Unorganized Militia.

In event of, or imminent danger of, war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, resistance to law or process or breach of the peace, if the governor shall have ordered into active service all of the available forces of the organized militia of Washington and shall consider them insufficient in numbers to properly accomplish the purpose, he may then in addition order out the unorganized militia or such portion thereof as he may deem necessary, and cause them to perform such military duty as the circumstances may require. [L. '17, p. 357, § 9; L. '09, p. 440, § 17. Cf. L. '95, p. 231, §§ 110 and 112; L. '03, p. 323, § 15.]

See Const., Art. III, § 8, governor commander-in-chief.

See infra, § 10982, and notes, powers of governor.

§ 8471. Failure to Respond on Order for Service.

Every member of the militia who shall have been ordered out for either state or federal service under the provisions of sections 8468, 8469 or

8470, and who shall refuse or willfully or negligently fail to report at the time and place and to the officer designated in the order or to the representative or successor of such officer shall be deemed guilty of desertion, and shall suffer such penalty as a general court-martial may direct, unless he shall produce a sworn certificate from a licensed physician of good standing that he was physically unable to appear at the time and place designated: Provided, that any person chargeable with desertion under this section may be taken by force and compelled to serve. [L. '17, p. 358, § 10.]

§ 8472. [7189.] Penalty for Physician Making False Certificate.

Whenever any physician shall knowingly make and deliver a false certificate of physical disability concerning any member of the militia who shall have been ordered out or summoned for active service, such physician shall thereby forfeit forever his license and right to practice in this state and shall be deemed guilty of perjury. [L. '09, p. 443, § 22.]

§ 8473. [7192.] Suits Against Officers, or Enlisted Men.

When any suit or proceeding shall be commenced in any court by any person against any military officer of the state for any act done by such officer in his official capacity in the discharge of any duty under this act or against any person acting under the authority or order of any such officer, or by virtue of any warrant issued by him pursuant to law, the defendant may require the person prosecuting or instituting such suit or proceeding to file a cost bond running to the state of Washington of not less than two hundred dollars or such greater sum as may be fixed by the court on application therefor for the payment of costs that may be incurred by the defendant therein, and in case the plaintiff shall be nonsuited or have the verdict or judgment rendered against him the defendant shall recover costs. The defendant in such action shall be defended by the attorney general at the expense of the state, but private counsel may be employed by the defendant. No action shall lie against any officer or enlisted man for any acts done by him by virtue of any order which may hereafter be held invalid by any civil court. [L. '09, p. 444, § 25.]

§ 8474. [7194.*] Adjutant-general—Terms—Salaries—Bonds—Duties.

The adjutant-general shall be ex-officio chief of staff. He shall hold office until his successor is detailed and qualified. He shall appoint the civilian employees of his department and may remove any of them in his discretion.

The expenses of the adjutant-general's department, necessary to the military service, shall be audited, allowed and paid as other military expenditures are audited, allowed and paid. Before entering upon his official duties, the adjutant-general must execute an official bond running to the state of Washington in the penal sum of twenty thousand ($20,000) dollars conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, said bond to be submitted to the attorney-general for approval, and when approved to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, the cost of said bond to be paid from the military fund of the state. The adjutant-general shall obtain and pay for, from the military fund, a surety company bond or bonds running to the state of Washington covering all of the officers of the organized militia of Washington responsible to the state for money or military property, such bond or bonds to be approved and filed in the same manner as the adjutant-general's bond.

(1) The adjutant-general shall keep rosters of all active, reserve and retired officers of the militia of the state, and keep in his office all records and papers required to be kept and filed therein, and shall submit to the governor during October of each even-numbered year a printed biennial report of the operations and conditions of the organized militia of Washington.

(2) On the first day of January, of each year, he shall make a statement of the condition of the military fund, showing the amount thereof and setting forth in detail all receipts from whatsoever source and all expenditures of whatsoever nature and the unexpended balance thereof. A copy of said statement shall be furnished to each commissioned officer of the active list.

(3) He shall cause the military law, the regulations of the organized militia of Washington and such other military publications as may be necessary for the military service to be printed, indexed and bound at the expense of the state and distributed to the commissioned officers of the organized militia of Washington.

(4) He shall keep and preserve the books, arms, accoutrements, ammunition and other military property belonging to the state, not properly issued.

(5) He shall keep just and true accounts of all moneys received and disbursed by him.

(6) He shall attest all commissions issued to military officers of this state.

(7) He shall make out and transmit all militia reports, returns and communications prescribed by acts of congress or by direction of the War or Navy Department.

(8) He shall have a seal, and all copies, orders, records and papers in his office, duly certified and authenticated under said seal, shall be evidenced in all cases in like manner as if the originals were produced. The seal now used in the office of the adjutant-general shall be the seal of his office and shall be delivered by him to his successor. All orders issued from his office shall be authenticated with said seal.

(9) He shall make such regulations pertaining to the preparation of reports and returns and to the care and preservation of property in possession of the state for military purposes, whether belonging to the state or to the United States, as in his opinion the conditions demand.

(10) He shall attend to the care, preservation, safekeeping and repairing of the arms, ordinance, accoutrements, equipment and all other military property belonging to the state, or issued to the state by the government of the United States for military purposes, and keep accurate accounts thereof. All military property of the state, which after proper inspection, shall be found unsuitable for use of the state shall be disposed of in such manner as the governor shall direct and the proceeds thereof paid into the military fund of the state.

(11) He shall issue such military property as the necessity of the service requires and make purchases for that purpose. No military property shall be issued or loaned except upon an emergency to persons or organizations other than those belonging to the organized militia of Washington except to such portions of the unorganized militia as may be called out by the governor.

(12) He shall keep on file in his office the reports and returns of troops and heads of military departments, and all other writings and papers required to be transmitted to and preserved at the general headquarters of the state militia.

(13) He shall keep all records of Washington volunteers commissioned or enlisted for the war of the rebellion, Indian wars, Spanish-American war, and all other wars or insurrections, and of individual claims of citizens of Washington for service rendered in these wars or insurrections.

(14) He shall establish and maintain as part of his office a bureau of records of the services of the Washington troops during said wars, and he shall be custodian of all records, relics, trophies, colors and histories relating to such wars now in possession of, or which may be acquired by the state of Washington, and such records, relics, trophies, colors and histories shall be catalogued and arranged or filed for general reference or protection in the office of the adjutant-general. [L. '17, p. 358, § 11; L. '13, p. 226, § 4. Cf. L. '09, p. 445, § 27; L. '95, p. 209, § 38; L. '01, p. 158, § 4.]

§ 8475. Appointment of Commissioned and Warrant Officers.

All commissioned and warrant officers of the organized militia of Washington shall be appointed and commissioned or warranted by the governor. No person shall be so appointed and commissioned or warranted unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state more than twenty-one years of age. Every commissioned and warrant officer shall hold office under his commission or warrant until he shall have been regularly appointed and commissioned or warranted to another grade or office, or until he shall have been regularly retired, discharged, dismissed or placed in the reserve. [L. '17, p. 361, § 12.]

§ 8476. Examination Prior to Appointment—Probationary Period.

No person shall be appointed and commissioned or warranted to any office in the organized militia of Washington unless he shall have been examined and adjudged qualified therefor by an examining board whose report shall have been approved by the authority appointing the board. The composition, appointment and procedure of examining boards and the nature and scope of examinations shall be as prescribed by the laws or regulations of the United States or those of this state. Whenever a commissioned officer shall have been examined for promotion pursuant to this section and shall have been adjudged not qualified therefor, upon approval by the authority appointing the board of its report to that effect such officer shall be honorably discharged, retired or placed in the reserve as the governor shall direct.

Any officer of the naval militia of Washington who holds either a probationary or a permanent commission therein and who has not been certified as fully qualified for his grade after examination under United States authority may be retained as an officer and required to take the next succeeding United States examination for his grade. If he is not certified after such second examination he shall be immediately retired, placed in reserve or honorably discharged, as the governor may direct.

Every appointment of any person as a commissioned or warrant officer in the naval militia of Washington shall be probationary and revocable by the governor at will for the period of one year next after such appointment and at the expiration of such period shall be revoked or made permanent by the governor: Provided, that if the appointee shall have qualified in compliance with United States law or regulations during such probationary period, his commission or warrant shall, upon such qualification, be no longer probationary or revocable in that grade. [L. '17, p. 361, § 13.]

§ 8477. Vacancy in Adjutant's Office.

Whenever a vacancy shall have occurred or shall be about to occur in the office of the adjutant-general of this state, the governor shall detail for that position from the active list of the organized militia of Washington some officer not below the grade of captain of the national guard or senior lieutenant of the naval militia, who shall have had at least three years' service as an officer on the active list of the organized militia of Washington continuously next prior to such detail, and the officer so detailed shall be subject to relief therefrom by the governor at will, and shall during the continuance of his service as the adjutant-general hold the rank and grade of brigadier-general. [L. '17, p. 362, § 14.]

Vacancy, see supra, § 8485.

§ 8478. Vacancies in Commissioned Grades—Detail not to Affect Grade—Relief from Detail.

Vacancies in commissioned grades in administrative staff, corps and departments shall be filled by detail or by appointment and commission as the governor shall have prescribed in regulations conforming as nearly as practicable with federal laws and regulations governing the filling of similar vacancies in the federal service: Provided, that no officer shall be detailed or appointed and commissioned to any such staff, corps or department without his written consent. The detail of an officer to a staff, corps or department shall not affect his grade, relative seniority, or right to promotion in the branch or arm of the service from which he shall have been so detailed, and whenever during the continuance of such detail a vacancy shall occur in the branch or arm of the service from which such officer shall have been detailed for which vacancy he would have been eligible in the absence of such detail, he shall upon the termination of such detail and passing the required examination be appointed and commissioned to the grade of such vacancy with rank from the date of the occurrence thereof. When an officer shall be relieved from detail as the adjutant-general or from detail with any staff, corps or department he shall be returned to the branch or arm of the service from which he was detailed and shall be assigned to fill the next vacancy therein of his rank and grade, and if there be no vacancy immediately available he shall be carried in the meantime upon the active list as "Unassigned." [L. '17, p. 362, § 15.]

§ 8479. Staff Officers—Tenure.

Staff officers of the national guard of Washington, including officers of the pay, inspection, subsistence and medical departments, hereafter appointed shall have had previous military experience and shall hold their positions until they shall have reached the age of sixty-four years, unless retired prior to that time by reason of resignation, disability, or for cause to be determined by court-martial legally convened for that purpose and vacancies among said officers shall be filled by appointment § 8477. Vacancy in Adjutant-general's Office.

Whenever a vacancy has occurred, or shall be about to occur in the office of the adjutant-general of this state, the governor shall detail for that position from the active list of the organized militia of Washington some officer not below the grade of captain of the national guard, or senior lieutenant of the naval militia, who shall have had at least two years service as an officer of the active list of the organized militia during the five years next prior to such detail, and the officer so detailed shall be subject to relief therefrom by the governor at will, and shall during the continuance of his service as the adjutant-general hold the rank and grade of brigadier-general.

If, by reason of the call or draft of officers of the organized militia of Washington into federal service, there shall be no officer of the organized militia possessing the requisite prior service qualifications available for detail as the adjutant-general, then the governor may detail any officer or former officer of the organized militia of Washington as acting adjutant-general: Provided, that in the event the officer on detail as the adjutant-general is appointed, called or drafted into the military service of the United States by order or proclamation of the President, he shall be granted leave of absence by the governor, and such officer shall be entitled, upon release from federal service, to return to his former status as the adjutant-general of Washington, and during the period such adjutant-general is in federal service, the duties of the office of adjutant-general shall be performed by an acting adjutant-general, appointed by the governor, and who shall receive the pay provided for the adjutant-general during the period of such assignment. [L. '21, p. 214, § 2; L. '17, p. 365, § 22.]

by the assignment thereof to an officer of the same grade and branch or arm of the service resident at the station of said company or similar unit, or by the promotion of the senior officer of the next lower grade of the same branch or arm of the service resident at that station. [L. '17, p. 364, § 18.]

§ 8482. Vacancies in Commissioned Staff.

Whenever a vacancy shall have occurred in the commissioned staff of any regiment, battalion, squadron, coast defense command, fort command, or similar unit of the organized militia of Washington, the same shall be filled by the assignment thereto of an officer of the same grade and branch or arm of the service, or by the promotion of the senior officer of the next lower grade of the same unit. [L. '17, p. 364, § 19.]

§ 8483. Vacancies in Grade of Major.

Whenever a vacancy shall have occurred in the grade of major in the line of the national guard of Washington, the same shall be filled as follows:

(1) In any battalion, squadron, fort command or similar unit whose elements are all at one station, by the assignment of the senior major of the line of the same branch or arm of the service resident at that station who shall have no command wholly located within said station, or, if there be no such major, by the promotion of the senior captain of the same branch or arm of the service resident at said station.

(2) In any battalion, squadron, fort command or similar unit whose elements are not all at one station, by the promotion of the senior among the captains of the same branch or arm of the service resident at the various stations of such command. [L. '17, p. 365, § 20.]

§ 8484. Vacancy in Grade of Colonel or Lieutenant-colonel.

Whenever a vacancy shall have occurred in the grade of colonel or lieutenant-colonel in any regiment, coast defense command or similar unit of the national guard of Washington, it shall be filled by promotion of the next senior officer of such command, except in those cases where the law provides for the assignment thereto of officers relieved from detail with staff, corps and departments. [L. '17, p. 365, § 21.]

§ 8485. Vacancy in Adjutant-general's Office.

Whenever a vacancy has occurred, or shall be about to occur in the office of the adjutant-general of this state, the governor shall detail for that position from the active list of the organized militia of Washington some officer not below the grade of captain of the national guard, or senior lieutenant of the naval militia, who shall have had at least two years service as an officer of the active list of the organized militia during the five years next prior to such detail, and the officer so detailed shall be subject to relief therefrom by the governor at will, and shall during the continuance of his service as the adjutant-general hold the rank and grade of brigadier-general.

If, by reason of the call or draft of officers of the organized militia of Washington into federal service, there shall be no officer of the organized militia possessing the requisite prior service qualifications available for detail as the adjutant-general, then the governor may detail any officer or former officer of the organized militia of Washington as acting adjutant-general: Provided, that in the event the officer on detail as the adjutant-general is appointed, called or drafted into the military service of the United States by order or proclamation of the President, he shall be granted leave of absence by the governor, and such officer shall be entitled, upon release from federal service, to return to his former status as the adjutant-general of Washington, and during the period such adjutant-general is in federal service, the duties of the office of the adjutant-general shall be performed by an acting adjutant-general, appointed by the governor, and who shall receive the pay provided for the adjutant-general during the period of such assignment. [L. '21, p. 214, § 2; L. '17, p. 365, § 22.]

Vacancy, see supra, § 8477.

§ 8486. Vacancies While in United States Service.

Whenever a vacancy shall have occurred in any commissioned grade, other than the lowest commissioned grade, of any regiment, coast defense command, separate battalion or squadron, separate fort command, separate company or similar separate unit of the national guard of Washington while in the service of the United States, such vacancy shall be filled by the promotion of the senior officer of the next lower grade on duty with such command who shall not in writing have waived such promotion. Every vacancy in the lowest commissioned grade in any such command while in such service shall be filled by the promotion of an enlisted man of such command upon the written recommendation of its commanding officer: Provided, that any vacancy in any such command while in such service in any commissioned grade below that of major may be filled, upon the written recommendation of the commanding officer of such command, by the transfer, assignment or appointment of any officer of the national guard, or national guard reserve, of this state. [L. '17, p. 365, § 23.]

§ 8487. Promotion in Naval Militia.

Whenever a vacancy shall have occurred in the senior commissioned office of the naval militia of Washington or of a battalion thereof, it shall be filled by the promotion or assignment thereto of the senior line officer whether for line duties only or for engineering duties only. [L. '17, § 8485. Vacancy in Grade of Brigadier-general.

Whenever a vacancy shall have occurred in the grade of brigadier-general of the line of the national guard of Washington, it shall be filled by the promotion of an officer of the line of the national guard of Washington of the next lower grade of the same branch or arm of the service. [L. '17, p. 365, § 22.]

scribed by law, and give bond, if required. In case of neglect or refusal so to do, he shall be considered to have resigned such office and a new appointment may be made as provided by law. [L. '17, p. 366, § 26.]

§ 8490. Oath of Office.

The oath of office for commissioned and warrant officers in the organized militia of Washington shall be substantially as follows: "I, —, do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the state of Washington, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and of the governor of the state of Washington; that I make this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of — in the national guard of the United States and of the state of Washington (or in the naval militia of Washington) upon which I am about to enter, so help me God.” [L. '17, p. 366, § 27.]

§ 8491. [7200.] Seniority of Officers.

Upon the date this act becomes effective, or as soon thereafter as practicable, it shall be the duty of the commander-in-chief to assign to each commissioned officer of the active list of the national guard of Washington a number, assigning to the senior officer of each grade number one and continuing lineally thereafter in such grade in order of seniority as of the date of commission in the grade held by each officer on the day this act becomes effective. Thereafter seniority in any given grade shall be determined by the greatest length of continuous service as an officer of the national guard of Washington, said service to be calculated from the day this act becomes effective. If two or more officers of the same grade have equal length of continuous service as commissioned officers of the national guard of Washington calculated from the date this act becomes effective, seniority between them shall be determined by length of service in that grade. The rank of retired officers, returned to the active list, shall be determined in the grade held by them by service as officers of the active list performed subsequent to the date this act becomes effective. The rank of any officer who shall receive his first commission in the national guard of Washington after this act becomes effective, shall be determined in the grade to which appointed by length of service as an officer of the active list, performed subsequent to the date this act becomes effective. [L. '09, p. 453, § 33.]

§ 8492. [7206.*] Dismissal and Discharge of Officers.

The governor may dismiss any commissioned or warrant officer of the organized militia of Washington for any of the following reasons:

- (1) Conviction of an infamous crime.
- (2) Absence from his command for more than thirty days without proper leave.
- (3) Sentence of dismissal by court-martial, duly approved.

And the governor may discharge any commissioned or warrant officer of the organized militia of Washington for any of the following reasons:

- (1) Upon muster out of the organization to which such officer is then assigned.
- (2) Acceptance of resignation of such officer: Provided, that no officer shall be discharged or his resignation accepted while under arrest or against whom military charges have been preferred, or until he shall have turned over to his successor or satisfactorily accounted for all state and federal moneys, and military property for which he shall be accountable or responsible.

(3) Removal of his actual residence to such distance from the station of his command as to render it impracticable for him to perform the duties of his office.

(4) Incompetence or unfitness for military service as determined by the duly approved findings of an efficiency board appointed for that purpose. [L. '17, p. 367, § 28; L. '09, p. 457, § 39. Cf. L. '95, p. 218, § 63.]

§ 8493. [7207.] Retirement of Officers.

Commissioned officers of the national guard of Washington shall be retired by order of the commander-in-chief with the grade and rank respectively held by them at the time of such retirement for the following reasons:

(1) Upon reaching the age of sixty-four years.

(2) Unfitness for military service by reason of permanent physical disability.

(3) Upon request after at least five years' continuous service as officers in the national guard of Washington.

Retired officers shall draw no pay or allowances except when on duty.

They shall be subject only to temporary detail by the commander-in-chief and while on duty shall receive the same pay and allowances as officers of the same rank on the active list. On all occasions of duty or ceremony retired officers shall take rank next below officers of the same grade on the active list. [L. '09, p. 458, § 40. Cf. L. '95, p. 219, § 66.]

§ 8494. Reserves—Officers Reserve Corps Abolished—Restoration to Active List.

The national guard reserve and naval militia reserve of this state shall respectively be organized by the governor in regulations conforming with the laws, rules and regulations of the United States. It shall consist of such organizations, officers and enlisted men as the governor shall prescribe. No commissioned officer shall be transferred or furloughed to the national guard reserve without his written consent, except as otherwise expressly provided by law. The officers reserve corps is abolished and the officers thereof are hereby transferred to the national guard reserve and the naval militia reserve. Officers of the retired list of the organized militia of Washington may be transferred to the national guard reserve of the naval militia reserve under such regulations as the governor may prescribe. Any officer of the national guard reserve or naval militia reserve may be restored to the active list by order of the governor, subject to the same examination as in the case of an original appointment to his grade, and in such event his service in reserve shall not be counted in computing total length of service for relative seniority. [L. '17, p. 368, § 29.]

§ 8495. Period of Enlistment—Re-enlistments—Continuance in Service.

Hereafter the period of enlistment in the national guard of Washington shall be for six years; the first three years of which shall be in an active organization, and the remaining three years in the national guard reserve. The period of enlistment in the naval militia of Washington shall be three years. An enlisted man of the naval militia who has served honorably for the full term of his enlistment may re-enlist for a term of one, two, or three years, as he may elect. Qualifications for enlistment or re-enlistment and the forms of oaths and contracts of enlistment or re-enlistment shall be as prescribed by the governor in accordance with federal laws and regulations. In the national guard, the privilege of continuing in active service during the whole of an enlistment period, and of re-enlisting in said service shall not be denied by reason of anything contained in this act. In the naval militia enlisted men may continue in service after the age of forty-five years, and until the age of sixty-two years (naval branch), or sixty-four years (marine corps branch): Provided, the service is continuous. When a man re-enlists in the organized militia of Washington within thirty days from the date of the expiration of his prior enlistment, or within thirty days from the date of his discharge, his term of service shall be considered as continuous, and shall be so dated. [L. '17, p. 368, § 30.]

§ 8496. Discharge from Service.

An enlisted man discharged from service in the organized militia of Washington shall receive a discharge in writing in such form and of such classification as is or shall be prescribed by law or regulations, and in time of peace discharges may be given prior to the expiration of terms of enlistment under such regulations as may be prescribed by competent authority. [L. '17, p. 369, § 31.]

§ 8497. [7216.*] Arms and Equipment of Commissioned Officers—Uniform Allowance.

Every commissioned officer of the organized militia of Washington shall within sixty days from the date of the order whereby he shall have been appointed, provide himself at his own expense, with the arms, uniforms and equipments prescribed by the governor for his rank and assignment.

There shall be audited and paid annually on the first day of April in each year, to each properly armed, uniformed and equipped officer of the active list of the organized militia of Washington, a uniform allowance of seventy-five ($75) dollars for dismounted officers, and one hundred ($100) dollars for mounted officers. [L. '17, p. 369, § 32; L. '09, p. 461, § 49. Cf. L. '95, p. 221, § 76; L. '01, p. 162, § 8; L. '03, p. 321, § 11.]

§ 8498. [7218.*] Militia Property Remains Public.

All property issued to organizations and members of the organized militia of Washington shall be and remain public property. [L. '17, p. 369, § 33; L. '09, p. 462, § 51. Cf. L. '95, p. 222, § 78.]

See Const., Art. X, § 4, custody of public arms.

§ 8499. [7219.] Buying and Receiving State Property Prohibited.

If any person shall purchase or receive in pawn or pledge any military property of the state of Washington or of the United States, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to imprisonment not exceeding one year, or fined not exceeding three hundred dollars or to both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '09, p. 462, § 52. Cf. L. '95, p. 223, § 80.]

§ 8500. [7220.*] Uniforms, etc., Exempt.

The military uniforms, arms, equipment and mounts of members of the organized militia of Washington shall be exempt from execution and taxation. [L. '17, p. 370, § 34; L. '09, p. 462, § 53. Cf. L. '95, p. 223, § 82.]

§ 8501. [7221.] Allowances for Incidental Expenses.

Each commanding officer shall be entitled to receive an allowance for the incidental expenses of his command payable quarterly in advance according to the following schedules: companies, troops, batteries and like units not to exceed twenty-five ($25) dollars per month; bands not to exceed fifteen ($15) dollars per month; battalions and like units not to exceed ten ($10) dollars per month; regiments and like units not to exceed twenty-five ($25) dollars per month.

For the first quarter of each biennial period each officer entitled to a quarterly allowance under this section shall be entitled to receive in advance the maximum allowance in full, but with his claim therefor he shall make remittance of the balance, if any, remaining unexpended from the last previous quarter, such remittance to be transmitted by the adjutant-general to the state treasurer, and for each succeeding quarter of each biennial period, each such officer shall be entitled to receive such sum, not more than the maximum allowance above prescribed, as he shall have expended for authorized expenses of his command during the next preceding quarter. Each claim for quarterly allowance shall include an account current showing the items of expenditure and shall be accompanied by subvouchers for all items, each voucher stating definitely the nature and amount of the expenditure evidenced thereby. [L. '13, p. 232, § 8. Cf. L. '09, p. 462, § 54. Cf. L. '95, p. 223, § 87; L. '03, p. 322, § 12; L. '07, p. 224, § 1.]

§ 8502. [7222.*] Military Auditors.

The board of military auditors shall consist of the adjutant-general and two officers of the active list of the organized militia of Washington to be selected by the state auditor and detailed by the governor, which board shall audit and pass upon all claims against the military appropriations. The board shall meet at the call of the adjutant-general. [L. '17, p. 370, § 35; L. '13, p. 232, § 9. Cf. L. '09, p. 463, § 55. Cf. L. '95, p. 223, § 86; L. '01, p. 163, § 9.]

The fact that false claims against the state were audited and allowed by the board of military auditors, under Rem. & Bal. Code, sections 7222 and 7223, does not preclude defenses to warrants therein in the hands of an innocent holder, there being nothing in such sections to indicate an intent to make the warrants negotiable: State ex rel. Olympia Nat. Bank v. Lewis, 62 Wash. 266, 113 Pac. 629.

§ 8503. [7223.*] Audit and Payment of Claims—Warrants.

All bills, claims and demands against the military fund shall be certified or verified in the manner prescribed by regulations promulgated by the governor and shall be audited by the proper board of military auditors, and, if allowed, shall be paid by the state treasurer upon the warrant of the state auditor from the military fund: Provided, however, that in all cases where the organized militia or any part thereof is called into the service of the state in case of war, riot, insurrection, invasion, breach of the peace, or in aid of the civil authorities, warrants for allowed pay and expenses for such service shall be drawn upon the general fund of the state treasury and paid out of any moneys in said fund not otherwise appropriated. All military warrants shall be the obligations of the state and shall bear interest at the legal rate from the date of their presentation for payment. [L. '17, p. 370, § 36; L. '09, p. 463, § 56. Cf. L. '95, p. 225, § 91.]

§ 8504. [7224.*] Pay and Allowances.

Commissioned officers while on duty requiring pay shall receive the same pay and allowance as commissioned officers of the United States of the same grade and term of service: Provided, that for travel only actual necessary expenses shall be allowed.

For the purpose of pay and allowance as an officer of the national guard, service with the First Washington Volunteer Infantry, as an officer or enlisted man until mustered out of the organization shall be considered equivalent to three years' service in the national guard of Washington. For the purpose of pay and allowance of an officer in the national guard, service as an enlisted man in the national guard of Washington shall be considered equivalent to service as an officer: Provided, that said service as an enlisted man and officer be continuous.

For all duty requiring pay, enlisted men of the land branches in the national guard of Washington shall receive pay at rates equivalent to twice those allowed for corresponding grades in the regular service of the United States army: Provided, that the pay of cooks and bandsmen shall be three dollars ($3) per day. Enlisted men of the naval militia branch of the national guard of Washington shall receive pay at rates equivalent to those allowed for corresponding grades in the regular service of the United States navy, plus an addition to each respective rate of pay sufficient to make the same equal the next higher of the following seven per diem rates of pay, viz.: three dollars ($3), two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50), two dollars ($2), one dollar and seventy-five cents ($1.75), one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50), one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25), and one dollar ($1).

For each re-enlistment, after serving a full term of three years, there shall be added ten per cent. For the purpose of pay and allowance, service for a full term of enlistment in the regular or volunteer army of the United States, or in the First Washington Volunteer Infantry until muster out of that organization, shall be equivalent to a full enlistment. Enlisted men proving such service shall be allowed ten per cent additional on their pay.

This schedule of pay shall apply only to the first thirty days of any tour of duty and after the thirtieth day of any such tour, officers and men shall receive the pay allowed officers and men in the regular service of the United States or corresponding organizations, grades and terms of service.

Extra duty pay to men detailed as clerks and on similar duty may be allowed by the commanding officers of troops on duty, but in no case shall pay and extra pay exceed two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per day.

Upon completion of his enlistment, or upon discharge by proper authority, each enlisted man shall receive in addition to the pay above mentioned, the sum of fifty cents (50c) for each day of state paid service not exceeding fifty days, less all proper deductions for fines or lost property: Provided, that claims for such additional pay shall not be valid unless filed with the adjutant-general within twelve (12) months from the date of discharge: Provided, further, that members of the national guard who have enlisted in or been emerged into service of the United States army, navy or marine shall have twelve (12) months from their discharge from the United States service in which to file their claim for such additional pay.

In addition to the pay herein provided the commander-in-chief, or such other state official as may be designated by federal authority, is authorized to receive and disburse, in accordance with federal laws and regulations, any moneys which may be appropriated by the congress of the United States and allotted to the state of Washington for the payment of officers and enlisted men of the organized militia as reimbursement for expenses incurred in, and compensation for, the time devoted to military training during times of peace. [L. '19, p. 386, § 1; L. '17, p. 370, § 37; L. '15, p. 155, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 463, § 57; L. '95, p. 224, § 89; L. '01, p. 163, § 11; L. '03, p. 322, § 13; L. '07, p. 224, § 5; L. '13, p. 233, § 10.]

§ 8505. [7225.] Transportation and Subsistence.

There shall be provided by the state transportation for all officers and transportation and subsistence for all enlisted men who shall be ordered out for encampment, field duty, or stated parades, or assembled for duty in case of riot, tumult, breach of the peace, war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof. Necessary transportation, quartermasters' stores and subsistence for troops when ordered on duty shall be contracted for by the proper officers and paid for as other military bills. There shall be allowed from the military fund for each day's service the sum of two ($2) dollars per man for each horse for every mounted officer, and mounted orderly, and all members of such other organizations of the national guard of Washington as are required to be mounted. Horses not furnished by officers or men shall be rented by the state at a cost not exceeding two ($2) dollars per day for each horse. For mounted organizations the adjutant-general may in his discretion cause horses to be purchased and maintained from the appropriation for maintenance. [L. '13, p. 234, § 11. Cf. L. '09, p. 465, § 58. See references to above section.]

§ 8506. [7226.*] Stated Parades.

There shall be four stated parades annually, with pay as follows: February 22d, May 30th, July 4th, and November 11th. [L. '21, p. 215, § 3; L. '09, p. 466, § 59.]

§ 8507. [7227.*] State Pensions for Those Disabled in Service.

Every member of the organized militia of Washington who shall be wounded or disabled while on duty in the service of the state shall be taken care of and provided for at the expense of the state, and if permanently disabled shall receive the like pensions or reward that persons under similar circumstances in the military service of the United States receive from the United States: Provided, that no pension shall be granted for any disability received while in the service of the United States, or while proceeding to or returning from such service. Before the name of any person is placed upon the pension roll under this section proof shall be made, under such regulations as the governor may from time to time prescribe, that the applicant is entitled to such pension. [L. '17, p. 373, § 38; L. '09, p. 466, § 60; L. '95, p. 226, § 92.]

§ 8508. [7229.] Authority of Commanding Officer.

The commanding officer at any drill, parade, encampment or other duty may cause those under his command to perform any military duty he shall require, and may place in arrest for the time of such drill, parade, encampment or other duty any officer or enlisted man who shall disobey the orders of his superior officer, or in any way interrupt the exercises, and any other person or persons who shall trespass on the camp grounds, parade grounds, rifle range or armory, or in any way or manner interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty of those on duty, or who shall disturb or prevent the passage of troops going to or returning from any regularly ordered tour of duty; and he shall prohibit and prevent the sale or use of all spirituous liquors, wines, ale or beer, or holding of huckster or auction sales, and all gambling, and remove disorderly persons beyond the limits of such parade or encampment, or beyond a distance of two miles therefrom, and he shall abate as common nuisances all disorderly places, and all such sales within such limits. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section, or any order issued in pursuance thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be delivered at or before the termination of such duty to any peace officer, and shall be brought before the nearest court of competent jurisdiction for trial, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or shall suffer both such fine and imprisonment.

No municipal corporation, or other authority, shall issue, grant or renew a license to any person, firm or corporation for the sale of intoxicating or spirituous liquors or beverages within a distance of three hundred feet from any armory or military reservation owned by the state of Washington or the United States and used for military purposes, or within a distance of one mile from the American Lake military reservation, and any license so attempted to be granted, issued or renewed shall be void. [L. '09, p. 466, § 62. Cf. L. '95, p. 227, § 99.]

In an action for breach of a contract to enter into a lease, which provided that the lessee should not engage in any unlawful business, the fact may be shown that the building was within three hundred feet of an armory, and therefore could not be leased for saloon purposes, under this section: Oldfield v. Angeles Brewing & Malting Co., 77 Wash. 158, 137 Pac. 469.

§ 8509. [7230.*] Annual Camp or Cruise Duty—Camp and Field Duty.

The governor shall cause the organized militia to perform for at least five consecutive days in each year camp or cruise duty, field maneuvers or such other duty as in his judgment will best promote the discipline and efficiency of the force. [L. '17, p. 373, § 39; L. '09, p. 467, § 63. Cf. L. '95, p. 227, § 100.]

§ 8510. [7232.] Warning for Duty.

Orders for duty may be oral or written. Officers and enlisted men may be warned for duty as follows: Either by stating the substance of the order, or by reading the order to the person warned, or by delivering a copy of such order to such person, or by leaving a copy of such order at his last known place of abode or business, with some person of suitable age and discretion, or by sending a copy of such order or notice containing the substance thereof, to such man by mail, directed to him at his last known place of abode or business. Orders may be transmitted by telegraph or telephone. Such warning may be given by any officer or enlisted man. The officer or enlisted man giving such warning shall, when required, make a return thereof, containing the names of persons warned and the time, place and manner of warning. Such returns shall be verified on oath and shall be prima facie evidence, on the trial of any person returned as a delinquent, of the facts therein stated. [L. '09, p. 468, § 65. Cf. L. '95, p. 228, § 102.]

§ 8511. [7233.*] Exemption from Arrest While on Duty—Right of Way—Free Passage.

No person belonging to the military forces of this state shall be arrested under any civil process while going to, remaining at, or returning from any place at which he may be required to attend military duty. Any members of the organized militia parading, or performing any duty according to the law shall have the right of way in any street or highway through which they may pass and while on field duty shall have the right to enter upon, cross or occupy any uninclosed lands, or any inclosed lands where no damage will be caused thereby; any person belonging to the military forces of the state while going to or returning from any parade, encampment, drill or meeting which he may be required by law to attend shall be allowed to pass free through all toll-gates and over all toll-bridges and ferries: Provided, that the carriage of the United States mail and legitimate functions of the police and the progress and operations of fire departments shall not be interfered with thereby. [L. '17, p. 373, § 40. Cf. L. '09, p. 468, § 66. Cf. L. '95, p. 229, § 103.]

See Const., Art. X, § 5.

§ 8512. [7234.*] Interference With Employment of Guardsman—Penalty.

A person, who either by himself, or with another, willfully deprives a member of the organized militia of Washington of his employment or prevents, by himself or another such member being employed, or obstructs or annoys said member or his employer in his trade, business or employment, because he is such member or dissuades any person from enlisting in said organized militia by threat or injury to him in his employment, trade or business, in case he shall so enlist, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days or shall suffer both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '17, p. 374, § 41; L. '09, p. 469, § 67.]

§ 8513. [7235.*] Rights of National Guardsman — Discrimination—Penalty.

No club, society, association, corporation, or organization shall by any constitution, rule, by-law, resolution, vote or regulation, or otherwise, discriminate against any member of the organized militia of Washington because of his membership in said organized militia, in respect to his eligibility to membership in such club, society, association, corporation, or organization, or in respect to his rights to retain and exercise the rights of membership therein. Any person or persons, club, society, association, corporation or organization violating or aiding, abetting or assisting in the violation of any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days, or shall suffer both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '17, p. 374, § 42; L. '09, p. 469, § 68.]

§ 8514. [7236.*] Discharge by Employer—Penalty.

No member of the organized militia of Washington shall be discharged by his employer by reason of the performance of any military duties upon which he may be ordered. When any member of the organized militia of Washington is ordered upon duty which takes him from his employment he may apply upon the termination of such duty to be restored to his position and employment, and if the tour of duty shall have continued for a period not longer than three months, any employer or the officer or manager of any firm or corporation having authority to re-employ such member and failing so to do shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety days, or shall suffer both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '17, p. 375, § 43; L. '09, p. 470, § 69. Cf. L. '95, p. 229, § 104.]

§ 8515. [7238.*] Incorporation of Militia as Social Clubs—Property Reverting to State.

The officers, or the officers and enlisted men of any regiment, battalion, company or similar unit of the organized militia of Washington are hereby authorized to organize themselves into a corporation for social purposes and for the purpose of holding, acquiring and disposing of such property, real or personal, as such military organizations may possess or acquire. Such corporation shall not engage in business and shall not be required to pay any filing or license fee to the state.

The dissolution or disbandment of any such unit as a military organization shall not operate to terminate the existence of the corporation, but the existence of the same shall continue for the period limited in its articles of incorporation for the benefit of such corporation.

Upon the dissolution or disbandment of any such unit which shall not have incorporated, and which shall at the time of such dissolution or disbandment possess any funds or property, the title to such funds or property shall immediately vest in the state of Washington, and the adjutant-general shall take possession thereof and dispose of the same to the best interest of the organized militia of Washington. [L. '17, p. 375, § 44; L. '15, p. 47, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 470, § 71; L. '95, p. 233, § 123; L. '95, p. 234, § 124.]

§ 8516. Military Tribunals.

The military tribunals of the state of Washington shall be of two kinds, viz.:

(1) Courts-martial for the trial of offenders against the military law, and

(2) Courts of inquiry for examining transaction of, or accusations or imputations against, officers or enlisted men of the organized militia of Washington.

All such courts shall be composed of commissioned officers only. All commissioned officers of the organized militia of Washington, shall be eligible for detail to such courts, but no officer will be detailed for the trial of an officer superior to himself in rank when it can be avoided. [L. '17, p. 376, § 45. Cf. L. '09, p. 471, § 72.]

§ 8517. Classes of Tribunals—Regulations and Sittings.

The military courts of the organized militia of the state of Washington, shall be of the following classes:

For the national guard:

1. General courts-martial
2. Special courts-martial
3. Summary courts-martial

For the naval militia:

1. General courts-martial
2. Summary courts-martial
3. Deck courts.

They shall be respectively constituted like and have cognizance of the same subjects, and possess like powers, except as to punishments, as similar courts provided for by the laws and regulations of the United States, and the proceedings of such courts shall follow the forms and modes of procedure prescribed for similar courts by the law and regulations of the United States. They may be convened by order specifying that they shall sit either for the trial of specified offenses or offenders or for the trial of all offenses or offenders that may be lawfully brought before them either during a specified period of time or until further order of the convening or superior authority. [L. '17, p. 376, § 46.]

§ 8518. General Courts-martial, Composition and Jurisdiction.

General courts-martial may be convened by order of the governor and may consist of any number of officers from five to thirteen inclusive. The decision of the appointing authority as to the number of officers to compose such court shall be conclusive. When from any cause a general court-martial is reduced below the minimum of five officers, the remaining number will direct the judge advocate to report the fact to the convening authority and await further orders. Such courts shall have the power and jurisdiction to impose fines not exceeding two hundred ($200) dollars; to sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances; to reprimand; to dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service; to reduction of non-commissioned officers to the ranks; to reduction in rank or rating; or any two or more of such punishments may be combined in the sentence imposed by such courts. [L. '17, p. 377, § 47.]

§ 8519. Special Courts-martial, Appointment and Jurisdiction.

In the national guard of Washington the commanding officer of each garrison, post, camp or other place, brigade, regiment, detachment, battalion or other detached command, may appoint special courts-martial for his command but such special courts-martial may in any case be appointed by a superior authority when by the latter deemed desirable. Special courts-martial shall have the power to try any person subject to military law, except a commissioned officer, for any crime or offense made punishable by the military laws of the United States or of the state of Washington, and such special courts-martial shall have the same powers of punishment as do general courts-martial, except that fines imposed by such special courts-martial shall not exceed one hundred ($100) dollars. Such special courts-martial shall consist of any number of commissioned officers from three to five inclusive. [L. '17, p. 377, § 48.]

§ 8520. Summary Courts-martial, Appointment and Jurisdiction.

The commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post or other place, regiment or corps, detached battalion, company or other detachment of the national guard of Washington, may appoint for such place of command a summary court to consist of one (1) officer, who shall have power to administer oaths and to try enlisted men of such place or command for breaches of discipline and violations of laws governing such organizations; and said court when satisfied of the guilt of such soldier; may impose fines not exceeding twenty-five ($25) dollars for any single offense, may sentence noncommissioned officers to reduction to the ranks; may sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances. The proceedings of such court shall be informal, and the minutes thereof shall be the same as prescribed for similar courts of the regular army of the United States. [L. '17, p. 378, § 49.]

§ 8521. Naval Militia Summary Courts-martial.

A summary court-martial for the naval militia of Washington shall consist of three commissioned officers thereof as members and one commissioned or warrant officer as recorder and may be ordered by the governor or by the commanding officer of a naval militia brigade or battalion. The precept for the court shall specify the personnel of the court and the time and place of the meeting. The precept may authorize such court to sit on board any vessel loaned this state by the United States or on board any vessel upon which said naval militia may have been lawfully assembled or may be serving whether such assemblage or service be for the purpose of the annual or other cruise or for drill and instruction and such court may sit and act wherever said vessel may be. Such courts shall have the power to administer oaths and to try any member of said naval militia subject to military law except a commissioned or warrant officer thereof for any crime or offense made punishable by the military laws of the United States or of the state of Washington provided for naval militia and shall have the same powers of punishment as do general courts-martial, except that fines imposed by summary courts-martial shall not exceed one hundred ($100) dollars for any single offense. [L. '17, p. 378, § 50.]

§ 8522. Deck Courts—Place of Trial and Jurisdiction.

A deck court in the naval militia of Washington shall consist of one commissioned officer thereof, of the grade of lieutenant (junior grade) or above if practicable, and may be ordered by the commanding officer of a naval militia brigade or battalion or by a naval militia officer in command of a naval militia force on shore or on any vessel loaned this state by the United States or on any vessel on which the naval militia of this state or any part thereof may be serving, and said court may sit and act wherever said vessel may be. Said court shall have power to administer oaths and to try any member or members of the enlisted personnel of the said naval militia for breaches of discipline or violations of the laws, articles, regulations, instructions and orders governing said naval militia and may impose fines not exceeding fifty ($50) dollars for any single offense, and may sentence enlisted men to reduction in rank or rating, to forfeiture of pay and allowances, to a reprimand, to discharge with other than a dishonorable discharge, or to a fine in addition to any one of the other sentences specified. [L. '17, p. 379, § 51.]

§ 8523. Fines Imposed by Naval Militia Court—Collection and Disposition.

The amount of any fine imposed under sentence of any naval militia court on any member of the naval militia of Washington may be collected from him or may be deducted from any amount due said member as pay of any character whatsoever and all such fines so collected or withheld shall be paid to the commanding officer of the naval militia battalion or separate unassigned unit of which the person against whom such fine shall have been assessed is a member, to be used by said commanding officer to replace lost or damaged property or for such other purposes of his naval militia organization as he may decide, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the governor in conformity with the regulations of the Navy Department thereon. Upon the receipt of a certificate from the authority convening the court as to any fine assessed by it, any disbursing officer concerned shall pay over any funds due said member not exceeding the amount of such fine to said commanding officer upon the sole receipts of said commanding officer. [L. '17, p. 379, § 52.]

§ 8524. Sentence to Confinement in Lieu of Fine.

All military courts of the organized militia of Washington, including summary courts and deck courts, shall have power to sentence to confinement in lieu of fines authorized to be imposed: Provided, that such sentence of confinement shall not exceed one day for each dollar of fine authorized. [L. '17, p. 380, § 53.]

§ 8525. Dismissals and Dishonorable Discharges—Approval.

No sentence of dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service of the organized militia of Washington not in the service of the United States, imposed by any military court, shall be executed until approved by the governor. [L. '17, p. 380, § 54.]

§ 8526. Extent of Jurisdiction.

Military courts shall have jurisdiction, subject to the limitations imposed by law, at all times and in all places, over officers and enlisted men of the organized militia of Washington, and over members of the unorganized militia of Washington who shall be under orders for military duty, for all military offenses. [L. '17, p. 380, § 55.]

§ 8527. Warrants for Arrest—Compulsory Attendance of Witnesses.

Presidents of courts-martial, senior members of naval militia summary courts-martial and summary and deck court officers shall have power to issue warrants to arrest accused persons and to bring them before the court for trial whenever such persons shall have disobeyed an order in writing from the convening authority to appear before such court, a copy of the charge or charges having been delivered to the accused with such order, and to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum, and to enforce by attachment attendance of witnesses, both civil and military, and to require the production of all books and papers, and to sentence for a refusal to be sworn or to answer as provided in actions before civil courts. All of such courts shall also have power to take or cause to be taken the depositions of witnesses to the same extent as have the superior courts of the state of Washington. Every judge advocate of a military court shall have the same power to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum that are possessed by the attorney of record for any party to an action pending before the superior court of the state of Washington and such military court shall have the same authority to enforce obedience to such subpoenas as is possessed by the superior courts of the state of Washington. [L. '17, p. 380, § 56.]

§ 8528. [7323.] Evidence in Military Courts.

Every military court shall have the same power to compel by subpoena, by subpoena duces tecum, and by attachment the attendance of witnesses, both civilian and military, and the production of books, papers and documents, and to punish for contempt a witness duly subpoenaed for nonattendance or refusal to be sworn or to testify, or to produce books, papers and documents as is possessed by the superior courts of this state. Military courts shall also have power to take or cause to be taken the depositions of witnesses who cannot reasonably be produced at the trial to the same extent as the superior courts aforesaid. [L. '09, p. 490, § 86. Cf. L. '95, p. 239, § 143.]

§ 8529. [7324.*] Refusal of Witnesses to Appear and of Civil Officers to Serve Writs—Penalty.

Every person not belonging to the organized militia of Washington who, having been duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness before a military court, shall have willfully neglected or refused to appear (or refused to appear) or refused to qualify as a witness or to testify or produce documentary evidence which such person shall have been legally subpoenaed to produce, and every sheriff, constable or jailor who shall have received a lawful writ, mandate, subpoena or other process of any military court, and who shall have refused or willfully or negligently failed to execute or serve the same shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, for which such person shall be punished on information in the superior court of the state of Washington; and it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of any county, on the certification of the facts to him by the president or senior member of the court, to file an information against and prosecute the person so offending, and the punishment of such person, on conviction, shall be a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, that no witness shall be compelled to incriminate himself or to answer any questions which may tend to incriminate or degrade him. [L. '17, p. 381, § 57. L. '09, p. 490, § 87.]

§ 8530. Power to Issue Processes and Mandates—Duty of Civil Officers to Execute—Commitments to Jail.

Military courts are empowered to issue all processes and mandates including writs and warrants necessary and proper to carry into full effect the powers vested in said courts. Such writs and mandates may be directed to the sheriff of any county or the constables or marshals of any precinct, city or town, and shall be in such form as may, from time to time, be prescribed in regulations. It shall be the duty of all such officers to whom any such process or mandate may be so directed to forthwith execute the same and make return of their acts thereunder, according to the requirements of such process or mandate. The keepers and wardens of all county and city jails shall receive the bodies of persons committed by the process or mandate of any military court, and shall confine them in the manner prescribed thereby and according to law. Any person may be committed to any county or city jail for failure to pay any fine under this act and when so committed shall be credited upon such fine and assessed costs with the sum of one dollar for each day so confined. [L. '17, p. 382, § 58.]

§ 8531. [7326.] Contempt of Court.

Any person who shall be guilty of disorderly, contemptuous or insolent behavior in, or who shall use any insulting, or contemptuous, or indecorous language or expression to or before any military court, or any member of such court, in open court, tending to interrupt its proceedings, or to impair the respect due to its authority, or who shall commit any breach of the peace, or make any noise or other disturbance, directly tending to interrupt its proceedings, may be committed by warrant under the hand of the president of the court, to the jail of the city or county in which said court shall sit, there to remain without bail in close confinement, for a definite time not exceeding three days. [L. '09, p. 491, § 89. Cf. L. '95, p. 240, § 144.]

§ 8532. [7327.*] Fees and Mileage.

Fees and mileage allowed for the service of process and for civilian witnesses shall be the same as in civil actions. All expenditures necessary to carry the provisions of this act into effect are hereby authorized to be incurred, and paid out of the appropriations for the maintenance of the organized militia of Washington. [L. '17, p. 382, § 59; L. '09, p. 492, § 90.]

§ 8533. Officer, Enlisted Men and Convictions Defined.

Wherever used in the military code of the state of Washington and throughout this act the word "officer" shall be understood to designate commissioned and warrant officers, and the words "enlisted men" shall be understood to designate members of the organized militia of Washington other than commissioned or warrant officers. The convictions and punishments mentioned in the military code of the state of Washington and in this act, unless otherwise specifically designated, shall be understood to be respectively convictions and punishments by military courts. [L. '17, p. 383, § 60.]

§ 8534. Governing Articles—Art. 1. False Muster.

The organized militia of Washington shall be governed by the following articles: Art. 1. Any officer who knowingly musters as an enlisted man a person who is not an enlisted man shall be deemed guilty of knowingly making a false muster, and punished accordingly. [L. '17, p. 383, § 61.]

§ 8535. Art. 2. False Returns.

Every officer who knowingly makes a false return to any of his superior officers authorized to call for such returns, of the state of the organization under his command, or of the arms, ammunition, clothing or other stores for which he shall be responsible or accountable, shall, on conviction thereof before a court-martial, be dismissed. [L. '17, p. 383, § 62.]

§ 8536. Art. 3. Responsibility for Arms, etc.

Every officer shall be charged with the arms, accoutrements, ammunition, clothing and other military stores for which he shall have given his receipt in writing, and shall be responsible in case of their being lost, spoiled or damaged otherwise than by unavoidable accident, or on actual service. [L. '17, p. 383, § 63.]

§ 8537. Art. 4. False Certificate.

Every officer who signs a false certificate relating to the absence or pay of an officer or enlisted man shall be dismissed from the service. [L. '17, p. 383, § 64.]

§ 8538. Art. 5. False Muster-roll.

Any officer who knowingly makes a false muster of man or horse, or who signs, or directs, or allows the signing of any muster-roll, knowing the same to contain a false muster, shall, upon proof thereof by two witnesses before a court-martial, be dismissed from the service, and shall thereby be disabled to hold any office or employment in the service of the state of Washington. [L. '17, p. 383, § 65.]

§ 8539. Art. 6. Negligent Loss of Military Stores.

Any officer, who willfully or through neglect, suffers to be lost, spoiled, or damaged, any military stores belonging to the United States or the state of Washington, shall make good the loss or damage, and shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 384, § 66.]

§ 8540. Art. 7. Sale or Waste of Ammunition.

Any enlisted man who sells, or willfully or through neglect wastes the ammunition delivered to him shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 384, § 67.]

§ 8541. Art. 8. Sale or Loss of Military Stores.

Any enlisted man who sells, or through neglect loses or spoils any military property of the United States or the state of Washington shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 384, § 68.]

§ 8542. Art. 9. Disrespect Toward Commanding Officer.

Any officer or enlisted man who behaves himself with disrespect towards his commanding officer shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 384, § 69.]

§ 8543. Art. 10. Striking or Disobeying Superior Officer.

Any officer or enlisted man who, on any pretense whatsoever, strikes his superior officer, or draws or lifts up any weapon or offers any violence against him, being in the execution of his office, or disobeys any lawful command of his superior officer, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 384, § 70.]

§ 8544. Art. 11. Mutiny.

Any officer or enlisted man who begins, excites, causes, or joins in any mutiny or sedition, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 384, § 71.]

§ 8545. Art. 12. Presence at or Knowledge of Mutiny.

Any officer or enlisted man who, being present at any mutiny or sedition, does not use his utmost endeavor to suppress the same, or having knowledge of any intended mutiny or sedition does not, without delay, give information thereof to his commanding officer, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 384, § 72.]

§ 8546. Art. 13. Suppression of Disorders Among Militia Members.

Every officer shall have power to part and quell all quarrels, frays, and disorders, whether among persons belonging to his own or another organization and to order officers into arrest, and enlisted men into confinement, who take part in the same, until their proper superior officer is acquainted therewith. And whosoever, being so ordered, refuses to obey such officer or draws a weapon upon him, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 385, § 73.]

§ 8547. Art. 14. Complaints of Men Against Officers.

Any enlisted man who thinks himself wronged by any officer may complain to the immediate commander of said officer, who shall examine into said complaint and take proper measures. [L. '17, p. 385, § 74.]

§ 8548. Art. 15. Absence from Duty.

Any enlisted man who absents himself from duty without leave shall be punished as a military court may direct. [L. '17, p. 385, § 75.]

§ 8549. Art. 16. Nonattendance or Leaving Military Exercises.

Any officer or enlisted man who fails, except when prevented by sickness or other necessity, to repair at the fixed time to the appointed place of parade, exercise or other rendezvous, or goes from the same without leave, before he is dismissed or relieved, shall be punished as a military court may direct. [L. '17, p. 385, § 76.]

§ 8550. Art. 17. Hiring Substitute for Discharge of Duties.

No enlisted man shall hire another to do his duty for him, or be excused from duty, except in cases of sickness, disability, or leave of absence. Every enlisted man found guilty of hiring his duty, and the person so hired to do another's duty, shall be punished as a military court may direct. [L. '17, p. 385, § 77.]

§ 8551. Art. 18. Connivance of Officers.

Every noncommissioned or petty officer who connives at such hiring of duty shall be reduced. Every officer who knows and allows such practices shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 385, § 78.]

§ 8552. Art. 19. Drunkenness on Duty.

Any officer who is found drunk on duty shall be dismissed from the service. Any enlisted man who so offends shall suffer such punishment as a military court may direct. [L. '17, p. 385, § 79.]

§ 8553. Art. 20. Sleeping or Abandoning Sentinel Duty.

Any sentinel who is found sleeping upon his post, or who leaves it before he is regularly relieved, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 386, § 80.]

§ 8554. Art. 21. False Alarm in Camp.

Any officer, who by any means whatsoever, occasions false alarms in camp, garrison, or quarters, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 386, § 81.]

§ 8555. Art. 22. Cowardice and Pillage.

Any officer or enlisted man who misbehaves himself before the enemy, runs away, or shamefully abandons any fort, post, or guard which he is commanded to defend, or speaks words inducing another to do the like, or casts away his arms or ammunition, or quits his post or colors to plunder or pillage, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 386, § 82.]

§ 8556. Art. 23. Desertion.

Every enlisted man who deserts, shall be liable to serve for such period as shall, with the time he may have served previous to his desertion, amount to the full term of his enlistment; and such enlisted man shall be tried by a court-martial and punished, although the term of his enlistment may have elapsed previous to his being apprehended and tried. [L. '17, p. 386, § 83.]

§ 8557. Art. 24. Quitting Post Prior to Acceptance of Resignation.

Any officer who, having tendered his resignation, quits his post, or proper duties, without leave and with intent to remain permanently absent therefrom, prior to due notice of acceptance of the same, shall be deemed and punished as a deserter. [L. '17, p. 386, § 84.]

§ 8558. Art. 25. Persuasion to Desert.

Any officer or enlisted man who advises or persuades any other officer or enlisted man to desert shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 386, § 85.]

§ 8559. Art. 26. Destruction of Property.

All officers and enlisted men are to behave themselves orderly in quarters and on the march; and whoever commits any waste or spoil, or maliciously destroys any property whatsoever belonging to inhabitants of the United States or of the state of Washington, shall, besides such other penalties as he may be liable to by law, be punished as a court-martial may direct. [L. '17, p. 386, § 86.]

§ 8560. Art. 27. Fraud.

Any member of the organized militia of Washington

(1) Who makes or causes to be made any claim against the United States or the state of Washington, or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

(2) Who presents or causes to be presented to any person in the civil or military service thereof, for approval or payment, any claim against the United States or the state of Washington, or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

(3) Who enters into any agreement or conspiracy to defraud the United States or the state of Washington, by obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the allowance or payment of any false or fraudulent claim; or

(4) Who, for the purpose of obtaining or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or the state of Washington, or against any officer thereof, makes or uses, or procures or advises the making or use of, any writing or other paper; knowing the same to contain any false or fraudulent statement; or

(5) Who, for the purpose of obtaining or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or the state of Washington or any officer thereof, makes, or procures or advises the making of, any oath to any fact or to any writing or other paper, knowing such oath to be false; or

(6) Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or the state of Washington, or any officer thereof, forges or counterfeits, or procures or advises the forgery or counterfeiting of, any signature upon any writing or other paper, or uses, or procures or advises the use of, any such signature, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited; or

(7) Who, having charge, possession, custody, or control of any money or other property of the United States or of the state of Washington, furnished or intended for the military service thereof, knowingly delivers, or causes to be delivered to any person having authority to receive the same, any amount thereof less than that for which he receives a certificate or receipt; or

(8) Who, being authorized to make or deliver any paper certifying the receipt of any property of the United States or the state of Washington, furnished or intended for the military service thereof, makes or delivers to any person such writing, without having full knowledge of the truth of the statements therein contained, and with intent to defraud the United States or the state of Washington; or

(9) Who steals, embezzles, knowingly and willfully misappropriates, applies to his own use or benefit, or wrongfully or knowingly sells or disposes of any ordnance [ordnance], arms, ammunition, equipments, clothing, subsistence, stores, money, or other property of the United States or of the state of Washington, furnished or intended for the military service thereof; or

(10) Who knowingly purchases or receives in pledge for any obligation or indebtedness, from any enlisted man, officer, or other person who is a part of or employed in said forces or service, any ordnance, arms, equipment, ammunition, clothing, subsistence, stores, or other property of the United States or the state of Washington, such enlisted man, officer or other person not having lawful right to sell or pledge the same;

Shall on conviction thereof, be punished by fine or imprisonment, or by such other punishment as a court-martial may direct or by any or all of said penalties.

And if any person having committed any of the offenses aforesaid while a member of the organized militia of Washington, receives his discharge, or is dismissed from the service, he shall continue to be liable to be arrested and held for trial and sentence by a court-martial, in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had not received such discharge nor been dismissed. [L. '17, p. 387, § 87.]

§ 8561. Art. 28. Conduct Unbecoming an Officer.

Any officer who is convicted of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman shall be dismissed from the service. [L. '17, p. 389, § 88.]

§ 8562. Art. 29. Cognizance of all Crimes Other Than Capital.

All crimes not capital and all disorders and neglects, of which officers and enlisted men may be guilty, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, though not mentioned in the foregoing articles, may be taken cognizance of by a military court, as provided herein, according to the nature and degree of the offense, and punished at the discretion of such court. [L. '17, p. 389, § 89.]

§ 8563. Art. 30. Arrest of Officer—Service of Charges—Time of Trial.

When an officer is put in arrest for the purpose of trial, the officer by whose order he is arrested shall see that a copy of the charge on which he is to be tried is served upon him within ten days after his arrest, and that he is brought to trial within twenty days thereafter, unless the necessities of the service prevent such trial; and then he shall be brought to trial within thirty days after the expiration of said twenty days. If a copy of the charges be not served, or the arrested officer be not brought to trial, as herein required, the arrest shall cease. But officers released from arrest, under the provisions of this article, may be tried, whenever the exigencies of the service shall permit, within twelve months after such release from arrest. [L. '17, p. 389, § 90.]

§ 8564. Art. 31. Judge Advocates.

For each general or special court-martial of the national guard and for each general or summary court-martial of the naval militia, the governor shall appoint a judge advocate. [L. '17, p. 389, § 91.]

§ 8565. Art. 32. Procedure Where Insufficient Officers for Court.

When the requisite number of officers to form a general court-martial is not present at any station or detachment the governor shall in cases which require the cognizance of such court, thereupon order a court to be assembled at the nearest place where such trial can be conveniently held, and shall order the accused, with necessary witnesses, to be transported to the place where the said court shall be assembled. [L. '17, p. 389, § 92.]

§ 8566. Art. 33. Trial of Officers.

Officers shall be tried only by general courts-martial. [L. '17, p. 390, § 93.]

§ 8567. Art. 34. Oath of Members of Court-martial.

The judge advocate of a general or special court-martial shall administer to the members of the court, before they proceed upon any trial, the following oath or affirmation:

"You, A. B., do swear (or affirm) that you will well and truly try and determine, according to the evidence, the matter now before you between the state of Washington and the person to be tried, and that you will duly administer justice, without partiality, favor, or affection, according to the provisions of the rules and articles for the government of the organized militia of the state of Washington, and if any doubt should arise, not explained by said articles, then according to your conscience, the best of your understanding, and the custom of war in like cases; and you do further swear (or affirm) that you will not divulge the findings or sentence of the court until they shall be published by the proper authority, except to the judge advocate; neither will you disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court-martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice in due course of law. So help you God." [L. '17, p. 390, § 94.]

§ 8568. Art. 35. Oaths of Judge Advocate—Witnesses, Reporter, etc.

When the oath or affirmation has been administered to the members of a general or special court-martial, the president of the court shall administer to the judge advocate, an oath or affirmation in the following form:

"You, A. B., do swear (or affirm) that you will not divulge the findings or sentence of the court to any but the proper authority until they shall be duly disclosed by the same. So help you God."

All persons who give evidence before a court-martial shall be examined on oath or affirmation in the following form:

"You swear (or affirm) that the evidence you shall give in the case now in hearing shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help you God."

Every reporter of the proceedings of a court-martial shall, before entering upon his duties, make oath or affirmation in the following form:

"You swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully perform the duties of reporter to this court. So help you God."

Every interpreter in the trial of any case before a court-martial shall, before entering upon his duties, make oath or affirmation in the following form:

"You swear (or affirm) that you will truly interpret in the case now in hearing. So help you God."

In case of affirmation the closing sentence of adjuration will be omitted. [L. '17, p. 390, § 95.]

§ 8569. Art. 36. Punishment for Contempt of Court.

A military court may punish, at discretion, any person who uses any menacing words, signs, or gestures, in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by any riot or disorder. [L. '17, p. 391, § 96.]

§ 8570. Art. 37. Conduct of Court Members.

All members of a court-martial are to behave with decency and calmness. [L. '17, p. 391, § 97.]

§ 8571. Art. 38. Challenges to Members of Court.

Members of a court-martial may be challenged by a prisoner, but only for cause stated to the court. The court shall determine the relevancy and validity thereof and shall not receive a challenge to more than one member at a time. [L. '17, p. 391, § 98.]

§ 8572. Art. 39. Prisoner Standing Mute.

When a prisoner, arraigned before a military court, from obstinacy and deliberate design, stands mute or answers foreign to the purpose, the court may proceed to trial and judgment as if the prisoner had pleaded not guilty. [L. '17, p. 391, § 99.]

§ 8573. Art. 40. Protection of Rights of Prisoner.

The judge advocate shall prosecute in the name of the state of Washington, but when the prisoner has made his plea, he shall so far consider himself counsel for the prisoner as to object to any leading question to any witness, and to any question to the prisoner the answer to which might tend to incriminate himself. [L. '17, p. 391, § 100.]

§ 8574. Art. 41. Oath of Witnesses.

All persons who give evidence before a military court shall be examined on oath, or affirmation, in the following form: "You swear (or affirm) that the evidence you shall give, in the case now in hearing, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help you God." [L. '17, p. 392, § 101.]

§ 8575. Art. 42. Continuances.

A court-martial shall, for reasonable cause, grant a continuance to either party, for such time, and as often as may appear to be just. [L. '17, p. 392, § 102.]

§ 8576. Art. 43. Voting by Court Members.

Members of a court-martial, in giving their votes, shall begin with the youngest in commission. [L. '17, p. 392, § 103.]

§ 8577. Art. 44. Suspension of Pay.

When a court-martial suspends an officer from command it may also suspend his pay and emoluments for the same time, according to the nature of his offense. [L. '17, p. 392, § 104.]

§ 8578. Art. 45. Twice in Jeopardy.

No person shall be tried a second time for the same offense. [L. '17, p. 392, § 105.]

§ 8579. Art. 46. Period of Limitation Against Trial.

No person shall be liable to be tried and punished by a military court for any offense which appears to have been committed more than two years before the issuing of the order for such trial, unless by reason of having absented himself, or of some other manifest impediment, he shall not have been amenable to justice within that period. [L. '17, p. 392, § 106.]

§ 8580. Art. 47. Execution of Sentence.

No sentence of a general court-martial shall be carried into execution until the same shall have been approved by the governor. [L. '17, p. 392, § 107.]

§ 8581. Art. 48. Judge Advocate's Report to Adjutant-general.

Every judge advocate, or person acting as such, at any general court-martial, shall, with as much expedition as the opportunity of time and distance of place may admit, forward the original proceedings and sentence of such court to the adjutant-general. [L. '17, p. 392, § 108.]

§ 8582. Art. 49. Copy of Proceedings and Sentence.

Every person tried by a general court-martial shall, upon proper demand therefor be entitled to a copy of the proceedings and sentence of such court. [L. '17, p. 393, § 109.]

§ 8583. Art. 50. Court of Inquiry.

A court of inquiry to examine into the nature of any transaction of, or accusation or imputation against, any officer or enlisted man may be ordered by the governor or by the commanding officer of a naval militia brigade or battalion. [L. '17, p. 393, § 110.]

§ 8584. Art. 51. Oath of Members of Court and Recorder.

The recorder or judge advocate of a court of inquiry shall administer to the members the following oath:

"You shall well and truly examine and inquire, according to the evidence, into the matter now before you, without partiality, favor, affection, prejudice, or hope of reward. So help you God."

After which the president of the court shall administer to the recorder or judge advocate the following oath:

"You, A. B., do swear that you will, according to your best abilities, accurately and impartially record the proceedings of the court and the evidence to be given in the case in hearing. So help you God." [L. '17, p. 393, § 111.]

§ 8585. Art. 52. Powers of Court and Recorder.

A court of inquiry, and the recorder or judge advocate thereof, shall have the same power to summon and examine witnesses as is given to general courts-martial and the judge advocates thereof. Such witnesses shall take the same oath which is taken by witnesses before general courts-martial, and the party accused shall be permitted to examine and cross-examine them, so as fully to investigate the circumstances in question. [L. '17, p. 393, § 112.]

§ 8586. Art. 53. Opinion on Merits of Case.

A court of inquiry shall not give an opinion on the merits of the case inquired of unless specially ordered to do so. [L. '17, p. 393, § 113.]

§ 8587. Art. 54. Authentication of Proceedings.

The proceedings of a court of inquiry must be authenticated by the signatures of the recorder or judge advocate and the president thereof and delivered to the adjutant-general or convening authority. [L. '17, p. 393, § 114.]

§ 8588. Art. 55. Admission of Proceedings as Evidence in Military Court.

The proceedings of a court of inquiry may be admitted as evidence by a military court, in cases not extending to the dismissal of an officer: Provided, that the circumstances are such that oral testimony cannot be obtained. [L. '17, p. 394, § 115.]

§ 8589. Art. 56. Highest Officer in Combined Units to Command.

If, upon marches, guards, or in quarters, different organizations of the national guard of Washington, happen to join or do duty together, the officer highest in rank of the line by commission, there on duty or in quarters, shall command the whole, and give orders for what is needful in the service, unless otherwise specially directed by the governor, according to the nature of the case. [L. '17, p. 394, § 116.]

§ 8590. Art. 57. Inventory of Effects of Deceased Militiaman.

In case of death of any enlisted man, his commanding officer shall immediately secure all his effects then in camp or quarters, and shall, in the presence of two other officers, make an inventory thereof, which he shall transmit to the office of the adjutant-general. [L. '17, p. 394, § 117.]

§ 8591. Art. 58. Power of Punishment in Naval Militia.

The commanding officer of a naval militia brigade or battalion and the naval militia officer in command of naval militia forces on shore or on any vessel of the navy loaned to the state of Washington or on any vessel on which such forces are training shall have power, without trial by courts-martial, to impose upon members of the naval militia of Washington the punishments which the commanding officer of a vessel of the navy is authorized by law to impose. [L. '17, p. 394, § 118.]

§ 8592. Naval Militia Allowances for Incidental Expenses.

Each commanding officer of the naval militia of Washington shall be entitled to receive an allowance for the incidental expenses of his command, payable quarterly in advance, in like manner and at the same times as similar allowance is made to commanding officers of the national guard of Washington, according to the following schedule: Divisions, marine corps companies and like units, not to exceed twenty-five ($25) dollars per month; bands, not to exceed fifteen ($15) dollars per month;

battalions and like units, not to exceed twenty-five ($25) dollars per month; brigades and like units, not to exceed twenty-five ($25) dollars per month.

Such allowance for incidental expenses shall be accounted for, and expenditures therefrom evidenced, in the same manner as is provided for similar allowances to commanding officers of organizations of the national guard of Washington. [L. '17, p. 394, § 119.]

§ 8593. [7328.*] Rifle Ranges.

Under the direction of the governor the adjutant-general shall, at the expense and in the name of the state, buy or lease, establish, equip, maintain and control such rifle ranges and issue such ammunition, transportation and supplies as may be necessary to provide each organization of the organized militia of Washington with adequate means and opportunity for thorough instruction in rifle practice. [L. '17, p. 395, § 120; L. '09, p. 492, § 91.]

§ 8594. [7329.*] Prizes for Marksmanship.

The adjutant-general is authorized to expend from the appropriations for the maintenance of the organized militia of Washington the sum of five hundred dollars per annum for prizes for marksmanship under such regulations as may be prescribed by the governor. [L. '17, p. 395, § 121; L. '09, p. 492, § 92. Cf. L. '95, p. 250, § 169.]

§ 8595. [7330.*] Articles of War and Regulations of United States Army—Death Penalty on Approval by Governor.

Whenever any portion of the militia of the state shall be on duty under or pursuant to orders of the governor, or whenever any part of the militia shall be ordered to assemble for duty in time of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof, breach of the peace, tumult, riot, public danger or resistance to process, the articles of war and regulations for the government of the army of the United States, so far as applicable and not in conflict with any rule or regulation herein prescribed, and with such modifications as the governor may prescribe, shall be considered in force and regarded as a part of this act until such forces shall be duly relieved from such duty: Provided, that organizations of the naval militia of Washington under such circumstances shall be similarly subject to the articles for the government of the navy of the United States and to navy regulations, naval instructions, and general orders of the United States navy. No punishment under this section, extending to the taking of life, shall in any case be inflicted except in time of actual war, invasion or insurrection declared to exist by proclamation of the President of the United States or by the governor of this state, and then only after the approval of such sentence by the governor. [L. '17, p. 395, § 122; L. '09, p. 492, § 93.]

§ 8596. [7331.*] Promulgation of General Orders.

The governor shall promulgate in general orders such rules and regulations and amendments thereto not inconsistent with law as he may deem necessary. Such rules and regulations, when so promulgated, shall have the same force and effect as though herein enacted. [L. '17, p. 396, § 123; L. '09, p. 493, § 94. Cf. L. '95, p. 251, § 171.]

§ 8597. [7332.*] Exemption from Jury Duty and Poll Tax.

Every officer and enlisted man of the organized militia of Washington shall be exempt from all jury duty and from the payment of poll tax during the term of his service therein. Every person employing an enlisted man of the organized militia of Washington having not less than six months' continuous service therein, and having so continuously employed him for a period of not less than six months prior to the time of claiming such exemption, shall be exempt from jury duty: Provided, that if such member of the organized militia is employed by a firm or corporation, one member only of such firm or officer of such corporation shall be exempt from jury duty for each member of the organized militia so employed: And provided further, that this exemption shall extend only to members of firms and to officers of corporations actively engaged in conducting the business of such corporations, and shall not extend to directors and stockholders in such corporations merely as such. [L. '17, p. 396, § 124; L. '09, p. 493, § 95; L. '95, p. 252, § 174.]

"All" persons liable for poll tax. See infra, § 11242.

§ 8598. [7334.*] Regulations Governing Armories, Rifle Ranges, etc.

The commander-in-chief shall promulgate in general orders such regulations for the use of armories, rifle ranges, and other real property owned or leased by the state for military purposes as may be proper: Provided, that no armory shall be used for any other than a strictly military purpose without the recommendation of the officer in charge thereof: And provided further, that all civilian rifle clubs affiliated with the National Rifle Association of America shall be permitted the use of the rifle ranges in the armories owned by the state at least one night each week under such regulations as the commander-in-chief may direct: And provided further, that one room shall be set aside for the exclusive use of all veteran organizations subject to the direction of the officer in charge thereof; and the members of all veteran organizations and their auxiliaries shall have, at all times, access to said room, and said room shall be provided with furniture, heat, light and janitor service out of the maintenance item from the military fund, and said veteran organizations and their auxiliaries shall bear no expense or expenses whatever in connection with the maintenance, heating, lighting and furnishing of such room: And provided further, that all revenue derived from rentals of these armories shall be turned in to the state treasurer under such regulations as the commander-in-chief may direct and credited to the military fund. [L. '17, p. 31, § 1; L. '09, p. 494, § 97. Cf. L. '03, p. 215, §§ 19, 20; L. '07, p. 87, § 11.]

Cited in 60 Wash. 305; 68 Wash. 331, 337.

This section does not relinquish the state's governmental functions or amount to the assumption of a private enterprise, where the armory was not used for entertainment purposes as a business venture: Riddock v. State, 68 Wash. 329, 123 Pac. 450.

§ 8599. [7335.] Lease of Property by the National Guard.

All armories and rifle ranges and all property, real or personal, used by the national guard and not owned by the state of Washington or the United States, shall be leased or rented to the state upon such terms and conditions as shall be approved by the commander-in-chief. [L. '09, p. 494, § 98.]

§ 8600. Condemnation or Special Assessment Against State Military Realty—Notice.

Whenever any land, real estate, premises or other property owned by the state of Washington and used for military purposes shall be involved in or affected by any eminent domain, condemnation, local improvement or other special assessment proceeding whatsoever, in addition to the notices elsewhere provided by law, the officer or board required by law to give notice of such proceedings shall cause to be served upon the adjutant-general at least twenty days in advance of any hearing therein, a written notice, setting forth the nature of the proceedings, the description of such state property sought to be involved therein or affected thereby and the amount of the proposed assessment therein. [L. '17, p. 397, § 125.]

§ 8601. [7337.] Wrongful Taking of Government Property from Armory.

Any enlisted man taking any government property from an armory without the written consent of his company commander shall be considered as appropriating government property to his own use and may be tried in any court of competent jurisdiction and on conviction thereof shall suffer a fine in any sum, not exceeding one hundred dollars, together with the cost of such government property, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, or shall suffer both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '09, p. 494, § 100.]

§ 8602. [7338.*] Revenue—Tax Levy for Military Purposes.

For the purpose of raising revenue for the organized militia of Washington there is hereby levied, and the proper officers shall collect, a tax of not to exceed thirty one hundredths (30/100) of one mill or so much thereof as may be necessary, upon all property in the state subject to taxation for the present fiscal year and for each fiscal year thereafter. The revenue so raised shall be paid into the state treasury and shall be converted into a special military fund, from which special fund shall be paid the military expenses authorized by the military code of Washington, except as otherwise provided. [L. '17, p. 397, § 126; L. '07, p. 226, § 7. Cf. L. '95, p. 252, § 176; L. '03, p. 324, § 18.]

This and the next section were expressly excepted from the repeal of former military codes: See L. '09, p. 495, § 101.

§ 8603. [7339.] Military Fund.

The revenue raised under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the state treasury and be converted into a special military fund, from which special fund shall be paid the expenses authorized by this act, except as otherwise provided. [L. '95, p. 252, § 177.]

See note to last section.

CHAPTER III.

THE SONS OF VETERANS.

§ 8604. [7340.] Sons of Veterans—Issue of Arms to.

The adjutant-general of the state of Washington may, in his discretion and under the regulations prescribed in this chapter, issue to any regularly organized camp of the order of Sons of Veterans in the state of Washington any arms and accoutrements belonging to the state which are not required for the use of the national guard. [L. '90, p. 481, § 1; 1 H. C., § 3079.]

§ 8605. [7341.] Application for Arms—How Made, and Requisites of.

Before any arms or accoutrements are issued, as provided in the foregoing section, the captain of the camp desiring such arms or accoutrements shall make a written application for the same to the adjutant-general, which application shall be accompanied by a list of the names of the officers and members of such camp. The captain shall also give any additional information in regard to said camp which may be required by the adjutant-general. [L. '90, p. 481, § 2; 1 H. C., § 3080.]

§ 8606. [7342.] Captain Receiving Arms, etc., to Give Bond.

The captain of any camp of the order of Sons of Veterans which shall receive arms or accoutrements as provided in this chapter shall give a bond for the return of the same, payable to the state of Washington, in such sum as the adjutant-general may require, which bond shall be signed by two good and sufficient sureties, who shall be property holders and citizens of the state of Washington, and shall be approved by the adjutant-general. [L. '90, p. 482, § 3; 1 H. C., § 3081.]

§ 8607. [7343.] Captain to Return Arms, etc., When and to Whom.

CHAPTER I.

MINING CORPORATIONS.

§ 8608. [7344.] Right of Eminent Domain Extended to Mining Corporations.

The right of eminent domain is hereby extended to all corporations incorporated or that may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this state or any state or territory of the United States, and doing business in this state, for the purpose of acquiring, owning or operating mines, mills or reduction works, or mining or milling gold and silver or other minerals, which may desire to erect and operate surface tramways or elevated cable tramways for the purpose of carrying, conveying or transporting the products of such mines, mills or reduction works. [L. '97, p. 95, § 1.]

For right to appropriate water for mining purposes, see infra, §§ 11575, 11576.

§ 8609. [7345.] Right to Enter on Lands to Survey, etc.

Every corporation incorporated or that may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this state or any state or territory of the United States, and doing business in this state, for the purpose of acquiring, owning or operating mines, mills or reduction works, or mining or milling gold and silver or other minerals, which may desire to erect and operate surface tramways or elevated cable tramways for the purpose of carrying, conveying or transporting the products of such mines, mills or reduction works, shall have the right to enter upon any land between the termini of the proposed lines for the purpose of examining, locating and surveying such lines, doing no unnecessary damage thereby. [L. '97, p. 95, § 2.]

§ 8610. [7346.] Manner of Appropriation.

Every such corporation shall have the right to appropriate real estate or other property for right of way in the same manner and under the same procedure as now is or may be hereafter provided by the law in the case of other corporations authorized by the laws of this state to exercise the right of eminent domain. [L. '97, p. 96, § 3.]

See supra, § 921 et seq., procedure in eminent domain by private corporations.

§ 8611. [7347.] No Subscription to Stock of Mining Corporation is Necessary.

In incorporations already formed, or which may hereafter be formed under this chapter, where the amount of the capital stock of such corporation consists of the aggregate valuation of the whole number of feet, shares, or interest in any mining claim in this state, for the working and developing of which such corporation shall be or have been formed, no actual subscription to the capital stock of such corporation shall be necessary; but each owner in said mining claim shall be deemed to have subscribed such an amount to the capital stock of such corporation as under its by-laws will represent the value of so much of his interest in said mining claim, the legal title to which he may by deed, deed of trust, or other instrument vest or have vested in such corporation for mining purposes; such subscription to be deemed to have been made on the execution and delivery to such corporation of such deed, deed of trust, or other instrument; nor shall the validity of any assessment levied by the board of trustees of such corporation be affected by the reason of the fact that the full amount of the capital stock of such corporation, as mentioned in its certificate of incorporation, shall not have been subscribed as provided in this section: Provided, that the greater portion of said amount of capital stock shall have been so subscribed; and provided further, that this section shall not be construed as to prohibit the stockholders of any corporation formed, or which may be formed for mining purposes as provided in this section, from regulating the mode of making subscriptions to its capital stock and calling in the same by by-laws or express contracts. [L. '66, p. 65, § 28; L. '69, p. 339, § 28; L. '73, p. 407, § 26; Cd. '81, § 2446; 1 H. C., § 1588.]

This section does not apply to coal

§ 8612. [7348.] Stockholder's Right to Enter and Examine Property.

Any owner of stock to the amount of one thousand shares, in any corporation doing business under the laws of the state of Washington for the purpose of mining, shall, at all hours of business or labor on or about the premises or property of such corporation, have the right to enter upon such property and examine the same, either on the surface or under ground. And it is hereby made the duty of any and all officers, managers, agents, superintendents, or persons in charge, to allow any such stockholder to enter upon and examine any of the property of such corporation at any time during the hours of business or labor; and the presentation of certificates of stock in the corporation of the amount of one thousand shares, to the officer or person in charge, shall be prima facie evidence of ownership and right to enter upon or into, and make examinations of the property of the corporation. [L. '01, p. 258, § 1.]

§ 8613. [7349.] Violations and Penalty.

Any violations of any provisions of this act by any officer or agent of such corporation shall constitute a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof every such officer or agent shall be fined in a sum not greater than two hundred dollars for each offense. [L. '01, p. 259, § 2.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8612—8614.

§ 8614. [7350.] Failure to Furnish Statement Annuls Franchise.

In case such corporation shall fail and neglect to furnish the statement provided for in section 8612 within sixty days from and after such demand, the franchise of said corporation may be annulled in any action brought by such stockholder in the name of the state of Washington, in any superior court in the county in which said mining property is situated or in which the principal place of business of the corporation may be located. [L. '01, p. 259, § 3.]

CHAPTER II.

LOCATION AND POSSESSION OF MINING LODES.

Lease of state mineral lands: See supra, §§ 8018—8035.

§ 8615. [7351.] Mining Claim Governed by Law in Force at Time of Location.

All mining claims upon veins or lodes of quartz or other rock in place, bearing gold, silver, or other valuable mineral deposits heretofore located, shall be governed as to length along the vein or lode by the customs, regulations, and laws in force at the date of such location. [L. '88, p. 160, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2210.]

Compare L. '73, pp. 444—446; L. '75, pp. 126, 127; L. '77, p. 335.

§ 8616. [7352.] Form and Extent of Mining Claim Limited.

A mining claim located upon any vein or lode of quartz or other rock in place, bearing gold, silver, or other valuable mineral deposits after the approval of this act by the governor whether located by one or more persons, may equal, but shall not exceed, fifteen hundred feet in length along the vein or lode; but no location of a mining claim shall be made until the discovery of the vein or lode within the limits of the claims located. No claim shall extend more than three hundred feet on each side of the middle of the vein at the surface, nor shall any claim be limited by any mining regulations to less than fifty feet of surface on each side of the middle of such vein or lode, at the surface, excepting where adverse rights, existing at the date of the approval of this act, shall make such limitations necessary. The end lines of each claim shall be parallel to each other. [L. '88, p. 160, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2211.]

"Act" approved February 2, 1888.

§ 8617. [7353.] Right of Possession of Mining Claims.

The locators of all mining locations heretofore made, or hereafter made under the provisions of this act, on any mineral vein, lode, or ledge on the public domain, and their heirs and assigns, so long as they comply with the laws of the United States and the state and local laws relating thereto, shall have the exclusive right to the possession and enjoyment of all surface included within the lines of their location, and of all veins, lodes, and ledges throughout their entire depth, and the top or apex of which lies within the surface lines of such location, extending downward vertically, although such veins, lodes, or ledges may so far depart from the perpendicular in their course downward as to extend outside of the vertical side line of said surface location. [L. '88, p. 160, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2212.]

§ 8618. [7354.] Work Required on Mining Claims.

In order to hold the possessory right to a location of a mine not less than one hundred dollars' worth of work must be performed or improvements made thereon annually: Provided, that the period within which the work required to be done annually on all unpatented claims so located shall commence on the first day of January succeeding the date of location of such claim. assessment or improvement work. 14 A. L. R. 1463.

§ 8619. [7355.] Recorder of Mining Districts—Records of.

The miners of each mining district may elect a recorder of the said district. When so elected, such recorder shall provide books of records, in which it shall be his duty to record all notices of locations or transfers, bonds, conveyances, or assignments of mining claims within his district when the same shall be presented to him for record. Such records are hereby declared to be public records, open to inspection, and shall have the same force and effect, so far as notice is concerned, as the records of deeds and mortgages in this state. [L. '88, p. 161, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2214.]

§ 8620. [7356.] Election, Powers, and Duty of Recorder.

When a recorder shall be elected, as provided in the last preceding section of this chapter, he shall hold his office for a term of one year from the date of his election, and until his successor is elected and qualified. He shall, immediately after his election, file with the county auditor of the county in which his district is situated, an oath to the effect that he will faithfully discharge the duties of his office. He shall be a certified officer, and certified copies of his records shall have the same force and effect as similar papers certified by other officers of this state. His fees shall be the same as those of the county auditor for similar work, and should the office of recorder in any mining district at any time become vacant, it shall be the duty of the person last holding said office, and of any person into whose possession the same may come, to forthwith transmit all the records, papers, and files of the said office to the auditor of the county in which such district is located, and such auditor shall thereafter keep the same as part of the records and files of his office. [L. '88, p. 161, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2215.]

§ 8621. [7357.] Location Notices, etc., to be Recorded by County Auditor.

Inasmuch as the last two preceding sections of this chapter leave the election of a recorder for a mining district optional with the miners thereof, all location notices, bonds, assignments, and transfers of mining claims shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county where the same is situated, within thirty days after the execution thereof: Provided, that all records of mining claims and of assignments, deeds, bonds, and transfers heretofore made by any recorder of any mining district, or by any county auditor, are hereby declared to be valid, and to have the same force and effect as records made in pursuance of the provisions of this act. Certificate or Notice: See Remington's Digest, Mines, § 6-1; National Milling & § 8623. [7359.] Location.

Before filing such notice for record, the discoverer shall locate his claim by first sinking a discovery shaft upon the lode, to the depth of ten (10) feet from the lowest part of the rim of such shaft at the surface, and shall post at the discovery at the time of discovery a notice containing the name of the lode, the name of the locator or locators, and the date of discovery, and shall mark the surface boundaries of the claim by placing substantial posts or stone monuments bearing the name of the lode and date of location; one post or monument must appear at each corner of such claim; such posts or monuments must be not less than three (3) feet high; if posts are used they shall be not less than four inches in diameter and shall be set in the ground in a substantial manner. If any such claim be located on ground that is covered wholly or in part with brush or trees, such brush shall be cut and trees be marked or blazed along the lines of such claim to indicate the location of such lines. If at any time the locator of any quartz or lode mining claim heretofore or hereafter located, or his assigns, shall learn that his original certificate was defective or that the requirements of the law had not been complied with before filing, or shall be desirous of changing his surface boundaries or of taking in any additional ground which is subject to location, or in any case the original certificate was made prior to the passage of this law, and he shall be desirous of securing the benefits of this act, such locator or his assigns may file an amended certificate of location, subject to the provisions of this act, regarding the making of new locations. [L. '99, p. 70, § 5.]

"Act," in this section, refers to §§ 8622—8635.

§ 8627. [7363.] Proof of Assessment Work by Affidavit.

Within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the period of time for the performance of annual labor or the making of improvements upon any quartz or lode mining claim or premises, the person in whose behalf such work or improvement was made or some person for him knowing the facts, shall make and record in the office of the county auditor of the county, wherein such claims are situate an affidavit or oath of labor performed on such claim. Such affidavit shall state the exact amount and kind of labor, including the number of feet of shaft, tunnel or open cut made on such claim, or any other kind of improvements allowed by law or by rules of mining districts made thereon. [L. '99, p. 70, § 6.]

The fact that the major part of defendant's improvements were made after plaintiff's action was commenced is immaterial, where no attempt was made by plaintiff to prevent extensive improvements made in good faith: Spokane Portland Cement Co. v. Larson, 71 Wash. 301, 128 Pac. 641.

§ 8628. [7364.] Affidavit, Prima Facie Evidence of Assessment Work.

Such affidavit when so recorded shall be prima facie evidence of the performance of such labor or the making of such improvements, and such original affidavit after it has been recorded, or a certified copy of record of same, shall be received as evidence accordingly by all the courts of this state. [L. '99, p. 71, § 7.]

§ 8629. [7365.] Relocation, Requirements for.

The relocation of a forfeited or abandoned quartz or lode claim shall only be made by sinking a new discovery shaft and fixing new boundaries in the same manner and to the same extent as is required in making a new location, or the relocater may sink the original discovery shaft ten feet deeper than it was at the date of commencement of such relocation, and shall erect new, or make the old monuments the same as originally required; in either case a new location monument shall be erected and the location certificate shall state if the whole or any part of the new location is located as abandoned property. § 8631. [7367.] Location of Placer Claims—Procedure.

The discoverer of placers or other forms of deposits subject to location and appropriation under mining laws applicable to placers shall locate his claim in the following manner:

First. He must immediately post in a conspicuous place at the point of discovery thereon, a notice or certificate of location thereof, containing (a) the name of the claim; (b) the name of the locator or locators; (c) the date of discovery and posting of the notice hereinbefore provided for, which shall be considered as the date of the location; (d) a description of the claim by reference to legal subdivisions of sections, if the location is made in conformity with the public surveys, otherwise, a description with reference to some natural object or permanent monuments as will identify the claim; and where such claim is located by legal subdivisions of the public surveys, such location shall, notwithstanding that fact, be marked by the locator upon the ground the same as other locations.

Second. Within thirty (30) days from the date of such discovery he must record such notice or certificate of location in the office of the auditor of the county in which such discovery is made, and so distinctly mark his location on the ground that its boundaries may be readily traced.

Third. Within sixty (60) days from the date of discovery, the discoverer shall perform labor upon such location or claim in developing the same to an amount which shall be equivalent in the aggregate to at least ten (10) dollars' worth of such labor for each twenty acres, or fractional part thereof, contained in such location or claim: Provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall be held to apply to lands located under the laws of the United States as placer claims for the purpose of the development of petroleum and natural gas and other natural oil products.

Fourth. Such locator shall, upon the performance of such labor, file with the auditor of the county an affidavit showing such performance and generally the nature and kind of work so done. [L. '99, p. 71, § 10; L. '01, p. 292, § 1.]

§ 8632. [7368.] Affidavit, Prima Facie Evidence of Assessment Work.

The affidavit provided for in the last section, and the aforesaid placer notice or certificate of location when filed for record, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein recited. A copy of such certificate, notice or affidavit certified by the county auditor shall be admitted in evidence in all actions or proceedings with the same effect as the original and the provisions of sections 8627 and 8628 shall apply to placer claims as well as lode claims. [L. '99, p. 72, § 11.]

§ 8633. [7369.] Application of Act.

All locations of quartz or placer formations or deposits hereafter made shall conform to the requirements of this act in so far as the same are respectively applicable thereto. [L. '99, p. 72, § 12.]

§ 8634. [7370.] Mining District may Make Rules.

Any mining district organized in the state of Washington in accordance with the laws of the United States, shall have power to make rules and regulations for such mining district, providing such rules and regulations do not conflict with the laws of the state of Washington or of the United States. [L. '99, p. 73, § 13.]

§ 8635. [7371.] Road Building to Apply on Assessment Work, When.

Any mining district shall have the power to make road building to mining claims within such district applicable as assessment work, or improvement upon such claims: Provided, that rules pertaining to such road building shall be made only at a public meeting of the miners of such district regularly called by the mining recorder of such district: Provided further, that such meeting shall be attended by at least twelve (12) property holders of such district, and that no such rule can be made without the assent of the majority of the property holders of such district, who are present at such meeting. Such meeting to designate where, when and how such road work shall be done, and shall designate some one of their number who shall superintend such road building or construction, and who shall receipt for such labor to the performer thereof, such receipts to be filed with the county auditor of the county in which such work is performed by the holder or holders of such receipts, and shall be received as prima facie evidence of labor performed as annual assessment work upon such claim or claims as may be designated by an affidavit or oath of labor as provided for in section 8627: Provided, that nothing in this act can be construed as being mandatory upon any owner or holder of mining property to perform labor upon any such road. [L. '99, p. 73, § 14.]

"Act," in this section, refers to §§ 8622—8635.

CHAPTER III.COAL MINING CODE.ARTICLE I. DEFINITIONS OF TERMS.§ 8636. Definitions.

That for the purpose of this act the terms and definitions contained therein shall be as follows:

Mine: The term "mine" shall mean all the excavations penetrating coal or other strata used in the opening, developing or operation of workings for the purpose of mining coal, operated by one operator, and all machinery, tramways, sidings, either above or below ground, in or adjacent to and belonging to said operations.

Shaft: The term "shaft" shall mean any vertical excavation in the earth or strata used as a means of ingress or egress, for hoisting or lowering material, for ventilation or drainage, or any other purpose incidental to the operation of a mine.

Slope: The term "slope" shall mean any excavation in the earth or strata driven at an angle to the plane of the horizon, used as a means of ingress or egress, for hoisting or lowering of material, for ventilation or drainage, or other purpose incidental to the operation of a mine.

Airway: The term "airway" shall mean any underground passage the principal purpose of which is to carry air.

Working Face: The term "working face" shall mean any portion of a mine from which coal or rock is being cut, removed, sheared, broken or loosened.

Opening: The term "opening" includes shafts, slopes, inclines, tunnels, levels, or any other means of access to a mine.

Map: The term "map" includes plans and projections, section tracing and print of an original plan, or section of a mine or portion thereof.

Plane: The term "plane" shall mean an incline roadway, other than slopes, used for the transportation of coal, men or material.

Tunnel: The term "tunnel" shall mean any excavation in the earth or strata driven approximately horizontally, used in ingress and egress or men and material, or for ventilation, drainage or haulage.

Level—Gangway—Entry: The term "level," "gangway," or "entry" shall mean an excavation driven parallel, or nearly so, to the strike of the seam, and used for ventilation, traveling, haulage or drainage.

Sump: The term "sump" shall mean a catch-basin into which the drainage from a mine flows, and from which it is pumped directly or indirectly to the surface.

Crosscut—Breakthrough: The term "crosscut" or "breakthrough" shall mean an excavation driven to connect two parallel working places.

Inspector: The term "inspector" shall mean the person commissioned by the governor to inspect the coal mines, as hereinafter provided for in this act.

Deputy Inspector: The term "deputy inspector" shall mean a person appointed by the inspector, to be deputy inspector, as hereinafter provided for in this act.

Operator: The term "operator" shall mean any firm, company, corporation, or individual working any mine or any part thereof.

Manager or General Manager: The term "manager" or "general manager" shall mean any person who shall have, on behalf of the operator, general supervision of the operation of any mine or group of mines.

Superintendent: The term "superintendent" shall mean the person who shall have, on behalf of the operator, immediate supervision, under the manager or operator, of any mine or group of mines.

Mine Foreman: The term "mine foreman" shall mean a person whom the operator, manager or superintendent, shall place in charge of the workings of the mine, and of the persons employed in or about the same.

Assistant Mine Foreman: The term "assistant mine foreman" shall mean a person appointed by the management to assist in directing the operations of a mine or the persons employed in or about the same.

Fire Boss: The term "fire boss" shall mean a person appointed by the management to inspect all the working places of a mine in his district.

Shot-firer—Shot-lighter: The term "shot-firer" or "shot-lighter" shall mean a person appointed by the mine foreman to inspect and fire shots used for the breaking of coal or rock, and to otherwise supervise the use of explosives in a mine.

Miner: The term "miner" shall mean a person employed underground to mine, cut, shear, break or loosen coal or rock, either by hand, machinery or powder, load same when required, and do necessary timbering.

Company Man: The term "company man" shall include any man or men employed in or about a mine and not mentioned in the foregoing definitions of terms.

Certificated Man: The term "certificated man" shall mean any person holding a certificate of competency as provided for in this act.

Approved Safety Lamps: The term "approved safety lamps" shall mean any safety or electric lamp approved by the federal bureau of mines.

Permissible Explosives: The term "permissible explosives" shall mean any explosive declared by the federal bureau of mines to be permissible for use in a mine, when said explosive is used as provided for by the federal bureau of mines.

Check Weighman: The term "check weighman" shall mean an employee selected and paid by the miners, to inspect the weighing of the miners' coal that is being mined by the ton.

Weighman: The term "weighman" shall mean a person employed by the operator to weigh the coal.

Terms not previously defined: All terms used in this act not hereinabove defined shall have their commonly accepted meaning as used in coal mines of this state. [L. '17, p. 109, § 1.]

Cited in 111 Wash. 254, 255.

ARTICLE II. INSPECTION DEPARTMENT.

§ 8637. Department Created.

The state mine inspection department shall consist of a mine inspector and deputy mine inspector, who shall be appointed as provided for in this act. [L. '17, p. 112, § 2.]

See infra, § 10838, duties of mine inspectors devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, state mine inspector and deputies abolished.

§ 8638. State Board of Examiners.

When this act goes into effect the governor shall appoint a state board of examiners to pass upon the qualifications of applicants for the positions of mine inspector and of deputy mine inspector. This board shall consist of one practical coal miner, one mine manager or superintendent, and one practical mining engineer. All members of the aforesaid board shall be citizens of the United States and of the state of Washington, and shall have had at least three years' practical experience in or about the mines of this state.

The appointments of the first state board of examiners under this act shall expire April 1, 1921, and a new board shall be appointed by the governor on that date, and every four years thereafter. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the reappointment of any member of the board for any number of consecutive terms. After the expiration of the term of the first board, each board shall be appointed for four years, but any member may be removed by the governor at any time for cause. Each vacancy on the board shall be filled by the governor within two months after the occurrence of such vacancy.

The state board of examiners provided for in this act shall take the following oath of office before some person duly authorized to administer an oath: "We do solemnly swear (or affirm) that we are citizens of the United States and of the state of Washington and that we will perform the duties devolving on us to the best of our ability, and that in giving or refusing certificates of competency as mine inspector of the state of Washington, we will be governed entirely by the evidence of fitness of the applicant, as defined in the state mining laws; that we will certify all whom we may find qualified, and who shall have passed the required examination, according to the law, to the best of our knowledge and judgment."

The state board of examiners shall receive six dollars ($6) per diem, and their actual and necessary traveling expenses for the time actually engaged in the performance of the duties imposed upon them in this act, such compensation and expenses are to be paid out of the general fund of the state in the manner provided by law. The expenses for stenographic work and printing of the board shall be paid in like manner.

The mine inspector shall furnish, from his office maintenance fund, whatever blanks, blank books, stationery and similar supplies as are needed by the board. [L. '17, p. 112, § 3.]

See infra, § 10854, duties of board of mine examiners devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, board of mine examiners abolished.

§ 8639. Examinations for Inspectors.

It shall be the duty of the state board of examiners to examine into the qualifications of all applicants for appointment to the position of inspector of mines of the state of Washington, by conducting a thorough examination as to the knowledge of laws applying to mines in the state of Washington, on mine working, ventilation, gases, machinery, first aid and mine rescue work and actual experience in underground mining and to acquaint themselves with the person, character, habits and general worthiness of each applicant. The general examination shall be in writing, and the manuscript and other papers of all applicants, together with the tally sheets and the solution of each question as given by the examining board, shall be filed with the secretary of state as public documents, but such applicants shall undergo an oral examination pertaining to explosive gases, safety lamps, mine fires, mine rescue appliances, and general mining subjects, including the laws of the state applying to coal mines. The board of examiners shall confine the examination of applicants to questions as designated in this act. All candidates shall be allowed the use of such text books as the board may deem proper during the examination. No person shall be certified as competent whose average per cent shall be less than seventy-five (75), and certificates shall show what per cent the applicant has obtained, and such certificate shall be valid only when signed by a majority number of the examining board. The examining board shall, immediately after the examination, furnish to each person who came before it to be examined, a copy of all questions, whether oral or written, which were given at the examination, each question to be marked: "Solved right"; "Imperfect"; or "Wrong," as the case may be.

Each candidate shall receive a certificate of competency if he makes an average of seventy-five (75) per cent on the examination credits to be given as follows:

Practical experience, worthiness and general fitness ..	40 points
Written examination	40 points
Oral examination	20 points

The board shall file with the governor and with the mine inspector names of all persons given certificates of competency as mine inspectors: Provided, that anyone who has satisfactorily served as state coal mine inspector in the state of Washington, for one full term of four years, upon making written application to the board setting forth these facts, shall be certified to the governor as properly qualified for appointment. [L. '17, p. 113, § 4.]

See notes to §§ 8637, 8638.

Validity of statutes regulating weighing of coal mined by weight. 11 Ann. Cas. 74.

§ 8640. Affidavits of Applicants for Examination.

Applications to the state board for examination for mine inspector and deputy mine inspector shall be made in writing, accompanied by an affidavit showing that the applicant is a citizen of the United States and of the state of Washington, and that he has attained the age of thirty (30) years; has had at least five (5) years' practical experience in and about the mines in the United States, and at least three (3) years' practical experience in and about the mines in the state of Washington, and that he has a certificate of competency in mine rescue and first aid work from the United States bureau of mines. He shall also furnish an affidavit from two citizens of the state that he is a man of good repute, temperate habits, and in good physical condition, and above thirty (30) years of age. [L. '17, p. 115, § 5.]

See notes to §§ 8637, 8638.

§ 8641. Examinations—Appointment of Inspector and Deputy.

Beginning the first Monday of July, 1917, and every four years thereafter, or at such other times as requested to do so by the governor, or by the mine inspector, the state board of examiners shall conduct examinations at the office of the mine inspector. Each examination shall be thoroughly advertised by sending notices to the management of each coal mine, to be posted at the mine at least thirty (30) days before such examination.

The governor shall appoint as mine inspector a man who has been given a certificate of competency by the board of examiners, or who has otherwise qualified for the position, under the provisions of this act. The mine inspector shall hold his office for four (4) years, and be at all times subject to removal from office by the governor for neglect of duty or for malfeasance in the discharge of his duties.

The mine inspector shall appoint as deputy mine inspector a man who is a citizen of the United States and of the state of Washington, who has had five (5) years' practical experience in and about the mines of the United States and three (3) years' practical experience in and about the mines in the state of Washington, and that he has a mine inspector's certificate of competency given by the board of examiners after an examination as provided for in this act. The deputy mine inspector shall hold office subject to removal by the mine inspector for cause.

The persons who, at the time this act goes into effect, are acting as inspector, or deputy inspector, of mines under the acts hereby repealed, shall continue to act in the same manner as if they had been appointed under this act and until the term for which they were appointed has expired.

Nothing in this act shall be construed as preventing the reappointment of any mine inspector or of any deputy mine inspector who has qualified for these positions under the provisions of this act. [L. '17, p. 115, § 6.]

See notes to §§ 8637, 8638.

§ 8642. Salaries and Expenses of Inspectors—Duties of Inspectors.

The salary of a mine inspector shall be three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum, and the salary of the deputy mine inspector shall be three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum. The inspector and his deputy shall be allowed their necessary expenses for office maintenance, stenographic services, and for equipment and instruments, as well as for actual and necessary traveling expenses while in the performance of their duties, under the provisions of this act. The auditor of this state is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant on the state treasurer in favor of the mine inspector and his deputy for the amounts due them for their salaries monthly, and also for their expenses, upon proper vouchers, to be paid out of any moneys in the state treasury appropriated for that purpose.

The mine inspector and his deputy shall devote their entire time to the duties of their respective offices; they shall have no financial interest, direct or indirect, in any mine under the supervision of the inspection department.

The mine inspector and his deputy shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, each take an oath to discharge their duties impartially and with fidelity and to the best of their knowledge and ability.

It shall be the duty of the mine inspector and his deputy to enforce the provisions of this act, for the regulation of mines, unless enforcement is otherwise especially provided for. [L. '19, p. 703, § 1; L. '17, p. 116, § 7.]

See notes to § 8637.

§ 8643. Right of Entry for Inspection.

The mine inspector and his deputy shall have the right, and it is hereby made their duty to enter, inspect and examine any coal mine in this state, and the workings and the machinery belonging thereto, at all reasonable times, either day or night, but not so as to impede or obstruct the working of the mine. They shall also have the right, and it is their duty to make inquiry into the condition of such mine, workings, machinery, ventilation, drainage, method of lighting or using lights and into all methods and things connected with and relating to the health and safety of persons employed in or about said mine, and especially to make inquiry whether or not the provisions of the act regulating mines have been complied with. The management of each mine is hereby required to furnish the means necessary for such entry, inspection, examination and exit. [L. '17, p. 117, § 8.]

See notes to § 8637.

§ 8644. Frequency of Inspection—Records of Inspection—Court Orders and Injunction.

(a) It shall be the duty of the said inspector or his deputy to carefully examine each coal mine in operation in this state at least every four (4) months, and as much oftener as is necessary, to see that every precaution is taken to insure the safety of all workmen who may be engaged in the mine. These inspections shall include at least two visits of the inspection force to every working place in every mine in the state during each calendar year. The mine inspector or his deputy shall make a record of each visit, noting the time and the material circumstances of the inspection, and shall keep each record on file in the office of the inspection department; and also post at the mine a notice of his inspection.

(b) If the management of any operating company shall refuse to permit the members of the inspection department to enter any mine, the inspector or his deputy shall file an affidavit setting forth such refusal, with the judge of the superior court of the county in which the mine is situated, and obtain an order from such judge commanding the management of the operating company to permit such examination and inspection, and to furnish the necessary facilities for the same, or in default thereof to be adjudged in contempt of court and punished accordingly.

(c) If the mine inspector or his deputy shall, after examination of any mine, or the works and machinery connected therewith, find the same to be worked contrary to the provisions of this act, or unsafe for the workmen employed therein, said inspector shall notify the management, stating what changes are necessary. If the trouble is not corrected within reasonable time, the inspector shall, through the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the mine is located, in the name of the state immediately apply to the superior court of the county in which the mine is located, or to a judge of said court in chambers, for a writ of injunction to enjoin the operation of all work in and about the said mine. Whereupon said court or judge shall at once proceed to hear and determine the case, and if the cause appears to be sufficient, after hearing the parties and their evidence, as in like cases, shall issue its writ to restrain the workings of said mine until all cause of danger is removed; and the cost of such proceeding shall be borne by the operating company of the mine: Provided, that if the said court shall find the cause not sufficient, then the case shall be dismissed, and the costs will be borne by the county in which the mine is located: Provided, also, that should any inspector find during the inspection of a mine, or portion of a mine, such dangerous condition existing therein that in his opinion any delay in removing the workmen from such dangerous places might cause loss of life or serious personal injury to the employee, said inspector shall have the right to temporarily withdraw all persons from such dangerous places until the foregoing provisions of this section can be carried into effect.

(d) Whenever he is notified of any loss of life in or about the mine, or whenever an explosion or other serious accident occurs, the inspector shall immediately go or send his deputy to the scene of the accident to investigate and to render every possible assistance.

(e) The mine inspector or his deputy shall make a record of the circumstances attending each accident investigated, which record shall be preserved in the files of the inspection department. To enable the mine inspector or his deputy to make such investigation and record, they shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses and to administer oaths or affirmations to them. The costs of such investigations shall be paid by the county in which such accident has occurred, in the same manner as the costs of the coroner's inquests or investigations are paid.

(f) During his absence from the state on official business, or at such times as he may be incapacitated by illness, or by other causes, the mine inspector shall have the authority to designate his deputy to act as mine inspector.

(g) Whenever a properly signed and executed petition is filed in the superior court, stating that the mine inspector, or his deputy, has neglected his duties, or is incompetent, or is guilty of malfeasance in office, it shall be the duty of said court to issue a citation in the name of the state to said inspector to appear (at not less than five days' notice) on a day fixed, before said court, and the court shall then proceed to inquire into and investigate the allegations of the petitioners. Such action shall be prosecuted by the county attorney.

(h) The above-mentioned petition shall be signed by twenty (20) residents of the state, reputable citizens who are employed in or about the mines, or who are engaged in the operations of mines. It shall be accompanied by the affidavits of two or more of the petitioners, and by a bond in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500), running to the state.

(i) If the court finds that the said mine inspector or his deputy is neglectful of his duties or is incompetent to perform the duties of his office, or that he is guilty of malfeasance in office, the court shall certify the same to the governor, who shall declare the office of said inspector vacant. This office shall then be filled in compliance with the provisions of this act.

(j) If the charges are not proved the costs of the investigation shall be imposed on the petitioners. If the charges are proved the costs of the investigation shall be paid by the county in which the charges are preferred. [L. '17, p. 117, § 9.]

See notes to § 8637.

§ 8645. Annual Reports.

It shall be the duty of the mine inspector to transmit a synopsis of his annual report to the governor not later than March 1st of each year.

It shall also be the duty of the mine inspector to see that his complete report is placed in the hands of the state printer for publication on or before the first day of April in each annual period; the same to be published under the direction of the mine inspector. At least two thousand (2,000) copies must be printed. [L. '17, p. 120, § 10.]

See notes to § 8637.

Cited in 111 Wash. 256.

§ 8646. Budget of Department Expenses.

For the purpose of carrying this act into effect the mine inspector shall make an estimate of the expenses of the department and submit same to the legislature. It shall be the duty of the legislature to make the necessary appropriation. [L. '17, p. 120, § 11.]

See notes to § 8637.

ARTICLE III. EXAMINING BOARD.

§ 8647. Examination for First and Second Class Certificates.

The state board of examiners, with the addition of the state mine inspector, shall conduct the examination of applicants for first and second class certificates, and issue the same under the provisions of this act. [L. '17, p. 120, § 12.]

See notes to § 8638.

§ 8648. Time for Holding.

Examinations for first and second class certificates shall be held yearly, or oftener, as the mine inspector may direct, but not more than thirty (30) days per year shall be allowed for this work. The examinations shall be held at such places as the mine inspector shall direct. [L. '17, p. 120, § 13.]

§ 8649. Notice of Time and Place—Certificates—Fees.

Notice of the place and date on which examinations for first and second class certificates are to be held shall be sent to each mine in the state, and shall be posted in a conspicuous place, at least fifteen (15) days before the time set for the examination.

Certificates issued to candidates who pass the examinations shall be in such form as shall be prescribed by the examining board. The mine inspector shall keep a record in his department of all such certificates granted. Each certificate shall contain the full name, age and birth place of the applicant; shall designate whether first class or second class; the average percentage made on the entire examination, and shall be valid only when signed by a majority of the board.

Each application for a first or second class certificate must be accompanied by a fee of two dollars ($2), made payable to the state treasurer, to be applied to pay the salaries and expenses of the members of the examining board. [L. '17, p. 120, § 14.]

§ 8650. Examination Subjects for First Class.

Examinations for first class certificates shall cover the following subjects: Laws applying to mines in the state of Washington; methods of mine working and ventilation; mine fires; mine rescue work and appliances; first aid to the injured and actual experience in underground mining; methods of timbering, bratticing and blasting. The general examination shall be in writing, and the manuscripts and other papers of all applicants, together with the tally-sheets and the solution of each question as given by the examining board, shall be filed with the mine inspector as public documents. The papers may be destroyed one year from date of examination. In addition to the written examination, the applicants shall undergo an oral examination pertaining to explosive gases, safety lamps, first aid to the injured, mine rescue appliances and general mining subjects. All candidates shall be allowed the use of such text books as the board may deem proper during the examination.

Each candidate shall receive a certificate of competency if he makes an average of seventy-five per cent on the examination, credits to be given as follows:

Practical experience, worthiness and general fitness ..	40 points
Oral examination	40 points
Written examination	20 points

[L. '17, p. 121, § 15.]

§ 8651. Examination Subjects for Second Class.

Examinations for second class certificates shall cover the following subjects: The sections of the law of the state of Washington applying to the duties of men with second class certificates; mine ventilation and similar subjects; questions in regard to mine rescue work and appliances; first aid to the injured; methods of timbering, bratticing and blasting.

The general examination shall be in writing and the manuscripts and other papers of all applicants, together with the tally-sheets and the solution of each question as given by the examining board shall be filed with the mine inspector as public documents. These papers may be destroyed one year from date of examination.

In addition to the written examination the applicant shall undergo an oral examination. The examination shall include the use and care of safety lamps; work in timbering, bratticing, charging and firing blasts; work in first aid to the injured, and, wherever possible, in the use of mine rescue apparatus, and other work which men with second-grade certificates may be called upon to do in pursuance of their duties. An average percentage of seventy-five (75) on the whole examination shall be required for qualification. Credits to be given as follows:

Practical experience, worthiness and general fitness . . .	50 points
Oral examination	30 points
Written examination	20 points

[L. '17, p. 122, § 16.]

§ 8652. Service Certificates.

Service certificates shall be granted by the examining board without examination, to mine foreman, assistant mine foreman, and fire bosses, who are now acting in these capacities. Proper affidavits must be furnished the examining board by the applicants for service certificates, covering time of service, moral character and general fitness for the position.

All first and second class certificates granted by the examining board without giving an examination in the manner herein provided, shall be designated on the face of the certificate as a service certificate.

A service certificate shall have the same effect for the purpose of this act as a certificate of competency granted by the board after examination. [L. '17, p. 122, § 17.]

See notes to § 8638.

§ 8653. Cancellation of Certificates—Hearings—Eligibility for Examination.

The certificate of any mine foreman, assistant mine foreman, or fire boss, may be canceled or suspended by any examining board upon notice and hearing as hereinafter provided. If it shall be established in the judgment of said board that the holder of said certificate has become unworthy to hold said certificate by reason of violation of the law, or obtained by fraud, or of intemperate habits, or incapacity, said certificate may be canceled or suspended for any period not to exceed two years: Provided, that any person against whom charges or complaints are made hereunder shall have the right to appear before said board and defend himself against such charges, and he shall be given fifteen (15) days' notice in writing of such charges, previous to the hearing. The meeting of the board of examiners to investigate charges against the holder of any certificate of competency of any grade shall be held within a reasonable time after such charges are made. In no case shall the meeting of said board be deferred longer than thirty (30) days after the charges are made. Any holder of a first or second class certificate, who shall have had his certificate canceled, shall be eligible to take an examination for a new certificate on and after two years from date of cancellation, by setting forth in his application the time, place and cause of cancellation of his former certificate. [L. '17, p. 123, § 18.]

§ 8654. Lost Certificates.

In case of the loss or destruction of a certificate, the board may supply a copy thereof to the person losing the same, upon the payment of the sum of fifty cents (50c): Provided, it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the board that the loss has actually occurred. [L. '17, p. 123, § 19.]

See notes to § 8638.

§ 8655. Forged or False Certificate—Penalty.

Any person or persons who shall forge or counterfeit a certificate, or knowingly make or cause to be made any false statement in any certificate under this act, or any official copy of same, or shall urge others to do so, or shall use any such forged or false certificate, or any official copy of such, or shall make, give, alter or produce, or make use of any false declaration, representation or statement in any certificate or copy thereof, or any document containing the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 124, § 20.]

ARTICLE IV. CERTIFICATED MEN.

§ 8656. Employees to be Certificated.

Men employed in the coal mines of the state of Washington as mine foreman, assistant mine foreman, or fire bosses, shall have certificates of competency as heretofore provided. [L. '17, p. 124, § 21.]

§ 8657. Classes.

Such certificates of competency shall be first class as mine foreman, and second class as assistant mine foreman or fire boss. A first class certificate shall be considered as including the second class certificate also. [L. '17, p. 124, § 22.]

§ 8658. Applications and Fees.

Applications for examination for first and second class certificates must be made in writing to the mine inspector and must be accompanied by an affidavit showing that the applicant is eligible as provided for under section 8659 of article IV (qualifications of candidates for certificates of competency). Each application must be accompanied by a fee of two dollars ($2). [L. '17, p. 124, § 23.]

§ 8659. Qualifications for Certificates.

In no case shall a certificate of competency be granted to any candidate until he shall have satisfied the board of examiners, which is holding the examination, by qualifying as follows, or by service certificates as hereafter provided for:

(a) If a candidate for a first class certificate, that he has had at least five (5) years' experience in and about the actual workings of a coal mine, and is at least twenty-five (25) years of age.

(b) If a candidate for a second class certificate, that he has had at least one year's experience in the underground workings of a coal mine, and is at least twenty-three (23) years of age.

(c) If a candidate for either first or second class certificate, that he has taken a course in mine rescue and first aid training equivalent to the work required by the federal bureau of mines for a certificate of competency in these subjects.

Provided, that when satisfactory evidence is submitted to the examining board showing the work the candidate for a first class certificate has completed in any mining course in any university, college, or correspondence school, the board may in lieu of actual experience allow him credit for not more than eighteen (18) months on his practical experience for such work completed. [L. '17, p. 124, § 24.]

§ 8660. Qualifications for Foreman.

No one shall be allowed to act as a mine foreman of a coal mine in this state except he be the holder of a first class or service certificate under this act. [L. '17, p. 125, § 25.]

§ 8661. Qualifications for Assistant Foreman and Fire Boss.

No one shall be allowed to act as assistant mine foreman or fire boss in any coal mine in this state, except that he be the holder of a second class or service certificate under this act. [L. '17, p. 125, § 26.]

ARTICLE V. VENTILATION.

§ 8662. Quantity of Air for Ventilation.

The operator, or superintendent, of every mine shall provide and maintain ample means of ventilation to furnish a constant and adequate supply of pure air for employees in the mine. The minimum quantity of air shall be one hundred (100) cubic feet per minute for each person employed in the mine, and five hundred (500) cubic feet per minute for each horse or mule, and as much more as may be necessary to keep the mine free from dangerous and explosive gases. [L. '17, p. 125, § 27.]

§ 8663. Separate Air Current for Each Split.

Every mine shall be divided into districts or splits of not more than seventy (70) men in each district or split (unless in the judgment of the inspector it is impracticable to comply with this requirement, in which case a larger number, not to exceed ninety (90) persons, may be permitted to work therein). Each district or split shall be supplied with a separate current of fresh air. The return air from each district or split, when from seventy to ninety men are employed, shall be conducted direct or through an overcast or undercast to the main return airway. [L. '17, p. 125, § 28.]

§ 8664. Character of Ventilation.

The ventilation shall be conducted to all working places in the mine in sufficient quantities to dilute, render harmless and carry off the smoke, noxious and other dangerous gases generated therein, to such an extent that all working places, traveling roads, and such other places as may be necessary for the general safety of the mine, shall be in a safe and healthful condition. [L. '17, p. 126, § 29.]

§ 8665. Measurement of Air.

The quantity of air passing a given point shall be ascertained by an anemometer, the measurements to be taken by the mine foreman, or his assistant, at least once each week at or near the main inlet and outlet of the mine, and the inlet and outlet for each district or split, and also in the last crosscut or breakthrough nearest to face of entry, gangway or air course beyond the last breast, chute or room, turned, and in the top crosscut or breakthrough between the two inside working breasts, chutes or rooms, also in the top crosscut or breakthrough between the two outside working breasts, chutes or rooms. [L. '17, p. 126, § 30.]

§ 8666. Time for Taking.

Weekly measurements shall also be taken of air traveling through pillars that are being drawn. Said measurements shall be taken on the days when the men are at work. [L. '17, p. 126, § 31.]

§ 8667. Record of Measurement.

A record of all air measurements shall be entered in a book provided for that purpose and kept at the mine. [L. '17, p. 126, § 32.]

§ 8668. Inspection for Inflammable Gas.

In every mine in which inflammable gas has been found within the preceding twelve (12) months, or spontaneous combustion occurs, a fire boss, or fire bosses, shall be appointed, who shall, within three hours before the time for commencing work in any part of the mine, inspect with an approved safety lamp all working places, and shall make a true report of the condition thereof. [L. '17, p. 126, § 33.]

§ 8669. Fire Boss to Report on Safety of Mine.

Where fire bosses are employed workmen shall not go to work in the mine until the same and the traveling-way leading thereto are reported safe by the fire boss or fire bosses so inspecting. Every such report shall be recorded as provided for under the duties of fire bosses, article IX, section 8750. [L. '17, p. 127, § 34.]

§ 8670. Suspension and Starting of Fan.

At nongaseous mines the fan may be stopped during a suspension of work, temporary or otherwise. However, it must be started two hours before employees are admitted to the mine. [L. '17, p. 127, § 35.]

§ 8671. Operation of Gas Fans.

Every main fan at gaseous mines shall be kept in operation continuously, day and night, unless operations are definitely suspended for a period of one week or more: Provided, that should it at any time become necessary to stop any fan at any mine, gaseous or nongaseous, on account of accident to part of the machinery connected therewith, or by reason of any other unavoidable cause, it shall be the duty of the mine foreman, or the assistant mine foreman, in charge, after having first provided for the safety of the persons employed in the mine, to order said fan stopped for necessary repairs. [L. '19, p. 704, § 2. Cf. L. '17, p. 127, § 36.]

§ 8672. Recording Instrument for Air Pressure—Location of Fans.

Every main ventilating fan shall be provided with a recording instrument by which the ventilating pressure of the fan shall be registered, and the registration of each day, with the date thereof, shall be kept in the office of the mine for future reference for one year, the same to be produced upon request of the inspector.

No fan, unless driven by electricity or compressed air, shall be placed in any mine. In gaseous mines if the fan be electrically driven, the motor shall be placed in the intake airway. [L. '17, p. 127, § 37.]

§ 8673. Furnaces Prohibited.

It shall be unlawful to use a furnace for ventilation in any coal mine in the state. [L. '17, p. 127, § 38.]

§ 8674. Air Bridges, Under and Overcasts.

In every mine all permanent air bridges, undercasts or overcasts, shall be substantially built of ample strength. If built of wood they must be covered with fireproof material on all exposed sides; or they must be driven through the solid strata. [L. '17, p. 128, § 39.]

§ 8675. Ventilating Doors.

All doors used in assisting or in any way affecting the ventilation shall be so hung that they will close automatically. [L. '17, p. 128, § 40.]

§ 8676. Doors Hung in Pairs—Extra Doors.

All permanent doors on main haulage roads affecting main air currents shall be hung in pairs and so placed that when one door is open, another which has the same effect upon the same air current, shall be and remain closed and thus prevent any temporary stoppage of the air current. An extra door shall be so placed and kept standing open as to be out of reach of accident, and arranged so that it can be closed should one or both of the other doors be out of order. [L. '17, p. 128, § 41.]

§ 8677. Self-acting Doors or Attendants.

The inspector may require either self-acting doors of an approved type, or an attendant at permanent doors that control the air current on any main haulage roads through which cars are hauled, for the purpose of opening and closing it for the employees and cars to pass in and out from the workings. A hole for shelter shall be provided at each door, to protect the attendant from danger from cars while performing his duty. Persons employed for this purpose shall remain at the doors at all times during working hours: Provided, that the same attendant may attend two doors if his absence from the first door does not endanger the safety of the employees. [L. '17, p. 128, § 42.]

§ 8678. Stoppings Between Airways—Construction.

In all mines, all new permanent stoppings in crosscuts or breakthroughs between the main intake and return airways shall be substantially built of masonry, concrete, or blocks of timber. Renewals of old stoppings shall be built as above. When timber is used the same must be faced with concrete or other incombustible material. [L. '17, p. 128, § 43.]

§ 8679. Air-tight Stoppings.

Stoppings on levels between intake and return airways shall be substantially built and made as near air-tight as possible. On levels driven more than two thousand (2,000) feet, stoppings shall be built of masonry, concrete or blocks of timber. [L. '17, p. 128, § 44.]

§ 8680. Wood Stoppings.

Stoppings shall be built in crosscuts or breakthroughs, between breasts, chutes or rooms, or other working places, to conduct the ventilation to the working places. However, such stoppings may be built of wood. [L. '17, p. 129, § 45.]

§ 8681. Outlets and Openings, Number Required—Application of Act.

It shall be unlawful for the owner, operator or superintendent of any mine, or the agent of such owner, operator or superintendent, to employ any person or persons in such mine, or permit any person or persons to be in such mine for the purpose of working therein, unless there are provided and maintained in connection with and leading from such mine, in addition to the hoisting shaft, slope or other place of delivery not less than two openings or outlets to the surface, or one outlet to the surface and one underground passage leading to a contiguous mine; said openings or outlets to be separated from each other and from such hoisting shaft, slope or other place of delivery, by a stratum of not less than fifty (50) feet in thickness, at and through which openings or outlets safe and ready means of ingress and egress are at all times available by not less than three routes, for any person or persons employed in said mine; and in connection with and leading from each seam or stratum of coal being worked in said mine, and from every lift thereof, not less than two openings or outlets leading directly or indirectly to the surface, and separated by a stratum of not less than fifty (50) feet in thickness; at and through which two openings safe and ready means of ingress and egress are at all times available by not less than two routes for any person or persons employed in said stratum or seam of coal or lift thereof. This section shall not apply to a mine while being worked for the purpose of making communication between said outlets, or to open a seam or stratum of coal, or new lift thereof, so long as not more than twenty (20) persons are employed at any time in such part of a mine, or new lift of a mine; neither shall it apply to any mine or part of a mine in which any outlet has been rendered unavailable by reason of the final robbing of pillars, previous to abandonment, so long as not more than twenty (20) persons are employed in such mine or any part of such mine at one time.

This section shall apply only to mines or parts of mines which shall be developed or in which development shall be started after this act shall go into effect, but it shall not be construed to permit any openings or outlets now in use for the safety of men to be abandoned unless other such openings are substituted therefor. [L. '19, p. 704, § 3; L. '17, p. 129, § 46.]

§ 8682. Distances Allowed for Coal Removal.

It shall be unlawful for the owner, operator or superintendent of any mine to loosen or remove, or cause or permit to be loosened or removed from its original position, any coal within a distance of two hundred and fifty (250) feet on either side of any hoisting slope, or within a distance of fifty (50) feet on either side of any permanent airway, or escapeway, or within twenty-five (25) feet of any level or gangway, or any parallel airway to any level or gangway, except for the purpose of driving air and escapeways, crosscuts and such other passages as may be necessary for the proper operation of the mine: Provided, that if the inspector shall deem it safe to permit coal to be loosened or removed within a distance nearer than two hundred and fifty (250) feet from any hoisting slope he may grant permission to the operator to remove such coal within a distance of not less than one hundred and fifty (150) feet of such hoisting slope, by issuing a written permit therefor. This section shall not be construed to prevent the drawing of pillars previous to the final abandonment of the mine. [L. '19, p. 705, § 4; L. '17, p. 130, § 47.]

§ 8683. Crosscuts.

Crosscuts between room, breasts and chutes shall be made not to exceed sixty (60) feet apart.

Crosscuts between gangways, levels, airways and counters, or main slopes and main air courses, shall not exceed sixty (60) feet, unless they may be properly ventilated by sufficient brattices. [L. '17, p. 130, § 48.]

§ 8684. Conducting Air to Crosscuts.

The required air current shall be conducted to the crosscut nearest the face of each entry, gangway, breast or chute. [L. '17, p. 130, § 49.]

§ 8685. Danger Signs.

Danger signs in all mines shall be uniform, and of a design submitted by the mine inspector. All danger signs shall be kept in good condition, and no defective sign shall be allowed to remain in any mine. [L. '17, p. 130, § 50.]

ARTICLE VI. MAPS AND PLANS.§ 8686. Survey and Map of Mine.

The operator of every coal mine in this state shall make, or cause to be made, an accurate transit survey and an accurate map or plan of such mine, drawn to the scale of one hundred (100) feet to the inch, on which shall appear the name of the state, county and township in which the mine is located; the designation of the mine, the name of the company or owner; the certificate of the mining engineer or surveyor as to the accuracy and date of the survey; the direction of the true meridian, and the scale to which the drawing is made. [L. '17, p. 131, § 51.]

§ 8687. Map to Show Surface Objects.

Every such map or plan shall correctly show the surface boundary lines of the coal rights pertaining to each mine, and all section or quarter-section lines or corners within the same; the lines of town lots and streets, the tracks and sidetracks of all railroads and the location of all wagon roads, rivers, streams, lakes or ponds, with depth shown, all buildings, landmarks and principal objects on the surface. [L. '17, p. 131, § 52.]

§ 8688. Underground Workings Shown—Datum and Pitch of Seams.

For the underground workings said maps shall show all shafts, slopes, tunnels or other openings to the surface or to the workings of a contiguous mine; all excavations, entries, rooms and crosscuts; the location of pumps, hauling engines, engine planes, abandoned works, firewalls and standing water; and the boundary line of any surface outcrop of the seam. Sea level datum and pitch of seams shall be placed on the maps at top and bottom of slopes and shafts, at ends of all gangways and at top of escapeways. [L. '17, p. 131, § 53.]

§ 8689. Separate Map for Each Seam.

A separate map, drawn to the same scale in all cases, shall be made of each and every seam worked in any mine, and the maps of all such seams shall show all shafts, inclined planes or other passageways connecting the same, and shall show the sea level datum and pitch of seams, as provided in section 8688, article VI. [L. '17, p. 131, § 54.]

§ 8690. Separate Surface Map.

A separate map shall also be made of the surface whenever the surface buildings, lines or objects are so numerous as to obscure the details of the mine workings if drawn upon the same sheet with them, and in such cases the surface map shall be drawn upon transparent cloth or paper, so that it can be laid on the map of the underground workings and thus truly indicate the local relation of lines and objects on the surface to the excavations of the mine. [L. '17, p. 132, § 55.]

§ 8691. Copies of Maps Filed With Inspector.

The original or true copies of all such maps shall be kept in the office of the mine, and prints thereof shall also be furnished to the mine inspector. The maps so delivered to the inspector shall be the property of the state, and shall remain in the custody of the inspector during the term of his office, and be delivered by him to his successor in office; they shall be kept at the office of the inspector, and be open only to the inspector or his deputy for his examination and he shall not permit any copies of the same to be made. [L. '17, p. 132, § 56.]

§ 8692. Mappings of Changes in Plans or New Work.

An extension of the last preceding survey of every mine in active operation shall be made once in every twelve months prior to July 1st of every year, and the results of said survey, with the date thereof, shall be promptly and accurately entered upon the original maps and all copies of same so as to show all changes in plan or new work in the mine and all extensions to the old workings which have been made since the last preceding survey. The said changes and extensions shall be entered upon the copies of the maps in the hands of said inspector, or a new copy furnished and the old copy returned to the operator. [L. '17, p. 132, § 57.]

§ 8693. Final Survey and Map of Abandoned Mine.

When any coal mine is worked out or is about to be abandoned or indefinitely closed, the operator of the same shall make or cause to be made a final survey of all parts of such mine, and the results of the same shall be duly extended on all maps of the mine and a copy of such final survey shall be filed with the mine inspector, so as to show all excavations and the most advanced workings of the mine, and their exact relation to the boundary or section lines of the surface. [L. '17, p. 132, § 58.]

§ 8694. Neglect to Furnish Map to Inspector—Penalty.

Whenever an operator of any mine shall neglect or refuse or for any cause not satisfactory to the mine inspector, fail for the period of three months to furnish said inspector the map or plan of such mine, or a copy thereof, or the extensions thereto, as provided in this article, such operator shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and the inspector is hereby authorized to make or cause to be made an accurate plan or map of such mine at the cost of the operator thereof, and the cost of the same may be recovered from the operator in an action at law brought in the name of the inspector, for his use. [L. '17, p. 133, § 59.]

See notes to § 8637.

§ 8695. Inspector may Order Survey—New Map by Inspector.

The mine inspector may order a survey to be made of the workings of any mine, in addition to the regular annual survey, the results to be extended on the maps of the same and copies thereof, whenever the safety of the workmen, unlawful injury to the surface, unlawful encroachment on adjoining property, or the safety of an adjoining mine requires it.

If the inspector shall believe any map required by this act is materially inaccurate or imperfect, he is authorized to make or cause to be made a correct survey and map at the expense of the operating company, the cost recoverable as for debt: Provided, if such test survey shows the operator's map to be practically correct, the state shall be liable for the expense incurred, payable in such manner as other state accounts incurred by the mine inspector. [L. '17, p. 133, § 60.]

ARTICLE VII. HOISTS AND HOISTING.

§ 8696. Signaling Apparatus.

The owner, operator or agent of every coal mine operated by shaft or slope, shall provide efficient means of signaling between the top and bottom thereof and each intermediate working level, by an electric bell or other equally satisfactory signaling device, and also a uniform code of signals for use therewith.

The operator or the superintendent shall provide, and hereafter maintain in good condition from the top to the bottom of every shaft or slope, and at each alternate intermediate working level from or to which persons or materials are lowered or hoisted, a telephone or metal tube of proper diameter, suitably adjusted to the free passage of sound, through which conversation may be held and understood between persons at the top and bottom of said shaft or slope. [L. '17, p. 133, § 61.]

§ 8697. Hoisting Apparatus—Indicators—Overwinding—Cage Construction and Safety Devices.

For the purpose of hoisting or lowering men in any shaft or slope the owner, operator or agent thereof shall provide:

(a) A type of hoisting apparatus of sufficient strength to hold twice the maximum weight of the cage or cars loaded with men at any point on the shaft or slope. Each hoisting apparatus to be equipped with a brake or brakes on each drum of sufficient power to fully control the speed of the cage or cages or cars in such shaft or slope.

(b) An efficient indicator that will show at all times the true position of the cage or cages or cars attached to each hoist.

(c) An efficient device for the prevention of overwinding shall be attached to every hoisting apparatus hereafter put in service for hoisting or lowering persons in a shaft.

(d) A cage with a floor free from all obstructions must be provided for all shafts. Such cage shall be solidly constructed of heavy timber or iron beams for the frame, sufficient to withstand severe shocks under strains, and shall be covered with a substantially supported bonnet of boiler iron to protect persons riding in the cage from anything falling down the shaft. Each cage must be equipped with chains, bars or gates at each end, which must be always in place when men are hoisted or lowered. Each cage must also be equipped with efficient safety catches to prevent the cage from falling down the shaft in the event of the rope breaking. All rope links or chains attached to cars or cages must be of ample strength with a factor of safety of not less than five to one on the maximum load.

(e) On all regular man trips being hoisted on slopes of twenty (20) degrees or more, each car shall be attached to the car ahead by two or more separate connections, each one of which must be of ample strength to hold any load placed upon it by the breaking of the other. And the first car shall be secured to the socket by an extra cable or chain securely attached to the car: Provided, that any other approved safety device may be used in lieu of those hereinabove in this paragraph (e) mentioned. On all slopes of less than twenty (20) degrees a safety rope shall extend from the main rope to the last car, or other approved safety device that will answer the same purpose.

(f) At all shafts, when hoisting men or material, there must be provided a competent person at the top and bottom to have control of the admission of cars, material or persons, to the cage operating in such shaft.

(g) Safety gates must be provided at the top and at any intermediate landing of a shaft, or of a slope inclined over sixty (60) degrees from the horizontal, such gates to be so constructed that when closed access to the shaft or slope will be entirely cut off; and such gates to be kept closed at all times when the rope rider or other person in charge of such landing is not present.

(h) At distances not to exceed sixty (60) feet on inclined planes or slopes where men are employed during operations suitable holes for refuge must be provided, these to be cut into the strata not less than two and one-half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) feet deep and four (4) feet wide and five (5) feet high and level with the road. Such holes to be located at points easy of access and to be kept whitewashed. [L. '17, p. 134, § 62.]

§ 8698. Strength and Inspection of Safety Devices.

All ropes, chains, safety catches, etc., as enumerated above, must be of ample strength to support a strain equivalent to five times the maximum load, and must be kept in safe condition; and, furthermore, they must be inspected at least once in twenty-four (24) hours by a competent person appointed by the superintendent for that purpose, and a record of such examinations, reporting all defects that may have been found, must be written in ink in a book kept for that purpose at the mine office. Any defects must be corrected immediately and no persons shall be lowered into or hoisted from the mine by defective apparatus; and, furthermore, all coupling links, pins and chains used on main haulage in hoisting or lowering men on a slope shall be annealed once in every three months. Pins and couplings on all other cars must be annealed once a year. [L. '17, p. 135, § 63.]

§ 8699. Testing Safety Catches.

The following tests of safety catches on cages shall be made once every six months: The cage shall be secured by passing a heavy hemp rope through the bridle-chain ring or link and fastening both ends of the ropes to guides or to diagonally opposite posts of head frame, drawing the rope taut. A blocking to be passed below the cage to support same before hoisting rope is taut. The hoisting engineer shall then slack away until the cage is suspended on the hemp rope with at least four feet of the slack hoisting rope on top of it. Everything being in readiness the hemp rope shall be suddenly cut. If the safety catches stop the cage before it rests upon the blocking, the apparatus shall be considered efficient. [L. '17, p. 136, § 64.]

§ 8700. Proximity of Buildings to Ventilating Fans or Main Airway.

No building or structure shall be erected within seventy-five (75) feet of any main ventilating fan or main entrance to or exit from main airway slope or drift, except the tipple building and trestle thereto, unless same shall be built of fireproof material, and no fires shall be allowed in or about said tipple or trestle, except it be in a fire-box of a boiler; Provided, that this section shall not apply to any shaft or slope heretofore sunk, or to any building heretofore erected, or to prospecting or development work otherwise regulated by this act. [L. '17, p. 136, § 65.]

§ 8701. Men and Materials not to be Hoisted Together.

No person, except mine officials, cagers or repair men, shall be hoisted or lowered in a cage with a loaded or empty car or with material of any kind on either the same or opposite cage. [L. '17, p. 136, § 66.]

§ 8702. Number Limit of Men Hoisted.

Not more than six (6) persons per ton of hoisting capacity shall be hoisted or lowered in any cage or car in any shaft, slope or incline at any one time: And, provided, that not more than one person for each three (3) square feet of floor surface shall be hoisted or lowered in any cage at any one time. [L. '17, p. 137, § 67.]

§ 8703. Speed Limit.

No person or persons other than trip riders or mine officials shall be hoisted or lowered at a speed exceeding six hundred (600) feet per minute. [L. '17, p. 137, § 68.]

§ 8704. Competency of Hoisting Engineer.

An engineer placed in charge of the hoisting engine, where men are being hoisted or lowered, must be a sober, competent person not less than twenty-one (21) years of age. [L. '17, p. 137, § 69.]

§ 8705. Riding Loaded Cars—Traveling Ways for Men.

No person, except those whose regular duties require it, shall be allowed to ride in or on the outside of any loaded car or skip in any slope. In any mine opened after this act goes into effect, separate traveling ways shall be provided and no employee, except those whose regular duty compels them to use a slope or incline, will be allowed to walk up or down the same while they are in operation. [L. '17, p. 137, § 70.]

ARTICLE VIII. DUTIES OF OPERATORS.§ 8706. Liability of Agents of Owner or Operator.

For the purpose of this act the superintendent or mine foreman in direct charge of the operation of any mine or mines, shall be considered as the agent of the owner or operator, and shall be held jointly responsible with the owner or operator for any failure to comply with the sections of this act governing owners, operators or agents. [L. '17, p. 137, § 71.]

§ 8707. Record of Deaths and Injuries.

Every operator of a coal mine shall make, or cause to be made, for the information of the inspection department, upon uniform blanks furnished by said department, a record of all deaths and all injuries sustained by any employees in the pursuance of their regular occupations. These records shall be forwarded to the inspection department within one month from the time the accident occurs. [L. '17, p. 137, § 72.]

§ 8708. Matters of Which Inspector must be Notified.

In addition to the foregoing, immediate notice must be conveyed to the state inspection department by the management of the operating company interested: (1) Whenever a new mine is opened; (2) Whenever it is intended to abandon any mine or to reopen an abandoned mine; (3) When the workings of any mine are approaching any abandoned mine believed to contain any accumulation of water or gas; (4) Upon the accidental closing or abandonment of any regularly established passageway to an escapement outlet; (5) Upon the occurrence of any serious fire within the same; (6) When any unusual amount of or accumulation of gas is encountered; (7) Whenever any person is seriously burned by the ignition of explosive gas. [L. '17, p. 138, § 73.]

§ 8709. Superintendent as Mine Foreman.

It shall be unlawful for the operator to have the superintendent to act as mine foreman, unless the superintendent holds a certificate of competency as a mine foreman issued by the state board of examiners. [L. '17, p. 138, § 74.]

§ 8710. Temporary Mine Foreman.

It shall be unlawful for the operator of any mine to have in his service as mine foreman any person who does not hold a certificate of competency as mine foreman issued by the state board of examiners. Anyone holding a first-class certificate may serve as a mine foreman: Provided, that whenever an exigency arises by which it is impossible for any operator to secure the immediate services of a certificated mine foreman, he may employ any trustworthy and experienced man to act as temporary mine foreman for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days, and in the event that no person possessing [possessing] a certificate of competency satisfactory to the mine superintendent can be found to fill the position, then the mine inspector may grant a temporary certificate to some person he may deem qualified, who may then fill the position until thirty (30) days from and after the next meeting of the board of examiners held for the purpose of granting certificates. [L. '17, p. 138, § 75.]

§ 8711. Temporary Assistant Foreman.

It shall be unlawful for the operator of any mine to have in his employ as assistant mine foreman or fire boss any person who does not hold a first or second class certificate of competency issued by the board of examiners: But, provided, that whenever any exigency arises by which it is impossible for any operator to secure the immediate services of a certificated man, he may employ any trustworthy and experienced man for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days, and in the event that no person possessing a certificate of competency satisfactory to the mine superintendent can be found to fill the position, then the mine inspector may grant a temporary certificate to some person he may deem qualified, who may then fill the position until thirty (30) days from and after the next meeting of the board of examiners held for the purpose of granting certificates. [L. '17, p. 139, § 76.]

§ 8712. Certificated Foreman for Underground Operations.

Underground operations shall be under the charge of a person holding a first-class certificate under this act: Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to prospecting or exploring work where less than ten (10) men are employed underground at any one time, unless the mine inspector, by written notice served on the management of such mine, requires such mine to be under the control of a certificated mine foreman. [L. '17, p. 139, § 77.]

§ 8713. Change of Name of Mine.

The operator or superintendent of every mine shall, within thirty (30) days, send notice to the mine inspector when any change occurs in the name of a mine, under the provisions of this act. [L. '17, p. 139, § 78.]

§ 8714. Operating Without Foreman—Penalty.

If any mine is worked for more than thirty (30) days without a foreman as required by this act, the operator of such mine shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) for every day during which such mine is worked: Provided, however, that one foreman may act as foreman at more than one mine operated by the same company in the same camp. [L. '17, p. 139, § 79.]

§ 8715. Steam Boiler Inspections.

All boilers used for generating steam in and about coal mines must be inspected by a qualified person once in every six months, or oftener if required by the mine inspector. The result of such inspection shall be certified in writing to the mine inspector within thirty (30) days thereafter, on blank furnished by the mine inspection department.

Failure to make such reports shall constitute a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 140, § 80.]

§ 8716. Boiler Safety Devices.

Every boiler must be equipped with water-glasses, trycocks, steam gauge, safety valves and such other safety devices as may be required by law. All such devices must be kept in proper adjustment and their condition inspected and reported on in the same manner as provided for the boiler inspection. [L. '17, p. 140, § 81.]

§ 8717. Permit for Locating Boilers Near Shaft.

In the case of mines being developed where ten men or less are employed on one shift, the mine inspector shall, upon request of the operator, issue a written permit authorizing the placing temporarily of a boiler or boilers nearer than seventy-five (75) feet to a shaft, slope or other opening. [L. '17, p. 140, § 82.]

§ 8718. Duty to Test Boiler Safety Devices.

The engineer or fireman in charge of a boiler or boilers shall keep a constant watch over all safety devices and shall try same frequently to determine their proper adjustment. He shall immediately notify his employer of any defect. [L. '17, p. 140, § 83.]

§ 8719. Wash-house—Fees for Installation.

Whenever sixty per cent of the employees of a coal mine in this state shall petition the operator of such mine to provide a suitable wash-house for their use, and shall enter into an agreement with such operator to pay for the interest on the cost, for the depreciation, maintenance and operation of such building a reasonable fee of not to exceed one dollar ($1) per month per employee, for the use thereof, such operator shall provide a suitable building which shall be convenient to the principal entrance to the mine or group of mines to be used as a wash-house, changing and drying-room for the employees of the mine. Such building or wash-house to have sufficient floor space for the accommodation of miners and others using the same. The flooring in such wash-house to be of concrete tiling or cement, and the flooring in changing-room to be optional with the owner as to the material used. Lockers or some other arrangement shall be put in the changing-room for the use of employees using same, and shower-baths shall be provided in the wash-room, one for each twenty (20) men employed on one shift. The operator shall furnish an attendant to look after the operation, ventilation, drying of clothes, and sanitary conditions of the wash-house and changing-rooms, the reasonable cost of which shall be paid by the employees as a part of the maintenance and operation of the building.

This section shall not apply to mines where less than twenty (20) men are employed, or to mines under development which are not on a permanent operating basis. [L. '17, p. 140, § 84.]

§ 8720. Fire Protection—Automatic Sprinklers.

At each and every coal mine in this state the owner or operator thereof shall, within three (3) months after this act goes into effect, provide and maintain in good condition efficient means of protection against fire at the following places, to wit: Main entrance to hoisting shafts, slopes, permanent escapeways and ventilating fans on surface; also at all underground stables, pump-rooms, hoists of more than fifty (50) horsepower, and ventilating fans delivering more than ten thousand (10,000) cubic feet of air per minute. Said means of fire protection shall consist of sufficient chemical extinguishers of approved type, or of proper hydrants, hose not less than one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) inch internal diameter, with suitable connections and nozzles, and pipe-lines of not less than two (2) inches internal diameter, to convey water at a pressure of not less than twenty-five (25) pounds per square inch from an adequate supply of each of the aforementioned places.

At mines where open flame lamps are used at all main landings for a distance of two hundred (200) feet from the shaft or slope in all stables, pump-rooms, or hoist-rooms, that are timbered, or where timber is used in such quantities that a fire would be likely to spread, there shall be maintained two lines of automatic sprinklers on each side of the passageway attached to not less than one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) inch pipes connected with the fire-fighting water supply, and such sprinklers shall not be more than ten (10) feet apart.

All automatic sprinklers shall be of the fusible plug type and shall not require a temperature of more than one hundred and sixty-five (165) degrees Fahrenheit to release the water. [L. '17, p. 141, § 85.]

§ 8721. Timber for Props.

The owner or operator of any coal mine shall provide a sufficient supply of timber at any such mine where the same is required for use as props, so that the workmen may at all times be able to properly secure their working places, and it shall be the duty of the owner or operator to send down into the mine all such props, the same to be delivered at the entrance to the working place, or as may be agreed upon between the employees and the operator. [L. '17, p. 142, § 86.]

§ 8722. Sales or Leases Reported to Inspector.

Any mine owner transferring any coal mine shall immediately report such sale or lease to the mine inspector, giving the name or the names of the purchaser, purchasers, or lessee, and the address or addresses of the same. The purchaser, purchasers, or lessee of any such coal mine shall also immediately report to the mine inspector giving the names of the officers and superintendent of such coal mine, with their addresses. [L. '17, p. 142, § 87.]

§ 8723. Accidents and Explosions—Coroner's Inquests—Investigation by Inspector.

Whenever by reason of any explosion or any other accident in or about any coal mine, whereby loss of life or serious injury has occurred, or is thought to have occurred, it shall be the duty of the person having charge of the mine to give notice thereof to the mine inspector by telephone or telegraph, and if any person is killed thereby, to the coroner of the county, who shall give due notice to the mine inspector if an inquest is to be held. If the coroner shall determine to hold an inquest, the mine inspector shall be allowed to testify and offer such testimony as he shall deem necessary to thoroughly inform the said inquest of the cause of death, and the said inspector shall have authority at any time to appear before such coroner and jury and question or cross-question any witness, and in choosing a jury for the purpose of holding such inquest it shall be the duty of the coroner to impanel a jury no one of whom shall be directly or indirectly interested. It shall be the duty of the mine inspector upon being notified as herein provided, to immediately repair to the scene of the accident and make such suggestions as may appear necessary to secure the safety of the men, and if the results of the explosion or accident do not require an investigation by the coroner, he shall proceed to investigate and ascertain the cause of the explosion or accident, and make a record thereof which he shall file as provided for, and to enable him to make the investigation he shall have the power to compel the attendance of persons to testify, and administer oaths or affirmations. The cost of such investigation shall be paid by the county in which the accident occurred, in the same manner as costs of inquests held by coroners or justices of the peace are paid, and copies of evidence taken at inquests shall be furnished the mine inspector. [L. '17, p. 142, § 88.]

§ 8724. Steampipes to be Encased in Asbestos.

No steampipes, through which high pressure steam is conveyed for the purpose of driving pumps or other machinery, shall be laid on traveling or haulage ways, unless they are encased in asbestos or some other suitable material, or so placed that the radiation of heat into the atmosphere of the mine will be prevented as far as possible. [L. '17, p. 143, § 89.]

§ 8725. Steam Locomotives in Mines.

When a steam locomotive is used for the purpose of hauling coal out of a mine, the tunnel or tunnels through which the locomotive passes shall be properly ventilated and kept free as far as practicable of noxious gases. The use of steam locomotives shall be prohibited in any mines opened in the state after the passage of this act, or in mines already opened that are not now using the same. [L. '17, p. 143, § 90.]

§ 8726. Excessive Coal Dust—Protection Against Explosion.

In any mine or part of mine where, from the nature of the coal or method of handling the same, an undue quantity of dust is produced either on the roadways or in the working places, which may tend to cause danger of explosion, then all the haulage ways leading thereto and all the haulage roads and working places in such section of the mine, shall be thoroughly and effectively watered by some recognized and approved system of watering, or other treatment equivalent to watering. If, in the opinion of the inspector, an undue quantity of dust is produced and the method employed is not adequate or effective, he may notify the manager in writing and proceed as provided for in section 8644, article II: Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any mine or separate split or panel of such mine if no explosives are permitted and safety lamps are used in such separate part of the mine, unless in the opinion of the inspector this exemption would be dangerous to the persons employed in such section or part of the mine. [L. '17, p. 144, § 91.]

§ 8727. Stables in Mines—Storage of Hay and Straw—Lining of Pump-rooms.

It shall not be lawful to provide a horse or mule stable in any mine unless the same is excavated in solid rock, or built or thoroughly lined with a fireproof material; and all openings to such stables shall be equipped with fireproof doors, free from all obstruction, which can be closed in case of fire.

No hay or straw shall be taken into any mine unless pressed and made up into compact bales, which shall be kept in a storehouse built apart from the stable and in the same manner as the stable. Under no circumstances shall the hay or straw be stored in the stable.

All permanent underground pump-rooms must be thoroughly lined with fireproof material, unless the same are excavated in solid rock. [L. '17, p. 144, § 92.]

§ 8728. Weighing Coal Before Screening.

It shall be unlawful for any mine owner, lessee or operator of coal mines in the state of Washington, employing miners at ton rates, to pass the output of coal mined by said miners over any screen or other device which will take any part from the value thereof before the same shall have been duly weighed and credited to the employee sending the same to the surface, and accounted for at the legal rate of weights as fixed by the laws of the state of Washington. [L. '17, p. 144, § 93.]

§ 8729. Equipment of Escapement Shafts—Signboards.

All escapement shafts or slopes over thirty (30) degrees pitch shall be equipped with stairways or ladders having landing places or platforms at reasonable distances apart or, in lieu thereof, such hoisting apparatus as will enable the employees in the mine to make safe and speedy exit in case of danger. At all points where the passageway to the escapement shaft and other places of exit is intersected by other roadways or entries, conspicuous signboards, subject to the approval of the mine inspector shall be placed indicating the direction it is necessary to take in order to reach such place of exit. [L. '17, p. 145, § 94.]

§ 8730. Width of Barrier Pillars.

The operator of every coal mine shall leave barrier pillars at least fifty (50) feet in width along the line of the property he operates; failure to do so shall constitute a gross misdemeanor and he shall be subject to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1000), or imprisonment of not less than six months: Provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as forbidding owners or operators of adjacent properties from extracting all the coal after they have agreed that same might be done. [L.'17, p. 145, § 95.]

§ 8731. Operator's Reports—Annual and Monthly.

On or before the twenty-fifth day of January in each year, the operator or superintendent of every mine shall send to the office of the state mine inspector a correct report specifying with respect to the year ending the thirty-first day of December preceding, containing the following:

Name of company
Postoffice address

Officers	Name	Address
President
Manager
General superintendent
Mining engineer Superintendent
General foreman
Outside foreman
Inside mine foreman
Location of mine
On what railroad
Principal market
Average value of coal per short ton at mine
Average value of coke per short ton at mine
Price paid per gross ton for mining
Are wages paid monthly or semi-monthly
Number of feet of gangway or entry driven
Also number of feet of slope or shaft driven or sunk during year
Scale of wages paid above ground
Scale of wages paid under ground in the different classes

A report of ventilating and other important machinery installed during the year.

A report of new openings.

On or before the last day in each month, or as soon thereafter as possible to compile such data, the operator or superintendent shall also furnish the state mine inspector with a monthly report relative to the month preceding, containing the following information:

Name of company
 Name or number of mine
 Location of mine
 County

REPORT IN SHORT TONS.

No. tons of coal shipped
 No. sold to employees and local trade
 No. used for power
 No. charged into ovens for coke
 Total production of coal
 Total production of coke
 No. days operated
 No. inside employees
 No. outside employees
 No. killed
 No. injured
 No. widows
 No. orphans

The operator or the superintendent who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 145, § 96.]

§ 8732. Shelter Holes.

The operator shall provide that all mechanical haulage roads, driven after this act takes effect, where separate traveling ways are not maintained, where general clearance is less than two and one-half (2½) feet on one side shall be provided with shelter holes not more than sixty (60) feet apart, giving clearance not less than three (3) feet wide and four (4) feet high along the road. They shall be kept whitewashed. [L. '17, p. 147, § 97.]

§ 8733. Safeguarding Machinery and Stairways.

All machinery used in or about any mine that when in motion would be dangerous to persons coming in contact therewith, such as engines, wheels, screens, shafting, gears and belting, shall be guarded by covering or railing to prevent persons from walking or falling against same. All sides of stairs, trestles and platforms around mines shall be provided with hand and guard railing to prevent persons from falling over the sides. [L. '17, p. 147, § 98.]

ARTICLE IX. DUTIES OF OFFICIALS.

§ 8734. Superintendent's Duties.

The superintendent shall, at least once every week, read, examine carefully and countersign all reports entered in the mine record book by the mine foreman, and if he finds on such examination that the law is being violated in any particular, he shall order the mine foreman to stop such violation forthwith, and shall see that his order is complied with. [L. '17, p. 147, § 99.]

§ 8735. Supervision of Officials.

The superintendent shall not obstruct the mine foreman or other officials in the fulfillment of any of their duties, as required by this act, but he shall direct that the mine foreman and all other employees under him comply with the law in all its provisions. [L. '17, p. 147, § 100.]

§ 8736. Visits to Working Places.

It shall be the duty of every mine superintendent to visit, or to have his assistant superintendent visit every working place in every mine under his charge once every sixty (60) days: Provided, that the mine foreman shall not be considered as the assistant to the superintendent for this purpose. [L. '17, p. 148, § 101.]

§ 8737. Operator's Duties.

The operator shall keep on hand at the mine a supply of the printed rules and notices and record books required by this act. He shall see that the rules and notices are posted in conspicuous places at or near the entrance to the mine and kept in such condition that they will always be legible. [L. '17, p. 148, § 102.]

§ 8738. Foreman's Duties.

The mine foreman shall keep a careful watch over the ventilating apparatus, the ventilation, airways, traveling-ways, timbering and drainage, and shall see that all stoppings along the airways are properly built. He shall also see that the proper crosscuts or breakthroughs are made in the pillars of all chutes, breasts, rooms, gangways, entries and levels, in accordance with this act, and that they are closed when necessary so that the ventilating current can be conducted in sufficient quantities through the last crosscut or breakthrough and to the working places by means of brattices or other devices, and all other duties pertaining to the safety of the men, as provided for in this act. [L. '17, p. 148, § 103.]

§ 8739. Charge of Workings and Employees.

The mine foreman shall have charge of all inside workings and of the persons employed therein, in order that all of the provisions of this act as far as they relate to his duties concerning the safety of the mine and the persons employed therein be complied with, and the regulations prescribed for each class of workmen under his charge be carried out in the strictest manner possible. [L. '17, p. 148, § 104.]

§ 8740. Daily Record of Condition of Mine—Countersigning Fire Boss' Book.

The mine foreman shall each day write and sign with ink in a book provided for that purpose, a report of the general condition of the mine, which report shall clearly state any unusual danger that may have come under his observation during the day, or any unusual danger reported to him by his assistants, or by the fire bosses. The report shall also state the manner in which the requirements of the law are not complied with.

He, or his assistant, shall also once each week enter plainly with ink in said book a true report of all air measurements required by this act, designating the place, the area of each breakthrough and entry separately, the velocity of the air in each breakthrough and entry, and the number of men employed in each separate split of air, with the date when measurements were taken. Said book shall at all times be kept in the main office at the mine for examination by the inspector and by any persons working in the mine. Such examinations made by others than inspectors shall be in the presence of the superintendent or mine foreman.

The mine foreman shall also each day read carefully and countersign in ink all reports entered in the fire bosses' book. [L. '17, p. 148, § 105.]

§ 8741. Drill in Use of Escapements.

In order that men may familiarize themselves with escapements to be used in case of accidents, it shall be the duty of the mine foreman to cause all miners and other underground employees to walk or climb to or from their working places to the surface by way of one of the traveling-ways, escapements, or outlets, at least once every six months. [L. '17, p. 149, § 106.]

§ 8742. Posting Danger Signs—Interrupted Ventilation.

When operations are temporarily suspended in a mine, the mine foreman shall see that a danger sign is placed across the mine entrance, which sign shall be sufficient warning for persons not to enter the mine. If the circulation of air through the mine is stopped, each entrance to said mine shall be fenced off in such manner as will ordinarily prevent persons from entering said mine, and a danger sign shall be displayed upon said fence at each entrance. The mine foreman shall see that all danger signs used at the mine are in good condition, and if they become defective he shall cause same to be repaired, or notify the superintendent.

In case of accident to a ventilating fan or its machinery whereby the ventilation in a mine is, or is about to be seriously interrupted, the mine foreman shall order the men to withdraw immediately from the mine, and he shall not allow them to return to their work until the ventilation has been restored and the mine has been thoroughly examined by him, or by an assistant mine foreman or fire boss, and reported safe.

In case the operation of the ventilating fan is stopped at a gaseous mine because of the suspension of the operations in the mine, the mine foreman shall not allow the men employed therein to enter the mine until the ventilation has been restored by the operation of the fan for at least twelve hours and the mine has been thoroughly examined by him, or by an assistant mine foreman or fire boss, and reported safe. [L. '19, p. 706, § 5; L. '17, p. 149, § 107.]

§ 8743. Removal of Dangerous Conditions—Weekly Examination.

Whenever any dangerous condition is known to exist, or is reported by others to the mine foreman, he shall give prompt attention to its removal, and in case it is impracticable to remove the danger at once, he shall notify every person whose safety is menaced thereby to remain away from the place that the dangerous conditions affect. He or his assistant shall once each week travel and examine all the air courses and traveling-ways, and in addition all the openings that give access to old workings or falls. He shall record and sign in ink in a book provided for that purpose the results of these weekly examinations. [L. '17, p. 150, § 108.]

§ 8744. Precautions Against Gas and Water.

In any working place that is being driven within supposedly dangerous proximity to an abandoned mine suspected of containing explosive gases, or that may contain a dangerous accumulation of water, the mine foreman shall see that at least one bore hole shall be maintained not less than twenty (20) feet in advance of the face; and in a seam of coal on either side of the bore hole, flank holes shall be driven not less than twelve (12) feet in advance, and any place driven to tap water or gas shall not be more than eight (8) feet wide. [L. '17, p. 150, § 109.]

§ 8745. Checking Fire Bosses.

The mine foreman shall see as often as practicable, that the fire boss has left his mark, as required by this act, in places examined or reported examined. [L. '17, p. 150, § 110.]

§ 8746. Visits to Each Shaft.

The mine foreman, his assistant, or fire boss, shall visit each working place once each shift while the employees are at work, and in addition thereto shall give special care, oversight and attention to the men drawing pillars. [L. '17, p. 150, § 111.]

§ 8747. Care of Injured Workmen.

It shall be the duty of the mine foreman, or his assistant, in case of injury to employees while at work in the mine, to at once visit the scene of the accident, see that the injured person or persons are given all the aid that can possibly be given which will add to their comfort and safety. After being treated with all the skill known to the foreman or his assistant, the injured person or persons shall be carefully wrapped up and taken to their homes or the hospital. [L. '17, p. 151, § 112.]

§ 8748. Duties of Fire Boss.

It shall be the duty of the fire boss to examine carefully not more than three (3) hours before a first shift enters the mine, every working place in his charge in which men have not been employed at the working face within ninety (90) minutes previous to the starting time of such shift all open places adjacent to live workings, and every unfenced road to abandoned workings. He shall see that the air current is traveling in its proper course. In making the examination he shall use no other than an approved safety lamp. The fire boss shall examine for all dangers in all portions of the mine under his charge, and after each examination he shall leave at or near the working face of every place examined the date of the examination as evidence that he has performed his duty. [L. '17, p. 151, § 113.]

§ 8749. Danger Signs for Explosive Gas.

At the entrance to and in crosscuts or breakthroughs to any working place where explosive gas is discovered or where there is immediate danger found to exist from any other cause, the fire boss shall place a danger sign, which shall be sufficient warning for persons not to enter.

The danger sign shall consist of a lagging, board or piece of timber, or other obstruction, placed across the entrance to the working place, and in crosscuts and breakthroughs open to such working place, so that it is distinctly visible and marked plainly showing that danger exists beyond. [L. '17, p. 151, § 114.]

§ 8750. Discoveries of Gas Bulletined—Office Record.

Each fire boss shall, immediately after making his inspection and before the employees are allowed to enter the mine, report on a bulletin board provided for that purpose at the entrance to the mine, a true record of such inspection, designating each place where gas is found, also that all other places are clear. A like report of such inspection shall immediately be made by the fire boss, with ink, in a book kept for that purpose at the mine office on the surface, and in addition shall set forth the time of the inspection, the reason for the presence of any danger found, the means taken and by whom for the removal of same. If explosive gas is found the report shall show as near as possible the amount found, and time the place was clear. The fire bosses' record shall, at all times, be accessible to the mine inspector or his deputy, and to the employees of the mine in the presence of a mine official. The fire boss, mine foreman, or his assistant must re-examine all places in which gas is reported in advance of employees working in such places. After making such examination he shall personally direct the removal of said gas or other danger. Gas shall not be removed by brushing. [L. '17, p. 152, § 115.]

§ 8751. Employment of Skilled Shot-firers.

In all parts of a mine where explosive gas is being generated, or dust exists in such quantities as to be dangerous or liable to cause an explosion from blowout or windy shots, there shall be employed a sufficient number of competent persons to act as shot-firers, whose duty it shall be to fire all shots properly placed by the miners, and refuse to fire any shots improperly placed. No blasts in such part of a mine shall be fired by any other person than a shot-firer, fire boss or foreman. Incombustible material for tamping must be used for that purpose, and the mine foreman shall supply same at convenient places inside the mine. Under no circumstances shall coal dust or any other combustible material be used for tamping. Each shot firer shall report to the fire boss, mine foreman, or his assistant, every shot that he has refused to fire, every blown out shot, and every shot that has missed fire, and a record shall be kept of same. [L. '17, p. 152, § 116.] .

§ 8752. Shot-firing.

No shot-firer or any other person shall fire a shot in any working place if he can detect explosive gas in the place. In dusty mines no shot shall be fired unless the place in which the shot is to be fired is thoroughly wetted or otherwise treated to prevent the existence of any dust for a distance of not less than one hundred (100) feet from the shot to be fired. [L. '17, p. 153, § 117.]

ARTICLE X. MINE RESCUE EQUIPMENT.

§ 8753. Rescue and Reviving Apparatus — Supplies — Monthly Examination and Reports.

Within one year after this act goes into effect, every mine employing as many as twenty (20) underground men, shall have and maintain ready for use at all times, at least three (3) sets of mine rescue apparatus, and one reviving device, of a type approved by the United States bureau of mines.

For each one hundred (100) underground men in addition to the first twenty (20), one additional apparatus shall be maintained, up to six (6) sets.

At every mine where mine rescue equipment is maintained, supplies for same shall be kept on hand to last at least twenty-four (24) hours. The superintendent of the mine, or some person designated by him for that purpose, shall examine each apparatus once each month and report the condition of same, also the amount of supplies on hand at the time of such examination. This report shall be made in writing by the person making the examination and a record of same shall be kept at the mine office and shall be accessible to the mine inspector or his deputy at all times.

Whenever two or more mines are operated by the same company within a radius of seven (7) miles, they shall be considered as one mine. However, mines within a radius of seven (7) miles and connected by a wagon road or railroad, may agree to equip and maintain one central station at which there shall not be less than six (6) apparatuses and one reviving device; when more than four (4) mines are associated at one central station, an additional machine must be added. [L. '17, p. 153, § 118.]

§ 8754. Stretchers.

The operator or superintendent of every mine employing from five (5) to fifty (50) persons, shall provide and keep in good condition near the principal entrance to the mine, one stretcher. When more than fifty (50) persons are employed, they shall keep at least two stretchers. These stretchers shall be used for conveying to his abode, or to the hospital if necessary, any person who may be injured while in the discharge of his duties. [L. '17, p. 154, § 119.]

§ 8755. Blankets.

Suitable woolen blankets shall be kept on hand for each stretcher. [L. '17, p. 154, § 120.]

§ 8756. Bandages, Splints and Medical Supplies.

At all times there shall be provided bandages, splints, and other medical supplies, to render first aid and relief to employees who may be injured. These supplies shall be kept in a suitable room near the entrance to the mine. [L. '17, p. 154, § 121.]

§ 8757. First Aid Supplies.

At each working level, or entry, of every mine in this state, the operating company shall maintain a box of first aid supplies equivalent to the American Red Cross (industrial) first aid box. If these boxes are kept locked, the keys shall always be near at hand and plainly visible. Such keys may be kept under glass as a fire alarm box key is kept. Additional keys may be given to employees selected by the mine foreman on each level or working section of the mine. The foreman shall keep a list of those who have keys in their possession posted on the (industrial) first aid box nearest their working places. In addition to the above first aid boxes, the operating company of each mine shall furnish each driver or motorman with a metallic covered packet equivalent to those sold by the American Red Cross. At all times when they are underground or at their respective places of employment, said drivers or motormen shall have the metallic packets in their possession. Failure of the operator to provide the supplies required by this section shall constitute a misdemeanor. Any person destroying or stealing any of the first aid supplies shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 154, § 122.]

ARTICLE XI. POWDER AND EXPLOSIVES.§ 8758. Safeguarding Explosives.

Every person who has powder or other explosives in a mine shall keep the same in a proper, closed receptacle. Said receptacle shall be kept as far as practicable from the track or chute; and all powder receptacles shall be kept as far as practicable from each other, and each in a secluded place. Detonators shall at all times be kept in securely closed cases separate and apart from other explosives, until required for use. [L. '17, p. 155, § 123.]

§ 8759. Use of Lamps and Lighted Pipes Near Explosives—Opening Receptacles.

Whenever a workman using an open light is about to open a receptacle containing explosives, and while handling the explosives, he shall place and keep his lamp at least five (5) feet distant from said explosive and in such position that the air currents cannot convey sparks to it, and at such time no person shall approach nearer than five (5) feet to any explosive with an open lamp, lighted pipe, or anything containing fire, except safety lamps, unless such explosive is contained in a proper closed receptacle. No miner, workman, or other person shall open any receptacle containing an explosive except in the manner prescribed by the manufacturer thereof, and it shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession in any mine any receptacle containing explosives which has been opened in violation of this act. [L. '17, p. 155, § 124.]

§ 8760. High Explosives.

No high explosive shall be stored in any mine and no more shall be taken into any mine at any one time, by any person, than is required in one shift. The quantity used shall be subject to the approval of the mine inspector. [L. '17, p. 155, § 125.]

§ 8761. Firing Dependent Shots—Permit.

No person shall fire a dependent shot in the coal as hereinafter defined. A dependent shot is a shot dependent on another shot so placed as to make an opening sufficient for the dependent shot to do its work properly. At mines where solid shooting is allowed the opening shot shall be fired first and no dependent shot shall be fired at that time. In no case shall more than one kind of explosive be used in the same drill hole: Provided, that in any mine where the coal bed worked is less than three (3) feet between walls and no gas or dust is present, where it can be shown to the satisfaction of the mine inspector that the above rule would prohibit the operating company to mine the coal at a profit, the mine inspector may grant him a permit to suit his conditions. [L. '17, p. 155, § 126.]

§ 8762. Black Powder, How Handled.

Black powder for use in mines shall be put up in metallic cans or canisters, or receptacles of equally safe material. No black powder, high explosive, or detonators shall be hauled on any electric motor trip in any mine, unless the same are encased in nonconductive boxes or receptacles: Provided, that they may be hauled in nonconductive car.

No black powder, other than that taken by each man for his own use, shall be hauled on man trips. [L. '17, p. 156, § 127.]

§ 8763. Tamping Bars—Depth of Blast Holes.

The needle used in preparing a blast of black powder shall be made of copper, and the tamping bar shall be tipped with at least five (5) inches of solid copper. All other explosives where a cap or detonator is used for the purpose of exploding the blast, shall be tamped with a wooden tamping bar. In no case shall iron or steel or other metal that is liable to cause a spark while tamping, be used for the purpose of tamping any explosive. Neither shall a scraper be used for tamping. It shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession in the mine underground, any iron or steel needle or tamping bar not tipped as above required.

No hole shall be drilled more than six (6) feet in depth for the purpose of blasting: Provided, however, that where mining machines are used holes may be drilled to the depth of the cut.

Any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor and the offender shall be punished under the provisions of this act. [L. '17, p. 156, § 128.]

§ 8764. Storage of Explosives—Issuance to Workmen.

Each person, firm or corporation, engaged in coal mining, requiring the use of powder or other explosives, shall provide (subject to the approval of the mine inspector) at or near the entrance of each coal mine operated, at some suitable place near such work, a suitable distributing magazine for the storage of such powder or other explosives. There shall be posted upon such magazine a notice printed in letters not less than three (3) inches in height, that such magazine contains explosives. No person shall store or keep in any magazine mentioned in this section, any powder or other explosive in excess of one ton. Such powder or other explosives shall be issued daily in quantities not to exceed the amount used by each workman in one shift, in proper receptacles. Any miner taking powder into the mine and having to return the same on account of not being able to work, may return the same to the operator and the operator shall receive it. Any person or corporation violating or failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 157, § 129.]

§ 8765. Penalty for Keeping Explosives in Residence or Outhouse.

Any person who shall store or keep any powder or other explosive in any quantity greater than one pound in any occupied dwelling-house or residence, or in any outhouse appertaining thereto, within three hundred (300) feet of any dwelling, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 157, § 130.]

ARTICLE XII. SAFETY LAMPS.§ 8766. Safety Lamps to be Used—Examination.

In every working of a coal mine approaching any place where there is likely to be an accumulation of explosive gases, or in any working place where there is imminent danger from explosive gases, no light or lamp other than a magnetic locked safety lamp or electric lamp shall be allowed or used, except by superintendents, shotlighters or other certified men, who may use such lamps as may be approved by the mine inspector.

Whenever safety lamps are required in any mine they shall be the property of the owner of said mine, and a competent person who shall be appointed for that purpose shall examine every safety lamp immediately before it is taken into the workings for use and ascertain it to be clean, safe and securely locked; and safety lamps shall not be used until they have been examined and found safe, clean and securely locked. [L. '17, p. 157, § 131.]

§ 8767. Open Lights.

At mines where the danger from explosive gas requires the use of safety lamps, no open lights shall be used in that part or district of the mine where safety lamps are in use. [L. '17, p. 158, § 132.]

§ 8768. Tampering With Lamps or Using Other Lighting Devices—Penalty.

In any mine where locked safety lamps are used, any person other than those authorized by this act, opening or tampering with one of said safety lamps, or found with matches or any lighting device other than safety lamps, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof he shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), or imprisonment for a term of not more than one year: Provided, however, this shall not prohibit the use of any flame used in making repairs to any machinery or wires when such repairs are made on the intake air. [L. '17, p. 158, § 133.]

§ 8769. Failure to Use Safety Lamps—Penalty.

For the violation of any provisions of sections 8766 and 8767, the operator or employee of any mine shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof may be fined in any sum not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), and in addition thereto the mine inspector shall have authority and it shall be his duty to close such mine until the provisions of this act shall be complied with. [L. '17, p. 158, § 134.]

§ 8770. Appeals to Mining Board—Number of Lamps.

The operator of any mine may appeal to the mining board when in his judgment the order of the mine inspector to place a mine on safety lamps is unreasonable. The decision of the board shall be final.

At every mine in this state the operator shall provide and maintain in condition for use, not less than four (4) approved safety lamps. [L. '17, p. 158, § 135.]

ARTICLE XIII. SHAFT SINKING.

§ 8771. Shaft Driving to be Inspected.

Any shaft or other opening in process of opening or driving for the purpose of mining coal shall be subject to the inspection of the mine inspector. [L. '17, p. 159, § 136.]

§ 8772. Prevention of Falling Material.

Over every shaft that is being sunk, or that shall hereafter be sunk, there shall be a safe and substantial structure erected to support the sheaves or pulleys at a height of not less than twenty-five (25) feet above the tipping place. The landing platform of such shaft shall be so arranged that material cannot fall down the shaft while the bucket is being emptied or taken from the hoisting rope. If provisions are made to land the bucket on a truck, said truck and platform shall be so arranged that material cannot fall into the shaft. [L. '17, p. 159, § 137.]

§ 8773. Hoisting Methods.

Rock or coal shall not be hoisted except in a bucket or on a cage when men are in the bottom of a shaft, and said bucket or cage must be connected to the hoisting rope by a safety hook or clevis or other safety attachment, and said bucket shall be so arranged that there will be no danger of its tipping over while the bucket is being hoisted or lowered. The rope shall be fastened to the side of the drum, and not less than three coils of rope shall always remain on the drum. In shafts over one hundred (100) feet in depth, such shafts shall be provided with guides and guide attachments applied in such manner as to prevent the bucket from swinging while descending or ascending, and such guide or guide attachment shall be maintained at a distance of not more than seventy-five (75) feet from the bottom of such shaft, until its sinking shall have been completed. [L. '17, p. 159, § 138.]

§ 8774. Shaft Platforms.

Whenever persons are employed on platforms in shafts the person in charge must see that said platforms are properly and safely constructed and secured. [L. '17, p. 159, § 139.]

§ 8775. Shaft Level to be Made Secure.

Where the strata are not safe, every shaft level shall be securely cased, lined, or otherwise made secure, and the person in charge shall see that all loose rock or other material on the sides of the shaft, or on the timber in the shaft, shall not be allowed to remain on said timber or sides of the shaft after each blast. [L. '17, p. 159, § 140.]

§ 8776. Examination for Gas—Blasts Exploded by Electric Battery.

Where explosive gas is encountered in sinking shafts, the person in charge shall see that the shaft is examined before each shift of men enters to work and before the men descend after each blast. All blasts in shaft sinking shall be exploded by an electric battery placed on the surface. [L. '17, p. 160, § 141.]

§ 8777. Ventilation.

Provisions shall be made for the proper ventilation of shafts while they are being sunk. [L. '17, p. 160, § 142.]

§ 8778. Restriction on Riding Buckets.

Not more than four (4) persons shall be hoisted or lowered in or on a bucket in a shaft at one time, and no person shall ride on a loaded bucket. [L. '17, p. 160, § 143.]

ARTICLE XIV. RULES FOR THE INSTALLATION OF ELECTRICITY.

§ 8779. Compliance With Rules—Definitions.

The operator, superintendent, or mine foreman in charge of any coal mine in which electricity is used as a means of power, shall, within six (6) months after the passage of this act, comply with the following rules:

DEFINITIONS.

Potential: The terms "potential" and "voltage" are synonymous and mean electrical pressure.

Difference of Potential: The expression "difference of potential" means the difference of electrical pressure existing between any two points of an electrical system, or between any point of such system and the earth, as determined by a volt meter.

Potential of a Circuit: The potential or voltage of a circuit, machine, or any piece of electrical apparatus, is the potential normally existing between the conductors of such circuit or the terminal of such machine or apparatus.

(a) Where the conditions of the supply of electricity are such that the difference in potential between any points of the circuit does not exceed three hundred (300) volts, the supply shall be deemed a low voltage supply.

(b) Where the conditions of the supply of electricity are such that the difference in the potential between any two points in the circuit may at any time exceed three hundred (300) volts, but does not exceed six hundred (600) volts, the supply shall be deemed a medium voltage supply.

(c) Where the conditions of the supply of electricity are such that the difference of potential between any two points in the circuit exceeds six hundred (600) volts, the supply shall be deemed a high voltage supply.

Grounding: Grounding any part of an electric system shall consist in so connecting such part to the earth that there shall be no difference of potential between them.

Underground Station: An underground station is herein considered as any place where electrical machinery is permanently installed. [L. '17, p. 160, § 144.]

§ 8780. Necessary Grounding.

All metallic coverings, armoring of cables other than trailing cables, and, where installed underground, the frames and bed-plates of generators, transformers and motors, other than low voltage portable motors, shall be efficiently grounded, as shall also the neutral wire of three wire continuous current systems. [L. '17, p. 161, § 145.]

§ 8781. Voltage in Underground Workings.

No higher voltage than medium voltage shall be used underground, except for transmission or for application to transformers, or other apparatus, in which the whole of the high voltage circuit is stationary.

In gaseous mines, high voltage transmission cables shall be installed in the intake airways only, and high voltage transformers shall be installed only in suitable chambers ventilated by the intake air which has not passed through or by a gaseous district.

All high voltage machines, apparatus, and lines shall be so marked as to clearly indicate that they are dangerous by the use of the word "danger" placed at frequent intervals. [L. '17, p. 161, § 146.]

§ 8782. Material Used in Switchboards.

Switchboards: Main and distribution switch and fuse boards, underground, shall be made of incombustible insulating material, such as marble or slate, free from metallic veins, and be fixed in as dry a situation as practicable. [L. '17, p. 162, § 147.]

§ 8783. Insulating Material.

Precaution Against Shock: Gloves or mats of rubber or other suitable insulating material shall be provided and used by persons so engaged when repairs are made to the live parts of any electrical apparatus, or when the live parts of electrical apparatus have to be handled for the purpose of adjustment. [L. '17, p. 162, § 148.]

§ 8784. Interference With Electrical System.

Any person who shall willfully damage, or, without authority, alter or make connection to any portion of a mine electrical system, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 162, § 149.]

§ 8785. Defects to be Reported.

Report of Defective Equipment: In the event of a breakdown, or of damage or injury to any portion of the electrical equipment of a mine, or of overheating, or of the appearance of sparks or arcs outside of inclosing casings, or in the event of any portion of the equipment, not a part of the electrical circuit, becoming alive, every such occurrence shall be promptly reported to the person in charge of the electrical equipment. [L. '17, p. 162, § 150.]

§ 8786. Installation of Equipment—Passageways at Switchboards—Entrances—Fire-extinguishers.

Underground Stations and Transformer Rooms: Switchboards: All switches, circuit-breakers, rheostats, fuses and instruments used in connection with underground motor-generators, rotary converters, high voltage motors, transformers, and low and medium voltage motors of more than fifty (50) horse-power capacity, shall be installed upon a suitable switchboard, or its equivalent. Similar equipment, for low and medium voltage motors of fifty (50) horse-power and less, may be separately installed if mounted upon installing bases of slate or equivalent insulating material.

In underground stations where switchboards are installed, there shall be a passageway in front of the switchboard not less than five (5) feet in width, and if there are any high voltage connections at the back of the switchboard, any passageway behind the switchboard shall not be less than three (3) feet clear.

Unauthorized Persons: No person other than one authorized by the mine foreman shall enter a station or transformer-room, or interfere with the workings of any apparatus connected therewith.

Fire Equipment: Fire equipment of an approved type shall be kept in electrical stations and transformer-rooms, ready for immediate use in extinguishing fires. [L. '17, p. 162, § 151.]

§ 8787. Insulation.

Transmission Circuits and Conductors: Power and Light Circuits: All high-pressure wires used inside of the mines shall be in the form of insulated, lead covered or armored conductors, subject to insulation tests, and with carrying capacity according to the rules of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Medium or low pressure conductors may be bare, except in gaseous portions of the mines, where they may be used only on intake air. No bare conductors shall be used in rooms, or beyond the last cut-through in intake entries. •

All underground cables and wires, other than trailing cables, unless provided with grounded or metallic covering, shall be supported by means of efficient insulators. Conductors connecting lamps to the power supply shall in all cases be insulated.

Main Circuits: Every main circuit coming from generating or transformer stations shall there be provided with switches, fuses or circuit breakers.

In any gaseous mine, or gaseous portion of a mine, the electrical supply shall be brought underground only through such portions of the mine as are ventilated by the intake air, unless in lead incased cables.

Grounded Circuits: One side of the grounded circuits shall be very effectively insulated from earth.

Underground Trolley: In underground roads the trolley wires shall be securely supported on hangers placed at such intervals that the sag between points of support shall not exceed three inches. The sag between points of support can exceed three inches if the height of the trolley wires above the rail is five (5) feet or more and does not touch the roof when the trolley passes under.

In underground haulage roads where the potential is higher than low voltage, all trolley or other bare power wires which are placed less than six and one-half ($6\frac{1}{2}$) feet above the top rail, shall be efficiently protected. This protection shall consist in placing boards along the wire, which shall extend below it, or the use of other approved devices that will afford the same protection: Provided, that this rule shall not apply to entries or gangways already driven where the height is less than five (5) feet above the lower rail.

All low pressure trolley wires must be guarded in front of loading chutes, slants, landings and partings where men are required to regularly work or pass under same.

All branch trolley lines shall be fitted with an automatic trolley switch or section insulator and line switch, or some other device that will allow the current to be shut off from such branch headings.

Joints in Conductors: All joints in conductors shall be mechanically and electrically efficient, and wherever it is possible to do so, they shall be soldered. Wherever the conductors cannot be soldered together, suitable screw clamps or connectors shall be used. All joints in insulated wire shall, after the joint is complete, be reinsulated to at least the same extent as the remainder of the wire.

Where lead covered or armored cable is used, the lead or armor shall be electrically continuous throughout and shall be efficiently grounded.

Cables Entering Fittings: The exposed end of cables where they enter fittings of any description, shall be so protected and finished off that moisture cannot enter the cable, or the insulating material, if of an oily or viscous nature, leak.

Where unarmored cables or wires pass through metal frames, or into boxes or motor casings, the holes shall be substantially bushed with insulating bushings, and, where necessary, with gas tight bushings which cannot readily become displaced.

Joints in Cables: Where cables other than signal cables are joined, suitable junction boxes shall be used, or the joints shall be soldered and the insulation, armoring, or lead covering replaced in at least as safe a condition as it was originally.

Power Wires and Cables in Shafts: All power wires and cables in hoisting shafts or manway compartments shall be highly insulated and substantially fixed in position.

Cables and wires, unless provided with metallic covering shall not be fixed to walls or timbers by means of insulated fastenings.

Trailing Cables: Trailing cables for portable machines shall be especially flexible, heavily insulated and protected with extra stout braiding, hose-pipes or other equally effective covering.

Each trailing cable in use shall be daily examined by the machine operator, for abrasions and other defects, and he shall also be required to carefully observe the trailing cable while in use, and shall at once report any defect to the person in charge of electrical equipment.

In gaseous portions of a mine a fixed terminal box shall be provided at the points where trailing cables are attached to the power supply. This terminal box shall be flameproof and shall contain a switch and fuse on each pole of the circuit. The switch shall be so arranged that it can be operated only from without the box, when the latter is completely closed, and the switch shall also be so constructed that the trailing cables cannot be attached or removed when the switch is closed. [L. '17, p. 163, § 152.]

§ 8788. Switches, Fuses and Circuit Breakers—Operation and Capacity.

Fuses and automatic circuit breakers shall be so constructed as effectually to interrupt the current on short circuit, or when the current through them exceeds a predetermined value.

Circuit breakers shall be adjusted to trip at from fifty (50) per centum to one hundred and fifty (150) per centum of their normal rating capacity, and provided with an indicator which shall show at what current the circuit breaker is set to trip.

Fuses shall be stamped or marked, or shall have a label attached indicating the maximum current which they are intended to carry. Fuses shall only be adjusted or replaced by a competent person authorized by the mine foreman.

Feeder Circuit Breakers: Circuit breakers used to protect feeder circuits shall be set to trip when the current exceeds by more than fifty (50) per centum the current carrying capacity of the feeder. In case the feeder is subject to overloads sufficient to trip the circuit breaker, but of short duration, the circuit breaker may be equipped with a device which shall prevent its acting unless the overload persists for a longer period than ten seconds.

Bases: All switches, circuit breakers and fuses shall have incombustible bases.

Switches: All points at which a circuit, other than a signal circuit, has to be made or broken, shall be provided with proper switches. The use of hooks or other makeshifts is prohibited, except that connection for gathering locomotives, or locomotives and machines used in driving headings or rooms, may be made to the trolley by means of suitable hooks, switches shall be so installed that they cannot be closed by gravity. In any gaseous portions of a mine switches, circuit breakers or fuses shall not be of the open type, but must be inclosed in explosion-proof castings, or break under oil. [L. '17, p. 165, § 153.]

§ 8789. Protection of Stationary Motors.

Every stationary motor underground, together with its starting resistance, shall be protected by a fuse or circuit breaking device on at least one pole for direct current, and all poles for alternating current motors, and by switches arranged to entirely cut off the power from the motor. The above devices shall be installed in a convenient position near the motor.

Motors in Gaseous Mines: In any gaseous portions of a mine all motors, unless placed in such rooms as are separately ventilated with intake air, shall have all their current carrying parts, also their starters, terminals and connections, completely closed in explosion-proof inclosures made of noninflammable materials. These inclosures shall not be opened except by an authorized person, and then only when the motor is switched off. The power shall not be switched on while the inclosures are open.

No coal-cutting machine shall be continued in operation in a gaseous portion of a mine for a longer period than half an hour without an examination being made for gas, and if the gas is found the current shall at once be switched off the machine, and the trailing cable shall be forthwith disconnected from the power supply.

The person finding gas shall at once report the fact to the fire boss or mine foreman, and the machine shall not again be started in such place until the fire boss, or a person duly authorized by the mine foreman has examined it and pronounced it safe.

The person in charge of a coal cutter or drilling machine shall not leave the machine while it is working, and shall, before leaving the working place, see that the current is cut off from the trailing cables.

In any gaseous portion of a mine if any electric sparking or arc be produced outside of a coal-cutting or other portable motor, or by the cable or rails, the machine shall be stopped and not worked again until the defect is repaired, and the occurrence shall be reported to an official of the mine.]L. '17, p. 166, § 154.]

§ 8790. Use of Electric Locomotives.

Electric Locomotives: Trolley System: Electric haulage by locomotives operated by a trolley wire is not permissible in any gaseous portion of a mine, except upon the intake air.

In no case shall the potential used in the trolley system be higher than medium voltage. In mines opened after the passage of this act, or mines that are now operating where electricity is not used, when the power is not taken from a station now operating at a mine now operating, the potential shall not be higher than low voltage.

Storage Battery System: Storage battery locomotives shall be used in gaseous mines only when the boxes containing the cells and all electrical parts are inclosed in flame-proof casings. [L. '17, p. 167, § 155.]

§ 8791. Incandescent Lamps.

In all mines the sockets of fixed incandescent lamps shall be of the so-called "weather-proof" type, the exterior of which shall be entirely nonmetallic. Flexible lamp cord connections are prohibited.

Incandescent lamps shall not be used in gaseous mines, except under the conditions where trolley locomotives are allowable. [L. '17, p. 168, § 156.]

§ 8792. Electric Shot-firing.

Shot-firing by Electricity: Shot-firing Circuits: Electricity from any grounded circuit shall not be used for firing shots.

When shot-firing cables or wires in the vicinity of power or lighting conductors, special precaution shall be taken to prevent the shot-firing cables or wires from coming in contact with the light, power or any other circuits.

Shot-firers: Only competent persons who have been properly instructed and duly authorized by the mine foreman shall be allowed to fire shots electrically in any mine.

Electric Detonators: All electric detonators and leads thereto shall be suitable for the conditions under which the blasting is carried on, and shall be of a type approved by the testing station of the federal bureau of mines. Detonators shall be kept in a dry place and never stored with any other explosives.

Portable Firing Machines and Batteries: Portable shot-firing machines, sometimes called generators, shall be inclosed in a tightly constructed case when employed in any portion of the mine. All contacts, when made or broken, shall be within the case except that the binding posts for making connections to the firing leads may be outside.

No firing machine or battery shall be connected to the shot-firing leads until all other steps preparatory to the firing of a shot have been completed, and all persons have moved to a place of safety, and no person other than the shot-firer shall make such connection.

Disconnecting of Leads: Immediately after the firing of a shot, the firing leads shall be disconnected from the supply or source of electricity, and no person shall approach a shot which has failed to explode until the firing leads have been so disconnected by the shot-firer from the device and an interval of five (5) minutes has elapsed since the last attempt to fire the shot.

Special Systems: The use of special electrical shot-firing systems, or equipment not covered by the foregoing, shall receive the approval of the testing station of the federal bureau of mines. [L. '17, p. 168, § 157.]

§ 8793. Signaling Equipment.

Electric Signalings: Precautions: All proper precautions shall be taken to prevent electric signals and telephone wires from coming into contact with the other electric conductors, whether insulated or not.

Character of Equipment: Bells, wires, insulators, contact-makers, and other apparatus used in connection with electric signaling underground, shall be of suitable design, of substantial and reliable construction, and erected in such a manner as to reduce the liability of failure or false signals to a minimum.

Maximum Potential: In any gaseous portion of a mine, the potential used for signal purposes shall not exceed twenty-four (24) volts, and bare wires shall not be used for signal circuits except in haulage roads. [L. '17, p. 169, § 158.]

ARTICLE XV. HOURS OF LABOR.

§ 8794. Eight Hour Day.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation operating any coal mine within the state of Washington, to cause any employee to remain at his place of work where the same is situated underground, for more than eight (8) hours, exclusive of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour for lunch, in any one calendar day of twenty-four (24) hours. Any person, firm or corporation, or agent of any person, firm or corporation, violating the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars (\$10) nor more than one hundred dollars (\$100) for each offense. [L. '17, p. 169, § 159.]

§ 8795. Penalty for Violation by Workmen.

It shall be unlawful for any person in the employ of any person, firm or corporation operating any coal mine within the state of Washington, to willfully remain at or in his working place, where the same shall be underground, to exceed eight (8) hours, exclusive of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour for lunch, in any one calendar day of twenty-four (24) hours. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five dollars (\$5) nor more than twenty dollars (\$20) for each offense. [L. '17, p. 170, § 160.]

§ 8796. Excepted Class of Employees—Necessary Extra Hours.

The provisions of sections 8794 and 8795 shall not apply to, or prohibit engineers, rope-riders, motormen, cagers or others necessarily employed in transporting men in and out of the mine.

Provided, however, that all persons so employed shall not work more than ten (10) hours in any one calendar day: And, provided further, that this act shall not be construed to prohibit extra hours of employment underground necessitated by a weekly change of shift, or where rendered necessary by reason of making unavoidable repairs, or for the protection of human life. [L. '17, p. 170, § 161.]

§ 8797. Enforcement.

It shall be the duty of the mine inspector to enforce the provisions of this article. [L. '17, p. 170, § 162.]

ARTICLE XVI. GENERAL RULES.

§ 8798. Use and Storage of Oil and Grease in Mine.

It shall be unlawful to oil or grease any cars inside of any mine, unless the place where said oil or grease is used is thoroughly cleaned at least once every day to prevent the accumulation of waste oil or grease on the roads or in the drains at that point. Not more than one barrel of lubricating oil shall be permitted in any mine at one time, and it shall be kept in a fireproof building, cut out of solid rock, or made of masonry or concrete of sufficient thickness to insure safety in case of fire. [L. '17, p. 170, § 163.]

§ 8799. Explosive Oils.

No explosive oil shall be taken into or used in any mine for lighting purposes, except when used in safety lamps. Oil used for motor purposes shall be contained in metal tanks not to exceed ten (10) gallons, and if stored shall be put in a fireproof apartment, as provided in section 8798. [L. '17, p. 171, § 164.]

§ 8800. Prohibiting Employment of Women and Minors—Penalty for False Swearing as to Age.

No boy under sixteen (16) years of age, and no girl or woman of any age, shall be employed or permitted to be in any mine for the purpose of employment therein. No boy under the age of fourteen (14) years, and no girl or woman of any age, shall be employed or permitted to be in or about the surface workings of any mine for the purpose of employment: Provided, that this prohibition shall not affect the employment of boys or girls or women for clerical or messenger duty about the surface workings, as permitted under the school laws.

When an employer is in doubt as to the age of any boy applying for employment in or about the mine, he shall demand and receive proof of the age of such boy by certificate from the parents or guardian of such boy before he shall be employed. Said certificate shall consist of an affidavit, sworn and subscribed to before a justice of the peace or notary public, that he, the said boy, is of the prescribed age for employment.

Any person swearing falsely in regard to the age of a boy shall be guilty of perjury and shall be punished as provided in the statutes of the state. [L. '17, p. 171, § 165.]

§ 8801. Prohibiting Entrance of Danger Zone.

It shall be unlawful for any person except the mine officials, and in case of necessity such other persons as may be designated by them, to pass beyond any danger signal, or to enter any place which has been reported dangerous on bulletin-board, unless he be accompanied by a mine official. However, this does not apply to regular danger signals permanently posted above the mine. [L. '17, p. 171, § 166.]

§ 8802. Checking Miners Entering and Leaving.

No mine employee shall enter or leave a mine without indicating the fact of entering or leaving said mine by some suitable checking system provided by and under the control of the operator. [L. '17, p. 172, § 167.]

§ 8803. Permissive Entry of Mine.

No unauthorized person shall enter the mine without permission from the superintendent or mine foreman. [L. '17, p. 172, § 168.]

§ 8804. Intoxicated Persons.

No person shall go into or around a mine, the buildings or machinery connected therewith, while under the influence of intoxicants. No person shall use, carry or have in his possession at, in, or around a mine, the buildings or the machinery connected therewith, any intoxicants. Any violation of this section will be a misdemeanor under this act. [L. '17, p. 172, § 169.]

§ 8805. Removing Pillars.

No person shall be employed to mine out pillars unless in company with one or more miners. [L. '17, p. 172, § 170.]

§ 8806. Examination of Working Places.

Every workman employed in the mine shall examine his working place before commencing work, and after any stoppage of work during the shift he shall repeat such examination. [L. '17, p. 172, § 171.]

§ 8807. Posting Employees as to Mining Rules.

Every workman, when first employed, shall have his attention directed by the mine foreman, or his assistant, to the general and special rules contained in this act. Said rules shall be posted at a conspicuous place at or near the main entrance to the mine. [L. '17, p. 172, § 172.]

§ 8808. Warning Foreman of Unsafe Conditions.

Employees shall notify the mine foreman, or the assistant mine foreman, of the unsafe condition of any working place, hauling roads or traveling ways, or of damage to doors, brattices or stoppings, or of obstructions in the air passages, when said conditions are known to them. [L. '17, p. 172, § 173.]

§ 8809. Prohibiting Traveling Slopes on Foot.

No person shall be allowed to travel on foot to and from his work on any hoisting slope, inclined plane, or locomotive road, unless no other roads are provided for that purpose, and then only at such times as permitted by the mine foreman. [L. '17, p. 172, § 174.]

§ 8810. Riding Cars or Cages.

No person shall ride upon or against any loaded car or cage in any shaft or slope in any mine. No person other than the trip rider shall be permitted to ride on empty trips on any slope, or inclined plane, except as provided for in other sections of this act. [L. '17, p. 173, § 175.]

§ 8811. Riding Full Cars.

No person other than the driver or trip rider, shall be allowed to ride on the full car, except mine officials and repair men. [L. '17, p. 173, § 176.]

§ 8812. Destroying Danger Signs, etc.

Any person who shall deface, pull down, or destroy any notice board, danger signal, general or special rules, record books or mining laws, shall be prosecuted by the mine inspector on notice given by the superintendent, or obtained from other sources, as provided for in section 8852 of article XVII. [L. '17, p. 173, § 177.]

§ 8813. Tampering With Wires.

All persons are forbidden to meddle or tamper in any way with any electric or signal wires, or any other equipment in or about the mine. [L. '17, p. 173, § 178.]

§ 8814. Quantity of Explosive Allowed in Mine.

No powder or high explosive shall be taken into the mine at any one time by any person in greater quantities than is required for use in one shift. [L. '17, p. 173, § 179.]

§ 8815. Storing and Handling Explosives.

No explosive shall be stored in any tippie or weighing office, and no naked lights shall be used while the attendant is weighing and giving out explosives. [L. '17, p. 173, § 180.]

§ 8816. Crowding on or off Cars.

Any person crowding or pushing to get on or off the cage or car shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and the mine inspector shall prosecute him in accordance with section 8852 of article XVII, when the matter is reported to him by the superintendent. [L. '17, p. 173, § 181.]

§ 8817. Entrusting Safety Lamps to Workmen.

No safety lamp shall be entrusted to any person for use in a mine, until said person has given satisfactory evidence to the foreman that he understands the proper use thereof, and the danger of tampering with the same. [L. '17, p. 173, § 182.]

§ 8818. Possession of Keys for Unlocking Safety Lamps.

No one, except a person duly authorized by this act, shall have in his possession a key or other instrument for the purpose of unlocking any safety lamp in any mine where locked safety lamps are used. Other persons than those duly authorized by this act, having keys or other instruments for the opening of safety lamps, shall be prosecuted by the state mine inspector. [L. '17, p. 173, § 183.]

§ 8819. Brushing Gas Prohibited.

Any accumulation of gas in a mine shall not be removed by brushing. [L. '17, p. 174, § 184.]

§ 8820. Gas Ignited by Blast—Leaving Gas-blowers Burning.

When gas is ignited by a blast, or otherwise, the person having charge of the place where the said gas is ignited, shall immediately extinguish it, if possible, and if unable to do so, he shall immediately notify the mine foreman, or the assistant mine foreman, of the fact. Miners must see that no gas-blowers are left burning upon leaving their working places. It shall be the duty of the superintendent to notify the mine inspector of any violation of this rule, and the inspector shall then prosecute as provided for in section 8852 of article XVII. [L. '17, p. 174, § 185.]

§ 8821. Warning of Shot-firings.

When a shot-firer is about to fire a blast where the miners are not present, he shall be careful to notify all persons who may be endangered thereby, and shall give sufficient alarm so that any person approaching may be warned of the danger. [L. '17, p. 174, § 186.]

§ 8822. Notice of Driving Crosscut.

In driving crosscuts through pillars, before firing a blast, the miner must notify in person the workmen in the place toward which he is driving, so that they may find a place of safety. He shall also guard the passages on either side of his place at every shot, so that no person may come unawares upon it. [L. '17, p. 174, § 187.]

§ 8823. Care in Handling Explosives.

Whenever a miner or shot-firer shall open a box containing powder or other explosives, or while in any manner handling the same, he shall first place his lamp, if open, not less than five (5) feet from such explosive and in such a position that the air current cannot convey sparks to the explosive, and he shall not smoke while handling explosives. [L. '17, p. 174, § 188.]

§ 8824. Tamping Bars for Blasting.

In charging and tamping a hole for blasting, no person shall use any iron or steel needle. The tamping bar for high explosives shall be made of wood. For black powder iron tamping bars must be tipped with copper at least five (5) inches in length. [L. '17, p. 174, § 189.]

§ 8825. Blasting Holes.

No explosive shall be forcibly pressed into a hole that is of insufficient size, and when a hole has been charged the explosive shall not be taken out, and no hole shall be bored for blasting at a distance of less than twelve (12) inches from any hole where the charge has misfired, and no hole for blasting shall be drilled more than six (6) feet deep. [L. '17, p. 175, § 190.]

§ 8826. Tamping Material in Gaseous or Dusty Mines.

In gaseous or dusty mines, shot-firers or other persons charging holes for blasting, shall use incombustible material for tamping. All holes before being fired shall be solidly tamped the full length of the hole.

Any person who violates this rule shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 175, § 191.]

§ 8827. Fencing Abandoned Openings.

Every abandoned slope, shaft, airhole or drift, shall, when so abandoned, be properly fenced around or across its whole entrance. [L. '17, p. 175, § 192.]

§ 8828. Entered Only by Traveling Way.

No person shall go into an old or abandoned portion of any mine, or into any other place that is not in actual course of working, without permission from a mine official, and no person shall travel to and from his work except by the traveling way assigned for that purpose. It shall be the duty of the mine inspector to prosecute all persons who violate this rule, in accordance with section 8852 of article XVII. [L. '17, p. 175, § 193.]

§ 8829. Nuisances in Airways Prohibited.

Workmen and all other persons are expressly forbidden to commit any nuisance, or throw into, deposit or leave coal or dirt, stones or other rubbish in the airway or road to interfere with, pollute or hinder the air passing into and through the mine. [L. '17, p. 175, § 194.]

§ 8830. Posting Signal Code.

In all shafts and slopes where persons, coal and other materials are hoisted by machinery, the code of signals shall be posted. [L. '17, p. 175, § 195.]

§ 8831. Prohibition Against Smokers' Articles.

No person shall carry any matches, pipes or other smokers' articles into a mine, or portion of a mine worked with safety lamps, nor shall he have any of said articles in his possession while in such a mine. [L. '17, p. 175, § 196.]

§ 8832. Prompt Treatment of Injured.

If any person shall receive any injury in or about the mine requiring surgical or medical treatment, and same is reported to the mine foreman, he shall see that said injured person receives such treatment immediately. [L. '17, p. 176, § 197.]

§ 8833. Contravening Rules.

Every person who contravenes or does not comply with any of the special or general rules in this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 176, § 198.]

§ 8834. Dead Line in Shafts or Slopes.

At the foot of any shaft or slope, or at any intermediate lift from which men and coal are regularly hoisted, the operator or superintendent or foreman shall designate a dead line beyond which men shall not pass in order to be hoisted out of the shaft or slope, until they are notified by the cager or foreman in charge of said place. Failure to recognize this rule shall be a misdemeanor under this act. [L. '17, p. 176, § 199.]

§ 8835. Rules to be Printed in English.

Copies of these rules shall be printed in English, by the operator, and each workman in and around the mine shall procure a copy. If he cannot read the English language, he must at his own expense, procure an interpreter to correctly interpret the rules to him. The workman will pay the operator twenty-five (25c) per copy for the rules, and if he returns the same to the operator in legible condition, the amount so paid by him shall be returned. [L. '19, p. 707, § 6; L. '17, p. 176, § 200.]

§ 8836. Identifying Checks of Miners.

It shall be unlawful to change, exchange, substitute, alter or move any number or check or other device or sign used to indicate or identify the person or persons to whom credit or pay is due for the mining or loading of coal in any car or appliance containing the same; and it shall be unlawful for any person to place any number, check, device or sign upon any car or other appliance loaded by any other person in or about the mine. Any violation of this provision shall be deemed a misdemeanor under this act. [L. '17, p. 176, § 201.]

§ 8837. Prosecutions.

The state mine inspector shall prosecute all violators of the mining law. [L. '17, p. 177, § 202.]

§ 8838. Cleared Space Around Air-shafts.

All surface timber, brush and other inflammable material must be kept cleared for a distance of one hundred (100) feet on all sides of the air-shafts and escapement ways: Provided, that this regulation shall not apply to a reasonable amount of cut timber kept on hand for immediate use underground. [L. '17, p. 177, § 203.]

§ 8839. Weighing Coal and Posting Miner's Record—Check Weighman—Oath.

(a) The operator of every coal mine where the miners are paid by the weight of their output, shall provide at such mine suitable and accurate scales for the weighing of such coal, and a correct record shall be kept of all coal so weighed, and each day's record shall be posted where it is open at all hours to the inspection of miners. Sufficient weights shall be furnished by the operator for the purpose of testing the accuracy of said scales: Provided, however, that where a check weighman is employed the operator shall not be required to post each day's record.

(b) The miners employed by or engaged in working at any coal mine in this state shall have the privilege, if they desire, of employing at their expense a check weighman, who shall have like rights, powers and privileges in the weighing of coal as the regular weighman, and be subject to the same oath and penalties as the regular weighman. Said oath or affirmation shall be conspicuously posted in the weigh office.

(c) The weighman employed at any mine shall subscribe an oath or affirmation before a justice of the peace, or other officer authorized to administer oaths, in form as follows, to wit:

(Date) —.

I, —, depose and say that I will do justice, as weighman, between the employer and employee, and weigh correctly the output of coal from the mine or mines, and keep an accurate record thereof, posting a daily bulletin of such weights for the examination of the employee.

(Sign here) — —.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, a — on the day and date above written.

(d) Any weigher of coal, or any person so employed, who shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of this and the preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, proceedings to be instituted in any court having jurisdiction therein. [L. '17, p. 177, § 204.]

§ 8840. Returning to Missed Shots.

No person shall return to a missed shot, if lighted with a squib, until twenty (20) minutes have elapsed from the time of lighting same, or, if lighted with a fuse, until eight (8) hours have elapsed; and no person shall return to a missed shot when the firing is done by electricity unless the wires are disconnected from the battery. [L. '17, p. 178, 205.]

§ 8841. Receiving or Offering Bribe to Procure Employment.

Any mine superintendent, mine foreman, or other person or persons who shall receive or solicit any sum of money or other valuable consideration, from any person for the purpose of continuing in his or their employ, or for the purpose of procuring employment, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person offering any mine superintendent, or mine foreman, any sum of money or any other valuable consideration as a bribe for the purpose of obtaining employment or retaining employment, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in either case of superintendent, mine foreman, or other person, upon conviction they shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50), nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, proceedings to be instituted in any court having jurisdiction thereof. [L. '17, p. 178, § 206.]

§ 8842. Miner to Examine Safety of Working Place—Safety Rules.

The miner shall examine his working place before beginning work, and take down all dangerous slate, or otherwise make it safe by properly timbering it, before commencing to mine or load coal. He shall examine his place to see whether the fire boss has left the date marks indicating his examination thereof, and if said marks cannot be found it shall be the duty of the miner to notify the mine foreman, or the assistant mine foreman, of the fact immediately. The miner shall at all times be careful to keep his working place in a safe condition.

Should he at any time find his place becoming dangerous from gas or from roof or from any unusual condition that may arise, he shall at once cease working and inform the mine foreman, or the assistant mine foreman, of said danger, but before leaving his place he shall put some plain warning across the entrance thereto to warn others against entering into danger.

After each blast he shall exercise care in examining the roof and coal, and shall secure them safely before beginning work.

He shall order all props, cap pieces, and all other timbers necessary at least one day in advance of needing them, or as provided for in the rules of the mine. If he fails to receive said timbers and finds his place unsafe, he shall vacate it until the necessary timbers are supplied.

The management of any mine may submit to the mine inspector, for his approval, uniform rules for timbering at mines where conditions may be favorable for same. If approved by the mine inspector, they will become a part of the rules of said mine.

Under no condition shall the miner use coal dust or other combustible material for tamping in any gaseous or dusty mines.

When places are liable to generate sudden outbursts of explosive gas, no miner shall be allowed to charge or fire shots except under the supervision and with the consent of the mine foreman, or the assistant mine foreman, or some other competent person designated by the mine foreman for that purpose.

The miner shall remain during working hours in the place assigned to him, and he shall not leave his working place without the consent of the mine foreman, assistant mine foreman, or fire boss, unless called upon to assist others, or in case of need. He shall not wander about the hauling roads or enter abandoned or idle workings. [L. '17, p. 179, § 207.]

§ 8843. Duties of Driver.

When a driver has occasion to leave his trip, he must be careful to see that it is left, when possible, in a safe place secure from cars and other dangers, and where it will not endanger the drivers of other trips or other persons.

He must take care while making his trip downgrade to have the brakes or sprags so adjusted that he can keep the cars under control and prevent them from running over himself or others.

He shall not leave any cars standing where they may materially obstruct the ventilating current, except in case of accident, which he shall promptly report to the mine foreman, or assistant mine foreman.

He shall not allow any person to ride on loaded mine cars. He shall not allow any person to drive his horses or mules in his stead, unless authorized by a mine official. When it is his duty to open a door for the purpose of passing his trip through he shall see that the door is immediately closed thereafter. [L. '17, p. 180, § 208.]

§ 8844. Duties of a Trip-rider.

The trip-rider shall exercise care in seeing that all hitchings are safe for use and that all the trip is coupled before starting, and should he at any time see any material defect in the rope, link or chain, he shall immediately remedy said defect, or, if he is unable to do so, he shall detain the trip and report the matter to the mine foreman or the assistant mine foreman. He shall not allow any person to ride on the loaded or empty trip, except as provided in article XVI, section 8811. [L. '17, p. 180, § 209.]

§ 8845. Duties of Hoisting Engineers.

It shall be the duty of the engineer, who shall be a temperate competent person, to keep a careful watch over his engine and all machinery under his charge. He shall make himself acquainted with the signal codes provided for in this act, and by the special rules of the mine.

He shall not allow any unauthorized person to enter the engine-house, nor shall he allow any person to handle or run the engine without the permission of the superintendent.

When workmen are being lowered or raised he shall take special precautions to keep the engine well under control. [L. '17, p. 181, § 210.]

§ 8846. Duties of Motorman and Locomotive Engineer.

The motorman or locomotive engineer shall keep a sharp lookout ahead, and sound the whistle or alarm bell frequently when coming near the parting switches or landings, and shall not exceed the limit allowed by the mine foreman. He shall see that the motors, cables and controlling parts are kept clean and in safe operating condition, and that the headlight is burning properly when the locomotive is in motion. He shall not allow any person, except his attendant, or mine officials, to ride on the locomotive or motor. [L. '17, p. 181, § 211.]

§ 8847. Duties of Fireman.

Every fireman in charge of a boiler or boilers for the generation of steam shall keep a careful watch over same. He shall see that the steam pressure does not at any time exceed the limit allowed by the superintendent or master mechanic; he shall frequently try the safety valves, and shall not increase the weight on the same. He shall maintain a proper height of water in each boiler, and if anything should happen to prevent this he shall report it without delay to the superintendent or master mechanic, or other person designated by the superintendent, and take such other action as may under the circumstances be best for the protection of life and preservation of property. [L. '17, p. 181, § 212.]

§ 8848. Fan Operator's Duties.

The person in charge of the ventilating fan at a mine shall keep it running at such speed as the mine foreman shall direct in writing. He shall report promptly to the mine foreman, or assistant mine foreman, in case of accident to boiler or fan machinery. If only ordinary repairs to the fan or machinery become necessary, he shall await the instructions of the mine foreman or assistant mine foreman before stopping the fan.

Should it become impossible to run the fan, or become necessary to stop it to prevent its destruction, he shall at once notify the superintendent or mine foreman, who shall give immediate warning to the persons in the mine. [L. '17, p. 182, § 213.]

§ 8849. Hooker-on's Duties.

The hooker-on at the bottom of any slope shall be over eighteen years of age, and he shall be careful to see that the cars are properly coupled to a rope or chain, and to each other, and the safety device is properly attached to man trips, before signaling the engineer. He shall personally attend to the signals, and see that the provisions of this act in respect to hoisting and lowering persons in shafts or slopes are complied with. [L. '17, p. 182, § 214.]

§ 8850. Duties of Cager.

The cager at the bottom of any shaft shall be over eighteen years of age. He shall not attempt to withdraw the car until the cage comes to a rest, and when putting the full car on the cage, he must be careful to see that the springs or catches are properly adjusted to keep the car in place before signaling the engineer. He shall personally attend the signals and see that the provisions of this act in respect to hoisting and lowering persons in shafts or slopes are complied with. [L. '17, p. 182, § 215.]

§ 8851. Duties of Topman and Slope Topman.

(a) The topman of a shaft shall not allow any tools to be placed on the same cage with persons, or on either cage when persons are being lowered into the mine, except for the purpose of repairing the shaft or the machinery therein. The men shall place their tools in cars provided for that purpose, which cars shall be lowered before or after the men have been lowered. He shall also see that no driver or other person descends the shaft with any horse or mule, unless the said horse or mule is secured in a suitable box or safely penned, and only the driver in charge of said horse or mule shall accompany it in any cage. The topman of a shaft shall see that the springs or keeps for the cage to rest upon are kept in good working order, and when taking the full car off he must be careful that no coal or other material is allowed to fall down the shaft.

(b) The topman of a slope or inclined plane shall see that the safety device is closed at all times, except when cars or trips are passing, and in no case shall said safety device be withdrawn until the cars are coupled to the rope or chain and the proper signal given. He shall carefully inspect each day the rope and chain used for hoisting or lowering men or coal, and shall promptly report to the superintendent any defect discovered, and shall use care in attaching securely the cars to the rope. He shall ring the alarm bell in case of accident.

(c) It shall be the duty of all topmen to report to the superintendent any violation of section 8823 of article XVI.

(d) Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the owner or operator of a coal mine from enforcing any rules or regulations now in effect, or that may be later adopted, which do not conflict with the provisions of this act. [L. '17, p. 182, § 216.]

ARTICLE XVII. OFFENSES AND PENALTIES.

§ 8852. Interference with Appliances or Employees.

Any miner, workman, or other person, who shall knowingly injure any water-gauge, barometer, air course or brattice, or shall obstruct or throw open any airway, or shall handle or disturb any part of the machinery of the hoisting engine, or open a door in the mine and not have the same closed again, whereby danger is produced either to the mine or to those that work therein, or who shall enter into any part of the mine against caution, or who shall interfere with or intimidate any engineer, fireman, or other employee in or about such mine in the discharge of his duties or the performance of his labor, or who shall disobey any order given in pursuance of this act, or violate any of the provisions established by this act, for which the penalty is not otherwise provided, and who shall do any act whereby the lives and health of persons working in the mine, or the security of the mine or mines or the machinery thereof is endangered, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars ($200) nor less than fifty dollars ($50), or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. [L. '17, p. 183, § 217.]

ARTICLE XVIII.

§ 8853. Repealing Clause.

All acts or parts of acts relating to coal mining in the state of Washington, or to the mine inspector of the state of Washington, be, and the same are hereby repealed. [L. '17, p. 184, § 218.]

§ 8854. Partial Invalidity of Act.

If it shall be adjudicated that any section or part of a section of this act shall be unconstitutional and invalid for any reason, an adjudication of invalidity of said section or part of a section shall not affect the validity of the act as a whole, or any part thereof. [L. '17, p. 184, § 219.]

§ 8855. Time Allowed for Conforming to Act.

Every operator of a mine affected by this act shall be given six (6) months after this act takes effect to make any necessary changes or secure any materials or supplies to comply with the provisions of this act. [L. '17, p. 184, § 220.]

§ 8856. Coal Mine—What Constitutes—Inspection of Work on Prospects.

No coal mine shall be considered a mine for the purpose of this act unless five men or more are employed underground on one shift, nor shall mines employing less than ten men be subject to the provisions of this act, except that the inspector of mines shall have the right to enter any of the places where men are at work within such prospect, and if the conditions therein are dangerous to life, the inspector may, and it shall be his duty to stop work on such prospect until such dangerous place is rendered safe, or the same be placed in control of a certified mine foreman: Provided, that all such operators of prospects and places herein in this section referred to shall make reports to the state mine inspector as are required to be made by other mines and mine operators under the provisions of this act. [L. '17, p. 184, § 221.]

See notes to § 8637.

CHAPTER IV.

PROTECTION AGAINST OPEN SHAFTS.

§ 8857. [7408.] Shafts, Holes, etc., in the Ground shall be Fenced.

Any person or persons, company or corporation, who shall hereafter dig, sink, or excavate, or cause the same to be done, or being the owner or owners, or in the possession under any lease or contract, of any shaft, excavation, or hole, whether used for mining or otherwise, or whether dug, sunk, or excavated for the purpose of mining, to obtain water, or for any other purpose, within this state, shall, during the time they may be employed in digging, sinking, or excavating, or after they have ceased work upon or abandoned the same, erect, or cause to be erected, good and substantial fences or other safeguards, and keep the same in good repair around such works or shafts sufficient to securely guard against danger to persons and animals from falling into such shafts or excavations. [L. '90, p. 121, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2263.]

Cited in 110 Wash. 139.

This section to be strictly construed, and does not apply to a case where a boy voluntarily entered a shaft, the door of which was left open: Dernac v. Pacific Coast Coal Co., 110 Wash. 138, 188 Pac. 15.

§ 8858. [7409.] Complaint as to Dangerous Excavation—When and by Whom Filed.

Three persons being residents of the county, and knowing or having reason to believe that the provisions of the last preceding section are being or have been violated within such county, may file a notice with any justice of the peace or police judge therein, which notice shall be in writing, and shall state—

1. The location, as near as may be, of the hole, excavation, or shaft;
2. That the same is dangerous to persons or animals, and has been left or is being worked contrary to the provisions of this chapter;
3. The name of the person or persons, company or corporation, who is or are the owners of the same, if known, or if unknown, the persons who were known to be employed therein;
4. If abandoned and no claimant; and
5. The estimated cost of fencing or otherwise securing the same against any avoidable accidents. [L. '90, p. 121, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2264.]

§ 8859. [7410.] Justice shall Issue Order to Sheriff, etc., upon Filing of Notice.

Upon the filing of the notice as provided in the preceding section, the justice of the peace or judge of the police court shall issue an order, directed to the sheriff of the county or to any constable or city marshal therein, directing such officer to serve a notice in manner and form as is prescribed by law for service of summons upon any person or persons, or the authorized agent or agents of any company or corporation named in the notice on file, as provided in the last section. [L. '90, p. 121, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2265.]

§ 8860. [7411.] Notice, What to Contain—Liability.

The notice thus served shall require the said persons to appear before the justice or judge issuing the same, at a time to be stated therein, not more than ten nor less than three days from the service of said notice, and show to the satisfaction of the court that the provisions of this chapter have been complied with; or if he or they fail to appear, judgment will be entered against him or them for double the amount stated in the notice on file; and all proceedings had therein shall be as prescribed by law in civil cases; and such persons, in addition to any judgment that may be rendered against them, shall be liable and subject to a fine not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every violation of the provisions of this chapter, which judgments and fines shall be adjudged and collected as provided for by law. [L. '90, p. 122, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2266.]

§ 8861. [7412.] Suits shall be in Name of State—Disposition of Fines.

Suits commenced under the provisions of this chapter shall be in the name of the state of Washington, and all judgments and fines collected shall be paid into the county treasury for county purposes. [L. '90, p. 122, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2267.]

§ 8862. [7413.] Guards to Prevent Accidents.

If the notice filed with the justice of the peace or police judge, as aforesaid, shall state that the excavation, shaft, or hole has been abandoned, and no person claims the ownership thereof, said justice of the peace or judge shall notify the board of county commissioners of the county, or either of them, of the location of the same, and they shall, as soon as possible thereafter, cause the same to be so fenced or otherwise guarded as to prevent accidents to persons or animals; and all expenses thus incurred shall be paid as other county expenses: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to compel the county commissioners to fill up, fence, or otherwise guard any shaft, excavation, or hole, unless in their discretion the same may be considered dangerous to persons or animals. [L. '90, p. 122, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2268.]

§ 8863. [7414.] Safety Cage in Mining Shafts—Regulations.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations, to sink or work through any vertical shaft at a greater depth than one hundred and fifty feet, unless the said shaft shall be provided with an iron-bonneted safety cage, to be used in the lowering and hoisting of the employees of such person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations. The safety apparatus, whether consisting of eccentrics, springs, or other device, shall be securely fastened to the cage, and shall be of sufficient strength to hold the cage loaded at any depth to which the shaft may be sunk, provided the cable shall break. The iron bonnet aforesaid shall be made of boiler sheet iron of a good quality, of at least three-sixteenths of an inch in thickness, and shall cover the top of said cage in such manner as to afford the greatest protection to life and limb from any matter falling down said shaft. [L. '90, p. 123, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2269.]

§ 8864. [7415.] Penalty for Noncompliance.

Any person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations, who shall neglect, fail, or refuse to comply with the provisions of the last preceding section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars. [L. '90, p. 123, § 8; 1 H. C., § 2270.]

§ 8865. [7416.] Right to Damages not Affected by This Chapter.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be so construed as to prevent recovery being had in a suit for damages for injuries sustained by the party so injured, or his heirs or administrator or administratrix, or anyone else now competent to sue in an action of such character. [L. '90, p. 123, § 9; 1 H. C., § 2271.]

CHAPTER V.

PROSPECTING FOR MINERAL DEPOSITS BY COUNTIES.

§ 8866. [7417.] Boring for Valuable Minerals—Voting Tax for.

Whenever twenty taxpayers of any one county, who shall reach [each] pay taxes on a sum not less than fifteen hundred dollars in said county, shall apply, by petition in writing, to the commissioners of their county for an appropriation of any specified sum of money for the purpose of boring or drilling into the earth for valuable minerals, such as coal, oil, gas, salt, or any other valuable subterranean production that is supposed to exist in quantities sufficient to justify boring for, then the county commissioners of the county wherein the above-named petition has been filed, shall make an estimate of the probable depth the well will have to be bored, and the probable cost of boring the same, and shall put up notices, as prescribed by law for general elections, calling on all legal voters in the said county to vote for or against the said tax. [L. '88, p. 126, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2246.]

§ 8867. [7418.] Election Notices, What to Contain.

Said election notices shall fully set forth the object of the election, the amount of taxes to be raised, the purpose for which it is to be expended, and the locality where the well is to be drilled or bored. [L. '88, p. 127, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2247.]

§ 8868. [7419.] No Money Expended Except on Land to Which County has Title.

The county shall expend no money for the purposes hereinbefore named, on land which it does not have a title to, or a twenty years' lease of. [L. '88, p. 127, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2248.]

§ 8869. [7420.] Form and Quantity of Land Required.

The tract of land so leased or owned by the county shall be nearly square in form, and not contain less than ten acres. [L. '88, p. 127, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2249.]

§ 8870. [7421.] Well to be Bored Near Center.

Said well shall be bored or drilled near the center of said tract of land. [L. '88, p. 127, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2250.]

§ 8871. [7422.] Board to Select Site Where Two or More Petitions Presented.

If there are lawful petitions for boring more than one well in the same county at the same time, the county commissioners shall select the site for boring or drilling the said well. [L. '88, p. 127, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2251.]

§ 8872. [7423.] Qualifications of Electors.

No person shall be a voter on the question of levying a tax for the purpose herein named, except he shall have paid taxes in said county the preceding year. [L. '88, p. 127, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2252.]

§ 8873. [7424.] Ballots, What shall Contain.

The ballots shall read "Tax—yes," or "Tax—no." [L. '88, p. 127, § 8; 1 H. C., § 2253.]

§ 8874. [7425.] Estimate for Boring—Fifteen Per Cent Added.

In making an estimate of the expenses of boring the said well, the county commissioners may add fifteen per cent thereto for delinquency, and the expenses of collecting the same. [L. '88, p. 127, § 9; 1 H. C., § 2254.]

§ 8875. [7426.] Collection of Tax—How Paid Out.

This tax shall be collected the same as the school tax, and be payable on the order of a majority of the board of county commissioners. [L. '88, p. 127, § 10; 1 H. C., § 2255.]

§ 8876. [7427.] To Advertise for Drilling—How, and for How Long.

When the tax shall have been voted and collected, the county commissioners shall advertise in the newspapers in said county having the largest circulation, for at least four consecutive weeks, for boring or drilling said well, and in case no newspaper is in said county, the advertisement may be published in the nearest newspaper thereto. [L. '88, p. 127, § 11; 1 H. C., § 2256.]

§ 8877. [7428.] Contract Let to Lowest Bidder.

When the bids shall be opened and it shall appear to a majority of the board of county commissioners that any of them are reasonable, then they shall proceed to let the contract to the lowest bidder therefor. [L. '88, p. 127, § 12; 1 H. C., § 2257.]

§ 8878. [7429.] Contractor's Bond—Condition of.

The commissioners aforesaid shall require a good and sufficient bond of the contractor for the faithful performance of his contract. [L. '88, p. 127, § 13; 1 H. C., § 2258.]

§ 8879. [7430.] Sale of Well—Proceeds, How Disposed of.

When the well has been drilled or bored as per contract, then within one year thereafter the county commissioners, after duly advertising, may proceed to sell their title to the land, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, to the highest bidder, and shall place the proceeds of said sale into the county general fund. [L. '88, p. 128, § 14; 1 H. C., § 2259.]

§ 8880. [7431.] Surplus Fund, How Disposed of—Deficiency, How Supplied.

If the expense of boring or drilling said well shall be less than the estimated cost, then the county commissioners shall put the surplus fund that was collected therefor into the county general fund; and if the expense shall exceed their estimates by an amount not greater than one thousand dollars, then and in that case the commissioners aforesaid may draw upon the county general fund for a sum not greater than last named. [L. '88, p. 128, § 15; 1 H. C., § 2260.]

CHAPTER I.

INCORPORATION.

§ 8883. [7434.] City or Town may Incorporate.

Any portion of a county containing not less than three hundred inhabitants, and not incorporated as a municipal corporation, may become incorporated under the provisions of this act, and when so incorporated, shall have the powers conferred, or that may hereafter be conferred, by law upon municipal corporations of the class to which the same may belong: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the reincorporation of towns and villages under the provisions of this act, whatever their population, heretofore incorporated or intended so to be, under the provisions of the act approved February 2, 1888, entitled "An act for the incorporation of towns and villages in the territory of Washington," and said reincorporation shall be construed as a full acceptance of all the terms and conditions imposed by this act. [L. '90, p. 131, § 1; 1 H. C., § 493.]

For former statutes on the subject of the incorporation of cities, see L. '71, pp. 51—58; L. '77, pp. 173—198. Rep. by L. '81, pp. 22, 23; see also, L. '88, pp. 221—232.

"This act" is the act of March 27, 1890, except as modified by subsequent legislation, and is embraced in §§ 8883—8947, 9163—9194 of this title. The words "act" or "chapter" of original law have been retained throughout these sections to prevent confusion and misinterpretation.

Nature and Status, Power to Create and Constitutional Provisions: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 1—3, and cases cited.

Validity of Incorporation: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 8, and cases cited.

See, also, State ex rel. Cummings v. Johnson, 105 Wash. 93, 177 Pac. 699.

Effect of General Laws on Existing Corporations: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 9, and cases cited.

§ 8884. [7435.] Proceedings to Incorporate.

A petition shall first be presented to the board of county commissioners of such county, signed by at least sixty qualified electors of the county, residents within the limits of such proposed corporation, which petition shall set forth and particularly describe the proposed boundaries of such corporation, and state the number of inhabitants therein as nearly as may be, and shall pray that the same may be incorporated under the provisions of this act. Such petition shall be presented at a regular or special meeting of such board, and shall be published for at least two weeks before the time at which the same is to be presented, in some newspaper printed and published in such county, together with a notice stating the time of the meeting at which the same will be presented: Provided, that if the number of inhabitants contained within such proposed corporation shall be or exceed fifteen hundred, the chairman of the board of commissioners, if not in regular session, shall call a special session of the board within five days. When such petition is presented, the board of county commissioners shall hear the same, and may adjourn such hearing from time to time, not exceeding two months in all; and, on the final hearing, shall make such changes in the proposed boundaries as they may find to be proper, and shall establish and define such boundaries, and shall ascertain and determine how many inhabitants reside within such boundaries: Provided, that any changes made by said board of county commissioners shall not include any territory outside the boundaries described in such petition. They shall then give notice of an election to be held in such proposed corporation for the purpose of determining whether the same shall become incorporated. Such notice shall particularly describe the boundaries so established, and shall state the name of such proposed corporation, and the number of inhabitants so ascertained to reside therein, and the same shall be published, for at least two weeks prior to such election, in a newspaper printed and published within such boundaries, or posted, for the same period, in at least four public places therein. Such notice shall require the voters to cast ballots, which shall contain the words "For incorporation," or "Against incorporation," or words equivalent thereto; and also the names of persons voted for to fill the various elective municipal offices prescribed by law for municipal corporations of the class to which such proposed corporation will belong. [L. '90, p. 131, § 2; 1 H. C., § 494.]

"This act": See note to § 8883.

In General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 1—9, and cases cited.

This section giving the county commissioners the power to ascertain and determine the number of inhabitants within the boundaries of a proposed town, their decision is conclusive, unless reviewed under the appeal statute, section 4076: State ex rel. Cummings v. Johnson, 105 Wash. 93, 177 Pac. 699.

§ 8885. [7436.] Election, How Conducted—Order Declaring Incorporation.

Such election shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state, and no person shall be entitled to vote thereat unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county, and shall have resided within the limits of such proposed corporation for at least thirty days next preceding such election. The board of county commissioners shall meet on the Monday next succeeding such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat; and if, upon such canvass, it appear that a majority of the votes cast are for incorporation, the board shall, by an order entered upon their minutes, declare such territory duly incorporated as a municipal incorporation of the class to which the same shall belong, under the name and style of the city (or town, as the case may be) of — (naming it), and shall declare the persons receiving, respectively, the highest number of votes for such several offices to be duly elected to such offices. Said board shall cause a copy of such order, duly certified, to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and from and after the date of such filing such incorporation shall be deemed complete, and such officers shall be entitled to enter immediately upon the duties of their respective offices, upon qualifying in accordance with law, and shall hold such offices, respectively, only until the next general municipal election to be held in such city or town, and until their successors are elected and qualified. [L. '90, p. 133, § 3; 1 H. C., § 495.]

In General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 14, and cases cited.

§ 8886. [7437.] Proceedings to Reincorporate.

The city council or other legislative body of any city or town, organized or incorporated prior to the passage of this act, shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one-fifth of the qualified electors of such city or town, as shown by the vote cast at the last municipal election held therein, submit to the electors of such city or town, at the next general or special election called for to be held therein, the question whether such city or town shall become organized under the general laws of the state relating to municipal corporations of the class to which such city or town may belong. Notice that such question shall be so submitted shall be given by publication in a newspaper printed and published in such city or town; or if there be no newspaper printed and published therein, by printing and posting the same in at least four public places therein, including the place or places where such election is to be held. Such notice shall be so published or posted for at least two weeks prior to such election, and shall also be made a part of the general election notice. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be so submitted, and shall designate the class to which such corporation belongs, and shall invite the electors thereof to vote upon such proposition by placing "X" upon their ballots, opposite the words "For reorganization" or "Against reorganization." Which words, or the equivalent thereto, shall be printed upon the ballots in such manner that the voters' choice may be clearly indicated by marking as above specified. The votes so cast shall be canvassed at the time and in the manner in which the other votes cast at such election are canvassed. If upon such canvass a majority of all the electors voting at such election shall be found to have voted for such reorganization, the said council or other legislative body shall, by an order entered upon their minutes, cause their clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk to make and transmit to the secretary of state a certified abstract of such vote, which abstract shall show the whole number of electors voting at such election, the number of votes cast for reorganization, and the number of votes against reorganization. Said council or other legislative body shall immediately thereafter call a special election for the election of officers required by law to be elected in corporations of the class to which such city or town shall belong, which election shall be held within three months thereafter. Such election shall be held in all respects in the manner prescribed, or that may hereafter be prescribed, by law for municipal elections in corporations of such class, and shall be canvassed by the council or other legislative body calling the same, who shall immediately declare the result thereof, and cause the same to be entered upon their journal. From and after the date of such entry, such corporation shall be deemed to be organized under such general laws, under the name and style of the city (or town, as the case may be) of — (naming it), with the powers conferred, or that may hereafter be conferred, by law upon municipal corporations of the class to which the same may belong; and the officers elected at such election shall be entitled immediately to enter upon the duties of their respective offices, upon qualifying in accordance with law, and shall hold such offices, respectively, only until the next general municipal election to be held in such city or town, and until their successors are elected and qualified. [L. '09, p. 647, § 1. Cf. L. '90, p. 133, § 4; 1 H. C., § 496.]

§ 8887. [7438.] Effect of Reincorporation.

Any city or town organized under the provisions of the last preceding section shall, for all purposes, be deemed and taken to be in law the identical corporation theretofore incorporated and existing, and such reorganization shall in no wise affect or impair the title to any property owned or held by such corporation, or in trust therefor, or any debts demands, liabilities, or obligations existing in favor of or against such corporation, or any proceeding then pending; nor shall the same operate to repeal or affect, in any manner, any ordinance theretofore passed or adopted and remaining unrepealed, or to discharge any person from any liability, civil or criminal, then existing, for any violation of such ordinance, but such ordinances, so far as the same are not in conflict with such general laws, shall be and remain in force until repealed or amended by competent authority: Provided, that proceedings theretofore commenced shall, after such reorganization, be conducted in accordance with the provisions of such general laws. Where a city was entitled under its special charter to have a lien upon real property, until taxes assessed thereon should be paid, with power to enforce collection by summary process, it did not lose such rights by reincorporating, in view of this section, providing that such reorganization should in no wise affect or impair the city's title to any demands, liabilities or obligations existing in its favor: Port Townsend v. Eisenbeis, 28 Wash. 533, 68 Pac. 1045.

Where a municipality, organized under the void act of 1888, contracted for street improvements payable with warrants on a special assessment fund was, after the completion of the work, reorganized under this act, and thereafter ratified the indebtedness for the street improvements aforesaid and declared it to be a town debt, warrants drawn on the general fund after the exhaustion of the special fund, in exchange for special assessment warrants, are without consideration and void; since the assessment district and not the city was liable therefor: State ex rel. Security Sav. Soc. v. Moss, 44 Wash. 91, 86 Pac. 1129.

§ 8888. [7439.] Validation of Attempted Incorporations.

The incorporation of all cities and towns in this state heretofore had or attempted under sections 1, 2 and 3 of an act entitled "An act providing for the organization, classification, incorporation and government of municipal corporations, and declaring an emergency," approved March 24, 1890, and the reincorporation of all cities and towns in this state heretofore had or attempted under sections 1, 4 and 5 of said act, under which attempted incorporation or reincorporation an organized government has been maintained since the date thereof, is hereby for all purposes declared legal and valid, and such cities and towns are hereby declared duly incorporated. And all contracts and obligations heretofore made, entered into or incurred by any such city or town so incorporated or reincorporated are hereby declared legal and valid and of full force and effect. § 8889. [7440.] Validation of Notice of Election.

Any municipal corporation which has been incorporated under the existing laws of this state shall be a valid municipal corporation notwithstanding a failure to publish the notice of the election held or to be held for the purpose of determining whether such city should or shall become incorporated, for the length of time required by law governing such incorporation: Provided, a notice fulfilling in other respects the requirements of law shall have been published for one week prior to such election in a newspaper printed and published within the boundaries of the corporation. [L. '99, p. 103, § 1.]

§ 8890. [7441.] Effect upon Corporate Indebtedness.

When so incorporated, the debts due from such town, village, or city, to any person, firm, or corporation, may be assumed and paid by the municipal authorities of such town, village, or city; and all debts due to such town, village, or city, from any person, firm, or corporation, shall be deemed ratified, and may be collected in the same manner and in all respects as though such original incorporation were valid. § 8891. [7442.] Duty of Outgoing Officers.

As soon as the officers elected under the provisions of either section 8885 or section 8886 shall have qualified in accordance with law, all persons, if any, then in possession of the offices of such corporation shall immediately quit and surrender up the possession of such offices, and shall deliver to the officers elected all moneys, books, papers, or other things in their official custody, and all property of such corporation in their hands, notwithstanding that the terms of office for which they were respectively elected or appointed may not then have expired; and all officers, boards, and persons holding any property in trust for any public use, the administration of which use is vested by such general laws in such corporation, or in any of its officers, shall, upon demand from such corporation or such officers, convey such property to such corporation or such officers, by good and sufficient deeds of conveyance, in trust for such public use. [L. '90, p. 136, § 8; I H. C., § 500.]

CHAPTER II.BOUNDARIES, ANNEXATION, ETC.*§ 8892. [7443.] Boundaries—Jurisdiction Over Contiguous Waters.

The powers and jurisdiction of all incorporated cities of the state of Washington having their boundaries or any part of their boundaries adjacent to or fronting on any bay or bays, lake or lakes, sound or sounds, river or rivers, or other navigable waters, be and the same are hereby extended into and over said waters and over any tide lands intervening between any such boundary and any such waters to the middle of such bays, sounds, lakes, rivers or other waters, in every manner and for every purpose that such powers and jurisdiction could be exercised when such cities' limits include such waters or any part of such waters: Provided, that in towns of the fourth class the territory added by this section shall [not] be over and above the one square mile now established by law as the maximum territory within the limits of such town. [L. '09, p. 392, § 1.]

§ 8893. Unincorporated Area Within Certain First Class Cities.

Any unincorporated area now lying wholly within the limits of any city of the first class having a population of two hundred and fifty thousand or upwards is hereby declared to be incorporated in, and to become a part of, the territorial limits of such city, and same shall be subject to the jurisdiction, laws and ordinances relating thereto: Provided, that no property so situated and so incorporated shall ever be taxed or assessed to pay any portion of the existing indebtedness of such city at the time this act shall take effect and contracted prior to, or existing, at the date of the passage of this act. [L. '21, p. 568, § 1.]

§ 8894. [7444.] Boundaries—Annexation by City Council—Election.

The boundaries of any municipal corporation may be altered and new territory included therein, after proceedings had as required in this section. The council, or other legislative body of such corporation, shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one-fifth of the qualified electors thereof, as shown by the votes cast at the last municipal election held therein, submit to the electors of such corporation, and to the electors residing in the territory proposed by such petition to be annexed to such corporation, the question whether such territory shall be annexed to such corporation and become a part thereof. Such question shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, and such legislative body shall give notice thereof, by publication in a newspaper printed and published in such corporation, and also in a newspaper printed and published outside of such corporation, and in the county in which such territory so proposed to be annexed is situated, in both cases for a period of four weeks prior to such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be so submitted, and shall designate specifically the boundaries of the territory so proposed to be annexed; and the electors shall be invited thereby to vote upon such proposition, by placing upon their ballots the words "For annexation," or "Against annexation," or words equivalent thereto. Such legislative body shall also designate the place or places at which the polls will be opened in such territory so proposed to be annexed, which place or places shall be that or those usually used for that purpose within such territory, if any such there be. Such legislative body shall also appoint and designate in such notice the names of the officers of election. Such legislative body shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat. The votes cast in such territory so proposed to be annexed shall be canvassed separately, and if it shall appear upon such canvass that a majority of all the votes cast in such territory and a majority of all the votes cast in such corporation shall be for annexation, such legislative body shall, by an order entered upon their minutes, cause their clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, to make and transmit to the secretary of state a certified abstract of such vote, which abstract shall show the whole number of electors voting in such territory, the whole number of electors voting in such corporation, the number of votes cast in each for annexation, and the number of votes cast in each against annexation. From and after the date of the filing of such abstract such annexation shall be deemed complete, and thereafter such territory shall be and remain a part of such corporation: Provided, that no property within such territory so annexed shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness of such corporation contracted prior to or existing at the date of such annexation. If the territory so proposed to be annexed consists in whole or in part of any municipal corporation or part thereof, such territory shall not be annexed under the provisions of this section: Provided, that such territory does not contain a population exceeding two thousand. § 8896. [7445.] Annexation to Cities of First Class.

Any portion of a county not heretofore incorporated as a municipal corporation, lying contiguous to any city of the first class, may become annexed to such city under the provisions of this act, and when so annexed shall become a part of said city: Provided, that whenever any such unincorporated territory is separated from any city of the first class by water, or by tide or shore lands on which no bona fide residence is maintained by any person, said unincorporated territory shall be deemed contiguous for all the purposes of this act. [L. '07, p. 676, § 1.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8896—8901.

§ 8897. [7446.] Petition to County Commissioners—Notice of Hearing.

A petition shall be presented to the board of county commissioners of such county, signed by at least twenty per centum of the qualified electors of such county, residents within the limits of the territory proposed to be annexed to such city, who voted at the last previous election as shown by the official poll-books, which petition shall set forth and particularly describe the boundaries of such territory, and state the number of qualified electors residing within such boundaries as nearly as may be, and shall pray that an election shall be called and held within the limits of such territory for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors residing therein, the question of such annexation under the provisions of this act. Such petition shall be filed in the office of such board and at the next regular or special meeting of said board thereafter, said board shall fix date for the hearing of the same, which shall be had not less than two weeks, nor more than four weeks thereafter, and notice of the hearing on said petition shall be published by said petitioners for at least two weeks prior thereto in some newspaper printed and published in such city to which it is proposed to annex such territory. After the filing of said petition as aforesaid, and pending the hearing of the same and pending the election to be called thereunder, said board shall not consider any other petition involving any portion of the territory embraced therein, provided that said petition may be withdrawn or a new petition embracing other or different boundaries substituted therefor by a majority of the signers thereof, when the same proceeding shall be taken as in the case of an original petition. Upon the date fixed for the hearing of said petition as aforesaid said board of county commissioners shall hear the same, or may continue such hearing from time to time not exceeding two weeks thereafter, and upon such hearing, if said petition be regular, said board shall grant the prayer thereof. [L. '07, p. 676, § 2.]

"Act": See note to last section.

§ 8898. [7447.] Notice of Election—Publication.

Upon the granting of said petition said board shall thereupon give notice of an election to be held in such proposed territory to be annexed, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days thereafter, for the purpose of determining whether the qualified electors thereof desire the annexation of the same to such city. Such notice shall particularly describe the boundaries of said territory and shall state the objects thereof as prayed in said petition, and shall be published for at least two weeks prior to the date of such election in a newspaper printed and published within the limits of the said territory to be annexed, or, if there be no such newspaper, then in a newspaper printed and published in the city to which said territory is proposed to be annexed and by posting notice of such election, for at least two weeks in four public places within such territory. Such notices shall require the voters to cast ballots which shall contain the words "For annexation," or "Against annexation," or words equivalent thereto, which said ballots shall be furnished by said board of county commissioners. [L. '07, p. 677, § 3.]

In General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 14, and cases cited.

§ 8899. [7448.] Voters—Returns—Abstract of Vote.

§ 8900. [7449.] Abstract of Canvass—Transmission to City Council—Indebtedness.

Upon the filing of such finding and order, together with such abstract with said city clerk as prescribed in the last preceding section, said clerk shall transmit the same to the city council of such city at its next regular meeting held thereafter, for the consideration by said council at such meeting, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, and if said council deem it wise or expedient to take or annex such contiguous territory to said city, then said council shall adopt a resolution requiring its corporate counsel to prepare an ordinance providing for the annexation of said territory in due form of law, and upon the adoption of such ordinance by said council and the taking effect thereof the said territory so annexed shall thereupon become a part of such city and subject to all its laws and ordinances then and thereafter in force: Provided, that no property within the limits [of] such territory so annexed shall ever be taxed or assessed to pay any portion of any indebtedness of such city to which it shall be so annexed, contracted prior to, or existing at, the date of such annexation. [L. '07, p. 678, § 5.]

§ 8901. [7450.] Act Concurrent.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to supersede or repeal any existing law providing for the annexation of adjacent territory or extension of the boundaries of cities of the first class, but the same shall be considered as an alternative or concurrent proceeding herewith. [L. '07, p. 679, § 6.]

As to proceedings for annexation applicable to all cities, see § 8894, supra.

Consolidation of cities and towns: See § 8909 et seq.

§ 8902. [7451.] Reduction of Corporate Limits—Proceedings Required.

The boundaries of any municipal corporation may be altered and a portion of the territory thereof excluded therefrom after proceedings had as required in this act. Upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one-fifth of the qualified electors thereof, as shown by the votes cast at the last municipal election held therein, praying the city council or other legislative body to submit to the qualified electors of said corporation the proposition to change and alter the corporate limits of said city, town or village, and to exclude a portion of the territory therefrom, setting out and describing the territory to be excluded therefrom, together with the boundaries of the said corporation as it will exist after such change is made, the city council or other legislative body of said corporation shall submit to the electors of said corporation the question whether such territory shall be excluded from said corporation and be no longer a part thereof. Such question shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, and said legislative body shall give notice thereof by publication for at least four weeks prior to said election, in some newspaper printed and published in said corporation. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be submitted, and shall designate specifically the territory so proposed to be excluded, and the boundary of said corporation after said alterations of its boundaries and the exclusion of the portion of the territory therefrom; and the electors shall be invited thereby to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For reduction of corporate limits," and "Against reduction of corporate limits," or words equal thereto; said legislative body shall also bound and designate in such notice the names of the officers of election and the place or places at which the polls will be opened for said election. Said legislative body shall meet on the Monday next succeeding such election and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat. The votes cast in said corporation shall be canvassed, and if it shall appear upon said canvass that three-fifths of the electors voting at said election shall be for the reduction of the territory, said legislative body shall, by an order entered upon their minutes, cause their clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, to make and transmit to the secretary of state a certified abstract of said vote, which abstract shall show the whole number of electors voting in said corporation, the number of votes cast for the reduction of territory, and the number of votes cast against the reduction of territory. [L. '95, p. 183, § 1.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8902—8905.

§ 8903. [7452.] Declaration by Council.

The city council or other legislative body of said corporation shall, immediately after said abstract of votes has been filed with the secretary of state, cause to be introduced and passed an ordinance defining and fixing the corporate limits of said corporation as set out and defined in the petition and notice of election, as referred to in section 8902, and setting forth by metes and bounds or by legal subdivisions the territory excluded from said corporation, and declaring such territory no longer a part of said corporation. [L. '95, p. 184, § 2.]

§ 8904. [7453.] Plat of Limits as Reduced.

Immediately after the passage, approval and publication of said ordinance, a copy thereof, duly certified by the clerk of said corporation or other officer performing the duties of clerk, together with a map and plat showing the corporate limits of said corporation as altered and changed, shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county auditor in the county in which said municipal corporation is situate. Thereafter the boundary of said corporation shall be as set forth in said ordinance. [L. '95, p. 185, § 3.]

§ 8905. [7454.] Election for Reduction—Time of.

No election provided for in this act shall be held within ninety days next preceding any general election held under the laws of the state of Washington, or of any general municipal election held under said laws or the ordinances of the corporation: Provided, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to exempt any real property segregated by the provisions of this act from taxation for the purpose of paying any outstanding bonded or other indebtedness of any such city, and the interest of any such indebtedness. [L. '95, p. 185, § 4.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8902—8905.

§ 8906. [7454-1.] Authority to Accept Grants from United States.

Whenever there shall have heretofore been or shall hereafter be tendered or offered to any incorporated city other than cities of the first class, by gift, grant or lease, from the government of the United States the right to occupy, control, improve, use or sublease for commercial, manufacturing or industrial purposes, any lands, waters or other territory lying adjacent to but outside the corporate limits of such city, the legislative authorities of such city if they shall deem it necessary or expedient or for the best interests of such city, may and they are hereby authorized to, by ordinance, accept such tender or offer and assume and exercise, on behalf of such city, the right to occupy, control, improve, use and sublease such territory and comply with all the conditions of said gift, grant or lease, and annex said territory, and such intervening or adjacent shore or tide lands as may be convenient or necessary for the use thereof, and to include the same within the corporate limits of such city: Provided, this act shall not apply to any territory or property more than four miles from the corporate limits existing before such annexation. [L. '15, p. 29, § 1.]

§ 8907. [7454-2.] Division of Annexed Territory into Wards.

Whenever any city shall have annexed or shall hereafter annex any such territory as in the preceding section provided, the territory so annexed shall become and be a part of the ward or wards of such city adjacent thereto or shall become and be a separate ward of such city as may be provided in the ordinance annexing the same, and such city shall thereafter have and may exercise over and within such annexed territory the same jurisdiction and authority that it had within its former corporate limits at the time of such annexation or which may be thereafter conferred upon it by law, and may cause such annexed territory, lands and waters to be surveyed, subdivided and platted into lots, blocks and tracts, and lay out and reserve for public use and improve streets, roads, alleys, slips and other public places, and grant and sublease any such lot, block or tract for commercial, manufacturing or industrial purposes, and reserve, receive and collect rents therefor and expend the same in making and maintaining public improvements within such annexed territory, and in case any surplus thereof remains at the end of any fiscal year, may deposit the same in the current expense or general fund of such city and expend the same for any municipal purpose. [L. '15, p. 29, § 2.]

§ 8908. [7454-3.] Validation of Prior Acceptances.

All ordinances heretofore passed by the legislative authority of any such incorporated city for the purpose of accepting any gift, grant or lease of or annexing any territory as hereinabove provided are hereby validated. [L. '15, p. 30, § 3.]

CHAPTER III.

CONSOLIDATION.

§ 8909. [7455.] Procedure—Election—Notice—Ballots.

Two or more contiguous municipal corporations may become consolidated into one corporation after proceedings had as required in this chapter: The council, or other legislative body, of either of such corporations, shall upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one-fifth of the qualified electors of each of such corporations, as shown by the votes cast at the last municipal election held in each of such corporations, submit to the electors of each of such corporations the question whether such corporations shall become consolidated into one corporation. Such legislative body shall designate a day upon which a special election shall be held in each of such corporations to determine whether such consolidation shall be effected, and shall give written notice thereof to the council or other legislative body of each of the other of such corporations, which notice shall designate the name of a proposed new corporation. It shall thereupon be the duty of such legislative body of each of the corporations so proposed to be consolidated to give notice of such election by publication in a newspaper, printed and published in such corporation, for a period of four weeks prior to such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be submitted, the names of the corporations so proposed to be consolidated, the name of the proposed new corporation, and the class to which such proposed new corporation will belong, and shall invite the electors to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For consolidation," or "Against consolidation," or words equivalent thereto. [L. '07, p. 595, § 1. See historical references to § 8913, infra.]

§ 8910. [7456.] Canvass of Votes—Abstract Filed—Special Election for Officers.

The legislative bodies of each of such corporations shall meet in joint convention at the usual place of meeting of the legislative body of that one of the corporations having the largest population, as shown by the last state census, on the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat. The votes cast in each of such corporations shall be canvassed separately; and if it shall appear upon such canvass that a majority of the votes cast in each of such corporations shall be for consolidation, such joint convention, by an order entered upon their minutes, shall cause the clerk or other officer performing the duties of clerk, of the legislative body at whose place of meeting such joint convention was held, to make a certified abstract of such vote, which abstract shall show the whole number of electors voting at such election in each of such corporations, the number of votes cast in each for consolidation, and the number of votes cast in each against consolidation. Such abstract shall be recorded upon the minutes of the legislative body of each of such corporations, and immediately upon the record thereof, it shall be the duty of the clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, of each of such legislative bodies, to transmit to the secretary of state a certified copy of such abstract. Immediately after such filing the legislative body of that one of such corporations having the greatest population, as shown by the last state or national census, shall call a special election, to be held in such new corporation, for the election of the officers required by law to be elected in corporations of the class to which such new corporation shall belong; which election shall be held six months thereafter. Such election shall be called and conducted in all respects in the manner prescribed, or that may hereafter be prescribed by law for municipal elections in corporations of such class, and shall be canvassed by the legislative body so calling the same, who shall immediately declare the result thereof and cause the same to be entered upon their journal. [L. '07, p. 596, § 1.]

§ 8911. [7457.] Consolidation Effected When—Application of Act.

From and after the date of such entry such corporation shall be deemed to be consolidated into one corporation under the name and style of the city (or town as the case may be) of — (naming it) with the powers conferred or that may hereafter be conferred by law upon municipal corporations of the class to which the same shall so belong and the officers elected at such elections shall be entitled immediately to enter upon the duties of their respective offices, upon qualifying in accordance with law, and shall hold such offices respectively, only until the next general municipal election to be held in such city or town, and until their successors are elected and qualified. All the provisions of sections 8887 and 8888 shall apply to such corporations and to the officers thereof: Provided, that in all cases wherein cities and towns of the third and fourth class desire annexation to cities of the first class, no election shall be required to be held in such cities of the first class. [L. '07, p. 597, § 1.]

§ 8912. [7458.] Consolidation of Third and Fourth Class With First Class Cities—Election.

When any city or town of the third or fourth class shall vote in favor of annexation to any city of the first class, the legislative body of such city or town so voting shall canvass such votes, and if in favor of annexation may (if said city or town desires to be annexed as a separate ward or wards of the city of the first class) forthwith cause a census to be taken by one or more suitable persons of all the inhabitants of such city or town; in which census the full name of each person shall be plainly written and the names alphabetically arranged and regularly numbered in one complete series; which census shall be verified before an officer authorized to administer oaths, and upon the completion of such census the legislative body of such city or town shall forthwith file a petition, together with an abstract of the votes so taken and canvassed and a copy of the census so taken, with the city council of such city of the first class, praying for annexation under the name of such city of the first class. [L. '07, p. 597, § 1.]

§ 8913. [7459.] Petition to First Class City—Hearing—Ordinances.

At the next regular meeting of the city council of said city of the first class following the filing of such petition, abstract and copy of census, or as soon thereafter as practicable, said city council shall proceed to hear such petition, with the abstract and census attached, for annexation and if said council so deem it wise and expedient to take or annex such city or town of the third or fourth class then the city council of said city of the first class shall pass a resolution requiring its corporation council [counsel] to prepare an ordinance, as required by law and the charter of said city, covering the annexation of said city or town; which ordinance, in case of the population of said city or town as shown by said census is sufficient to constitute one or more wards under the charter of said city of the first class, shall provide that said city or town be annexed as one or more wards according to its population, as shown by said census, and shall assign a number or numbers thereto; and present the same to the city council. Upon the taking effect of said ordinance of such city of the first class such city or town so desiring to be annexed shall thereupon become a part of such city of the first class under the name of such city of the first class and subject to all its laws and ordinances then and there in force: Provided, that if the city or town so annexed shall have sufficient population, as shown by said census, to constitute a separate ward or wards, such city or town shall thereupon become a separate and distinct ward or wards of the said city of the first class, and the city council of the said city of the first class shall immediately call a special election to be held in such new ward or wards for the purpose of electing one councilman from each ward, who shall hold office until the next general election held in said city of the first class; such special election shall be held and conducted in all respects the same as provided by the charter, laws and ordinances of such city of the first class for the holding of special elections; and simultaneously the terms of office of the officers of the city or towns so annexed shall terminate. And it shall be the duty of the clerk of said city of the first class to forthwith transmit to the secretary of state a certified copy of the proceedings so had before said city of the first class relating to said matters of annexation: And further provided, that no property within either of the former corporations so consolidated shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness of either of the other of such former corporations, contracted prior to, or existing at, the date of such consolidation: And provided further, that where municipalities are separated by water or by tide or shore lands upon which no bona fide residence is maintained by any person such municipality shall be deemed to be contiguous for all the purposes of this chapter and may be consolidated under the terms hereof, and upon such consolidation any such intervening water, tide or shore lands shall become part of the consolidated city. [L. '90, p. 138, § 10; 1 H. C., § 502; L. '03, p. 279, § 1; L. '07, p. 598, § 1.]

In the absence of statutory regulation, upon the annexation of a city, the property and assets of the merged city become the property and assets of the other, free from any trust to apply it in payment of debts upon such property; and this section does not impress the property with any such trust: Forsyth v. Seattle, 73 Wash. 515, 132 Pac. 224.

CHAPTER IV.

DISSOLUTION OF THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS CITIES.

§ 8914. [7460.] Disincorporation.

Cities of the third and fourth class, having a population of less than four thousand inhabitants, and incorporated towns in the state of Washington, may be disincorporated in the manner following:— [L. '97, p. 127, § 1.]

Cited in 84 Wash. 260.

Dissolution of Corporation: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 21½: Parish v. Collins, 43 Wash. 392, 86 Pac. 557.

Dissolution of municipal corporation by nonuser or misuser of franchise. 12 Ann. Cas. 1137.

§ 8915. [7461.] Petition—Election.

Whenever a petition signed by a majority of the lawful registered voters of a city of the third and fourth class, containing less than four thousand inhabitants, shall be filed with the council of such city, or whenever a petition signed by a majority of the lawful registered voters of an incorporated town, shall be filed with the council of such town, it shall be the duty of such town to forthwith order an election to be held therein for the purpose of determining whether or not such corporation shall be dissolved, and for the further purpose of electing a receiver for the purpose of winding up the affairs of such city or town in case of dissolution: Provided, that in such cities and towns as may have no indebtedness or outstanding liabilities a receiver shall not be elected. The election provided for herein shall be at least thirty days after the filing of the petition upon which the election may be ordered. [L. '97, p. 127, § 2.]

§ 8916. [7462.] Notice of Election.

It shall be the duty of the city or town clerk, as the case may be, to give at least twenty days' notice of such election. The notice shall contain a statement of the purpose or purposes for which the election is called, and the time at which it is to be held, and shall be published for at least two consecutive weeks in any weekly newspaper published in such city or town. If there be no such paper, then such notice shall be posted, and kept posted, in five of the most public places thereof for the period of at least twenty days previous to the day of election. [L. '97, p. 128, § 3.]

§ 8917. [7463.] Ballots, Form of.

The ballots for such election shall be printed at the expense of the corporation, and there shall be printed upon each of such ballots the words "For dissolution" in one line, and the words "Against dissolution" in another line, and in other and separate lines the names of each of the lawfully nominated candidates for receiver. In all other respects such ballots shall be in conformity with the law regulating elections in such cities and towns. [L. '97, p. 128, § 4.]

§ 8918. [7464.] Voting, Manner of.

Such election shall be conducted as other elections are required by law to be conducted in such cities or towns, excepting as is herein otherwise provided; and only such persons shall be qualified to vote thereat as would be competent to vote at a general municipal election thereof. The voter shall indicate his choice by affixing a designating mark after the words "For dissolution" or after the words "Against dissolution," as he may desire, and also by affixing such distinguishing mark opposite the name of the person for whom he desires to vote as receiver, if a receiver is to be voted for. [L. '97, p. 128, § 5.]

§ 8919. [7465.] Returns, Canvass of.

The result of such election, together with the ballots cast, shall be certified by the election officers to the council of such city or town, which council shall canvass such returns at a meeting which shall be held one week from the day of such election, and shall declare the result, which shall be made of record in the journal of the council proceedings. If the vote "For dissolution" be a majority of the registered voters of such city or town, such corporation shall be deemed dissolved, and, except as otherwise herein provided, the powers and privileges of such corporation shall be deemed surrendered to the state, and, except as otherwise provided herein, it shall be absolved from any further duty to the state or its own inhabitants: Provided, that all the offices of such city or town shall continue in the exercise of all their powers until the receiver provided for in this chapter shall have qualified: And provided further, that in case no receiver is required, all the officers appertaining to such city or town shall, upon the entry of such result, forthwith cease to exist. [L. '97, p. 129, § 6.]

§ 8920. [7466.] Receiver to Qualify.

In case of a dissolution of such corporation, the person receiving the highest number of votes for receiver shall be declared elected as such, and he shall within ten days thereafter qualify by filing with the county auditor of the county in which such city or town may be situated, a bond in penalty equal in amount to the audited indebtedness and established liabilities of such city or town, with sureties to the satisfaction of the board of county commissioners or the judge of the superior court of such county, if the commissioners be not in session, which bond shall run to the state of Washington and shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such receiver, and the prompt payment in the order of their priority of all lawful claims against such city or town, as they may be finally established, and as funds may come into his hands with which to discharge them. Such bond shall be filed by the county auditor and shall be a public record, and shall be for the benefit of any person who may be injured by the failure or refusal of such receiver to discharge his duty. [L. '97, p. 129, § 7.]

§ 8921. [7467.] Procedure in Case of Failure to Qualify.

In case such receiver shall fail to qualify in the manner and form herein provided, within ten days after the result of the election shall have been declared, it shall be the duty of the council to file in the superior court of the county in which such city or town may be situated, a petition setting forth the fact of the election and the result thereof, and the failure of the receiver elected thereat to qualify within the time last above mentioned, and praying for the appointment of another person as a receiver, of which said petition, and of the time of making application thereupon, such receiver shall have three days' notice, if he be found within the county, otherwise no notice shall be required, and thereupon the court shall be deemed to have jurisdiction of the matter for all purposes, and unless good cause to the contrary be shown, such court shall appoint some suitable and proper person as such receiver, who shall in turn and within ten days qualify as prescribed in section 8920. In case the council do not file the petition and make the application provided for by this section, within the time herein provided, it shall be the privilege of any taxpayer or citizen of such city or town to file such petition and to make such application. [L. '97, p. 130, § 8.]

§ 8922. [7468.] Receiver's Duties.

Upon qualifying, as hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the receiver to take possession, and the duty of the several officers of the late corporation to surrender to such receiver all the property, moneys, vouchers, records and books thereof, or in any manner appertaining to its business, and he shall forthwith proceed to wind [up] the affairs of such city or town; and for such purpose he shall have authority to pay:—

All outstanding warrants and bonds;

All lawful claims against the city or town which have been duly audited and allowed by the council;

All lawful claims which may be presented to him within the time limited by law for the presentation of such claims, but no claim shall be allowed or paid which is not presented within six months from the date of the election provided for in section 8918;

All claims that by final adjudication may come to be established as lawful claims against the corporation;

All outstanding warrants and claims shall be paid in the order of their priority, having reference to the fund on which they are properly a charge, and all bonds shall be paid in the order of their maturity, having reference to the fund on which they are issued. [L. '97, p. 130, § 9.]

§ 8923. [7469.] Sale of Property to Pay Debts—Tax.

For the purpose of enabling the receiver to pay such claims, he is hereby authorized to sell at public auction, after such public notice as the sheriff is required to give on sale of like property, all the property of such late corporation, excepting such as may be necessary to enable him to wind up the affairs thereof, and excepting also all such as may have been dedicated to public use. Personal property shall be sold for cash in hand, and real property may be sold either for cash in hand, or for one-half cash and the balance in deferred payments, the last payment not being later than one year from the date of sale, in the discretion of the receiver, he, however, to hold the title until the purchase price shall have been fully paid. The receiver shall further have the power to levy taxes on all property in the same manner and to the same extent as the proper authorities of the city or town could have done if such corporation had not been dissolved, and to receive such taxes when collected, and to apply the proceeds arising from such sales and taxes to the extinguishment of the obligations of such late corporation in the manner provided in the last preceding section, but after all the legal claims against such late corporation have been paid excepting bonds not yet due, the tax levy shall be no greater than sufficient to meet the accruing interest, until the maturity of such bonds or securities, when the levy may be sufficient to meet the same: Provided, that no levy greater than two mills on the dollar shall be made therefor. [L. '97, p. 131, § 10.]

§ 8924. [7470.] Commissions of Receiver.

The receiver shall be entitled to deduct from any funds coming into his hands a commission of six per centum on the first thousand dollars, five per centum on the second thousand, and four per centum on all moneys over two thousand, as his full compensation, exclusive of necessary traveling expenses and necessary disbursements, but not exclusive of attorneys' fees. [L. '97, p. 131, § 11.]

§ 8925. [7471.] May Sue and be Sued.

The receiver shall have the right to sue and be sued in all cases whatsoever necessary or proper for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the late corporation, and shall be subject to be sued in all cases wherein the city or town might have been sued, excepting as in this chapter otherwise provided. [L. '97, p. 132, § 12.]

§ 8926. [7472.] May be Removed for Cause.

The receiver shall proceed to wind up the affairs of the late corporation with diligence, and may, for negligence or misconduct in the discharge of his duties, be subject to removal by the superior court upon a proper showing made by a taxpayer of such late corporation, or by an unsatisfied creditor thereof. In case of the removal, death or resignation of a receiver, the court shall have power to appoint a new receiver and to take charge of the affairs of the late corporation, as in case of other receiverships. [L. '97, p. 132, § 13.]

§ 8927. [7473.] How Discharged.

Upon the final payment of all lawful demands against such late corporation, it shall be the duty of the receiver to file a final account, together with all vouchers, with the county clerk, and any funds remaining in his hands shall be paid to the county treasurer for the use of the school district in which such city or town may be situated; and thereupon such receivership shall be deemed ended. [L. '97, p. 132, § 14.]

§ 8928. [7474.] When No Receiver Elected, Procedure.

In case an election should be ordered as provided in section 8915, and no receiver should be elected, upon the supposition that there was no indebtedness or outstanding liabilities, and it should subsequently transpire that there was such indebtedness or liability, any person interested may, unless such indebtedness be paid, file a petition in the superior court, and the court shall appoint a receiver, who shall qualify, and proceed in like manner and have like powers and authority as any other receiver provided for in this chapter. [L. '97, p. 132, § 15.]

§ 8929. [7475.] Census.

In case a petition be filed for the purpose of calling an election, as provided in section 8915, it shall be the duty of the council to appoint a suitable person to make an enumeration of the inhabitants of such city, and such enumeration, unless impeached for fraud, shall be conclusive: Provided, that if an enumeration shall have been made for the city, county, state or the United States within six months next previous to the filing of such petition, and such enumeration shows the population of such city to be less than four thousand inhabitants, then no other enumeration shall be necessary. [L. '97, p. 132, § 16.]

§ 8930. [7476.] Streets to Remain Public Highways.

Upon the dissolution of any incorporation, the streets and highways of such city or town shall revert to the control of the state, and shall remain public highways until closed in pursuance of law; and the territory embraced within such city or town shall be made into a new road district or annexed to adjoining districts, as may be ordered by the board of county commissioners of the county embracing such city or town. [L. '97, p. 133, § 17.]

§ 8931. [7477.] Existing Contracts not to be Impaired.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as impairing the obligation of any contract; and in case any franchise may have been lawfully granted, which franchise shall not have expired at the time of the dissolution of such municipal corporation, nothing herein contained shall be construed as an impairment of such franchise, and no right shall be implied herefrom to interfere therewith to any greater extent than such city or town might lawfully have done had it remained incorporated. [L. '97, p. 133, § 18.]

CHAPTER V.

CLASSIFICATION.

Unclassified cities: See next chapter.

§ 8932. [7478.] How Classified.

Municipal corporations are divided into cities and towns; cities are divided into three classes: first, second, and third. [L. '90, p. 140, § 11; 1 H. C., § 503.]

Cited in 70 Wash. 596.

Classification and Grades: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 9, and cases cited.

Validity of statute classifying municipalities according to differences in population. 15 Ann. Cas. 856.

§ 8933. [7479.] Classification, How Determined.

Existing corporations organized as cities of the first class shall remain such, and the classes of those which may be or may become cities of the first class shall be determined as follows: Those which on the first day of the month of January last had, and those which hereafter on the first day of the month of January in any year have, according to an official report or abstract of the then next preceding federal or state census, more than twenty thousand inhabitants shall constitute the first class, and shall be organized and governed under the laws relating to cities authorized to frame and adopt their own charters; those which on the first day of the month of January last had, and those which hereafter on the first day of the month of January in any year have, when ascertained in the same way, more than ten thousand and less than twenty thousand inhabitants shall constitute the second class; and those which on the first day of the month of January last had, and those which hereafter on the first day of the month of January in any year have, when ascertained in the same way, more than fifteen hundred and less than ten thousand inhabitants shall constitute the third class: Provided, that when a petition is filed in accordance with section 8886, seeking reorganization of any town or city as a city of a higher class than that indicated by the last preceding federal or state census, then in such case the council or other legislative body to which such petition is presented, shall forthwith cause a census to be taken by one or more suitable persons, of all the inhabitants of such town or city in which census the full name of each person shall be plainly written, and the names alphabetically arranged and regularly numbered in complete series; which census shall be verified before an officer authorized to administer oaths, and filed with the clerk of the corporation. And if such census shows such city or town to belong to the class named in such petition, the same proceedings shall be had as if such census were a federal or state census. But if such census shows such town or city not entitled to belong to the class named in such petition, no further proceedings shall be had: Provided further, that such city or town may be re-organized as a city or town of the class indicated by such census, upon a proper petition filed within six months from the filing of such census with the clerk of the corporation, without other or further census. [L. '90, p. 140, § 12; 1 H. C., § 504; L. '07, p. 690, § 1.]

See infra, § 8952, census in cities of first class.

§ 8934. [7480.] Towns Defined.

All corporations organized under this act, and containing not more than fifteen hundred nor less than three hundred inhabitants on the first day of the month of January last, shall be known as towns, and shall remain such until they become cities of the third class. [L. '90, p. 141, § 13; 1 H. C., § 505.]

"This act": See note to § 8883.

Cited in 4 Wash. 419; 64 Wash. 73; 70 Wash. 596.

The term "incorporated cities" as used in the appeal act of 1891 (2 Hill's Code, § 1408), applies to all municipal incorporations, and "towns" are accordingly not required to file bonds upon appeal: Elma v. Carney, 4 Wash. 418, 30 Pac. 732.

The same general powers are granted to cities and towns of the third and fourth class as to cities of the second class, but many powers are granted to larger cities which are not granted to smaller ones: Wilson v. Byers, 5 Wash. 303, 32 Pac. 90, 34 Am. St. Rep. 858.

§ 8935. [7481.] Rights and Privileges—Restrictions upon Area.

Municipal corporations now or hereafter organized are bodies politic and corporate under the name of the city of —, or the town of —, as the case may be, and as such may sue and be sued, contract or be contracted with, acquire, hold, possess, and dispose of property, subject to the restrictions contained in other chapters of this act, have a common seal, and change or alter the same at pleasure, and exercise such other powers, and have such other privileges, as are conferred by this title: Provided, that not more than one square mile in area shall be included within the corporate limits of municipal corporations of the fourth class, nor shall more than twenty acres of unplatted land belonging to any one person be taken within the corporate limits of municipal corporations of the fourth class, without the consent of the owner of such unplatted land. [L. '90, p. 141, § 15; 1 H. C., § 507.]

Cited in 105 Wash. 96.

Territory Which may be Included: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 4, and cases cited.

Although platted for agricultural or garden purposes, lands may be included within the corporate limits of a town as platted land, where they were surveyed and subdivided into small tracts, designated by lot numbers, with streets named: State ex rel. Cummings v. Johnson, 105 Wash. 93, 177 Pac. 699.

Under this section, the inclusion of 20 acres and the exclusion of 22.15 acres of one owner is proper: State ex rel. Cummings v. Johnson, 105 Wash. 93, 177 Pac. 699.

§ 8936. [7482.] Advancement into Classes.

A city of the second class shall not be advanced to the first class until it attains a population of twenty thousand inhabitants. A city of the third class shall not be advanced to the second class until it attains a population of ten thousand. A town shall not be advanced to a city of the third class until it attains a population of fifteen hundred inhabitants. [L. '90, p. 141, § 14; 1 H. C., § 506.]

to another as self-executing: Ann. Cas. 1916D, 868.

§ 8937. [7483.] Petition for—Election.

When a petition signed by one hundred freeholders of a town, or two hundred freeholders of a city of the third class, is presented to the council of the corporation in which the signers reside, setting forth that they desire such town to be advanced to a city of the third class, or such city of the third class to a city of the second class, and that they have the population requisite for such advancement, the council shall cause notice to be given by the mayor as in other cases, that at the next annual election for officers of such city or town, or at a special election to be called for that purpose, the electors may vote for or against the advancement, their ballots to contain the words "For advancement" or the words "Against advancement." [L. '90, p. 141, § 16; 1 H. C., § 508; L. '99, p. 102, § 1.]

See supra, § 8936, restrictions upon.

§ 8938. [7484.] Votes to be Certified.

The clerks and judges of such election shall forthwith certify in duplicate to the clerk of the corporation the whole number of votes given at such election, the number given for such advancement, and the number against it. [L. '90, p. 142, § 17; 1 H. C., § 509.]

§ 8939. [7485.] Census Taken When Advancement Prevails.

If a majority of the votes is in favor of the advancement, and the corporation, according to the last preceding federal or state census, had not the requisite population, the council shall forthwith cause a census to be taken by one or more suitable persons of all the inhabitants of such city or town; in which census the full name of each person shall be plainly written, and the names alphabetically arranged and regularly numbered in one complete series; which census shall be verified before an officer authorized to administer oaths, and filed with the clerk of the corporation. [L. '90, p. 142, § 18; 1 H. C., § 510.]

Taking of Census in General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 9, and cases cited.

This section does not authorize a census by officers of the city to determine the salary of justices of the peace: State ex rel. Elwood v. Lovering, 78 Wash. 624, 139 Pac. 617.

§ 8940. [7486.] Proceedings Stayed, When.

The clerk shall lay the certificate of election and census before the council at its next regular meeting after the same shall have been filed in his office, and if it appear that all the votes cast for the advancement are not a majority of the votes cast at the election, or that the corporation does not contain the requisite population to be advanced, no further proceedings shall be had on that petition; but this shall not bar any new proceedings for such purpose. [L. '90, p. 142, § 19; 1 H. C., § 511.]

§ 8941. [7487.] Resolution to be Certified to Commissioners.

If a majority of votes is in favor of such advancement, and the corporation, according to the state census, or the census taken by order of the council, contains the requisite number of inhabitants, the council shall thereupon, by resolution, declare that the inhabitants of the corporation have decided on such advancement, and direct the clerk to certify the resolution to the clerk of the board of county commissioners. [L. '90, p. 142, § 20; 1 H. C., § 512.]

§ 8942. [7488.] Becomes City, When—Notice of.

It shall be the duty of the said board to cause a record of such action to be made, and when the clerk of said board shall make the record, he shall certify and forward to the secretary of state a transcript of the same, whereupon such corporation shall be a city of the third, second, or first class, as the case may be, to be organized and governed under the provisions of this act; and when the corporation is actually organized by the election and qualification of its officers, notice of its existence as such shall be taken in all judicial proceedings. [L. '90, p. 142, § 21; 1 H. C., § 513.]

"This act": See note to § 8883.

After a town of the first class is raised to a city of the third class, the councilmen of the old corporation continue to act and have power to pass ordinances until the organization of the new corporation by the election and qualification of new officers at the next general election, pursuant to the provisions of this and the next section: State ex rel. Sylvester v. Superior Court, 64 Wash. 594, 117 Pac. 487.

§ 8943. [7489.] New Corporation to Elect Officers, When.

The first election of officers of the new corporation shall be at the first annual municipal election after such proceedings, and the officers of the old corporation shall remain in office until the officers of the new corporation are elected and qualified; and the ordinances, by-laws, and resolutions adopted by the old corporation shall, as far as consistent with the provisions of this act, continue in force until repealed by the council of the new corporation; and the council and officers of the old corporation shall, upon demand, after the expiration of their term of office, deliver to the proper officers of the new corporation all books of record, documents, and papers in their possession belonging to the old corporation. CHAPTER VI.UNCLASSIFIED CITIES.*§ 8944. [7490.] Additional Powers Granted.

The council, or other legislative body, of all cities within the state of Washington which were created by special charter prior to the adoption of the state Constitution, and which have not since re-incorporated under any general statute, shall have, in addition to the powers specially granted by the charter of such cities, the following powers:

- (1) To contruct, establish and maintain drains and sewers.
- (2) To impose and collect an annual license not exceeding two dollars on every dog owned or harbored within the limits of the city.
- (3) To levy and collect annually a property tax on all property within such city.
- (4) To license all shows, exhibitions and lawful games carried on therein; and to fix the rates of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise.
- (5) To permit, under such restrictions as they may deem proper, the construction and maintenance of telephone, telegraph and electric light lines therein.
- (6) To impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances; and for any breach or violation of any ordinance; to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment or both (but no such fines shall exceed three hundred dollars or the term of imprisonment or both); but no such fine shall exceed three hundred dollars nor the term of imprisonment exceed three months.
- (7) To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets or other public property or works within the city.
- (8) To make all such ordinances, by-laws and regulations, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, as may be deemed expedient to maintain the peace, good government and welfare of the city, and to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of the municipal corporation. [L. '99, p. 112, § 1.]

§ 8945. [7491.] Sewer Systems, Funds for.

The city council of all unclassified cities in this state are hereby authorized and empowered to construct a sewer or system of sewers and to keep the same in repair; the cost of such sewer or sewers shall be paid from a special fund to be known as the "sewer fund" [to] be provided by the city council which fund shall be created by a tax on all the property within the limits of such city: Provided, that such tax shall not exceed fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such city for any one year. Whenever it shall become necessary for the city to take or damage private property for the purpose of making or repairing sewers, and the city council cannot agree with the owner as to the price to be paid, the city council may direct proceedings to be taken by law for the condemnation of such property for such purpose. [L. '99, p. 113, § 2.]

§ 8946. [7492.] Power to Provide System for Assessments, etc., of Taxes.

The city council shall have power to provide by ordinance a complete system for the assessment, levy, and collection of all city taxes. All taxes assessed together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the cost of collection, shall constitute liens on the property assessed from and after the first day of November each year; which liens may be enforced by a summary sale of such property, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance or by action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such liens: Provided, that any property sold for taxes shall be subject to redemption within the time and within the manner provided or that may hereafter be provided by law for the redemption of property sold for state and county taxes. [L. '99, p. 114, § 3.]

CHAPTER VII.

CITIES OF FIRST CLASS, GENERAL PROVISIONS.

§ 8947. [7493.] Organization and Government.

Cities of the first class shall be organized and governed according to the law providing for the government of cities having a population of twenty thousand or more inhabitants, in accordance with section 10, Article XI, of the Constitution of this state. [L. '90, p. 143, § 23; 1 H. C., § 515.]

The remainder of this chapter, down to and including § 8982, contains the act of March 24, 1890, relating to the charters of cities of twenty thousand inhabitants and upward, except as repealed, with additional acts.

See supra, § 5568, city depositaries, duty of city treasurer.

Cited in 25 Wash. 304.

§ 8948. [7493-1.] Powers of Cities of First Class.

The form of the organization and the manner and mode in which cities of the first class shall exercise the powers, functions and duties which are or may be given by law to such cities, with respect to their own government shall be as provided in the charters thereof. [L. '11, p. 54, § 1.]

See, also, § 8966, infra, and notes.

Cited in 80 Wash. 230; 87 Wash. 585; 88 Wash. 623; 92 Wash. 334.

This act does not impliedly repeal section 11082, infra, conferring upon the mayor and council the power to grant franchises; since the power to grant franchises is a sovereign power which may be delegated by the state and is not within the act of 1911 relating to powers exercised by cities, "with respect to their own government": Dolan v. Puget Sound Traction, Light & Power Co., 72 Wash. 343, 130 Pac. 353.

This act, and section 11319, having delegated to cities of the first class the right to levy taxes without providing how or in what manner the power is to be exercised, recourse must be had to the provisions of the city charter; and Seattle Charter, Article IV, section 18, having expressly provided that the city council shall have power "by ordinance and not otherwise" to provide for the assessing, levying and collecting of taxes, a tax levy cannot be authorized by resolution, and is subject to the veto power of the mayor; especially in view of this section: New Seattle Chamber of Commerce v. Seattle, 88 Wash. 620, 153 Pac. 351.

An ordinance granting a telephone franchise in a city of the first class is subject to the referendum provision of the city charter requiring all franchise ordinances to be submitted to referendum, notwithstanding section 11352, infra, relating to telephone companies, which provides that the streets of the city cannot be used by a telephone company without the consent of the "city council," in view of section 8966, subdivision 7, giving a first-class city, as a corporate entity as distinguished from its "legislative authority," power to regulate and control the use of streets and authorize or prohibit the use of electricity in or upon the same, and to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which the same may be used; the city charter having been adopted pursuant to this section: State ex rel. Walker v. Superior Court, 87 Wash. 582, 152 Pac. 11.

§ 8949. [7493-2.] Recall of Elective Officers.

Any such city may provide in its charter for the recall of elective officers and for direct legislation by the people upon any matter within the scope of such powers, functions or duties of any such city by the initiative and referendum. [L. '11, p. 54, § 2.]

§ 8950. [7493-3.] Act Applies to Any Charter.

This act shall apply to any charter of any such city heretofore adopted or approved by the electors thereof at an election duly held. [L. '11, p. 54, § 3.]

§ 8951. [7494.] May Frame Charter for Its Own Government.

Any city now having, or which may hereafter have, a population of twenty thousand or more inhabitants may frame a charter for its own government. [L. '90, p. 215, § 1; 1 H. C., § 516.]

§ 8952. [7495.] Enumerating Inhabitants—Evidence as to City's Population.

The legislative authority of any such city now incorporated, or which may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this state, may, by ordinance, provide for the appointment, by the mayor thereof, of such number of persons as shall be designated in such ordinance, to make an enumeration of all persons residing in the corporate limits of such city. The persons so appointed shall, before entering upon their duties, take an oath for the faithful performance thereof, and shall, within five days after their appointment, proceed, within their respective districts, to make an enumeration of all persons residing therein, with their names and places of residence, and immediately upon the completion of such enumeration, shall make return thereof, upon oath, to the legislative authority of said city, who shall, at their next meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, canvass and certify the same, and if it shall appear that the whole number of persons residing within the corporate limits of such city is twenty thousand or more, the mayor and clerk shall certify, under the corporate seal of said city, the number so ascertained, to the secretary of the state, who shall file the same in his office, and when so filed such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the population of said city. [L. '90, p. 216, § 2; 1 H. C., § 517.]

See supra, § 8933, classification, how determined.

See supra, § 8936, advancement of second class city to first class.

§ 8953. [7496.] Formation of Charter.

If it shall appear by such certificate that the population of such city is twenty thousand or more, the legislative authority thereof shall, within twenty days after the filing of such certificate, provide by ordinance for an election to be held therein for the purpose of electing fifteen freeholders, who shall have been residents of said city for the period of at least two years preceding their election, and qualified electors, for the purpose of framing a charter for such city. It shall be the duty of the persons so elected to convene within ten days after their election and frame a charter for such city, and within thirty days thereafter they, or a majority of their number, shall submit such charter to the legislative authority of such city, who shall, within five days thereafter, cause the same to be published in two daily newspapers published in said city for thirty days, and upon the affidavit of the publisher of each of said papers being filed with the clerk of said city, that the said proposed charter has been published in full in said papers as above provided, which affidavit shall be made immediately after the last publication of such proposed charter, the legislative authority of such city shall, within five days thereafter, provide for the submission thereof to the qualified voters of said city, and shall, for that purpose, give at least ten days' notice in each election district of said city, by publishing such notice in two daily newspapers published in said city, and by causing the same to be posted at each polling place in the several election districts thereof, of an election, which notice shall specify the object for which said election is called. Said election shall be governed by the laws regulating and controlling elections in said city. The form of ballot at such election shall be, "For the proposed charter," "Against the proposed charter." In submitting such proposed charter, or amendments thereto, any alternate article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters of such city, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others. In submitting such amendment, article, or proposition, the form of ballot shall be, "For article No. — of the charter," "Against article No. — of the charter." [L. '90, p. 216, § 3; 1 H. C., § 518.]

See infra, § 8955 et seq., revision, etc., of charter, proceedings to effect.

Cited in 4 Wash. 144, 147; 7 Wash. 138; 16 Wash. 387. Under this section the action of the city clerk in affixing numbers to the amendments, both in the election notice and on the ballots is a sufficient compliance with the law, although the city council may have failed to number the proposed amendments: Pierce v. City Clerk of Spokane, 7 Wash. 132, 34 Pac. 428.

§ 8954. [7497.] Returns—Certificate of Election—Charter-book.

The officers conducting such election shall make returns thereof within the time and in the manner provided by the election laws of such city, and the vote thereof shall be canvassed and the result declared as provided by such laws; and if upon such canvass it shall be found that a majority of the votes so cast at such election were cast in favor of the ratification of such charter, the same shall become the organic law of said city, and shall supersede any existing charter, and all amendments thereto, and all special laws inconsistent therewith, when authenticated, recorded, and attested as hereinafter provided. The mayor of said city shall thereupon attach to said charter a certificate in substance as follows:—

I, —, mayor of the city of —, do hereby certify that, in accordance with the terms and provisions of section 10 of article XI of the constitution, and of chapter — of the laws of said state, the — of the city of —, duly caused a — election to be held on the — day of —, 18—, for the purpose of electing fifteen freeholders to prepare a charter for the city of —; that due notice of such election was given in the manner provided by law; that on the — day of —, 18—, said election was held, and the votes cast thereat were duly canvassed by the legislative authority of said city, and the following named persons were declared duly elected to prepare and propose a charter for said city, to wit: —. That thereafter, to wit, on the — day of —, 18—, said board of freeholders duly returned a proposed charter for the city of —, signed by the following members thereof, to wit: —. That thereafter such proposed charter was duly published in two daily newspapers in said city and of general circulation therein, to wit: For a period of — days, said publication in each of said papers, commencing on the — day of —, 18—. That thereafter, on the — day of —, 18—, at a — election, duly called by the legislative authority of said city, the proposed charter was submitted to the qualified electors thereof, and the returns of such election were duly canvassed by the legislative authority thereof, at a meeting held on the — day of —, 18—, and the result of said election was found to be as follows: For said proposed charter, — votes; against said proposed charter, — votes. Majority for said proposed charter, — votes. Whereupon, the said charter was declared duly ratified by a majority of the qualified electors voting at said election. And I further certify that the foregoing is a full, true, and complete copy of the proposed charter so voted upon and ratified as aforesaid.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix the corporate seal of said city, at my office, this — day of —, 18—.

Attest:

—, —,

Clerk of the City of —.

—, —,
Mayor of the City of —.
[Corporate Seal.]

Such charter shall immediately thereafter be recorded by the clerk of said city in a book to be provided and kept for that purpose, and known as the charter-book of the city of —, and when so recorded shall be attested by the clerk and mayor of said city, under the corporate seal thereof, and thereafter any and all amendments to said charter shall be in like manner recorded and attested, and when so recorded and attested, all courts in this state shall take judicial notice of said charter and all amendments thereto. [L. '90, p. 217, § 4; 1 H. C., § 519.]

§ 8955. [7498.] Revision of Charter.

Upon the petition of one-fourth of the qualified electors, as shown by the last general city election, of any city of the first class, the city council of said city shall, and without such petition the city council in joint session may, cause an election to be held, at which election there shall be chosen by the qualified electors of said [city] fifteen freeholders thereof, who shall have been residents of said city for a period of at least two years preceding their election, and qualified electors, whose duty it shall be to commence within ten days after their election, and within sixty days thereafter prepare a new charter for said city by altering, changing, revising, adding to or repealing their existing charter, together with any amendments thereto, and file the same with the city clerk. [L. '95, p. 42, § 1.]

See infra, § 8963, direct amendments.

Cited in 13 Wash. 18; 59 Wash. 671.

Permitting amendments to a freeholder's charter to be adopted by a vote of the people is not an unwarranted delegation of legislative power: State ex rel. Mullen v. Doherty, 16 Wash. 382, 47 Pac. 958, 58 Am. St. Rep. 39.

Under the Seattle charter, the city council may submit amendments to the city charter to a vote of the people by a resolution: Ehrhardt v. Seattle, 33 Wash. 664, 74 Pac. 827.

An election to choose fifteen freeholders to prepare a new city charter for cities of the first class, under this section must be called by the city council within a reasonable time after due petition therefor is filed, in view of the failure of the statute to fix the time, and of the next section, requiring the proposed charter to be submitted at an election to be called "immediately": State ex rel. Lambert v. Superior Court, 59 Wash. 670, 110 Pac. 622.

Where a city council is petitioned on May 24th to call an election to choose fifteen freeholders to prepare a new city charter, under this section, it is an abuse of discretion for the city council to fix the date therefor upon the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday of May, 1911; and mandamus lies to compel the council to fix upon a reasonable time: State ex rel. Lambert v. Superior Court, 59 Wash. 670, 110 Pac. 622.

§ 8956. [7499.] Submission to Electors.

Such new, altered, changed and revised charter shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city at an election to be immediately called therefor, and if a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon ratify the same, it shall become the charter of the said city, and shall become the organic law thereof and supersede any existing charter, including amendments thereto, and all special laws inconsistent with said charter. [L. '95, p. 42, § 2.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 671; 70 Wash. 358.

§ 8957. [7500.] Publication.

Such proposed charter shall be published in two daily newspapers in said city for at least thirty days prior to the day of submitting the same to the electors for their approval as in the last section provided. [L. '95, p. 43, § 3.]

§ 8958. [7501.] Notice of Election.

All elections in this chapter authorized shall only be had upon notice, which notice shall specify the object of calling such election and shall be given for at least ten days before the day of election in all election districts of said city. [L. '95, p. 43, § 4.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 147.

§ 8959. [7502.] Election, How Held.

Said elections may be general or special elections and, except as herein provided, shall be governed by the law regulating and controlling general or special elections in said city. [L. '95, p. 43, § 5.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 671, 673.

§ 8960. [7502-1.] Canvass of Returns.

Within five (5) days after the date of any general or special municipal election in any city of the first class, the legislative body of any such city shall convene at the hour fixed by its rules for regular meetings and shall open and canvass the returns of such election and shall declare and certify the result of such election. [L. '11, p. 110, § 1.]

§ 8961. [7502-2.] No Change in Charters.

Nothing herein shall be deemed to affect any provision now or hereafter incorporated in any charter or ordinances of any such city providing a manner for the canvass of, and declaration of the result of, the votes cast at such elections. [L. '11, p. 111, § 2.]

§ 8962. [7503.] Officers—Effect of Revision upon.

All houses, boards or offices abolished or dispensed with by said altered, changed and revised charter, together with the emoluments thereof, shall cease to exist from and after the adoption of such altered, changed and revised charter; and any new offices created shall be filled by appointment of the mayor until the next general election and subject to such ratification and control by the city council as may be provided in such altered, changed and revised charter. [L. '95, p. 43, § 6.]

§ 8963. [7504.] Direct Amendments of City Charters.

On petition of a number (equal to fifteen per cent of the total number of votes cast at the last preceding municipal election) of qualified voters of any municipality having adopted a charter under the laws of this state, asking the adoption of a specified charter amendment, providing for any matter within the realm of local affairs, or municipal business, the said amendment shall be submitted to the voters at the next regular municipal election, occurring thirty days or more after said petition is filed, and if approved by a majority of the local electors of the municipality voting upon it, such amendment shall become a part of the charter organic law governing such municipality. [L. '03, p. 393, § 1.]

New Charter, Reorganization and Amendments: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 18—21, and cases cited.

Affidavits verifying the genuineness of the signatures of petitioners for the submission of charter amendments to a vote of the people are not competent evidence of the qualifications of the signers: Hindman v. Boyd, 42 Wash. 17, 84 Pac. 609.

It is the duty of the city council to determine in the first instance the qualifications of the signers of a petition for the submission of charter amendments to a vote of the people: Hindman v. Boyd, 42 Wash. 17, 84 Pac. 609.

The power to amend a city charter, under this section is limited to the extent that amendments cannot be adopted that override a general statute of the legislature which deals directly and specifically with the subject in question: Benton v. Seattle Elec. Co., 50 Wash. 156, 96 Pac. 1033.

This section does not repeal section 8977, infra, providing that the legislative powers of such city shall be vested in a mayor and city council, although it modifies and grants larger and more extensive legislative powers than those granted by section 8977: Walker v. Spokane, 62 Wash. 312, 113 Pac. 775, Ann. Cas. 1912C, 194.

§ 8964. [7505.] Signing and Filing of Petition.

The petition containing the demand for the submission of the proposed charter amendment shall be filed with the city clerk, and each signer shall write his occupation and residence after his signature, and the genuineness of the signatures on such paper must be attested by the affidavit of a qualified voter. [L. '03, p. 394, § 2.]

§ 8965. [7506.] Construction.

This act shall not be construed to deprive city councils from submitting proposed charter amendments to the voters as is now provided, but shall be held to afford a concurrent and additional method for proposing and submitting amendments to the charter of any municipality having a charter. [L. '03, p. 394, § 3.]

"Act" in this section refers to §§ 8963—8965.

Any such city shall have power—

1. To provide for general and special elections, for questions to be voted upon, and for the election of officers;

2. To provide for levying and collecting taxes on real and personal property for its corporate uses and purposes, and to provide for the payment of the debts and expenses of the corporation;

3. To control the finances and property of the corporation, and to acquire, by purchase or otherwise, such lands and other property as may be necessary for any part of the corporate uses provided for by its charter, and to dispose of any such property as the interests of the corporation may, from time to time, require;

4. To borrow money for corporate purposes on the credit of the corporation, and to issue negotiable bonds therefor, on such conditions and in such manner as shall be prescribed in its charter; but no city shall, in any manner or for any purpose, become indebted to an amount in the aggregate to exceed ten per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for city purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness;

5. To issue bonds in place of or to supply means to meet maturing bonds or other indebtedness, or for the consolidation or funding of the same;

6. To purchase or appropriate private property within or without its corporate limits, for its corporate uses, upon making just compensation to the owners thereof, and to institute and maintain such proceedings as may be authorized by the general laws of the state for the appropriation of private property for public use;

7. To lay out, establish, open, alter, widen, extend, grade, pave, plank, establish grades, or otherwise improve streets, alleys, avenues, sidewalks, wharves, parks, and other public grounds, and to regulate and control the use thereof, and to vacate the same, and to authorize or prohibit the use of electricity at, in, or upon any of said streets, or for other purposes, and to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which the same may be so used, and to regulate the use thereof;

8. To change the grade of any street, highway, or alley within its corporate limits, and to provide for the payment of damages to any abutting owner or owners who shall have built or made other improvements upon such street, highway, or alley at any point opposite to the point where such change shall be made with reference to the grade of such street, highway, or alley as the same existed prior to such change;

9. To authorize or prohibit the locating and constructing of any railroad or street railroad in any street, alley, or public place in such city, and to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which any such railroad or street railroad shall be located or constructed; to provide for the alteration, change of grade, or removal thereof; to regulate the moving and operation of railroad and street railroad trains, cars, and locomotives within the corporate limits of said city; and to provide by ordinance for the protection of all persons and property against injury in the use of such railroads or street railroads;

10. To provide for making local improvements, and to levy and collect special assessments on property benefited thereby, and for paying for the same or any portion thereof;

11. To acquire, by purchase or otherwise, lands for public parks within or without the limits of such city, and to improve the same;

12. To construct and keep in repair bridges, viaducts, and tunnels, and to regulate the use thereof;

13. To determine what work shall be done or improvements made at the expense, in whole or in part, of the owners of the adjoining contiguous, or proximate property, or others specially benefited thereby; and to provide for the manner of making and collecting assessments therefor;

14. To provide for erecting, purchasing, or otherwise acquiring waterworks, within or without the corporate limits of said city, to supply said city and its inhabitants with water, or to authorize the construction of same by others when deemed for the best interests of such city and its inhabitants, and to regulate and control the use and price of the water so supplied;

15. To provide for lighting the streets and all public places, and for furnishing the inhabitants thereof with gas or other lights, and to erect, or otherwise acquire, and to maintain the same, or to authorize the erection and maintenance of such works as may be necessary and convenient therefor, and to regulate and control the use thereof;

16. To establish and regulate markets, and to provide for the weighing, measuring, and inspection of all articles of food and drink offered for sale thereat, or at any other place within its limits, by proper penalties, and to enforce the keeping of proper legal weights and measures by all venders in such city, and to provide for the inspection thereof;

17. To erect and establish hospitals and pesthouses, and to control and regulate the same;

18. To erect and establish work houses and jails, and to control and regulate the same, and to provide for the working of prisoners confined therein;

19. To provide for establishing and maintaining reform schools for juvenile offenders;

20. To provide for the establishment and maintenance of public libraries, and to appropriate, annually, such per centum of all moneys collected for fines, penalties, and licenses as shall be prescribed by its charter, for the support of a city library, which shall, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by ordinance, be open for use by the public;

21. To regulate the burial of the dead, and to establish and regulate cemeteries within or without the corporate limits, and to acquire land therefor by purchase or otherwise; to cause cemeteries to be removed beyond the limits of the corporation, and to prohibit their establishment within two miles of the boundaries thereof;

22. To direct the location and construction of all buildings in which any trade or occupation offensive to the senses or deleterious to public health or safety shall be carried on, and to regulate the management thereof; and to prohibit the erection or maintenance of such buildings or structures, or the carrying on of such trade or occupation within the limits of such corporation, or within the distance of two miles beyond the boundaries thereof;

23. To provide for the prevention and extinguishment of fires, and to regulate or prohibit the transportation, keeping, or storage of all combustible or explosive materials within its corporate limits, and to regulate and restrain the use of fireworks;

24. To establish fire limits and to make all such regulations for the erection and maintenance of buildings or other structures within its corporate limits as the safety of persons or property may require, and to cause all such buildings and places as may from any cause be in a dangerous state to be put in safe condition;

25. To regulate the manner in which stone, brick, and other buildings, party-walls, and partition fences shall be constructed and maintained;

26. To deepen, widen, dock, cover, wall, alter, or change the channels of waterways and courses, and to provide for the construction and maintenance of all such works as may be required for the accommodation of commerce, including canals, slips, public landing places, wharves, docks, and levees, and to control and regulate the use thereof;

27. To control, regulate, or prohibit the anchorage, moorage, and landing of all water crafts and their cargoes within the jurisdiction of the corporation;

28. To fix the rates of wharfage and dockage, and to provide for the collection thereof, and to provide for the imposition and collection of such harbor fees as may be consistent with the laws of the United States;

29. To license, regulate, control, or restrain wharf boats, tugs, and other boats used about the harbor or within such jurisdiction;

30. To require the owners of public halls or other buildings to provide suitable means of exit; to provide for the prevention and abatement of nuisances, for the cleaning and purification of watercourses and canals, for the drainage and filling up of ponds on private property within its limits, when the same shall be offensive to the senses or dangerous to health; to regulate and control, and to prevent and punish, the defilement or pollution of all streams running through or into its corporate limits, and for the distance of five miles beyond its corporate limits, and on any stream or lake from which the water supply of said city is taken, for a distance of five miles beyond its source of supply; to provide for the cleaning of areas, vaults, and other places within its corporate limits which may be so kept as to become offensive to the senses or dangerous to health, and to make all such quarantine or other regulations as may be necessary for the preservation of the public health, and to remove all persons afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease to some suitable place to be provided for that purpose;

31. To declare what shall be a nuisance, and to abate the same, and to impose fines upon parties who may create, continue, or suffer nuisances to exist;

32. To regulate the selling or giving away of intoxicating, malt, vinous, mixed, or fermented liquors: Provided, that no license shall be granted to any person or persons who shall not first comply with the general laws of the state in force at the time the same is granted;

33. To grant licenses for any lawful purpose, and to fix by ordinance the amount to be paid therefor, and to provide for revoking the same: Provided, that no license shall be granted to continue for longer than one year from the date thereof;

34. To regulate the carrying on within its corporate limits of all occupations which are of such a nature as to affect the public health or the good order of said city, or to disturb the public peace, and which are not prohibited by law, and to provide for the punishment of all persons violating such regulations, and of all persons who knowingly permit the same to be violated in any building or upon any premises owned or controlled by them;

35. To restrain and provide for the punishment of vagrants, mendicants, prostitutes, and other disorderly persons;

36. To provide for the punishment of all disorderly conduct, and of all practices dangerous to public health or safety, and to make all regulations necessary for the preservation of public morality, health, peace, and good order within its limits, and to provide for the arrest, trial, and punishment of all persons charged with violating any of the ordinances of said city; but such punishment shall in no case exceed the punishment provided by the laws of the state for misdemeanors;

37. To project or extend its streets over and across any tide lands within its corporate limits, and along or across the harbor areas of such city, in such manner as will best promote the interests of commerce;

38. To provide in their respective charters for a method to propose and adopt amendments thereto. [L. '90, p. 218, § 5; 1 H. C., § 520.]

§ 8967. [7507-1.] Power to Lease Wharf Privileges.

The legislative authorities of any city of the first class in this state are authorized and empowered to rent or lease the whole or any part of any wharf or privileges thereon owned by such city, in such manner as may be prescribed by general ordinance, for periods not exceeding one year. [L. '11, p. 338, § 1.]

§ 8968. [7507-2.] Validating Operation of Electric Railways.

All acts and things of any city of the first class heretofore done or performed by the legislative authority thereof in any way relating to, or in the acquisition by gift, or in the operation of, any electric railway partly within and partly without the corporate limits of said city for the transportation of freight and passengers, are in all respects hereby cured, validated, ratified and confirmed and declared legal and valid and such cities are hereby authorized and empowered to maintain, conduct and operate such railways so acquired by gift. [L. '15, p. 317, § 1.]

§ 8969. [7508.] Hours in Offices, Summer Months.

All elective and appointive officers of counties of the first class and all elective and appointive officers in cities of the first class are permitted to close any branch or branches of their respective offices at 1 o'clock P. M. on Saturday of each week, during the months of June, July, August and September. [L. '09, p. 638, § 1.]

§ 8970. [7509.] Redistricting into Wards.

Whenever, by the charter of any city of the first class, within the state of Washington, the common council of such city shall be forbidden from redistricting and redividing such city into wards except at stated intervals or periods, and such city shall have neglected or failed to redistrict or redivide such city into wards at any such interval or period, it shall be lawful for the common council of such city, by ordinance, to redistrict or redivide such city into wards at any time thereafter: Provided, that there shall be not more than one redistricting or redivision into wards within the period specified in such charter provision. [L. '03, p. 267, § 1.]

§ 8971. [7510.] Railroads in Streets.

Any city of the first class shall have the power by ordinance to authorize the location, construction and operation of railroads in, along, over and across any highway, street, alley or public place in such city, for such term of years and upon such conditions as the city council of such city may by ordinance prescribe, notwithstanding any provisions of the charter of such city limiting the terms of franchises, or requiring such franchises to contain a provision that such city shall at any time have the right to appropriate, by purchase, the property of the corporation receiving any franchise, license, privilege or authority: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as applying to street railroads or railroads operated in connection with street railroads, in and along the streets of such city. Power to Grant Franchises in Streets:

See, also, Remington's Digest, Street Railways, §§ 1—4, and cases cited.

§ 8972. [7511.] Removal of Garbage, etc.

Any city of the first class is hereby empowered to provide for the filling and closing of cesspools and for the removing of garbage, debris, grass, weeds and brush on property in such city. [L. '07, p. 170, § 1.]

See, also, infra, § 9488.

§ 8973. [7512.] City may Prescribe Manner of Assessment.

Such city may prescribe by general ordinance the mode and manner of assessing, levying and collecting the tax or assessments upon such property for any such filling and closing of cesspools and the removing of garbage, debris, grass, weeds and brush, and provide that such charge shall be a lien on the property upon which such work is done and that the same shall be collected in such manner as shall be prescribed by such ordinance. [L. '07, p. 170, § 2.]

§ 8974. [7516a.] Extension of Plant, How Determined.

When any plan, system, or proposed extension thereof which shall have been adopted or specified for furnishing any water supply to any city of the first class in this state, shall after such adoption be deemed to be insufficient or inadequate for any reason, the said city may determine the fact by resolution of its council, and may thereupon by ordinance submit to the electors of such city any new plan or system, or any desired or proposed change in the adopted plan or system, or any adopted extension thereof, which new plan, system or proposed change of extension shall be clearly specified in general terms in said ordinance, and stated upon the ballot in general but clear terms sufficient for common understanding. [L. '95, p. 18, § 1.]

The submission of a proposition to the voters of a city for an extensive addition to its system of waterworks and for a change from a pumping to a gravity system does not come within the purview of this section: Faulkner v. Seattle, 19 Wash. 320, 53 Pac. 365.

An extension of a city's water system to springs which it purchased with an existing system, and which it held for years as a reserve supply, is not a change in the plan of the city's water system which need be authorized by a vote of the people within the contemplation of this section: Griffin v. Tacoma, 49 Wash. 524, 95 Pac. 1107.

§ 8975. [7516b.] Election.

Such proposed changes shall be submitted at either any annual or special city election for ratification or rejection, to the qualified voters of such city, of which election notice shall be regularly given in the paper doing the city printing, by publication for thirty days immediately preceding such election: Provided, that no such change shall be adopted unless assented to by at least three-fifths of all the electors voting on such proposition. [L. '95, p. 18, § 2.]

§ 8976. [7516c.] Water Fund, Diverted.

Upon the adoption of such proposed change the fund devoted to the original plan, system or extension may thereupon be and is diverted to be used for the plan, system or extension so changed and adopted, in proportion as the said plan, system or extension is changed and adopted. [L. '95, p. 18, § 3.]

§ 8977. [7517.] Legislative Powers—Election and Compensation of Officers.

The legislative powers of any city, organized under the provisions of this act, shall be vested in a mayor and a city council, to consist of such number of members, and to have such powers, as may be provided for in its charter, who, together with such other elective officers as may be provided for in such charter, shall be elected at the times, in such manner, and for such terms, and shall perform such duties and receive such compensation, as may be prescribed in such charter: Provided, that the first election of officers to serve under the provisions of said charter shall be held at the time of the submission of such proposed charter to the legal voters of such city. Said election shall be held and the returns made and canvassed according to the general provisions of the election laws of said city; but any division of the city into wards, and any division of wards into precincts, made in said proposed charter, shall be in force at said election. Immediately after the vote of such election shall have been canvassed, and the result thereof declared, if it shall appear that a majority of the votes cast at such election were cast in favor of the ratification of such proposed charter, the mayor and city clerk of said city shall thereupon issue notice to each officer elected at such election, notifying him of his election, and within ten days after the issuance of such notice the officers so elected shall qualify as provided in such charter, and on the 10th day after the issuance of such notice, at 12 o'clock M., of said day, the officers so elected and qualified shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of the offices to which they have been elected, and at such time said charter shall be attested as recorded and go into effect. [L. '90, p. 223, § 6; 1 H. C., § 521.]

§ 8978. [7517-1.] Recall of Elective Officials—Nomination of Candidates.

Whenever any city of the first class has heretofore, or shall hereafter, include in its city charter any provision for the recall of elective city officials, or any of them, at an election to be held for that purpose, if said charter provisions shall not specifically prescribe the method of nomination and placing the names of candidates upon the official ballot for use at said election, then and in that case, such candidates may be nominated in the following manner:

By filing a certificate of nomination with the city comptroller or clerk of such city, signed by electors of said city equaling in number not less than five per cent of the total vote cast for the incumbent against whom the recall is directed, which said certificate of nomination shall be substantially in the following form:

"CERTIFICATE OF NOMINATION."

We, the undersigned duly qualified citizens, voters and electors in and of the city of —, in — county, state of Washington, do hereby nominate —, of — county, Washington, engaged in the — business, and whose address is —, — as —, candidate for the office of — of the city of —, — county, Washington to be voted for at a special election to be held in the city of — on the — day of —, A. D. 19—.

We hereby certify that we, and each of us, undersigned, do and have hereby made the foregoing nomination, and that the said nominee is a duly qualified elector and voter in and of said city, county and state.

Name	Residence	Business	Address	Street	Number.
------	-----------	----------	---------	--------	---------

Provided, that said signatures need not be all appended to one paper. Each elector signing a certificate of nomination shall add to his signature his place of residence, including street and number, his business and address. Said certificate of nomination shall be filed with the city comptroller or clerk of said city, at least ten days before the election to be held, and when so filed the comptroller or city clerk shall put the name of the nominees or candidates upon the official ballot, and in all cases the name of the incumbent of the office against whom the recall election is directed shall be printed upon the said official ballot at the head of the list of names thereon, without any petition in his behalf, unless in writing he should notify the city comptroller or city clerk to the contrary, and all the names upon said official ballot shall be printed without party or political designation, And provided, nothing in this act contained shall be held to prevent any city which had the right to make or amend its own charter from making and prescribing in such charter any provision for a system of nomination at recall elections which shall thereupon, control and direct its city officials in the preparation of the official ballot for use at such elections. [L. '11, p. 1, § 1.]

Removal of City Officers: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 61—67, and cases cited.

A city council has power to abolish an office and distribute the duties among other employees of the office, thereby making a saving without an addition to the force, where the civil service rules gave the incumbent no preference right of employment over those assigned to perform his duties: State ex rel. La Grave v. Seattle, 109 Wash. 629, 187 Pac. 339.

A city, by its charter, may create a Civil Service Commission with power to finally decide not only questions of fact, but whether particular acts constitute sufficient cause for the dismissal of an employee; and the courts will not inquire into the facts where there was full opportunity to be heard and evidence was heard tending to prove the charge: State ex rel. Wolcott v. Boyington, 110 Wash. 622, 188 Pac. 777.

The dismissal of a city fireman for circulating a petition for the removal of the chief of the fire department is not so frivolous as to warrant a court in holding that the Civil Service Commission did not exercise its honest judgment: State ex rel. Wolcott v. Boyington, 110 Wash. 622, 188 Pac. 777.

§ 8979. [7517-2.] Challengers for Recall Elections.

Whenever any city has heretofore, or shall hereafter, include in its city charter any provision for the recall of elective city officials, or any of them, at an election to be held for that purpose, each candidate at such election shall have the right to designate a challenger or challengers at each polling place: Provided, however, that this act shall not effect the right to have or to be challengers as otherwise provided by law. [L. '11, p. 7, § 1.]

§ 8980. [7517-3.] Rights and Privileges.

Such challenger or challengers shall have the right to be within the polling place as fully as the election officers and during the whole time the polls are open and until the ballots are all counted, including the right to examine the ballot-box before any ballot is deposited therein: Provided, however, that there shall be no more than one challenger for each candidate in a polling place at any one time. [L. '11, p. 7, § 2.]

§ 8981. [7518.] Additional Powers.

Any city adopting a charter under the provisions of this act shall have all the powers which are now or may hereafter be conferred upon incorporated towns and cities by the laws of this state, and all such powers as are usually exercised by municipal corporations of like character and degree, whether the same shall be specifically enumerated in this act or not. [L. '90, p. 224, § 7; 1 H. C., § 522.]

§ 8982. [7519.] Liberal Construction.

The rule that statutes in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed shall have no application to this act, but the same shall be liberally construed for the purpose of carrying out the objects for which this act is intended. [L. '90, p. 224, § 8; 1 H. C., § 523.]

§ 8983. [7519-1.*] Local Improvement Funds—Diversion—Refund.

Whenever any city of the first class shall levy and collect moneys by sale of bonds or otherwise for any local improvement by special assessment therefor, the same shall be carried in a special fund to be used for said purpose, and no part thereof shall be transferred or diverted to any other fund or use: Provided, however, that any fund remaining after the payment of the whole cost and expense of such improvement, in excess of the total sum required to defray all the expenditures by the city on account thereof, shall be refunded on demand to the amount of such overpayment: Provided further, that this section shall not be deemed to require the refunding of any balance heretofore or hereafter left in any local improvement fund after the payment of all outstanding obligations issued against such fund, where such balance accrues from any saving in interest or from penalties collected upon delinquent assessments, but any such balance may be turned into the general fund or otherwise disposed of, as the legislative authority of such city may direct by ordinance. [L. '17, p. 216, § 1; L. '15, p. 43, § 1.]

§ 8984. [7519-2.] Proceeds of Bonds for Special Improvements.

That whenever the issuance or sale of bonds or other obligations of any city of the first class shall have been authorized by vote of the people, as provided by any existing charter or laws, for any special improvement or purpose, the proceeds of the sale of such bonds including premiums if any shall be carried in a special fund to be devoted to the purpose for which such bonds were authorized, and no portion of such bonds shall be transferred or diverted to any other fund or purpose: Provided, that nothing in this act shall be held to prevent the transfer to the interest and redemption fund of any balance remaining in the treasury after the completion of such improvement or purpose so authorized: And provided, further, that nothing in this act shall prevent the city council from disposing of such bonds, or any portion thereof, in such amounts and at such times as it shall direct, but no such bonds shall be sold for less than par. [L. '15, p. 43, § 2.]

§ 8985. [7519-3.] Liability for Violation of Act.

Any ordinance, resolution, order or other action of any city council, board or officer, and every city warrant or other instrument in writing made in violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be void, and every officer, agent or employee of any such city, or member of the city council, or other board thereof, and every private person or corporation who shall knowingly commit any violation of this act, or knowingly aid in such violation, shall be liable to the city concerned for all moneys so transferred, diverted or paid out, which liability shall also attach to and be enforceable against the official bond (if any) of any such officer, agent, employee, member of city council or board. [L. '15, p. 44, § 3.]

"Act," refers to §§ 8983—8985.

§ 8986. Fund Guaranteeing Local Improvement Bonds.

Any city of the first class may, by ordinance, create a fund for the purpose of guaranteeing, to the extent of such fund and in the manner hereinafter provided, bonds issued against local improvement districts for the payment of local improvements therein. [L. '17, p. 576, § 1.]

§ 8987. Amount of Fund.

Such fund shall be designated as "local improvement guarantee fund," and shall at no time exceed a sum equal to five per cent of the outstanding bond obligations of the local improvement districts of such city issued subsequent to the passage of such ordinance. [L. '17, p. 576, § 2.]

§ 8988. Tax Levies for Fund—Subrogation of City—Warrants.

After the creation of such guarantee fund, the city shall levy from time to time, as other taxes are levied, such sums as may be needed to meet the financial requirements of the fund; and whenever the city shall have paid under its guarantee any sum on account of principal or interest on the bonds of any district, it shall be subrogated to all the rights of the holders of such bonds or interest coupons so paid, and such bonds or coupons and the proceeds thereof shall become part of the guarantee fund.

Warrants drawing interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent may be issued against said fund to meet any financial liabilities accruing against it, but at the time of making its annual budget and tax levy the city shall provide for the levying of a sum sufficient, with the other resources of the fund, to pay warrants so issued during the preceding fiscal year. [L. '17, p. 576, § 3.]

§ 8989. Limitation on Power to Order Local Improvements.

The city council or other legislative body of any city electing to establish a guarantee fund under the provisions of this act shall, in addition to the limitations imposed by section 9363, have no power to order an improvement where the estimated cost thereof, together with all other outstanding and unpaid local improvement assessments against the property included in the district, exceeds in amount sixty-five per cent of the assessed valuation of the property in such district as made for general taxation purposes at the last assessment: Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prevent the city council of any city, if otherwise authorized by law, from ordering by a unanimous vote of the council the construction of sanitary sewers where, in the judgment of the council, the same are necessary for public health, and assessing a part or the whole of the cost thereof to the benefited property in the manner provided by law. [L. '17, p. 576, § 4.]

§ 8990. Nonliability of City Beyond Guarantee Fund.

Neither the holder nor owner of any bond issued under the provisions of this act shall have any claim therefor against the city by which the same is issued, except for payment from the special assessments made for the improvement for which said bonds was issued, and except as against the said local improvement guarantee fund of such city. The remedy of the holder or owner of such bond, in case of nonpayment, shall be confined to the enforcement of such assessment and to the said guarantee fund. A copy of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each bond issued and guaranteed hereunder, and the writing, printing or engraving of this section upon any such bond shall be deemed sufficient compliance with the requirements of section 9405. [L. '17, p. 577, § 5.]

§ 8991. Act Cumulative—Repealing Ordinance to be Ratified by Voters.

This act is cumulative and intended to supplement the existing laws in relation to the making of local improvements and the levying and collection of assessments to pay therefor, and nothing herein contained shall limit any powers now possessed by cities of the first class, or hereafter conferred upon them by law: Provided, that whenever such city shall have elected to establish said guarantee fund, that such city shall have no power to repeal the same unless such repealing ordinance be passed upon by the voters of such city. After such repealing ordinance shall have been passed by such city council, the same shall be submitted to the voters of such city at a general or special election, and shall not become effective unless ratified by a majority of the voters voting thereon. [L. '17, p. 577, § 6.]

§ 8992. [7520.] Designation of Police Justice.

Within ten days after such [each general] election the mayor of the city shall appoint one of the justices [of the peace] so elected the police justice or police judge of such city, who shall before entering upon the duties of his office as police judge, give such additional bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the city council may by ordinance direct. [L. '99, p. 135, § 2.]

§ 8993. [7521.] Jurisdiction of Police Judge—Appeals.

The police judge so appointed, in addition to his powers as justice of the peace, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all offenses defined by any ordinance of the city, and all other actions brought to enforce or recover any license, penalty or forfeiture declared or given by any such ordinance, and full power to forfeit bail bonds and issue execution thereon and full power to forfeit cash bail, and full power and authority to hear and determine all causes, civil or criminal, arising under such ordinance, and pronounce judgment in accordance therewith: Provided, that for the violation of a criminal ordinance no greater punishment shall be imposed than a fine of one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. In the trial of actions brought for the violation of any city ordinance, no jury shall be allowed. All civil or criminal proceedings before such police judge and judgments rendered by him shall be subject to review in the superior court of the proper county by writ of review or appeal. [L. '99, p. 135, § 3; L. '03, p. 34, § 1.]

§ 8994. [7522.] Criminal Process.

All criminal process issued by such police judge shall be in the name of the state of Washington and run throughout the state, be directed to the chief of police, marshal or other police officer of any city or to any sheriff or constable in the state and shall be served by him. [L. '99, p. 136, § 4.]

§ 8995. [7523.] Prosecutions in Name of City.

All prosecutions for the violation of any city ordinance shall be conducted in the name of the city, and may be upon the complaint of any person. [L. '99, p. 136, § 5.]

§ 8996. [7524.] Clerk for Police Judge.

The police judge of such city shall have power at any time to appoint a clerk to assist such police judge in clerical work incidental to the performance of his duties, who shall be paid such salary out of the funds of the city as the city council may by ordinance determine. [L. '99, p. 136, § 6; L. '03, p. 34, § 2.]

See supra, § 7583, clerk for justice of the peace.

§ 8997. [7525.] Salary of Police Justice.

The salary of such police judge to be paid in addition to the salary paid to justices of the peace in cities of the first class, shall be fixed by the city council by ordinance and such additional salary shall be paid wholly out of the fund of the city, in equal monthly installments. The city shall provide a suitable place for holding court by such police judge and pay all the expense of maintaining the same. [L. '99, p. 136, § 7.]

See supra, §§ 7567—7575, salaries of justices of the peace.

§ 8998. [7526.] Costs and Fees.

In all civil and criminal cases arising from the violations of city ordinances tried by such police judge he shall charge up as costs in each case the same fees as are charged by justices of the peace for like services in every action, and all fees so charged and collected by, and all fines and forfeitures paid to, such police judge shall belong to and be paid over by him weekly, to the city. [L. '99, p. 136, § 8.]

See supra, § 7577 et seq., costs and fees of justices of the peace.

§ 8999. [7527.] Precedence of Cases.

Such police judge shall in the conduct of the business of the court give preference to cases arising under ordinances of the city; then to prosecutions for violation of the criminal laws of the state of Washington within the city; then to civil causes coming before him upon change of venue from the other justice of the peace in the city. No change of venue shall be allowed from such police judge in actions brought for violations of city ordinances. [L. '99, p. 136, § 9.]

§ 9000. [7528.] Temporary Absence—Appointment of Judge Pro Tempore.

In case of the temporary absence or inability of the police judge to act the mayor shall appoint, from among the practicing attorneys qualified electors of the city, a police judge pro tempore, who, before entering upon the duties as such, shall take and subscribe an oath as other judicial officers and while so acting he shall have all the powers of the police judge; Provided, however, such appointment shall not continue for a longer period than the absence or disability of the police judge. Such police judge pro tempore to receive compensation at the rate of five dollars a day to be paid by the city. [L. '99, p. 137, § 11.]

CHAPTER VIII.

VIADUCTS, ETC., IN CITIES OF THE FIRST CLASS.

§ 9001. [7579.] Authorized—Contiguous Property Benefited may be Assessed.

Any city of the first class shall have power to provide for the construction, maintenance and operation upon public streets and upon the extensions and connections thereof over intervening tide lands to and across any harbor reserves, waterways, canals, rivers, natural water-courses and other channels, any bridges, drawbridges, viaducts, elevated roadways and tunnels or any combination thereof together with all necessary approaches thereto, with or without street railway tracks thereon or therein, and to make any and all necessary cuts, fills, or other construction, upon, in or along such streets and approaches as a part of any such improvement, and to order any and all work to be done which shall be necessary to complete any such improvement. The word "approaches" as used in this section shall include any arterial highway or highways or streets connecting with any such bridge, drawbridge, viaduct, elevated roadway or tunnel, or combination thereof, which are necessary to give convenient access thereto or therefrom from any portion of the improvement district which may be specially benefited by such improvement and which is liable to assessment for such improvement.

Whenever it is desired to pay the whole or any portion of the cost and expense of any such improvement by special assessments, the council or other legislative body of such city shall in the ordinance ordering such improvement fix and establish the boundaries of the improvement district, the property within which is to bear such assessment, which district shall include as near as may be, all the property specially benefited by such improvement. [L. '11, p. 493, § 1; Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 49, § 1.]

§ 9002. [7580.] Assessment District—Hearing.

Any such improvement may be initiated by the city council, or other legislative body of such city, by a resolution, declaring its intention to order such improvement, which resolution shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, shall specify and describe the boundaries of such proposed improvement district and notify all persons who may desire to object thereto to appear and present such objections at a meeting of the council specified in such resolution and directing the board of public works, or other proper board, officer or authority of such city, to submit to such council at or prior to the date fixed for such hearing the estimated cost and expense of such improvement, and a statement of the proportionate amount thereof which should be borne by the property within the proposed improvement district, and a statement of the aggregate assessed valuation of the real property exclusive of improvements, within said district, according to the valuation last placed upon it for purposes of general taxation. Such resolution shall be published in at least two (2) consecutive issues of the official newspaper of such city, the date of the first publication to be at least thirty days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before such council.

Upon such hearing, or upon any adjournment thereof, such council shall have power to amend, change, extend, or contract the boundaries of such proposed improvement district as specified in such resolution, and to consider and determine all matters in relation to such proposed improvement, and, upon the conclusion of such hearing, or any adjournment thereof, shall have power by ordinance to order such improvement to be made and to adopt, fix and establish the boundaries of the improvement district. The action of such council in ordering such improvement, or in abandoning the same, and in fixing and establishing the boundaries of such improvement district shall be final and conclusive. Any such ordinance may be passed upon majority vote of the council or other legislative body of such city. Such ordinance may provide for the construction of such improvement in sections, the letting of separate contracts for each such section, and, in case the same is made in sections, separate assessment-rolls to defray the cost and expense of any such section of such improvement may be prepared, and the amounts thereon appearing as finally determined, may be levied and assessed against real property within such improvement district. The provisions of law, charter and ordinance of any such city, relating to supplemental assessments, reassessments and omitted property shall be applicable to any improvement authorized in this act.

The city council, or other legislative body of such city, shall by general ordinance, make provision for hearing any objections in writing, to any assessment-roll for such improvement filed with the city clerk or comptroller at a prior date to the hearing thereon. Any right of appeal to the superior court now provided by law to be taken from any local improvement assessment levied and assessed by any such city, may be exercised, within the time and in the manner therein provided, by any person so objecting to any assessment levied and assessed for any improvement authorized in this act. [L. '11, p. 494, § 2. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 49, § 2.]

§ 9003. [7581.] Method—Limit—Procedure.

Such council may prescribe by general ordinance, the mode and manner in which the charge upon property in such local improvement district shall be assessed and determined for the purpose of paying the cost and expense of establishing and constructing such improvement: Provided, however, that no assessment shall be levied on any such district, the aggregate of which is a greater sum than twenty-five per cent of the assessed value of all the real property in such district according to the last equalized assessment thereof for general taxation: And provided, further, that there shall be, in all cases, an opportunity for a hearing upon objections to the assessment-roll by the parties affected thereby, before the council as a board of equalization, which hearing shall be after publication of a reasonable notice thereof, such notice to be published in such manner and for such time as may be prescribed by ordinance. At such hearing, or at legal adjournments thereof, such changes may be made in such assessment-roll as the city council may find necessary to make the same just and equitable. Railroad rights of way shall be assessed for such benefits as shall inure or accrue to the owners, lessees or operators of the same, resulting or to result from the construction and maintenance of any such improvement, whether such right of way lie within the limits of any street or highway or not; such assessment to lie against the franchise rights when such right of way is within such street or highway. When such assessment-roll shall have been finally confirmed by the city council, the charges therein made shall be and become a lien against the property or franchise therein described, paramount to all other liens (except liens for assessments and taxes) upon the property assessed from the time the assessment-roll shall be placed in the hands of the collector. [L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 50, § 3.]

§ 9004. [7582.] Operation by City—Leases—Rentals.

As a part of the original construction of any improvement herein authorized, or afterward as an alteration or renewal thereof, any such city, notwithstanding any charter provision to the contrary, may, at its own cost, construct, maintain and operate street railway tracks in the roadway thereof, and may provide electric power for the propulsion of cars, and may lease the use of such tracks and power for the operation of street-cars or interurban railways; or such city may authorize any operator of the street or interurban railways to construct and furnish such street railway tracks and electric power and use the same for street or interurban purposes, under lease or franchise ordinance: Provided, that no such lease or franchise shall be exclusive, but shall at all times reserve the right to such city to permit other lines of street or interurban railway to use such street railway tracks in common with any preceding lessee or grantee, upon equal terms. The rate of lease or use of such street railway tracks for streets or interurban cars shall be as fixed by the legislative authority of such city, but shall not be less than one mill for each passenger carried, or ten cents for each freight-car moved over such improvement. The income from such charges, rental and leasing shall be used wholly for the maintenance, repair and betterment of said improvement and the extinguishment of any debt incurred by said city in constructing the same. [L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 51, § 4.]

§ 9005. [7583.] Act Cumulative.

The provisions and remedies provided by this act are and shall be cumulative of existing provisions and remedies, and nothing in this act contained shall be held to repeal any provision of the existing law or of any charter of any city upon the subject matter thereof, but such existing law or charter provision shall continue in full force and effect, and it shall be optional with the city authorities to proceed under either such existing law, charter provision or act. [L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 51, § 5.]

CHAPTER IX.

SECOND CLASS CITIES.

§ 9006. [7584.] Rights, Privileges and Powers.

Every municipal corporation of the second class shall be entitled, the city of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places and in all proceedings whatever; and shall have and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; may purchase, receive, have, take, hold, lease, use and enjoy property of every name or description, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit. Wherever any city of the third class having the requisite population to entitle it to advancement has heretofore pursued or attempted to pursue the requisite statutory steps for the advancing of such city from the third class to the second class, such city shall be considered as a city of the second class, notwithstanding any irregularities or omissions in pursuing the statutes providing for its advancement, and all steps and proceedings so taken shall be and the same are hereby validated. [L. '07, p. 623, § 1.]

For former laws repealed hereby, see L. '90, pp. 143—172, §§ 24—91; Bal. Code, §§ 841—907.

§ 9007. [7585.] Officers Enumerated.

The officers of such city shall consist of a mayor, twelve councilmen, a street commissioner, a treasurer, city clerk, police judge, city attorney, chief of police, and whenever a free public library and reading-room is established therein, five trustees thereof; and the council may also create by ordinance the offices of superintendent of irrigation, city engineer, harbor-master, poundkeeper, city jailer, chief of the fire department, and whenever a paid fire department shall be established in such city, a chief engineer and one or more assistant engineers, and any other offices necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, and for whose election or appointment no provision is made, and the city council may by ordinance prescribe the duties of all said officers and fix their compensation, except as hereinafter provided, subject to the limitations herein contained. [L. '07, p. 623, § 2.]

“Act” in this and the following sections refers to this chapter.

Cited in 71 Wash. 594.

§ 9008. [7586.] Terms of Office.

The term of office of mayor in cities of the second class shall be for the period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. Members of the city council shall hold office for the term of two years: Provided, that whenever at the city election in any such city next ensuing after this act shall go into effect, more than six councilmen are to be elected, then only six of such councilmen shall hold office for the term of two years and the balance shall hold office for the term of one year, so that thereafter, as far as practicable, there shall be six members of the city council to elect at each ensuing city election. Whenever, at the election next ensuing after the passage of this act, more than six councilmen are to be elected in any such city, the members of the city council so elected shall after their election determine by lot among themselves, which shall serve for the long term and which shall serve for the short term. [L. '07, p. 624, § 3; L. '09, p. 414, § 4.]

Terms of certain officers not fixed: See next section, providing for annual elections.

§ 9009. [7587.] Municipal Elections.

A general municipal election shall be held annually in such city on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of April of each year, provided that the first general municipal election to be held under this act shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of April, 1908. The officers elected at such municipal election shall take office on the first Wednesday of May following their election. Elective officers of such city at the time this act goes into effect, whose terms of office would expire in January, 1908, shall hold office until the first Wednesday of May, 1908, and elective officers of such city in office at the time this act goes into effect, whose terms of office would expire in January, 1909, shall hold office until the first Wednesday of May, 1909. Every elective officer of such city shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified. [L. '07, p. 624, § 4.]

§ 9010. [7588.] Elections to be Held Under General Law.

All municipal elections held under the provisions of this act shall be conducted according to the general election laws of this state, as far as practicable: Provided, that any qualified voter of such city, duly registered for the general county or state election next preceding any municipal election, general or special, shall be qualified to vote at such municipal election without further registration. No person shall be qualified to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county and shall have resided in such city for at least thirty days next preceding such election. The council shall give such notice of each election as may be prescribed by ordinance, and shall appoint boards of election and fix their compensation, and shall establish election precincts and polling places. [L. '07, p. 624, § 5.]

§ 9011. [7589.] Canvass of Votes.

On the Tuesday following the election the city council shall convene and publicly canvass the result, and shall direct the issuance of certificates of election to each person elected by a plurality of votes. When two or more persons have received an equal and highest number of votes for any one of the offices voted for, the city clerk shall give notice to the several persons so having the highest and equal number of votes to attend at the next or some subsequent meeting of the council to be held within two weeks thereafter, and the city clerk shall at the time fixed proceed publicly to decide by lot which of the persons having an equal number of votes shall be declared duly elected. In case the clerk be an interested person such duty shall devolve upon the mayor. If all of the persons having the highest and equal number of votes shall be present at the meeting at which the council shall canvass the result of the election, the matter may then and there be decided by lot as herein provided, without the necessity of notice. If the city council from any cause fail to meet on the day named, then it shall be the duty of the council to canvass the election returns at the next regular or special election meeting held by the said council. [L. '07, p. 625, § 6.]

§ 9012. [7590.] Contested Elections.

The city council as constituted at the time of the election, or as it may be constituted between that date and the first Wednesday of May following, shall hear and determine any and all contested elections of any and all city offices. The city council shall have power by general ordinance to prescribe rules and regulations for the hearing of contested elections of city officers, but proceedings before the city council in cases of contested elections shall conform as near as may be to the provisions of sections 5366—5382, supra, relating to contested elections. [L. '07, p. 625, § 7.]

§ 9013. [7591.] Mayor to Appoint.

The police judge, city attorney, street commissioner, chief of police, library trustees, as well as all other officers provided for in this act, whose election or appointment is not otherwise provided for, shall be appointed by the mayor, subject to confirmation by the city council. If the city council shall refuse to confirm any nomination of the mayor, then he shall within ten days thereafter nominate another person to fill the office and he may continue to nominate until his nominee is confirmed. If the mayor fails to make another nomination for the same office within ten days after the rejection of a nominee, then the city council shall elect a suitable person to fill the office during the term. The affirmative vote of not less than seven councilmen shall be required to confirm any nomination made by the mayor. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in an appointive office, the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by appointment in the same manner as at the beginning of the term, except as may be otherwise expressly provided in this act. [L. '07, p. 626, § 8.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 594.

§ 9014. [7592.] Eligibility to Office.

No person shall be eligible to hold any office in such city unless such person be a resident and elector of the city at the time of his election or appointment. No person shall be eligible to hold the office of mayor, member of the city council, street commissioner, treasurer, city clerk, city attorney, police judge or chief of police unless he be a resident and elector of such city at the time of his election or appointment and unless he shall have resided in the city for at least one year next preceding the date of his election or appointment. [L. '07, p. 626, § 9.]

§ 9015. [7593.] Oath and Bond of Officers.

Each officer of the city shall before entering upon the duties of his office, take the oath of office, and such as may be required to give bonds, shall file the same, duly approved, within ten days after receiving notice of his election or appointment; or if no notice be received, then on or before the date fixed for the assumption by him of the duties of the office to which he may have been elected or appointed; but, if anyone, either elected or appointed to office, fail for ten days to qualify as required by law, or to enter upon his duties at the time fixed by law or the orders of the city council, then such office shall become vacant; or if such officer shall absent himself from such city without the consent of the council for three consecutive weeks or shall openly neglect or refuse to discharge his duties, the said council may declare such office vacant: Provided, that the penalty for absence from the city shall not apply to such officers as serve without salary or without compensation. The city council shall fix the amount of all official bonds, and may designate what officers shall be required to give bonds in addition to those required to give bonds by this act. [L. '07, p. 626, § 10.]

§ 9016. [7594.] Official Bonds.

The clerk, treasurer, city attorney, chief of police, police judge and street commissioner, respectively, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices shall each execute a bond to the city in such penal sum as the city council by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made by this act ex-officio incumbent. All official bonds shall be approved by the city council and when so approved shall be filed with the city clerk, except the bond of the city clerk, which shall be filed with the mayor. All the provisions of any law of this state relating to official bonds of officers shall apply to such bonds, except as herein otherwise provided. No city officer shall be eligible as a surety upon any bond running to the city as obligee. The city council shall have power, whenever by it deemed expedient, to require a new or additional official bond of any officer. [L. '07, p. 627, § 11.]

§ 9017. [7595.] Salaries.

The mayor and members of the city council shall receive such salaries as may be fixed by the city council by ordinance: Provided, that the salary of the mayor shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars per annum, nor shall the salary of any member of the city council exceed the sum of three hundred dollars per annum: Provided, that a deduction of five dollars for each absence shall be made from the salary of each member of the city council who shall be absent from any regular meeting of the city council. The city council shall also by ordinance fix the salaries of the city treasurer, city clerk, city attorney, police judge, street commissioner and chief of police, subject to the limitations hereinafter contained. The salary of all other officers mentioned in this act, and not herein expressly provided for, shall be fixed by the city council, except that the library trustees shall serve without salary or compensation. The salary or compensation of no officer of such city shall be increased or diminished during his term of office, nor shall any such officer be allowed any extra or additional compensation, either directly or indirectly, for the rendition of services that the city council have the power to require such officer to perform by virtue of his office. The salaries of all city officers shall be payable monthly. [L. '07, p. 627, § 12.]

§ 9018. [7596.] Officers shall not be Interested in Contract.

No officer of such city shall be, directly or indirectly, interested in any contract with the city or for any institution, board, officer, agent or employee thereof, for the use of the city, or become surety for the performance of any such contract, nor shall any officer of such city accept from any railroad or street railway corporation, operating in whole or in part within the city, any pass or free transportation or any transportation upon any terms, save such as are open to the public generally; this provision, however, shall not apply to police officers while on duty; nor shall any officer of such city accept or receive, directly or indirectly, free of charge or upon any other terms, except as may be open to the public generally, any commodity or thing of value from any public service corporation whatsoever owning or enjoying a franchise granted by such city. The violation of any of the provisions of this section shall work a forfeiture of the office of the officer violating the same and shall warrant his removal from office by impeachment or other proper procedure; and any such officer so violating shall forfeit to the city all sums of money paid him by the city as salary during the term for which he shall be guilty of such misconduct up to the time of the recovery of judgment against him therefor; and a civil action for the recovery thereof may at any time be commenced in the name of the city and in any court of competent jurisdiction. [L. '07, p. 628, § 13.]

§ 9019. [7597.] City to be Divided into Wards.

The city council, at any time not within three months previous to an annual municipal election, may divide the city into wards, not exceeding six wards in all, and change the boundaries of such wards: Provided, that no change in the boundaries of the wards shall affect the term of office of any councilman, but he shall serve out his term in the ward in which his residence may be at the time of his election, but if more reside in any one ward than the proportion to which it is entitled, those of the shortest unexpired term shall, by the council, be assigned for such unexpired term to a ward where there is a vacancy. The representation of each ward in the city council shall be as near as may be in proportion to its population. No person shall be eligible to the office of councilman unless he shall reside at the time of his election in the ward for which he was elected, and the removal of a councilman during his term of office from the ward for which he was elected to another ward in the city will render his office vacant. [L. '07, p. 629, § 14.]

§ 9020. [7598.] Recall of Councilman.

Whenever three-fifths of all the qualified voters, of any ward in such city from which any councilman has been elected, as shown by the last general municipal election returns, shall petition the city council for the recall of such member of the city council, it shall be the duty of the city council to call a special election in such ward for the election of a councilman to take the place of the councilman whose recall is so petitioned for, and thereupon such special election shall be held in such ward. A councilman whose recall is petitioned for, shall be competent to be a candidate for re-election at such special election. The provisions of the law and the ordinances of such city governing general municipal elections shall, as far as practicable, apply to such special election. Should the councilman whose recall is petitioned for be defeated in such special election he shall vacate his office for the balance of his term in favor of the successful candidate at such special election, who shall serve out the unexpired term. The petition for recall of a councilman, shall be signed by the petitioning electors, only in the office of the city clerk where said petition shall be kept on file for that purpose and all signatures must be appended thereto within an interval of ten days so that no more than ten days shall elapse between the signing of the first and last names of said petition. [L. '07, p. 629, § 15.]

§ 9021. [7599.] Mayor, Powers and Duties.

The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the city. He shall have general supervision over the several departments of the city government and over all its interests; shall preside over the city council, when present; once in three months, submit a general statement of the condition of its various departments, and recommend to the city council such measures as he may deem expedient for the public health or improvement of the city, its finances or government. He shall sign all ordinances passed by the city council, if he approves them; if he does not approve them he shall within eight days after their submission to him return the same to the city clerk's office with his objections in writing, and at the first meeting of the city council thereafter the same shall be entered upon their journal and they shall then reconsider such ordinance and unless two-thirds of the councilmen elected vote for its passage it shall not become a law. If the mayor shall not so return any ordinance within eight days it shall become a law as if he signed it. He may call special meetings of the city council at any time; he shall do so at the written request of four councilmen by notifying each member personally, or by written notice left at his last and usual place of abode, or his place of business during business hours, stating the purpose of such meeting. He shall countersign all warrants and licenses, deeds, leases and contracts requiring his signature, and issued under and by authority of the city. [L. '07, p. 630, § 16.]

See infra, § 9203, vacancy in offices.

§ 9022. [7600.] President of the Council.

The president of the city council shall preside at all meetings of the council when the mayor is not present; whenever there is a vacancy in the office of mayor or he is absent from the city or unable from any cause to discharge the duties of his office, the president shall act as mayor and exercise all his authorities and be subject to all his duties. The president pro tem. of the council shall have all the powers of the president of the council during the session of the council at which the mayor pro tem. is presiding. [L. '07, p. 631, § 17.]

§ 9023. [7601.] Deputies, Appointment of.

The chief of police, city attorney and city clerk may each, with the approval of the city council only, appoint such deputies as may be necessary, by writing to be filed with the clerk. Each deputy so appointed shall receive for his services compensation to be fixed by the city council, not exceeding one hundred dollars per month, and shall perform such duties, under the direction of his principal, as may be by said council prescribed. The principals shall each be responsible for his deputy, and may revoke the appointment at pleasure. [L. '07, p. 631, § 18.]

§ 9024. [7602.] Duty of Treasurer.

It shall be the duty of the city treasurer to receive and safely keep all moneys belonging to such city from whatever source derived; to place the same to the credit of the different funds to which they properly belong in a book kept for that purpose; to disburse said money by direction of the city council and in accordance with the provisions made by them under the provisions of this act, and to make a report monthly to the city council of the condition of the treasury. [L. '07, p. 631, § 19.]

See supra, § 5571, city depositaries, duty of treasurer.

§ 9025. [7603.] Duties of City Clerk.

It shall be the duty of the city clerk to keep the corporate seal, and all papers and documents belonging to the city; to file them in his office under appropriate heads; to attend the sittings of the city council and to keep a journal of their proceedings and records of all their resolutions and ordinances; to sign all warrants and licenses issued in pursuance of the orders and ordinances of the city council and to affix the corporate seal on such licenses; to sign all deeds, leases, contracts, bonds and other documents when authorized by the council; to keep an accurate account in a suitable book under the appropriate heads of all expenditures, of all orders drawn upon the city treasurer and of all warrants issued in pursuance thereof; also to keep an account in an appropriate book of all licenses issued, with the names of the persons to whom issued, the date of issue, the time for which the same was granted and the sums paid therefor and to perform such other duties as he may be required to perform by the provisions of this act, or by ordinance. He shall receive for his services a salary to be fixed by the council not exceeding the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per month. [L. '07, p. 631, § 20.]

§ 9026. [7604.] Salary of Chief of Police.

The chief of police shall receive a salary which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum to be determined by the city council. [L. '07, p. 632, § 21.]

§ 9027. [7605.] Salary of City Treasurer.

The city treasurer shall receive a salary which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum to be fixed by the city council. [L. '07, p. 632, § 22.]

§ 9028. [7606.] Street Commissioner.

The street commissioner by and under the direction of the mayor and city council shall have control of the streets and public places of the city and shall perform such duties as the city council may prescribe. The street commissioner shall receive such salary as may be prescribed by the city council. [L. '07, p. 632, § 23.]

§ 9029. [7607.] Police Force.

The police force of such city shall consist of a chief of police and such number of policemen as shall from time to time be fixed and determined by the city council. [L. '07, p. 632, § 24.]

§ 9030. [7608.] Appointment and Removal.

The mayor, with the consent of the council, shall appoint the policemen and all subordinate officers of the city and may, for cause, remove the same, with the consent of the council, as hereinafter provided. [L. '07, p. 632, § 25.]

§ 9031. [7609.] City Attorney.

The city attorney shall be the legal adviser of the city council and of all the officers of the city in relation to matters pertaining to their respective offices. He shall represent the city in all litigation in all courts in which the city is a party or directly interested, and shall prosecute all violations of the city ordinances, and shall act generally as the attorney for the city and the several departments of the city government, and he shall perform such other duties as the city council may direct. He shall receive such salary as may be determined by the city council, not exceeding, however, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum. [L. '07, p. 632, § 26.]

See supra, § 9013, appointment by mayor.

§ 9032. [7610.] City Council—How Constituted.

The mayor and councilman of the several wards shall constitute the city council and at the first meeting in May next after the city election the city council shall elect one of their own body to serve as president of the council. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council when present, and in his absence the president of the council shall preside and perform the duties devolving upon the mayor. In the absence of both the mayor and the president of the council, the council may elect a president pro tem., who shall act during such absence. [L. '07, p. 633, § 27.]

§ 9033. [7611.] Quorum—Rules—Journal.

A majority of the councilmen elect shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A less number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members. The council may punish their members for disorderly conduct, and upon written charges to be entered upon their journal for such conduct, after trial, may expel a member by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected. The mayor shall have a vote only in case of a tie in the votes of the other members. The council shall determine their rules of proceeding. The sittings of the council shall be open to the public, except where the interests of the city shall require secrecy. A journal of all their proceedings shall be kept by the clerk under their direction. At any time, at the request of any two members, the ayes and noes on any question may be taken and entered upon the journal. The president of the council while presiding, or the president pro tem., when a councilman, shall have the right to vote upon all questions coming before the council. The president pro tem. may be elected by the council from their own body, or any other elector of such city may be elected president pro tem. When an elector, who is not a councilman, shall be elected president pro tem. he shall not have the right to vote upon any question. [L. '07, p. 633, § 28.]

§ 9034. [7612.] Powers of Council Enumerated.

The city council of such city shall have power and authority:

1. Ordinances: To make and pass all ordinances, orders and resolutions not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States or the state of Washington, or the provisions of this act, necessary for the municipal government and management of the affairs of the city, for the execution of the powers vested in said body corporate, and for the carrying into effect of the provisions of this act.

2. License of Shows: To fix and collect a license tax, for the purposes of revenue and regulation, on theaters, melodeons, balls, concerts, dances, theatrical, circus or other performances, and all performances where an admission fee is charged, or which may be held in any house or place where wines or liquors are sold to the participators; also all shows, billiard-tables, pool-tables, bowling-alleys, exhibitions or amusements.

3. 8. Hotel Runners: To license or suppress runners for steamboats, taverns, or hotels.

9. License Generally: To fix and collect a license tax for the purposes of revenue and regulation, upon all occupations and trades, and all and every kind of business authorized by law not heretofore specified: Provided, that on any business, trade or calling not provided by law to be licensed for state and county purposes, the amount of license shall be fixed at the discretion of the city council, as they may deem the interests and good order of the city may require.

10. Riots: To prevent and restrain any riot or riotous assemblages, disturbance of the peace or disorderly conduct in any place, house or street in the city.

11. Nuisances: To declare what shall be deemed nuisances; to prevent, remove and abate nuisances at the expense of the parties creating, causing or committing or maintaining the same, and to levy a special assessment on the land or premises whereon the nuisance is situated to defray the cost or to reimburse the city for the cost of abating the same.

12. Stock Pound: To establish, maintain and regulate a common pound for estrays, and to appoint a poundkeeper, who shall be paid out of the fines and fees imposed and collected of the owners of any animals impounded, and from no other source; to prevent and regulate the running at large of any and all domestic animals within the city limits or any parts thereof, and to regulate or prevent the keeping of such animals within any part of the city.

13. Control of Certain Trades: To control and regulate slaughter-houses, wash-houses, laundries, tanneries, forges and offensive trades, and to provide for their exclusion or removal from the city limits, or from any part thereof.

14. Street Cleaning: To provide, by regulation, for the prevention and summary removal of all filth and garbage in streets, sloughs, alleys, back yards or public grounds of such city, or elsewhere therein.

15. City Jail: To establish, alter and repair city prisons and to provide for the regulation of the same, and for the safekeeping of persons committed thereto; to provide for the care, feeding and clothing of the city prisoners; to provide for the formation of a chain-gang for persons convicted of crimes or misdemeanors, and their proper employment and compulsory working for the benefit of the city; and also to provide for the arrest and compulsory working of vagrants: Provided, that no prisoner shall be required to perform any labor until he shall have been duly convicted of some offense punishable by imprisonment and duly sentenced thereto.

16. Gambling, etc.: To prohibit and suppress all gaming and all gambling or disorderly houses, and houses of ill fame, and all immoral and indecent amusements, exhibitions and shows.

17. Markets: To establish and regulate markets and market places.

18. Speed of Railroad Cars: To fix and regulate the speed at which any railroad cars, street-cars, automobiles or other vehicles may run within the city limits, or any portion thereof.

19. City Commons: To provide for and regulate the commons of the city.

20. Fast Driving: To regulate or prohibit fast driving or riding in any portion of the city.

21. Combustibles: To regulate or prohibit the loading or storage of gunpowder and combustible or explosive materials in the city, or transporting the same through its streets or over its waters.

22. Property: To have, purchase, hold, use and enjoy property of every name or kind whatsoever, and the same to sell, lease, transfer, mortgage, convey, control or improve; to build, erect or construct houses, buildings or structures of any kind needful for the use or purposes of such city.

23. Fire Department: To establish, continue, regulate and maintain a fire department for such city, to change or reorganize the same, and to disband any company or companies of the said department; also, to discontinue and disband said fire department, and to create, organize, establish and maintain a paid fire department for such city.

24. Water Supply: To adopt, enter into and carry out means for securing a supply of water for the use of such city or its inhabitants, or for irrigation purposes therein.

25. Overflow of Water: To prevent the overflow of the city or to secure its drainage, and to assess the cost thereof to the property benefited.

26. House Numbers: To provide for the numbering of houses.

27. Health Board: To establish a board of health; to prevent the introduction and spread of disease; to establish a city infirmary and to provide for the indigent sick; and to provide and enforce regulations for the protection of health, cleanliness, peace and good order of the city; to establish and maintain hospitals within or without the city limits; to control and regulate interments and to prohibit them within the city limits.

28. Harbors and Wharves: To build, alter, improve, keep in repair and control the waterfront; to erect, regulate and repair wharves, and to fix the rate of wharfage and transit of wharf, and levy dues upon vessels and commodities; and to provide for the regulation of berths, landing, stationing and removing steamboats, sail vessels, rafts, barges and all other water craft; to fix the rate of speed at which steamboats and other steam water craft may run along the waterfront of the city; to build bridges so as not to interfere with navigation; to provide for the removal of obstructions to the navigation of any channel or water-courses or channels.

29. License of Steamers: To license steamers, boats and vessels used in any watercourse in the city, and to fix and collect a license tax thereon.

30. Ferry Licenses: To license ferries and toll bridges under the law regulating the granting of such license.

31. Penalty for Violation of Ordinances: To determine and impose fines for forfeitures and penalties that shall be incurred for the breach or violation of any city ordinance, notwithstanding that the act constituting a violation of any such ordinance may also be punishable under the state laws, and also for a violation of the provisions of this chapter, when no penalty is affixed thereto or provided by law, and to appropriate all such fines, penalties and forfeitures for the benefit of the city; but no penalty to be enforced shall exceed for any offense the amount of five hundred dollars or three months' imprisonment, or both; and every violation of any lawful order, regulation or ordinance of the city council of such city is hereby declared a misdemeanor or public offense, and all prosecutions for the same may be in the name of the state of Washington.

32. Police Department: To create and establish a city police; to prescribe their duties and their compensation and to provide for the regulation and government of the same.

33. Elections: To provide for conducting elections and establishing election precincts when necessary, to be as near as may be in conformity with the state law.

34. Examine Official Accounts: To examine, either in open session or by committee, the accounts or doings of all officers or other persons having the care, management or disposition of moneys, property or business of the city.

35. Contracts: To make all appropriations, contracts or agreements for the use or benefit of the city and in the city's name.

36. Streets and Sidewalks: To provide by ordinance for the opening, laying out, altering, constructing, extending, repairing, grading, paving, planking, graveling, macadamizing or otherwise improving of public streets, avenues and other public ways, or any portion of either thereof; and for the construction, regulation and repair of sidewalks and other street improvements, all at the expense of the property to be benefited thereby; without any recourse, in any event, upon the city for any portion of the expense of such work, or any delinquency of the property holders or owners, and to provide for the forced sale thereof for such purposes; to establish a uniform grade for streets, avenues, sidewalks and squares, and to enforce the observance thereof.

37. Waterways: To clear, cleanse, alter, straighten, widen, fill up or close any waterway, drain or sewer, or any watercourse in such city when not declared by law to be navigable, and to assess the expense thereof, in whole or in part, to the property specially benefited.

38. Sewerage: To adopt, provide for, establish and maintain a general system of sewerage, draining, or both, and the regulation thereof; to provide funds by local assessments on the property benefited for the purpose aforesaid and to determine the manner, terms and place of connection with main or central lines of pipes, sewers or drains established, and compel compliance with and conformity to such general system of sewerage or drainage, or both, and the regulations of said council thereto relating, by the infliction of suitable penalties and forfeitures against persons and property, or either, for nonconformity to, or failure to comply with the provisions of such system and regulations or either.

39. Buildings and Parks: To provide for all public buildings, public parks or squares, necessary or proper for the use of the city.

40. Franchises: To permit the use of the streets for railroad or other public service purposes.

41. Payment of Judgments: To order paid any final judgment against such city, but none of its lands or property of any kind or nature, taxes, revenue, franchise or rights, or interest, shall be attached, levied upon or sold in or under any process whatsoever.

42. Weighing of Fuel: To regulate the sale of coal and wood in such city, and may appoint a measurer of wood and weigher of coal for the city, and define his duties, and may prescribe his term of office, and the fees he shall receive for his services: Provided, that such fees shall in all cases be paid by the parties requiring such service.

43. Hospitals, etc.: To erect and establish hospitals and pesthouses and to control and regulate the same.

44. Waterworks: To provide for the erection, purchase or otherwise acquiring of waterworks within or without the corporate limits of the city to supply such city and its inhabitants with water, and to regulate and control the use and price of the water so supplied.

45. City Lights: To provide for lighting the streets and all public places of the city and for furnishing the inhabitants of the city with gas, electric or other light, and for the ownership, purchase or acquisition, construction or maintenance of such works as may be necessary or convenient therefor: Provided, however, that no purchase of any such water plant or light plant shall be made without first submitting the question of such purchase to the electors of the city.

46. Parks: To acquire by purchase or otherwise land for public parks, within or without the limits of the city, and to improve the same.

47. Bridges: To construct and keep in repair bridges, and to regulate the use thereof.

48. Power of Eminent Domain: In the name of and for the use and benefit of the city, to exercise the right of eminent domain, and to condemn lands and property for the purposes of streets, alleys, parks, public grounds, waterworks or for any other municipal purpose and to acquire by purchase or otherwise such lands and property as may be deemed necessary for any of the corporate uses provided for by this act, as the interests of the city may from time to time require.

49. To Provide for the Assessment of Taxes: To provide for the assessment, levying and collecting of taxes on real and personal property for the corporate uses and purposes of the city and to provide for the payment of the debts and expenses of the corporation.

50. Local Improvements: To provide for making local improvements, and to levy and collect special assessments on the property benefited thereby and for paying the same or any portion thereof; to determine what work shall be done or improvements made, at the expense, in whole or in part, of the adjoining, contiguous or proximate property, and to provide for the manner of making and collecting assessments therefor.

51. Cemeteries: To regulate the burial of the dead and to establish and regulate cemeteries, within or without the corporate limits, and to acquire lands therefor by purchase or otherwise.

52. Fire Limits: To establish fire limits with proper regulations and to make all needful regulations for the erection and maintenance of buildings or other structures within the corporate limits as safety of persons or property may require, and to cause all such buildings and places as may from any cause be in a dangerous state to be put in a safe condition; to regulate the manner in which stone, brick and other buildings, party walls and partition fences shall be constructed and maintained.

53. Safety and Sanitary Measures: To require the owners of public halls, theaters, hotels and other buildings to provide suitable means of exit and proper fire-escapes; to provide for the cleaning and purification of watercourses and canals and for the draining and filling up of ponds or [on] private property within its limits when the same shall be offensive to the senses or dangerous to the health, and to charge the expense thereof to the property specially benefited, and to regulate and control and provide for the prevention and punishment of the defilement or pollution of all streams running in or through its corporate limits and a distance of five miles beyond its corporate limits, and of any stream or lake from which the water supply of said city is or may be taken and for a distance of five miles beyond its source of supply, and to make all quarantine and other regulations as may be necessary for the preservation of the public health and to remove all persons inflicted [afflicted] with any contagious disease to some suitable place to be provided for that purpose.

54. To Regulate Liquor Traffic: To license, tax, confine within limits of time and place to be by the city council prescribed and to otherwise regulate the selling or giving away of intoxicating, spirituous, malt, vinous, mixed or fermented liquors and the collection of the license money therefrom for the use of the city: Provided, that no license shall be granted to any person or persons who shall not first comply with the general laws of the state in force at the time the same is granted, and provided that no liquor license shall be granted to continue for a longer period than one year from the date thereof: And provided further, that no remission of any such license charge shall be made during the period for which it is granted.

55. To Establish Streets on Tide Lands: To project or extend or establish streets over and across any tide lands within the limits of such city.

56. To provide for the general welfare. [L. '07, p. 634, § 29.]

§ 9035. [7612-1.] Publicity Fund in Cities of Less Than Eighteen Thousand Inhabitants.

Any city of the second class under eighteen thousand inhabitants of the state of Washington is hereby empowered to create a special fund to be known as a publicity fund, to be used exclusively for exploiting and advertising the general advantages and opportunities of such city and vicinity. Whenever the city council or other governing body in any such city shall decide to create a publicity fund under this act, such council or governing body of such city shall do so by ordinance, and thereupon the council or other governing body of such city shall have authority to levy annually for the creation and maintenance of such fund a special tax on all of the taxable property of such city, not exceeding two and one-half mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable property of such city. All moneys derived from such tax levy shall be paid into such publicity fund and shall be devoted exclusively to the use herein stated, and shall be paid out only upon warrants drawn against the same and signed by at least two members of the publicity board hereinafter provided for. [L. '13, p. 175, § 1.]

§ 9036. [7612-2.] Expenditures—Publicity Board.

All expenditures from said fund shall be made under the direction of a publicity board of three members to be nominated by a recognized commercial organization of such city, then appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council or other legislative body of the city by two-thirds vote; the members of such board shall serve without remuneration and must be actual residents and voters in such city and property owners therein; and the recognized commercial organization herein referred to must be representative and public and devoted exclusively to the work usually devolving on such organizations, and must have no less than two hundred bona fide dues paying members, and must be incorporated under the laws of the state of Washington; if there be more than one organization meeting these qualifications in any city, then the oldest of such organizations shall be the one recognized within the meaning and provisions of this act. Members of the publicity board may be appointed in the manner herein provided any time after this act goes into effect and the first members appointed shall hold office until the second Monday in January following their appointment, or until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified, and thereafter the members of such publicity board shall be appointed at the first regular meeting in December of the city council or other governing body of such city and the terms of office of such members shall be for one year beginning on the second Monday in January after their appointment and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Members of the board, duly appointed and confirmed, shall qualify prior to the beginning of their term by taking the oath of office and by giving a bond to the city in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties. Any member of the board shall be removed by the mayor on request of the recognized commercial organization making the nomination, as hereinbefore stated, when it is shown that a majority vote of the entire membership of such recognized organization favoring such removal has been cast at any regular meeting of such organization. No part of said publicity fund shall ever be paid to any newspaper, magazine or periodical published within the city or county where such city is situated, for advertising or write-ups or for any other service or purpose whatsoever, and no part of such fund shall be expended for the purpose of making any exhibits at any fair, exposition or the like. [L. '13, p. 176, § 2.]

§ 9037. [7613.] Saloon Licenses.

The city council shall have power to revoke any liquor license for any cause by it deemed sufficient. Whenever a saloon license shall be revoked by the council on account of the licensee having carried on a disorderly house, sold liquor to minors, permitted gambling, or violated any of the ordinances of the city or laws of the state, the council shall declare the liquor bond given by such person to obtain his saloon license, forfeited, and thereupon the principal and sureties upon said bond shall be liable to the city for the full penalty of said bond, to be collected in an action brought by the city in any court of competent jurisdiction. In any such action the finding or action of the council in revoking such license on any of the grounds above specified shall be conclusive evidence in any such action of the existence of such grounds. When any saloon license shall be revoked or canceled for any of the causes above specified, no rebate or remission shall be made to the licensee for the unexpired term of his license, but the pro rata part of the license fee for the unexpired term shall be credited by the city to the said licensee upon the penalty of the saloon or liquor bond of said licensee, and said licensee and his sureties shall be liable to the city for the balance of said penalty of said bond. [L. '07, p. 642, § 30.]

§ 9038. [7614.] Franchises.

No ordinance granting a franchise or any valuable privilege in such city shall be passed on the day of its introduction, nor for thirty days thereafter, nor until such ordinance shall have been published in at least one issue of the official newspaper of the city and after such publication such proposed ordinance shall not thereafter and before its passage, be amended in any particular where the amendment shall impose terms, conditions or privileges less favorable to the city than the proposed ordinance as published, but amendments favorable to the city may be made at any time and after publication. Such publication shall be at the expense of the applicant: Provided, that an ordinance granting a franchise to lay a spur, railroad track or tracks, connecting manufacturing plants, warehouses or other private property with a main line of railroad, need not be published before the same be passed by the council. No franchise or valuable privilege shall be created or granted by the city council otherwise than by ordinance, and the passage of any such ordinance shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the councilmen elected. All publications of ordinances granting a franchise, both before and after passage, shall be made at the expense of the applicant or grantee. Where an ordinance granting a franchise or valuable privilege is sought to be amended after the same shall have been in force, the provisions of this section as to publication before final action upon such amendment, shall apply as in cases of proposed ordinances granting original franchises. [L. '07, p. 643, § 31.]

§ 9039. [7615.] No exclusive Franchise to be Granted.

No exclusive franchise or privilege shall be granted for the use of any street, alley or highway, or any other public place or any part thereof. [L. '07, p. 643, § 32.]

§ 9040. [7616.] Lease or Sale of Water Plant.

Whenever any such city shall own its own water plant or water system, electric lighting plant or gasworks, the city council of such city may lease or sell such water plant or water system, electric light plant or gasworks, but before doing so, the question of leasing or selling of any such property shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city at a special election to be held for the purpose, or at the general municipal election, and if a majority of the votes cast at such election vote in favor of leasing or selling such property, the city council may then lease or sell the same, but in case a majority of the votes cast at such special or municipal election shall vote against the leasing or selling of such property, the city council shall have no power to lease or sell the same. [L. '07, p. 643, § 33.]

§ 9041. [7617.] Water and Light.

Before the city council of any such city shall, in the first instance, purchase, acquire, construct or adopt a municipal water system, electric light system or gas system, the question of such purchase, acquisition or adoption of any such system shall first be submitted to vote of the electors of the city at a special or general municipal election for adoption or ratification. [L. '07, p. 644, § 34.]

§ 9042. [7618.] No Invalid Claims to be Allowed.

The city council of such city shall never allow, make valid, or in any manner recognize any demand against the city which was not at the time of its creation, a valid claim against the same, nor shall it authorize to be paid any demand which without such action would be invalid, or which shall then be barred by any statute of limitation or for which the city was never liable, and any such action shall be void. [L. '07, p. 644, § 35.]

§ 9043. [7619.] Claims and Damages.

All claims for damages against the city must be filed with the city clerk within thirty days after the time when such claim for damages accrued. No action shall be maintained against the city for any claim for damages until the same has been presented to the city council and until sixty days have elapsed after such presentation. The allowance of any and all damage claims against the city shall be by ordinance and not otherwise. [L. '07, p. 644, § 36.]

See infra, § 9478, accident claims, a later enactment.

§ 9044. [7620.] Eight Hours to Constitute a Day's Work.

In all public work done by or for the city, either by day's work or by contract, eight hours shall constitute a day's work; and no employee of the city on city works, or of any contractor or subcontractor on said work, shall be required to work longer than eight hours in any calendar day: Provided, however, that this section shall not be so construed as to in any manner apply to or affect any contract entered into by the city prior to the time this act goes into effect. This section shall be enforced by the city council by an appropriate ordinance. [L. '07, p. 644, § 37.]

See, also, supra, §§ 7642, 7645.

§ 9045. [7625.] Local Improvement Warrants—Payments.

Where any local assessment is made or to be made upon the "immediate payment plan" the city council may provide for the issuance of local improvement fund warrants against the local improvement district fund to be created. The local assessment-roll in any improvement district may be made up and the assessment levied and equalized at any time after the contract for the improvement shall have been let and a bond given for its faithful performance and the making up of such assessment-roll and the equalization thereof need not await the completion of the work. When the improvement shall be made on the basis of the "bond installment plan" the city council shall either in the original resolution of intention or in the ordinance creating the improvement district or subsequently designate the number of annual installments, not exceeding, however, ten annual installments, into which it is proposed to divide the assessment in such local improvement district, and in such case the assessment-roll as prepared and as finally equalized shall contain appropriate columns for the division of the assessment against each parcel of land into such number of installments as may have been previously prescribed by the city council. Assessments made on the "immediate payment plan" shall begin to bear interest from such time as may be prescribed by the city council, such rate of interest to be eight per cent per annum prior to delinquency. Where the assessment is made on the "bond installment plan" each of the installments, including the first, shall bear interest before delinquency from and after the date of the equalization of the assessment-roll at the same rate as the special fund bonds against the particular improvement district, provided that such rate of interest before delinquency shall not exceed eight per cent per annum. All local assessments after delinquency, whether upon the "immediate payment plan" or the "bond installment plan," shall bear interest at the same rate as is now or may hereafter be provided by law in cases of delinquency of the general, county, and state taxes. Special improvement fund warrants or special improvement fund bonds may be issued when authorized by the council either before or after the equalization of the assessment-roll. The local improvement fund warrants or bonds in any local improvement district shall be collected and paid in their numerical order. In making up the assessment-roll and in levying and equalizing the assessment for any local improvement district, it shall be proper to include therein the estimated cost and expense of the necessary engineering and surveying for such improvement; also the cost of ascertaining the ownership of lots and lands included within the district; the cost of advertising and publishing as well as the interest accrued or to accrue upon special fund warrants or bonds in connection with such improvement. [L. '07, p. 650, § 42; L. '09, p. 410, § 1.]

§ 9046. [7626.] Installment Bonds—Issuance—Interest, etc.

Whenever any local improvement shall be made upon the basis of the "bond installment plan," the city council shall provide for the issuance of "installment local improvement bonds" to cover the entire amount of the assessment against abutting or contiguous property in such local improvement district. Said bonds shall be of such denominations, numbers and for such amounts and shall bear such a rate of interest per annum not exceeding eight per cent per annum, as the council may prescribe. The bonds herein provided for shall be signed by the mayor and city clerk and shall bear the seal of the city and each bond shall contain a coupon for each installment of interest maturing thereon, to be surrendered and canceled by the holder when the same is paid. When sufficient funds have accumulated in any local improvement district fund referred to in this section, to take up or redeem any bond or coupon next entitled to redemption and then due, the city treasurer, who shall be custodian of all local improvement funds, shall publish a call for such coupon or bond, and from and after the date of such publication, interest on such coupon or bond shall cease. The city council shall have the power to pass any and all ordinances necessary to put this section into effect. [L. '07, p. 650, § 43; L. '09, p. 412, § 2.]

See infra, § 9490, bonds for public utilities, a later enactment.

See infra, § 9515, local improvement bonds.

§ 9047. [7627.] Bonds Continued.

The installment or local improvement bonds mentioned in the preceding section shall be a charge only against the local improvement fund of the local improvement district created for their payment, and the city shall in no event or under any circumstances be liable for the payment of any such bond, otherwise than out of such fund, when collected, and the holder of any such bond shall have recourse only against such fund. Said bonds may be issued to the contractor making the improvement in payment for the work, or may be negotiated by the city council at not less than par value and the proceeds applied towards making the improvement. [L. '07, p. 652, § 44.]

See note to last section.

§ 9048. [7628.] Other Bonding Statutes not Repealed.

The provisions contained in the preceding sections of this chapter shall not be construed as working a repeal of any of the statutes or laws of this state now in force relative to the issuance of bonds against local assessment funds or local improvement districts of any character, but all such other acts and laws now in force shall be continued in force with reference to cities of the second class, and the bonding provisions contained in this act shall be construed as concurrent and cumulative provisions with any and all existing provisions contained in any other acts or laws. [L. '07, p. 652, § 45.]

"Act" refers to this chapter up to and including § 9075.

See note to § 9046.

§ 9049. [7629.] Local Assessments—Treasurer's Duties.

The city treasurer of such city shall be the collector of all local improvement assessments of every nature within such city, both before and after delinquency and up to the time such local delinquent assessments shall be certified to the county treasurer of the county in which such city is situated, as hereinafter provided. [L. '07, p. 652, § 46.]

§ 9050. [7630.] Delinquent Assessments Certified to Tax-roll.

Whenever any local improvement assessment, whether for street, sewer, drainage, filling or for any other purpose whatsoever, shall remain delinquent and unpaid for a period of sixty days after the date of delinquency, it shall be the duty of the city treasurer of such city to certify and transmit to the county treasurer of the county a list of all such delinquent local assessments, with a description of the parcel or parcels of land to which the same are chargeable and the amount with interest, chargeable to each parcel, together with the number of the improvement district and such other information as the council by ordinance may direct. Upon receiving such list it shall be the duty of the county treasurer of the county to enter said delinquent local assessments against the respective parcels of land upon the current tax rolls of the county for the general county and state tax, in a separate column in said rolls to be provided and known as the "local improvement column." All such delinquent local assessments so certified, including assessments heretofore certified shall bear interest from the time of filing the list with the county treasurer at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer of such city, as soon as this act takes effect, to certify to the county treasurer as herein provided all delinquent local improvement assessments of said city which shall then have been delinquent for a period of sixty days or more. In certifying delinquent assessments to the county treasurer under this section the city treasurer shall compute and combine in one sum, against each parcel of land, the original assessment, accumulated interest and penalties, if any. [L. '07, p. 653, § 47; L. '09, p. 413, § 3.]

See supra, § 8125, assessment of state lands.

See infra, §§ 9340, 9344, assessment of city and county lands.

§ 9051. [7631.] Collection by County Treasurer.

The treasurer of the county shall collect and receipt for any and all delinquent local assessments entered upon the tax-rolls of the county as provided in the preceding section in the same manner as county taxes are collected, and shall make monthly remittances thereof to the city treasurer, accompanied with appropriate statements showing the particular assessments paid. Certificates of delinquency may be issued by the county treasurer for any such local assessments so entered upon the county tax-rolls as near as practicable in the same manner as certificates of delinquency for the general county and state taxes are issued, and when a certificate of delinquency for the general taxes is issued to any person on any parcel of land against such a local assessment is entered upon the county rolls, such local assessments shall be included in such certificate of delinquency and paid for by such person, and the county treasurer shall issue a certificate of delinquency to any individual paying the amount of such local assessment so entered upon the county rolls, together with all other taxes then due upon the rolls. The purchaser of any such certificate of delinquency may foreclose the same at any time after the expiration of six months from the date that said local assessment was entered upon the county rolls, and the date when such certificate of delinquency shall be subject to foreclosure shall be specified in the certificate of delinquency so issued. Certificates of delinquency issued by the county treasurer, as herein provided, shall be in form as near as may be in accordance with the certificate of delinquency issued for the general taxes. The proceedings to foreclose any delinquent certificate issued for such local improvement tax by the county treasurer shall be in accordance with the laws providing for the foreclosure of certificates of delinquency for the general taxes, and all provisions of law relating to the issuance and foreclosure of certificates of delinquency and the issuance of tax deeds thereon for general taxes shall be applicable to the foreclosure of delinquent certificates issued by the county treasurer for such local assessments so entered upon the rolls. [L. '07, p. 653, § 48.]

§ 9052. [7632.] Foreclosure of Delinquency Certificates—Procedure.

Whenever the county shall institute suit for the foreclosure of the general certificate of delinquency issued to the county for delinquent taxes for any year, there shall be included in such certificate of delinquency, and in such suit to foreclose the same, any and all property against which delinquent local assessments, as provided in this act, shall have been entered upon the tax-rolls of the county for six months prior to the commencement of such suit, and such delinquent local assessments shall be foreclosed in such suit by the county with the delinquent general taxes, and such foreclosure proceedings with reference to said delinquent local assessments shall be had as near as may be in accordance with the foreclosure of delinquent general taxes, and the land against which such local assessment so entered on the county rolls stands, shall be sold at the same time and in the same manner as for the general county taxes embraced in said suit. In case any land covered by any such local assessment shall be sold to the county and a tax deed issued to the county, the county shall be deemed to hold the same in trust for the county and for the city, and whenever such land shall be subsequently sold by the county, the county shall deduct from the proceeds of such sale, first, the full amount of the general taxes chargeable against such property, with the accumulated interest, and second, the balance of said selling price, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount of such local assessment, and accumulated interest, shall be remitted by the county treasurer to the city treasurer of such city, and any excess remaining shall belong to the county. The right of redemption from such local improvement tax assessment shall exist up to the time of the issuance of the tax deed therefor, and not thereafter, as in cases of general county and state taxes. [L. '07, p. 654, § 49.]

§ 9053. [7633.] Subsequent Installments Remain a Charge.

Where any local assessment shall be made upon the bond installment plan as hereinbefore provided, foreclosure sale and issuance of a tax deed for any one installment shall not discharge such land so foreclosed upon and deeded from the lien of any of the subsequent unpaid installments of said assessment which may thereafter become due, but any such land or parcel of land may be foreclosed upon for any subsequent installments maturing, and the holder of any tax deed upon a prior installment who permits a subsequent installment to be foreclosed and deeded shall forfeit his title to the holder of the later tax deed under the later installment. [L. '07, p. 655, § 50.]

§ 9054. [7634.] Extension of Water-mains.

The city council of such city shall have power to provide for the extension of water-mains within the said city and to assess the whole or any part of the cost of such extensions, in their discretion, to the abutting and contiguous property specially benefited thereby, and for that purpose the city council shall have power to create local improvement districts, the council to have full discretion as to the territory to be included within such district. The amount of the assessment for the extension of water-mains within any such improvement district against any parcel of land shall be such proportion of the entire expense to be assessed, as the assessed value of said parcel of land, exclusive of improvements, as shown on the general tax-roll for the current year, bears to the total assessed value of all of the land, exclusive of improvements, situated within said district as shown upon the general tax-rolls for the current year. Any assessment levied under the provisions of this section shall be a first lien upon the property assessed from the time of the equalization of the assessment-roll, and shall take precedence over all other liens, except general county and state taxes and shall be collected in the mode prescribed in this act for other assessments for local improvements. [L. '07, p. 656, § 51.]

See infra, § 9488, acquisition of public utilities.

§ 9055. [7635.] Public Works—How Contracted for.

In the erection, improvement and repair of all public buildings and works, in all street and sewer work and in all extensions of the water-mains and improvements of the water system, lighting plant or gas plant, and in all work in and about streams, bays or waterfronts, or in or about embankments or other works for protection against overflow and in draining and filling lowlands, and in furnishing any supplies and materials for the same, when the expenditure required for the same exceeds the sum of five hundred dollars, the same shall be done by contract and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after due notice, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance: Provided, that the city council may reject all bids presented and readvertise in their discretion, or, if in the judgment of the council, such work can be performed, or supplies or materials furnished by the city independent of contract, cheaper than under the lowest bid submitted, it may, after having so advertised and examined the bids, cause such work to be performed or supplies or materials to be furnished independent of contract. The city council shall annually at a stated time contract for doing all city printing and advertising, which contract shall be let to the lowest bidder, after due notice, as provided in this section. All advertising shall be done in a newspaper printed and published in such city, and the contract therefor shall be awarded separately from all other printing. [L. '07, p. 656, § 52.]

See note to last section.

§ 9056. [7636.] Filling Swamp-lands or Tide Flats.

Whenever the city council of such city shall deem it necessary or expedient on account of the public health, sanitation, the general welfare or other cause, to fill any slough, swamp-lands, lowlands or lands commonly known as "tide flats," situated within the limits of such city, said city council shall have power so to do, and the expense thereof shall be assessed to the property benefited, except such amount of such expense as the city council in its discretion may order paid out of the current expense fund, and the proceedings for such filling and assessment of the cost thereof shall be as follows:

Before filling any such slough, swamp-lands, lowlands or lands commonly known as tide-lands, the expense of which is to be assessed against the property benefited, the city council of such city (having caused plans and specifications to be prepared and filed with the city clerk) shall first pass a resolution or ordinance declaring its intention to make such improvement and describing in said resolution the lands to be included within the proposed improvement district and which it is proposed to assess for the cost of said improvement, and also stating in said resolution or ordinance the estimated total cost of said improvement or filling, and also stating that the cost of the same is to be assessed against the property included in the proposed improvement or assessment district therein provided, and fixing in said resolution or ordinance a time not less than twenty days after the date of the passage of such resolution or ordinance in which protests against such proposed filling or improvement may be filed in the office of the city clerk. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to cause such resolution or ordinance to be published in the official paper of the city in at least three consecutive issues thereof before the time fixed in such resolution for filing such protests, the first of which publication shall be at least fifteen days prior to the date fixed for the filing of protests. If protests against the proposed filling or improvement, by the owners of more than two-thirds of the entire area included within said proposed improvement or assessment district shall be filed on or before the date fixed for such filing, the council shall not proceed further with the work unless nine members of the council shall vote to proceed with the work. If no such protest is filed or if such protest is filed and nine members of the council shall vote to proceed with such work the said council shall appoint three disinterested and impartial viewers or appraisers to view and appraise any and all damage which may be done to any of the property situated within said proposed improvement district by reason of making the improvement or filling contemplated in accordance with the plans and specifications thereof theretofore made and filed in the office of the city clerk. It shall be the duty of the viewers so appointed to subscribe and place on file with the city clerk an oath that they will support the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington and that they will faithfully and impartially appraise the damage which may be caused to each of the several parcels of land situated within said proposed improvement district by reason of the improvement, and the several members of said board of viewers shall thereupon meet and elect one of their members chairman and the decision of any two members of said board shall be deemed the decision of the board. It shall be the duty of the said appraisers to personally inspect the lands included within said improvement district and to assess and determine the damage which may be caused by said improvement to any parcel of land or to any and all property situated within said improvement district. In determining or assessing such damages the said viewers shall determine the same exclusive of the benefits to any such parcels of land or property by reason of the improvement, the damage found to be independent of and without regard to the benefits accruing to the particular parcel of land or property by reason of the proposed improvement. As soon as practicable after their appointment, and at any rate within thirty days after such date said viewers shall make a report to the city council of such city of their findings in the premises, in which report all the land included within said proposed improvement district shall be separately described and the amount of damages awarded to the owner or owners of each parcel shall be stated in a column opposite the description of such parcel, and if no damage be found in favor of any particular parcel, such report shall cause it to so appear. Upon the filing of said report the city council of such city shall by ordinance fix the time when and the place where said board of viewers shall sit to hear, determine and pass upon any and all objections to said report and to their findings therein, which hearing shall be not less than thirty days after the date of the passage of said ordinance, and said ordinance together with a notice of such hearing, shall be published in the official paper of such city once a week for three consecutive weeks before the date fixed for such hearing, the first publication of which ordinance and notice shall be not less than twenty-five days before the date fixed for such hearing. At the time and place fixed for such hearing the said viewers shall hear and determine all objections and protests to their report hereinbefore mentioned, and the said board of viewers shall have power at such hearing to modify and correct their report previously made and when said hearing shall be completed the said viewers shall recertify said report; and said report and the findings of the viewers thereon, as so corrected and recertified, shall be securely kept and preserved by the clerk of said city. Any person feeling himself aggrieved by the findings of said board of viewers at such hearing may appeal at any time within twenty days after the close of said hearing, to the superior court of the county in which said city is situated. Such appeal shall be taken by serving notice thereof upon the city clerk, which notice shall describe the parcel or parcels of land in relation to which such appeal is taken, and shall briefly state the grounds of such appeal and shall further designate such of the records as the appellant wishes the city clerk to certify to the superior court. It shall be the duty of the city clerk, within ten days after service of such notice of appeal, to prepare a certified transcript of the records relating to said proceedings called for in the notice of appeal, and deliver the same, so certified, to the appellant or his attorney. The appellant or his attorney may within ten days thereafter file the same with the clerk of the superior court and the failure by the appellant or his attorney to so file the same within said period shall work an abandonment of the appeal. When the appeal papers are so filed the superior court shall acquire jurisdiction. No pleadings shall be required in the superior court, but the superior court in its discretion may require or allow pleadings to be filed by either party, and in such proceedings the appellant shall be deemed the plaintiff, and the city the defendant. As to any and all parcels of land with reference to which no appeal shall have been taken within the time hereinbefore limited for appeals, the findings of the board of viewers shall be final. The fact of an appeal having been taken with reference to any parcel or parcels of land shall not delay the improvement or filling, but the council may proceed with the same as though no appeal had been taken. In case any of the viewers appointed by the council shall fail to qualify, or, having qualified, shall refuse to act, or should any vacancy occur in the board of viewers, the city council shall by appointment fill the vacancy so created. Instead of appointing viewers to assess the damages as herein contemplated, and as a substitute mode for ascertaining such damages, such city is hereby authorized, at the discretion of the city council, to have the damages ascertained and assessed in accordance with the provisions of chapter 5 of the session laws of the year 1905, which chapter is hereby made applicable for the purpose of assessing damages in case of the filling of swamp and tide land, as herein contemplated. [L. '07, p. 657, § 53.]

The reference to the act of 1905 was intended to be "chapter 55," which was repealed by L. '07, p. 339, § 54: See §§ 9215—9279, infra, the laws now in force relating to the provisions referred to.

See infra, § 9426, filling lowlands, first and second class.

See infra, § 9432, filling lowlands, second and third class.

§ 9057. [7637.] Payment of Damages.

When the final report of the board of viewers shall be certified, the said council of said city shall provide for the immediate payment, to the parties showing themselves entitled to receive the same, of the damages which may be awarded in favor of the owners of any parcel or parcels of land or property as shown by the report, and shall in like manner provide for the payment of any judgment against the city in any appeal. And any such owner shall be entitled to receive a current expense fund warrant of the city for the amount of the damages awarded in favor of the parcel of land or property owned by him, either in said report or by such judgment. In case any owner shall demand cash instead of a warrant the city council are empowered to negotiate current expense fund warrants at par to raise the cash for such purpose. The amount so paid by the city as damages shall be included in the expense of making the improvement and shall be assessed against the lands in the improvement district at the same time and in the same manner as the other expenses of such improvement are assessed. The current expense fund shall be reimbursed out of the first moneys collected in any such assessments, or realized from sale of improvement bonds. [L. '07, p. 661, § 54.]

§ 9058. [7638.] Assessment—Procedure.

After the final certification and correction of the report of the board of viewers as hereinbefore mentioned, or at such time thereafter as the council may determine, the council shall proceed to enact an ordinance for said improvement or filling. By the provisions of such ordinance a local improvement district shall be established to be called "local improvement district No. —," which shall include all of the property to be included within said improvement district which it is proposed to assess for said improvement, but said improvement district so created shall not include any property with reference to which the board of viewers did not act, except that all streets, alleys and public places within or bordering upon the district may be included therein, as the council may order, but the council may, in their discretion, exclude from said district any portion of the land embraced within the calls of the original resolution lying contiguous to any marginal line of the improvement district. Such ordinance shall provide that such improvement shall be made and that the cost and expense thereof, including the damages awarded, shall be taxed and assessed upon all the property in such local improvement district, which cost and expense shall be assessed as follows:

Each parcel of land within said improvement district exclusive of streets, alleys and public places, shall be assessed for such proportion of the entire cost and expense of the entire district as the area of such lot or parcel of land bears to the entire area of said improvement district, exclusive of streets, alleys or other public places within said district, provided that the city council may expend from the general fund for such purposes such sums as in their judgment may be fair and equitable, in consideration of the benefits accruing to the general public by reason of such improvements. Thereafter the said council of said city shall let the contract for said improvement and shall cause the same to be made and shall levy an assessment against the property in accordance with the provisions of this act, and whenever any expenses or costs of work shall have been assessed on any lands, the amount of such expenses and costs of work shall become a lien upon the lands against which the same are assessed, which lien shall take precedence of all other liens except general tax liens. All of the provisions of this act and of the laws of the state of Washington in relation to the improvement of streets at the expense of abutting property in cities of the second class, including the method of certifying to the county treasurer delinquent assessments, and the mode of collection, shall apply to the proceedings, improvements and assessments herein contemplated when not inconsistent herewith and as far as the same may be applicable. [L. '07, p. 661, § 55.]

§ 9060. [7640.] Ordinances—Enacting Clause.

The style of the city ordinances shall be as follows: "Be it ordained by the mayor and city council of the city of —," and all ordinances shall be published in one issue of the official paper of the city. [L. '07, p. 663, § 57.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 207.

§ 9061. [7641.] Ordinances—Approval—Evidence.

Ordinances shall be passed by the city council and approved by the mayor, or the president of the council while acting in his stead. But before any ordinance shall take effect it shall be published in the official newspaper of the city. A certified copy of any ordinance certified to by the clerk, or a printed copy of any ordinance or compilation printed by authority of the city council and attested by the clerk shall be competent evidence in any court. [L. '07, p. 663, § 58.]

See supra, § 1260½, ordinances as evidence.

§ 9062. [7642.] Orders Entered on Journal.

All orders of the city council shall be entered upon the journal of their proceedings, which journal shall be signed by the officer who may preside at such meeting. [L. '07, p. 663, § 59.]

Cited in 111 Wash. 315.

§ 9063. [7643.] Ayes and Noes—When Entered.

Upon the passage of all ordinances appropriating money, imposing taxes, abolishing licenses, increasing or lessening the amount to be paid for licenses, the ayes and noes shall be entered upon the journal. [L. '07, p. 663, § 60.]

§ 9064. [7644.] Majority Necessary in Certain Cases.

A majority of all the members elected shall be necessary to pass any ordinance appropriating for any purpose the sum of five hundred dollars or upwards, or any ordinance imposing any assessment, tax or license, or in any wise increasing or diminishing the city revenue. [L. '07, p. 663, § 61.]

§ 9065. [7645.] Removal of Officers.

Any appointive officer may be removed by the mayor for any cause by him deemed sufficient, but such removal shall be by and with the concurrence of the vote of at least six members of the city council, except that the chief of police may be removed by the mayor without the concurrence of the council: Provided, that the city council by the affirmative vote of nine councilmen may, upon their own initiative, remove any appointive officer. [L. '07, p. 663, § 62.]

§ 9066. [7646.] Vacancies.

When a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor by reason of the death, resignation or disability of the mayor, the city council shall elect a mayor to fill the vacancy, who shall serve until the next general municipal election. In case of a vacancy in the city council the remaining members of such city council shall by the election fill such vacancy. In case a vacancy shall occur in any other elective office such vacancy shall be filled by appointment made by the mayor and confirmed by the council in the same manner as other appointments are made, except as to those elective offices which are herein otherwise provided for. [L. '07, p. 664, § 63.]

See infra, § 9203, vacancy in office of mayor.

§ 9067. [7647.] Health Officer.

The city council shall create the office of health officer and shall prescribe his duties and qualifications and fix his compensation. [L. '07, p. 664, § 64.]

See supra, § 6092, appointment of health officer.

§ 9068. [7648.] Railways to be Assessed.

Whenever any improvement shall be made upon any street occupied by the railroad track of any street railway, steam railroad or other railroad enjoying a franchise from the city upon such street, it shall be competent for the city council, and it shall be their duty to assess against such railroad situated within such improvement district, its just proportion of the expense of making such improvement, which proportion shall be estimated on a basis of charging to said railway not less than the expense of improving the space between the rails of said railroad and for a distance of one foot on each side of said rails. Said assessment shall be made on the rolls of said improvement district against the railway or railroad the same as against other property and said assessment shall be a lien upon said portion of said road from the time of the equalization of the roll, but the mode of enforcing the same shall be by civil action to foreclose in the superior court, the same period of redemption from any sale made on such foreclosure being allowed as in case of sale of real estate upon execution. [L. '07, p. 664, § 65.]

§ 9069. [7649.] Other Local Assessments.

Whenever any such city under the provisions of this act, or under the provisions of any other act or statute of the state of Washington, shall be empowered to assess the cost of any local improvement of whatsoever nature to abutting or contiguous property benefited thereby, the city council of such city shall have power to enact any and all needful ordinances to give effect to such power in order that such power may be effectually carried out, such ordinances, however, shall not be inconsistent with this act. [L. '07, p. 664, § 66.]

§ 9070. [7650.] Leasing Streets.

The city council of any such city shall have power to lease, for manufacturing, wharf, or other business purposes, such portions of the ends of streets terminating in the waterfront or navigable waters of said city, as the city council may deem expedient, but no such lease shall be made without the written consent of all of the property owners whose properties abut upon the portion of the street proposed to be leased. Such lease shall not be made for a longer term than fifteen years and the rental to be paid therefor shall be fixed by the city council: Provided, that all such leases must contain a clause that at intervals of every five years during the term, the rental to be paid by the lessee shall be readjusted between himself and the city by mutual agreement, and in case the city and said lessee cannot agree, then the question in dispute as to the amount of rental to be paid shall be left to arbitration, the city to select one arbitrator, the lessee to select one arbitrator and the two so selected to select a third, and the decision of the three so selected to be final. No lease of any such portion of such street shall be made in the first instance until the city council shall first cause notice to be published by the city clerk in the official newspaper at least fifteen days prior to the making of such lease, which notice shall describe the portion of the street proposed to be leased, to whom and for what purpose leased, and the proposed rental to be paid. The vote of two-thirds of all the councilmen elected shall be necessary to authorize such lease. The council shall have no power to validate any void lease heretofore made. The city council of such city shall have power to fix the rates and tolls to be charged within such city by any public service corporation enjoying or to enjoy a franchise granted or to be granted by such city, but such power of the city council shall be reasonably exercised and their actions in this respect shall be subject to review by any court of competent jurisdiction. [L. '07, p. 665, § 67.]

§ 9071. [7651.] Construction of Dikes.

The city council of such city shall have power to construct and maintain dikes and tide gates and other equipment for the exclusion of the tides from any portion of such city, and may assess the cost thereof against the contiguous property specially benefited thereby, and for that purpose may create necessary improvement districts and levy local assessments, in such manner as to the council shall seem equitable and just, which shall constitute a lien upon the property assessed as in other cases of local improvements. [L. '07, p. 666, § 68.]

§ 9072. [7652.] Eminent Domain.

The right of eminent domain is hereby extended to any such city for the condemnation of lands and other property, either within or without the corporate limits of such city, for any and all corporate purposes and every such city shall have the right to appropriate real estate or other property, either within or without the corporate limits of such city, for any and all municipal purposes in the same manner and under the same procedure as now is or may hereafter be provided by law in cases of other corporations authorized by the laws of the state of Washington to exercise the right of eminent domain: Provided, that this section shall be construed as a concurrent and cumulative power conferred on such cities, and shall not be construed as in any wise repealing or affecting any law now in force conferring the power of eminent domain and the right to appropriate property on any such city, and in particular, this act shall not be construed as in anywise repealing or affecting the powers conferred on any such city by chapter 55 of the session laws of Washington for the year 1905. [L. '07, p. 666, § 69.]

See, also, § 9215 et seq.

The act of 1905, referred to, was repealed by L. '07, p. 339, § 54: See infra, §§ 9215—9279, the laws now in force relating to the provisions referred to.

§ 9073. [7653.] Tax Levies.

Any such city shall have power through its council to levy and collect annually, a property tax for the payment of outstanding warrants and also for the purpose of providing funds for the payment of interest on, and for the creation of sinking funds for, all outstanding bonded indebtedness, and in addition thereto, such city shall have power to levy and collect annual taxes for the payment of current expenses not exceeding fifteen mills on the dollar of assessed valuation: Provided, that if the qualified electors of said city at a special election to be held for that purpose should vote in favor of a larger levy for the payment of current expenses, than fifteen mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, a larger levy for said purpose may accordingly be made. All of the provisions of sections 5635—5646, supra, so far as the same are not inconsistent herewith shall be applicable to such cities. [L. '07, p. 666, § 70.]

"Sections 5635—5646" substituted for reference to chapter 84 of the Laws of 1897.

See supra, §§ 5635—5646, taxation in cities.

This section did not impliedly repeal § 5637, supra, as originally enacted and subsequently amended, fixing a limit for levies to pay outstanding indebtedness: Benn v. Grays Harbor County, 102 Wash. 620, 173 Pac. 632.

The provisions of a statute as to the time within which a city tax levy must be made are declaratory, and failure to strictly comply therewith does not deprive the city of the right to make a levy after the time has expired: New Seattle Chamber of Commerce v. Seattle, 88 Wash. 620, 153 Pac. 351.

§ 9074. [7654.] Special Tax Levy—Waterworks.

Whenever the needs of any such city may require it, a special water improvement fund may be created to be used exclusively for the building, acquisition, extension or improvements of the municipal waterworks and water system of any such city, said special water improvement fund to be created in the manner following, to wit: A general plan of the proposed extension or improvement of the municipal water system, together with the estimated cost of making such improvement, shall be prepared and filed in the office of the city clerk and published in the official newspaper of the city; thereupon the city council of said city shall by ordinance submit to the qualified electors of said city at a special election to be held for that purpose, the question of levying a special water improvement tax upon all of the taxable property within said city for the purpose of raising a special water improvement fund to be used exclusively for the making of the improvements or extensions in said water system; the question so submitted may contemplate the levying of such special tax for one year or for a succession of years, not exceeding ten years in all, the amount of the levy which it is proposed to make for each year, to be distinctly stated. If a majority of the votes cast at such special election shall vote in favor of the proposition to levy such special tax, then the city council shall have power to proceed with the levy of such special taxes during the year, or series of years, for which the same was authorized and said council shall create a special water improvement fund and may issue special water improvement fund warrants or bonds against said fund, the proceeds of which shall be used exclusively for the improving, extension, repair, or renewal, as the case may be, of the water system of such city. Such special water improvement fund warrants or bonds shall not be deemed an indebtedness against such city and the payment of such special water improvement fund warrants or bonds shall be limited to the special water improvement taxes so authorized to be levied and the holders of such warrants or bonds shall have recourse only against the funds raised by such special taxes. The special tax so authorized must be levied each year as originally authorized to take care of all outstanding warrants or bonds against such special fund. The city council shall have power to enact all necessary ordinances to give effect to this section. [L. '07, p. 667, § 71.]

See infra, § 9490, bonds for public utilities.

§ 9075. [7655.] Meetings of City Council.

The city council of any such city shall hold regular meetings, the time and place of meeting to be prescribed by ordinance, which regular meetings of the council shall not be oftener than once a week nor less frequent than every three weeks, but nothing herein contained shall prevent the city council from holding special meetings at any time. No ordinance shall be valid unless the same be passed at a regular meeting of the council. No claims shall be allowed against the city by the city council, nor shall the city council order any warrants drawn except at a general meeting of the council. No resolution or order for the payment of money shall be passed at any time other than at a regular meeting of the council. [L. '07, p. 668, § 72.]

§ 9076. [7656-1.] Police Courts—Establishment.

A police court is hereby established in cities of the second class and those cities operating under and pursuant to the provisions of section 9090 to 9113, which court shall always be open for business except upon non-judicial days, and upon such days may transact such business only as may be provided for by law. [L. '13, p. 301, § 1.]

§ 9077. [7656-2.] Jurisdiction of—Limitation—Appeals.

The police judge in such cities shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all offenses defined by any ordinance of the city, and all other actions brought to enforce or recover any license penalty or forfeiture declared or given by any such ordinance, and full power to forfeit bail bonds and issue execution thereon, and full power to forfeit cash bail, and full power and authority to hear and determine all causes, civil or criminal, arising under such ordinances, and pronounce judgment in accordance therewith: Provided, that for the violation of a criminal ordinance, no greater punishment shall be imposed than a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. In the trial of actions brought for the violation of any city ordinance, no jury shall be allowed. All civil or criminal proceedings before such police judge and judgments rendered by him, shall be subject to review in the superior court of the proper county by writ of review or appeal. The procedure, in case of appeal or by writ of review, shall be in accordance with the provisions now governing appeals in justice's courts as near as may be. [L. '13, p. 302, § 2.]

Jurisdiction: See notes to §§ 44, 46, supra.

Cited in 100 Wash. 288.

The duty to certify and transmit a transcript on appeal is a purely ministerial act which may be compelled by a writ of mandate: State ex rel. Hackett v. Arnest, 100 Wash. 286, 170 Pac. 563.

§ 9078. [7656-3.] Process.

All criminal process issued by such police judge shall be in the name of the state of Washington, and run throughout the state, be directed to the chief of police, marshal, or other police officer of any city, or to any sheriff or constable in the state, and shall be served by him. [L. '13, p. 302, § 3.]

§ 9079. [7656-4.] Prosecutions—Venue.

All prosecutions for the violation of any city ordinance shall be conducted in the name of the city, and may be upon the complaint of any person, and no change of venue shall be allowed from the police judge of such cities in action brought for the violation of city ordinances. [L. '13, p. 302, § 4.]

§ 9080. [7656-5.] Costs and Fees.

In all civil and criminal actions arising from the violation of city ordinances tried by such police judge, he shall charge up as costs in each case the same fees as are charged by justices of the peace for like services in every action. All fees so charged and collected by, and all fines and forfeits paid to such police judge shall belong to, and be paid over by him weekly to the city treasurer, who shall issue his receipt therefor. [L. '13, p. 302, § 5.]

§ 9081. [7656-6.] Supplies—Reports.

The governing body of the city shall furnish for use of the police court, all necessary dockets, books of record, blanks and blank forms which are deemed necessary to the proper administration of said court. The police judge shall, the last Saturday of each month, make a full report of all cases tried in his court for that month in which the city may be interested and file the same with the city clerk. [L. '13, p. 303, § 6.]

§ 9082. [7656-7.] Absence—Police Judge Pro Tempore.

In the event of the police judge's inability to act, or during any temporary absence, or if he should be disqualified, the mayor shall appoint from among the practicing attorneys and qualified electors of the city, a police judge pro tempore, who, before entering upon the duties of such office, shall take and subscribe an oath as other judicial officers, and while so acting, he shall have all the power of the police judge: Provided, however, such appointment shall not continue for a longer period than the absence or inability of the police judge. Such police judge pro tempore shall receive compensation for such services at the rate of five dollars per day, to be paid by the city. [L. '13, p. 303, § 7.]

§ 9083. [7656-8.] Must be Attorney—Election.

No person shall be eligible to hold the office of police judge who is not a practicing attorney under the laws of this state. In all cities of the second class, except such as have a commission form of government, a police judge shall be elected annually at the general municipal election and shall hold his office until his successor is elected and qualified. [L. '13, p. 303, § 8.]

§ 9084. [7663.] Seal—Transcripts as Evidence.

The court shall have a seal, to be provided by the city, and certified transcripts of the police judge's docket and the seal of his court shall be evidence in any court of the state of the contents of the docket; and all warrants and other processes issued out of said court, and all acts done by said police judge under its seal, shall have the same force and validity in any part of this state as though issued or done by any court of record of this state. [L. '90, p. 176, § 99; 1 H. C., § 618.]

§ 9085. [7665.] Salaries—Chief of Police and Policemen, Powers and Duties of.

The city council of such city shall allow to the police judge an annual salary, which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, and to the chief of police and the several policemen of such city each a salary which shall be fixed by said council. The salaries of the police judge and chief of police and policemen shall be paid, from time to time, as other city officers, and as the council may determine. The chief of police, or any policeman of such city, is hereby authorized and empowered to serve, execute and return any and all warrants of arrest, and all processes directed to him by the police judge of such city, and to arrest all persons accused or guilty of the violation of any city ordinance, or of any public offense, and to do and perform all acts and duties which in criminal cases any constable of the county may lawfully do, and receive like fees for such services: Provided, the city council may, in their discretion, deduct the amount so received for fees from the monthly salary of such officers, or order the same paid into the city treasury, for the use and benefit of the city, as received by said officers, respectively: Provided, that nothing in this charter shall be construed as authorizing or entitling such officers to charge or receive from such city, or the county wherein situated, any fees or costs in any case whatever, nor shall such city or county be liable to pay any fees or costs to such officers for any service they may render in any action or proceeding, either civil or criminal. The chief of police shall attend the session of the police court when required, supervise and direct the police force of the city, and perform such other duties as may be required by the city council appertaining to the government of the city or the management of its affairs, not especially devolved upon some officer named in this chapter; and the chief of police, or any policeman at his discretion, shall serve all notices by this chapter provided to be served in which the city is in any way interested, and the return of the officer so serving shall be evidence of the facts in such return stated, but none of such officers shall serve or execute any civil protest [process], except as provided in this chapter. [L. '90, p. 177, § 101; 1 H. C., § 620.]

“This chapter,” see note in § 8883.

§ 9086. [7667.] Interested Party not Disqualified, When.

The interest which an inhabitant of such city may have in a penalty for the breach of a by-law or ordinance of such city shall not disqualify said inhabitant to act as judge, juror, or witness in any prosecution to recover the penalty. [L. '90, p. 178, § 103; 1 H. C., § 622.]

§ 9087. [7668.] Street Lights at Expense of Property Benefited.

In each city of the second class within this state, the city council thereof shall have power to install all necessary fixtures, appliances and equipment for the suitable lighting of any of the public streets, avenues, squares or public places within such city and to assess the whole or any part of the cost of such installation against the property specially benefited in the manner hereinafter provided. When it is proposed to install any such lighting fixtures, appliances or equipment, in whole or in part, at the expense of the property benefited, the city council of any such city shall pass a resolution declaring its intention to make such improvement and stating in such resolution the name of the street, avenue, square or public place which it is proposed to improve by the installation of such fixtures, equipment and appliances and the points between which such improvement is proposed to be made and the estimated cost of the same and that the cost of the same is to be assessed against the property benefited and to be included within the proposed local assessment district herein provided. By such resolution the city council shall fix a time not less than ten days distant within which protests against such proposed improvement may be filed in the office of the city clerk. Such resolution shall further specify whether it is proposed to pay for said improvement upon the immediate payment plan or the bond installment plan, as defined by this chapter. [L. '09, p. 414, § 1.]

See § 9488, a later enactment, acquisition and extension of light plants and public utilities.

§ 9088. [7669.] Protests—Ordinance—Assessment of Cost.

It shall thereupon be the duty of the city clerk to cause such resolution to be published in the official newspaper of the city in at least two consecutive issues thereof, before the time fixed in such resolution for the filing of protests. If protests against said proposed improvement by the owners of more than two-thirds of the front feet of lots and lands abutting on such proposed improvement and included in the assessment districts therein proposed, be filed on or before the date fixed for such filing, the council shall not proceed further with such work unless eight members of the council shall vote to proceed therewith. If protests are not filed by the owners of two-thirds of the front feet of lots and lands as aforesaid, or if such protests are filed and eight councilmen shall vote to proceed with such work, the city council shall proceed to consider the same and shall then or at a subsequent time proceed to enact an ordinance for such improvement. By the provisions of such ordinance a local improvement district shall be established to be known as "local improvement district No. —," which district shall include all of the property fronting on the street, avenue or other public place to be improved between the points named in such resolution, to the distance back from such street, avenue or other place, if platted into blocks and lots, or if platted only into blocks, to the center of each block, and if platted into lots, only, then by including the entire lot, and if not platted, then to the distance of one hundred and twenty feet. Such ordinance shall provide that such improvement shall be made and that the cost and expense thereof shall be taxed and assessed upon all property in such local improvement district, which costs shall be assessed in proportion to the number of feet of such land and lots fronting thereon and included in such improvement district, and in proportion to the benefits derived from such improvement: Provided, that the said council may expend from the general fund for such purposes such sums as in their judgment may be fair and equitable in consideration of benefits accruing to the general public by reason of such improvement. No contract for any such work shall be given except to the lowest responsible bidder. When any assessment shall be made upon any lands or property, as contemplated by this act, the amount of such assessments shall become a lien upon such lands, which shall take precedence of all other liens, except general taxes, which lien shall attach from the time of the equalization of the assessment-roll. [L. '09, p. 415, § 2.]

"This act" refers to §§ 9087—9089.

§ 9089. [7670.] Construction of Act.

All of the provisions of law which are now in force or which may be hereinafter enacted relating to local assessments for street improvements, so far as the same may be applicable, are hereby declared to be applicable to assessments and improvements made under the provisions of this act when not inconsistent herewith. Assessments levied under authority of this act shall be equalized, shall become delinquent and shall be enforced in the same manner as now provided by law for the equalization, delinquency and enforcement of assessments for other street improvements. [L. '09, p. 416, § 3.]

"This act" refers to §§ 9087—9089.

CHAPTER X.

COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

§ 9090. [7670-1.] Population for Commission Form of Government.

Any city, now or hereafter, having a population of two thousand five hundred and less than twenty thousand, as shown by the last state or federal census or by any special census taken by the city in the manner prescribed in section 8939, may become organized as a city under the provisions of this act by proceeding as hereinafter provided. [L. '11, p. 521, § 1.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 71.

This act does not violate Constitution, Article XI, section 10, requiring classification of cities by general laws in proportion to population, although it creates a new classification for this purpose within the old classes; since the Constitution does not require uniformity of general laws relative to municipal corporations, and the act is general and of uniform operation: State ex rel. Hunt v. Tausiek, 64 Wash. 69, 116 Pac. 651, 35 L. R. A. (N. S.) 802.

This act is not unconstitutional because of its optional features: State ex rel. Hunt v. Tausiek, 64 Wash. 69, 116 Pac. 651, 35 L. R. A. (N. S.) 802.

This act is not void in that Constitution, Article XI, section 10, authorizes existing cities to become organized under general laws whenever a majority of the electors voting at a general election shall so determine; since the provision for a "special" election may be rejected as surplusage and the election held at the city's general election; neither does the constitutional provision make general the election held for such purpose, but merely fixes the time for holding it: State ex rel. Hunt v. Tausiek, 64 Wash. 69, 116 Pac. 651, 35 L. R. A. (N. S.) 802.

§ 9091. [7670-2.] Petition—Election.

Upon petition of electors equal in number to twenty-five per centum of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding city election of any such city, the mayor shall by proclamation, submit the question of organizing as a city under this act at a special election to be held at a time specified therein, and within sixty days after said petition is filed. If said plan is not adopted at the special election called, the question of adopting said plan shall not be resubmitted to the voters of said city for adoption within two years thereafter.

At such election the proposition to be submitted and printed on the ballot shall be: "Shall the proposition to organize the city of (name of city), under chapter (naming the chapter containing this act) of the acts of the twelfth legislature of the state of Washington, be adopted?" and there shall be printed on the official ballots of said election the above proposition, followed by the words:

"For organization as a city under commission —."

"Against organization as a city under commission —" and the election thereupon shall be conducted, the vote canvassed, and the result declared in the same manner as provided by law in respect to other city elections. If the majority of the votes cast shall be in favor thereof, the city shall proceed to the election of a mayor and two commissioners, as hereinafter provided. [L. '11, p. 521, § 2.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 79.

§ 9092. [7670-3.] Time of Holding Elections.

All regular elections under this act shall be held triennially on the first Monday in December, at which time there shall be elected a mayor and two commissioners who, together, shall constitute and be known as the "City Commission," and who shall serve for a term of three years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified: Provided, that the first election hereunder shall be held within sixty days after the adoption of the proposition to organize under this act as provided for herein: And provided further, that the commission elected at the first election shall serve until the third Monday in December following such first election, and for three years thereafter. [L. '11, p. 522, § 3.]

§ 9093. [7670-4.] Application of Act—Effect of Change.

All existing laws governing cities of the second class or applicable thereto, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall apply to and govern cities organized under this act. All by-laws, ordinances and resolutions lawfully passed and in force in any such city under its former organization shall remain in force until altered or repealed under the provisions of this act. The territorial limits of such city shall remain the same as under its former organization, and all rights and property of every description which were vested in any city under its former organization, shall vest in the same under the organization herein contemplated, and no right or liability either in favor of or against it, existing at the time, and no suit or prosecution of any kind, shall be affected by such change unless otherwise provided for in this act. [L. '11, p. 522, § 4.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 81.

§ 9094. [7670-5.] Vacancy—How Filled.

If any vacancy occurs in the city commission the remaining members of said commission shall, by appointment, fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.

All of said officers shall be nominated and elected at large. They shall qualify and their terms of office shall begin on the second Monday after their election. The terms of office of the mayor or councilmen or aldermen of such city under the former organization shall terminate at the beginning of the term of office of the city commission elected under the provisions of this act, and the terms of office of all other officers of such city under such former organization, except as hereinafter provided, shall terminate as soon as the commission shall by resolution declare. [L. '11, p. 523, § 5.]

§ 9095. [7670-6.] Bond of Commissioners.

Each member of the city commission shall, before qualifying, give a good and sufficient bond to the city in a sum equivalent to five times the amount of his annual salary, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, which said bond shall be approved by a judge of the superior court of the state of Washington for the county in which said city is located and filed with the clerk of said court. And said commission may, by resolution, require any of its appointees to give bond to be fixed and approved by said commission, and filed with the mayor. [L. '11, p. 523, § 6.]

§ 9096. [7670-7.] City Elections—Nominations.

Candidates to be voted for at the first and at all regular municipal elections, under the provisions of this act, shall be a mayor and two commissioners, who shall be nominated at a primary election; and no other names shall be placed upon the general ballot except those selected in the manner hereinafter prescribed. The primary election for such nomination shall be held on the second Monday preceding the municipal election. The officers of election appointed for the municipal election shall be the officers of the primary election, which shall be held at the same place, so far as practicable, and the polls shall be opened and closed at the same hours as are required for the municipal election.

Any person desiring to become a candidate for mayor or commissioner shall, not less than fifteen nor more than twenty-five days prior to said primary election, file with the city clerk a statement of such candidacy accompanied with the filing fee required by law, in substantially the following form:

State of Washington }
County of ——— } ss.

I, ———, being first duly sworn, say that I reside at ——— street, city of ———, county of ———, state of Washington; that I am a qualified voter therein; that I am a candidate for nomination to the office of ——— of the city of ———, to be voted upon at the primary election to be held on Monday, the ——— day of December, 19—, and I hereby request that my name be printed upon the official primary ballot for nomination by such primary election for such office.

(Signed) — —.

Subscribed and sworn to (or affirmed) before me by — on this — day of —, 19—.

(Signed) — —.

He shall at the same time file therewith the petition of at least one hundred qualified voters requesting such candidacy. Each petition shall be verified by one or more persons as to the qualifications and residence, with street number, of each of the persons so signing the said petition, and the said petition shall be in substantially the following form:

PETITION ACCOMPANYING NOMINATION STATEMENT.

The undersigned, duly qualified electors of the city of —, and residing at the places set opposite our respective names hereto, do hereby request that the name of (name of candidate) be placed on the ballot as a candidate for nomination for — at the primary election to be held in such city on Monday, the — day of December, 19—. We further state that we know him to be a qualified elector of said city and a person of good moral character and qualified, in our judgment, for the duties of such office.

Names of qualified electors — —.

Number —.

Streets —.

Immediately upon the expiration of the time for filing the statements and petitions for candidates, the city clerk shall cause to be published over his signature for three consecutive days in all the daily newspapers published in the city, in proper form, the names of the persons as they are to appear upon the primary ballot, and if there be no daily newspapers, then in two issues of any other newspaper that may be published in said city. The said clerk shall thereupon cause the primary ballot to be printed. Upon the said ballot and under the ballot heading hereinafter provided, the names of the candidates for mayor, arranged alphabetically, shall first be placed, with a square at the right of each name, and immediately above shall appear the words "Vote for one." Following these names, likewise arranged in alphabetical order, shall appear the names of the candidates for commissioners, with a square at the right of each name, and immediately above shall appear the words "Vote for two." The ballots shall be printed upon plain, substantial white paper and shall have no party designation or mark whatever. The ballots shall be in substantially the following form:

OFFICIAL PRIMARY BALLOT.

Candidate for nomination for mayor and commissioners of — at the PRIMARY ELECTION.

(Date) — —.

Place a cross in the square opposite the names of the parties you favor as candidates for the respective positions.

Having caused said ballots to be printed, the said city clerk shall cause to be delivered to each polling place a number of said ballots equal to twice the number of votes cast in such polling precinct at the last general municipal election for mayor. The persons who are qualified to vote at the general municipal election shall be qualified to vote at such primary election. The law applicable to challenges at a general municipal election shall be applicable to challenges made at such primary election. The officers of election shall, immediately upon the closing of the polls, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in such precinct for each of the candidates, and make return thereof to the city clerk, upon proper blanks to be furnished by the said clerk, within six hours of the closing of the polls. On the day following the said primary election the said city clerk shall canvass said returns so received from all the polling precincts, and shall make and publish in all the newspapers of said city, at least once, the result thereof. Said canvass by the city clerk shall be publicly made. The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for mayor, and the four candidates receiving the highest number of votes for commissioners, shall be placed upon the ballot as the candidates for mayor and commissioners, respectively, at the general municipal election.

All electors of cities under this act who by the laws of the state of Washington would be entitled to vote for the election of officers at any general municipal election in such cities, shall be qualified to vote at all elections under this act and the ballot at such general municipal election shall be in the same general form as for such primary election, so far as applicable, and in all elections in such city the election precincts, voting places, method of conducting election, canvassing the votes and announcing the results shall be the same as by law provided for election of officers in such cities, so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this act. [L. '11, p. 523, § 7.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 72.

§ 9097. [7670-8.] Grafting—Penalty.

Any person who shall agree to perform any service in the interest of any candidate for any office provided for in this act, in consideration of any money or other valuable thing for such services performed in the interest of any candidate, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300) nor less than twenty-five ($25) or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty (30) days, nor less than five (5) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '11, p. 527, § 8.]

§ 9098. [7670-9.] Soliciting—Bribing—Accepting—Penalty.

Any person giving or offering to give a bribe, either in money or other thing of value, to any elector for the purpose of influencing his vote at any election provided for in this act, or any elector who shall solicit, receive or accept, such bribe or other thing of value, or any person making false answer under any of the provisions of this act relative to his qualifications to vote at said election, or any person willfully voting or offering to vote at such election, who knowing himself not to be a qualified elector of such precinct where he offers to vote; or any person knowingly procuring, aiding or abetting any violating hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined a sum not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ten (10) nor more than ninety (90) days. [L. '11, p. 527, § 9.]

§ 9099. [7670-10.] Vote of Commission.

Each member of the city commission shall have the right to vote on all questions coming before the commission. Two members of the commission shall constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of two members shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution or ordinance, or pass any measure, unless a greater number is provided for in this act. Upon every vote, the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion, resolution or ordinance shall be reduced to writing and read before the vote is taken thereon. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the commission; he shall have no power to veto any measure, but every resolution or ordinance passed by the commission must be signed by the mayor, or by two members of the commission, and be filed and recorded within five days after its passage, and the same shall be in effect from and after thirty days after its passage, except as otherwise provided. [L. '11, p. 527, § 10.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 72.

§ 9100. [7670-11.] Powers Conferred—Departments.

Cities organized under the provisions of this act shall have all the powers which cities of the second class now have, or hereafter may have conferred upon them; all which said powers shall inhere in and be exercised by the commission provided for in this act. The executive and administrative powers, authority and duties in such cities under commission, shall be distributed into and among three departments, as follows:

- I. Department of public safety.
- II. Department of finance and accounting.
- III. Department of streets and public improvements.

The commission shall determine by ordinance the powers and duties to be performed in each department; shall prescribe the powers and duties of officers and employees; may assign particular officers and employees to one or more of the departments; may require an officer or employee to perform duties in two or more departments, and may make such other rules and regulations as they may deem necessary or proper for the efficient and economical conduct of the business of the city. [L. '11, p. 528, § 11.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 72.

§ 9101. [7670-12.] Duties of Mayor—Removal.

The mayor shall be superintendent of the department of public safety, and the commission shall, at the first regular meeting after election of its members, designate by majority vote one commissioner to be superintendent of finance and accounting; and one to be superintendent of the department of streets and public improvements; but such designation may be changed whenever it appears that the public service would be benefited thereby.

The commission shall, at said first meeting, or as soon as practicable thereafter appoint by majority vote, a city clerk, and such other officers and assistants as shall be provided for by ordinance: Provided, that any officer or assistant, elected or appointed by the commission, may be removed from office at any time by vote of a majority of the members of the commission, except as otherwise provided in this act: Provided further, that any member of the commission may perform the duties pertaining to any and all appointive offices in his department, but without additional compensation therefor. [L. '11, p. 528, § 12.]

Cited in 64 Wash. 73.

§ 9102. [7670-13.] Change of Compensation.

The commission shall have power from time to time to create, fill and discontinue offices and employments other than those herein prescribed, according to their judgment of the needs of the city; and may, by majority vote of all the members, remove any such officers or employees, except as otherwise provided for in this act; and may by resolution, or otherwise prescribe, limit or change the compensation of such officers or employees. [L. '11, p. 529, § 13.]

§ 9103. [7670-14.] Salaries.

The commission shall have and maintain an office at the city hall, or such other place as the city may provide, and their total compensation shall be as follows: In cities having a population of two thousand five hundred (2,500) and less than five thousand (5,000) the annual salary of the mayor shall be five hundred dollars ($500), and that of each of the commissioners two hundred and fifty dollars ($250); in cities having a population of five thousand and less than eight thousand (8,000), the annual salary of the mayor shall be twelve hundred dollars ($1,200), and that of each of the commissioners one thousand dollars ($1,000); in cities having a population of eight thousand (8,000) and less than fourteen thousand (14,000) the annual salary of the mayor shall be two thousand dollars ($2,000), and that of each of the commissioners eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800); and in cities having a population of fourteen thousand (14,000) and less than twenty thousand (20,000), the annual salary of the mayor shall be twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500), and that of each commissioner two thousand dollars ($2,000). Such salaries shall be payable in equal monthly installments.

Every other officer or assistant shall receive such salary or compensation as the commission shall fix by ordinance and shall be payable monthly or at such shorter periods as the commission shall determine. [L. '11, p. 529, § 14.]

§ 9104. [7670-15.] Regular Meeting.

Regular meetings of the commission shall be held on the second Monday after the election of the commission, and thereafter at least once each week. The commission shall provide by ordinance for the time of holding regular meetings, and special meetings may be called from time to time by the mayor or two commissioners. All meetings of the commission, whether regular or special, shall be open to the public.

The mayor shall be president of the commission and preside at its meetings, and shall oversee all departments and report and recommend to the commission for its action all matters requiring attention in any department. The superintendent of the department of finance and accounting shall be vice-president of the commission, and in the absence or inability of the mayor, shall perform the duties of the mayor. [L. '11, p. 530, § 15.]

§ 9105. [7670-16.] Franchises.

Every ordinance or resolution appropriating money or ordering any street improvement or sewer, or granting any franchise or right to occupy or use the streets, highways, bridges or public places in the city for any purpose, shall be complete in the form in which it is finally passed, and remain on file with the city clerk for public inspection at least one week before the final passage or adoption thereof. No franchise or right to occupy or use the streets, highways, bridges or public places in any city shall be granted, renewed or extended, except by ordinance; and every franchise or grant for interurban or street railways, gas or water works, electric light or power plants, heating plants, telegraph or telephone systems, or other public service utilities within said city, must be authorized or approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at a general or special election. [L. '11, p. 530, § 16.]

§ 9106. [7670-17.] Contracts—Special Privileges.

No officer or employee elected or appointed in any such city shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or job for work or materials, or claims or demands of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the profits thereof, or services to be furnished or performed for the city; and no officer or employee shall be interested directly or indirectly, in any contract or job for work or materials, or the profits thereof, or service to be furnished or performed for any person, firm or corporation operating interurban railway, street railway, gasworks, waterworks, electric light or power plant, heating plant, telegraph line, telephone exchange, or other public utility within the territorial limits of said city. No such officer or employee shall accept or receive directly or indirectly, from any person, firm or corporation operating within the territorial limits of said city, any interurban railway, street railway, gasworks, waterworks, electric light or power plant, heating plant, telegraph line or telephone exchange, or other business using or operating under a public franchise, any frank, free ticket or free service, or accept or receive, directly or indirectly, from any such person, firm or corporation, any other service upon terms more favorable than is granted to the public generally. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor, and every such contract or agreement shall be void.

Such prohibition of free transportation shall not apply to policemen or firemen in uniform; nor shall any free service to city officials provided for by any franchise or ordinance be affected by this section. Any appointive officer or employee of such city who, by solicitation or otherwise, shall exert his influence to induce other officers or employees of such city to favor any particular candidate for any city office, or who shall in any manner contribute money, labor, or other valuable thing to any person for city election purposes, shall be discharged from his office by the commission. [L. '11, p. 531, § 17.]

§ 9107. [7670-18.] Print Statement.

The commission shall each month print in pamphlet form a detailed itemized statement of all receipts and expenses of the city and a summary of its proceedings during the preceding month, and furnish printed copies thereof to the state library, the city library, the newspapers of the city, and to persons who shall apply therefor at the office of the city clerk. At the end of each year the commission shall cause a full and complete examination of all the books and accounts of the city to be made by competent accountants, and shall publish the result of such examination in the manner above provided for publications of statements of monthly expenditures. [L. '11, p. 532, § 18.]

§ 9108. [7670-19.] May Revise Appropriations.

If, at the beginning of the term of office of the first commission elected in such city under the provisions of this act, the appropriations for the expenditures of the city government for the current fiscal year have been made, said commission shall have power, by ordinance, to revise said appropriations. [L. '11, p. 532, § 19.]

§ 9109. [7670-20.] Recall—Procedure.

The holder of any elective office may be removed at any time after six months of incumbency by the electors qualified to vote for a successor of such incumbent. The procedure to effect the removal of an incumbent of an elective office shall be as follows: A petition signed by electors entitled to vote for a successor to the incumbent sought to be removed, equal in number to at least thirty-five per centum of the entire vote for all candidates for the office of mayor cast at the last preceding general municipal election, demanding an election of a successor of the person sought to be removed, shall be filed with the city clerk, which petition shall contain a general statement of the grounds for which the removal is sought. The signatures to the petition need not all be appended to one paper, but each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number. One of the signers of each such paper shall make oath before an officer competent to administer oaths that the statements therein made are true as he believes, and that each signature to the paper appended is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. Within ten days from the date of filing of such petition the city clerk shall examine and, from the registration books and the returns of the preceding municipal election, ascertain whether or not said petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, and, if necessary, the commission shall allow him extra help for that purpose; and he shall attach to said petition his certificate, showing the result of such examination. If by the clerk's certificate the petition is shown to be insufficient, it may be amended within ten days from the date of said certificate. The clerk shall, within ten days after such amendment, make like examination of the amended petition, and if his certificate shall show the same to be insufficient it shall be returned to the person filing the same; without prejudice, however, to the filing of a new petition to the same effect. If the petition shall be deemed to be sufficient, the clerk shall submit the same to the commission without delay, and the commission shall order and fix the date for holding the said election, not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days from the date of the clerk's certificate to the commission that a sufficient petition is filed: Provided, however, that in any case where the clerk shall find that the petition is insufficient, or in any case where the commission shall refuse to order an election, then in either of such cases any taxpayer may petition the superior court of such county, and such court shall forthwith examine the petition and, if it shall find the petition sufficient, then the court shall order that such election shall be held and the commission shall be required by the order of the court to hold such election.

The commission shall make, or cause to be made, publication of notice and all arrangements for holding such election, and the same shall be conducted, returned and the result thereof declared, in all respects as are other city elections.

The commission shall call a special primary election for the purpose of nominating one candidate to oppose the incumbent sought to be removed, which said primary election shall be conducted, as nearly as may be, in the same manner as other primary elections under this act. The successor of any officer so removed shall hold office during the unexpired term of his predecessor. Any person sought to be removed shall be a candidate to succeed himself, unless he formally resigns his office, thereby creating a vacancy, and the city clerk shall place his name on the official ballot without nomination. In any such removal, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. At such election, if the candidate opposing the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, the incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from the office upon qualification of his successor, which said qualification shall take place within ten days after receiving notification of election, otherwise the office shall be deemed vacant. If the incumbent receives the highest number of votes he shall continue in office and shall not be subject to recall under the provisions of this section during the remainder of his term of office. The same method of removal shall be cumulative and additional to the methods heretofore provided by law. [L. '11, p. 532, § 20.]

§ 9110. [7670-21.] Ordinances—Special Elections.

Any proposed ordinance may be submitted to the commission by petition signed by electors of the city equal in number to the percentage hereinafter required. The signatures, verification, authentication, inspection, certification, amendment and submission of such petition shall be the same as provided for petition under section 9109.

If the petition accompanying the proposed ordinance be signed by electors equal in number to twenty-five per centum of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding general election, and if it contains a request that the said ordinance be submitted to a vote of the people, unless passed by the commission, it shall thereupon be the duty of the commission to either:

(a) Pass said ordinance without alteration within twenty days after attachment of the clerk's certificate to the accompanying petition; or

(b) Forthwith after the clerk shall attach to the petition accompanying such ordinance his certificate of sufficiency, the commission shall call a special election, unless a general municipal election will occur within ninety days thereafter, and at such special or general election such ordinance shall be submitted without alteration to the vote of the electors of said city.

The ballots used for voting upon said ordinance shall be similar to those used at the general municipal election, and shall contain these words: "For the ordinance" (stating the nature of the proposed ordinance); and "Against the ordinance" (stating the nature of the proposed ordinance). If a majority of the qualified voters voting on the proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, such ordinance shall thereupon become a valid and binding ordinance of the city, and any ordinance proposed by petition, or which shall be adopted by a vote of the people, cannot be repealed or amended except by a vote of the people, and on the margin of the record of such ordinances the city clerk shall write the words "Ordinance by petition No. ——" or "Ordinance by vote of the people," as the case may be.

Any number of proposed ordinances may be voted upon at the same election, in accordance with the provisions of this section, but there shall not be more than one special election in any period of six months for such purpose.

The commission may submit a proposition for the repeal of any such ordinance or for amendments thereto, to be voted upon at any such succeeding general city election, and should such proposition so submitted receive a majority of the votes cast thereon at such election, such ordinance shall thereby be repealed or amended accordingly. Whenever any ordinance or proposition is required by this act to be submitted to the voters of the city at an election, the city clerk shall cause such ordinance or proposition to be published once in each of the daily newspapers in said city, such publication to be not more than twenty or less than five days before the submission of such proposition or ordinance to be voted on: Provided, that if no daily newspaper is published in such city, then such publication shall be made in each of the weekly newspapers published therein.

All ordinances repealed or amended shall have placed on the margin of the record of said ordinance by the city clerk the words "repealed (or amended) by ordinance No. ____" or "repealed (or amended) by vote of the people," as the case may be. [L. '11, p. 534, § 21.]

§ 9111. [7670-22.] Becomes Effective, When.

No ordinance passed by the commission, except when otherwise required by the general laws of the state of Washington or by the provisions of this act, except an ordinance for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, which contains a statement of its urgency and is passed by unanimous vote of the commission, shall go into effect before thirty days from the time of its final passage, and if during said thirty days a petition signed by electors of the city equal in number to at least twenty-five per centum of the entire vote cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding general municipal election at which a mayor was elected, protesting against the passage of such ordinance be presented to the commission, said ordinance shall thereupon be suspended from going into operation, and it shall be the duty of the commission to reconsider such ordinance and if the same is not entirely repealed, the commission shall submit the ordinance as is provided by subsection "b" of section 9110, to the vote of the electors of the city, either at the general election or at a special municipal election to be called for that purpose, and such ordinance shall not go into effect or become operative unless a majority of the qualified electors voting on the same shall vote in favor thereof. Said petition shall be in all respects in accordance with the provisions of section 9110, and be examined and certified to by the clerk in all respects as therein provided: Provided, this section shall not apply to ordinances providing for local improvement districts. [L. '11, p. 536, § 22.]

Cited in 112 Wash. 467.

This section does not prevent the going into effect, upon its passage and publication, of an ordinance submitting a proposition to the voters, thereby, in effect, providing within itself for a referendum: Langdon v. Walla Walla, 112 Wash. 446, 193 Pac. 1.

§ 9112. [7670-23.] Abandonment of Organization.

Any city which shall have operated for more than six years under the provisions of this act may abandon such organization hereunder and accept the provisions of the general law of the state of Washington applicable to cities of its population.

Upon the petition of not less than twenty-five per centum of the electors of such city a special election shall be called, to which the following proposition only shall be submitted: "Shall the city of (name of city) abandon its organization as a city under commission and become a city under the general laws governing cities of like population?"

If a majority of the votes cast at such special election be in favor of such proposition the said city shall become organized under the general law and the first election of city officers under the general law shall be held on the date of the next general city election of cities of its class; but such change shall not in any manner or degree affect the property, rights, or liabilities of any nature of such city, but shall merely extend to such change in its form of government.

The sufficiency of such petition shall be determined, the election ordered and conducted, and the results declared, generally as provided by section 9109, in so far as the provisions thereof are applicable. [L. '11, p. 537, § 23.]

§ 9113. [7670-24.] Petition by Legal Voters.

Petitions provided for in this act shall be signed by none but legal voters of the city. Each petition shall contain, in addition to the names of the petitioners, the street and house number in which the petitioner resides, his age and length of residence in the city. It shall also be accompanied by the affidavit of one or more legal voters of the city stating that the signers thereof were at the time of signing, legal voters of said city, and the number of signers at the time the affidavit was made. [L. '11, p. 537, § 24.]

CHAPTER XI.

GOVERNMENT OF THIRD CLASS CITIES.

§ 9114. [7671-1.] Rights, Powers and Privileges.

Every municipal corporation of the third class shall be entitled "The City — (naming it)," and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit. [L. '15, p. 650, § 1.]

§ 9115. [7671-2.] Officers.

The government of said city shall be vested in a mayor and a city council, to consist of seven members, a treasurer, a city attorney, a clerk, and such subordinate officers as are hereinafter provided for; and whenever a free public library and reading-room is established therein, five trustees thereof, and whenever a public park is maintained, three commissioners therefor. [L. '15, p. 650, § 2.]

§ 9116. [7671-3.] Election and Terms.

The mayor, councilman-at-large, treasurer, city attorney and clerk shall be elected in the year 1915 for the term of one year. Such officers shall be elected in the year 1916 and biennially thereafter for terms of two years. Three councilmen, other than councilman-at-large, shall be elected in the year 1915 for terms of three years. Three councilmen, other than councilman-at-large, shall be elected in the year 1916 and biennially thereafter for terms of four years. All such elections shall be by the qualified electors of such city at a general municipal election to be held therein on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in December. All elective officers shall hold office from and after the first Tuesday in January next succeeding the date of election and until their successors are elected and qualified. The mayor shall appoint a chief of police, police judge, city engineer, street superintendent, health officer and such other officers as shall be provided by ordinance. The term of every appointive officer shall expire at the same time as that of the mayor appointing him unless such officer be sooner removed by the mayor by and with the consent of not less than four councilmen. [L. '15, p. 650, § 3.]

§ 9117. [7671-4.] Confirmation of Appointments.

All appointments of officers and employees made by virtue of this act, shall be subject to confirmation by the city council. Final action on any appointment shall be taken by the city council not later than the second regular meeting after the submission of the same by the mayor to the city council: Provided, however, that failure by the city council to take such action on any appointment made by the mayor, within the time aforesaid, shall be deemed a confirmation. If the city council shall refuse to confirm any appointment of the mayor, then he shall at or before the next meeting of the council thereafter, appoint another person to fill the office or position, and he may continue to appoint until his appointment is confirmed. In case the mayor fails to make another appointment within one week from the rejection of the appointment for the same office or position, then the city council may elect a suitable person to fill the office or position during the term. [L. '15, p. 651, § 4.]

§ 9118. [7671-5.] Oath and Bond.

The treasurer, city attorney, clerk, police judge, chief of police and such other officers as the council may require shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath of office and execute a bond to the city in such penal sum as the council shall determine, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and otherwise conditioned as may be provided by ordinance. [L. '15, p. 651, § 5.]

§ 9119. [7671-6.*] Vacancies, How Filled.

Any vacancy occurring in any of the offices provided for in this chapter shall be filled by appointment by the mayor, but if such office be elective, such appointee shall hold office only until the next regular election, at which time a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term. In case a member of the city council shall absent himself for three consecutive regular meetings thereof, unless by permission of the city council, his office may be declared vacant by the city council, and any vacancies in the city council or in the office of mayor shall be filled by a majority vote of such city council. A temporary vacancy in any of the appointive offices provided for in this chapter caused by illness, absence from the city or other temporary inability to act of the incumbent, may be filled by appointment by the mayor; such appointee to exercise the duties of the office until the said temporary disability is removed. [L. '19, p. 275, § 1; L. '15, p. 651, § 6.]

§ 9120. [7671-7.] Compensation Fixed by Ordinance or Estimates.

The members of the city council shall receive no compensation whatever. The treasurer, clerk, city attorney and health officer shall severally receive, at stated times, a compensation, to be fixed by ordinance by the city council, which compensation shall not be increased or diminished after their election, or during their several terms of office. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the city council from fixing such several amounts of compensation, in the first instance, during the term of office of any such officer or after his election. The compensation of all other officers shall be fixed by the city council at the time the estimates are made as provided by law. [L. '15, p. 652, § 7.]

§ 9121. [7671-8.] Election Regulations.

All elections shall be held in accordance with the general election laws of the state in so far as the same are applicable and no person shall be entitled to vote at any election unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county and shall have resided in such city for at least thirty days next preceding such election. The city council shall give such notice of each election as may be provided by ordinance, appoint boards of election, fix their compensation, establish election precincts and polling places, change the same from time to time so that the boundaries of such election precincts shall conform to the boundaries of precincts established pursuant to the general election laws. [L. '15, p. 652, § 8.]

§ 9122. [7671-9.] Eligibility to Office.

No person shall be eligible to hold any elective office in such city, unless he be a citizen of and a legal resident therein. [L. '15, p. 652, § 9.]

§ 9123. [7671-10.] Meetings of Council.

The city council, together with the mayor, shall meet on the first Tuesday in January next succeeding the date of each general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, and shall hold regular meetings at least once in each month, but not to exceed one regular meeting in each week, at such times as they shall fix by ordinance. Such meetings may be called at any time by the mayor, by written notice delivered to each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting: Provided, however, that no ordinance shall be passed, or contract let, or entered into, or bill for the payment of money allowed, at any special meeting. All meetings of the city council shall be held within the corporate limits of the city at such place as may be designated by ordinance and shall be public. The members of the council shall, at their first regular meeting after each general municipal election and thereafter whenever a vacancy occurs, elect from among their number a mayor pro tem. who shall hold office at the pleasure of the council and shall, in case of the absence or disability of the mayor, perform the duties of mayor, except that the mayor pro tem. shall have no power to appoint or remove any officer nor to veto any ordinance. [L. '15, p. 652, § 10.]

§ 9124. [7671-11.] Quorum—Passage of Ordinances—Veto.

At any meeting of the city council, a majority of the councilmen shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council, and in case of his absence, the mayor pro tem. shall preside, and in case of the absence of the clerk, the mayor or the mayor pro tem. shall appoint one of the members of the city council as clerk pro tem., but the appointment of a councilman as mayor pro tem., or as clerk pro tem., shall not in any way abridge his right to vote upon all questions coming before such council. Every ordinance which shall have passed the city council shall be, before it becomes valid, presented to the mayor; if he approves he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it, with his written objections to the city council and the council shall cause such written objections to be entered at large upon the journal of its proceedings. Upon receipt of the mayor's objections the council shall proceed to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance was passed. After such reconsideration, five members of the city council present and voting may, by an affirmative vote, pass the ordinance over the mayor's veto; such vote shall be taken by a call of the yeas and nays. If the mayor shall fail, for the period of ten days, to approve or veto an ordinance, it shall become valid without his approval. [L. '15, p. 653, § 11.]

§ 9125. [7671-12.] Requisites for Ordinances and Franchises.

No ordinance and no resolution granting any franchise for any purpose shall be passed by the city council, on the day of its introduction, nor within five days thereafter, nor at any other than a regular meeting, nor without being first submitted to the city attorney. All ordinances shall be published in a newspaper printed within said city; said publication shall be made by the newspaper designated as the official newspaper of said city, if there be one. If there be no official newspaper nor other newspaper published in said city, then publication shall be made in such manner as the city council may direct. No franchise or valuable privilege shall be granted unless by the vote of at least five members of the city council. No ordinance and no resolution or order shall have any validity or effect, unless passed by the votes of at least four councilmen. No ordinance shall take effect until five days from and after the date of its publication. No ordinance shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title. No ordinance or any section thereof shall be revised or amended unless the new ordinance contain the entire ordinance or section revised or amended, and the ordinance or section so amended shall be repealed. [L. '15, p. 654, § 12.]

§ 9126. [7671-13.] Contested Elections—Rules and Proceedings.

The city council shall judge of the qualifications of its members and of all election returns, and determine contested elections of all the city officers. They may establish rules for the conduct of their proceedings, and punish any member, or other person, for disorderly behavior at any meeting. They shall cause the clerk to keep a correct journal of all their proceedings, and at the desire of any member shall cause the ayes and naves to be taken on any question, and entered on the journal. [L. '15, p. 654, § 13.]

§ 9127. [7671-14.] City Council—General Powers.

The city council of such city shall have power—

(a) To pass ordinances not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of this state or of the United States;

(b) To prevent and regulate the running at large of any or all domestic animals within the city limits or any part thereof and to cause the impounding and sale of any such animals;

(c) To establish, build and repair bridges, to establish, lay out, alter, keep open, open, widen, vacate, improve and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares and other public highways and places within the city, and to drain, sprinkle and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish and re-establish the grades thereof; to grade, plank, pave, macadamize, gravel and curb the same, in whole or in part; to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks and crosswalks therein or upon any part thereof; to cultivate and maintain parking strips therein, and generally to manage and control all such highways and places; to provide by local assessment for the leveling up and surfacing and oiling or otherwise treating for the laying of dust, all streets within the city limits: Provided that in all local improvement districts abutting property shall not be liable for any greater amount than the estimate of the city engineer plus ten per cent for any purpose;

(d) To establish, construct and maintain drains and sewers, and shall have power to compel all property owners on streets and alleys or within two hundred feet thereof along which sewers shall have been constructed to make proper connections therewith and to use the same for proper purposes, and in case the owners of the property on such streets and alleys or within two hundred feet thereof shall fail to make such connections within the time fixed by such council, they may cause such connections to be made and to assess against the property served thereby the costs and expenses thereof;

(e) To provide fire-engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires;

(f) To impose and collect an annual license not exceeding two dollars on every dog owned or harbored within the limits of the city; to prohibit dogs running at large and to provide for the killing of all dogs not duly licensed found at large;

(g) To license, for the purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business authorized by law, and transacted and carried on in such city, and all shows, exhibitions and lawful games carried on therein and within one mile of the corporate limits thereof, to fix the rate of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise;

(h) To improve rivers and streams flowing through such city, or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten and deepen the channel thereof, and remove obstructions therefrom; to improve the waterfront of the city, and to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such city from overflow; to prevent the filling of the water of any bay, except such filling over tide or shore lands as may be provided for by order of the city council; to purify and prevent the pollution of streams of water, lakes or other sources of supply, and for this purpose shall have jurisdiction over all streams, lakes or other sources of supply, both within and without the city limits. Such city shall have power to provide by ordinance and to enforce such punishment or penalty as the city council may deem proper for the offense of polluting or in any manner obstructing or interfering with the water supply of such city or source thereof;

(i) To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes;

(j) To permit, under such restrictions as they may deem proper, and to grant franchises for, the laying of railroad tracks, and the running of cars propelled by electric, steam or other power thereon, and the laying of gas and water-pipes and steam mains and conduits for underground wires, and to permit the construction of tunnels or subways in the public streets, and to construct and maintain and to permit the construction and maintenance of telegraph, telephone and electric lines therein;

(k) In its discretion to divide the city by ordinance, into a convenient number of wards, not exceeding six, to fix the boundaries thereof, and to change the same from time to time: Provided, that no change in the boundaries of any ward shall be made within sixty days next before the date of such general municipal election, nor within twenty months after the same shall have been established or altered. Whenever such city shall be so divided into wards, the city council shall designate by ordinance the number of councilmen to be elected from such ward, apportioning the same in proportion to the population of such wards. And thereafter the councilmen so designated shall be elected by the qualified electors resident in such ward, or by general vote of the whole city as may be designated in such ordinance: Provided, further, that when additional territory is added to the city that it thereafter, by act of the council, be annexed to contiguous wards without affecting the right to redistrict at the expiration of twenty months after last previous divisions. The removal of a councilman from the ward for which he was elected shall create a vacancy in such office;

(l) To impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances, and for any breach or violation of any ordinance to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both, but no such fine shall exceed three hundred dollars nor the term of such imprisonment exceed the term of three months;

(m) To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets, or other public property or works within the city;

(n) To establish fire limits, with proper regulations;

(o) To establish and maintain a free public library;

(p) To establish and regulate public markets and market places;

(q) To punish the keepers and inmates and lessors of houses of ill fame, gamblers and keepers of gambling tables, patrons thereof or those found loitering about such houses and places;

(r) To make all such ordinances, by-laws, rules, regulations and resolutions, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, as may be deemed expedient to maintain the peace, good government and welfare of the corporation and its trade, commerce and manufactures, and to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and to enact and enforce within the limits of such city all other local, police, sanitary and other regulations as do not conflict with general laws;

(s) To license steamers, boats and vessels used in any bay or other watercourse in the city and to fix and collect such license; to provide for the regulation of berths, landings, and stations, and for the removing of steamboats, sail boats, sail vessels, rafts, barges and other water craft; to provide for the removal of obstructions to navigation and of structures dangerous to navigation or to other property, in or adjoining the waterfront, except in municipalities in counties in which there is a city of the first class. [L. '15, p. 655, § 14.]

The power of third class cities to grant franchises for the use of their streets confers no authority for the alteration of such franchises subsequent to their grant so as to impose additional obligations on the holder in the matter of street paving differing from the conditions of the franchise contract: State ex rel. Olympia v. Olympia Light & Power Co., 91 Wash. 519, 158 Pac. 85.

§ 9128. [7671-15.] Acquisition of Property for Municipal Purposes.

The city council of such city shall have power to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire real estate and personal property necessary or proper for municipal purposes and to control, lease, sublease, convey or otherwise dispose of the same; to acquire and plat land for cemeteries and parks and provide for the regulation thereof; to lease any waterfront and other lands adjacent thereto owned by it for manufacturing, commercial or other business purposes; to lease for wharf, dock and other purposes of navigation and commerce such portions of its streets which bound upon or terminate in its waterfront or the navigable waters of such city, subject, however, to the written consent of the lessees of a majority of the square feet frontage of the harbor area abutting on any street proposed to be so leased. No lease of streets or waterfront shall be for longer than ten years and the rental therefor shall be fixed by the city council. Every such lease shall contain a clause that at intervals of every five years during the term thereof the rental to be paid by the lessee shall be readjusted between the lessee and the city by mutual agreement, or in default of such mutual agreement that the rental shall be fixed by arbitrators to be appointed one by the city council, one by the lessee and the third by the two thus appointed. No such lease shall be made until the city council shall have first caused notice thereof to be published in the official newspaper of such city at least fifteen days and in one issue thereof each week prior to the making of such lease, which notice shall describe the portion of the street proposed to be leased, to whom, for what purpose, and the rental to be charged therefor. The city may improve part of such waterfront or street extensions by building inclines, wharves, gridirons and other accommodations for shipping, commerce and navigation and may charge and collect for service and use thereof reasonable rates and tolls. [L. '15, p. 658, § 15.]

§ 9129. [7671-16.*] Light, Water, Power and Heat—Operation by City.

The city council of such city shall have power to contract for supplying the city with water, light, power and heat for municipal purposes; to acquire, construct, repair and manage within or without such city, pumps, aqueducts, reservoirs, plants or other works necessary or proper for irrigation purposes or for supplying water, light, power or heat or any by-product thereof for the use of such city or the inhabitants thereof or any other person within such city, and to dispose of any excess of any such supply to any person within or without such city: Provided, that when such works or systems are owned by any city after being placed in operation no taxes shall be imposed for maintenance or operation, but such charges shall be paid from the earnings of such works or systems. Maintenance and operation herein mentioned shall include all necessary repairs, replacements, interest on any debts incurred in acquiring, constructing, repairing or operating such plants or departments, and all depreciation charges, also four per cent per annum on the cost of such plant or system, which shall be determined by the bureau of inspection, to be paid into the current expense fund, except that where utility bonds have been or may hereafter be issued and are unpaid no payment shall be required into the current expense fund until such bonds are paid. General bonds may be issued to pay the original cost of such plants or systems, such bonds to be retired by general tax levies against all property of the city within its then present limits or such limits as thereafter extended, or such cost may be paid for by the issuance and sale of utility bonds as provided by sections 9489 to 9491, both inclusive, or as the same may be amended, but no such issue shall be authorized by the vote of less than three-fifths of the qualified electors voting at an election as therein provided. Extensions to plants may be made either by general bond issue, general tax levies, or in accordance with the statutes now in force or that may hereafter be enacted relative to local improvements. Rates shall be fixed by ordinance for supplying light, power, heat or water for commercial, domestic and irrigation purposes sufficient to pay all operating and maintenance charges hereinbefore referred to, and when a greater amount is produced than is necessary to meet said operating and maintenance charges the rates to the consumer may be reduced, or such excess amount over and above what is necessary for said operating and maintenance charges may be transferred to the current expense fund or to the indebtedness fund, at the option of the city council. Complete separate accounts for such municipal utilities shall be kept under the system and on forms prescribed by the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices. [L. '17, p. 496, § 1; L. '15, p. 659, § 16.]

§ 9130. [7671-17.*] Limit of Tax Levy.

Any such city shall have power through its council to levy and collect annually, a property tax for the payment of current expenses not exceeding fifteen mills on the dollar of assessed valuation: Provided, that if the qualified electors of said city at a special election to be held for that purpose should vote in favor of a larger levy for the payment of current expenses, than fifteen mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, a larger levy for said purpose may accordingly be made: Provided, further, that the affirmative vote of three-fifths of the electors voting at such election shall be necessary to authorize such levy. [L. '19, p. 489, § 1; L. '15, p. 660, § 17.]

§ 9131. Percentage of Levy for Special Improvement.

When the city council of any such city does by unanimous vote so decide it may use not to exceed two mills of said levy in creating a special fund for any special improvement or purpose authorized by existing laws; such purpose to be specifically designated by resolution of said council when creating said fund and said fund shall not be used for any purpose other than authorized by said resolution except by unanimous vote of said council. [L. '19, p. 490, § 2.]

§ 9132. [7671-18.] Enacting Clause of Ordinances—Publication.

The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "The city council of the city of — do ordain as follows": Every ordinance shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the clerk, and published at least once in a newspaper published in such city, or printed and posted in at least three public places therein. [L. '15, p. 660, § 18.]

§ 9133. [7671-19.] Audit of Demands—Warrants.

All demands against such city shall be presented to and audited by the city council, in accordance with such regulations as they may by ordinance prescribe; and upon the allowance of any such demand, the clerk shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the same, which warrant shall be countersigned by the mayor, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn, and out of what fund it is to be paid. [L. '15, p. 661, § 19.]

§ 9134. [7671-20.] Violation of Ordinances—Prosecution and Punishment.

The violation of any ordinance of such city shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by the authorities of such city in the name of the people of the state of Washington, or may be redressed by civil action, at the option of said authorities. Any person sentenced to imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance may be imprisoned in the city jail, or if the city council by ordinance shall so prescribe, in the county jail of the county in which such city may be situated; in which case the expense of such imprisonment shall be a charge in favor of such county and against such city. [L. '15, p. 661, § 20.]

Cited in 99 Wash. 219.

A criminal complaint for the violation of a city ordinance, entitled in the name of the city as plaintiff, sufficiently complies with this section where the charge in the body of the complaint clearly informed the accused that he was being prosecuted for violation of the ordinance in the proper court, and the warrant issued commanded his arrest in the name of the state: Puyallup v. Crosby, 99 Wash. 218, 169 Pac. 322.

§ 9135. [7671-21.] Nuisances.

Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such city, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such city to be a nuisance, shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto. [L. '15, p. 661, § 21.]

§ 9136. [7671-22.] Condemnation of Private Property.

Whenever it shall become necessary for the city to take or damage private property for the purpose of establishing, laying out, extending and widening streets and other public highways and places within the city, or for the purpose of securing rights of way for drains, sewers and aqueducts, and for the purpose of widening, straightening or diverting the channels of streams and the improvement of waterfronts, or any other public purpose, and the city council cannot agree with the owner thereof as to the price to be paid, the city council may proceed to acquire, take or damage the same in the manner provided by sections 921-936, or by sections 9215 to 9279, both inclusive, and acts amendatory thereof. [L. '15, p. 661, § 22.]

§ 9137. [7671-23.] Power of Mayor to Administer Oaths.

The mayor and mayor pro tempore shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and take affidavits, and certify the same under their hands. The mayor or in the absence of the mayor the mayor pro tempore shall sign all conveyances made by said city, and all instruments which shall require the seal of the city, and shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take affidavits and certify the same under their hands. [L. '15, p. 662, § 23.]

§ 9138. [7671-24.] Duties of Treasurer.

The treasurer shall receive and safely keep all moneys which shall come into his hands as such treasurer, for all of which he shall give triplicate receipts, one of which shall be filed with the city clerk. He shall receive all moneys due the city and disburse the same on warrants issued by the clerk and countersigned by the mayor, and not otherwise. He shall make monthly settlements with the city clerk, and at the same time deliver to the clerk duplicate receipts issued for money received, and all canceled warrants as evidence of money paid. [L. '15, p. 662, § 24.]

§ 9139. [7671-25.] Duties of Clerk.

The city clerk shall keep a full, true record of every act and proceeding of the city council; keep such books, accounts and make such reports as may be prescribed or required by the state bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices; record all city ordinances with his certificate annexed to said copy, stating the foregoing ordinance is a true and correct copy and giving the number and title of said ordinance and stating the same has been published and posted according to law. Said record copy with said certificate, shall be prima facie evidence of the contents of said ordinance, and of the passage and publication thereof, and shall be admissible as such evidence in any court or proceeding. He may appoint a deputy for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be held responsible and he and his deputy shall have the power to take all necessary affidavits to demands against the city and certify the same without charge. He shall be custodian of the seal of said city and shall have power to acknowledge the execution of all instruments by said city which require to be acknowledged. He shall perform such other duties as this act, the state laws and the ordinances of the city shall require. [L. '15, p. 662, § 25.]

§ 9140. [7671-26.] Duties of City Attorney.

It shall be the duty of the city attorney to advise the city authorities and officers in all legal matters pertaining to the business of said city and to approve all ordinances as to form. He shall represent the city in all actions brought by or against the city or against city officials in their official capacity. He shall perform such other duties as the city council may by ordinance direct. [L. '15, p. 663, § 26.]

§ 9141. [7671-27.] Powers and Duties of Chief of Police.

The department of police of said city shall be under the direction and control of the chief of police, subject to the direction of the mayor. For the suppression of any riot, public tumult, disturbance of the peace or resistance against the laws or public authorities in the lawful exercise of their functions the chief of police shall have the powers that are now or may hereafter be conferred upon sheriffs by the laws of the state, and shall in all respects be entitled to the same protection. His lawful orders shall be promptly executed by deputies, police officers and watchmen in said city, and every citizen shall also lend him aid when required, for the arrest of offenders and maintenance of public order. He shall have power to pursue and arrest outside of the city limits, if necessary, all or any violators of the city ordinances. He shall and is hereby authorized to execute and return all process issued and directed to him by any legal authority. It shall be his duty to prosecute, before the police justice, all breaches or violations of, or noncompliance with, any city ordinance which shall come to his knowledge. He shall have charge of the city prison and prisoners, and of any chain gang which may be established by the city council. He shall for services of any process receive the same fees as constables. He may also, with the concurrence of the mayor, when the same may be by them deemed necessary for the preservation of public order, appoint additional policemen who shall discharge the duties assigned them for one day only. He shall perform such other services as this chapter and the ordinances of the city council shall require, and shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by ordinance. [L. '15, p. 663, § 27.]

§ 9142. [7671-28.] Additional Duties and Compensation.

The city council shall, by ordinance not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, prescribe additional duties of all officers and fix their compensation. [L. '15, p. 664, § 28.]

§ 9143. [7671-29.*] Police Judge—Jurisdiction—Fines—Jury Trial—Appeal.

At the time he shall make his other appointments, the mayor shall appoint a police judge who shall be the regular elected justice of the peace in all cities of the third class, having a population of five thousand or more, if there be any such justice of the peace present in the said city and not under any disability. Said police judge shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give such additional bond to the city for the faithful performance of his duties as the city council may by ordinance direct, and shall receive such salary in addition to his salary as justice of the peace as the council shall by ordinance direct. The police judge so appointed, in addition to his powers as justice of the peace, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all offenses defined by any ordinance of the city, and all other actions brought to enforce or recover any license, penalty or forfeiture declared or given by any such ordinance, and full power to forfeit bail bonds and issue execution thereon and full power to forfeit cash bail, and full power and authority to hear and determine all causes, civil or criminal, arising under such ordinance, and pronounce judgment in accordance therewith: Provided, that for the violation of a criminal ordinance no greater punishment shall be imposed than a fine of three hundred dollars ($300), or imprisonment not to exceed ninety (90) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. In the trial of actions brought for the violation of any city ordinance, no jury shall be allowed. All civil or criminal proceedings before such police judge and judgments rendered by him shall be subject to review in the superior court of the proper county by writ of review or appeal. In actions brought before such police judge to enforce or recover any license, penalty or forfeiture declared or given by any ordinance, and in all other civil actions, the manner of commencing the same, the manner of obtaining service upon the defendants, the procedure during the pendency of the action and for the enforcement of the judgment obtained, if any, and the procedure in appeal therefrom, together with the time limitations upon such appeals, shall be as provided in the case of civil actions before justices of the peace. [L. '19, p. 275, § 2; L. '15, p. 664, § 29.]

Jurisdiction: See notes to §§ 44, 46, supra.

A change of venue will not lie from the police court of a city of the third class to a justice court, when the action is to recover a penalty or fine declared by city ordinance which exceeds $100 in amount; in view of this section: State ex rel. Kiggins v. Woolson, 98 Wash. 505, 167 Pac. 1088.

The prosecution for the violation of a city ordinance is exclusively vested in the police judge of the city: State ex rel. Kiggins v. Hadley, 104 Wash. 648, 177 Pac. 655.

§ 9144. [7671-30.] Disposition of Moneys Collected.

Every officer collecting or receiving any moneys belonging to or for the use of such city shall settle for the same with the clerk, and immediately pay the same into the treasury, on the order of the clerk for the benefit of the funds to which such moneys respectively belong. [L. '15, p. 665, § 30.]

§ 9145. [7671-31.] Bids for Contracts—City Printing and Advertising.

In the erection, improvement and repair of all public buildings and works, in all streets and sewer work, and in all work in or about streams, bays or waterfronts or in or about embankments, or other works for protection against overflow and in furnishing any supplies or materials for the same, when the expenditure required for the same exceeds the sum of five hundred dollars, the same shall be done by contract and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after due notice, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance: Provided, that the city council may reject all bids presented, and readvertise, in their discretion, or if in the judgment of the council such work can be performed or supplied or materials furnished by the city independent of contract cheaper than under the lowest and best bid submitted, it may cause such work to be performed or supplies or materials to be furnished independent of contract. The city council shall annually, at a stated time, contract for doing all city printing and advertising, which contract shall be let to the lowest bidder after notice as provided in this section. All advertising shall be done in a newspaper printed and published in such city, and the contract therefor shall be awarded separately from all the other printing. [L. '15, p. 665, § 31.]

§ 9146. [7671-32.] Officers not to be Interested in Contracts.

No officer of such city shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with such city, or with any of the officers thereof, in their official capacity, or in doing any work or furnishing any supplies for the use of such city or its officers in their official capacity; and any claim for compensation for work done, or supplies or materials furnished, in which any such officer is interested, shall be void, and if audited and allowed, shall not be paid by the treasurer. Any person who is resident agent for, or local dealer in, the goods and supplies of any person, firm or corporation furnishing such goods and supplies for the use of such city, or to any officer thereof in his official capacity, or to any contractor for use in the performance of any contract with such city, shall be ineligible to hold office in said city; and any officer of such city who shall be resident agent for, or local dealer in, the goods and supplies of any person, firm or corporation, furnishing such goods and supplies for the use of such city, or to any officer thereof in his official capacity, or to any contractor for use in the performance of any contract with such city, shall be deemed to be interested as contemplated herein. Any willful violation of the provisions of this section shall be a ground for removal from office, and shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punished as such. [L. '15, p. 665, § 32.]

§ 9147. [7671-33.] Sinking Funds.

The city council shall have the power to provide by ordinance for the establishment of sinking funds and to levy taxes therefor, for the payment of indebtedness and to provide for the investment thereof in county, city or school district warrants and municipal public utilities or local improvement securities of such, or other municipal corporations subject to approval of the state bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices. [L. '15, p. 666, § 33.]

§ 9148. [7671-34.] Codifying Ordinances.

Said city shall have the power to codify its ordinances and to adopt by general title such codified ordinances as the official code of ordinances for said city. Any ordinances now in effect in cities of the third class, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby continued in effect. [L. '15, p. 666, § 34.]

§ 9149. [7671-35.] Repealing Clause.

All acts in conflict with the provisions of this act so far as they affect cities of the third class are hereby repealed; but this act shall not be construed to abrogate the power of cities of the third class to proceed, nor to limit, or modify its rights and liabilities under any general statutes now in effect, which are applicable to such cities, nor shall this act be construed in any way to affect chapter X of this Title: Provided, that sections 8061-8077, inclusive, of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington relating to firemen's pension fund, shall not be applicable to cities of the third class. . . . Section 5637 of this code [as amended by the Laws of 1913], shall have no application to cities of the third class so far as placing any limitation on the tax levy of such cities is concerned. [L. '15, p. 666, § 35.]

This section adopted. For sections expressly repealed by this section, see Laws '15, p. 666, § 35.

"Sections 8061-8077," relating to firemen's pension fund, have been repealed.

"Section 5637" has been amended since the act of 1913.

"Chapter X of this title": See §§ 9090 to 9113, relating to commission form of government.

§ 9150. [7671-36.] Partial Invalidity.

If any section, subdivision, sentence or clause of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this act. [L. '15, p. 667, § 36.]

§ 9151. [5140-1.*] Funds and Tax Levies in Third Class Cities.

Every city of the third class having an outstanding indebtedness at the time of levying its taxes for the year 1916 shall levy for said year, and each year thereafter until all outstanding indebtedness has been paid shall levy, a tax of six mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of property in such city, unless in any year a lesser levy will be sufficient to pay all outstanding indebtedness, in which event such lesser levy sufficient for such purpose shall be made. The proceeds of such tax together with all moneys received from licenses, street poll tax, fines, penalties and forfeitures and together with all taxes levied for the year 1915 or any previous year for the current expense fund, old indebtedness fund, general fund, street fund, sewer fund, library fund, park fund or other like fund and paid on or subsequent to January 1, 1916, shall be paid into a fund to be known as the "indebtedness fund": Provided, that all moneys received from licenses, street poll tax, fines, penalties and forfeitures subsequent to July 1, 1917, shall be paid into the current expense fund: And provided, that all tax levies and validated tax levies and all parts of each thereof made for the payment of the current expenses of any such city for the fiscal years 1914 and 1915 shall when collected be paid into a separate fund to be known as the 1914 and 1915 current expense fund and applied primarily to the payment of the current expenses of such city for the fiscal year for which the same were levied or validated. In computing such outstanding indebtedness all indebtedness of every character shall be included excepting indebtedness for the payment of which special provision is made by law and by said city and bonded indebtedness for the payment of which an adequate sinking fund is provided. [L. '17, p. 207, § 1; L. '15, p. 668, § 1.]

§ 9152. [5140-2.] Payment of Outstanding Indebtedness — Apportionment of Funds.

Except as otherwise provided in section 9151, all indebtedness outstanding upon January 1, 1916, shall be paid out of said indebtedness fund, all outstanding warrants to be paid out of said indebtedness fund in the order of their issuance and if issued upon the same day and the order of issuance does not appear they shall be paid in the order of their presentation: Provided, that if there be outstanding on said date a general fund indebtedness and a current expense fund indebtedness of any such city the moneys derived from the six mill levy herein provided for shall, so long as any indebtedness remains against both said funds, be apportioned between said funds and applied to the payment of the outstanding warrants against the same in proportion to the outstanding indebtedness against said funds in the order above provided. Whenever all indebtedness of such city which was outstanding upon January 1, 1916, has been paid, any surplus remaining in said indebtedness fund shall be paid into the "Current Expense Fund" of such city, and thereafter all receipts of said city which would theretofore have been paid into said indebtedness fund shall be paid into said current expense fund. [L. '15, p. 669, § 2.]

§ 9153. [5140-3.] "Current Expense Fund" Created—Tax Levy.

There shall be in each city of the third class a fund to be known as the "Current Expense Fund." Each such city shall levy for the year 1916 and for each year thereafter a tax upon the property in such city for the payment of current expenses in an amount equal to the estimate by the city council of the current expenses for the ensuing year less the amount of revenues from all other sources payable into such current expense fund, the proceeds of which tax shall be paid into such current expense fund except as otherwise provided in this act. All moneys in the general fund, old indebtedness fund, old "Current Expense Fund" if such shall have been continued, street fund, sewer fund, library fund, park fund or other like fund upon January 1, 1916, which were paid into any such fund prior to said day, shall be transferred to the current expense fund created by this act and thereafter every such general fund, old indebtedness fund, old "Current Expense Fund," street fund, sewer fund, library fund, park fund or other like fund shall be discontinued and abolished. [L. '15, p. 669, § 3.]

Cited in 108 Wash. 50.

The cost of erecting a city hall does not come within, and cannot be paid out of, a city's "current expense fund": State ex rel. Republic v. Harvey, 108 Wash. 48, 182 Pac. 931.

§ 9154. Validation of Certain Indebtedness.

That from and after the passage of this act the city council of any city of the third class in this state shall have the power, and it shall be lawful for it, by unanimous vote of all the members thereof, to ratify and validate by resolution to that effect, all claims or obligations contracted or otherwise incurred by the city council of any such city at any time between the first day of January, 1913, and the twentieth day of March, 1915, and invalid or void because contracted, allowed or otherwise incurred by the city council of any such city in violation of the provisions of section 7702 or section 7694 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, and order the same paid and direct the issuance of warrants therefor, and it shall be lawful for, and the duty of, the treasurer of any such city to pay all warrants ordered issued by the city council of any such city under the terms and provisions of this act. [L. '19, p. 32, § 1.]

An act validating past levies is constitutional: Owings v. Olympia, 88 Wash. 289, 152 Pac. 1019.

The act of 1915 validates all excess levies mentioned except in cities where no taxpayer had paid the excess tax at the time of the passage of the validating act; this construction of "attempt to collect," when cities have no power to make the collection or to cancel the tax, being necessary to avoid an obvious absurdity: Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Snohomish County, 101 Wash. 686, 172 Pac. 878.

CHAPTER XII.

THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS CITIES—CONSTRUCTION OF SIDEWALKS.

§ 9155. [7718-1.] At Expense of Abutting Property.

In all cities and towns of the third or fourth class the burden and expense of constructing sidewalks along the side of any street or other public place shall devolve upon and be borne by the property directly abutting thereon. [L. '15, p. 423, § 1.]

§ 9156. [7718-2.] Resolution for Improvement—Notice to Owner to Construct.

Whenever in the judgment of the officer or department having the care and superintendence of streets and public places in any such city or town, the public convenience or safety requires that a sidewalk be constructed along either side of any street or other public place in such city or town, said officer or department shall immediately report the fact to the city council, city commission or other legislative body of such city or town, and if such legislative body shall deem the construction of such sidewalk necessary or convenient for the public it shall by resolution order such sidewalk constructed and shall cause a notice in writing to be served upon the owner of each lot, block or parcel of land immediately abutting upon that portion and side of such street or public place where said sidewalk is to be constructed requiring him to construct such sidewalk in accordance with such resolution. [L. '15, p. 423, § 2.]

§ 9157. [7718-3.] Specifications in Resolution and Notice.

The resolution and notice provided for in the preceding section shall describe each lot, block or parcel of land immediately abutting upon that portion of the street or other public place where said sidewalk is ordered to be constructed and shall specify the kind of sidewalk required, the size and dimensions of the same, the method and the material to be used in construction and shall contain an estimate of the cost thereof, and the notice shall state that unless the sidewalk is constructed in compliance with the notice and within a reasonable time therein specified said sidewalk will be constructed by the city or town and the cost and expense thereof assessed against the property abutting thereon and described in such notice. [L. '15, p. 423, § 3.]

§ 9158. [7718-4.] Notice—Time Allowed.

The notice provided for in the preceding section shall be deemed served if delivered to the owner or reputed owner of each lot, tract or parcel of land affected, or to the authorized agent of such owner, or if a copy thereof be left at the usual place of abode of such owner in such city or town with a person of suitable age and discretion residing therein, or in case such owner is a nonresident of such city or town and his place of residence is known a copy of such notice shall be mailed to such owner addressed to his last known place of residence, or in case the place of residence of such owner is unknown or if the owner of any lot, block or parcel of land affected is unknown then such notice shall be served by publication in two weekly issues of the official newspaper of such city or town or if there be no official newspaper then in any weekly newspaper published in said city or town. Such notice shall specify a reasonable time within which said sidewalk shall be constructed which in the case of publication of the notice shall be not less than sixty days from the date of the first publication of such notice. [L. '15, p. 424, § 4.]

§ 9159. [7718-5.] Construction by City—Assessment Against Property—Hearing.

In case the notice provided for in the preceding section shall not be complied with within the time therein specified the officer or department having charge of the care and superintendence of streets and public places in any such city or town, shall proceed to construct said sidewalk forthwith and shall report to the city council, city commission or other legislative body of such city or town at its next regular meeting or as soon thereafter as is practicable an assessment-roll showing each lot, block or parcel of land immediately abutting upon said sidewalk, the name of the owner thereof if known, and apportion the cost of said improvement to be assessed against each such lot, block or parcel of land and such legislative body shall thereupon set a date for hearing any protests against said proposed assessment-roll and shall cause a notice of the time and place of said hearing to be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of said city or town or if there be no official newspaper then in any weekly newspaper published in such city or town, the date of said hearing to be not less than thirty days from the date of the first publication of said notice. [L. '15, p. 424, § 5.]

§ 9160. [7718-6.] Lien and Collection of Assessments.

The city council, city commission or other legislative body shall at the time of said hearing or at any adjournment thereof by ordinance assess the cost of constructing said sidewalk against the property immediately abutting thereon in accordance with the benefits thereto and such assessment shall become a lien upon the respective lots, blocks or parcels of land and shall be collected in the manner provided by law for the collection of local improvement assessments and shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of the approval of said assessment thereon. [L. '15, p. 425, § 6.]

§ 9161. [7718-7.] "Abutting Property" Defined—"Sidewalk" Defined.

For the purposes of this act all property having a frontage on the side or margin of any street or other public place shall be deemed abutting property, and such property shall be chargeable, as provided in this act, with all costs of construction of any form of sidewalk improvement, between the margin of said street or other public place and the roadway lying in front and adjacent to said property, and the term sidewalk as used in this act shall be construed to mean and include any and all structures or forms of improvement included in the space between the street margin and the roadway known as the sidewalk area. [L. '15, p. 425, § 7.]

§ 9162. [7718-8.] Act Cumulative With Existing Laws.

This act shall not be construed as repealing or amending any law or act relating to the improvement of streets or public places by special assessments commonly known as local improvement laws, but shall be considered as additional legislation and auxiliary thereto and the city council, city commission or other legislative body of any city or town of the third or fourth class before exercising the authority herein granted may by ordinance provide for the application and enforcement of the provisions of this act within the limitations herein specified. [L. '15, p. 425, § 8.]

CHAPTER XIII.

FOURTH CLASS CITIES OR TOWNS.

§ 9163. [7719.] Rights, Powers and Privileges of Towns.

Every municipal corporation of the fourth class shall be entitled the town of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the town authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit. [L. '90, p. 198, § 142; 1 H. C., § 661.]

See supra, § 5635 et seq., taxation and disposition of funds in.

§ 9164. [7720.] Officers Enumerated.

The government of such town shall be vested in a mayor and council, to consist of five members, a clerk, a treasurer, a marshal who shall be ex officio tax and license collector, a police justice who may be one of the justices of the peace of the precinct in which said town is situated; and such subordinate officers as are hereinafter provided for. § 9165. [7721.] Election and Appointment of Officers—Terms.

The mayor, members of the council and treasurer shall be elected by the qualified electors of said town at the general municipal election to be held therein on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in December in each year. The treasurer shall hold office for the period of one year from and after the second Tuesday in January next succeeding the date of such election and until his successor is elected and qualified. The mayor and members of the council shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the second Tuesday in January next succeeding the day of such election and until their successors are elected and qualified: Provided, that the first council elected under the provisions of this act shall at their first meeting so classify themselves by lot as that three of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of one year and two at the expiration of two years. The mayor shall appoint a marshal, police justice and clerk. The city council may provide by ordinance for the appointment by the mayor of an attorney, poundmaster, superintendent of streets, a civil engineer and such police and other subordinate officers as in the judgment of the city council may be deemed necessary and may by ordinance fix their compensation. No appointment of any officer provided for herein shall be subject to confirmation by the city council. All officers appointed by the mayor as provided for in this act shall hold office during his pleasure. [L. '11, p. 111, § 1. Cf. L. '90, p. 198, § 144; 1 H. C., § 663; L. '03, p. 202, § 5.]

"This act": See note to § 8883.

The council have the right, at their pleasure, to remove the marshal without notice or hearing: State ex rel. Tremblay v. McQuade, 12 Wash. 554, 41 Pac. 897.

An ordinance requiring the mayor to "immediately" sign all ordinances is void as an attempted amendment of this section: State ex rel. Bothel v. Woody, 90 Wash. 501, 156 Pac. 534.

§ 9166. [7722.] Bonds, Filing of, etc.—Oath of Office.

The clerk, treasurer, and marshal shall respectively, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, execute a bond to such town in such penal sum as the council by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made by this chapter ex officio incumbent; such bonds shall be approved by the council. All bonds, when approved, shall be filed with the clerk, except the bonds of the clerk, which shall be filed with the mayor. All the provisions of any law of this state relating to the official bonds of officers shall apply to such bonds, except as herein otherwise provided. Every officer of such town, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and file with the clerk the constitutional oath of office. [L. '90, p. 199, § 145; 1 H. C., § 664.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 150; 28 Wash. 686; 91 Wash. 409, 410, 412.

The requirement that a city officer take the oath is directory, and failure to do so does not work a forfeiture of the office: Maxwell v. Smith, 87 Wash. 629, 152 Pac. 530.

This section merely requires execution of a bond before entering upon duties of the office, not that the same be approved by the council before entering upon the duties: Bartholomew v. Springdale, 91 Wash. 408, 157 Pac. 1090, Ann. Cas. 1918B, 432.

§ 9167. [7723.] Vacancies, How Filled.

Any vacancy occurring in any of the offices provided for in this chapter shall be filled by appointment by the mayor; but if such office be elective, such appointee shall hold office only until the next regular election, at which time a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of said unexpired term. In case a member of the council is absent from the town for three consecutive meetings, unless by permission of the council, his office shall by the council be declared vacant, and all vacancies in the council shall be filled by a majority vote of said council. [L. '90, p. 199, § 146; 1 H. C., § 665; L. '03, p. 202, § 6.]

See infra, § 9203, vacancy in office of mayor.

Cited in 10 Wash. 8.

Under this section, absence of a councilman for three consecutive meetings of the town council is the only ground for his removal from office as the express mention thereof excludes other grounds: State ex rel. Winsor v. Mayor & Council, 10 Wash. 4, 38 Pac. 761.

§ 9168. [7724.] Compensation.

The mayor and members of the council shall receive no compensation whatever. The clerk, treasurer, marshal, and police justice shall severally receive, at stated times, a compensation, to be fixed by ordinance by the council, which compensation shall not be increased or diminished after their election or during their several terms of office. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the council from fixing such several amounts of compensation in the first instance, during the term of office of any such officer, or after his election. The compensation of all other officers shall be fixed from time to time by the council. [L. '90, p. 200, § 147; 1 H. C., § 666.]

Salaries of justices of the peace: See supra, §§ 7571, 7572.

§ 9169. [7725.] Elections—Qualifications of Voter.

All elections in such town shall be held in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as the same may be applicable; and no person shall be entitled to vote at such election, unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county, and shall have resided in such town for at least thirty days next preceding such election. The council shall give such notice of each election as may be prescribed by ordinance, shall appoint boards of election, and fix their compensation, and establish election precincts and polling places, and may change the same. [L. '90, p. 200, § 148; 1 H. C., § 667.]

Cited in 9 Wash. 311; 28 Wash. 672.

§ 9170. [7726.] Eligibility to Office.

No person shall be eligible to or hold office in such town, whether filled by election or appointment, unless he be a resident and elector therein. [L. '90, p. 200, § 149; 1 H. C., § 668.]

§ 9171. [7727.] General and Special Meetings.

The council shall meet on the second Tuesday in January succeeding the date of said general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, and shall hold regular meetings at least once in each month, at such times as they shall fix by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor or by three councilmen, by written notice delivered to each member, at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. All meetings of the council shall be held within the corporate limits of the town, at such places as may be designated by ordinance, and shall be public. [L. '90, p. 200, § 150; 1 H. C., § 669.]

§ 9172. [7728.] Quorum, etc.

At any meeting of the council a majority of the councilmen shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council, and in case of his absence the council may appoint a president pro tempore; and in case of the absence of the clerk, the mayor or president pro tempore shall appoint one of the members of the council clerk pro tempore. [L. '90, p. 201, § 151; 1 H. C., § 670.]

§ 9173. [7729.] Election Returns—Rules—Ayes and Noes.

The council shall judge of the qualifications of its members and of all election returns, and determine contested elections of all town officers. They may establish rules for the conduct of their proceedings, and punish any member or other person for disorderly behavior at any meeting. They shall cause the clerk to keep a correct journal of all their proceedings, and at the desire of any member shall cause the ayes and noes to be taken on any question and entered on the journal. [L. '90, p. 201, § 152; 1 H. C., § 671.]

Cited in 44 Wash. 544.

A common council, sitting as a board for the canvassing of election returns of members elected to their body, is bound by the face of the returns, and cannot go behind them and inspect the ballots in order to determine the result: State ex rel. King v. Trimbell, 12 Wash. 440, 41 Pac. 183.

The fact that a certificate of election has been issued to other than the persons entitled thereto will not relieve the canvassing board from the duty of making a proper canvass and issuing the necessary certificates, and mandamus will lie to enforce this duty: Id.

The power to judge of the election and qualification of members of the common council is confined to the new council to which they are elected, and the old council has no other power than to issue certificates upon the face of the returns: Id.

§ 9174. [7730.] Limitations on Enacting Ordinances.

No ordinance and no resolution granting any franchise for any purpose shall be passed by the council on the day of its introduction, nor within five days thereafter, nor at any other than a regular meeting. No resolution or order for the payment of money shall be passed at any other time than at a regular meeting; and no such ordinance, resolution, or order shall have any validity or effect unless passed by the votes of at least three councilmen. [L. '90, p. 201, § 153; 1 H. C., § 672.]

Cited in 53 Wash. 652; 64 Wash. 602.

Under this section an amendment of a franchise ordinance on the day of its passage by the substitution of the name of a railroad company, its successors and assigns, as grantee, in place of a mill company, its successors and assigns, is not such a change in the subject matter of the ordinance as to render it a new or different ordinance, the purpose of the franchise being to permit the hauling of cars from the mill to the railroad, and being for the joint benefit of both companies: State ex rel. Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Hughes, 53 Wash. 651, 102 Pac. 758.

§ 9175. [7731.] General Powers.

The council of said town shall have power—

1. To pass ordinances not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of this state, or of the United States;

2. To purchase, lease or receive such real estate and personal property as may be necessary or proper for municipal purposes, and to control, dispose of and convey the same for the benefit of the town; Provided, that they shall not have power to sell or convey any portion of any waterfront;

3. To contract for supplying the town with water for municipal purposes, or to acquire, construct, repair and manage pumps, aqueducts, reservoirs, or other works necessary or proper for supplying water for the use of such town or its inhabitants, or for irrigating purposes therein;

4. To establish, build and repair bridges; to establish, lay out, alter, widen, extend, keep open, improve, and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares and other public highways and places within the town, and to drain, sprinkle and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, plank, macadamize, gravel and curb the same, in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks and crosswalks therein, or on any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out and cultivated trees therein, and generally to manage and control all such highways and places;

5. To establish, construct and maintain drains and sewers, and shall have power to compel all property owners on streets along which sewers shall have been constructed to make proper connections therewith, and to use the same for proper purposes when such property is improved by the erection thereon, of a building or buildings; and in case the owners of such improved property on such streets shall fail to make such connections within the time fixed by such council, they may cause such connections to be made, and to assess against the property in front of which such connections are made the costs and expenses thereof;

6. To provide fire engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires;

7. To impose on, and collect from, every male inhabitant between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, an annual street poll tax not to exceed four dollars, and no other road poll tax shall be collected within the limits of such town, and that said poll tax may be paid in labor on said streets at the rate of two dollars per day;

"Four dollars," repealed: See infra, foot of this section.

8. To impose and collect an annual license not exceeding two dollars on every dog allowed to run at large within the limits of the town, and to provide for the killing of all dogs found at large and not duly licensed;

9. To levy and collect annually a property tax. The levy for all purposes, for any one year, shall not exceed one dollar on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such town;

10. To license, for purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business, including the sale of intoxicating liquors, authorized by law and transacted and carried on in such town; and all shows, exhibitions and lawful games carried on therein and within one mile of the corporate limits thereof; to fix the rate of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same, by suit or otherwise; to regulate, restrain, or prohibit the running at large of any or all domestic animals within the city limits, or any part or parts thereof, and to regulate the keeping of such animals within any part of the city; to establish, maintain and regulate a common pound for estrays, and to appoint a poundkeeper, who shall be paid out of the fines and fees imposed on, and collected from, the owners of any impounded stock;

11. To improve the rivers and streams flowing through such town or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten, and deepen the channels thereof, and to remove obstructions therefrom; to prevent the pollution of streams of water running through such town, and for this purpose shall have jurisdiction for two miles in either direction; to improve the waterfront of the town, and to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such town from overflow;

12. To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes;

13. To permit, under such restrictions as they may deem proper, the laying of railroad track and the running of cars drawn by horses, steam, electricity or other power thereon; and the laying of gas and water pipes in the public streets; and to construct and maintain, and to permit the construction and maintenance of telegraph, telephone and electric light lines therein;

14. To punish the keepers and inmates and lessors of houses of ill fame, and keepers and lessors of gambling houses and rooms and other places where gambling is carried on or permitted, gamblers and keepers of gambling tables;

15. To impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances, and for any breach or violation of any ordinance, to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both; but no such fine shall exceed three hundred dollars, nor the term of imprisonment exceed three months;

16. To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets or other public property or works within the town;

17. To make all such ordinances, by-laws, rules, regulations and resolutions not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, as may be deemed expedient to maintain the peace, good government and welfare of the town and its trade, commerce and manufactures, and to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter. [L. '90, p. 201, § 154; 1 H. C., § 673; L. '95, p. 50, § 1.]

See infra, § 9214, power of eminent domain.

See infra, § 11328 et seq., assessment and collection of taxes in towns.

Subdivision 7, authorizing a poll tax of four dollars, is repealed by § 9210, infra, limiting the poll tax to two dollars.

Cited in 5 Wash. 307; 21 Wash. 553; 23 Wash. 778; 28 Wash. 725; 37 Wash. 512; 44 Wash. 479; 49 Wash. 270; 55 Wash. 200, 201; 64 Wash. 597; 70 Wash. 389; 71 Wash. 164; 75 Wash. 210; 83 Wash. 328; 90 Wash. 502.

Prior to the amendment of this section no specific provision existed for impounding animals in cities of the fourth class: See Wilson v. Beyers, 5 Wash. 303, 32 Pac. 90, 34 Am. St. Rep. 858.

The power to impound stock running at large by a city under an ordinance conforming to the legislative grant of such power, is a valid exercise of police power and not violative of any constitutional provision: Id.

Under this section, giving towns the power to establish and lay out alleys, the granting of a petition therefor, in the form of an order adopted by the city council with all the formalities required for the passage of an ordinance or resolution, is sufficient to authorize the institution of condemnation proceedings, as the order was in effect a resolution and the same need not be by ordinance: State ex rel. Jones v. Superior Court, 44 Wash. 476, 87 Pac. 521.

A town council has no authority to compromise and satisfy a valuable judgment in favor of the town by accepting from the judgment debtors a small sum, and will be enjoined from so doing at the suit of a taxpayer: Farnsworth v. Wilbur, 49 Wash. 416, 95 Pac. 642, 19 L. R. A. (N. S.) 320.

Under this section, a municipal corporation of the fourth class may prohibit the running at large of domestic animals, and an ordinance providing for the summary sale of impounded animals, under reasonable notice, without a judicial inquiry, is effective to transfer the title and does not authorize the taking of property without due process of law: Shook v. Sexton, 37 Wash. 509, 79 Pac. 1093.

A provision in such an ordinance imposing a fine against an owner for permitting animals to run at large to be exacted without a judicial investigation is unconstitutional: Shook v. Sexton, 37 Wash. 509, 79 Pac. 1093.

This section, subdivision 13, authorizes a town to grant a franchise to lay railway tracks lengthwise in a street: State ex rel. Sylvester v. Superior Court, 64 Wash. 594, 117 Pac. 487.

A town upon its incorporation does not acquire any such vested right to the control of its streets in virtue of its authority over streets, granted by this section, as would prevent the legislature from legalizing prior franchises: Spring Water Co. v. Monroe, 55 Wash. 195, 104 Pac. 202.

A town council has power, under the general welfare clause, as well as under this section, subdivision 5, to issue warrants for the digging of a ditch to carry off surface water, although the ditch was partly outside the town limits: Town of Woolley, In re, 75 Wash. 206, 134 Pac. 825.

The general power to lay out and maintain highways and to improve rivers adjoining a town is confined to the city limits, and does not confer authority to maintain a ferry outside the limits on a highway leading to town; nor is the operation of a ferry for commercial purposes a governmental or municipal function: Town of Woolley, In re, 75 Wash. 206, 134 Pac. 825.

§ 9176. [7732.] To Establish Fire Limits and Acquire Parks.

Cities of the fourth class are hereby given the power to establish fire limits with proper regulations; to acquire by purchase or otherwise, lands for public parks within or without the limits of such city, and to improve the same; Provided, however, that no sum shall be appropriated for that purpose until the same is authorized by a vote of two-thirds of the qualified voters residing in such city, at the annual municipal election, or at a special election held for that purpose, which election shall be held as other special elections. [L. '99, p. 168, § 1.]

§ 9177. [7733.] To Designate an Official Newspaper.

Any town of the fourth class in the state of Washington may select or designate any daily or weekly newspaper published or of general circulation in such town as the official paper of said town, and all notices published in said paper for the period and in the manner provided by law or the ordinances of said town shall be due and legal notice. [L. '03, p. 227, § 1.]

§ 9178. [7734.*] Ordinances, Enacting Clause, Form, etc.

The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "Be it ordained by the council of the town of —." Every ordinance shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the clerk, and published at least once in a newspaper published in such town, or in case no newspaper is published in such town, be printed and posted in at least three public places therein. [L. '17, p. 342, § 1; L. '90, p. 204, § 155; 1 H. C., § 674.]

See supra, § 1260½, ordinances as evidence.

Cited in 14 Wash. 240; 36 Wash. 609; 53 Wash. 652.

The charter of cities of the fourth class gives the mayor no veto or discretionary power, with reference to signing ordinances, and under this section mandamus lies to compel the mayor to sign an ordinance duly passed by the council, since his duties depend entirely upon the charter provisions: State ex rel. Prosser Falls Land & Irr. Co. v. Taylor, 36 Wash. 607, 79 Pac. 286.

§ 9179. [7735.] Demands, How Audited.

All demands against such town shall be presented to and audited by the council in accordance with such regulations as they may by ordinance prescribe, and upon the allowance of any such demand the mayor shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the same, which warrant shall be countersigned by the clerk, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn. [L. '90, p. 204, § 156; 1 H. C., § 675.]

See supra, § 4116, and notes, order of payment of town warrants.

See infra, § 9481, accident claims against.

Cited in 9 Wash. 145; 12 Wash. 165.

In the absence of statutory provisions directing the order of payment of city warrants, it is the duty of the treasurer to pay warrants drawn on any particular fund in the order either of their date or of the time of their presentation to him for payment: La France Fire Engine Co. v. Davis, 9 Wash. 600, 38 Pac. 154, compare Abernethy v. Medical Lake, 9 Wash. 112, 37 Pac. 306.

The fact that under a verbal agreement between a town and an individual the latter has advanced funds for the payment of the current expenses and public improvement of the town, for which its warrants have been issued to him and an ordinance passed by the town council directing the application of funds derived from taxation to the payment of such warrants, is sufficient to show a presentment and allowance of the claims, as required under this section: Cloud v. Lawrence, 12 Wash. 163, 40 Pac. 741.

An action cannot be maintained upon a warrant issued by a municipal corporation evidencing its indebtedness to the holder, but the remedy of the holder, in case of the refusal of the treasurer of the corporation to pay the warrant in its order, is to proceed by mandamus, and, in such proceeding, questions affecting the legality of the warrant can be tried: Cloud v. Sumas, 9 Wash. 399, 37 Pac. 305.

A judgment against a city is payable only through the medium of the warrant on the city treasury; but if the council refuse to allow the claim when presented, there is no way to compel issuance of warrant except after judgment obtained: La France Fire Engine Co. v. Mt. Vernon, 9 Wash. 142, 37 Pac. 287, 38 Pac. 80, 43 Am. St. Rep. 827.

§ 9180. [7735 $\frac{1}{2}$.] Violation of Ordinances, Prosecution and Punishment for.

The violation of any ordinance of such town shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by the authorities of such town in the name of the people of the state of Washington, or may be redressed by civil action, at the option of said authorities. Any person sentenced to imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance may be imprisoned in the jail for such town; or if the council by ordinance shall so prescribe, in the county jail of the county in which such town may be situated, in which case the expense of such imprisonment shall be a charge in favor of such county and against such town: Provided, before such persons can be imprisoned in the county jail the consent of the county commissioners shall be first obtained. [L. '90, p. 205, § 159; 1 H. C., § 676.]

Cited in 14 Wash. 240; 60 Wash. 240.

§ 9181. [7736.] Nuisances.

Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such town, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such town to be a nuisance, shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto. [L. '90, p. 205, § 160; 1 H. C., § 677.]

§ 9182. [7738.] Condemnation Authorized, When.

Whenever it shall become necessary for a town to take or damage private property for the purpose of establishing, laying out, extending, and widening streets and other public highways and places within the town, or for the purpose of rights of way for drains, sewers, and aqueducts, and for the purpose of widening, straightening, or diverting the channels of streams and the improvement of waterfronts, and the council cannot agree with the owner thereof as to the price to be paid, the council may direct proceedings to be taken under the general laws of the state to procure the same. [L. '90, p. 207, § 162; 1 H. C., § 679.]

See, also, § 9214, infra, and notes.

Cited in 44 Wash. 479.

Upon a condemnation proceeding by a town to open an alley through a block, it is not a condition precedent that the town should attempt to agree with the owners as to the price to be paid for the land taken: State ex rel. Jones v. Superior Court, 44 Wash. 476, 87 Pac. 521.

In such a case, evidence to show want of necessity to the effect that the city had used a portion of adjacent land for an alley is properly excluded; since an absolute necessity need not be shown: Id.

§ 9183. [7739.] Taxes, Levy of, etc.

The council shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to provide by ordinance a system for the assessment, levy, and collection of all town taxes, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, which system shall conform, as nearly as the circumstances of the case may permit, to the provisions of the laws of this state governing cities of the second class in reference to the assessment, levy, and collection of municipal taxes, except as to the officers by whom such duties are to be performed. All taxes assessed, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute liens on the property assessed from and after the first day of November in each year, which liens may be enforced by a summary sale of such property, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinances or by action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such liens: Provided, that for the year 1890 there shall, within sixty days after the completion of incorporation proceedings under this act, be assessed and levied upon the taxable property of such town such an amount, not exceeding the limit allowed by law, as may be necessary to meet the current expenses of said town for the fraction of the year ensuing, to the date of the regular assessment and levy of taxes next following as may be provided by law or ordinance, and the lien of such taxes shall attach upon the day when the proceedings for the incorporation of such town are completed, and the same may be enforced as in other cases in this act provided: Provided, that any property sold for such taxes shall be subject to redemption within the time and in the manner provided, or that may hereafter be provided by law for the redemption of property sold for state or county taxes. All deeds made upon any sale of property for taxes or special assessments, under the provisions of this chapter, shall have the same force and effect in evidence as is or may hereafter be provided by law for deeds for property sold for nonpayment of state or county taxes. [L. '90, p. 207, § 163; 1 H. C., § 680.]

This "chapter" and "act": See note to § 8883.

This section is superseded by § 11328 et seq., infra, in so far as assessment and collection of taxes in cities of the fourth class are concerned.

See supra, § 5635, tax levies and funds.

§ 9184. [7740.] Taxes for Bonded or Other Indebtedness.

Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to prevent any town having a bonded or other indebtedness, contracted under laws heretofore passed, from levying and collecting such taxes for the payment of such indebtedness and the interest thereon, as are provided for in such laws, in addition to the taxes and limit herein authorized to be levied and collected: Provided, that if such indebtedness shall exceed the limit in this chapter prescribed, it shall not require a vote of the people to authorize the payment of such indebtedness by the town council: And provided further, that any ordinance duly passed by the town council of any town prior to the passage of this act authorizing the payment of said indebtedness, shall be and the same is hereby declared valid (and legal and binding): Provided further, all moneys received from licenses, street poll tax, and for fines, penalties, and forfeitures, shall be paid into the general fund. [L. '90, p. 208, § 165; L. '91, p. 279, § 1; 1 H. C., § 682.]

"This chapter" and "this act": See note to § 8883.

§ 9185. [7741.] Public Work to be Done by Contract—Notice, etc.

In the erection, improvement and repair of all public buildings and works, in all street and sewer work, and in all work in or about streams, bays or waterfronts, or in or about embankments, or other works for protection against overflow, and in furnishing any supplies or materials for the same, when the expenditure required for the same exceeds the sum of one hundred dollars the same shall be done by contract and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after due notice, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance: Provided, that the council may reject all bids presented and readvertise in their discretion or if in the judgment of the council such work can be performed or supplies or materials furnished by the city independent of contract cheaper than under the lowest bid submitted, it may cause such work to be performed or supplies or materials to be furnished independent of contract. [L. '90, p. 209, § 166; 1 H. C., § 683; L. '03, p. 35, § 1.]

Under this section, a contract for the purchase of a system and pipe-lines contracted by the state without submitting it to a vote, is ultra vires and void: State v. Pullman, 23 Wash. 583, 63 Pac. 265, 83 Am. St. Rep. 836.

§ 9186. [7742.] Powers and Duties of Mayor.

The mayor shall preside over all meetings of the council at which he is present. In his absence, a mayor pro tempore may be chosen. The mayor, and in his absence the mayor pro tempore, shall sign all warrants drawn on the treasurer, and shall sign all written contracts entered into by said town as such mayor or mayor pro tempore. The authority and power of the mayor pro tempore shall continue only during the day on which he is chosen. The mayor and mayor pro tempore shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and take affidavits, and testify [certify] the same under their hands. The mayor or mayor pro tempore shall sign all conveyances made by said town, and all instruments which shall require the seal of the town. The mayor is authorized to acknowledge the execution of all instruments executed by said town that require to be acknowledged. [L. '90, p. 209, § 167; 1 H. C., § 684.]

An ordinance requiring the mayor to "immediately" sign all ordinances is void as an attempted amendment of this section: State ex rel. Bothel v. Woody, 90 Wash. 501, 156 Pac. 534.

§ 9187. [7743.*] Duties of Treasurer.

It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive and safely keep all moneys which shall come into his hands as treasurer, for all of which he shall give duplicate receipts, one of which shall be filed with the clerk. He shall pay out said money on warrants signed by the mayor and countersigned by the clerk, and not otherwise. He shall make monthly settlements with the clerk, and shall receive such compensation as the council by ordinance shall determine. [L. '21, p. 91, § 1; L. '90, p. 209, § 168; 1 H. C., § 685.]

See supra, § 5571, city depositaries, duty of treasurer.

§ 9188. [7744.] Duties of Clerk.

It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a full, true record of all the proceedings of the council and of the board of equalization. The proceedings of the council shall be kept in a book marked "Records of the Council." He shall keep a book which shall be marked "Town Accounts," in which shall be entered as a credit all moneys received by the town for licenses, the amount of any tax when levied, and all other moneys when received, and in which shall be entered upon the debtor side all commissions deducted and all warrants drawn on the treasury. He shall also keep a book marked "Marshal's Account," in which he shall charge the marshal with all the tax lists delivered to him, and all licenses delivered to him. He shall credit the marshal with the delinquent list returned by him and with his commission for collecting. He shall also keep a book marked "Treasurer's Account," in which he shall keep a full account of the transactions of the town with the treasurer. He shall also keep a book marked "Licenses," in which he shall enter all licenses issued by him, the date thereof, to whom issued, for what, the time when they expire, and the amount paid. He shall keep a book marked "Ordinances," into which he shall copy all town ordinances, with his certificate annexed to said copy, stating that the foregoing ordinance is a true and correct copy of an ordinance of the town, and giving the number of the title of said ordinance, and stating that the same has been published or posted according to law. Said record copy, with said certificate, shall be prima facie evidence of the contents of the ordinance, and of the passage and publication of the same, and shall be admissible as such evidence in any court or proceeding. Such records shall not be filed in any case, but shall be returned to the custody of the clerk. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the proof of the passage and publication of ordinances in the usual way. Each of the foregoing books, except the records of the council and the board of equalization, shall have a general index, sufficiently comprehensive to enable a person readily to ascertain matters contained therein. The clerk shall also keep a book marked "Demands and Warrants," in which he shall note every demand against the town, and file the same. He shall state therein, under the note of the demands, the final disposition made of the same, and if the same is allowed, and the warrant drawn, he shall also state the number of the warrant, with sufficient dates. This book shall contain an index, in which reference shall be made to each demand. Upon the completion of the assessment-roll of any of the taxes of the town and the levying of the tax thereon, the clerk shall apportion the taxes upon such assessment-roll and make out and deliver to the marshal a tax list, in the usual form, taking his receipt therefor. He may appoint a deputy, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible; and he and his deputy shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations, to take affidavits and depositions, to be used in any court or proceeding in this state, and to certify the same. He and his deputy shall take all necessary affidavits to demands against the town, and certify the same without charge. He shall be the custodian of the seal of the town. He shall make a quarterly statement in writing, showing the receipts and expenditures of the town for the preceding quarter, and the amount remaining in the treasury. He shall, at the end of every fiscal year, make a full and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year, and a full statement of the financial condition of the affairs of the town, which shall be published. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the council shall require. [L. '90, p. 210, § 170; 1 H. C., § 687.]

Portions of this section omitted on authority of § 11328 et seq., infra.

"This act": See note, § 8883.

§ 9189. [7745.] Duties of Attorney—Compensation.

It shall be the duty of the attorney to advise the town authorities and officers in all legal matters pertaining to the business of said town. [L. '90, p. 212, § 171; 1 H. C., § 688.]

Portions of this section omitted on authority of § 11328 et seq., infra.

§ 9190. [7746.] Marshal, Powers and Duties of.

The department of police of said town shall be under the direction and control of the marshal, subject to the direction of the council and for the suppression of any riot, public tumult, disturbance of the peace, or resistance against the laws or public authorities, in the lawful exercise of their functions, he shall have the powers that are now and may hereafter be conferred upon sheriffs by the laws of the state, and shall in all respects be entitled to the same protection; and his lawful orders shall be promptly executed by deputies, police officers, and watchmen in said town, and every citizen shall also lend him aid when required for the arrest of offenders and maintenance of public order. He shall and is hereby authorized to execute and return all process issued and directed to him by any legal authority. It shall be his duty to prosecute before the police justice all breaches or violations of, or noncompliance with, any ordinance which shall come to his knowledge. . . . He shall receive from the clerk all licenses, and collect the same. He shall have charge of the prison and prisoners, and of any chain-gang which may be established by the council. He shall, for service of any process, receive the same fees as constables. He may appoint, subject to the approval of the council, one or more deputies, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible, whose compensation shall be fixed by the council. He may also with the concurrence of the mayor, when the same be by them deemed necessary for the preservation of public order, appoint additional policemen, who shall discharge the duties assigned them for one day only. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the council shall require, and shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by ordinance. [L. '90, p. 213, § 172; 1 H. C., § 689.]

Portions of this section omitted on authority of § 11328 et seq., infra.

"This act": See note to § 8883.

§ 9191. [7747.] Additional Duties—Compensation.

The council shall, by ordinances not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, prescribe the additional duties of all officers and their compensation. [L. '90, p, 214, § 173; 1 H. C., § 690.]

§ 9192. [7748.*] Police Justice—Jurisdiction—Appeal.

There shall be appointed by the mayor a police justice from the justices of the peace duly elected or appointed under the laws of the state of Washington for said town, which appointment shall become effective when confirmed by the council. Such police justice so appointed, in addition to his powers as a justice of the peace, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all offenses defined by any ordinance of the town, and all other actions brought to enforce or recover any license, penalty or forfeiture declared or given by any such ordinance, and full power to forfeit bail bonds and issue execution thereon and full power to forfeit cash bail, and full power to hear and determine all causes, civil or criminal, arising under such ordinance, and pronounce judgment in accordance therewith: Provided, that for the violation of a criminal ordinance no greater punishment shall be imposed than a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days or by both such fine and imprisonment. In the trial of actions brought for the violation of any town ordinance no jury shall be allowed, and no change of venue shall be allowed from such police judge in actions brought for violation of town ordinances. All criminal and civil proceedings before such police justice and judgment rendered by him shall be subject to review in the superior court of the proper county by writ of review or appeal. In actions brought before such police justice to enforce or recover any license, penalty or forfeiture declared or given by any ordinance and in all other civil actions the manner of commencing the same, the manner of obtaining service upon the defendant, the procedure during the pendency of the action and for the enforcement of the judgment obtained, if any, and the procedure in appeal therefrom, together with the time limitation upon such appeal shall be as provided in the case of civil actions before justices of the peace. All officers so appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council are subject to removal by the town council at any time for cause deemed sufficient. Said police justice shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give such additional bond to the city for the faithful performance of his duties as the city council may by ordinance direct, and shall receive such salary in addition to his salary as justice of the peace as the council may by ordinance direct. [L. '21, p. 205, § 1; L. '90, p. 214, § 174; 1 H. C., § 691.]

Jurisdiction: See notes to §§ 44, 46, 9143.

§ 9193. [7749.] Disposition of Moneys Collected.

Every officer collecting or receiving any moneys belonging to or for the use of such town shall settle for the same with the clerk on the first Monday in each month, and immediately pay the same into the treasury on the order of the clerk, for the benefit of the funds to which such moneys respectively belong. [L. '90, p. 214, § 175; 1 H. C., § 692.]

§ 9194. [7750.] Officers not to be Interested in Contracts—Penalty.

No officer of such town shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with such town, or with any of the officers thereof, in their official capacity, nor in doing any work nor furnishing any supplies for the use of such town, or its officers in their official capacity; and any claim for compensation for work done or supplies or materials furnished in which any such officer is interested shall be void, and if audited and allowed, shall not be paid by the treasurer. Any willful violation of the provisions of this section shall be a ground for removal from office, and shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punished as such. [L. '90, p. 215, § 176; 1 H. C., § 693.]

Cited in 76 Wash. 208, 211.

A contract for a public improvement is not invalidated by the interest of city officials, under this section, where they had no interest in the contract when it was let, and it merely appears that, after changes in the specifications, the contractor purchased material from corporations in which they were interested, and paid for the same in the usual course of business, without any agreement to pay from the proceeds of the contract: O'Neill v. Town of Auburn, 76 Wash. 207, 135 Pac. 1000, 50 L. R. A. (N. S.) 1140.

§ 9195. [7751.] Defining Boundaries—Proceedings—Petition.

Whenever a petition shall be presented to the council of any incorporated town or city of the fourth class in this state, signed by not less than five electors of such town or city, setting forth that in the belief of said petitioners, the boundaries of said town or city of the fourth class are indefinite and uncertain and that on account of such indefiniteness and uncertainty the legality of the taxes levied within such town or city are in danger of being affected, and setting forth the particular causes or reasons of such alleged indefiniteness or uncertainty, it shall be the duty of the town or city council of such town or city, to cause said petition to be filed and recorded by the clerk, and to cause a copy of the same to be made and certified by the clerk and the corporate seal of such town or city to be attached to said certificate, and the mayor of such town or city shall forthwith present said certified copy of said petition to the board of county commissioners of the county wherein said town or city is situate, with a written request to be signed by him as such mayor that the said board of county commissioners proceed to examine the boundaries of such town or city, and make the same definite and certain. [L. '99, p. 126, § 1.]

§ 9196. [7752.] County Commissioners to Examine Boundaries—Survey.

It shall be and is hereby made the duty of said board of county commissioners upon receipt of said certified copy of said petition, and the request aforesaid, to cause the same to be filed in the office of the auditor of said county, and to forthwith proceed to examine the boundaries of such town or city, and to make the same definite and certain. For this purpose they may employ a competent surveyor, and shall commence at some recognized and undisputed point on the boundary line of such town or city, if such there be and in case there be no such recognized and undisputed point, they shall establish a starting point from the best data at their command and from such starting point they shall run a boundary line by courses and distances around such town or city, in one tract or body. [L. '99, p. 127, § 2.]

§ 9197. [7753.] Report—Filing With County Auditor.

It shall be and is hereby made the duty of the said board of county commissioners, without unnecessary delay, to make and file a report of their doings in the premises in the office of the auditor of said county, who shall transmit a certified copy thereof under the seal of the county, to the clerk of said town or city, and the said clerk shall record the same in the records of said town or city, and keep the said copy on file in his office. Said report shall contain the description of the boundary of said town or city, as fixed by said board, written in plain words and figures and the boundaries so made and fixed shall be the boundaries of such town or city, and all the territory included within the boundary lines so established shall be included in the said town or city, and be a part thereof. [L. '99, p. 127, § 3.]

§ 9198. [7754.] Expenses.

The expense of such proceedings shall be paid by the town or city at whose request the same shall be incurred. The said commissioners shall each receive as compensation, an amount not exceeding the amount allowed by law for their usual services as commissioners, and, any surveyor or other assistants employed by them, a reasonable compensation to be fixed and certified by said commissioners. [L. '99, p. 128, § 4.]

CHAPTER XIV.

ADDITIONAL POWERS, BICYCLES, POLL TAX, LIBRARY LEVIES—STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION.

§ 9199. [7755.] May Require Bond from Persons Obtaining Franchises.

City councils in the cities of the second, third and fourth class, shall have the right, and they are hereby authorized to require a bond in a reasonable amount from persons or corporations obtaining franchises from such cities, conditioned for the faithful performance of the conditions and terms of the franchise, and providing a recovery on such bond in case of a failure of such person or corporation, failing to perform the conditions and terms of such franchise. [L. '07, p. 564, § 1.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 50.

This section expressly authorizes towns to require a bond to secure the performance of conditions and terms of franchises to furnish the town with electric lights: Castle Rock v. Furth, 78 Wash. 47, 138 Pac. 317.

The title to this act giving cities and towns of the second, third and fourth class certain "additional powers" is not invalid as embracing more than one subject: Castle Rock v. Furth, 78 Wash. 47, 138 Pac. 317.

§ 9200. [7756.] Appointment of Park Commissioners—Powers of Board.

City councils of cities of the second, third and fourth class, are authorized to provide by ordinances, for a board of park commissioners, not to exceed three in number, and to be appointed by the mayor, and to serve during his pleasure, provided that such board shall serve without compensation. Such board of park commissioners shall have control and supervision of all parks belonging to such city and shall have power to prescribe rules and regulations for the government and management thereof, and which rules and regulations shall be enforced by the police department of the city. [L. '07, p. 564, § 2.]

§ 9201. [7757.] Tax Levy for Park Purposes.

City councils of the cities of the second, third and fourth class are hereby authorized and empowered to levy a tax not to exceed one mill on all taxable property for the purpose of maintaining and improving any park or parks, or the purchase thereof for any such town or city. That the proceeds of such levy shall be paid into a special fund, to be known as the Park Fund, and the disbursement of such fund shall be provided for by ordinance. [L. '07, p. 564, § 3.]

§ 9202. [7758.] Annexation of Territory for Municipal Purposes.

City councils of the cities of the second, third and fourth class, shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to annex new territory for park, cemetery or other municipal purpose, which may be outside of the city limits of such city, whether contiguous or noncontiguous thereto by ordinance enacted by a majority vote of such council. [L. '07, p. 565, § 4.]

§ 9203. [7759.] Vacancy in Office of Mayor—How Filled.

In case of a vacancy occurring in the office of the mayor in a city of the second, third or fourth class, the city council be and it is hereby empowered and authorized, and it shall be its duty to elect a mayor to serve the unexpired term. [L. '07, p. 565, § 5.]

§ 9204. [7760.] May License Bicycles and Construct Paths.

All cities of the first, second, third and fourth classes in this state are hereby empowered and authorized to regulate and license the riding of bicycles and other similar vehicles upon or along the streets, alleys, highways or other public grounds within their respective corporate limits and to construct and maintain bicycle paths or roadways within the corporate limits of such cities, respectively, or outside of any [and] beyond such corporate limits leading to or from such cities, respectively. [L. '99, p. 41, § 1.]

§ 9205. [7761.] Riding Unlicensed Bicycles may be Prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any person to ride upon a bicycle or other similar vehicle on the sidewalks of any city of the first, second, third or fourth classes within the limits within which the city council of such city may by ordinance prohibit the riding of the same on sidewalks, and such cities are hereby empowered by ordinance to provide for reasonable fines and penalties to be imposed for the violation of such ordinances. [L. '99, p. 41, § 2.]

§ 9206. [7762.] Unlawful to Use Bicycle Paths for Other Purposes.

It shall be unlawful for any person to lead, drive, ride or propel any team, wagon, animal or vehicle other than those hereinbefore named, upon and along any bicycle path heretofore constructed or that may hereafter be constructed, within or without the corporate limits of any city, excepting at suitable crossings to be provided in the construction of such paths. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '99, p. 42, § 3.]

§ 9207. [7763.] License Fees.

Cities of the first, second, third and fourth class are hereby authorized and empowered by ordinance to establish and collect reasonable license fees from all persons riding a bicycle or other similar vehicle within their respective corporate limits, and to enforce the payment thereof by reasonable fines and penalties. [L. '99, p. 42, § 4.]

§ 9208. [7764.] Regulation shall be by Ordinance.

The license fee to be paid and the rules regulating the riding of bicycles or other similar vehicles within any city of said classes shall be fixed by ordinance, and the rules regulating the use of such bicycle paths or roadways constructed or maintained by them within the corporate limits of such cities under the authority of this act, and the fines and penalties for the violation of such rules shall be fixed by ordinance. [L. '99, p. 42, § 5.]

"This act" refers to §§ 9204—9209.

§ 9209. [7765.] Bicycle Road Fund—How Maintained and Applied.

The city council of each city shall by ordinance provide that the whole amount or any amount not less than seventy-five (75) per centum of all license fees, fines, penalties or other moneys collected under the power hereby conferred, shall be paid into and placed to the credit of a special fund to be known as the "Bicycle road fund," and the moneys in said fund shall not be transferred to any other fund in such cities, and shall be paid out for the sole purpose of building and maintaining bicycle paths and roadways authorized to be constructed and maintained by this act, or for special policemen, bicycle tags, stationery and other expenses growing out of the regulating and licensing of the riding of bicycles and other vehicles and the construction and maintenance and regulation of the use of bicycle paths and roadways. [L. '99, p. 42, § 6.]

§ 9210. [7766.] Poll Tax in Cities of Third and Fourth Class.

The city council of cities of the third and fourth class in this state shall have power to impose on and collect from every male inhabitant of such city over the age of twenty-one years an annual street poll tax not exceeding two dollars, and no other road poll tax shall be collected within the limits of such city. [L. '05, p. 140, § 1.]

This section repeals § 9175, subd. 7, authorizing a poll tax of four dollars in towns.

Cited in 92 Wash. 362.

This section does not, by reason of the exemption of females and minors, violate Constitution, Article VII, § 9, requiring uniformity in city taxes in respect to persons and property; since the constitutional requirement as to uniformity does not forbid a proper classification of the subjects of the tax: Tekoa v. Reilly, 47 Wash. 202, 91 Pac. 769, 13 L. R. A. (N.S.) 901. [State v. Ide, 35 Wash. 576, 77 Pac. 961, 102 Am. St. Rep. 914, 1 Ann. Cas. 634, 67 L. R. A. 280, overruled.] See, also, Thurston County v. Tenino Stone Quarries, 44 Wash. 351, 87 Pac. 634.

An ordinance levying a poll tax upon all male inhabitants over twenty-one upon the authority of this section, although valid when passed, is repealed or rendered invalid as to males over fifty years of age, by 3 Rem. & Bal. Code, section 7685, subdivision 7, passed in 1913, authorizing cities of the third class to levy a street poll tax upon male inhabitants between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, and no other: State ex rel. McMannis v. Superior Court, 92 Wash. 360, 159 Pac. 383.

§ 9211. Library Tax Levies in Third and Fourth Class Cities.

The city council of cities of the third or fourth class are hereby authorized, without vote of the people, to annually levy a property tax, not to exceed two mills, for public library purposes. [L. '19, p. 511, § 1.]

§ 9212. Submission to Voters.

The city council of cities of the third or fourth class are hereby authorized to hold a special election annually, upon ten days' posted notices, at which shall be submitted to the voters of such city the question whether the said council shall be authorized to levy a property tax of three mills for public library purposes, and if a majority of the voters voting at such election shall decide in the affirmative, then the said council shall be authorized to levy a property tax, of not to exceed three mills, for public library purposes for the year in which said election is held. [L. '19, p. 511, § 2.]

§ 9213. Street Railway Extensions.

Any municipal corporation in the state of Washington which now owns or operates, or which may hereafter own or operate, any street railway within the corporate limits thereof, may acquire, construct and extend, own and operate such street railway to any point or points not to exceed eight miles outside of its said corporate limits, measured along the line of such railway: And provided, that this act shall not be construed to prevent the operation of any municipally owned street railway which now extends beyond the city limits of any city. [L. '19, p. 389, § 1; L. '17, p. 217, § 1.]

CHAPTER XV.

EMINENT DOMAIN BY CITIES.

§ 9214. [7767.] Proceedings Under Power of Eminent Domain.

Municipal corporations, except cities of the first class, are hereby empowered and authorized to acquire, condemn, take or damage private property for public corporate uses, and for such purposes may proceed to acquire, take, or damage the same, in the manner provided by sections 921—936 of this code. [L. '93, p. 135, § 1.]

§ 9215. [7768.] What Cities may Condemn—Purposes.

Every city and town and each unclassified city and town within the state of Washington, is hereby authorized and empowered to condemn land and property, including state, county and school lands and property for streets, avenues, alleys, highways, bridges, approaches, culverts, drains, ditches, public squares, public markets, city and town halls, jails and other public buildings, and for the opening and widening, widening and extending, altering and straightening of any street, avenue, alley or highway, and to damage any land or other property for any such purpose or for the purpose of making changes in the grade of any street, avenue, alley or highway, or for the construction of slopes or retaining walls for cuts and fills upon real property abutting on any street, avenue, alley or highway now ordered to be, or such as shall hereafter be ordered to be opened, extended, altered, straightened or graded, or for the purpose of draining swamps, marshes, tide lands, tide flats or ponds, or filling the same, within the limits of such city, and to condemn land or property, or to damage the same, either within or without the limits of such city for public parks, drives and boulevards, hospitals, pesthouses, drains and sewers, garbage crematories and destructors and dumping grounds for the destruction, deposit or burial of dead animals, manure, dung, rubbish, and other offal, and for aqueducts, reservoirs, pumping stations and other structures for conveying into and through such city a supply of fresh water, and for the purpose of protecting such supply of water from pollution, and to condemn land and other property and damage the same for such and for any other public use after just compensation having been first made or paid into court for the owner in the manner prescribed by this act. [L. '15, p. 446, § 1. Cf. L. '07, p. 316, § 1; L. '93, p. 189, § 1; L. '05, p. 84, § 1.]

This section authorizing towns to condemn lands has not been superseded by subsequent statutes: State ex rel. Jones v. Superior Court, 44 Wash. 476, 87 Pac. 521.

Cities and towns of any class are expressly authorized to condemn lands for the purpose of supplying a water system, by section 9488, infra, which supersedes this section, limiting such power to cities and towns having over one thousand five hundred inhabitants (prior to the amendment of 1915): Redmond v. Perrigo, 84 Wash. 407, 146 Pac. 838.

Where it is necessary to exercise the power of eminent domain in order to make a municipal improvement, the entire proceedings need not be completed under this act, which was designed solely to ascertain and assess the compensation; and the city may order the work done and levy the assessment under its charter provisions and ordinances, and not in the condemnation proceedings: Brown v. Seattle, 57 Wash. 314, 106 Pac. 1113.

Under the express provisions of this act, a city is empowered to condemn land for garbage incinerators and dumping grounds: Hoquiam v. Lenhart, 86 Wash. 625, 150 Pac. 1196.

Under this section the judgments are final and can be corrected only on appeal or by statutory proceedings on motion or petition within one year of their entry; hence property owners who failed to appeal or to institute proceedings within one year to vacate or modify the judgment cannot subsequently by action in equity obtain the same relief accorded to property owners who had appealed and thereby secured a reduction of their assessments: Strelau v. Seattle, 85 Wash. 255, 147 Pac. 1144.

This section and section 9237, infra, are not unconstitutional in authorizing assessments by commissioners, subject to review by the courts, without any jury trial: Jackson Street, In re, 62 Wash. 432, 113 Pac. 1112.

§ 9216. [7769.] Compensation by Assessment or From Funds.

When the corporate authorities of any such city shall desire to condemn land or other property, or damage the same, for any purpose authorized by this act, such city shall provide therefor by ordinance, and unless such ordinance shall provide that such improvement shall be paid for wholly or in part by special assessment upon property benefited, compensation therefor shall be made from any general funds of such city applicable thereto. If such ordinance shall provide that such improvement shall be paid for wholly or in part by special assessment upon property benefited, the proceedings for the making of such special assessment shall be as hereinafter prescribed, in this act: Provided, that no special assessment shall be levied under authority of this act except when made for the purpose of streets, avenues, alleys, or highways or alterations thereof or changes of the grade therein or other improvements in or adjoining the same, or for bridges, approaches, culverts, sewers, drains, ditches, public squares, drives or boulevards or for the purpose of draining swamps, marshes, tide flats, tide lands or ponds or for filling the same; and it is further provided, that when a street, avenue, highway or boulevard is established or widened to a width greater than one hundred and fifty feet the excess over and above the one hundred and fifty feet shall be paid out of the general fund of such city without any deduction for benefits of such excess. [L. '07, p. 317, § 2. Cf. L. '93, p. 189, § 2; L. '05, p. 85, § 2.]

§ 9217. [7770.] Petition to Superior Court.

Whenever any such ordinance shall be passed by the legislative authority of any such city for the making of any improvement authorized by this act or any other improvement that such city is authorized to make, the making of which will require that property be taken or damaged for public use, such city shall file a petition in the superior court of the county in which such land is situated, in the name of the city, praying that just compensation, to be made for the property to be taken or damaged for the improvement or purpose specified in such ordinance, be ascertained by a jury or by the court in case a jury be waived. [L. '13, p. 7, § 1. Cf. L. '07, p. 317, § 3; L. '93, p. 190, § 3; L. '05, p. 86, § 3.]

Petition in General: See Remington's Digest, Em. Dom., §§ 119—122, and cases cited.

Under this section an ordinance providing for the submission of a plan or intent to acquire a gravity water system, containing a recital that it is proposed to acquire the necessary lands by purchase or condemnation, and describing the location of a proposed dam and intake, sufficiently manifests an intent to condemn land, as against another city seeking to condemn the same land; since the statutes are to be strictly construed only as against the owners of the land, and the law does not require any formal direction to the city attorney to institute condemnation proceedings: Chehalis v. Centralia, 77 Wash. 673, 138 Pac. 293.

§ 9218. [7771.] Contents of Petition.

Such petition shall contain a copy of said ordinance, certified by the clerk under the corporate seal, a reasonably accurate description of the lots, parcels of land and property which will be taken or damaged, and the names of the owners and occupants thereof and of persons having any interest therein, so far as known, to the officer filing the petition or appearing from the records in the office of the county auditor. [L. '07, p. 318, § 4. Cf. L. '93, p. 190, § 4; L. '05, p. 86, § 4.]

See notes to § 921, supra.

Upon a condemnation proceeding by a city to condemn property for widening and extending a street, under this act, it is error to strike out a cross-petition of certain defendant setting up a leasehold interest in a building upon the property: Seattle v. Park, 42 Wash. 151, 84 Pac. 644.

This act does not require, in proceedings to condemn property for a regrade of city streets, any answer from the original parties to the suit, and a cross-complaint filed by such a party is properly struck out: Manhattan Bldg. Co. v. Seattle, 52 Wash. 226, 100 Pac. 330.

In condemnation proceedings by a city under this section, etc., no answer offering an issue is necessary: Tacoma v. Wetherby, 57 Wash. 295, 106 Pac. 903.

In proceedings by a city to condemn land for a street, under this section, the petition need not describe land damaged or the whole tract out of which the land is taken, but only the land taken: Tacoma v. Wetherby, 57 Wash. 295, 106 Pac. 903.

Under this section, requiring a reasonably accurate description, a petition in condemnation proceedings is not fatally defective in that the description of the property did not close, where it was sufficient to identify the property, and the same was properly described in the decree; accuracy only in the decree being essential: Chehalis v. Centralia, 77 Wash. 673, 138 Pac. 293.

§ 9219. [7772.] Service of Summons.

Upon the filing of the petition aforesaid a summons, returnable as summons in other civil actions, shall be issued and served upon the person made parties defendant, together with a copy of the petition, as in other civil actions. And in case any of them are unknown or reside out of the state, a summons for publication shall issue and publication be made and return and proof thereof be made in the same manner as is or shall be provided by the laws of the state for service upon absent defendants in other civil actions. Notice so given by publication shall be sufficient to authorize the court to hear and determine the suit as though all parties had been sued by their proper names and had been personally served. [L. '07, p. 318, § 5. Cf. L. '93, p. 191, § 5; L. '05, p. 86, § 5.]

§ 9220. [7773.] State, School or County Lands—Auditor Served.

In case the land, real estate, premises or other property sought to be appropriated or damaged is state, school or county land, the summons and copy of petition shall be served on the auditor of the county in which such land, real estate, premises or other property is situated. Service upon other parties defendant shall be made in the same manner as is or shall be provided by law for service of summons in other civil actions. [L. '07, p. 318, § 6. Cf. L. '93, p. 191, § 6; L. '05, p. 86, § 6.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 296, 297.

§ 9221. [7774.] Jury Trial—Right to Separate Juries.

Upon the return of said summons, or as soon thereafter as the business of court will permit, the said court shall proceed to the hearing of such petition and shall impanel a jury to ascertain the just compensation to be paid for the property taken or damaged, but if any defendant or party in interest shall demand, and the court shall deem it proper, separate juries may be impaneled as to the compensation or damages to be paid to any one or more of such defendants or parties in interest. [L. '07, p. 318, § 7. Cf. L. '93, p. 181, § 7; L. '05, p. 87, § 7.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 229, 296, 297, 299; 62 Wash. 434; 65 Wash. 106.

See notes to §§ 925, 926, supra.

In eminent domain proceedings by a city, it is discretionary, under this section, to refuse separate trials to owners of the property, to be reviewed only for abuse of discretion: Tacoma v. Wetherby, 57 Wash. 295, 106 Pac. 903.

Where the city, at the commencement of the trial, offered the petition and certain documentary evidence to show its right to condemn, it is not necessary to reoffer the same upon taking up the question of damages to any particular property, and the same is in evidence for all purposes: Jackson Street, In re, 47 Wash. 243, 91 Pac. 970.

This section does not require, in proceedings to condemn property for a re-grade of city streets, any answer from the original parties to the suit, and a cross-complaint filed by such a party is properly struck out: Manhattan Building Co. v. Seattle, 52 Wash. 226, 100 Pac. 330.

This section leaves it discretionary to grant separate trials, and the action of the court will be reviewed only for an abuse of discretion: Manhattan Building Co. v. Seattle, 52 Wash. 226, 100 Pac. 330.

§ 9222. [7775.] Jury to Determine Compensation.

Such jury shall also ascertain the just compensation to be paid to any person claiming an interest in any lot, parcel of land or property which may be taken or damaged by such improvement, whether or not such person's name or such lot, parcel of land or other property is mentioned or described in such petition: Provided, such person shall first be admitted as a party defendant to said suit by such court and shall file a statement of his interest in and description of the lot, parcel of land or other property in respect to which he claims compensation. [L. '07, p. 319, § 8. Cf. L. '93, p. 191, § 8; L. '05, p. 87, § 8.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 296, 297; 59 Wash. 114.

This section does not authorize an owner in condemnation proceedings to claim damages to a lot contiguous to the lot taken, where the lots were separate and appropriated to distinct uses: Seattle v. Atwood, 59 Wash. 112, 109 Pac. 326.

§ 9223. [7776.] Jury may View Premises.

The court may upon the motion of such city or of any defendant direct that said jury (under the charge of any officer of the court and accompanied by such person or persons as may be appointed by the court to point out the property sought to be taken or damaged) shall view the lands and property affected by said improvement. [L. '07, p. 319, § 9. Cf. L. '93, p. 192, § 9; L. '05, p. 87, § 9.]

Cited in 47 Wash. 246.

A view of premises by a jury may be ordered in condemnation proceedings under section 344, nor is said section limited by this section, authorizing such views in civil actions: Jackson Street, In re, 47 Wash. 243, 91 Pac. 970.

§ 9224. [7777.] Damage to Buildings.

If there be any building standing, in whole or in part, upon any land to be taken, the jury shall add to their finding of the value of the land taken the damages to said building. If the entire building is taken, or if the building is damaged, so that it cannot be readjusted to the premises, then the measure of damages shall be the fair market value of the building. If part of the building is taken or damaged and the building can be readjusted or replaced on the part of the land remaining, then the measure of damages shall be the cost of readjusting or moving the building, or the part thereof left, together with the depreciation in the market value of said building by reason of said readjustment or moving. [L. '07, p. 319, § 10. Cf. L. '93, p. 192, § 10; L. '05, p. 87, § 10.]

Cited in 47 Wash. 247; 58 Wash. 597; 59 Wash. 113.

See notes to § 926, supra.

It is not error prejudicial to the owner to instruct the jury that they should determine the value of a building and add its cost to its removal, if it was damaged by its removal and could not be put in as good condition as before, although the instruction goes beyond this section: Tacoma v. Bonnell, 58 Wash. 593, 109 Pac. 60.

This section is constitutional, it being within the power of the legislature to provide that a removal is not a taking of property, where there was but one tract of land involved: Tacoma v. Bonnell, 58 Wash. 593, 109 Pac. 60.

In proceedings to condemn a specified lot on which there was located a building, under this section, damages are not authorized for readjustment of the building to another contiguous lot which was a separate unit, put to a distinct use, and which was not taken or damaged: Seattle v. Atwood, 59 Wash. 112, 109 Pac. 326.

§ 9225. [7778.] Separate Findings—Apportionment of Compensation.

If the land and buildings belong to different parties, or if the title to the property be divided into different interests by lease or otherwise, the damages done to each of such interests may be separately found by the jury on the request of any party. In making such findings, the jury shall first find and set forth in their verdict the total amount of the damage to said land and buildings and all premises therein, estimating the same as an entire estate and as if the same were the sole property of one owner in fee simple; and they shall then apportion the damages so found among the several parties entitled to the same, in proportion to their several interests and claims and the damages sustained by them respectively, and set forth such apportionment in their verdict. No delay in ascertaining the amount of compensation shall be occasioned by any doubt or contest which may arise as to the ownership of the property, or any part thereof, or as to the extent of the interest of any defendant in the property to be taken or damaged, but in such case, the jury shall ascertain the entire compensation or damage that should be paid for the property and the entire interests of all the parties therein, and the court may thereafter require adverse claimants to interplead, so as to fully determine their rights and interests in the compensation so ascertained. And the court may make such order as may be necessary in regard to the deposit or payment of such compensation. [L. '07, p. 319, § 11.]

In eminent domain proceedings by a city this section authorizes the assessment of one recovery of damages against the landlord and tenant, leaving it for division between the parties entitled thereto: Western Avenue, In re, 57 Wash. 290, 106 Pac. 901.

§ 9226. [7779.] New Trial—Judgment—Continuance.

Upon the return of the verdict the proceedings of the court regarding new trial and the entry of judgment thereon shall be the same as in other civil actions, and the judgment shall be such as the nature of the case shall require. The court shall continue or adjourn the case from time to time as to all occupants and owners named in such petition who shall not have been served with process or brought in by publication, and new summons may issue or new publication may be made at any time; and upon such occupants or owners being brought in, the court may impanel a jury to ascertain the compensation so to be made to such defendant or defendants for private property taken or damaged, and like proceedings shall be had for such purpose as herein provided. [L. '07, p. 320, § 12. Cf. L. '93, p. 193, § 11; L. '05, p. 88, § 11.]

Cited in 94 Wash. 429.

§ 9227. [7780.] Change of Ownership.

The court shall have power at any time, upon proof that any such owner or owners named in such petition who has not been served with process has ceased to be such owner or owners since the filing of such petition, to impanel a jury and ascertain the just compensation to be made for the property (or the damage thereto) which has been owned by the person or persons so ceasing to own the same, and the court may upon any finding or findings of any jury or juries, or at any time during the course of such proceedings enter such order, rule, judgment or decree as the nature of the case may require. [L. '07, p. 320, § 13. Cf. L. '93, p. 193, § 12; L. '05, p. 88, § 12.]

§ 9228. [7781.] Infants or Insane Persons—Guardian Ad Litem.

When it shall appear from said petition or otherwise, at any time during the proceedings upon such petition, that any infant or insane or distracted person is interested in any property that is to be taken or damaged, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for such infant or insane or distracted person to appear and defend for him, her or them, and the court shall make such order or decree as it shall deem proper to protect and secure the interest of such infant or insane or distracted person in such property or the compensation which shall be awarded therefor. [L. '07, p. 321, § 14. Cf. L. '93, p. 194, § 14; L. '05, p. 89, § 14.]

Cited in 102 Wash. 399.

§ 9229. [7782.] Findings.

When the ordinance providing for any such improvement provides that compensation therefor shall be paid in whole or in part by special assessment upon property benefited, the jury or court, as the case may be, shall find separately:

1. The value of land taken at date of trial;
2. The damages which will accrue to the part remaining because of its severance from the part taken, over and above any local or special benefits arising from the proposed improvement. No lot, block, tract or parcel of land found by the court or jury to be so damaged shall be assessed for any benefits arising from such taking only;
3. The gross damages to any land or property not taken (other than damages to a remainder, by reason of its severance from the part taken), and in computing such gross damages shall not deduct any benefits from the proposed improvement. Such finding by the court or jury shall leave any lot, block, parcel or tract of land, or other property subject to assessment for its proportion of any and all local and special benefits accruing thereto by reason of said improvement.

When such ordinance does not provide for any assessment in whole or in part on property specially benefited, the compensation found for land or property taken or damaged shall be ascertained over and above any local or special benefits from the proposed improvement.

Such city or town may offset against any award of the jury or court for the taking or damaging of any lot, block, tract or parcel of land or other property, any general taxes or local assessments unpaid at the time such award is made. Such offset shall be made by deducting the amount of such unpaid taxes and assessments at the time of payment of the judgment or issuance of a warrant in payment of such judgment. [L. '09, p. 723, § 1. Cf. L. '93, p. 194, § 15; L. '05, p. 89, § 15; L. '07, p. 321, § 15.]

This section does not require a city, on condemning land for opening a street, to include the improvement of the street or the establishment of a grade; hence the award of damages for compensation for merely opening a street does not bar an assessment for benefits in a subsequent proceeding to grade and plank the street: Martenis v. Tacoma, 66 Wash. 92, 118 Pac. 882.

In eminent domain proceedings by a city, the jury is to determine only the damage to the land taken, and the damages resulting to land not taken: Tacoma v. Bonnell, 58 Wash. 593, 109 Pac. 60.

An award of damages in eminent domain proceedings to take land for street purposes, after fixing the amount for the land taken, reciting "For damages to remaining land by reason of severance, $150," must, in the light of instructions directing the jury to offset the benefits against such damages, be construed as a net damage over and above special benefits, exempting the land from assessment, as authorized by this section: Pine Street Assessment, In re, 83 Wash. 281, 145 Pac. 179.

§ 9230. [7783.] Judgment—Appeal.

Any final judgment or judgments rendered by said court upon any finding or findings of any jury or juries, or upon any finding or findings of the court in case a jury be waived, shall be lawful and sufficient condemnation of the land or property to be taken, or of the right to damage the same in the manner proposed, upon the payment of the amount of such findings and all costs which shall be taxed as in other civil cases, provided that in case any defendant recovers no damages, no costs shall be taxed. Such judgment or judgments shall be final and conclusive as to the damages caused by such improvement unless appealed from, and no appeal from the same shall delay proceedings under said ordinance, if such city shall pay into court for the owners and parties interested, as directed by the court, the amount of the judgment and costs, and such city, after making such payment into court, shall be liable to such owner or owners or parties interested for the payment of any further compensation which may at any time be finally awarded to such parties so appealing in said proceeding, and his or her costs, and shall pay the same on rendition of judgment therefor, and abide any rule or order of the court in relation to the matter in controversy. In case of an appeal to the supreme court of the state by any party to the proceedings the money so paid into the superior court by such city, as aforesaid, shall remain in the custody of said superior court until the final determination of the proceedings. If the owner of the land, real estate, premises, or other property accepts the sum awarded by the jury or the court, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived conclusively an appeal to the supreme court and final judgment may be rendered in the superior court as in other cases. Upon the condemnation of a water system of a public service corporation, under this and the next section, entitling the city to take possession upon the payment of the jury's award of damages, the city is not entitled to an accounting of the earnings and profits of the condemned property previous to the payment of the money, although, upon such payment, the title relates back to the date of the award: State ex rel. Washington Public Service Co. v. Superior Court, 86 Wash. 155, 149 Pac. 652.

Effect of Appeal and Supersedeas: Rainier Avenue, In re, 80 Wash. 688, 141 Pac. 1137.

§ 9231. [7784.] Title Vests upon Payment into Court.

The court, upon proof that just compensation so found by the jury, or by the court in case the jury is waived, together with costs, has been paid to the person entitled thereto, or has been paid into court as directed by the court, shall enter an order that the city or town shall have the right at any time thereafter to take possession of or damage the property in respect to which such compensation shall have been so paid or paid into court as aforesaid, and thereupon, the title to any property so taken shall be vested in fee simple in such city or town. See notes to § 927, supra.

The title to the property condemned does not pass until the payment into court of the damages awarded, under this section: Port of Seattle v. Yesler Estate, 83 Wash. 166, 145 Pac. 209.

In condemnation proceedings by a city to acquire a location for garbage incinerators and dumping grounds, it is not necessary to state in the petition that provision has been made for payment of the award; since, by this section, possession may be taken only on payment of the judgment: Hoquiam v. Lenhart, 86 Wash. 625, 150 Pac. 1196.

§ 9232. [7785.] Payment from General Fund.

When the ordinance under which said improvement is ordered to be made shall not provide that such improvement shall be made wholly by special assessment upon property benefited, the whole amount of such damage and costs, or such part thereof as shall not be assessed upon property benefited shall be paid from the general fund of such city or town, and if sufficient funds therefor are not already provided, such city or town shall levy and collect a sufficient sum therefor as part of the general taxes of such city or town, or may contract indebtedness by the issuance of bonds or warrants therefor as in other cases of internal improvements. [L. '07, p. 323, § 18. Cf. L. '93, p. 195, § 18; L. '05, p. 90, § 18.]

Under an ordinance for the improvement of a street the cost and expense to be paid "wholly by special assessment upon the property to be benefited," the eminent domain commissioners have no power to assess the city generally for a portion of the expense, in view of this section and section 9237, infra: Spokane v. Curtiss, 66 Wash. 555, 120 Pac. 70.

§ 9233. [7786.] Payment by Special Assessment.

When such ordinance under which said improvement shall be ordered, shall provide that such improvement shall be paid for, in whole or in part, by special assessment of property benefited thereby, the damages and costs awarded, or such part thereof as is to be paid by special assessment, shall be levied, assessed and collected in the manner hereinafter provided. Under this and the next section, and section 9237, infra, it is within the power of the council to make the apportionment, and for the commissioners to act only when the council fails to do so; and in any event, the benefit to the public must be a special and not a general benefit, and findings of the court or commissioners are conclusive on appeal: Fifth Avenue etc., In re, 66 Wash. 327, 119 Pac. 852.

§ 9234. [7787.] Supplementary Petition for Assessment—Commissioners Appointed.

Such city may file in the same proceeding a supplementary petition, praying the court that an assessment be made for the purpose of raising an amount necessary to pay the compensation and damages which may or shall have been awarded for the property taken or damaged, with costs of the proceedings, or for such part thereof as the ordinance shall provide. The said court shall thereupon appoint three competent persons as commissioners to make such assessment, or if there be a board of eminent domain commissioners of such city, appointed under the provisions of this act, said proceeding for assessment shall be referred to said board.

Said commissioners shall include in such assessment the compensation and damages which may or shall have been awarded for the property taken or damaged, with all costs and expenses of the proceedings incurred to the time of their appointment, or to the time when said proceeding was referred to them, together with the probable further costs and expenses of the proceedings, including therein the estimated costs of making and collecting such assessment. § 9235. [7788.] Board of Eminent Domain — Commissioners — Appointment, etc.

At any time after the taking effect of this act, any such city may petition the superior court of the county in which said city is situated, that a board of eminent domain commissioners be appointed to make assessments in all condemnation proceedings instituted by such city. Said superior court shall thereupon, by order duly entered in its records, appoint three competent persons as commissioners who shall be known as and who shall constitute the "board of eminent domain commissioners of the city of —," and who shall thereafter make assessments in all condemnation proceedings instituted by such city. The order of the court shall provide that one of the members of such board shall serve for one year, one for two years and one for three years, from the date of their appointment and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Annually thereafter, said superior court shall appoint one such person as such commissioner, whose term shall begin on the same day of the month on which the first order of appointment was made and continue for three years thereafter and until his successor is appointed and qualified. If any commissioner shall be disqualified in any proceeding by reason of interest, or for any other reason, said superior court shall appoint some other competent person to act in his place in such proceeding. The board of eminent domain commissioners created by this section are city officials, and not within Constitution, Article XI, section 5, requiring all county, township, precinct, or district officers to be elected: Blewett Street, Seattle, In re, 59 Wash. 485, 110 Pac. 29.

§ 9236. [7789.] Commissioners—Oath—Salary Account.

All commissioners before entering upon their duties shall take and subscribe an oath that they will faithfully perform the duties of the office to which they are appointed, and will to the best of their abilities make true and impartial assessments according to the law. Every commissioner shall receive compensation at the rate of five dollars per day for each day actually spent in making the assessment herein provided for: Provided, that in any city of the first class the superior court of the county in which said city is situated may, by order duly entered in its records, fix the compensation of each commissioner in an amount in no case to exceed seven and one-half ($7.50) dollars per day for each day actually spent in making the assessment herein provided for. Each commissioner shall file in the proceeding in which he has made such assessment his account, stating the number of days he has actually spent in said proceeding, and upon the approval of said account by the judge before whom the proceeding is pending, the comptroller or city clerk of such city shall issue a warrant in the amount approved by the judge upon the special fund created to pay the awards and costs of said proceeding, and the fees of such commissioner so paid shall be included in the cost and expenses of such proceedings. In case such commissioners are, during the same period, or parts thereof, engaged in making assessment in different proceedings, in rendering their accounts they shall apportion them to the different proceedings in proportion to the amount of time actually spent by them on the assessment in each proceeding. [L. '15, p. 447, § 2. Cf. L. '07, p. 324, § 22; L. '93, p. 196, § 22.]

§ 9237. [7790.] Assessment of Special Benefits—Apportionment—Improvement Districts.

It shall be the duty of such commissioners to examine the locality where the improvement is proposed to be made and the property which will be especially benefited thereby, and to estimate what proportion, if any, of the total cost of such improvement will be a benefit to the public, and what proportion thereof will be a benefit to the property to be benefited, and apportion the same between the city and such property so that each shall bear its relative equitable proportion, and having found said amounts, to apportion and assess the amount so found to be a benefit to the property upon the several lots, blocks, tracts and parcels of land, or other property in the proportion in which they will be severally benefited by such improvement: Provided, that the legislative body of the city may in the ordinance initiating any such improvement establish an assessment district and said district when so established shall be deemed to include all the lands or other property especially benefited by the proposed improvement, and the limits of said district when so fixed shall be binding and conclusive on the said commissioners: And provided further, that no property shall be assessed a greater amount than it will be actually benefited. That all leasehold rights and interests of private persons, firms or corporations in or to harbor areas located within the corporate limits of an incorporated city or town are for the purpose of assessment for the payment of the awards, interest and costs of any improvement authorized by this act, declared to be real property, and all such leasehold rights and interests may be assessed and reassessed in accordance with the special benefits received for the purpose of paying the cost of any such improvement heretofore made or which may hereafter be made in accordance with law. § 9238. [7791.] Assessment-roll.

Such commissioners in each proceeding shall also make or cause to be made an assessment-roll in which shall appear the names of the owners, so far as known, the description of each lot, block, tract or parcel of land or other property and the amounts assessed as special benefits thereto, and in which they shall set down as against the city the amount they shall have found as public benefit, if any, and certify such assessment-roll to the court before which said proceeding is pending, within sixty days after their appointment or after the date of the order referring said proceedings to them, or within such extension of said period as shall be allowed by the court. In proceedings by a city to levy assessments for a local improvement, where eminent domain commissioners have made up an assessment-roll and notice has been given to a property owner of the amount of benefits assessed against his property, and the owner files no objections and does not appear, the court in confirming the assessment has no authority to increase the same; since its order has the effect of a default judgment, the hearing being conducted as in other proceedings, under this act: Sixth Avenue West, Seattle, In re, 59 Wash. 41, 109 Pac. 1052, Ann. Cas. 1912A, 1047.

§ 9239. [7792.] Hearing on Assessment—Notice.

After the return of such assessment-roll, the court shall make an order setting a time for the hearing thereof before the court, which day shall be at least twenty days after the return of such roll. It shall be the duty of such commissioners to give notice of such assessment and of the day fixed by the court for the hearing thereof in the following manner:

1. They shall at least twenty days prior to the date fixed for the hearing on said roll, mail to each owner of the property assessed, whose name and address is known to them, a notice substantially in the following form:

“Title of Cause. To —: Pursuant to an order of the superior court of the state of Washington, in and for the county of —, there will be a hearing in the above-entitled cause on — at — upon the assessment-roll prepared by the commissioners heretofore appointed by said court to assess the property specially benefited by the (here describe nature of improvement); and you are hereby required if you desire to make any objections to said assessment-roll, to file your objections to the same before the date herein fixed for the hearing upon said roll, a description of your property and the amount assessed against it for the aforesaid improvement is as follows: (Description of property and amount assessed against it.)

Commissioners."

2. They shall cause at least twenty days' notice to be given by posting notice of the hearing on such assessment-roll in at least three public places in such city, one of which shall be in the neighborhood of such proposed improvement, and when a daily newspaper is published in such city, by publishing the same in at least five successive issues of said paper, or if no daily newspaper is published in such city and a weekly newspaper is published therein, then in at least each issue of such weekly newspaper for two successive weeks or if no daily or weekly newspaper is published in such city, then in a newspaper published in the county in which such city is situated. Such notice so required to be posted and published, may be substantially as follows:

"Title of Cause. Special assessment notice. Notice is hereby given to all persons interested, that an assessment-roll has been filed in the above-entitled cause providing for the assessment upon the property benefited of the cost of (here insert brief description of improvement) and that said roll has been set down for hearing on the ____ day of ____ at _____. The boundaries of said assessment district are substantially as follows: (here insert an approximate description of the assessment district). All persons desiring to object to said assessment-roll are required to file their objections before said date fixed for the hearing upon said roll, and appear on the day fixed for hearing before said court.

Commissioners."

§ 9240. [7793.] Proof of Service.

On or before the final hearing, the affidavit of one or more of the commissioners shall be filed in said court, stating that they have sent, or caused to be sent, by mail, to the owners whose property has been assessed and whose names and addresses are known to them, the notice hereinbefore required to be sent by mail to the owners of the property assessed. They shall also cause to be filed the affidavit of the person who shall have posted the notice required by this act to be posted, setting forth when and in what manner the same was posted. Such affidavits shall be received as prima facie evidence of a compliance with this act in regard to giving such notices. They shall also file an affidavit of publication of such notice in like manner as is required in other cases of affidavits of publication of notice of summons. [L. '07, p. 327, § 26. Cf. L. '93, p. 199, § 25; L. '05, p. 93, § 25.]

"This act": See note to § 9216.

§ 9241. [7794.] Continuance of Hearing.

If twenty days shall not have elapsed between the first publication or the posting of such notices and the day set for hearing, the hearing shall be continued until such time as the court shall order. The court shall retain full jurisdiction of the matter, until final judgment on the assessments; and if the notice given shall prove invalid or insufficient the court shall order new notice to be given. [L. '07, p. 327, § 27. Cf. L. '93, p. 199, § 26; L. '05, p. 94, § 26.]

§ 9242. [7795.] Objections to Report—Evidence.

Any person interested in any property assessed may file objections to such report at any time before the day set for hearing said roll. As to all property to the assessment of which objections are not filed as herein provided, default may be entered and the assessment confirmed by the court. On the hearing, the report of such commissioners shall be competent evidence and either party may introduce such other evidence as may tend to establish the right of the matter. The hearing shall be conducted as in other cases at law, tried by the court without a jury, and if it shall appear that the property of the objector is assessed more or less than it will be benefited, or more or less than its proportionate share of the costs of the improvement, the court shall so find, and also find, the amount in which said property ought to be assessed and the judgment shall be entered accordingly. [L. '07, p. 328, § 28. Cf. L. '93, p. 199, §§ 27, 28; L. '05, p. 94, §§ 27, 28.]

Hearing, in General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 260, and cases cited.

Objections, Estoppel and Waiver: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 256—259, and cases cited.

Under this section "may be entered" should not be construed to mean "must," in view of other provisions of the statute authorizing the court to apportion part of the cost of the improvement to the city, and to change any assessment or recast the same according to the "principles" of the act, which appear to require each parcel of land to "bear its relative equitable proportion" of the cost: Seattle v. Sylvester-Cowen Inv. Co., 55 Wash. 659, 104 Pac. 1121.

Under this and the next section the extent of the benefits is a question of fact to be determined by the court from the weight of the evidence, upon which the opinion of persons having knowledge of the situation is competent evidence, and assessments made contrary thereto may be changed as arbitrary: Empire Way, In re, 100 Wash. 636, 171 Pac. 1010.

The findings of the superior court made upon attacking the assessment-roll for a local improvement in eminent domain proceedings by cities, in the absence of exceptions, are conclusive on appeal, in view of this section: Shilshole Avenue, In re, 85 Wash. 522, 148 Pac. 781.

§ 9243. [7796.] Modification of Assessment.

The court before which any such proceedings may be pending shall have authority at any time before final judgment to modify, alter, change, annul or confirm any assessment returned as aforesaid, or cause any such assessment to be recast by the same commissioners, whenever it shall be necessary for the obtainment of justice, or may appoint other commissioners in the place of all or any of the commissioners first appointed for the purpose of making such assessment or modifying, altering, changing or recasting the same, and may take all such proceedings and make all such orders as may be necessary to make a true and just assessment of the cost of such improvement according to the principles of this act, and may from time to time, as may be necessary, continue the application for that purpose as to the whole or any part of the premises. § 9244. [7797.] Judgment, Effect and Lien of.

The judgment of the court shall have the effect of a separate judgment as to each tract or parcel of land or other property assessed, and any appeal from such judgment shall not invalidate or delay the judgment except as to the property concerning which the appeal is taken. Such judgment shall be a lien upon the property assessed from the date thereof until payment shall be made, and said lien shall be paramount and superior to any other lien or encumbrance whatsoever, theretofore or thereafter created, except a lien for assessments for general taxes. [L. '15, p. 449, § 4. Cf. L. '07, p. 328, § 30; L. '93, p. 200, § 30; L. '05, p. 95, § 30.]

Lien in General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 284.

There is no breach of a covenant against encumbrancers from the fact that, prior to conveyance, the city had instituted condemnation proceedings against the property conveyed for the purpose of paying the cost of widening and extending a street, under which a special assessment had been levied and confirmed by judgment of the court subsequent to the conveyance, since the lien of such assessment would not attach until the date of the judgment, under this section: Flajole v. Schulze, 80 Wash. 483, 141 Pac. 1026.

§ 9245. [7798.] Assessment-roll to be Certified.

The clerk of the court in which such judgment is rendered shall certify a copy of the assessment-roll and judgment to the treasurer of the city, or if there has been an appeal taken from any part of such judgment, then he shall certify such part of the roll and judgment as is not included in such appeal, and the remainder when final judgment is rendered: Provided, that if upon such appeal, the judgment of the superior court shall be affirmed, the assessments on such property as to which appeal has been taken shall bear interest at the same rate and from the same date which other assessments not paid within the time hereafter provided shall bear. Such copy of the assessment-roll shall describe the lots, blocks, tracts, parcels of land or other property assessed, and the respective amounts assessed on each, and shall be sufficient warrant to the city treasurer to collect the assessment therein specified. In no case, however, shall a copy of such assessment-roll and judgment be certified to the city treasurer unless and until the awards of the jury shall have first been accepted by the city council or other legislative body as provided by law, or the time for rejecting the same shall have expired. [L. '15, p. 449, § 5. Cf. L. '07, p. 329, § 31; L. '93, p. 200, § 31; L. '05, p. 95, § 31.]

§ 9246. [7799.] Publication of Notice.

Whenever the assessment for any such improvement shall be immediately payable, the owner of any such lot, tract or parcel of land or other property so assessed may pay such entire assessment, or any part thereof, without interest, within thirty (30) days after the notice of such assessment.

The city treasurer shall, as soon as the certified copy of the assessment-roll has been placed in his hands for collection, publish a notice in the official newspaper of the city for two (2) consecutive daily, or two (2) consecutive weekly issues, and then by posting four notices thereof in public places along the line of the proposed improvement, that the said roll is in his hands for collection, and that any assessment thereon, or any part thereof, may be paid within thirty (30) days from the date of the first publication or posting of said notice, without penalty, interest or costs, and if not so paid, the same shall thereupon become delinquent. [L. '15, p. 450, § 6. Cf. L. '07, p. 329, § 32; L. '93, p. 200, § 32; L. '05, p. 95, § 32.]

§ 9247. [7800.] Notice by Mail—Duty of City Treasurer.

It shall be the duty of the city treasurer into whose hands such judgment and assessment-roll shall come, to mail notices of such assessment to the persons whose names appear on the assessment-roll, so far as the addresses of such persons are known to him. Any such treasurer omitting so to do, shall be liable to a penalty of five dollars for every such omission; but the validity of the special assessment shall not be affected by such omission. When any assessment or assessments are paid, it shall be the duty of the treasurer to write the word "paid" opposite the same together with the name and postoffice address of the person making the payment and the date of payment. The owner may annually notify the treasurer of his address and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to mail the notice above provided for to such address. [L. '07, p. 330, § 33. Cf. L. '93, p. 201, § 33; L. '05, p. 95, § 33.]

§ 9248. [7801.] Return of Assessment-roll—Delinquency.

Whenever any assessment payable immediately shall become delinquent and whenever any installment shall become delinquent, the city treasurer shall forthwith proceed to enforce the collection of such delinquent and unpaid assessment or installment as in this act provided.

Within fifteen days from the expiration of the time limited for the payment of any such assessments or installments, the treasurer shall return the assessment-roll to the comptroller, if there be such officer of the city or town; otherwise, to the city or town clerk, designating thereon the assessments or installments paid and those unpaid. The comptroller or clerk, as the case may be, shall, upon receipt of said roll, credit the treasurer with the amount of assessments or installments collected thereon, and thereupon issue and annex to said roll a warrant directing the treasurer to sell all the property described in said roll upon which assessments are levied, whether in the name of a designated owner or in the name of an unknown owner, to satisfy all delinquent and unpaid assessments or installments upon said roll, with costs, interest and charges. All assessments or installments unpaid at the expiration of the time fixed herein for the payment of the same, shall bear interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from said date until paid. [L. '15, p. 450, § 7. Cf. L. '07, p. 330, § 34; L. '93, p. 201, § 34; L. '05, p. 96, § 34.]

Enforcement, in General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 288—309, and cases cited.

§ 9249. [7801a.] Law Governing Enforcement of Assessments.

The collection and enforcement of such delinquent installments shall be governed by and conform to the provisions of chapter 153, Session Laws of 1907, of the State of Washington, relating to the collection and enforcement of delinquent assessments, except as otherwise provided in this act.

Whenever the word "assessment" or the word "assessments" is used in said chapter 153, the same shall be held and construed to include the word "installment" or the word "installments." [L. '15, p. 451, § 8.]

"Chapter 153," refers to this chapter, §§ 9215 to 9279.

§ 9250. [7802.] Sale of Delinquent Property.

Such warrant issued for the purpose of making sale of said delinquent property shall be deemed and taken as an execution against said property for the amount of said assessments or installments with interest and costs, and the treasurer shall, within sixty days from the receipt thereof by him, commence the sale of said property and continue such sale from day to day thereafter, except on Sundays and legal holidays, until all the property described in said assessment-roll on which any such assessment or installment is delinquent and unpaid is sold. Such sale shall take place at the front door of the building in which the city council holds its sessions. The treasurer shall give notice of such sales by publishing a notice thereof once each week for three consecutive weeks in the official newspaper of the city, or if there be no such newspaper, then by publishing the same for said period in some newspaper published in the same county in which the city is situated, or if no such newspaper is published in such county, then in some newspaper published in the state of daily circulation in such county. Such notice shall contain a list of all property upon which such assessments or installments are delinquent with the amount of the assessment or installment, interest and costs to date of sale, including the cost of advertising such sale, together with the names of the owners of such property, or the words "unknown owners," as the same may appear upon said assessment-roll, and shall specify the time and place of sale, and that the property therein described will be sold to satisfy the assessment or installment, interest and costs due upon the same. All of such sales shall be made between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. Each lot or parcel of land or other property shall be sold separately and in the order in which the same appears on the assessment-roll, commencing at the head thereof. If there be no bidder for any lot or parcel of land or other property for a sum sufficient to pay the delinquent assessment or installment thereon, with interest and costs, the treasurer shall strike the same off to the city for the whole amount which he is required to collect by such sale. [L. '15, p. 451, § 9. Cf. L. '07, p. 330, § 35; L. '93, p. 202, § 35; L. '05, p. 96, § 35.]

Sale of Land: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 306—309, and cases cited.

§ 9251. [7803.] Sale, How Conducted—Certificate of.

All lots and parcels of land sold for delinquent improvement assessments, shall be sold to the person at such sale offering to pay the amount due on each tract or lot for the least quantity thereof to be taken from the east side of such tract or lot, and the remainder thereof shall be discharged from the lien. After receiving the amount of the assessment, penalty, cost and charges, the treasurer shall make out a certificate, dated on the day of sale, stating (when known) the name of the owner as given on the assessment-roll, a description of the land sold, the amount paid therefor, the name of the purchaser, that it was sold for the assessment, giving the name of the street or other brief designation of the improvement for which the assessment was made, and specifying that the purchaser will be entitled to a deed in two years from the date of sale unless redemption thereof be made. Such certificate shall be signed by the treasurer, and shall be delivered to the purchaser, and shall be by such purchaser recorded in the office of the county in which the lands are situated within three months from the date thereof. If not recorded within said time, the lien thereof shall be postponed to claims of subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers for value and in good faith who become such while the same is unrecorded. § 9252. [7804.] Bidders not Taking—Sale to City.

If any bidder to whom any property is stricken off at such sale does not pay the assessment, interest and costs before 10 o'clock A. M. of the day following the day of such sale, such property must then be resold, or if the assessment sale is closed, be deemed to have been sold to the city or town, and a certificate of purchase shall be issued to the city therefor. [L. '07, p. 332, § 37. Cf. L. '05, p. 98, § 37; L. '93 p. 203, § 37.]

§ 9253. [7805.] Sale by City of Certificate.

The city comptroller, if there be such officer, and if not then the city or town clerk, shall be the custodian of all certificates for property sold to the city, and shall at any time within two years from the date of such certificate, and before redemption of the property therein described, sell and transfer any such certificate to any person who will pay to him the amount for which the property therein described was stricken off to the city with interest subsequently accrued, thereon, and the treasurer may, if so authorized by the council, sell and transfer any such certificate in like manner after the expiration of such two years from the date of the certificate. [L. '07, p. 332, § 38. Cf. L. '93, p. 204, § 38; L. '05, p. 98, § 38.]

§ 9254. [7806.] Return of Sale.

Within ten days after the completion of the sale of all property described in such assessment-rolls, and authorized to be sold as aforesaid, the treasurer must make return to the comptroller, or other officer by whom the warrant was issued, of said assessment-roll, with a statement of his doings thereon, showing all property sold by him, to whom sold and the sum paid therefor. The city treasurer shall also within ten days after the completion of the sale of all property described in such assessment-rolls transmit to the treasurer of the county in which said city is located, a statement showing all property sold by him, when sold, to whom sold and the sums paid therefor and the description of the improvement under which said sale was made. The county treasurer shall thereupon note upon the general tax-rolls of said county the date of the sale, and the improvement for which the same was sold, and thereafter whenever the county treasurer shall furnish a statement of taxes to any property owner, he shall include therein a statement of such sale and the improvement for which the same was sold. [L. '07, p. 332, § 39. Cf. L. '93, p. 204 § 39; L. '05, p. 98, § 39.]

§ 9255. [7807.] Purchaser Acquires Lien—Interest.

The purchaser at such sale acquires a lien on the property so bid in by him for the amount paid by him at such sale as well as for all taxes and special assessments and all interest, penalties, costs and charges thereon, whether levied previously or subsequently to such sale, and whether for state, county, city or town purposes subsequently paid by him on such property, and shall be entitled to interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum on the original amount paid by him from the date of said sale and on such subsequent payments from the date of the respective payments. [L. '07, p. 333, § 40. Cf. L. '93, p. 204, § 40; L. '05, p. 98, § 40.]

This section requires such holder to pay subsequent taxes during the period of redemption as an additional means of notice to the owners of the land: Albring v. Petronio, 44 Wash. 132, 87 Pac. 49.

§ 9256. [7808.] Redemption Within Two Years.

Every piece of property sold for an assessment shall be subject to redemption by the former owner, or his grantee, mortgagee, heir or other representative at any time within two years from the date of the sale upon payment to the treasurer for the purchaser of the amount for which the same was sold, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum, together with all taxes and special assessments, interest, penalties and charges thereon paid by the purchaser of such piece of property since such sale, with like interest thereon. Unless written notice of taxes and assessments subsequently paid, and the amount thereof shall be deposited with the treasurer, redemption may be made without including the same. On any such redemption being made, the treasurer shall give to the redemptioner a certificate of redemption therefor, and pay over the amount received from such redemption to the purchaser or his assigns. Should no redemption be made within said period of two years, the treasurer shall, on demand of the purchaser or his assigns, and the surrender to him of the certificate of purchase, execute to such purchaser or his assigns, a deed for the piece of property therein described: Provided, that no such deed shall be executed until the holder of such certificate of purchase shall have notified the owner of such piece of property that he holds such certificate, and that he will demand a deed therefor; and if, notwithstanding such notice, no redemption is made within sixty days from the date of the service or first publication of such notice, said holder shall be entitled to said deed. Said notice shall be given by personal service upon said persons: Provided, that in case said parties are nonresidents of the state or they cannot be found therein after diligent search, then such notice may be given by publication in a weekly newspaper published in said city once each week for three successive weeks or if no newspaper be published in said city, then publication shall be made as provided in section 9239. Such notice and return thereto, with the affidavit of the person claiming such deed showing that such service was made, shall be filed with the treasurer. Such deed shall be executed only for the piece of property described in the certificate, and after payment of all subsequent taxes and special assessments thereon. The deed shall be executed in the name of the city by which the improvement is made; shall recite in substance the matters contained in the certificate, the notice to the owner, and that no redemption has been made of the property within the time allowed by law. Such deed shall be signed and acknowledged by the city treasurer as such. The deed shall be prima facie evidence that the property was assessed as required by law; that the assessment was not paid; that the property was sold as required by law; that it was not redeemed; that notice had been given, and that the person executing the deed was the proper officer; and the deed shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all other proceedings from the assessment, inclusive, up to the execution of the deed. [L. '07, p. 333, § 41. Cf. L. '93, p. 204, § 41; L. '05, p. 99, § 41.]

Under this section redemption must be made within two years after the sale and within sixty days after the publication of notice of demand for a deed: State ex rel. Abrashin v. Terry, 74 Wash. 208, 133 Pac. 386.

Ballinger's Code, section 815, requiring the holder of a certificate to give notice, by personal service or by publication, to the owners of the land that demand for a deed will be made, contemplates personal service if possible, and diligent search for the owner; and a holder who fails to pay subsequent taxes, or make inquiry at the office of the county treasurer for the address of the owner who had paid such taxes, does not exercise the diligence required of him by the statute before a deed can be issued: Albring v. Petronio, 44 Wash. 132, 87 Pac. 49.

There must be strict compliance with this section requiring service personally upon the "owner," which means the real owner of the property, unless something has been done to work an estoppel; hence notice by publication, to the holder of the record title under an absolute deed intended as a mortgage is not sufficient to cut off the owner's right of redemption, where she had been in possession for more than ten years, was the record owner when the assessments were levied, her name appeared on the assessment rolls, and she lived in the immediate vicinity and could have been found if diligence had been used: Smith v. Craver, 89 Wash. 243, 154 Pac. 156.

In General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 307, and cases cited.

§ 9257. [7809.] Redemption Fund.

All moneys collected by the treasurer upon assessments under this act shall be kept as a separate fund and shall be used for no other purpose than the redemption of warrants or bonds drawn or issued against the fund. [L. '07, p. 335, § 42. Cf. L. '93, p. 206, § 42; L. '05, p. 100, § 42.]

"This act": See note to § 9216.

§ 9258. [7810.] Record of Payment—Redemption.

Whenever before the sale of any property the amount of any assessment thereon, with interest and costs accrued thereon, shall be paid to the treasurer, he shall thereupon mark the same paid, with the date of payment thereof on the assessment-roll, and whenever after sale of any property for any assessments, the same shall be redeemed, he shall thereupon enter the same redeemed with the date of such redemption on such record. Such entry shall be made on the margin of the record opposite the description of such property. [L. '07, p. 335, § 43. Cf. L. '93, p. 206, § 43; L. '05, p. 100, § 43.]

§ 9259. [7811.] Liability of Treasurer.

If the treasurer shall receive any moneys for assessments, giving a receipt therefor, for any property and afterward return the same as unpaid, or shall receive the same after making such return, and the same be sold for assessment which has been so paid and receipted for by himself or his clerk or assistant, he and his bond shall be liable to the holder of the certificate given to the purchaser at the sale for the amount of the face of the certificate, and a penalty of fifteen per centum additional thereto besides legal interest, to be demanded within two years from the date of the sale and recovered in any court having jurisdiction of the amount, and the city shall in no case be liable to the holder of such certificate. [L. '07, p. 335, § 44. Cf. L. '93, p. 206, § 44; L. '05, p. 100, § 44.]

§ 9260. [7812.] Reassessment.

If any assessment be annulled or set aside by any court, or be invalid for any cause, a new assessment may be made, and return and like notice given and proceedings had as herein required in relation to the first; and all parties in interest shall have the like rights, and the city council or other legislative body, and the superior court, shall perform the like duties and have like power in relation to any subsequent assessment as are hereby given in relation to the first assessment. [L. '07, p. 335, § 45. Cf. L. '93 p. 206, § 45; L. '05, p. 100, § 45.]

In General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 270—275, and cases cited.

§ 9261. [7813.] Lien of Assessment.

All the assessments levied by any city under this act shall, from the date of the judgment confirming the assessment be a lien upon the real estate upon which the same may be imposed, and such lien shall continue until such assessments are paid; if any proceedings taken for the enforcement thereof, shall be held void or invalid, such city shall provide by ordinance for new proceedings and a new sale for the enforcement thereof in like manner as hereinbefore provided; and in addition to the remedy hereinbefore provided, any city may enforce such lien by civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction in like manner and with like effect as actions for the foreclosure of mortgage. [L. '07, p. 336, § 46. Cf. L. '93, p. 207, § 46; L. '05, p. 101, § 46.]

"This act": See note to § 9216.

§ 9262. [7814.] Issuance of Bonds—Payment by Warrants—Installments.

The city council or other legislative body of any city may, in their discretion, provide by ordinance for the payment of the whole or any portion of the cost and expense of any local improvement authorized by law, by bonds of the improvement district, which bonds shall be issued and sold as herein provided. [L. '15, p. 452, § 10. Cf. L. '07, p. 336, § 47.]

§ 9263. [7814a.] Maturity—Interest Coupons—Funds.

Such bonds shall be issued only in pursuance of ordinances of the city directing the issuance of the same, and by their terms shall be made payable on or before a date not to exceed twelve years from and after their date, which latter date may be fixed by resolution or ordinance by council or other legislative body of said city and shall bear interest not exceeding eight per centum per annum, which interest shall be payable annually, or semi-annually, as may be provided by resolution or ordinance, and each bond shall have attached thereto interest coupons for each interest payment.

Such bonds shall be in such denominations as shall be provided in the resolution or ordinance authorizing their issuance and shall be numbered from one upwards, consecutively, and each bond and coupon shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk or comptroller of such city: Provided, however, that said coupons may in lieu of being so signed have printed thereon a facsimile of the signature of said officers and each bond shall have the seal of such city affixed thereto and shall refer to the improvement to pay for which the same shall be issued and to the ordinance authorizing the same. Each bond shall provide that the principal sum therein named, and the interest thereon, shall be payable out of the local improvement fund created for the payment of the cost and expense of such improvement, and not otherwise. Such bonds shall not be issued in any amount in excess of the cost and expense of the improvement. [L. '15, p. 453, § 11.]

§ 9264. [7814b.] Sale—Application of Proceeds.

The bonds issued under the provisions of this act or any portion thereof may be sold by any authorized officer or officers of the city at not less than their par value and accrued interest, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied in payment of the awards, interest and costs of the improvement. [L. '15, p. 453, § 12.]

§ 9265. [7814c.] Payment of Assessment in Installments—Application.

In all cases where any city shall issue bonds as provided for in this act, the whole or any portion of the separate assessments for any such improvement, may be paid during the thirty (30) day period provided for in section 9266, and thereafter the sum remaining unpaid may be paid in equal annual installments; the number of which installments shall be less by two than the number of years which the bonds issued to pay for the improvements may run, with interest upon the whole unpaid sum at the bond rate, and each year thereafter one of such installments, together with the interest due thereon and on all installments thereafter to become due, shall be collected in the same manner as shall be provided by law and the resolutions and ordinances of such city for the collection of assessments for such improvements in cases where no bonds are issued.

In all cases of improvements authorized in this act, where, at the time this act shall become effective, the notice by the city treasurer of the assessment for such improvement shall not have been published, the city council or other legislative body of such city may by ordinance or resolution provide for the issuance and sale of bonds for such improvement and for the payment of such assessments in installments. [L. '15, p. 454, § 13.]

§ 9266. [7814d.] Notice of Roll—Installments—Payment—Delinquency.

Whenever the assessment for any such improvement shall be payable in installments, the owner of any lot, tract or parcel of land or other property charged with any such assessment may pay such assessment or any portion thereof, without interest, within thirty (30) days after such notice of such assessment.

The city treasurer shall, as soon as the certified copy of the assessment-roll has been placed in his hands for collection, publish a notice in the official newspaper of the city for two consecutive daily or two consecutive weekly issues, that the said roll is in his hands for collection and that any assessment thereon or any portion of any such assessment may be paid at any time within thirty (30) days from the date of the first publication of said notice without penalty, interest or costs, and the unpaid balance, if any, may be paid in equal annual installments, or any such assessment may be paid at any time after the first thirty (30) days following the date of the first publication of such notice by paying the entire unpaid portion thereof with all penalties and costs attached, together with all interest thereon to the date of delinquency of the first installment thereof next falling due.

Such notice shall further state that the first installment of such assessment shall become due and payable during the thirty (30) day period succeeding a date one (1) year after the date of first publication of such notice, and annually thereafter each succeeding installment shall become due and payable in like manner.

If the whole or any portion of any assessment remains unpaid after the first thirty (30) day period herein provided for, interest upon the whole unpaid sum shall be charged at the bond rate, and each year thereafter one (1) of said installments, together with interest due upon the whole of the unpaid balance shall be collected.

Any installment not paid prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period during which such installment is due and payable, shall thereupon become delinquent. All delinquent installments shall, until paid, be subject to a charge for interest at the bond rate, and to an additional charge of five per cent (5%) penalty levied upon both principal and interest due on such installment or installments.

The bonds herein provided for shall not be issued prior to twenty (20) days after the expiration of the thirty (30) days first above mentioned, but may be issued at any time thereafter. In all cases where any sum is paid as herein provided, the same shall be paid to the city treasurer, or to the officer whose duty it is to collect said assessments, and all sums so paid shall be applied solely to the payment of the awards, interest and costs of such improvements or the redemption of the bonds issued therefor.

In case any city has no official newspaper any publication required under the provisions of this act may be made in any newspaper of general circulation published therein, or in case there be no such newspaper, then in a newspaper published in the county in which such city is located and of general circulation in such city. [L. '15, p. 454, § 14.]

§ 9267. [7814e.] Right of Bondholders to Enforce Collection.

If the city shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay said bonds or to promptly collect any such assessments when due, the owner of any such bonds may proceed in his own name to collect such assessment and foreclose the lien thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall in addition to the principal of such bonds and interest thereon, recover five per centum of such sum, together with the costs of such suit. Any number of holders of such bonds for any single improvement may join as plaintiffs and any number of owners of the property on which the same are a lien may be joined as defendants in such suit. [L. '15, p. 456, § 15.]

§ 9268. [7814f.] Remedy of Bondholder Confined to Assessments.

Neither the holder nor owner of any bond issued under the authority of this act shall have any claim therefor against the city by which the same is issued, except from the special assessment made for the improvement for which such bond was issued, but his remedy in case of non-payment, shall be confined to the enforcement of such assessments. A copy of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each bond so issued. [L. '15, p. 456, § 16.]

§ 9269. [7814g.] Exchange of Bonds.

Whenever any city has heretofore issued bonds for the purpose of paying the awards, interest and costs of local improvements herein authorized, such city may, with the consent of the holders of such bonds, exchange for them bonds authorized by this act. [L. '15, p. 457, § 17.]

§ 9270. [7814h.] Payment of Bond Interest—Calls—Notice.

The city treasurer shall pay the interest on the bonds authorized to be issued by this act out of the respective local improvement funds from which they are payable. Whenever there shall be sufficient money in any local improvement fund against which bonds have been issued under the provisions of this act, over and above sufficient for the payment of interest on all unpaid bonds, to pay the principal of one or more bonds, the treasurer shall call in and pay said bonds. Such bonds shall be called in and paid in their numerical order, commencing with number 1. Such call shall be made by publication in the city official newspaper in its first publication following the delinquency of the installment of the assessment or as soon thereafter as is practicable, and shall state that bonds No. — (giving the serial numbers of the bonds called) will be paid on the day the next interest coupons on said bonds shall become due, and interest on said bonds shall cease upon such date: Provided, that in any city or town not having an official newspaper, such publication may be made in any newspaper of general circulation published therein, or in case there be no such newspaper, then in a newspaper published in the county in which such city or town is located and of general circulation in such city or town. [L. '15, p. 457, § 18.]

§ 9271. [7814i.] Partial Invalidity.

An adjudication of invalidity of any part of this act shall not affect the validity of the act as a whole or any part thereof. [L. '15, p. 458, § 19.]

§ 9272. [7814j.] "City" Defined.

The term "city," when used in this act, means and includes every city and town and each unclassified city and town in the state of Washington. [L. '15, p. 458, § 20.]

"This act": the law of 1915, the title to which indicates that it is merely amendatory of this chapter (Laws of 1907).

"And town," see notes to § 9277, infra.

§ 9273. [7815.] Regrade Assessments.

If any street, avenue or alley, or the right to use and control the same for purposes of public travel, shall belong to any city and such city shall establish a grade therefor, which grade requires any cut or fill, damaging abutting property, the damages to arise from the making of such grade may be ascertained in the manner provided in this act, but such city may provide that the compensation to be made for such damage, together with the accruing costs, shall be added to the cost of the labor and material necessary for the grading thereof, and shall be paid by assessment upon the property within the local assessment district defined by law or the charter or ordinances of such city in the same manner and to the same extent as other expenses of such improvement are assessed and collected. In such cases it shall not be necessary to procure the appointment of commissioners to take the other proceedings herein provided for making such assessments, but all the proceedings for the assessment and collection of such damages and costs, shall, if so ordained by such city, be governed by the charter provisions, law or ordinances in force in such city for the assessment and collection of the costs of such improvements upon property locally benefited thereby: Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the original grading of such street, avenue or alley. [L. '09, p. 151, § 1. Cf. L. '93, p. 207, § 47; L. '05, p. 101, § 47; L. '07, p. 336, § 48.]

Regrade, Damages from: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 185, and cases cited.

§ 9274. [7816.] Proceedings Discontinued.

At any time within six months from the date of rendition of the last judgment awarding compensation for any such improvement in the superior court, or if any appeal be taken, then within two months after the final determination of the appeal in the supreme court, any such city may discontinue the proceedings by ordinance passed for that purpose before making payment or proceeding with the improvement by paying or depositing in court all taxable costs incurred by any parties to the proceedings up to the time of such discontinuance. If any such improvement be discontinued, no new proceedings shall be undertaken therefor until the expiration of one year from the date of such discontinuance. [L. '15, p. 458, § 21. Cf. L. '07, p. 337, § 49; L. '93, p. 208, § 48; L. '05, p. 101, § 48.]

Where a city has condemned land to be paid for by special assessments, and has not abandoned the proceeding within the time limited by this section, the property owner is entitled to receive a warrant in satisfaction of the compensation awarded without waiting for the collection of the assessments, although the city has not taken possession of the property; since the appropriation is complete when the time for abandonment has expired: State ex rel. Murray v. Herdlick, 73 Wash. 301, 131 Pac. 1139.

An abandonment and discontinuance, at first decided upon, is conclusively negatived where the city afterward, within the two months, in effect withdrew the discontinuance and paid the judgments in full and the defendants in condemnation accepted the payments; since the city thereby acquired the property with the consent of the defendants in condemnation and the defendants in the special proceeding cannot object thereto: Spokane v. Pittsburg Land & Imp. Co., 73 Wash. 693, 132 Pac. 633.

§ 9275. [7817.] May Advance from General Fund.

If any city or town shall desire to take possession of any property or do any damage or proceed with any improvement, the compensation for which is to be paid for in whole or in part by the proceeds of special assessment under this act, it may advance from its general funds, or any moneys available for the purpose, the amount of the assessments aforesaid, and pay the same to the owner or into court, as herein provided, reimbursing itself for moneys so advanced from the special assessments aforesaid. If there be no funds available for the purpose, such city may contract indebtedness for the purpose of raising funds therefor, which indebtedness shall be contracted and such proceedings taken therefor as is provided by law for indebtedness contracted for other internal improvements. § 9276. [7818.] Waiver of Jury—Procedure—Appeals—Precedence.

In any proceedings under this act wherein a trial by jury is provided for, the jury may be waived as in other civil cases in courts of record in the manner prescribed by law, and the matter may be heard and determined without the intervention of a jury. Whenever an attempt is made to take private property, for a use alleged to be public under authority of this act, the question whether the contemplated use be really public shall be a judicial question and shall be determined as such by the court before inquiry is had into the question of compensation to be made. When a jury is required for the determination of any matter under this act, such jury may be the same jury summoned for the trial of ordinary civil actions before the court, or the court may, in its discretion, issue a venire to the sheriff to summon as jurors such number of qualified persons as the court shall deem sufficient. Except as herein otherwise provided, the practice and procedure under this act in the superior court and in relation to the taking of appeals and prosecution thereof, shall be the same as in other civil actions, but all appeals must be taken within thirty days from the date of rendition of the judgment appealed from. Proceedings under this act shall have precedence of all cases in court except criminal cases. [L. '07, p. 338, § 51. Cf. L. '93, p. 208, § 50; L. '05, p. 102, § 50.]

§ 9277. [7819.] "Person," "City" and "Town," Defined.

Whenever the word "person" is used in this act the same shall be construed to include any company, corporation or association, the state or any county therein and the words "city" or "town" wherever used shall be construed to be either. § 9278. [7820.] Compensation for Property Taken or Damaged.

If any city has heretofore taken or shall hereafter take possession of any land or other property, or has damaged or shall hereafter damage the same for any of the public purposes mentioned in this act, or for any other purpose within the authority of such city or town, without having made just compensation therefor, such city or town may cause such compensation to be ascertained and paid to the persons entitled thereto by proceedings taken in accordance with the provisions of this act, and the payment of such compensation and costs as shall be adjudged in favor of the persons entitled thereto in such proceedings shall be a defense to any other action for the taking or damaging of such property. [L. '07, p. 339, § 53. Cf. L. '93, p. 209, § 52; L. '05, p. 103, § 52.]

§ 9279. [7821.] Construction as to Cities of Second Class.

In so far as this act relates to cities of the second class, this act shall not be deemed to be exclusive or as repealing or superseding any existing law relative to such cities, covering any subject covered by this act, but as to such cities, this act shall be construed as conferring additional powers and additional remedies, to those now provided by law. § 9280. [7822.] Cities of Adjoining States—Right of Eminent Domain.

Any municipal corporation of any state adjoining the state of Washington may acquire title to any land or water right within the state of Washington, by purchase or condemnation, which lies within any watershed from which said municipal corporation obtains or desires to obtain its water supply. [L. '09, p. 18, § 1.]

§ 9281. [7823.] Pollution of Water Supply.

Any person who shall place or cause to be placed within any watershed from which any city or municipal corporation of any adjoining state obtains its water supply, any substance which either by itself or in connection with other matter will corrupt, pollute or impair the quality of said water supply, or the owner of any dead animal who shall knowingly leave or cause to be left the carcass or any portion thereof within any such watershed in such condition as to in any way corrupt or pollute such water supply, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by fine in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars. CHAPTER XVI.

POLICE MATRONS.

§ 9282. [7824.] Police Matrons in Cities of Ten Thousand Inhabitants.

There shall be annexed to the police force of each city in this state having a population of not less than ten thousand inhabitants one or more police matrons who, subject to the control of the chief of police or other proper officer, shall have the immediate care of all females under arrest and while detained in the city prison until they are finally discharged therefrom. [L. '93, p. 24, § 1.]

§ 9283. [7825.] Police to Assist.

Any person on the police force or, in their absence, any other person present, must aid and assist the matron when from necessity she may require it. [L. '93, p. 25, § 2.]

§ 9284. [7826.] Separate Apartment Required.

For the purpose of effecting the main object of this act, no female under arrest shall be confined in the same cell or apartment of the city jail or prison, with any man whatever. [L. '93, p. 25, § 3.]

"This act" embraces §§ 9282—9287.

§ 9285. [7827.] How Appointed.

No person shall be appointed to the office of police matron unless suitable for the position, and recommended therefor in writing by not less than twenty women in good standing, and residents of the city where the appointment is made. [L. '93, p. 25, § 4.]

§ 9286. [7828.] Term of Office.

A police matron shall hold office for a period of four years, or, until resignation, removal from the city or for cause; and for cause she may be removed at any time by written order clearly stating the cause for her removal, when another matron must be appointed to fill the vacancy without unnecessary delay. [L. '93, p. 25, § 5.]

§ 9287. [7829.] Compensation.

A police matron must be paid such compensation for her services as shall be fixed by the city council, and at such time as may be appointed for the payment of policemen. [L. '93, p. 25, § 6.]

CHAPTER XVII.

PLATS, STREETS, ADDITIONS AND PARKS.

§ 9288. [7831.] Plats to be Recorded.

Any person or persons who may hereafter lay off any town within this state shall, previous to the sale of any lots within such town, cause to be recorded in the recorder's office of the county wherein the same may lie, a plat of said town, with the public grounds (if any there be), streets, lanes, and alleys, with their respective widths properly marked, and the lots regularly numbered and the size stated on said plat. [Cf. L. '58, p. 27, and L. '63, p. 431; Cd. '81, § 2328; 1 H. C., § 743.]

Plats by Land Owners: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 345; Burmeister v. Howard, 1 W. T. 207; Seattle v. Hill, 23 Wash. 92, 62 Pac. 446; Hillman v. Seattle, 33 Wash. 14, 73 Pac. 891; Brazell v. Seattle, 55 Wash. 180, 104 Pac. 155.

The provisions for statutory dedication do not preclude a common-law dedication without the recording of any plat, two things only being necessary—the intention of the owner and an expressed or implied acceptance by the public: Seattle v. Hill, 23 Wash. 92, 62 Pac. 446.

This section does not apply to one who agrees to convey a lot in an unrecorded plat laid off by his predecessors: Opsjon v. Engebo, 73 Wash. 324, 131 Pac. 1146.

§ 9289. [7832.] Additions to be Recorded—Effect of.

Every person hereinafter [hereafter] laying off any lots in addition to any town shall, previous to the sale of such lots, have the same recorded under the like regulations as are provided for recording the original plat of said town, and thereafter the same shall be considered an addition thereto. [Cf. L. '58, p. 26, § 3; L. '63, p. 431, § 3; Cd. '81, § 2330; 1 H. C., § 744.]

Cited in 45 Wash. 384.

§ 9290. [7833.] Plats to be Acknowledged.

Every person whose duty it may be to comply with the foregoing regulations shall at or before the time of offering such plat for record, acknowledge the same before the auditor of the proper county, or any other officer who is authorized by law to take acknowledgment of deeds, a certificate of which acknowledgment shall be indorsed on or annexed to such plat and recorded therewith. In all cases where any person or persons, corporation or corporations shall desire to file a plat, map, subdivision or replat of any property or shall desire to vacate the whole or any portion of any existing plat, map, subdivision or replat, such person or persons, corporation or corporations must, at the time of filing the same for record or of filing a petition for vacation thereof, file therewith a certificate from the proper officer or officers who may be in charge of the collection of taxes for which the property affected may be liable at that date, that all taxes and assessments which have been levied and become chargeable against such property at such date have been duly paid, satisfied and discharged. [Cf. L. '58, p. 26, § 4; L. '63, p. 431, § 4; Cd. '81, § 2331; 1 H. C., § 745; L. '93, p. 419, § 1.]

§ 9291. [7834.] Filing Plats—Taxes.

Any person filing a plat subsequent to March 1st, in any year and prior to the date of the collection of taxes, shall deposit with the county treasurer a sum equal to an increase of twenty-five per cent of the amount of the tax for the previous year on the property platted. The treasurer's receipt for said amount shall be taken by the auditor as evidence of the payment of the tax. The treasurer shall appropriate so much of said deposit as will pay the taxes on the said property when the tax-rolls are placed in his hands for collection, and in case the sum deposited is in excess of the amount necessary for the payment of the said taxes, the treasurer shall return, to the party depositing, the amount of said excess, taking his receipt therefor, which receipt shall be accepted for its face value on the treasurer's quarterly settlement with the county auditor. § 9292. [7835.] Streets are Public Highways.

Whenever any city or town has been surveyed and platted, and a plat thereof showing the roads, streets, and alleys has been filed in the office of the auditor of the county in which such city or town is located, such plat shall be deemed the official plat of such city or town, and all roads, streets, and alleys in such city or town, as shown by such plat, [shall] be and the same are declared public highways: Providing, that nothing herein shall apply to any part of a city or town that has been vacated according to law. [Cf. L. '77, p. 314, § 1; L. '71, p. 299, § 1; Cd. '81, § 3049. Cf. Cd. '81, § 2332; 1 H. C., § 746.]

The public control of streets and highways in this state does not amount to an ownership of the fee under this section and section 9310, infra, which declare the effect and purpose of dedication of city lots: Schwede v. Hemrich

The laws in force prior to this section did not expressly require any acceptance by the public of lands or additions dedicated to the public: Thonney v. Rice, 43 Wash. 708, 86 Pac. 713.

§ 9293. [7836.] Public Highways, Streets Over Tide Lands are.

All streets in any incorporated city in this state, extending from high tide into the navigable waters of the state, be and the same are hereby declared public highways. [L. '90, p. 733, § 1; 1 H. C., § 747.]

See Const., Art. XV, § 3, right to extend streets over tide lands.

§ 9294. [7837.] Control of, by Authorities.

All streets declared public highways under the provisions of this and the last preceding section shall be under the control of the corporative authorities of the respective cities. [L. '90, p. 733, § 2; 1 H. C., § 748.]

§ 9295. [7838.] Streets Over Tide Lands Under Supervision of Cities.

All streets and alleys, which have been heretofore or may hereafter be established upon, or across tide and shore lands of the first class shall be under the supervision and control of the cities within whose corporate limits such tide and shore lands are situated, to the same extent as are all other streets and alleys of such cities, and all acts of supervision and control thereof by such cities hitherto within one year last past are hereby confirmed and declared valid to the same extent that they would be valid in the case of other streets and alleys of such cities. [L. '01, p. 346, § 1.]

§ 9296. [7839.] Validation of Leases of Vacant Streets on Waterfront.

Whenever the council of any city or town has heretofore by resolution or ordinance, or either, or both, found that any street or streets, or specified portions thereof, upon the waterfront, within or in front of such city or town, are imaginary streets, existing only upon maps or plats, and that the same in the portions specified have never been opened for public travel or improved as public highways, and that it will be for the best interest of such city or town, its trade or commerce, not to take possession of or improve any such street or specified portions thereof, and that the closing of such street or specified portions thereof for a period therein provided, and the occupancy of the space so closed by persons, or corporations, for the purpose of trade, commerce, navigation, transportation, manufactures, or other industries, will be without injury to any public or private interest, but will be of great benefit to the public and such community, and therein authorizing such occupancy for such purposes, for the period therein specified, such resolutions, ordinances, and the action of the council of such city or town as therein determined and set forth are hereby validated: Provided, that this shall not be construed as validating any such lease for a longer term than thirty years from the date of the commencement of the term mentioned in such lease: And provided further, that this section shall not apply to cities of the first class. [L. '99, p. 84, § 1.]

§ 9297. [7840.] Proceeding to Vacate Streets, etc., by Abutting Owners.

Any person or body corporate in any city owning an interest in any real estate abutting upon any street or alley who may desire to vacate such street or alley, or any part thereof may petition the city council of such city or town to make vacation, giving a description of the property to be vacated, which petition shall be filed with the city clerk of said city or town; and, (if said petition shall be signed by the owners of more than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the private property abutting upon the part of such street or alley sought to be vacated) said city council shall, by resolution, fix a time when said petition shall be heard and determined, which time shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than twenty (20) days after the date of the passage of such resolution and upon the passage of such resolution it shall be the duty of the city or town clerk to give twenty (20) days' notice of the pendency of said petition by a written or printed notice set up in three (3) of the most public places in said city or town and a like notice in a conspicuous place on the street or alley sought to be vacated, which said notice shall contain a statement that a petition has been filed to vacate said street or alley which shall be described in said notice, together with a statement of the time and place fixed for the hearing of said petition. § 9298. [7841.] Vacation by Ordinance.

At the time appointed for the hearing of said petition or at such time as the time may be adjourned to by the city council, the same shall be heard, and if the council shall determine to grant said petition or any part thereof, such city or town shall be authorized and have authority by ordinance to vacate such street, or alley or any part thereof. [L. '01, p. 176, § 2.]

§ 9299. [7842.] Vacated Portion Goes to Abutting Property.

When any street, alley or public way in any incorporated city or town in this state has heretofore been or may hereafter be vacated by the council or legislative body of said city or town, the property within the limits of any such street, alley or public way so vacated shall belong to the abutting property owners, one-half to each, unless within six months after the taking effect of this act, any person or corporation, who may feel himself or itself aggrieved by such a division, may commence an action in the proper courts of this state to determine the title to any such street, alley or public way so vacated. § 9302. [7845.] Vacation—Conditions.

Said court, if satisfied that the aforesaid notice has been given, may, in their discretion, vacate the same, with such conditions and restrictions as they may deem reasonable and for the public good. [L. '58, p. 27, § 2; L. '63, p. 432, § 2; L. '69, p. 410, § 2; Cd. '81, § 2334; 1 H. C., § 750.]

§ 9303. [7846.] Effect of Vacation.

The part so vacated, if it be a lot or lots, shall vest in the rightful owner, who may have the title thereof according to law; and if the same be a street or alley, the same shall be attached to the lots or ground bordering on such street or alley; and all right or title thereto shall vest in the person or persons owning the property on each side thereof, in equal proportions: Provided, the lots or grounds so bordering on such street or alley have been sold by the original owner or owners of the soil; if, however, said original owner or owners possess such title to the lots or ground bordering said street or alley on one side only, the title to the same shall vest in the said owner or owners if the said court shall judge the same to be just and proper. [L. '58, p. 27, § 3; L. '63, p. 433, § 3; L. '69, p. 410, § 3; Cd. '81, § 2335; 1 H. C., § 751.]

§ 9304. [7847.] Proceedings to Vacate in Incorporated Towns.

In cases where any person interested in any incorporated town in this state may desire to vacate any street, alley, lot, or common, or any part thereof, it shall be lawful for such person to petition the trustees in like manner as persons interested in towns not incorporated are authorized to petition the board of county commissioners; and the same proceedings shall be had thereon before such trustees, or other body corporate having jurisdiction, as are authorized to be had before the board of county commissioners; and such trustees or other corporate body may determine on such application, under the same restrictions and limitations as are contained in the foregoing provisions. [L. '58, p. 27, § 4; L. '63, p. 433, § 4; L. '69, p. 410, § 4; Cd. '81, § 2336; 1 H. C., § 752.]

§ 9306. [7849.] Defective Plats Legalized.

All city or town plats, or any addition or additions thereto, heretofore made and recorded in the county auditor's office of any county in the state of Washington, showing lots, blocks, streets, alleys, or public grounds, shall be conclusive evidence of the location and size of the lots, blocks, and public grounds, and the location and width of each and every street or alley marked, laid down, or appearing on such plat, and that all the right, title, interest, or estate which the person or persons making or recording such plat, or causing the same to be made or recorded, had at the time of making or recording such plat in or to such streets, alleys, or public grounds, was thereby dedicated to public use, whether the same was made, executed, or acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of the laws of this state in force at the time of making the same, or not. [Cd. '81, § 2338; 1 H. C., § 754.]

§ 9307. [7850.] Copy of Plat or Addition—Evidence.

A copy of any city or town plat or addition thereto recorded in the manner provided for in the preceding section, certified by the county auditor of the county in which the same is recorded to be a true copy of such record and the whole thereof, shall be received in evidence in all the courts of this state with like effect as the original. [Cd. '81, § 2339; 1 H. C., § 755.]

Cited in 5 Wash. 616.

§ 9308. [7851.] Power to Correct Defects—Effect of.

Whenever the recorded plat of any city, or addition thereto, does not definitely show the location or size of lots or blocks, or the location or width of any street or alley in such city or addition, the city council of the city in which the land so platted is located is hereby authorized and empowered by ordinance, and the action of its proper officers, to cause a new and correct survey and plat of such city or addition to be made and recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county in which such city or addition is located, which corrected plat shall follow the plan of the original survey and plat, so far as the same can be ascertained and followed, and a certificate of the officer or surveyor making the same shall be indorsed thereon, referring to the original plat corrected thereby, and the deficit [defect] existing therein, and corrected by such new survey and plat; and the ordinance authorizing the making of such plat shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor of said county, and said certificate shall show where said ordinance is recorded; and such plat, when so made and recorded, or a copy thereof certified as provided in section 9307, shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this state. [Cd. '81, § 2340; 1 H. C., § 756.]

§ 9309. [7852.] Incorporated Cities to Regulate Surveys and Plats.

All incorporated cities in the state of Washington are hereby authorized and empowered to regulate and prescribe the manner and form of making any future survey or plat of lands within their respective limits, and enforce such regulations by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars, to be recovered by and in the name of such city, or imprisonment not exceeding twenty days for each violation, of any ordinance regulating such survey and platting: Provided, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed so as to apply to additions to towns in which no lots have been sold. [Cd. '81, § 2341; 1 H. C., § 757.]

§ 9310. [7853.] Effect of Donation Where Marked on Plat.

Every donation or grant to the public, or to any individual or individuals, religious society or societies, or to any corporation or body politic, marked or noted as such on the plat of the town, or wherein such donation or grant may have been made, shall be considered, to all intents and purposes, as a quitclaim deed to the said donee or donees, grantee or grantees, for his, her, or their use, for the purposes intended by the donor or donors, grantor or grantors, as aforesaid. Dedication, §§ 7, 9.

§ 9311. [7854.] Changes in Town Sites, Plats, etc., Procedure.

Whenever three-fourths in number and area of the owners of any town site, city plat or plats, addition or additions, or part thereof, shall be desirous of altering the plat or plats, replatting or vacating the same, or any part thereof, they may prepare a plat or plats, showing such alterations or replat, drafted upon a copy of the existing plat or plats, or that portion desired to be altered, replatted or vacated, and file the same with the clerk of the board of county commissioners, or city council having jurisdiction of the establishment or vacation and control of the streets to be affected, accompanied with a petition for the change desired. [L. '03, p. 139, § 1.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 185.

The city council can only approve or reject the petition in its entirety, and an order altering the proposed replat is void; the orders required by justice, etc., referring to the necessary assessments and awards, and not to modifications of the replat: Brazell v. Seattle, 55 Wash. 180, 104 Pac. 155.

Under this section the council has no power to modify the proposed replat, but must approve or reject it in its entirety, and an order approving part of the vacation petitioned for is void: Brazell v. Seattle, 55 Wash. 180, 104 Pac. 155.

§ 9312. [7855.] Notice and Time of Hearing.

Thereupon and upon the payment of the cost thereof the said clerk shall fix a time for the hearing of said petition, which time shall not be less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the filing of said petition, and shall cause a notice to be issued under his hand and the seal of said county or city, stating by whom and when said petition was filed, the object thereof and when and where the same will be heard. Said notice shall also describe the property sought to be altered, replatted or vacated. [L. '03, p. 139, § 2.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 185.

§ 9313. [7856.] Service—Same as Civil Action.

Said clerk shall cause said notice to be served, as in the manner provided for service of summons in civil actions, upon all the owners of property not joining in said petition as shown by the records in the auditor's office of the county wherein the town site, plat or plats, addition or additions may be located. [L. '03, p. 139, § 3.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 185.

§ 9314. [7857.] Jurisdiction of Commissioners or City Council.

Thereafter such board of county commissioners, or city council shall have full and complete jurisdiction to inquire into and determine the merits of the changes or relief prayed for, assess damages or benefits, award the same and make such order in the premises as justice and the public welfare may require. [L. '03, p. 140, § 4.]

Cited in 55 Wash. 185, 187.

§ 9315. [7858.] Assessment District—Damages and Benefits.

The whole of the land embraced in the plat or plats proposed to be altered, replatted or vacated shall be and constitute an assessment district, and damages shall be assessed and benefits awarded as now provided by law for the establishment, alteration or vacation of streets, alleys and roads by said board of county commissioners and city council. [L. '03, p. 140, § 5.]

§ 9316. [7859.] Plats Filed—Order Filed, When Vacation Merely.
